

Escape Wife 131

Chapter 131: My heart only beats for you in my life

“What do you want to do?”

Nicole became a little nervous.

“What do you think? my wife!”

Samuel Green's voice became hoarse again.

Nicole felt that she was as helpless as a white rabbit in front of Samuel. She pushed Samuel away and said, “I'm hungry, I want to eat something.”

“I'm hungry too.”

Samuel took her hand in time.

Nicole felt that the hot temperature in his palms made her feel powerless.

“Please, remember you are a patient, OK?”

Nicole couldn't refuse too much, but she really cared about Samuel's body.

Seeing that Nicole was really distressed, Samuel stopped teasing her and took her hand to the table and the two quietly finished their breakfast.

“If you are not tired, let's talk about car design drawings?”

There have been so many trivial things in the past few days that Nicole has abandoned her own job. Now thinking of her purpose of coming to the Seapolis City, she wants to quickly get the design drawings out during injury.

Samuel then remembered that there was one more thing.

“You can still remember to work at this time. It seems that I didn't work hard.”

Samuel said depressedly. He felt that his charm was not as good as before. Otherwise, why would Nicole still have the idea of designing?

In the past, Nicole didn't think of anything when she saw him.

Seeing Samuel's childish appearance, Nicole said with a smile, “President Green, you can think about it. I am the car designer that you invited back to participate in the cooperation. Now the day of cooperation signing is getting closer, but the design drawings still don't have a clue at all. I won't be able to explain to Allen when that happens.”

Hearing Nicole talking about Allen Brook again, Samuel couldn't bear it this time.

He approached Nicole again and asked word by word, “Allen is kind to you and our child, but Nicole, I am a man, I will be jealous. I am grateful for his dedication to you and the child, but only thanks. I don't care what kind of emotion you have towards him, but I will never let go of you and our child. Never!”

When Nicole saw him being so serious, she suddenly smiled and said, "Allen is just my good friend, or my brother is more precise. In the past five years, he has guarded me and our children like a family member. I owe him more than I can pay. If you are really thinking about me, please don't make me embarrassed. I am a designer from the H'J Group and I was sent to work with you. I still hope that we can reach a consensus on business, okay?"

Samuel has never seen such Nicole.

When she talked about work, her eyes seemed to flicker. The love for this kind of industry and enthusiasm for work made

Samuel a little fascinated for a while.

"You really like car design?"

Although I didn't understand at the time, I still felt that the things you drew were the best. Later. When I was abroad, Allen said that I need to have a great skill, so that I and our children can stand up in this society in the future. I didn't know what was wrong at the time and your drawings suddenly appeared in my mind. I found that I actually really like those lines, so I applied for the car design profession. Chapter 132: As long as you don't dislike me

“Mr. Bush and Mrs. Bush, why are you here?”

Jacob was really surprised.

This place is very secretive and he also blocked the news of Samuel's hospitalization. He was afraid that others would cause panic, but he did not expect that Nicole's father and mother would actually find here.

Mrs. Bush only smiled when she saw Jacob.

“Special Assistant? Great, I heard that Samuel was injured, right? I and Mr. Bush came over to see him specially.”

Although Mrs. Bush said so, her eyes were always a little worried and she obviously wanted to see Samuel.

Jacob knew that their identities were special and said with a smile, “Mr. Green has something to go out. In fact, his injuries are not serious. You bothered.”

“Well, he’s not here.”

Mrs. Bush was obviously very disappointed, her eyes seemed to suddenly lose their color.

Seeing them like this, Jacob couldn't help but say, “Mr. Green is not here, but Miss Bush is here.”

“Miss Bush?” Mr. Bush couldn't help asking, his eyes a little hot.

Jacob reacted and said with a smile, “It’s Miss Catherine. She is drawing a design in the room.”

When she heard that it was Catherine, Mrs. Bush's eyes returned to color again.

“Can we go in and see her?”

“Well...”

Jacob actually didn't want anyone to approach Nicole and he also knew that Nicole was drawing the design, but the old couple in front of him were not other people, they were Nicole's biological parents, so he couldn't turn them away.

“Well, I'll go in and talk to Miss Catherine, please wait a moment.”

Jacob smiled faintly, turned and walked towards the ward.

Jason felt that he was fooled by Jacob.

“Didn't you say that Catherine is busy and not seeing guests? How can they do?”

Jacob said neither humble nor overbearing, "Their identities are different, Mr. Don."

"What are they?"

"They are President Green's parents-in-law. Does Mr. Don still have questions?"

Jacob smiled faintly, but the smile did not reach the bottom of his eyes.

Jason was somewhat surprised.

They are actually Nicole's parents?

Jason heard something about Samuel's former wife. Now seeing his parents-in-law, he suddenly became interested in Samuel's former wife.

Chapter 133: Are you in love with someone else

“Tim Louis? Why are you here?”

Nicole felt that she hadn't seen Tim for a long time. Except for Tim's help last time, this person seemed to be out of contact.

She didn't expect that he suddenly appeared silently in Samuel Green's ward.

Tim's face was very bad, even with a trace of grievance and he was even more heartbroken when he saw Nicole.

“Did you fall in love with others? Didn't you love me? Otherwise, why wouldn't you be happy to see me at all?”

Accustomed to Tim's exaggeration, Nicole smiled and said, “What have you been up to lately? I haven't heard from you. I thought you were closed.”

There was nothing wrong with this sentence, but it was abnormally harsh in Tim's ears.

He just learned that Nicole's son Lucas Bush had an accident, but everything was over.

If he hadn't let people shut down all communication systems before and blocked everyone's contact, it is estimated that he would not miss such an opportunity.

Seeing that the most difficult period for Nicole was that Samuel spent with her, He was very regretful.

“Beauty, you can't find me on the phone, why don't you go to my house to find me? As long as it is you, I promise to have time anytime and anywhere.”

Tim became annoyed again. What was he thinking and he closed the door and disappeared at such a critical time.

Nicole smiled and said, “It's nothing serious. Besides, you don't want others to contact you. You must have something to do. I don't need to disturb you. Okay, now there is nothing. You are here to tell me about this?”

“If I said I regret refusing to meet guests behind closed doors, would you forgive me?”

The more Nicole said so, the more uncomfortable Tim felt.

He felt that what he missed was not a rescue, but a lifetime of happiness. Although this feeling is a bit absurd, it is indeed what he thinks now.

Nicole saw his annoyed look and smiled and said, "I know what you are thinking. You are my best friend. No matter what time

I believe that as long as you have time, you will definitely help me. Tim, forget it. Isn't it all right now?"

"But I was not by your side when you had an accident and you don't tell me now. I'm very sad, beauty, you don't have me in your heart at all! No, you have to make up for me."

Tim felt more aggrieved as he talked and he almost shed tears the next moment.

Nicole couldn't see him like this and said quickly, "Okay, how can I compensate you?"

"How about come with me for a meal?"

Tim said with a smile.

Nicole looked at the time and said, "It's not time to eat yet."

"Then accompany me for a cup of coffee, anyway, you have to accompany me for a while, otherwise my broken heart will not get better."

Chapter 134: You have forgotten who you are for so many years

This is too heavy to say.

If it was before, no matter who the other party was, Samuel would believe what Zama said. He felt that Zama was an old man in the Green family and could not care about a child, but who is this child now?

That is his biological son!

Although Zama said she was his wet nurse, she was a servant of the Green family after all and lived on the wages given by the Green family. Now that a servant was actually bullying the master, Samuel's anger did not calm down at all, but it burned even more fierce.

He stood up and hugged Lucas directly in his arms, only to realize that Macon and Joseph, who were supposed to protect Lucas at home, were gone.

“Where are Macon and Joseph?”

Samuel looked at Zama coldly, showing no friendship at all.

Zama said with tears and nose, “Young Master has a fever, I told Macon to take Young Master to the hospital for a look. He is too delicate to be delayed in seeing a doctor.”

“Joseph delicate, Lucas can be bullied by you at will, right? Zama, although you are my wet nurse, I have been polite to you over the years, but have you forgotten that you are just a servant of the Green family? Lucas is my son! My biological son of Samuel! I've already told you about this in front of the whole Seapolis City people. How can your servant treat the master of the Green family like this? You have forgotten who you are for so many years, have you?”

Samuel said these words mercilessly, like a sharp knife that pierced Zama chest deeply.

She looked at Samuel in surprise, as if she didn't believe that Samuel would say such things and she felt very wronged.

“Sir, you said that I am a servant, but for more than 20 years, I have regarded the Green family as my own home. Everything I do is for the sake of you, for this family!”

“Really? You talk nonsense to my mother without my permission and say it good for me? Knowing that I love Catherine and knowing that I say that Lucas is my son, you can still treat him as a wild boy. He is only a four-year-old child! You are over fifty. How can you still be so unreasonable? And this vase, you said that Lucas broke it, I want to ask, what do you have evidence? Don't say you don't call up any surveillance to investigate the truth of the matter, even if it was really broken by Lucas, so what? I plan to leave the whole Green family to him and you have no right to teach him a lesson. Do you really think you are the hostess of the Green family? Do I give you the position of president of Eternal Group?”

This is getting colder and colder.

Zama couldn't handle it.

She thought that Samuel would be angry and that Samuel would be unhappy, but she never expected Samuel to speak so mercilessly.

There are still many servants in the house. She didn't let the servants leave the living room in order to humiliate Lucas. She didn't expect that the scene that she taught by Samuel would be seen by all the servants.

Zama only felt hot on her face. These words were more embarrassed for her to accept than Samuel slapped her in public.

Chapter 135: Do You Really Think I'm Blind?

Lucas is a computer genius and only Joseph and Samuel Nicole know about it. As for other people, they would never have thought that a child as small as Lucas would have such great computer skills.

So Zama must have never thought of it.

When she saw Samuel holding Lucas Bush down, Zama had already stood up from the floor and instructed the servant to take medicine wine.

“Sir?”

Zama hurriedly got up, but caused a waist injury. She yelled twice. When she found that Samuel didn't care about her at all, her eyes were a little dim, with a trace of pain and sadness.

Samuel completely ignored her small movements. For him, Zama did too much this time.

“Luna, take the monitor in the monitoring room and bring it over. I need to see what is going on with this vase.”

Samuel said coldly.

Luna hurried to the monitoring room.

Zama didn't feel nervous at all. In her opinion, the video in the surveillance room had been closed by her and there would be no footage by then and she can say anything.

Although Samuel said that Lucas was the son of him and Nicole, Lucas was the child of the Green family, she would not believe it until she saw the appraisal report.

It may be that Catherine said this deliberately to confuse Mr. Green.

The fire that year was so intense that everything was burned to ashes. She didn't believe Nicole could escape from the fire and even gave birth to the child.

Lucas has been sitting quietly in Samuel's arms and he found that Samuel's embrace is different from that of Nicole. It is particularly powerful and a sense of security.

He leaned in a comfortable position in Samuel's arms, closed his eyes and rested, not looking at the resentful eyes that Zama glared at.

Seeing him leaning against his arms like a kitten, Samuel's chest suddenly became full.

Maybe this is the feeling of the father and son relationship?

So satisfied and happy. At this moment he couldn't wait to bring all the best things in the world to Lucas.

Seeing the tenderness and pampering in Samuel's eyes, Zama's face was a bit ugly. She wanted to say something, but she still held back.

Luna quickly brought the surveillance video over.

Samuel did not dare to move, for fear that he would move Lucas. He enjoys such a moment very much. It feels really good to

Chapter 136: He has a pair of beautiful tapered eyes

Samuel really didn't want to let Lucas go. He wanted to hold him like this and it wouldn't be annoying to hold him like this for a lifetime.

His body is soft and fragrant, making people love it.

Lucas could detect Samuel's affection for him, as if he had become more and more indulgent in him since he knew he was his son. And he didn't reject the feeling that he didn't hate it and he even wanted to be pampered.

He smiled and said, "Oh, go quickly, that woman doesn't know what's going on, she shed so much blood."

Being reminded by Lucas, Samuel's good mood was immediately destroyed.

"I will leave when Macon comes back. I worry about you being at home alone."

What Samuel said was the truth.

Now Petty still doesn't know where, Macon will not come, he is not at ease with everyone around him, it is absolutely impossible to leave Lucas at home alone.

Fortunately, as soon as this sentence was finished, Macon had already brought Joseph in.

“Boss, I'm back.”

Joseph ran towards Lucas, only to find that Samuel was also there and quickly said with a smile, “Daddy, are you back?”

Instructor Joe said that you have been very busy recently and I haven't seen you for several days.”

Regarding the kidnapping of Lucas, nobody told Joseph. Joseph had been extremely exhausted by Macon's training these days. Without Lucas, he was boring.

Every day, besides sleeping, he still slept.

Now that Lucas by his side, Samuel is also back, Joseph is somewhat excited.

Samuel looked at Joseph and said with a smile, “Daddy will be out in a while, let Lucas stay with you.”

“Great!”

Joseph hugged Lucas happily and said, “Boss, I told you that hospital is pitted. I just feel sick in my stomach. The doctor has to ask me to have a blood test. The blood on the bed hurts! I almost cried at the time!”

“Coward!”

Zoe Bush's shadow immediately appeared in Lucas's mind.

Since childhood, Zoe didn't know how much blood was drawn. He was afraid that the blood on Zoe's body was not enough, so he worked hard to make himself stronger. If Zoe needed blood bank, he would give her his blood.

Now Joseph screamed because of a blood draw, which really made Lucas Bush look down upon.

Joseph knew that he was despised by Lucas Bush, but he said indifferently, “I'm just so good, but I didn't cry! Would you like to reward me?”

“I reward you with a kick?”

Lucas thought how could there be such a shameless person as Joseph in this world?

But he is still his brother!

Samuel saw them teasing each other and then said to Macon on the side, “No matter what happens in the future, don't leave Lucas alone at home.”

Chapter 137: I'm afraid we won't drink today's coffee

"I'm afraid today's coffee won't be made."

Although Nicole was smiling, the smile did not reach the bottom of his eyes.

She knew the person who came in front of her, Riley's mother Swift Jerry.

When she married Samuel, Swift once troubled her. At that time, Nicole knew that Swift was not a simple character. Now that Riley has just been arrested, Swift is here again. Nicole already knows who she is a troubled woman.

Tim was shocked.

"Why? You don't even want a cup of coffee, do you?"

He smiled faintly, but found that Nicole's eyes were not right. Following Nicole's eyes, Tim saw Swift walking towards this side angrily.

Tim frowned slightly.

Swift quickly arrived in front of Nicole and poured the coffee beside her at Nicole.

Nicole had been prepared for a long time and directly measured her body and coffee passed her face.

"You are a bitch!"

Swift's eyes were full of hatred and that kind of hatred seemed to be carved in his bones, which made it impossible to ignore.

Nicole frowned slightly and her brain moved quickly.

Her current appearance does not look like Nicole at all, even if she came for Riley, she wouldn't have such deep hatred. But Swift's eyes did make Nicole more vigilant.

"Madam, what are you doing? We have never known each other. You have been rough at first, isn't it good?"

Nicole said calmly, but Swift trembled with anger.

This bitch didn't die in the sea of fire five years ago and now she came back with a different face. Though she was calmer and more vigorous, she was only fighting Samuel's momentum.

Remembering that her daughter took five years to have obtained a little part of Samuel's heart and even gave birth to a child to the Green family, but now she has fallen short because of the Nicole in front of her, Swift can't wait to kill Nicole in person.

"I don't know? Are you? But I know you. I knew you five years ago. Don't you remember me? That feast in the Flower Hall, did you eat well?"

Swift simply didn't bother to fight a riddle with Nicole.

Chapter 138: The Glory of Motherhood

Nicole's hands were shaking.

She even wanted to cry.

This is the daughter she tried to keep, but Samuel didn't even know her existence. If she told Samuel, she would be sure that Samuel would rush over and match the shape immediately, but Samuel's current physical condition is really not suitable for any surgery.

Nicole was anxious, but had to wait. This kind of suffering made her unhappy, but she didn't dare to talk to Zoe.

When Zoe heard that Nicole said the same, she immediately became happy.

"Mummy, I will wait for you to come back, I will definitely! I am very strong. Yesterday the dean's grandma told me that I am the strongest girl in the world!"

Nicole's tears shed again.

Tim saw Nicole's tears from the window and he was a little distressed. He wanted to stand up to comfort Nicole, but he couldn't bear to disturb Nicole.

Maybe Nicole didn't even know it. At this time, she seemed to be covered with a halo and the invisible brilliance made her whole person particularly gentle, warm and even with an indescribable feeling.

And that feeling is like rain showers on Tim's heart. He suddenly felt that Nicole at this time was like a goddess, which could be viewed from a distance and could not be played with.

Not knowing what kind of psychology, Tim took out the money and put it on the table. Although he still has a lot of doubts and explorations about Nicole, at this moment, he just wants to leave the silence to Nicole alone.

Walking out of the coffee shop, Tim was unwilling, but had to call Samuel again.

Samuel frowned when he saw Tim's call, but he still answered.

“What's the matter?”

“Catherine is in the cafe opposite the hospital. Come and take her away. I have something to leave now, so I can't send her back to the ward.”

“Tim, you took her out and now you are leaving her alone? Do you know she is dangerous now? She...”

“Are you coming or not? I'm leaving.”

Tim didn't want to listen to Samuel's lesson.

He felt that his mind was flooded and he would actually call Samuel. Isn't this sincerely creating opportunities for Samuel?

But taking another look at Nicole who was still on the phone, Tim's heart was slightly uncomfortable.

Samuel hesitated for a while, turned and left, but sent someone to wait for Zama news and hurried to the door of the cafe.

After Tim saw him coming, he left without saying a word.

Samuel turned to look for Nicole and saw Nicole on the phone in the sun. Between her eyebrows, there was a gentleness he had never seen before. The gentleness and gentleness were different from Lucas and seemed to bring a trace of distress and pity.

“Samuel, why are you here?”

Nicole was a little bit surprised. After all, Samuel was often out of sight these past two days and his relationship with Tim was not very good. Now that Tim is no longer there, and Samuel is here, Nicole feels a bit wrong.

Samuel took a hard sigh and put out the cigarette.

“Are you upset that I am here?”

“No, I was with Tim. He left without saying a word, so I was a little curious. He didn't answer the phone when I called him just now. I don't know what's wrong.”

Nicole naturally saw that Samuel was jealous. But she still likes this feeling, but thinking of Zoe, she feels a little heavy.

No way!

She can't indulge in Samuel's tenderness.

The daughter is still waiting for her to save her life, but now Samuel urgently needs to rest.

Nicole's frown made Samuel look at the bottom of his eyes, mistakenly thinking that it was because of Tim's not saying goodbye that he was a little unhappy.

Samuel's chest was slightly sour.

“Nicole, you are different from before.”

She doesn't like him wholeheartedly as before.

The current Nicole always gives Samuel another vague feeling. Although she was by her side, her love for him seemed to be divided into many parts and he could no longer feel Nicole's wholehearted love.

He didn't know whether this was caused by the five-year estrangement. If there was only one more Lucas, he would not be so uneasy. After all, that child is his son. Although he was jealous of Nicole's love for Lucas, But it won't be so boring to be jealous of his son.

But now it is not only Lucas, but also Tim and even Jason who is staring at her.

Although Jason had never expressed interest in Nicole, the look in his eyes Samuel when he saw Nicole was still clear that it couldn't deceive people.

Thinking of Allen in the United States, Samuel suddenly felt under pressure.

If Nicole were to put all her energy on him as before, he would not be so upset, but now a call from the US can make Nicole feel bad for a long time.

He didn't know what Allen and Nicole were talking about. Sometimes he even wanted to eavesdrop on their phones, but he felt that it was too shameless to do so, so he gave up, but the anxiety in his heart expanded day by day.

Nicole didn't know what Samuel meant by saying that it was different. Now her daughter's illness is right in front of her eyes and Samuel's body can't get better in a short time and there is no draft of the case that Allen came to cooperate with. She was almost dying of anxiety, naturally did not notice the loneliness in Samuel's words.

"Of course I'm different. It's been five years. I've been a mother. How can I still be around you like a child all day? You have your own business, don't you?"

Nicole smiled faintly, but in Samuel's eyes, this smile and this thoughtfulness made him feel alienated.

Nicole didn't react much to Zama scream, but coldly said, "Do you want to see Samuel? Do you think you can see him now without my permission?"

Zama was stimulated by Nicole's words.

"Don't think that if you confuse your husband now, you will be able to control your husband forever.
The husband said you are his wife, who escaped from the fire five years ago. You can fool Samuel, but you can't fool me! Let's not talk about look alike, just say your personality, you can't be on the same level as Nicole! Nicole is infatuated with Samuel and would rather hurt herself than Samuel. But you come here After that, what did you do to our Samuel? Samuel said that your wild son is the descendant of the Green Family, shit! You want me to recognize the identity of Lucas, go in the next life! You do not deserve it!"

Zama was so angry that she didn't care about any identity and politeness at all and even when Samuel wanted to drive her out of the Seapolis City for Lucas and Nicole, she wanted to let Nicole die.

Nicole listened to Zama scream and couldn't help but sneered and said, "We do not deserve, it seems it's not a servant of the Green family turn to admit it. Zama, you really don't know who you are. Do you think you are Samuel's who?"

"I'm his..."

Zama's words stopped abruptly.

"What's his? wet nurse? Zama, let me tell you. Samuel should call you a wet nurse in a nice way. To put it bluntly, you are just a servant who works with the Green family's salary. Regardless of what's the identity of Lucas? As long as Samuel admits his identity, he is the master of the Green family! You better not let me know what you do to Lucas, otherwise you don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Nicole hung up the phone directly after speaking.

Zama shivered with anger, and dropped the phone directly. Her eyes were scarlet as blood and she said viciously, "Catherine, as long as I'm here, you don't want to enter the door of the Green family!"

Catherine didn't know what Zama thought at this time.

She returned to the ward, Samuel was still asleep.

Only then did Nicole discover that Samuel's eyes had a black-green. Thinking about it carefully, what Zama said was actually correct. After returning this time, Samuel was injured many times, as if it was for her every time.

The heart that vowed to come back for revenge at the beginning, also disappeared little by little under Samuel's care.

She even felt sorry for Samuel.

Nicole sat beside him and touched his face lightly. Five years' time is enough to make Samuel more masculine, even more charming.

She fantasized about the reunion of a family of four, but heard footsteps outside the door.

Nicole quickly closed her hand, got up and walked out.

The person here was Jacob, who was taken aback when he saw Nicole.

"Madam, where is President Green?"

"He is resting, what's the matter?"

Nicole stood at the door, apparently not planning to let Jacob in.

Jacob was stunned, but thinking of Nicole's meaning and identity to Samuel, he couldn't help but lower his voice and said, "There is news from the police station, Miss Riley is crazy."
