Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1341 What a Trick

"It seemed that there are more than ten people. They can't be sent by Phoenix to pick us up, can they? If so, that's quite something."

Yanice was still joking.

Nicole's expression darkened.

Yanice looked at her and whispered, "Are you going to call Samuel? He must have just left and he should be back in time if you call him now."

Nicole looked at the bracelet and shook her head slightly. "No need. If he comes back, we may be annihilated. I don't want both of us to die here."

"But are you going to sacrifice yourself? You should know that the jealous woman is the most terrifying. What if Phoenix doesn't want to kill you, but want to torment you instead?"

"She shouldn't be such a person."

Nicole sounded pretty sure, causing Yanice to be surprised.

"You have a good impression of her, don't you?"

Nicole smiled bitterly.

Indeed, aside from the fact that Phoenix liked Samuel, Nicole admired and liked Phoenix very much, but they had such different standpoints.

Although she had barely known Phoenix before, Nicole felt that if Phoenix wanted to get rid of her, she would do it straight and would definitely not torture her.

Phoenix would just kill her.

This feeling came suddenly and quickly, but Nicole firmly believed it.

From Samuel's description, Nicole could tell about Phoenix's personality. She was clear about what she loved and what she hated; she was straightforward; and she did things neatly, just as well as a man.

Such a person should be Samuel's helper, not his enemy.

Nicole was drowned in her own thoughts, but Yanice did not understand as she whispered, "Then what should we do now? The people seem to be getting closer and closer to us."

Nicole couldn't keep thinking under such a situation. She grabbed Yanice's hand and whispered, "Follow me."

"You're familiar with this place?"

Nicole did not say anything, but quickly took Yanice to hide.

The hiding place was much concealed, even Yanice had not thought of it.

"The next group of patrols would be here any minute. Let's hurry up and search the surroundings. They might be nearby. We must not let them know our plan and have to kill them secretly."

Nicole's eyes were a little cold when she heard Helen. And Yanice seemed to be ready to fight any time.

The man and Helen hurried with the search.

When they got close to the trash can, Nicole and Yanice had their hearts in their mouths.

Fortunately, the two didn't expect there were people in here.

They searched everywhere but failed. Seeing that the next group of patrols was coming, Helen whispered, "I'll go this way and search a bit more. This is the exclusive passage for women. Perhaps they went this way. The princess said that they are not familiar with this place and if they are caught we'll have to pretend we don't know them, but in order to avoid complications, we'd better find them quick."

"Alright. I'll search the men's passage. They might have followed Rey and snuck in."

After discussion, they parted ways.

Nicole and Yanice could finally relax a little after they were gone.

"What a close call. Looks like this Phoenix has two strings to her bow. I told you, the woman raised in the royal family must be heartless. You are no match for her. We wouldn't have faced such danger if you have followed Samuel's advice."

Yanice was still scared.

Phoenix was no ordinary woman to be able to stay out of incidents. Yanice couldn't help but feel a little worried about Nicole.

However, Nicole smiled and said, "If I don't come this time, how would I know so many interesting things?"

"Interesting? Are you out of your mind? How can this be interesting? What should we do now? We can't stay here forever, can we? Someone who comes to take out the garbage will discover us. We might end up in even more misery."

Looking at Nicole's calm expression, Yanice didn't know if she was scared stupid or something. This kind of Nicole looked unfamiliar.

Nicole ignored Yanice's teasing and took out her phone to call Zayn.

Zayn was the only one she could rely on now.

When Zayn saw it was an unknown number, he frowned slightly.

He looked outside and entered the bedroom with his phone. He turned off all the monitoring equipment before sliding the answer button.

"Who is it?"

"Zayn, it's me. Nicole, I'm in your palace right now, but I can't find a way out. Help me."

Nicole's voice was very low. Zayn got anxious.

"Why are you here? Where's Samuel? He left you alone?"

"I'll tell you later. We're at an intersection where men and women part ways. There's a trash can. We're in it. Come quick."

Zayn froze at her words.

"We? Who are 'we'?"

"Can you stop asking? Do you think it's comfortable to stay in the trash can? Are you my cousin or not?"

Nicole sounded like a spoiled kid.

What should they do?

Nicole and Yanice were afraid.

"You guys go first."

Zayn nudged Nicole.

Nicole was confused.

"Where am I going?"

She was unfamiliar with this place and wanted Zayn to indicate a direction.

But the people were already in front of Zayn.

"Zayn, where are you going? Holy shit. The people behind you just came out of the garbage? They stink."

It was the sixth oldest princess of Country F, Sienna Freeman. Her mother was a daughter of an unknown family. Back then, the family was beset with a crisis, and her mother was sent to Leo to be his ninth wife. After giving birth to Sienna, her mother lost Leo's favor. These years, Sienna and her mother kept a low profile in their palaces and did not associate with anyone else. Sienna rarely came out, like an invisible person.

Zayn had few memories of Sienna. He didn't know if she was his enemy or friend, so he was a little nervous.

"Sienna, where are you going?"

"Come out for a walk. The snowstorm has lasted for three days. Mother said that they might need help outside, so I decided to go out and take a look."

Sienna's voice was as sweet as an oriole's, and there were two sweet, delightful dimples on her face when she was smiling.

However, Zayn knew that she might not be an innocent girl, because she grew up in this palace.

"Then I'll get out of your hair."

Zayn didn't want to continue the conversation, so he held Nicole's hand and was about to leave. But Sienna stopped him.

"Zayn, are you going to Ms. Sally's palace?"

They were indeed going in the direction of Sally's palace, so it wasn't surprising that Sienna guessed.

"Sienna, what do you want to say?"

Zayn knew that it didn't help to say anything now. If there was no other way, he could only....

A trace of coldness and ruthlessness flashed through Zayn's eyes.

Sienna saw it. She shrank in fear and whispered, "Zayn, Father is in Ms. Sally's palace. I saw him when I was passing by. If you want to go, I suggest that you take the people behind you to wash up in case Father gets mad. He doesn't seem to be in a good mood today."

These words reminded Zayn.

"What are you talking about?"

Zayn felt that the Sienna was not as simple as he had thought to be.

Sienna stopped talking because Nicole and the others came back.

"This girl is so beautiful. Who is she?"

Sienna's question made Zayn a little unhappy.

"We are the maids of Mr. Zayn," Nicole said with a smile.

"Maids? Where did you pick them up? Why don't I have such luck? How about you give them to me? I happen to need some maids here."

Sienna was still smiling, but Zayn's expression was cold.

"If you like, I'll have someone send a few more maids over to you later."

"Are you refusing me?"

However, Sienna didn't seem to hear Zayn's words. She smiled sweetly and kept asking.

Nicole knew that Sienna had probably seen through them. It was just that she wasn't sure if there were any other plots.

However, if they followed Zayn to Sally's palace or to Zayn's palace, it might cause trouble to Zayn. If so, they might as well stay here with the Sienna.

"Mr. Zayn, it's fine. We can stay here."

Zayn frowned slightly.

The situation was complicated in the palace. He didn't know how much Nicole had known. However, Zayn felt that it was inappropriate to leave Nicole and Yanice here with Sienna whom even he couldn't see through.

"I think you should come with me."

"What are you worried about? It's fine. I will make sure that they get out of here safely."

Sienna spoke before Nicole replied.

This was more like a promise.

Nicole was not sure whether Sienna was their enemy or friend, but for them, such an arrangement was the best.

"Mr. Zayn, you should go back first."

Nicole winked at Zayn.

Although Zayn was worried, he nodded in the end when considering that Nicole was smart enough and Leo was still searching outside.

"Call me if you need anything."

"Alright."

Nicole smiled as Zayn stood up and left.

"Zayn, you should go back and think about what I said just now. My cousin is still waiting."

Sienna looked at Zayn with a cunning smile. Zayn felt as if he was being targeted by a snake.

Why did Davon insist on supporting him?

Zayn was confused, but he couldn't discuss with Nicole right now, so he could only nod and leave.

Chapter 1345 Nicole Is My Soft Spot

Living in the palace in the last few years, she learned how to play her cards. When hearing that Samuel was going to look for Nicole, Phoenix wanted him to stay. However, she forgot that Samuel was not an ordinary man. He knew what she wanted to do.

She was being stupid.

Then, she glared at Rey and said in a stern voice, "Rey, shut up. Mr. Green didn't do anything to me. I haven't slept well these days, and I lost my balance because I was excited and nervous. My ankle was twisted, but it has nothing to do with Mr. Green."

After saying that, Phoenix looked up at Samuel.

Samuel looked at her with cold eyes and whispered, "Where is the patrol? It'll be good if you can help me. But if you can't, don't stop me. And you know that you are not able to stop me."

Then, Samuel left.

Phoenix paused for a moment before a trace of bitterness and jealousy flashed through her eyes.

'What was so good about Nicole?'

'Was she worth Samuel's saving her without caring about his own safety?'

"Where did she go?"

Phoenix asked in a low voice.

Helen said, "We didn't see her. I've sent Dillan to look for her."

Phoenix was a little worried and disappointed.

'Nicole seemed smart. Did she think that I was not trustworthy?'

'Did she know something?'

Phoenix felt a little uneasy. Then, she got up and whispered, "I'll go after Mr. Green. You guys keep looking for Nicole and try to find her before we do. Then...."

"Understood."

Helen nodded.

Phoenix caught up with Samuel.

"Mr. Green, if you want to save her, come with me. I know a path to the patrol's headquarters, but I don't know if she's there."

Samuel was burning with anxiety now. He didn't pay attention, and he said in a cold voice, "If you were nice to her from the beginning, she would be fine now."

Phoenix felt a little embarrassed.

"Mr. Green, what do you mean? Although I don't like her, I have never thought of harming her."

"But you haven't thought about saving her, either, have you?"

All of a sudden, Samuel stopped and looked at Phoenix, feeling extremely sad.

"Phoenix, I know that you are obsessed with me, and I admit that I owe you something. But Nicole doesn't owe you anything. I thought that you wouldn't hurt her as you did so many things for me and you did them very well. Now I seem wrong. I shouldn't have trusted you with her life or left her."

Samuel said slowly. No one knew how he was feeling right now, but his words shocked Phoenix.

Chapter 1346 I'm Your Sister, Too

This was the first time Samuel had seen Major face-to-face. He looked a little different from he was in the photo, and he was even colder.

Major had these people cleared out and then said, "Keep an eye on Zayn. Don't let go of any details."

"Yes."

Samuel also came down with Major's men. He followed them and found Zayn's residence. Then he hid there.

When Phoenix knew that Samuel went to Zayn's place, she heaved a sigh of relief.

"It looks like Mr. Green is still in contact with Zayn. Is Zayn Mr. Green's subordinate?"

Phoenix couldn't understand why Samuel helped Zayn, but since this was what Samuel wanted, Phoenix understood.

"Notify our people to send all the information we've collected to Zayn."

Rey was slightly stunned.

"Master, we never get involved in the competition for power."

"If Mr. Green supports Zayn, then we will do the same. For me, it doesn't matter who takes the throne of Country F. As long as Mr. Green wants it, I will help him achieve it."

A trace of stubbornness flashed through Phoenix's eyes.

Rey whispered, "Princess, you've paid too much for Mr. Green, but he treats you like this. You really suffer a lot."

"Don't say that. Everything Mr. Green does is right. Remember this."

"Yes."

Phoenix was still worried about Samuel, so she found an excuse to go to see Zayn. Sienna also received the news.

"Princess Sienna, Princess Inez went to see Mr. Zayn. It is said that Mr. Zayn sent medicine to her two days ago. I wonder when they got so close."

Amy's words made Sienna frown.

"Doesn't Inez always dislike their competition for power? Why does she suddenly get so close to Zayn?"

"I'll ask someone to investigate immediately."

After Amy said that, she retreated.

Nicole overheard their conversation and frowned as she quietly returned to her room.

Yanice was staying in her room. Seeing Nicole's expression, she asked, "Did you hear any bad news?"

"Phoenix went to see my cousin. I'm afraid that she will attack him."

This was what Nicole was worried about.

Nicole knew that Phoenix was hostile to her. After all, as a woman who wanted to kill her before meeting her, how could Phoenix show mercy to her families?

Moreover, Sienna said that Phoenix had never participated in their struggles. Could it be that Samuel had put pressure on her because he discovered that Nicole had disappeared?

Then what would Phoenix do with Zayn?

Zayn bowed respectfully, but there were actually no respect in his heart.

This man stood by and watched him when he needed help the most. Now, no matter what his goal was, Zayn would not be influenced by him.

Leo looked at Zayn and his eyes flashed.

Zayn looked like Sally. His eyebrows, expression, and even his cold temperament were similar to Sally's.

Leo waved his hand and let Zayn sit down.

"I've heard you went to see Inez?"

Leo said casually, which surprised Zayn. He whispered, "Yes, Inez has caught a cold. I had nothing to do here, so I went to see her."

"You have nothing to do here? How come I don't know that you two are so close?"

Leo looked at Zayn with a faint smile, but his gaze was still cold.

Zayn was not scared. He looked straight into Leo's eyes and said, "There are still many things that you don't know."

"Well, for example?"

"For example, I went to Sienna's place."

Zayn voluntarily mentioned Sienna.

If Sienna really wanted to support him as she said, this time it would be a test for her. Once Sienna had said something to Leo, he would kill her immediately. This was for the safety of him and Nicole.

Leo frowned slightly.

If Leo discovered that he was hiding in Zayn's place, he wouldn't be able to explain it clearly no matter how Zayn tried.

Samuel frowned slightly. He couldn't understand what Leo meant. Could it be that he was found hiding here?

Or who had betrayed him?

Samuel thought of Phoenix, but immediately shook his head.

Even though Phoenix did not like Nicole and even targeted at Nicole, Samuel was still confident that she would not betray him.

Then why did Leo come here?

Samuel could not understand.

Zayn didn't know about Samuel's worries. He didn't care about it, but a trace of ridicule flashed through his eyes.

Leo kept saying that Nicole was an outsider, but he didn't even believe his own son. He even wanted to find something from here to restrain his son.

This was the relationship between father and son of the royal family.

It was ridiculous!

Fortunately, he didn't have any expectations for this. Otherwise, he didn't know if he would be sad again.

Leo frowned when he saw that Zayn only dodged to the side and didn't stop him from searching the room.

Did he have the wrong guess?

Wasn't it Nicole and Samuel who rescued Yanice?

Zayn had nothing to do with them?

All sorts of questions flashed through Leo's mind. Zayn's expression was calm and he did not stop Leo at all. This was also because he did not know that Samuel was here. If he knew that Samuel was here, Zayn would probably not be like this.

The patrolling guards quickly arrived. They respectfully bowed at Zayn and then began to search the palace.

Samuel's heart tautened.

At this moment, he felt his sleeve being pulled by someone.

Samuel suddenly turned around to fight back. But when he saw it was Nicole, he was stunned.

"Nicole!"

Samuel was pleasant in his heart, but he was also worried and nervous.

If only Nicole could appear before Leo. She showed up at this moment. It would have put him and her in a dangerous situation.

"Follow me."

Nicole seemed to know what Samuel was thinking, so she whispered and pulled him.

Samuel didn't suspect and quietly retreated with Nicole. However, he was surprised. Where they were walking on should be a secret passage.

How would Nicole know?

However, Samuel did not ask. He followed Nicole and left Zayn's palace with great confidence. After walking out, Samuel saw a sweet girl standing there. Seeing them come out, she heaved a sigh of relief.

"You guys are finally back. How is it? Does my father discover you?"

Chapter 1349 We're Family

Just as Nicole was in a dilemma, she heard Samuel say, "How is the relationship between Sienna and Zayn?"

Nicole, who originally wanted to cry, paused for a moment and shook her head. "They just formed an alliance. To be more accurately, it's because of me. I feel that Phoenix is safer to us. At least she won't do anything to you."

These words made Samuel feel very uncomfortable.

"You'll be wronged if you go there."

"Who will be wronged is not certain."

Nicole smiled. The light in her eyes moved Samuel. Then he smiled as well. "Alright. But if she bullies you, you must tell me."

"Of course. You are my dear husband."

Nicole hugged Samuel's arm like a spoiled child. Her body rubbed against Samuel's, which made him feel that his lust was aroused.

"What do you want?"

His voice was hoarse, but Nicole quickly saw the eagerness in his eyes. So she quickly stood up and laughed. "I'm used to it."

"I don't mind it if you are like this at night."

If it wasn't for that the situation now was still dangerous, how could Samuel let her go? Now, he could only look at her and sigh.

Nicole smiled and did not respond.

"If we want to leave, hurry up. I'm afraid that Sienna is unreliable. I'll go to tell Yanice."

Before Samuel could say anything, Nicole already ran away, as if he was very dangerous.

He shook his head with a laugh, but soon his expression became serious.

When he left Phoenix's palace, he spoke so resolutely. Now he was going to bring Nicole back. Would Phoenix hate Nicole?

Thinking of this, Samuel was depressed.

Right at this moment, Phoenix called him.

"Mr. Green, where are you now? My father has gone to Zayn's place. I will go over now. You can take advantage of this opportunity to disguise yourself as one of my guards. I will take you away."

Phoenix's voice was urgent.

To Samuel, Phoenix was reluctant to let him suffer. Leo suddenly went to Zayn's place, which scared Phoenix. Although she was a little dissatisfied with the breach between Samuel and her, she couldn't care about it now.

Hearing this, Samuel whispered, "There's no need to go over. I'm not at Zayn's place. I'll bring Nicole over later. If you find it unacceptable, we'll hide somewhere else."

The implication of these words was that if Phoenix could tolerate Nicole, then he would go over. If not, then he wouldn't go there.

Phoenix was stunned. And she became even more jealous.

Chapter 1350 How Dare She?

Ever since coming to Country F, Samuel had been cold towards Phoenix. She felt aggrieved.
She didn't do anything but let go of her hand. If it weren't Nicole's provocation, how could it be like this?
Nicole was so cunning!

Phoenix glared at Nicole with some resentment.

Nicole naturally knew what Phoenix was thinking. She gave Samuel a nudge and said with a smile, "I told you I'm hungry. But what are you looking at Phoenix for? Are you waiting for her to cook for me?"

It sounded like a joke, but Phoenix could hardly bear it.

This cunning fox actually wanted her to cook?

How dare she?

However, Samuel mistook that Nicole wanted to try Phoenix's cooking, so he said softly, "Phoenix is indeed a good cook. I miss her cooking too. I wonder if we'd have the luck this time."

Phoenix was filled with mixed feelings.

She had learned cooking for Samuel and was very willing to cook for him. But now, it was obvious that it was for Nicole. Phoenix was jealous but she couldn't refuse.

"Mr. Green, anytime for you."

"It's for Nicole."

Samuel stressed 'Nicole'.

Ever since she entered the door, Phoenix had ignored Nicole like she wasn't there. She wouldn't recognize Nicole.

He didn't want to push her, but Nicole was innocent.

She didn't know anything and never did wrong. Why should she pay for her kindness to him?

Phoenix gritted her teeth and forced a smile.

"Okay, if that's what Nicole wants. I'll cook right away."

Then she left.

Helen was a little surprised. In this palace, no one had ever dared to treat the princess like this, and she would not degrade herself for anyone, until this man showed up whom Phoenix tried hard to please. Helen couldn't help but glance at Samuel as she tried to catch up with Phoenix.

"Princess, let me do it. You shouldn't bother."

"It's alright. Didn't you hear him? Mr. Green wants to eat the food I cook. You can help me."

Phoenix had already adjusted her state of mind and even felt a bit of joy.

As long as it was about Samuel, she would do anything. She could just pretend that woman wasn't there.

Seeing how things went, Nicole sighed quietly and said to Samuel, "Did you do it on purpose? You know that's not what I mean."

"She should have a good attitude towards you. You are my wife. This is an unchangeable fact."
