Chapter 1361 I Believe You

"Watch out!"

Samuel suddenly covered Nicole's head. A series of red lights shot at them.

"They knew?"

"Let's go!"

Samuel grabbed Nicole's hand and rolled to the ground. But they seemed to be being watched, and the light tracked them wherever they ran.

Nicole was wondering what was going on.

"Infrared ray?"

"Right."

Samuel wanted to explain to Nicole, but now she had understood.

"My bad. Leo watched every palace with this infrared monitor. That's why when I went to Zayn's palace, Leo showed up. Remember? You and I just arrived at Phoenix's palace, and Leo was there. He had found us a step earlier."

Samuel felt some fear.

"Then Yanice..."

Nicole's expression changed.

"With Fill there, Yanice will leave safely. Even if Leo finds something, he won't find that person."

Samuel didn't dare to say Davon's name, but Nicole understood.

He was afraid there was a listening system.

"What should we do now?"

Nicole and Samuel kept running and hiding, but they were unable to escape. Although they could avoid the attack, the feeling of being chased was terrible. Moreover, the noise here would attract the attention of the guards. They might be caught on the spot.

Samuel was a little anxious.

He glanced at the secret room and whispered, "Perhaps the only safe place now is that room."

"But how do we get in? We don't know how long it takes for infrared rays to scan the palaces."

Nicole was upset.

It was her fault.

If she had told Samuel about this earlier, it might not have happened.

But Samuel did not blame her. He whispered, "Let's go there first. It's not infrared rays. But maybe this light can help us open the room."

Nicole understood.

This was Santino's palace. And he wouldn't rely on Leo's infrared to open his secret room. Maybe there was an infrared scanner here.

Samuel cursed inwardly, but his eyes were already red.
He hugged Nicole in his arms and said softly, "Well, Nicole, it's over."
Finally, Nicole heaved a sigh of relief and collapsed into Samuel's embrace.
Samuel hugged her tightly and smelled her hair while his eyes glowed with a baleful light.
Now that Santino hurt Nicole, Samuel would have to destroy his secret room. And of course, Santino wouldn't get away with it.

Noticing the people who were pursuing them leave, Samuel gently put Nicole aside and went out of the secret room. Suddenly, he closed the curtains to blot out the infrared rays.

No matter when the infrared rays came, once the curtains were drawn, no one knew what he was doing inside.

Samuel searched carefully, then hacked into Santino's computer and removed some important documents. Then he returned to the secret room.

Nicole had woken up. Noticing Samuel come from outside, she asked weakly, "Where did you go?"

"I've got some compensation. Let's go in and see what this secret room is for. Are you okay? Do you need a rest?"

Santino's secret room had become their hiding place. They wouldn't be exposed easily.

Although she was a little weak, Nicole knew that the longer they stayed here, the worse it would be.

"I'm fine. The wound is a little painful, but I can hold on."

It almost broke Samuel's heart.

"Climb up on my back. I'll carry you."

Inside the secret room was a broad passageway. They had no idea where it led.

Nicole had wanted to persevere, but Samuel looked resolute. So, she quickly climbed up on Samuel's back.

She was carried once again. Her heart was filled with sweetness.

"I'm afraid I'll be the only one on your back."

Nicole joked.

"OK."

Samuel replied simply.

Derek did not hear what Laurel said. Instead, he was surprised by Nicole's sudden appearance.

This was Santino's secret room. Other than Santino, no one could enter. Who was this woman? How could she get in?

"I'm the one who will kill you!"

Then Nicole quickly stood up and directly attacked Derek.

The other guards immediately let go of Laurel and surrounded Nicole.

"Catch her!"

Derek was obviously the captain of the team. He quickly moved to defend himself.

Samuel hesitated for a moment. But he couldn't watch Nicole fighting against so many people alone. He suddenly kicked a guard out on the wall.

"How dare you humiliate the Greens?"

Samuel's voice was ice, which frightened Derek and the guards.

However, when she saw Samuel, Laurel got mixed feelings, her face hidden by her long hair.

Did Samuel see how the guards insult her?

She was just in a position that was so undignified and embarrassing. How could Samuel see it?

Laurel panicked, and she couldn't help but recall what Samuel was like when he was a child.

He liked to be with her and call her mom. Although she was his foster mother, she had feelings for him since he grew up before her eyes.

She was infertile and had once treated Samuel as her son. If it wasn't for the king's orders, she wouldn't have harmed Samuel.

But in the end, she was wrong.

She thought that whatever she did to benefit Country F was glorious. She knew it might be unethical and unforgivable sometimes, but for the sake of the national interest, she would rather disobey the voice within her. But what did she get?

The country she believed in and worked for had abandoned her. So she had nothing to abide by and didn't have to live a humiliating life.

She had lived in a humiliating way because there was no hope for her. But now Samuel was here, and she wouldn't disgrace the Greens in front of her son.

She didn't think it was a big deal even if Samuel wanted to kill her because she was happy that perhaps she could be buried in the grave of the Greens. But she did not know if she was qualified to be buried there.

Laurel was disappointed, but she stared coldly at Derek's frightened eyes and said in a cold voice, "You wanted to know who they were? They are Samuel and Nicole, masters of the Greens. You said I should die if I didn't accomplish my mission. But how about you? You are defeated by the Greens. Everyone here can be rescued, which means you can't finish your mission. So do you also deserve to die?"

Derek was stunned. He shook his head, trying to say something but failed.

Laurel ignored his reaction and continued, "You're not qualified enough to mention my mother's identity. No matter what, I'm your aunt! But what did you do to me? I followed your orders because I thought you were my relatives. I left my family and my hometown to be a spy in another country. I betrayed my love, my marriage, and even my whole life to provide information and honor for the country I loved. But after I failed the mission, how did they treat me? Derek, although I'm an illegitimate daughter who isn't qualified to be put on the family tree, you should have respectfully treated me because I am your aunt. But what did you do? How could you ask these bastards to insult me? In Country Z, despite having done something unforgivable, I am still Jadon's legal wife, the matriarch of the Greens. So you don't have the right to humiliate me like this."

Samuel's eyes darkened, but he said nothing.

Nicole did not expect to see Laurel here. She would have forgotten her long ago if she didn't appear today. After all, she thought that she was dead because they didn't see her after that mission.

Perhaps her hiding was what Samuel wanted. But now seeing her again in such a situation, Samuel must feel overwhelmed and couldn't digest it.

Samuel's love for Laure almost faded away because of sorts of things. But now it came back.

After all, he was a man with feelings.

For so many years, despite all kinds of schemes, Samuel and Laurel still had a relationship.

It was just that such a relationship was almost ruined by those schemes.

Hearing Laurel say that she was from the Greens, Samuel felt uncomfortable, but he did not stop her.

Samuel held Nicole's hand, and she could feel his cold sweat on the back of her hand.

Not knowing what to say and what to do, she could only stay with him like this.

Derek wanted to say something, but Laurel didn't allow him to do so.

She raised her saber and soon, Derek was beheaded. She stared straight at other guards with sharpness, which frightened them so much.

But Laurel did not feel sorry for them. Soon, she killed all of them.

She knew that after doing this, she couldn't live in Country F.

Killing her clansmen and letting these women go, she had done an unforgivable crime.

But it didn't matter.

However, Samuel came in front of Nicole to protect her. He looked at Laurel with a complicated expression and said in a low voice, "Don't listen to her. This is Country F, and we don't know if Uncle Mark is here. Let's investigate first."

His words clearly showed that he didn't believe Laurel.

Laurel smiled bitterly.

She had done so many bad things. No wonder Samuel didn't believe her.

"Mark's troops are in the city. As a Miller, I know some news. Mark took a secret mission and left Country Z last year. In fact, the mission is investigating the missing cases of the senior officials' children here. The girls here are the daughters of senior officials from all over the world. After Leo gets them, Santino keeps an eye on them. They are left naked so they can't escape. Even if they escaped from this secret room, they couldn't show up in public. Derek and his people are here to keep an eye on them, and I'm here to take care of their daily necessities."

Laurel told Samuel and Nicole everything she knew.

Looking at the girls curled up in the cage, Nicole felt sorry.

These girls were born in rich and powerful families and used to be the apple of their parents' eyes. But now, they were Leo's prisoners. They were imprisoned here in the dark. It was obvious that Leo valued and trusted Santino a lot.

"Why is Santino so valued by Leo?"

Nicole hated Laurel and even trembled when she recalled the past. However, the karma was real. Seeing Laurel ended up like this, Nicole didn't want to revenge on her anymore. Moreover, Samuel was raised by Laurel. Nicole preferred leaving her to the country to deal with.

Laurel looked at Nicole. This girl was scared and had no dignity in love five years ago, but now, she was shining brightly. Laurel had a complex feeling.

She believed Nicole had treated her as a good mother-in-law, but she had destroyed the wonderful family.

A hint of guilt and sorrow flashed through Laurel's eyes. Then, she said, "One of Santino's relatives on his mom's side is Mr. Alex. Alex's offspring are outstanding, so Leo values Santino a lot."

In the end, it was because Santino's mother had a strong family background.

Nicole immediately understood.

Samuel looked at Laurel and asked in a low voice, "Country F has advanced technologies, so I guess the country is financially abundant. Then, why do he and Jayden covet the lodes in our country?"

Laurel shook her head and said, "If we only developed the economy as usual, we could be self-sufficient. But over the years, the king has been working on military research and nuclear weapons. These studies require a lot of talents and money, but our country is not wealthy enough to cover these funds. Therefore, Jayden has been extorting money from other countries these years to support domestic research and military development."

Now, Samuel understood why Leo and Jayden targeted the lodes.

"So, it was Leo's order to covet the military blueprints I designed for the country, correct?"

Samuel looked at Laurel. He wanted to ask all the remaining questions today. After all, there wouldn't be such an opportunity again.

"Who?"

"Davon Sawyer."

Mark's words stunned Nicole.

Chapter 1366 Can We Believe Her?

"If his biological father doesn't know, then how come you know?"

Nicole felt that Laurel's words didn't make sense.

Laurel didn't get angry and said calmly, "When Davon returned from his studies, the king ordered him to work in the military research institute. But Davon rejected him and said that he is not a citizen of Country F, so it was unreasonable for him to work in the military research institute of Country F. That was when everyone knew that he had changed his nationality at the age of sixteen. At that time, he wasn't the master of the Sawyer family, but he could secretly accomplish such a big thing. People were afraid of him and were suspicious. Afterward, the king sent several groups of people to investigate Davon, but they found nothing. Even those he contacted during his studies had nothing suspicious. So, his identity became even more mysterious."

This wasn't the first time Nicole had heard of Davon's story, but she felt extremely shocked every time.

This man was like a legend, and his stories were all legendary.

Samuel frowned slightly.

Mark had spied for so many years, so he definitely knew a lot of people. Now, he was an outstanding military talent, but he trusted Davon a lot. Davon either had an underworld background or had something to do with the military.

But was it possible that a talented youth born in Country F had something to do with their military?

Samuel wasn't sure, but he was guessing.

Nicole didn't know what Samuel was thinking of, but after hearing Laurel's words and thinking about what others said, she asked in a low voice, "Has anyone seen Davon face to face?"

"No. We heard the child was kidnapped at the age of fifteen and suffered from a fire. His face and body were seriously burned, so he has been wearing a mask since then. The Sawyer family contacted many plastic surgery hospitals, but he refused to go. He seems to have autism and doesn't communicate with anyone. Since he hides in the laboratory all day long, he has made a great contribution to the development of medicine in our country. So, no one forces him."

Laurel's words surprised Nicole.

Davon and she had similarities.

As soon as she turned around, she saw Samuel thinking. She asked, "What are you thinking?"

"I'm thinking about how to enter the banquet to find Davon."

Hearing this, Nicole was somewhat depressed.

Many people in the banquet knew them, such as Major, Santino, and Leo. Even if they dressed up, they would be recognized as long as they showed up. Furthermore, they had probably exposed their identities to the infrared rays and might be caught as soon as they left.

Laurel whispered, "I know another way out of this secret room. It leads to the backyard of the palace, where my father's guards shift. However, I have no way to help you contact Davon after you leave. In my father's eyes, I'm a sinner and a loser who is inferior to even a maid. So, I don't have any right and my words are light."

This was also the pain that Laurel couldn't let go of.

"Hide!"

Samuel quickly grabbed Nicole and let her stand behind him. At the same time, he was searching for a place to hide. However, this place was too spacious that it is hard for them to find a proper place to hide immediately.

Nicole also felt a little anxious.

At this moment, they suddenly heard Laurel's voice.

"Captain, where are you going?"

"Yanice?"

The squad leader was surprised when he saw Laurel and then he subconsciously asked, "Why is Yanice here? Shouldn't she be cleaning the secret room at this time?"

"Yeah. But one girl menstruated. I came out to get something. You know there is no female stuff in Mr. Santino's room."

Laurel replied naturally.

Hearing that, Captain's face reddened slightly as if he felt embarrassed. He quickly replied, "Then I'll leave you here. I am going to leave with my squad."

Later, the patrol left the place near Samuel and Nicole.

Laurel glanced at them and quickly handed guards' clothes to them. Then, she whispered, "Follow this path and turn right. You'll reach the cabin I mentioned earlier. I've called Jessica. Soon, she'll have someone send the trash bin over there. At that time, you must take the opportunity to hide in the trash bin. She will get you out of this place."

That was all Laurel could do for them now.

After Laurel finished her words, she turned around and went back to the secret room.

Samuel looked at Nicole. They both nodded and went straight to the cabin according to Laurel's instructions.

Soon, the engine sound came from outside, followed by a clear female voice.

"Garbage truck is coming! Is there any garbage to be sent out? Hurry up!"

Samuel held Nicole's hand tightly, knowing that is a make-or-break opportunity.

They rushed out of the cabin. Jessica immediately opened the trash bin. Then she closed the lid after they entered the bin.

The bin moved steadily.

Samuel and Nicole could clearly hear Jessica dealing with the fingerprint lock. They knew that only with Jessica's help, they could escape from this place on their own.

The high-tech security system was much more advanced than before.

They were moved forward steadily all the way to the kitchen.

Jessica whispered, "Get out. Hurry Up. Put on these clothes. The banquet will start soon and needs a lot of food and drinks. I will arrange for someone to give you makeup so that no one will tell you for the time being. You disguise yourselves as waiter and waitress to cater for these people. Once you leave the kitchen, you must do what you want as quickly as possible. Yanice didn't say I need to take care of you all the time. That's all I can help with. I just hope you would not give me up if you got caught. "

After saying those words, Jessica got sweaty and left quickly.

Samuel glanced at the surrounding surveillance cameras and deleted the video.

"Let's go!"

They followed Jessica into another room. Someone put on makeup for them.

Nicole had always known about the magic of makeup. After she finished her makeup, she found that her ordinary face made her a perfect waitress look under the current situation.

"Your hair is messed up!"

Samuel stepped forward depressingly and touched the place where Davon touched Nicole, as if this was the only way to wipe off Davon's aura.

Damn it!

Did Davon think he was dead?

'After I return, I will definitely find a chance to kick your ass, Davon.'

Samuel thought in his heart and seemed unkind. Even the makeup could not conceal his homicidal intent and jealousy at this moment.

Nicole wanted to laugh out, but she was afraid to provoke Samuel. So, she could only endure that.

"I wonder what is going on at Phoenix and Zayn's place. Alright, let's go. Now, after Davon sends the people out, we can implement our plan for Major. Davon just gave me some pills. So, we can put the pills in the Major's wine and kidnap him without anyone noticing. What do you think?"

Nicole thought about her plan and did not notice that Samuel had got angry at Davon's behavior before.

"I remember that the poison for Laurel was also given by him?"

"Yeah."

Nicole nodded, not understanding why Samuel suddenly asked this now.

Samuel became angrier.

"Did Davon treat you the same way last time?"

"In what way?"

Nicole was slightly stunned. Then, she remembered what Davon had done to her just now and hurriedly explained, "No! No. Davon was quite normal last time. Who knows what drove him crazy."

"Stay away from him."

"Yeah, okay."

Seeing Samuel's angry face, Nicole almost burst into laughter. But she held back at last.

"Major is not that easy to deal with. It is not safe to poison his drink. We should find a room to hide first and act according to the situation."

"Alright."

Nicole chose to listen to Samuel in the operation.

The two of them quickly found a path, followed a few maids and waiters into the hall, and went into a room without being noticed by anyone.

After undoing the surveillance camera with the virtual computer in his hand, Samuel finally heaved a sigh of relief and sat on the sofa.

"Are you hungry? Shall I get you something to eat?"

Samuel looked at Nicole and asked worriedly.

"No, I'm not hungry for the time being. This room is pretty good. It should be a guest room for drunk people to rest in."

"Almost."

Davon knew Phoenix. Although he just met her a few times, he had paid attention to her and even investigated her. Davon was surprised that she would come to toast him because he was only an assistant now.

Interesting!

"Princess Inez must get the wrong person. Mr. Sawyer is sitting over there."

Davon pointed at his substitute not far away with his chin, smiling. He was supposed to be a gentle, handsome man, but his eyes were carrying a sense of enchantment, which stunned Phoenix. Phoenix smiled, "No, it's you. Are you afraid of something?"

Phoenix could feel that Leo was directly staring at her. But she didn't care about it.

It was true he was her father.

But it didn't mean she must marry the man he chose.

This was ridiculous!

Leo wasn't the reason why she was still alive.

He hoped that she could have something to do with Davon. But she would destroy this wish.

She wanted to toast this assistant, a poor orphan. She wanted to see what Leo would do.

There was no doubt that Phoenix was rebellious and uncontrollable. But it was precisely such an unmanageable girl that made Davon smile.

"I've always been timid."

Davon's smile was charming, but this answer was obviously out of Phoenix's expectation.

"It turns out that you're a coward."

"Wrong, since it's Princess Inez, I must drink it."

He took the wine glass in Phoenix's hand and sniffed it.

It was a strong love potion.

It seemed that Leo was impatient.

Davon took a step forward and pulled Phoenix into his embrace with a wicked smile. Phoenix instantly felt his warm breath.

"Princess, the wine is drugged. Are you sure you want me to drink it?"

Davon said beside Phoenix's ear.

Her guess was right!

Phoenix was angry.

Leo didn't care about her to achieve his goal. She had suspected the drink was not right. After hearing what Davon said, she felt extremely angry.

"What if I do? You don't dare?"

It was obvious that Phoenix was seducing him.

Looking at Leo behind Phoenix, Davon smiled evilly.

"It seems Princess Inez is enthusiastic. Since that is the case, I must drink it."

With that, Davon picked up Phoenix and walked towards a nearby lounge. Everybody knew what they were going to do.

Without saying a word, Phoenix attacked Davon's face. Davon did not seem to notice, but the moment Phoenix attacked, he quickly moved. Furthermore, his long arm grabbed onto Phoenix's arm and brought her into his embrace.

"Princess Inez, what are you doing? Are you angry that I didn't give you the antidote? If you really want it, I can spare an entire night with you."

"Shameless!"

Even if Phoenix had this thought before, she would not admit it now.

She was really stupid. She actually thought that Davon was a handsome man and even wanted to spend the night with him.

How could this man be a handsome gentleman? He was simply a cunning man who used his beautiful appearance to cheat people.

Nicole looked at them and felt that she shouldn't be here anymore, but she couldn't go out now. What should she do?

Just as she was thinking, Samuel jumped in from the window and was slightly stunned when he saw this scene.

"What's going on?"

His voice wasn't loud, and he directly pulled Nicole over, not alarming the two in the fight.

Davon saw Samuel, but he didn't have time to say anything. Phoenix's eyes were completely red, so she naturally didn't pay attention to other things. This was the first time she had neglected Samuel because of others.

Nicole whispered the matter, and the corners of Samuel's lips rose slightly.

"Davon, treat Princess Inez well. She is my sister."

After Samuel finished speaking, he took Nicole and jumped out of the window.

When Phoenix heard Samuel's voice, she was stunned for a moment. When she turned around, she saw Samuel leave with Nicole.

Did he just leave her behind?

What did he mean by letting Davon take good care of her?

He couldn't wait to send her out.

Although Phoenix had decided to give up Samuel, this scene still made her feel very uncomfortable.

Her eyes immediately turned red.

Davon stopped fighting when he saw her like this and asked in a low voice, "Do you like Samuel?"

"It's none of your business!"

Phoenix had nowhere to vent her anger. Now that Davon was in front of her, she naturally wouldn't let him off easily.
