Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1371 You Do It On Purpose

After Samuel brought Nicole out, they found a secret place to hide. However, Nicole looked at Phoenix's room and asked worriedly, "Are they OK?"

Although she hoped that Phoenix could find a good match and give up on Samuel, she was truly worried about Phoenix.

Even if everyone thought they were a good match, they might not be. Only the wearer knew where the shoes pained. So, Nicole hoped that Phoenix could find the right one.

Samuel whispered, "There is a certain look in Davon's eyes when he looked at Phoenix. He should like her. Besides, I have asked Uncle Mark about Davon. Uncle Mark said that he is reliable. Phoenix has suffered a lot these years. I hope she can find the right one and have a happy life."

"But what if Davon hurt her?"

Thinking of the aphrodisiac that Davon had mentioned, Nicole was somewhat worried.

"Don't worry. Davon won't do that. At most, he'll joke with her. Phoenix has always been in charge in the past few years and the Sky Group has been supporting her. So, she thinks too highly of herself. It's not a bad idea to set her back once."

What a good way to look at it.

"You did it on purpose, didn't you?"

Nicole looked at Samuel and guessed.

But Samuel smiled, "Why are you so worried? Aren't you afraid that she would steal your husband?"

"You really did it on purpose!"

Nicole ignored Samuel, turned around, and looked outside. Her eyes narrowed slightly.

"Major has left."

At once, Samuel also became serious.

"You stay here. Don't move. I'll follow him."

"No, I have to go with you. Don't expect to act alone. Major is our common target."

Nicole grabbed Samuel's hand.

Samuel looked at Nicole and could only compromise.

Chapter 1372 You Have Such a Lunatic Idea

Major waited for a while, but Samuel gave him no answer. He couldn't help but frown.

"You're a talented person and I don't want to be against you. As long as you cooperate with me, we can find a win-win solution."

This was Major's real purpose.

Samuel said with a sneer, "Win-win? My mission is to capture you back. Can you help me?"

Major's face immediately darkened.

"It seems that we can't reach an agreement."

"It's because you have such a lunatic idea."

Samuel said fearlessly.

"Then don't blame me for doing this the hard way. Come and tie him up!" A hint of ruthlessness flashed across Major's face.

Many guards suddenly came out from nowhere. It turned out that they had been hiding around this place all the time.

They looked a little different from Leo's guards. Maybe they were Major's subordinates.

Leo knew that Samuel and Nicole were in the palace. However, judging from Major's words, Samuel guessed that Major didn't want to hand him over to Leo, so...

Samuel's mind was racing.

He didn't stop those guards who came to capture him. Instead, he showed no sign of resistance while they tied him up.

Major glanced at the surroundings and sneered, "Are you still waiting for Nicole to save you? To tell you the truth, Zayn is now under Leo's surveillance now. As long as Nicole arrives at Zayn's palace, she will be arrested. It's okay to hand that stupid woman over to Leo, but you're different. You're a military genius and also the head of the Green family. As long as you're under my control, both your military talent and your money will be mine."

It turned out that Major had been harboring this evil plan.

Samuel wasn't about to argue with him this time.

He was taken away by Major, but he was still worried about Nicole, fearing that she would go find Zayn.

Nicole did not leave. Instead, she watched Major and Samuel converse from afar. Although she had no idea what they had said, Samuel's obedience surprised her. She couldn't help sinking into a reverie.

If Samuel fought with Major, Major might not gain the upper hand. Only when Major's subordinates appeared did Nicole realize that Samuel intended to preserve his strength, or he planned to oppose with a counterplot.

If that was the case, her appearance would alert Major.

Although she felt a little distressed to see Samuel being captured, she was still rational and did not rush to rescue him. Instead, she followed them from a distance.

Major did not arrange for Samuel to stay in the palace. Instead, he forced Samuel to get into the car after coming to a path and whispered, "Take him away."

It turned out that Major was going to arrange for Samuel to stay somewhere outside the palace.

Nicole narrowed her eyes slightly, wondering if she should leave this place or not. She subconsciously rolled over and hid under the car while everyone was listening to Major's arrangements.

"She's here to save you. Fortunately, she was here just now. Otherwise, our people would have been injured by the infrared rays."

Nicole hated Laurel, but she didn't take any of her credit.

Laurel did not say anything. She looked at Samuel with warm eyes. Samuel had sensed this kind of warmth before. It was the way Laurel treated him when he was young. However, times had changed. Now that he saw such a gaze, he was unable to bear it.

Samuel turned his head away and whispered, "The shutdown of the infrared system will let Major know that something has happened here. He locked me up and didn't want Leo to know, so he might come by himself. Although we don't have many people right now, if we blindside, it will be possible to succeed."

"You want to use yourself as bait?"

Nicole understood what Samuel meant.

"Right."

Samuel did not hide it.

"We must capture Major. This is an opportunity. After capture Major, we will extradite him back home. On the other hand, we will have someone send a message that Leo harmed Major to cause an internal conflict between Jayden and Leo."

This was Samuel's idea

Nicole frowned slightly.

"Jayden and Leo have worked together for so many years. They might not fall for it. Our plan to sow discord may not succeed."

"What if I were to deliver this message?"

Laurel suddenly said.

Samuel and Nicole were stunned for a moment.

"You?"

"Yes, I am both Leo and Jayden's people. They know my current situation. I can't return to your side. Otherwise, what awaits me is a dead end. Therefore, I can only rely on them to live. If I were to find Jayden after escaping from Leo, Jayden might believe it. However, if Major is still alive, Jayden probably won't fight with Leo immediately. After all, Major is his only son, so he will definitely save Major first."

Laurel analyzed.

After Nicole and Samuel arrived here, they blocked the signal, so they didn't receive the report on whether Jarrod was Jayden's biological son. Now that they heard Laurel's words, Samuel frowned slightly.

"Is Jarrod not Jayden's biological son?"

"No, he was the child of Alice and a guard of Jayden's. At that time, Jayden couldn't let Alice give birth to his kid. However, he needed a stick to beat Alice with. That was why he drugged Alice, asked his guards to have sex with her, thus she gave birth to Jarrod. Originally, he thought that Alice would tell him the secret of the entrance for the sake of the child, but he didn't expect that in Alice's heart, the clansmen were more important than him and the child, so Jayden was very angry. At that time, when Alice escaped and was sent to the Green family, Jayden planned to kill Jarrod. But thinking about it, he felt hateful, so he kept him alive and used him to practice the bug techniques. He reported this matter to Leo, and I saw the report. "

Laurel told Samuel and Nicole what she knew.

Chapter 1374 Nicole Is Excellent

How could Nicole not understand?

This was the very first time Nicole had overcome her shyness in front of everyone. She hugged Samuel tightly and whispered, "Trust me, I, Nicole, deserve you, Samuel. I want everyone to know that you married me not for showing off my pretty face. I am a soldier who can fight with you. Making you feel proud has always been my goal."

Samuel's eyes were a little moist.

"It's been hard on you."

"It's not easy for everyone. Alright, let's drop it here. I got to go. I'll set everything up and wait for you guys."

Nicole took the tracker from Samuel and kissed him on the face. But Samuel grabbed the back of Nicole's head and kissed her fervently.

Nicole could feel Samuel's breathing, so could Samuel feel hers. Such a scene made all people on spot feel their blood boiling.

Nicole pushed Samuel away, panting, then turned around and ran outside.

Samuel watched Nicole as she ran until she disappeared, with determination in his eyes.

"Guys, we are now in a foreign country. We don't have backup or support. We are the only ones to complete this mission. We bond with each other. You are given three minutes to write your wills. It's the same rule. Anyone who survives, in the end, should bring back the wills of other comrades-in-arms and help them complete their last words. Can we?"

"Yes!"

All the soldiers shouted out as soon as Samuel finished talking.

This was a battle of defending the frontier of their nation, also a fight to win or die.

The blood of all the soldiers was boiling. They had put their lives on the line. It had been a long time since Samuel had led the troops to battle. The current situation made him feel as if he had returned to the age when his passion for fights was at its peak.

Looking at everything in front of her, Laurel understood why Leo and Jayden were doomed to fail.

Samuel's men all had their own beliefs. To live up to their beliefs and for the sake of their country and people, they could risk everything at the cost of their lives. Although Leo had been reforming his army using high-tech, his troop did not have faiths and was ill-organized. They were gathered together because of Leo's force, not of their loyalties to Leo, the king of the country.

Undoubtedly, Leo was destined to fail.

This was the first time Laurel felt she made the right decision.

Standing on Samuel's side was the wisest choice. Unfortunately, she had not seen through all of this early, she could only end up lonely.

Nicole did not know what was going on here. Not long after she walked out, Laurel whispered, "Samuel, I'll go with Nicole. I'm familiar with everything there. Although Nicole is capable of handling this, she might be set up. Major is not simple. He is very cunning. We could watch each other's back if I go there."

Samuel paused at Laurel's words.

He was worried about Nicole, but he also worried about Laurel. Laurel knew this.

Laurel looked in Nicole's direction. Sweat oozed from Nicole's forehead. It could be seen that her worries were the same as Laurel's.

Seeing that Major's men were about to enter, Laurel knew that there was no time to hesitate any longer. She immediately pulled the trigger and shot towards Major's leg.

The bullet pierced through the air and headed towards Major.

Major dodged sharply and immediately became vigilant.

"There's a sniper in the direction of three o'clock."

Everyone came out when they heard this. They open fire towards Laurel's location.

Nicole suddenly became anxious.

She never imagined that Laurel would sacrifice herself for this task. She even treated her life as nothing.

Just as Nicole was in a daze, Major ran into the room to dodge.

"Kill her! Shoot her to death!"

Major shouted ferociously.

Nicole had no time to care about Laurel, let alone thinking of anything else. Holding her breath, she aimed at Major's head and suddenly pulled the trigger.

Major was sensitive enough to realize there was another sniper, but at that time he couldn't turn around to dodge. In his desperation, Major pulled one of his subordinates before him.

The bullet pierced through his subordinate's temples. Major lowered his body slightly to shun. This was a near escape.

Blood flowed down from Major's head, bringing with it the smell of blood. This angered Major.

"Damn it! There's another sniper!"

He abruptly grabbed the gun of his dead subordinate and shot towards Nicole's position.

Nicole rolled on the spot and quickly shifted her position. She did not forget to aim at Major again at the same time.

This time, Major was not that lucky.

The bullet surprisingly pierced through his chest. Major fell straight down immediately.

"Mr. Major!"

His men immediately panicked.

Nicole did not dare to stay any longer. She quickly left.

Right at this moment, Samuel's helpers came. They surrounded the rest of the men and then killed them all.

Jayden called Leo almost as soon as he received the message. But Leo was talking to the imposter Davon, that is, Kim, about investing and stationing in the Military Research Institute. He was slightly stunned when he saw Jayden's call, but he still hung up.

Jayden aimed at nothing but money. Leo felt the most important thing was to seize this opportunity to form a good relationship with the Sawyer family. However, Jayden could only think Leo deliberately ignored answer his phone because Leo killed his son.

Jayden was like an irritated beast, calling Leo again and again with scarlet eyes.

Kim glanced at Leo's phone and whispered, "You can answer the phone first. I don't want to keep you from anything big."

Leo was already a little annoyed.

What was wrong with Jayden?

He had delegated his power to Jayden over the years. Did Jayden forget who the true master of Country F was?

Leo took the phone and went out angrily. He answered the phone when he arrived at a quiet place.

"Jayden, I have something very important to do right now. I will call you later if you have anything to tell."

Leo sounded irritated.

But Jayden sneered, "Call me? I'm afraid you are planning to kill me."

"What did you say?"

Leo frowned. He felt Jayden was getting ruder and ruder.

Jayden just said coldly, "What I am doing? You killed my son. Leo, my good brother, do you remember telling me that you would treat my son well? But now you killed him. How do you plan to explain it to me?"

"What nonsense are you talking about? Major was at the banquet."

Leo thought Jayden was a little insane.

"Is that so? Then facetime with me. I want to see my son. If he is here, I will compensate for what I did today. But if my son dies, you must also give me an explanation!"

Leo finally smelt something different.

"What happened to Major?"

"He is dead! Don't tell me you don't know!"

Jayden's voice suddenly rose.

He fled his homes to make money only for his son, his family. He was about to succeed but Leo abandoned him immediately! Leo killed his son! His brother killed his son!

Leo frowned, whispering, "I'll go look first. I'll call you back."

Without waiting for Jayden's reply, Leo hung up the phone.

Leo quickly found his own guards and said to them, "Send a team to find Mr. Major immediately. No matter what he is doing, bring him over to me."

"Booth!"

Amy almost wet herself because of Leo's murderous intent.

Wasn't he just a cripple? How come the king cared about him that much? Or was Booth had other identities?

Just as Amy was wondering, Leo smacked his hand on the table angrily and roared, "Look for Booth in the entire city! Kill him when you find him!"

Others might not know who Booth was, but Leo did know that Booth was Olivia's younger brother and that he was very close with Nicole. Because of Nicole, Booth was crippled. Even after the destruction of the Kent family, Booth and Olivia did not have the slightest resentment towards Nicole and Samuel. Instead, they were getting closer and closer.

So Sienna fell for Booth?

It was more likely that Booth knew who Sienna was and was taking advantage of her.

How could this stupid woman be his own daughter?

At this time, Leo believed that Sienna wouldn't have the gut to betray him. His daughter and his mother had always been spineless. Although Davon had been in power in the Sawyer family, they didn't know each other very well and didn't seem to have met each other. A princess who was not supported by her mother's family did not dare to betray her real father.

Leo was very sure that Booth had tempted Sienna and had taken Nicole and Samuel away from the palace on his way out. Otherwise, where were they?

Who was capable enough to bring someone out under Leo's nose without stirring any trouble?

The thought of Sienna being used infuriated Leo so much that his chest ached.

"Bring Princess Sienna down and put her under house arrest. No one is allowed to let her out without my permission. Those who do otherwise will die!"

Leo was pissed off.

Everyone presented shuddered and didn't dare to breathe. Amy wanted to say something, but now, she didn't dare to utter a single word.

Sienna was dragged away. The entire palace was somewhat depressing and solemn because of Major's missing and Sienna's mistake.

After Booth was taken away, the security outside was heavy and no one was able to leave for the time being. The woman had no choice but to bring Booth to Sally's palace.

No one else came here now except for Zayn and Leo. And the two were probably too busy to be here.

The woman threw Booth onto the bed. Looking at the unconscious man, she remembered that not long ago, Sienna had almost stripped him naked. Yet the man hadn't even known about it.

The woman's expression grew a little darker, her beautiful eyes looking a little sharper. But Booth, who was asleep, could not feel it at all.

Watching the sound sleeper, the woman grabbed a basin of cold water and splashed it towards Booth.

"What the hell!"

Startled by the cold water, Booth woke up. No matter how good-tempered he was, he couldn't hold back his anger any longer.

"What's wrong with you? Who are you?"

It was a chilly winter. And this palace was deserted and unheated all year round. So the icy water on Booth got him shivered with cold. He glared daggers at the culprit, only to find a veiled woman snorting at him.

Chapter 1378 You Know Me?

"What's the matter?"

Seeing the surprise on Samuel's face, Nicole wondered if that something serious had happened and hurried to ask.

Samuel shook his head and said, "Booth is in the palace of Country F."

"What? Why is he there?"

Nicole was taken aback.

Things were quite difficult in Country F now. With all kinds of people there, any careless misstep could cause Booth his life. Why was he here at this time?

Samuel was also caught off guard.

When Samuel handed over the foreign business to Booth, he did it in case the treatment would take too long and Booth would think nonsense. That was why he decided to keep Booth busy with the work. Later on, Booth was proved to be a business genius. He managed the foreign business in an orderly manner. So Samuel was sure to delegate. It had been a long time since he asked about Booth's performance and decisions. However, he never expected that the foreign country Booth went to would be Country F.

Nicole was even anxious.

Olivia was her best friend and the only one she had been sorry to in her life. Now that Booth was in Country F, how could Nicole explain to Olivia if something terrible happened to him?

"No. We have to bring him out. Booth must not be in the palace now. Furthermore, Leo may know him. If he finds out about his whereabouts, it would be a disaster."

Nicole frowned in worry.

That was when Davon's text message came.

"The whole Country F is having heavy security and searching for Booth. They will kill him immediately the moment they find him. It's said that Booth has seduced Princess Sienna and taken advantage of her for something that outraged Leo. Sienna was grounded under house arrest, and one of her fingers is broken. No one knows where Booth is now. If you can get in touch with him, tell him not to run around. If he goes out now, he will die. "

Davon and Phoenix couldn't stay in the room for too long. Moreover, Phoenix was a sophisticated fighter. So not long after, she woke up. She couldn't help but think more about it when she saw Davon lay beside her while her clothes were in a mess. Automatically, she was ready to slap Davon in the face. But Davon was not as delicate as he looked. He subdued Phoenix the moment she made a move and pressed her under his body.

"Believe it or not, I'll rape you if you make another move. Inez, don't challenge my tolerance for you."

Davon's eyes were sharp. For a moment, he did get Phoenix stiffened. By the time she collected herself, Davon had already picked her up sideways and walked out of the room.

The air outside had changed. Everyone was frightened. And those who had mocked Phoenix no longer paid much attention to her. When Phoenix and Davon come out, they just cast them some casual glances.

Helen hurried forward and repeated Leo's words. Phoenix's eyes narrowed.

"Booth Kent is here?"

Because of Samuel, Phoenix kept an eye on people close to Nicole and naturally had investigated them. She knew that Booth was Nicole's friend and had broken his legs for Nicole's sake. Later, he was sent abroad by Samuel for treatment and was also taking care of Samuel's business there.

Samuel's business empire was huge. Phoenix had her concerns, so for a long time, she made sure that her people kept a close watch on Booth. After discovering that he was indeed a business genius, she felt relieved and withdrew her people. But she did not expect Booth to actually come to Country F.

Why was he here making things worse?

Phoenix wanted to curse.

Davon was informed by Helen. With no time to hide it from Phoenix, he sent a message to Samuel directly.

When Davon took out his phone to send a message, Phoenix subconsciously glanced over and realized that Davon was texting Samuel. She was a little surprised. Then she remembered that Davon seemed to be Mr. Green's man.

Davon didn't care about the interaction between Phoenix and Booth. To Davon, his only task was to bring them out safely.

The group just walked out with Leo's written permission in their hands.

Of course, Leo didn't know that Davon had taken the group away. Leo guessed that the special assistant should be fascinated by Phoenix after they slept together. And it should also be the reason he had forgotten the etiquette and left directly. But given that he was the assistant of the patriarch of the Sawyer family and that the Sawyer had promised to consider investing in military research, Leo was finally pleased.

Although it was a bit mortifying to admit that his daughter married to a special assistant, there was nothing more important than military research. As long as Davon was willing to invest him, his military strength would be another level higher. At that time, he would have anything he wanted.

It was just a sacrifice of a daughter, not to mention that it was the daughter he didn't like.

With that in mind, Leo didn't care about Phoenix and Davon anymore. He even felt that it was a good thing that Phoenix and Davon didn't show up at the state banquet. In this way, both of them would be less embarrassed. After all, the fact that the king's daughter married to a mere special assistant didn't seem to be glorious to him.

After receiving the message from Davon that they had gotten out already, Kim stood up and said to Leo, "My Lord, thank you for your hospitality today. I'm a little tired. Please excuse me."

"No problem. Please have a good rest. I wish you would consider more about military research. I look forward to your joining us."

"I'll think about it."

With that, Kim left.

The banquet was held for the patriarch of the Sawyer family. Now that the man had left, it was time for the others to leave. But Leo asked everyone to stay.

Major was missing. And he had to give Jayden some explanation no matter what.

"Have any of you seen Major?"

Leo ran his gaze at the people presented, the sharpness in it sent shivers down everyone's spine.

Zayn was surprised.

Major was missing?

What was going on?

Santino didn't say anything. The people he sent out hadn't returned yet, so he certainly didn't know what Major was doing outside. But he definitely didn't want Leo to find out about it, so he could only play dumb now.

Everyone else knew that Leo treated Major differently, which was why no one dared to offend Major. Now that they were questioned by Leo, all of them were anxious. The twisted looks on their faces were hilarious.

Leo swept his eyes over everyone but failed to get anything loose. He could only say in a low voice, "I don't care if any of you has a problem with Major. I'm telling you, no one is allowed to lay a finger on him. If I find out who is behind this and hurt Major, don't blame me for being cruel."

Zayn only lowered his head and sneered. Santino was expressionless, making it hard for others to tell what he was thinking.

Since he couldn't get anything from the group and his men hadn't come back, Leo was getting even irritated.

"Get back, all of you. There're a lot of troubles recently. Don't walk around."

Chapter 1380 I Must Teach You a Lesson Today

"Davon, could you please help Karina? If you can perform this operation, please help her."

Nicole's voice was very gentle. She didn't know if Davon would agree. She tried her best to appear respectful and sincere. Perhaps he would be touched and do her a favor.

However, it annoyed Samuel.

Davon looked at Nicole and then glanced at Samuel, who was glaring at him. Suddenly, he felt like playing a trick and said, "I can do it. But there aren't many successful cases of this kind of operation. I have succeeded once. I have the confidence to make sure that she won't have any sequelae. But I am also a businessman. I won't do it unless there are benefits for me."

"I can give you money. Just tell me how much you want."

Nicole hurriedly said.

Davon shook his head and said, "I don't need money. There has been a rumor that the Sawyer family is going down. But I can get money whenever I want. Here's the deal. You spend one day with me. Then I'll operate on her. What do you say?"

Samuel's fist was already coming towards him as soon as Davon finished speaking.

"I think you need a lesson."

Samuel gritted his teeth and said coldly.

Nicole was shocked and confused. Why did he want to spend one day with her?

Wasn't he an acquaintance of Uncle Mark?

Wasn't he a person of Samuel's?

How dare he? It was shameless!

Booth's expression also changed.

He hoped that Karina could speak. However, he would rather give up the chance if Nicole had to pay the price.

Booth hoped that Davon could cure Karina, but he should not get Nicole involved in this.

Karina was also shocked.

Although she was just a child, she could see that Davon didn't have a crush on Nicole. So why did he say that?

While people were wondering what Davon meant, Samuel and Davon had fought several rounds.

Davon's rank in the army was lower than Samuel's, but he had been looking forward to testing Samuel's strength. He was glad to have this chance. Unexpectedly, he could hardly withstand it because Samuel's attack was so fierce.

He heard that Samuel had been doing business all these years and was not in the military area. How did he remain formidable?
