Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1391 You're Such a Genius

Almost as soon as Nicole spoke, Samuel took out a dagger and stabbed it towards the direction of Nicole's feet.

He felt that he had pierced into someone's skin. Samuel instantly became serious.

He wanted to capture the person hiding beneath the water, but that guy was smart and easily escaped. The hot spring was now stained with blood.

Nicole grabbed her clothes and wrapped herself the minute she was free.

After checking that Nicole was dressed, Samuel called Davon.

When Davon rushed over with his people, the blood in the water had disappeared. Nonetheless, Davon did not doubt what Samuel and Nicole said in the slightest.

"Search this area! Someone has sneaked in. I think the head of security should be fired."

Davon's face clouded over.

If Samuel hadn't been with Nicole when Nicole was taking the hot spring bath, who knew what would have happened?

"Kim, ask Father if this hot spring is connected to the outside."

The natural hot spring was underground. Though the source was here in the mansion, the water extended to the outside. Davon thought that no one would have the guts to do anything to the Sawyer family. Moreover, there should have been some precautions here, so he didn't pay much attention to the hot spring. If the one attacked Nicole didn't enter through the gate, then it was very likely that he had sneaked in through the river outside.

Kim went to call Eason.

If Davon was correct, then the mansion would be dangerous.

Samuel couldn't wait for Eason's answer. He said in a low voice, "I'll go down and take a look."

"Samuel, it may be deep. Maybe we should wait for news from Mr. Sawyer."

Nicole was worried.

That person's hand was so cold that it had no temperature. Nicole intuitively felt as if she had been grabbed by a ghost. Although she was an atheist, she was scared at that moment.

So, when she heard Samuel say that he wanted to go down, she shook her head.

Samuel touched her face and said gently, "I will be okay. Don't worry. Dry your hair in case you catch a cold. Wait here for me to come back."

"But..."

"Trust me."

Samuel's gaze was so gentle and firm. For a moment, Nicole didn't know how she should stop him.

"Then be careful. I won't leave until you come back."

She was threatening Samuel with her own health.

Samuel smiled indulgently at Nicole's childish words.

"Deal."

Samuel looked at Davon and found that Davon was looking at him. His smile vanished.

Chapter 1392 I'll Take Care of Phoenix

Samuel did not know what Nicole and the others were up to right now. There was only one thing on his mind—he must not spare that person who had the nerve to attack his wife in front of him.

Samuel followed the current after getting into the water. There was a black shadow in front of him. That guy was swimming very fast. Samuel did not fall behind. When Samuel was about to catch up with him, the attacker suddenly took out something and set it on, then threw it directly towards Samuel.

Samuel subconsciously dodged. The thing instantly cracked open, and a black mist came out. Samuel's view was instantly blocked.

It was a smoke bomb!

Samuel hurriedly held his breath and waited for the mist to dissipate. However, when he tried to look for the attacker again, it was already gone.

He was a little annoyed, but he didn't want to give up. He continued swimming for a while and found a hole connecting to the outside. However, it was blocked by a safety door.

Samuel could not tell if the safety door had been moved, so he went forward to open it. Suddenly, he was struck by an electric current. He almost fainted.

If the safety door was electrified, then it should be a defensive door of the Sawyer's. Therefore, the attacker probably didn't sneak in through the door.

Samuel was confused.

He looked around again and didn't find any other exit. Moreover, he was running out of oxygen.

Samuel had no choice but to return.

"Samuel, are you alright?"

Nicole had been watching from above. She helped Samuel get up the minute she saw him.

Samuel went on shore with Nicole's help.

Phoenix also wanted to give Samuel a hand. She used to do this a lot, but Nicole was one step ahead of her this time. Only then did Phoenix realize that it was no longer suitable for her to make such a move. She immediately withdrew her foot.

Davon looked at Phoenix coldly. No one knew what he was thinking, but Phoenix shuddered under his cold gaze. Then, she raised her head and met his eyes.

There was coldness and anger in his eyes, but Davon also seemed sad.

Phoenix froze for a moment. When she looked at Davon again, Davon had turned his head away from her. He walked over to Samuel.

"How's it going?"

"There's indeed someone down there. I followed that guy to the defensive door but was distracted by his smoke bomb. I didn't see where he went. Perhaps he is still in the water, but I couldn't find him."

Davon narrowed his eyes.

"He knows about our defensive door. He must be familiar with the Sawyers. No matter who he is, he is endangering us now. Since he likes water so much, he should stay in it forever."

Davon smiled coldly.

"Power up the hot spring. No one is allowed to stop without my order."

Everyone was startled when hearing this.

Water conducted electricity.

If the attacker was still in the water, he would be electrocuted.

Obviously, Davon did not want him to live.

Samuel had no objections.

"There are many talents in Country F. I wonder which one of them dare to offend me."

Davon sneered and gave the order.

"Throw them on the pillars in the central square. I want to see who in Country F dares to go against my family."

"Yes, sir."

Davon's men immediately carried that man away.

Samuel frowned tightly.

That guy was able to enter Sawyer's secretly with the cover of the hot spring. What did the other party want? To see someone taking a bath? Impossible!

"Davon, is your laboratory in the house?"

"Yes."

Davon nodded.

"I do research here. What? Do you think the other party is here for my research?"

Samuel nodded and said, "It's possible. Why did Leo recruit you? Isn't it just for the genetic research data? Now the one behind the scene is probably also here for this. In my family, someone named Elvis is enthusiastic about this. Maybe someone else covets your research."

Davon naturally knew about Elvis. He whispered, "Although I'm working on it, I don't mean to go too far. Leo wants to apply human gene-related methods to humans. He wants to stimulate people's maximum potential to create invincible warriors. This is crazy and I don't want to go crazy with him. Right now, I just reply to him with some made-up lies. But if your guess is right and the other party is here for this genetic research, you don't have to worry. The research lab can't be accessed without my fingerprints and eye scans. So, they can't go in unless they cut off my hand and dug out my eyes."

Hearing Davon's words, Samuel wasn't relieved. Instead, he said worriedly, "You should be careful. You don't do anything wrong, but the treasure you have might cause you trouble."

"I see."

Davon noticed that Samuel was indeed concerned about him, so he nodded.

In case Nicole thought too much, Samuel quickly walked out.

"How is it? What did you find out?"

Seeing Samuel come out, Nicole hurriedly went forward to ask. Although Phoenix did not ask, her eyes were filled with worry.

Samuel touched Nicole's head and said softly, "Nothing. Just a man of sacrifice with tattoos of secret guards. I will tell you later."

"Alright."

Nicole did not ask further.

Samuel looked at Phoenix, pondered for a moment, and whispered, "Phoenix, be nice to Davon."

Phoenix froze.

Chapter 1394 You Did That Once

Nicole slightly froze.

Nicole knew about Morgan's leaving and her betrayal of Harper Town. Nicole minded her betrayal.

Now, why did she suddenly appear near Sky Group?

"Joseph, don't meet with her for now, in case you are hurt."

As soon as Nicole finished her words, she saw disappointment on Joseph's face. However, he still nodded.

Nicole ended her chat with kids for Morgan.

Samuel didn't say anything just now, but Nicole just couldn't stop thinking about Joseph's disappointed face. She sighed and said, "What are you going to do with Morgan? Why didn't you say anything?"

Samuel sat opposite Nicole and whispered, "Human feelings are very complicated. No matter what Morgan did to us, she is sincere to Joseph. She even took Joseph to Africa to work as a volunteer. In our opinion, she did this on purpose, but for Joseph, Morgan is different. We can stop him from meeting Morgan, but how can we tell him why? If we tell what Morgan did to Joseph, Joseph will be hurt. But if we don't tell him, you will be worried that Morgan will hurt Joseph, so you are torn between telling him and not telling him. I understand your worries. But Joseph is still a child. How can he think of so many things like us?"

Nicole also knew that Samuel was right. However, since she was not with Joseph right now, she was really afraid that something bad would happen.

"Morgan betrayed the Harper Town. Do you think she is sincere towards Joseph?"

"Whether or not, you already have an answer, don't you?"

Samuel looked at Nicole gently.

Nicole glared at him with some depression and said, "Can't you just tell me what to do?"

"Whatever you do, I will support you."

Nicole couldn't help, but smile when hearing Samuel spoiled her so much. There was still a little anger in her eyes but she was obviously in a better mood.

"First, I want you to know that I'm not giving Morgan a chance. I just don't want Joseph to be unhappy. If Morgan still doesn't cherish the chance this time, I won't let her go closer to Joseph even if Joseph will blame me after that. Besides, my brother is also a doctor of medicine now. I don't believe that without Morgan, no one will teach Joseph."

"Good! You are so confident now. With a big brother, you become a different person."

It was hard to tell whether Samuel was mocking or something else, but Nicole was happy.

"That's right. I also have a brother. Let me tell you, if you bully me in the future, my cousin Zayn, Tim, and Davon will beat you for me."

Nicole was so cute when being complacent. Samuel couldn't help but laugh.

"Brother? I have one too. Have you forgotten that I also have a big brother, Jarrod? If there is a fight, I won't lose to you."

"So what!"

Nicole rolled her eyes at him and realized that the two of them were showing off like children, so she couldn't help but laugh.

"I suddenly feel that I become childish when being with you."

Samuel replied in a low voice, "Aren't you the one who turned me childish?"

"That's not true. By the way, we've been here for so long. I wonder how Tim is doing and how Evelyn is recovering from the abortion.

"Who?"

Phoenix shouted, and the figure quickly jumped out of the window and disappeared.

Samuel and Nicole hurriedly ran out when they heard the sound.

"What happened?"

"Just now, someone was at your door. I didn't know what he wanted to do."

Phoenix's expression was extremely solemn.

Nicole frowned slightly.

"We have just arrived at the Sawyer's, but there have been a series of incidents. Their target is us. Who would have noticed our whereabouts?"

Nicole was a little worried. If it were Leo's people, then Davon and the Sawyer family would be in danger.

Samuel's face turned gloomy.

"We have to tell Davon about this."

"Alright, I'll go talk to Davon."

Nicole volunteered.

Phoenix definitely had something to say, but it seemed like she wasn't looking for Nicole. Ever since Nicole knew that Phoenix had given up on Samuel, Nicole didn't worry about her anymore, so Nicole naturally gave her some time to be alone with Samuel.

She was confident in Samuel.

"Be careful."

Samuel also knew that Phoenix would not come to his room for no reason. She must have something to ask. Moreover, he had told her that Davon had saved her. Now, they should have met. They had talked something. Phoenix might be suspicious.

Nicole and Samuel now had a complete understanding of each other. They knew each other's intentions without saying anything. Thus, when Nicole said that she was going to look for Davon, Samuel did not stop her. However, this place did not seem to be safe. He hoped that she would be careful.

"I see. No matter how arrogant they are, they wouldn't dare to attack me openly in the Sawyer's. Don't worry. Quite a few bodyguards are patrolling here. I'll find a route with more people."

Nicole smiled at Phoenix and was about to leave when she heard Samuel say, "I'll go find you later. You can stay at Davon's place."

"Alright."

Nicole would listen to him during the special period.

Seeing that Nicole left, Phoenix felt a little embarrassed.

"Nicole, I just came to ask Mr. Green a few questions. I'll leave as soon as I'm done."

"There's no hurry. I just happened to have to talk to Davon."

Nicole was generous, and Phoenix now understood why Samuel liked her.

If Phoenix were a man, she would like Nicole too.

Samuel glanced at Phoenix and said in a low voice, "You just have five minutes."

Without Nicole in front of him, Samuel regained indifference and detachment.

"Be careful!"

Samuel suddenly pounced on Nicole and the crossbow arrow brushed past his shoulder, causing a trace of blood to spurt out in an instant.

The warm liquid splashed onto Nicole's face, making her instantly nervous.

"Samuel, are you injured?"

"I'm fine."

Samuel carried her and rolled on the spot. At the same time, the dagger in his hand flew out. Davon and Phoenix also quickly pulled out their pistols and shot at the opposite side.

For a moment, the scene was a little chaotic.

Seeing that they didn't kill Nicole, they hurriedly retreated. However, some of them were killed.

The atmosphere became somewhat intense in an instant.

Davon grabbed Samuel's arm and said, "You must leave here immediately. Since we fight a gun battle with them, Leo will naturally know it. Perhaps he will personally bring people over to ask. If he meets you then things will be bad."

"OK."

Samuel was absolutely supportive of protecting Nicole.

"I will let Kim pretend to be me to stay here to receive Leo. After you and Nicole leave, if those people really come for you, they will definitely follow you. If they dare to assassinate you so arrogantly, they will naturally be bolder when you leave the Sawyer's. At that time, I will catch them from behind, but you must be careful."

Davon felt that he'd better leave this matter to himself and he could rest assured.

"You should be careful too."

Samuel patted Davon on the shoulder and quickly left with Nicole.

Fortunately, they didn't have any luggage, so they didn't need to pack anything.

Davon started to gather people, and Phoenix hurriedly stopped him.

"I will go with you."

"Don't talk nonsense. You're Princess Inez. How does Kim explain why you weren't here when Leo came?"

Davon directly rejected her request.

However, Phoenix said very forcefully, "At that time, Kim was not with me. It was you. In Leo's view, Princess Inez slept with an assistant. What do I need to cooperate with Kim for?"

Davon was slightly stunned. He did not expect his identity to be Phoenix's excuse.

He looked at Phoenix and said word by word, "Even if you have thousands of reasons, I won't let you out."

"Why?"

"Because Samuel is too important for you, you will risk everything for him, so I won't let you go. When danger comes, you will just think of him but not yourself. I don't want to see you die."

After saying that, Davon asked people to notice Phoenix.

For so many years, Phoenix had always been alone, whenever she was happy or hardworking. No one had ever told her that she also needed to protect herself.

Therefore, when Davon said these, Phoenix was stunned, and her eyes watered.

Chapter 1397 That's His Soldier!

Even though Nicole knew that this was a show, she still couldn't help but walk in.

When she saw Zayn lying in a pool of blood, she was stunned.

Samuel aimed at Zayn's heart. Zayn looked at Samuel and Nicole in disbelief. Zayn had been shot before he could figure out what was going on.

"Zayn."

Nicole muttered to herself, wanting to step forward, but Samuel grabbed her arm.

"Let's go."

"He's been shot! Samuel, he's injured in the heart. He's going to die. He's really going to die!"

Nicole was filled with fear.

With so much blood flowing out of Zayn's chest, his body was also twitching. The surrounding chaos seemed to be inaudible to Nicole. She wanted to see how Zayn was, but Samuel's strength was so great that she couldn't break free.

Tears rolled down her cheeks.

Seeing Samuel's indifference, Nicole suddenly became suspicious. Did Samuel plan to kill Zayn from the very beginning?

Or was this an order from above?

This thought was crazily growing in Nicole's mind.

She kept looking back but was pulled out by Samuel. Then, they got into the car and rushed out like the wind.

Leo immediately received the report.

When he received the report, Leo was a little surprised. After all, Nicole and Zayn were so close. How could they actually assassinate him?

"Have you seen it clearly? It might be a trap."

Leo asked in a low voice.

The guard hurriedly said, "Mr. Zayn was shot in the heart. He is currently in first aid."

"What?"

Leo's expression immediately changed.

The heart was the most important organ. People cannot be saved when they were shot in the heart.

"Who operated on him?"

"The Imperial Physician, Corbin Mullen."

Corbin was Leo's man, so Leo would believe him.

Not long after, news of Zayn's death spread from the palace, causing an uproar in the entire Country F.

When Nicole heard this news, she crazily wanted to go back, but she was knocked unconscious by Samuel.

Looking at the painful Nicole, Samuel frowned tightly.

He didn't tell her in advance, because he was afraid that she would be like this, but she still got in the room.

Samuel shook his head. The chase behind them was very fierce. He had no time to worry too much and directly drove to Santino's villa.

Naturally, Santino had heard of Zayn's death, so he was a little surprised.

Samuel looked at Nicole's sadness and felt bad. However, this was not a good place to talk. He whispered to her, "I'll tell you on the way."

"I want to know now. I believe you can tell me everything in a few short sentences, can't you?"

Nicole insisted.

Samuel knew that she paid great attention to kinship, so Zayn's matter naturally touched her. Samuel pondered for a moment and said, "Zayn's heart is on the left. Therefore, when people see his right chest being shot, they will think that he will die without a doubt. In fact, this is just a trick."

Nicole was stunned for a moment.

"How did you know Zayn's heart was on the left?"

"Sally told me."

Nicole trusted him because Samuel mentioned Sally. After all, no one knew him better than his mother.
However, she was just a little worried.

"I actually don't know anything about your plan! When did you set it up?"

"When we caught the spy in the hot spring, I made this plan with Davon. We want to hand over the entire country F to Zayn, so we must ensure his safety before doing so. However, because of our relationship with Zayn, no matter what we do, Zayn can't be believed by them. We decide to fake his death to protect him. He is a man and would do big things in the future, so he will inevitably suffer some injuries."

Samuel explained.

He didn't see any hatred in Nicole's eyes, only confusion. This made Samuel involuntarily breathe a sigh of relief.

It seemed that Nicole didn't hate him.

This was a dangerous plan. If he wasn't careful, he might really kill Zayn. Even so, a warrior had sacrificed his life.

After listening to Samuel's explanation, Nicole finally understood.

"Then where are we going now?"

"Leo thought that we had left Country F, or that we were killed in the air by a missile, so he will likely punish Santino now. However, Leo originally did not like Zayn, so he may make a token gesture towards punishing Santino. We will take advantage of Santino's imprisonment to kill him."

Samuel's eyes were full of firmness of will, and Nicole immediately calmed down.

"Alright, I'll follow you."

Nicole stepped forward and offered her hand to Samuel.

When Samuel held her hand again, his palms were already sweating.

He was so scared to see a gaze of hatred in Nicole's eyes. Fortunately, he didn't.

Chapter 1399 War Is Cruel

Nicole's heart skipped a beat, and her hand involuntarily grabbed Samuel's arm.

Samuel's expression was also somewhat grave.

They were exposed.

At this time, they had done all the things they needed to do. They absolutely couldn't die here. Even if there was a one in ten thousand chance, he couldn't let Nicole get hurt.

Thinking of this, Samuel whispered, "I'll hold them back later. You follow that guard out first."

"I won't!"

Nicole hurriedly shook her head, feeling very uneasy in her heart.

Samuel patted her hand and smiled, "Don't you have faith in me?"

"I'm afraid I don't have faith in myself. Samuel, no matter what, I want to be with you."

Nicole had always firmly believed in her persistence.

Samuel felt warm in his heart as he whispered, "But we haven't finished our work yet. Jayden and Leo haven't broken off yet, and we haven't completed our mission yet. Nicole, believe me. Your safety is the motivation for me to live."

"No, I don't want to leave you behind."

Nicole shook her head, and her eyes were already filled with tears.

"Be good. You're the owner of Night Elf Empire. You know what's best, don't you?"

Nicole naturally knew, but she just couldn't bear to leave him behind.

She was reluctant to part with Samuel.

The war was so cruel that she didn't want to leave Samuel for a moment. What if they don't see each other again after leaving this time?

Samuel seemed to know what Nicole was thinking and he whispered, "Don't worry. As long as I'm still alive, I will fight to come back to you and the children."

"Promise me that you will come back to see me alive."

"I promise."

Samuel grabbed the back of Nicole's head and kissed her deeply.

He didn't like to leave her either.

Unfortunately, it was his responsibility. He was a soldier.

Samuel felt too much reluctance in his heart, but at this moment, he was even more afraid that something would happen to Nicole.

Before coming to Country F, he had given an account of all the properties under his name. If anything happened to him, Nicole would be the leader of the Green family.

He knew that he might be a little selfish. All the properties and three children were too much for a woman. He always wanted Nicole to be happy and live without any pressure. He hoped that she could do whatever she wanted, but sometimes, not everything could go as his wish.

With the help of the Don family and the Shaw family, even if something really happened to him, Nicole would still be fine.

Steven never thought that he would lose to Nicole. Nicole looked weak. When did she learn Ashley's moves?

Who gave her this diazepam? One day, he must kick that bastard's ass!

Steven thought and collapsed unwillingly.

Nicole did not stay longer and quickly left. Because the guards did not have Steven's instructions, they did not know what to do. They could only watch helplessly as Nicole walked out.

Nicole was alone in Country F. She couldn't involve Davon, so she called Finn.

"How far are your men from Country F now?"

Finn never thought that Nicole would think of him. Although he had been preparing, when he received Nicole's phone call, he was excited and somewhat incoherent.

"Ma'am, are you looking for me? What are you doing in Country F?"

"You have too many questions. I'm just asking you how far your people are from Country F now?"

Nicole's voice suddenly turned cold and Finn's excitement instantly disappeared. Only then did he realize that Nicole had no other choice but to call him.

To put it bluntly, these people were all abandoned by Nicole. Although they were still members of the old Night Elf Empire, everyone understood that after that incident, Nicole's entire energy was focused on the new Night Elf Empire.

Now that Nicole called Finn, he saw hope again.

"We're not far away. If we have a helicopter, we will arrive in about ten minutes."

"Then quickly send some people over. I don't care what weapon you use or what strategy you use. I only want Country F to be in chaos. Remember, the place of war can't be downtown."

"Yes."

Although Finn's legs were disabled, he had promoted some useful people during this period. Moreover, there were still many members of the old Night Elf Empire left behind. Under Finn's leadership, they were also a force that could not be ignored.

Samuel had once allocated a sum of money to Finn to improve their life quality, but Finn did not use it for improving their life. Instead, he purchased a few fighter jets that had retired from the army. Now, they could be considered useful.

Nicole had abandoned them once before, and now she wanted to use them again, so they were all extremely excited. They wished they could do their best to express themselves so that they could return to their original positions and glory.

It was torturous for Nicole to wait.

She knew that she could not be reckless. If she went to save Samuel alone now, she would probably be captured before she got close to the entrance of the palace. Furthermore, she did not know how Samuel was.

After experiencing so many things, Nicole was no longer so impulsive. Even though she was getting uneasy and uneasy, she was still waiting for backup.

Steven refused to stay and insisted on taking her away. Nicole knew that Samuel had no chance of winning this battle. He would rather put himself in danger than let her stay.
