

Escape Wife 1461

Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1461 I Like You

This strength was nothing to Laurence. Ever since he was young, he had suffered much more than this, but he had never felt as happy as he did now.

Happiness!

He once thought that this word was very far from him that it could only appear in his imagination. He did not know what it felt like, but now he understood.

The person who brought him happiness was Cara, a tender girl.

She was not as beautiful as Adela, nor was she as powerful as Adela. Sometimes, she was dumb, but she made him feel comfortable and warm.

Previously, Laurence thought that he loved Adela, but now he could tell that he felt grateful to Adela. It was not love.

He wanted to get close to Adela, not because he liked her nor he loved her, but because Adela was his redemption at that time.

Adela was the only light in his gloomy life. Laurence couldn't resist her smile, her thoughtfulness, and the way she acted domineering, but this was not love.

To be exact, it was a kind of pursuit, a pursuit of light.

The two of them were childhood sweethearts. In fact, Adela was more of a family member to him because he had never wanted to get more intimate with Adela. Even if Adela seduced and kissed him, he was calm. He only responded subconsciously.

But Cara was different.

He wanted to get close to Cara, and when he kissed her, he had an impulse to continue, wanting to make her his. He hadn't had such possessiveness before.

Laurence was enlightened.

Cara felt tired of biting Laurence, but Laurence did not react. She felt she was like a lunatic.

She let go of Laurence and saw Laurence looking at her with a smile. His eyes were so loving that she was slightly stunned.

"Why are you laughing? Are you dumb?" Cara asked.

Laurence flicked Cara's head with his finger.

"Why did you hit me? What if I become dumb?"

"I will be responsible and marry you."

Laurence smiled, but Cara was stunned.

She couldn't believe what she heard. She took two steps back and looked at Laurence cautiously.

"What's wrong with you?"

Cara couldn't understand why a cold-blooded person suddenly looked at her with loving eyes. It was a big change. She needed to digest.

When Laurence saw Cara's adorable face, he smiled more happily.

"Do you think everyone can wash my underwear?"

Cara's face immediately turned red.

"Can you drop that?"

"No."

Laurence leaned on Cara's bed. He looked at Cara with his sea-blue eyes. They were distracting.

Cara hurriedly turned her head away.

"Too charming."

As she whispered in her heart, she heard Laurence say, "Cara."

"Yes?"

"I like you."

Chapter 1462 She'll Be Stay with Him

Finding that his love for Cara grew, Laurence regretted that he was so stupid as to treat her indifferently in the past.

"Tell me, are you going or not?"

"Laurence, you're bullying me!"

Cara said and cried immediately.

Laurence was shocked at this.

"Alright, alright. I won't push you. Please don't cry."

Cara did not stop. Instead, she burst into tears. Laurence's clothes were stained with Cara's tears and snots.

"You're bullying me. I will go and tell Mrs. Green. I hate you."

"You can't."

Laurence said firmly. And his cold voice made Cara feel even more aggrieved.

He even didn't how to coax a girl. Why did she fell for him?

"Silly man, let go of me!"

"I won't!"

"Laurence, you're a rogue. Let go of me!"

When Cara was struggling, Laurence began to kiss her passionately. Cara's crying faded gradually and she was getting hotter and hotter.

It had been two more hours before Laurence came out from Cara's room. Seeing Laurence was in high spirits, the servants were startled.

"Wow, what's all the fuss about?"

"Captain Kent seems cheerful. Did he have a relationship with Miss Clint..."

"But there is something wrong with Captain Kent..."

"It has been two hours! If there was nothing wrong with him, it would take even longer..."

Laurence ignored their discussions and was about to return to the base, someone came to him, saying that Nicole wanted him.

Laurence entered Nicole's room with joy on his face.

"So you have got what you want?"

Samuel glanced at Laurence and coughed, saying, "Ask the kitchen servants to prepare some tonic food for Cara. A girl's first time is important. She could use some nutrition."

Hearing these, Laurence flushed immediately, while Nicole stared at Samuel with surprise.

"What are you talking about? How did you know it was Cara's first time?"

Nicole said excitedly.

Laurence felt a little nervous.

Samuel smiled slightly and did not continue lest he embarrass Laurence. Then he turned back to the contract in his hand.

As Samuel stopped talking, Nicole decided to ask him later. And she looked at Laurence and smiled, saying, "Don't forget what you need to do."

"What?"

"Dr. Miller."

"What happened?"

Seeing Laurence's serious expression, Cara couldn't help but feel nervous.

"I don't know. You go to Mrs. Green's room first. I'll go out and take a look."

With that, Laurence ran out. However, he came back when he got to the door. He kissed Cara on the forehead and said softly, "Take care of Mrs. Green and yourself. Don't let me worry."

Cara felt a current running through her entire body, and she felt dizzy and did not hear what Laurence had said. She subconsciously nodded and saw Laurence turn around and run out again.

She didn't dare to delay and quickly went to Nicole's room.

"Mrs. Green, Laurence asked me to take care of you."

Samuel had already gone out, he was probably worried. Nicole couldn't go out because of her health, but she was anxious.

"Cara, you came at the right time. Hurry up and see what's going on. That sound just now seemed to be an explosion."

"An explosion?"

Cara was shocked.

"In such broad daylight? Who is it? So unscrupulous?"

Nicole looked somewhat solemn.

"I'm afraid they are after Dr. Miller."

"You mean ... then Laurence..."

Cara immediately became nervous.

"It's fine. With Night Elf Empire around, he should be fine. Besides, Laurence is very fast now and won't be caught easily."

Nicole had a slight bellyache, but she didn't say anything. She knew that Cara was very worried about Laurence now. If she brought it up, it would be too much a burden for Cara to bear.

Morgan walked in at this time.

"Mrs. Green, you look unwell."

Morgan's words reminded Cara.

"Mrs. Greene, are you feeling alright?"

As she spoke, Cara quickly poured a cup of warm water for Nicole, while Morgan began to feel Nicole's pulse. However, before Cara could pass the water to Nicole, another loud bang came, causing the entire ground to tremble. Cara could not hold onto the cup, and the water spilled on the back of her hand. It was somewhat hot.

"Cara, are you alright?"

Nicole was a little worried by what she saw.

"Nothing, it's warm."

Cara shook her hand, and the back of her hand was a little red.

Nicole intuitively wanted to get up but was stopped by Morgan.

"Mrs. Green, what are you doing?"

"I'm going out to take a look."

"No."

Morgan directly refused.

Nicole was very anxious.

"I don't know what's going on outside. It's so chaotic now. I can't be at ease if I don't go out and take a look."

Chapter 1464 Do You Believe in Laurence?

Cara was stunned.

She knew what was happening in Country F. Normally, no one would go there now, afraid of being involved. However, Laurence said that he was going there. She was worried and doubtful.

"Can you enter the country? What are you going to do there? I heard it is under martial law and internal strife. How can you get there?"

Seeing concern and worry in Cara's eyes, Laurence couldn't help but smile. The bright smile intoxicated her.

"I'm quite serious. What are you laughing at?"

Laurence smiled more brilliantly.

"Are you worried about me?"

"Of course!"

Cara thought Laurence was like an idiot, but luckily he was a handsome idiot.

Laurence had no idea what Cara was thinking. He ruffled her hair and said seriously, "The supporters of Dr. Miller may have something to do with Country F."

"You mean Leo?"

"Or Jayden. No matter who it is, I have to go there to find out."

Laurence's words worried Cara.

"But what they want is you. It is a trip into lion's den."

"But I can't do nothing and just let them get to me. As you see, Mrs. Green is so weak. If there is any other accident like today, the baby in her belly might die. Mr. Green hasn't recovered yet. If I'm staying here, I will only bring them danger."

Cara felt distressed.

"I see. You want to get the danger out of here."

"Yes. Mrs. Green is my benefactor. I can't bite the hand that feeds me. Davon is in Country F, and we can take care of each other. Perhaps my secrets will emerge. I want to grow old with you, or die after you. I don't want you to be alone in the world. This is my wish."

It might be easy to achieve for others. But for Laurence, it was rather difficult.

Cara knew that he was in a state of rapid metabolism, and he might not be able to hold on any longer. This wish was truly heartbreaking.

"I'll go with you."

"You stay, it's too dangerous over there."

Laurence resolutely refused.

Cara said firmly, "I have to go with you because of the danger. Considering your condition, I can't part with you for a second no matter what happens. I want to face everything with you. There are Mr. Green, Finn, and Ernesto here. It is wise to call Finn back. And if we don't solve the problem in Country F, it will be a hidden danger for Mrs. Green and the others. So, I'd better go with you. "

Laurence knew that delicate as Cara looked, she was independent-minded.

He nodded and said, "Okay, then you go back to pack up. I have things to deal with."

"Alone? You'd better bring someone with you. You are the most obvious target. I'm afraid that they will harm you."

Cara was worried.

"Laurence left?"

Cara realized this immediately.

"Bastard! He told me to pack up and that he would wait for me. How could he break his promise?"

Cara was too anxious to hold her tears.

Nicole hurriedly said, "Cara, calm down."

"How can I be calm? He's now the target of all the unknown dangers. His blood is so special that someone wants to drain it. Has he ever thought about my feelings when he left alone?"

"That's why I come to talk to you."

Nicole had thought that Cara would be emotional, still, she was shocked about how emotional Cara could be.

"Cara, listen to me. Samuel and I can swear on our lives that Laurence will be fine. You can kill us if anything happened to Laurence. Alright?"

Cara froze. Nicole seldom spoke in such a serious tone.

"Mrs. Green, please don't say those words casually. Quick! Spit the bad fortune out."

Nicole shook her head and whispered, "For now, I can't help Laurence at all. But, Cara, you can.
Laurence can be saved only with your help. And it won't work if you go with him and get caught with him. Laurence planned this and kept it from you because he was worried that you would get out of control. Laurence has begun to carry out his plan. Can you handle it calmly as he has trusted you with his life?"

Cara stiffened again.

"What do you mean?"

"What I'm trying to say is that Laurence has never intended to shut you out. He went into the enemy's place as bait himself and left you the task of rescuing him. That means he has trusted you with his life. If you can't calmly cope with the situation, then I shall go to Country F to save him even at the risk of losing the child in my belly."

Tears welled up in Cara's eyes after she heard what Nicole said.

"How could he do that? And Mrs. Green, how can you go to save him? Your fetal situation is still unstable. You can't go."

"Then calm down and listen to me. You're not the old Miss Clint anymore. You are now Laurence's partner and my friend. One day, you may even become the master of the Night Elf Empire. If you can't cool yourself, I can't assign the task to you. I'll have to send another person on this mission even though that's against Laurence's plan."

Hearing Nicole's words, Cara immediately said, "I can calm down, and I will."

She fought back the tears in her eyes.

Nicole felt sympathetic to Cara. However, she knew that Cara must figure some things out on her own.

Chapter 1466 His Daughter Hasn't Grown Up Yet

However, Nicole did not see Samuel's murderous gaze. She was still immersed in her memories and cried, "You didn't know that Lucas was only 2.5 kilograms when I gave birth to him. At that time, the doctor told me that Lucas was congenitally malnourished and lacked calcium. I was really on the verge of collapse. No one was beside me but a special nurse. Also, she wanted to kill Lucas all the time. I didn't dare sleep, relax, or even go to the bathroom. I was afraid that I won't have Lucas anymore because of such little negligence. My daughter's life was still uncertain. If anything happened to my son, I didn't know if I would be able to carry on."

"Don't say that. This time, it won't. I will always be with you and our children. No matter what happens, I won't let anyone hurt you and our children."

Samuel hugged Nicole directly, with tears in his eyes.

'He knew that Nicole suffered a lot, and he also knew how difficult it was for Nicole to give birth to their children at that time. He had investigated, but many things could not be found. If Nicole did not tell him today, he would not know how badly the Brook family had treated his wife and children.'

'In the past, thinking that Allen had taken care of Nicole and their children for five years, he conceded so many times, but now it seemed that he had done it wrong.'

'If he had known that at the very beginning, Samuel would have made the Brook family disappear from this world as soon as possible.'

Nicole cried quite sadly in Samuel's arms.

"I miss Lucas, I miss Zoe, and I miss Joseph. When will you bring them back?"

"Mommy."

Suddenly, Lucas' voice rang out in the room and startled Nicole. She thought that she had an illusion.

"Look, look, I miss them so much that I even have an illusion. I heard Lucas' voice."

Behind her, Lucas looked at Nicole crying like a child helplessly. This was the first time he had seen Mommy crying like this.

'So when he was born, Mommy was that worried about him?'

Lucas said again,

"Mommy, it's not an illusion. I'm really back."

Nicole was stunned for a moment, and then pushed Samuel away. When she saw Lucas, she quickly opened her arms.

"Lucas, Mommy missed you so much."

Lucas smiled faintly, and then quickly ran up to Nicole's arms.

"Mommy, I miss you too."

Samuel was a little jealous.

'Was he being disliked?'

However, when he saw his wife and son's intimate interaction, he felt warm.

They were his most important family members, and he would protect them well in the future.'

Only when Nicole touched Lucas' warm body did she feel that it was much more real.

"When did you come back? Why didn't you tell Mommy in advance? Where are Zoe and Joseph? Did they come back?"

Nicole hurriedly looked around, but she did not see them.

Lucas said in a hurry, "Zoe signed up for an extracurricular class and won't come back for the time being. Joseph joined a free diagnosis service with other doctors."

'He didn't tell Mommy that Joseph had gone to Africa with the volunteers. If Nicole knew that now, definitely, she would be very anxious.'

'Daddy already said that the fetus was unstable and we can't be over-excited.'

Nicole asked worriedly, "Is there anyone following behind Joseph?"

"Yes, Uncle Fill sent a bodyguard to follow him. He's fine."

Chapter 1467 Tim did not Care

Samuel suddenly felt that there was big trouble.

"I'll investigate. Are you busy recently?" he asked.

"No. What's wrong?"

Lucas was still sad.

After all, he and Zoe have stayed in their mother's body for nine months, why Zoe chose an outsider?

Samuel didn't care about Lucas' current feelings, saying directly, "Uncle Laurence has gone to the Country F. I have installed a tracking system on him. Pay attention to him. I'll deal with Zoe's matter first."

"Alright. Samuel, you'd better bring Zoe back. There are places for learning music in the Seapolis City."

Lucas came up with an idea.

"Yeah, right. It will be safer for my daughter to stay by my side."

Samuel thought that this was a good idea, so he went out directly.

Finally, Lucas felt relaxed.

With Samuel's help, Armand probably didn't have much influence. He remembered that Zoe liked their daddy most.

Zoe did not know that her daddy and brother had united together and planned to stop the immature emotion between her and Armand. Now, she was following behind Armand to watch a concert happily.

Nicole did not sleep very well. She was always woken up by inexplicable shocks. After she woke up, she could not remember what nightmares she had had. She just felt sticky all over her body and her forehead was covered in sweat.

Nicole asked Morgan to get a towel to clean up herself, and then she found that Lucas was not there.

"Where's Lucas?"

"He's in the study. He might have something to do and don't want to be disturbed."

Nicole was not worried about his son's actions.

"Be careful. Send him something to eat on occasions."

"Alright."

Morgan checked Nicole's body and then she left till she found nothing unusual.

Lucas quickly registered the computer and watched the red dot move on the screen. He couldn't help but start looking for the trajectory of the red dot.

Suddenly he realized that the red dot didn't seem to leave the Seapolis City for Country F first. Instead, it flew abroad for a while before turning back and then stayed in a position for about ten minutes before flying away again.

Lucas felt that these ten minutes might be the key point.

He typed on the keyboard hurriedly and checked the spot where it had parked for ten minutes, only to discover that it was actually a sanatorium.

Chapter 1468 I'm Fine, Really

Nicole tried to sound serious but it made her seem even lovelier. Tim felt warm for her words. He cherished their friendship especially after his romantic affection for her had turned into kinship.

"Alright, I swear."

Evelyn was surprised by Tim's doting tone and tender gaze. She immediately stood on tiptoe and grabbed Tim by the collar, trying to make a bluff, "Who are you calling? How dare you do sweet whispers on my watch?"

Nicole was suddenly stunned, and then let out a chuckle.

"Evelyn, it's me."

Recognizing Nicole's voice, Evelyn felt a little embarrassed.

She laughed and said, "Hi, Nicole. Your brother spoke on the phone behind my back in such a sneaky manner that I thought he hooked up with someone else. Fine, I'll leave you alone and go shopping."

Evelyn loosened Tim's collar and wiped away some invisible dust on it. Though she left casually, Tim noticed the loneliness in her eyes.

Evelyn knew him well. She knew how Tim used to feel for Nicole. Tim understood that it was not easy for her to behave this way as his wife and Nicole's sister-in-law.

Any woman would be jealous.

But Evelyn couldn't show her jealousy because Nicole was his cousin.

Tim felt sorry for Evelyn.

He finally understood what Nicole once said,

"Tim, sooner or later, you'll find your Miss Right. At that time, you'll care about her more than anybody else."

Tim found out that he was concerned more about Evelyn than Nicole now.

'Nicole has Samuel by her side, while I'm all that Evelyn has since we just lost our baby.'

With this thought, Tim hurriedly said, "I'll call my men, but I'm not sure what the result will be. Sorry, Nicole, I'm afraid I won't go in person and help you this time. Evelyn's mood has been down recently, so I want to spend more time with her."

Nicole was stunned at first but soon realized the reason.

Tim finally fell for Evelyn.

People always had to choose between separate ways in their lifetime.

Nicole was glad that Tim realized this at last and she didn't feel sad that he chose to move on. They had grown up and would have their own life. Both of them had someone to spend the rest of their lives with. However, their kinship wouldn't diminish. Instead, they would become more mature.

It is more gratifying than upsetting because they would have their own family to attend to. Their beloved were the only ones that would accompany them till the end of their lives.

Nicole said sincerely, "Tim, I understand."

"Please forgive me, Nicole. I put her through a lot since we were married. Now that we have just lost our baby, I'm afraid Evelyn will be sad if I spare too much time in your issues."

Tim felt sorry for Nicole.

"I don't want to go home! I want to go shopping. You can go first. Nicole must be in a hurry, otherwise, she wouldn't have called you. I'm fine. It's safe here. I'll go shopping myself. Put me down."

Evelyn tried her best to make herself look calm, but she saw Tim's expression change.

"Evelyn, if you want me to kiss you here, I can do it immediately."

Evelyn covered her mouth and buried her head in Tim's chest.

She heard his deafening heartbeats, and she didn't know if he was angry with her.

Perhaps he regretted it.

He had finally discovered her true self. She was just a jealous woman.

She was jealous of Nicole. However, she didn't dare to say it out.

She must have disappointed Tim.

After all, Nicole was important to Tim.

In the end, there was zero chance for her. She knew that she couldn't be compared with Nicole. She had decided once she clashed with Nicole, she would compromise. But why would she still feel sad? Why would she want more?

Evelyn knew how good Nicole and Samuel were to her and Tim, so she knew she shouldn't think like this.

The more Evelyn thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. She bit her lower lip tightly. Her face was pale, and she was trembling.

Tim noticed that she was uncomfortable and immediately carried her to Blair's hospital.

"What's wrong with her?"

Evelyn never thought that Tim would bring her to the hospital. Didn't he say that they would go home?

She stood up and said, "I'm fine."

After saying that, she was about to leave, but Tim closed the office door and locked it.

"Evelyn, don't be afraid. I'm your husband! You don't have to be a good and understanding wife."

Tim probably understood why Evelyn was abnormal, but he thought that it could be resolved. It was no use to avoid it.

Evelyn's face turned even paler when she heard his words, and she staggered.

Chapter 1470 It's Enough to Have You for the Rest of My Life

On the way back to the office, Blair thought for a while and decided to tell Samuel what had happened.

When knowing it, Samuel fell in stony silence.

He didn't expect Evelyn to be so seriously ill.

He knew about her endurance, but he didn't expect that the loss of a child would disrupt all her emotions.

Because of her deep love, she had a strong obsession with children. Unfortunately, God did not bless her, and this child was destined to die young. In fact, Evelyn felt quite miserable.

In their marriage, she was the patient one, but Tim was wanton. None of them was wrong. They both were in their first marriage and first love. With no such kind of experience, sufferings were inevitable for them when learning.

Samuel sighed and stepped into Nicole's room.

He knew that if he told Nicole about this, she would probably blame herself too hard, but not telling her was even more disrespectful.

When Samuel stepped in, Nicole found that he didn't look well.

"What's wrong? Is there news from Laurence?"

"No."

Samuel sat beside Nicole, cuddling her in arms.

"I have something to tell you."

"Yeah?"

Nicole raised her head slightly, looked at Samuel's hesitant face, puzzled.

"What is it? Is it so hard to say? Don't tell me you want to take a concubine!"

"Stop messing around. I'm serious. It's related to Tim."

Samuel's words stunned Nicole for a moment.

"I talked to him on the phone. What happened?"

She looked at Samuel and kept thinking about what had happened.

Samuel told Nicole about Evelyn's illness.

Nicole was stunned.
