

Escape Wife 1501

Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1501 We Just Need to Follow it

Phoenix paused for a moment and whispered, "Uncle Jason, let's go to the Green's first. Mr. Green and Nicole were sent to the Capital City for review for Davon's sake. We don't know when they will be back. We can't leave the three kids unattended."

Jason was stunned for a moment before nodding.

The car drove to the Green's. It was the same as before, functioning methodically. Seeing Jason and the others arrive, Ernesto couldn't help but be stunned for a moment, and then quickly walked forward.

"Mr. Jason, Mr. Green is not here."

"I know, I came to take a look. Did Zoe and Joseph come back?"

Jason pushed the wheelchair in, and Lucas followed with his hand held by Phoenix.

Ernesto glanced at Lucas and said, "Not yet, I have already sent someone to pick them up." Mr. Green had a phone call for me to take good care of the Green family. Recently, the Greens have attracted a lot of attention. Mr. Green said that the three kids can go to kindergarten to study. Everyone should follow the steps. As for the Eternal Group, Mr. Green said that Mr. Jarrod would come back to take it over for some time until Mr. Green returns. "

Hearing that Samuel had arranged everything, Jason felt relieved.

"Is Mr. Jarrod Samuel's cousin Jarrod Austin?"

"Yes."

"When will he be back?"

"Soon."

Ernesto answered all the questions he asked, and Lucas was quite relieved to hear them.

At first, he was afraid that he would be too young. This sudden change would cause the Green family's property to fall by the wayside. At that time, if someone coveted the Green family's property, he would not be able to protect it. He even wanted to seek help from Jason. Now that he heard that Daddy had arranged everything, Lucas heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, he also admired Samuel's composure and fearlessness.

When Jason heard that Samuel had arranged everything, although he felt that it was a little strange, he still didn't say anything.

Phoenix wanted to follow Jason back to the Don's to deal with matters left behind by Davon, so Lucas stayed.

To be honest, Phoenix wanted Lucas to leave with her.

This little boy had accompanied her through the most difficult days. She really regarded him as her son.

"Lucas, I may be a little busy recently. Can you stay at the Green's by yourself? If you can't, you can come with me."

Phoenix secretly hoped that Lucas would follow her.

However, Lucas wanted to wait for Joseph and Zoe to come back. Although he wanted to be with Phoenix as well, he still shook his head and said, "Phoenix, I'd better wait for them at home. If you miss me, you can call me."

"Alright."

Phoenix was very reluctant, but she still followed Jason.

Lucas stood alone in the living room. It was hard to read his mind.

"Lucas, do you have anything to say?" Ernesto asked in a low voice.

"Lucas, what are you thinking about?"

Seeing that Lucas did not reply, Joseph could not help but ask, he seemed a little worried.

Lucas quickly regained his senses, "Nothing, I didn't see her. Perhaps Samuel had other plans for her?"

But Joseph was still worried when he recalled what Morgan had done.

"I called her but I couldn't get through. I'm afraid..."

Although Joseph did not finish, Lucas understood.

He held Joseph's hand and said, "Joseph, don't worry. It's a special time now. We should listen to our parents and don't do anything. I saw some people in my aunt's palace. They seemed to be watching her. On our way back, although the other party tried to hide, I still felt that we were surrounded by them. Although I don't know what it has to do with my uncle's death, we are probably under surveillance. So don't do anything. Perhaps this is the best way to protect and help our parents. "

"Alright."

Joseph nodded.

Just as he was speaking, Wendy walked up.

"Boys, Mr. Jarrod is here."

"Uncle Jarrod?"

Lucas hurriedly got up, and Joseph also went out.

Jarrod looked at the layout of the Green's and couldn't help but feel a little disgusted.

"Although it's an antique, the furniture is really ugly."

Amelia hurriedly tugged at his sleeve and whispered, "You're only here to help for a while. You're not gonna stay here forever!"

"Why not? What if I don't want to leave?"

Jarrod discovered that he had recently been especially fond of teasing his wife. She was really cute with a serious look on her face.

In the past, how could he allow himself to suppress his temper and make her bed warm?

"How do you feel now?"

Jarrod couldn't help but ask when he saw that Amelia didn't look well.

"I'm fine. I just came here, and the temperature wasn't quite agreeable here. I'll be fine in two days."

Amelia coughed softly.

"We may ask Morgan when she's back."

Although Jarrod said in a low voice, he was still heard by Joseph who just came down.

He suddenly stopped and heard Amelia whispering, "Forget it, Morgan still has another patient to take care of. That patient is troublesome, so I don't need to trouble her with this little problem."

"That's right. I'll find a family doctor to come later."

"Alright."

Amelia knew that if she did not agree, Jarrod would probably be able to take her directly to the hospital.

Ever since this man cut off his relationship with Jayden, he had become a lot gentler and he also cared about her health.

She touched her belly and wondered when she could have his baby. Although Jarrod didn't say anything, she still wanted to have a baby with him. However, she wasn't sure about her body.

Amelia hurriedly put down Lucas and was stopped by Jarrod when she wanted to chase after the person.

"Who was it?"

"It should be the people from the seniors. Don't worry about it. Quite a few people are watching us and the children recently. I will arrange for the bodyguards to keep an eye on them at all times. As for you, stay home."

Hearing Jarrod, Amelia nodded. When she turned to Lucas, Lucas didn't seem to hear anything. After tidying up his clothes, he smiled and said, "Uncle Jarrod and Aunt Amelia, I want to get some sleep."

"Alright."

The couple could tell that Lucas was not in a good mood, but Lucas didn't like to share what he was thinking about, so they did not ask anymore.

After they left, Lucas looked outside thoughtfully and didn't say anything.

Nicole had always been taken good care of, but she didn't see Samuel much. Even if they stayed in the same hotel, she could barely see him. Fortunately, Yanice was there with her, but in the second week of isolation, Nicole saw a newcomer.

"Sally? What brought you here?"

The moment Nicole saw Sally, she was stunned.

Sally looked at her, her eyes reddened.

"I just wanted to ask about Davon."

Her voice was a little hoarse, which made Nicole feel sad.

"Sally, I'm sorry."

She wanted to tell Sally that Davon was still alive, but she couldn't.

Sally knew that she was holding back her tears. She staggered for a moment and sat in front of the bed. She did not say anything for a long time.

"I know it's not good for your health to ask you about it, but I want to know..."

"I understand. To be honest, I wasn't at the scene, either. I only heard Samuel say that there was nothing left. There was blood all around. It seems like Davon's blood was a little special. To confirm whether it was his, my father even did a blood test."

Nicole lowered her eyes, her shoulders twitching as if she was choking.

Sally felt a sting in her heart.

"Is his body intact?"

It took her a lot of effort to say this.

Nicole nodded. She had an intuition that she was about to lose her patience, but she knew that she had to persevere.

Chapter 1504 It's Finally Over

Nicole suddenly felt an ache in her belly on a warm afternoon, which made Samuel nervous.

"Anyone there? Help! My wife is going to give birth!"

Samuel held Nicole's hand tight. Seeing that her forehead was covered in sweat and her face was pale with pain, he couldn't help but say, "Nicole, we don't need the babies, right? We're done here."

"What nonsense are you talking about? I'm nine months pregnant, and you're telling me that you won't have babies now? Samuel, you bastard!"

Nicole could only scold Samuel because of the pain as if this was the only way to relieve her pain.

Samuel could not care about this anymore. As long as his wife could alleviate the pain, he would have no objection to beating him up, let alone cursing.

"What should I do? What should I do now? You don't know how to deliver babies. Where is everyone? Do I still have to find a midwife for you now?"

The more Samuel said, the more ridiculous he sounded.

Nicole used to think that Samuel always had a poker face. Now that she saw his panicked and nervous appearance, she immediately felt her god just crashed.

"It hurts! Samuel!"

Nicole screamed in pain. Samuel hurriedly stepped forward but was grabbed by Nicole in the hair. Immediately, Samuel looked funny, but he didn't dare to move.

"Honey, honey, just scream, as long as you can release the pain."

Nicole found him extremely hilarious.

Yanice was the first to arrive.

"It's starting already?"

"Yes, Yanice, what should I do? What can I do now?"

Samuel was completely bewildered.

He never knew that a woman would give birth to a child like this. These days, accompanying her made him clearly understand that it was not easy for a woman to conceive and give birth to a child. She couldn't help but cherish Nicole even more, but he really couldn't take this sudden birth.

When Yanice saw that Samuel's nervous face was pale, she couldn't help but laugh and say, "You don't need to do anything, just stay with Nicole."

"Save it, please. Just leave him alone. I'm afraid that he'll faint before the babies come out."

Nicole panted as she spoke. She felt that the pain was so fierce that it was much fiercer than last time.

"The babies are so desperate to come out. It feels like they are coming out the next second."

Nicole was so painful that her entire body started to sweat.

Seeing that Nicole was in such pain, Samuel felt a little irritated since he couldn't do anything for her.

"How can we stop the pain?"

"Mr. Green, there is no way to relieve the pain of childbirth. The pain of having a child is equivalent to the pain of having ten ribs broken at the same time, but the women have to endure it. Women are risking their lives to give birth."

Chapter 1505 I Love My Babies

Gabrielle didn't care about Samuel's dumbfounded gaze at all. When she made this decision, she knew that some people might not be able to withstand it, but she couldn't care about the feelings of others. She could only focus on Nicole.

Nicole almost fainted from the pain when Gabrielle's hand reached into her body. This was not the end. Gabrielle still needed to find the child's head to help him get out. That feeling made Nicole twitch in pain.

Samuel looked at all of this as if he was petrified. He couldn't breathe.

What kind of operation was this?

How could his wife take it?

When he realized this, Samuel seemed to react and suddenly wanted to stop her.

"What are you doing? Nicole was already in pain when she gave birth, and you even put your hand in. Hurry up and take it out!"

Samuel was about to attack, but he heard Gabrielle calmly say, "Shut up if you don't want to go out. Don't move. I bet you can't afford to see three bodies."

Normally, Gabrielle didn't dare to talk to him like this, but this time, she couldn't care about that much, which shocked Samuel.

Although Nicole was in so much pain that she almost lost her mind, she still shouted at Samuel with anger when she heard that he was still causing trouble.

"Samuel, you bastard, you can't see me, can you? Let me tell you, if you say one more word, I'll kick you off and find another man. Do you hear me?"

Samuel pouted.

If it wasn't for Nicole giving birth, he really wanted to ask her which man she was looking for.

When Gabrielle saw that Samuel was finally quiet, she said to Nicole, "On my count, take a deep breath, and breathe. Follow my rhythm."

Nicole completely trusted Gabrielle and followed her instructions. Suddenly, she felt her belly relax. With a "wow" sound, a baby was born.

When Samuel saw the birth of the child, he was stunned. The little thing drenched in blood was his child?

Holy shit!

How ugly!

What was the white thing outside?

Samuel was so disgusted that he almost puked. Moreover, such a little being could torture his wife this hard?

Gabrielle and Nicole did not notice what Samuel was thinking about. They directly handed the child to the nurse beside them to wash it. Then Nicole started to face another wave of pain.

Nicole felt that she was running out of strength.

"Gabrielle, I'm running out of energy. What should I do?"

"It's fine. Stop talking and take a deep breath. You can do it."

Gabrielle's voice carried a trace of softness and Nicole involuntarily followed her voice and relaxed.

"Nicole, listen to me. Take your time. It's fine. Trust me."

Nicole nodded. At this moment, she completely forgot about Samuel.

Chapter 1506 Where Are the Girls?

Nicole felt that she had caught something, but it was gone in the blink of an eye, she heard Gabrielle say, "Samuel, when you saw the babies, they were just born. They were wrapped in placentas and were soaked in amniotic fluid. They were naturally ugly. We've cleaned them. It has been 12 hours, so the babies look much better. As a father, why can't you say nice things to them? What do you mean by they are ugly? Besides, this is the Military Hospital and I am the Director. From beginning to end, I was the one who handled it. You said that the babies were replaced? Did you think it was me? Then I have to find a pair of identical twins, right? Go check the birth records. Today, your family is the only one having babies. "

After Gabrielle said that, Nicole immediately understood. She suddenly felt so embarrassed.

Did Samuel go dumb as she gave birth?

Nicole felt extremely awkward.

She punched Samuel and whispered, "Are you stupid?"

Samuel reacted now. Yeah, with Gabrielle around, who could replace their children?

He lowered his head to look at the two babies. They were still asleep. They had soft hair and their tender fair hands were being sucked by them. Suddenly, it was as if something had gone into his heart. It carried warmth and gentleness.

"They look like Nicole."

Samuel suddenly giggled.

Nicole really wanted to say that she didn't know this fool, and Gabrielle immediately laughed.

Nicole said somewhat embarrassedly, "I'm sorry, this is the first time he's seen babies born. I guess he was too shocked. Don't take it personally."

"It's fine. Almost everyone who became a father for the first time is like this."

"This isn't my first time being a father."

Samuel giggled, but when he heard Gabrielle's words, he could not help but refute her.

"Shut up."

Nicole glared at him.

Samuel touched the back of his head. The more he looked at the two babies, the more he liked them.

"Are they boys or girls?" Nicole asked.

Before Gabrielle could say anything, Samuel said, "They look so cute, so they must be girls, isn't that right?"

As he spoke, he extended his finger to touch the babies' hands.

Wow, they were so soft and tender.

Gabrielle was stunned for a moment. She looked at Nicole awkwardly and whispered, "Does Samuel like girls?"

"Yeah. So they are girls?"

Nicole looked at Gabrielle and asked.

Gabrielle shook her head and looked at Samuel's happy expression. Suddenly, she didn't know whether she should say it.

"Boys?"

Nicole guessed the answer from Gabrielle's face.

When Samuel heard that they were boys, he paused for a moment, then quickly bent down to open their diapers. When he saw their private parts, his face darkened.

He looked at the other one in disbelief. When he saw that it was a boy as well, he couldn't help but say, "Why are they both boys? Where are the girls?"

Chapter 1507 It Feels Good to Have a Brother

Nicole seemed very concerned, but looking at her younger son's cute and naughty face, she felt a bit relieved.

The baby fell asleep after drinking the milk, and then Gabrielle held him to do a blood test. After all these, it was almost dawn.

Thanks to the withdrawal of the investigation order, the news of Nicole giving birth to the twins quickly spread to the Seapolis City. Jason and Mark were about to take Phoenix to see Nicole. And Jarrod also decided to fly a private plane to the Capital City at the begging of Lucas and the others kids.

Amelia rubbed her waist and said pitifully, "I really want to see the babies. It's so bad that my health condition won't allow me."

Jarrod looked at Amelia's pregnant belly and smiled at her gently.

"It's fine. After you give birth, Nicole will be back by then."

Amelia was already five months pregnant. In the beginning, she thought it would be difficult for her to get pregnant, but she surprisingly found that she had been pregnant since five months ago.

This was a pleasant surprise to Jarrod, who was over thirty years old. He had been worrying that the poisonous bugs inside his body would affect his children. So they were always very careful.

In the beginning, Jarrod was afraid that Amelia would give birth to a baby with poisonous bugs and would cry for her baby for the rest of her life. So he insisted on not keeping this baby. It was Amelia who threatened him with her life and said that even if he was disabled, he was still her son. In the end, Jarrod compromised.

Later, Blair gave Amelia a full body check-up and took care of her and the baby very carefully. Now that she was five months pregnant, and the baby was very healthy. Jarrod and Amelia cherished this baby so much.

They had thought it over. With their power, even if they gave birth to a baby with disabilities, they would accept it. At most, they could use all their wealth and power to save their child.

Thinking of this, they felt much more relieved, and Amelia also felt her pregnancy was much easier.

Lucas was very happy. It had been a long time since he saw his daddy and mommy. And he also was very excited about the coming of his two little brothers.

Even if he was happy, he tried not to show it.

But Zoe laughed out loud happily, even hugging Lucas in circles.

"Lucas, do you hear that? Mommy gave birth to two little brothers. We are big brother and sister now."

Lucas was also infected by Zoe, and his smile became bigger and bigger.

Joseph was very happy as well.

"I wonder who the two little brothers look like."

"They must be like mommy."

Zoe's words made Lucas and Joseph stunned. They asked in unison, "Why?"

"Boys take after mommy and girls take after daddy. They all say that."

Zoe's words made Lucas frown.

"They? Who are they? These shouldn't be the topic of conversation between children, right? Zoe, what kind of people are you meddling with?"

"Scram! Why are you still so sappy?"

Jarrold said with disdain, but he wore a half smile.

Samuel did not say anything else. He smiled and patted him on the shoulder, "Don't hurry. Wait until the result comes out to see the attitude of the higher-ups."

"You still have expectations for them."

Jarrold understood what Samuel meant.

Samuel smiled faintly.

"Jarrod, the environment in which I grew up is different from yours. I believe in the benevolence and righteousness of the higher-ups."

"I hope you're right."

Jarrod did not argue, but he still called his men to Capital City just in case.

Samuel did not stop him.

When Nicole woke up, she could not help but laugh when she saw that the room was packed.

"Uncle Jason, Evelyn, you're all here."

Phoenix came to Nicole and said with some envy, "You are really amazing. You are the mother of five children. I'm so envious."

"You can raise them with me. I can't take care of two brats by myself."

Nicole looked at Phoenix and found that she was in a good mood. She did not know if she had let go of the death of Davon, nor did she know if she was forcing her smile in front of her.

Phoenix hurriedly said, "Then it's a deal. I want to live with you and raise children with you. Mr. Green, do you have any objections?"

When Samuel came back from the outside, he heard Phoenix say this and immediately smiled, "The Green family is your mother's family. You can live here as long as you like."

"That's great. It's settled. I've long hoped for a child as cute as Lucas. Unfortunately, I can't give birth myself. Now that you've given birth to these two cute babies, I'll definitely stay at your house."

Seeing that Phoenix was in a good mood, Nicole and Samuel felt relieved.

"That's great. If you take care of the children, we can enjoy ourselves."

Samuel's words instantly stunned everyone in the room, and Nicole blushed with embarrassment.

This man was really getting sappier and sappier now.

She glared at Samuel before realizing that her children didn't come.

"Where are Lucas, Zoe and Joseph? Didn't they come?"

It had been a long time since she had seen the children. Nicole really missed them.

Samuel took care of the three children and came back. After all, Nicole was still weak. Although the maternity matron was here, he was not at ease.

When Phoenix saw Samuel's concern, she couldn't help but think of Davon. If he was still alive, what would he feel now?

Thinking of this, Phoenix felt sad.

When Gabrielle came in, the three of them were all there. Nicole and Samuel stiffened a little.

"How is it?"

Nicole's voice was trembling.

Gabrielle gave them the data and said with a smile, "Neither of them has any blood problems. It's very normal, and there's nothing wrong with the general examination."

Samuel and Nicole looked at the data and breathed a sigh of relief.

"Then why does the child have blue eyes?"

Nicole asked in confusion.

Gabrielle shook her head and said, "Laurence only gave you one drop of blood. Furthermore, the Berserk Gene in Laurence's body wasn't working at that time. His blood is mainly made up of medicine. Therefore, it should only have nourishing effects on children and not cause too much harm. Moreover, this data also shows that the children have no problems. As for the color of the eyes, do any of your ancestors have blue eyes? Maybe it has something to do with heredity. "

Hearing Gabrielle's words, Samuel hurriedly shook his head and said, "No, there is no foreign bloodline in the Green family."

Nicole also shook her head.

"There is no foreign descent in the Don family and the Shaw family."

Since it had nothing to do with Laurence's blood or gene, why would he have blue eyes?

Gabrielle could not understand.

Seeing that they were a little depressed, Phoenix hurriedly got up and said, "I'll go back to the hotel first. Since this matter has nothing to do with Laurence, I'm guessing that higher-ups won't detain you. Tomorrow, I'll pack up your things and prepare to go home. No matter how good it is outside, it's more comfortable at home, isn't it?"

"Yes, alright."

Nicole smiled and Phoenix left.

After Phoenix left, Gabrielle told Samuel and the others what the people from higher-ups had done.

Nicole was a little angry, and Samuel didn't feel good either.

"I'll handle this."

As Samuel spoke, he walked out of the ward.

Nicole didn't stop him, because she could more or less guess what Samuel wanted to do.

Samuel took the phone and went to a quiet place, calling Morty.

When Morty arrived at the Military Hospital, Samuel was slightly stunned, but he was not surprised. He and Morty were very good friends, so Morty would definitely come to stop him.

Just as Samuel was about to speak, he heard Morty say, "Pack up now. I'll take you home."

"What?"

This slightly stunned Samuel. When he saw Morty's moist eyes, he suddenly understood.

"Did you quarrel with Mr. Hill?"

"We've been like this for so many years. Don't worry about it. Take your wife and children with you and we'll go back on my plane. I haven't left the Capital City for years. I'm welcome to stay at your house for a few days, right?"

What else could Samuel say since Morty had said this?

"Of course."

"Then hurry up and pack up."

Morty pushed Samuel in and calmed himself down outside.

Samuel entered the room. Nicole had just napped for a while, but she had a lot on her mind, so no matter what, she couldn't fall asleep.

Seeing that Nicole did not rest well, Samuel felt a little distressed.

"What about going home?"

Nicole was stunned for a moment before nodding.

"Alright. Otherwise, we can never sleep well here."

"Then let's go home. I'll call Grandpa later to see where he is. He can go back with us."

"Okay."

After Nicole said that, she called Edwin. Knowing that he was about to arrive, Nicole told him what Samuel had said just now. Edwin did not object.

Samuel called Phoenix and told her to go back with Jason. He did not say why, but Phoenix could feel from his tone that something was wrong.

"Mr. Green, is anything wrong? Do you need my help?"

"No need. I'll go back with a friend. It's not convenient for him to see you."

Samuel was telling the truth.

Morty really didn't like to get in touch with strangers these few years.

Phoenix was relieved when she heard this.

Morty felt that Samuel and Nicole had talked for a while, so he walked into the ward.

"Nice to meet you, Nicole. I'm Samuel's friend. You can just call me Morty."

Morty smiled faintly and was quite approachable.
