Chapter 151: Thank You for Letting Go of Allen

"Do you know the phone number of the Brook Family?"

Nicole thought it was time to have a good talk with Rachel Brook, the old lady of the Brook Family.

The secretary hesitated for a long time, and finally gave the phone number to Nicole.

Nicole knew that without the approval of Rachel, the secretary would never disclose the telephone number of the Brooks'. The reason why she hesitated was that Allen did not let her speak.

Allen never wanted her to bear the criticism and burden of the Brook Family.

In her life, she couldn't fall in love with a man like Allen.

Because he was too perfect, too gentle, and too considerate and people could not find a trace of shortcomings. He was admirable and people dared not blaspheme.

Such a man should have a woman who loved him wholeheartedly, instead of her, a woman with someone else's children and living with another man. She was not worthy of him.

Looking at the phone number in her hand, Nicole took a deep breath and dialed it directly.

The phone was answered by a servant.

Nicole introduced herself and the servant quickly transferred her call. Soon, a commanding voice came.

"Miss Nicole, I'm Rachel Brook."

Lady Rachel was so serious, indifferent, and dignified.

Nicole took a deep breath and said, "Lady Rachel, I'm calling you for Allen."

"You should know that Allen loves you. You have delayed him for five years. My grandson is no longer young. He is 29 years old this year, and will soon be 30. Although there are many descendants of Brook Family, Allen is the only one who has made great achievements. Miss Nicole, do you understand what I mean?"

Nicole had never felt ashamed before. She had always thought that she had the ability to support herself. Even though Allen was willing to take care of her, she had also tried her best to match the position and salary that Allen offered. But at this moment, under the pressure of Rachel, Nicole suddenly felt ashamed.

"I'm sorry, Lady Rachel."

"I don't want to hear your apology. Five years ago, Allen insisted on bringing you back. At that time, you were injured all over, and you were even pregnant with another man's baby. We_ did not agree with your relationship and Allen. After all, the Brook Family is a well-known family, and Allen's wife must be a girl from respectable family. In any case, a woman like you is not worthy of him."

Nicole felt ashamed.

Five years ago, Allen protected her and her children, but also angered the Brooks. So, Allen had a bad time in the Brook Family in the past five years. However, he never complained in front of her. He still treated her as well as usual.

Nicole thought she did not deserve such a deep feeling. She had been thinking about how to do to repay Allen for his kindness, but had not found it so far.

Nicole didn't say a word. Lady Rachel continued, "Allen is a stubborn man. He has done so much for you in the past five years. He tried his best to raise your children, and even refused all blind dates. In the past five years, I have also seen your efforts, and I can see that you are not a woman who is snob. Although I do mind that you have two children, Allen is not too young and I am old. I just want to ask you, if Allen marries you, do you agree or disagree?"

Nicole was shocked by Lady Rachel's words.

What was going on?

Chapter 152: Were You Born in a Year of the Dog?

Everyone was stunned, and Nicole was even more stunned.

She didn't mean it! She didn't!

She wanted to bend down to pull Samuel up, but Lucas laughed loudly, letting her lose face.

"Bro, you are so embarrassed!"

Lucas's words made Samuel's face even more embarrassed.

"It looks good, no?"

Samuel asked gloomily, and Lucas quickly hid behind Nicole and stuck his tongue out to Samuel and said, "Who let you bully my mommy. You deserve it! You should be kicked onto the ground and learn from this."

"Lucas, are you crazy?"

Samuel stood up directly with anger.

Jacob Brown quickly turned around to buy shoes for Nicole.

He didn't see anything!

He didn't!

Jason looked at them with a smile, suddenly a little envious.

Nicole had always been polite in front of him, even with a trace of estrangement, but just now to Samuel, she acted with a cuddly gesture, was that coquetry?

Jason's smile deeply stimulated Samuel.

He had never been so embarrassed in front of anyone.

"Master Don, it looks good?"

Samuel smiled faintly, without any temperature in his eyes.

Jason didn't care, and said with a smile, "It's pretty exciting."

"Now that you have enjoyed it, get out."

Samuel vomited to death.

My life is totally in the control of Nicole's hands, right?

Nicole didn't dare to say a word, she had never thought of embarrassing Samuel in front of everyone.

Seeing that Samuel was full of hostility and that there really seems to be something to say between Nicole and Samuel, Jason couldn't bear to see Nicole sad, although he didn't want to make room for them.

"Boy, come on, I'll take you out to have fun. I heard that you are very interested in drones. How about we talking about this?"

Jason caught Lucas's weakness as soon as he acted.

"Do you know how to fly the drone?"

"I even have flown a real plane, not to mention the drone. I just retired from the army, and I lost my legs in the war, see? Go or not?"

"Let's go!"

Lucas hurried out from behind Nicole, but after two steps, he seemed to have thought of something again. He turned his head and said to Samuel, "If you dare to bully my mommy, I will definitely not spare you!"

“The Brook Family is cruel that they had hidden you and my son away for five years, and now they also blatantly rob my woman from me. Do they think that I am vulnerable?”

Samuel became angrier as he spoke, and even wanted to fly directly to the United States to find Allen to get even with him.

Nicole stopped talking, too.

This man was now a retard.

It was useless to say too much, he was stuck in his own dead end, without any reason at all.

Samuel had planned to listen to how Nicole coaxed him, but after a long time of anger, Nicole didn't react at all. He quickly turned his head around. Seeing Nicole's indifferent appearance, the anger in his heart became more intense.

“Nicole, do you wish I hate you now and let you go? Then you can stay forever with Allen, right? you are dreaming!”

Seeing Samuel getting more and more excited, Nicole directly withdrew her hand and said coldly, "I don't talk to a retard.”

Finished the words, she got up and left.

Samuel felt that he was insulted.

He who had an IQ of 180 was actually described as a retard by Nicole?

"Nicole, I said to stay! Where are you going? Joseph hasn't come out yet!"

"I'm going to the toilet. Do you also want to go?"

Nicole rolled her eyes directly, feeling that Samuel at this time was more irrational than Lucas.

No!

Lucas had never been irrational.

Nicole shook her head, raised her foot and walked towards the toilet.

Samuel was in a sulk on the same spot alone.

Everyone turned against him!

His son didn't take him seriously, and now even Nicole treated him like this. Didn't he have any charm at all?

She couldn't sit still just because of someone of the Brook Family who had proposed to her, right?

Samuel gritted his teeth angrily, feeling severe pain in his chest. Unfortunately, there was no one around to comfort him.

He felt very pitiful.

Why did he fall in love with such a heartless woman?

With no one around, Samuel was able to calm down and think about what happened just now.

The Brook Family proposed to Nicole, how dare they!

But what did Nicole say just now?

His mind started to play back like a rewind.

Nicole said, "I refused."

"Doctor, is my son okay?"

Samuel took Nicole's hand, stood up and walked quickly to the doctor.

The doctor looked at Samuel and Nicole, and said in a low voice, "Master Green is fine for the time being, but the drag this time was very powerful, which induced toxins in Joseph's body. If he hadn't been taken to the hospital in time, he would stop breathing now. Few people know how to use this kind of thing now, and it's basically something that is only used on the battlefields of Eastern Europe. I am really wondering, who would do this to such a small child? "

Samuel's eyes grew colder.

"Is he all right now?"

"Temporarily controlled, but recently he should be nursed back to health. It's best to have a big exchange transfusion as soon as possible. The child is too young, and if the lead stays in the body for too long, it will not benefit him at all."

The doctor's words made Samuel's face serious.

"I have the same blood type as him, may I use my blood?"

Nicole suddenly became nervous.

The doctor shook his head and said, "Mr. Green, I know that you are eager to save your son, but your current physical situation simply cannot satisfy the conditions we need. It is impossible for our hospital to sacrifice another to save one person. The Green Family is rich and powerful, so I think Mr. Green always has a way to find the source of Rh-negative blood. It just needs to be fast!"

The word "fast" pressed on Samuel's heart like a big mountain.

He could indeed use the relationship to bring in the blood source, but if it is a complete exchange transfusion, this operation is too risky. He was a little worried that Joseph could not make it through.

Nicole gently shook Samuel's hand and said, "Believe in Joseph, and believe in yourself, you both can make it through! None of the Green Family's children are coward."

Samuel looked at the strength in Nicole's eyes, and suddenly felt that he couldn't even compare to a woman.

He nodded and watched Joseph being pushed out.

He never thought Joseph was so small before, but now he was lying on the hospital bed, and his weak appearance was like a pitiful and frail cat or puppy.

Samuel suddenly felt distressed.

"Doctor, no matter how much manpower and material resources are spent, I hope he can get better."

"Don't worry, we will do our best!"

Nicole was afraid of disturbing the children, so she went out with her mobile phone.

Joseph looked at Lucas in front of him, suddenly a little envious of him.

If he and Lucas became brothers, would the auntie also become his mother?

Suddenly he missed his mommy.

For several days, he hadn't seen Mommy, nor had he received any phone calls from Mommy. Didn't she remember her own son?

Joseph sighed, secretly took out Lucas' cell phone, and gently dialed to Riley.

No one answered the phone, and there was some disappointment in Joseph's eyes.

On the other side, when Nicole received the call, she asked in a low voice, "What's the matter?"

It was Tim who made the call.

Ever since he felt Nicole's unhappiness about something, Tim began to investigate what had happened to Nicole during this period.

But whether it was the Green Family or the Don Family, both were keeping tight-lipped. He finally knew what had happened, but it was too late.

Tim knew that calling Nicole at this time might affect her rest, but he couldn't bear it anymore.

Why was he not by her side every time Nicole had an accident?

Tim's tone was very urgent.

"Nicole, do you treat me as a friend? Why do you never tell me if something happened? In your eyes, I am a playboy, and I can't help you with anything, right?"

"What's wrong with you?"

Nicole's arms began to be numb, itchy, and very uncomfortable. When she heard Tim's question, she didn't think of anything, just subconsciously asked.

"What's wrong with me? What can I do? In your eyes, I am just a dandy!"

After speaking, Tim directly hung up the phone.

Nicole found it inexplicable.

Why did Tim make this phone call?

She was really tired and didn't care too much about Tim's attitude and words. After hanging up the phone, Nicole returned to the ward and saw Joseph sleeping with Lucas. Then she walked over and covered the quilt softly for them. And she went to the bathroom alone.

The hot water ran against her arms, causing paralyzed nerves and blood to flow.

The feeling of suffering that Nicole had been enduring disappeared, and she felt much refreshed after taking a bath.

There was only one bed in the ward, and if Nicole slept on it, it would look very crowded.

She sat down on the sofa, yawned, and finally couldn't help falling asleep.

When the morning sun shone through the floor-to-ceiling windows, Nicole woke up. She saw that Lucas had got up and gently covered Joseph with the quilt, and she suddenly felt very full of love.

She thought of Lucas' treatment to Zoe.

"Lucas, good morning."

"Mommy, good morning."

Lucas smiled happily, which made Nicole feel pleased.

"Lucas, do you miss Zoe?"

"Of course, when shall we go back to see Zoe?"

Lucas really missed Zoe, but Nicole didn't say it, so he was too embarrassed to say, afraid that Mommy would be worried and miss her.

Nicole touched Lucas' head and said, "Alright, we will go back when Joseph finishes the operation. Then we will bring Zoe back to the Seapolis City, OK?"

"OK!"

"Who is Zoe?"

They didn't know when Joseph woke up. Hearing what Lucas and Nicole said, he subconsciously asked.

Lucas smiled and said, "Zoe is my younger sister, real sister, a very beautiful girl. You are not allowed to bully her when you meet her."

"Of course not!"

Joseph shook his head quickly, and said with interest, "Is she good-looking? Is she like a princess?"

When Riley saw the doctor, she grabbed the medicine tightly, thinking of drinking it as fast as possible, but was quickly stopped by the doctor, and took the medicine bottle away.

"Give it to me! Give it back!"

Riley was trying to grab it crazily.

This was her only chance to get out!

She must go out!

She couldn't stay here anymore!

It was Nicole Bush!

It must be Nicole who harmed her son!

Otherwise, how can Joseph foam at the mouth?

Riley was completely crazy at this moment. Now she did not have to pretend.

The doctor made a great effort to keep the medicine in his hand, and the guards outside the door also rushed in together, controlling Riley.

"Are you all right, doctor?"

"It's all right."

The doctor shook his head and stared at the bottle for a while.

"How did you get this?"

Riley clenched her mouth, saying nothing, but she decided that she must go out today, and then began to act like a fool.

"My candy! Give my candy back! Give it back!"

Although she was controlled by the guards, she was still struggling with all her strength to grab the medicine in the doctor's hand.

The doctor had a glimpse at her and said to a guard, "I need to go outside and make a phone call."

"Doctor, please."

"Come back! Give me my candy! Give it to me!"

Chapter 157 Riley, You Lunatic

After Joseph and Lucas disappeared, it was as if they completely evaporated from this world. No matter how many places Samuel searched, how many people Jason reached out to, and even with intervention from Tim and the Louis Family, there was still no news of them.

Swift still went to work every day to meet with different people and didn't show any special reaction.

Test results on the medicine bottle that Riley once held in her hand came out. It was a deadly poison that would kill anyone who touched it.

But what everyone couldn't figure out was that Swift was Riley's biological mother, so how could a mother let her daughter die?

Although many things could be attributed to Riley if she really died and everything would seem to be over, there would be no way to find the answer anymore.

Now not only was Riley not dead, but she was also missing along with two children. Not only was Samuel looking for them, but Swift was also looking for Riley. However, the three of them were never to be seen or heard of again and there was no news at all.

Nicole felt worse as the days went by. She forced herself to stay strong.

The day after Lucas disappeared, she finished revising the design drawings, and then sent them to the US head office with a computer.

The head office unanimously approved her design, and the cooperation between HJ Group and Eternal Group officially began.

Samuel was very distressed and worried as he watched Nicole work sleeplessly. But no matter how he discouraged her, Nicole did not stop.

Finally, four to five days after Lucas's disappearance, Nicole fell ill.

Samuel stayed with her every minute.

Nicole dreamed of fire and Lucas beckoning to her for help.

“Lucas!”

Nicole sat up abruptly, sweating profusely.

“Had a nightmare?”

Samuel turned on the bedside lamp.

Under the light, Nicole's eyes were erratic. Her body was sweaty and her face was sallow, making Samuel's heart ache.

"I dreamed that Lucas was being burned in the fire and every inch of his skin was burning. He was in pain. He called out, saying mommy save me. But I couldn't hold onto his hand."

Nicole curled up as she spoke, appearing particularly in pain.

Although Samuel and Nicole lived together and lay on the same bed, Nicole couldn't sleep at all at night after Lucas's disappearance. Samuel didn't think of anything else at all; just taking care of Nicole was making him tired.

Samuel knew that Nicole was really worried about Lucas after hearing what she just said. However, he had no news at all.

"I have searched everywhere in Seapolis City and I have searched every store, but there is still no news of them. Nicole, I know you are anxious. I am anxious too. Lucas is our son and the child of the Green Family. He will be fine."

Nicole leaned against Samuel's arms and collapsed completely.

"The last time they hid Lucas was in a beauty salon. Where will Lucas be this time?"

"I'll check, I'll definitely check."

"Then hurry up and go! Go! Lucas is suffering right now. He must be waiting for us to save him."

Nicole pushed Samuel like crazy.

"Well, I'll go, I'll go. Don't worry. I'll go right away!"

Samuel dressed and got out of the bed then quickly walked out.

Nicole didn't dare to delay either. She also changed her clothes and wanted to go out, but where would she look after she went out?

Nicole had no clue at all.

The bodyguards followed her, and no one dared to blink out of fear that something might happen to Nicole.

Samuel and Jacob walked in the streets and alleys, and searched everywhere, but there was still no news of Lucas.

"Mr. Green, this is unreasonable. Riley usually isn't close with anyone and doesn't have too many connections. How could she suddenly become so powerful that even the Green Family, the Don Family, and the Louis Family together couldn't find the people she hid? This is definitely not something we could imagine."

Jacob connected the events that happened in the past few days and told Samuel.

"I also know that we might have missed something, but what is it?" Samuel nodded and replied.

“Mr. Green, the other party must have taken young master Lucas away to make Mrs. Green anxious. Now I think we should guard Mrs. Green more, I'm afraid...”

Jacob's words were like medicine, and Samuel woke up suddenly.

Chapter 158 If You Don't Want to Die, Behave Yourself

Nicole fainted from crying.

Before she saw Lucas, she could still comfort herself. Lucas still had some self-defence skills. After all, he was with Macon for a long time.

All expectations and fantasies disappeared completely the moment Riley sent her the video.

Samuel saw Nicole faint from crying, and his whole body was enveloped in a murderous aura.

“Search, even if you have to search everywhere in the Seapolis City, you have to find Riley! Also, Jacob, get a hold of Swift. Send out the message that as long as Riley does not show up for a day, I will withdraw Swift's blood for an hour. If my son loses another drop of blood, I will definitely bury Swift and the entire George Family alive!”

At this moment, Samuel was fierce and violent. He wished to destroy the whole world. All sanity was gone the moment he saw Lucas' blood.

Samuel returned to the Green Family's house while holding Nicole.

Zama was discharged some time ago. When she saw Samuel, she wanted to step forward and say something, but she was stopped by Samuel.

“Zama, I'm not in the mood to listen to what you want to say. Nothing is as important as my son and Nicole. If you returned to stop me from being together with Nicole, then you can leave.”

After speaking, Samuel carried Nicole into the bedroom.

Seeing what Samuel was like at this time, Zama stopped talking.

“Zama, you've been part of the Green Family for a long time. You know what Mr. Green's temper is like,” said Jacob after he saw how Samuel acted.

“No matter how dissatisfied you are with Mrs. Green, young master Lucas is gone now. He is Mr. Green's biological son. Don't make any trouble at this time now.”

Zama's facial expression wasn't very pleasant.

She almost killed herself, but Samuel did not cut off from Nicole in any way. Now he ignored her for the sake of Nicole and Lucas.

Zama really wanted to leave and never bother with these things anymore. However, when she saw Samuel head downstairs by himself and looked like he was about to falter, she felt bad again.

“Sir, shall I go make you something to eat?”

“No, I can't eat anything.”

Samuel sat on the sofa.

"This is an order for the entire Seapolis City. No matter what the price we have to pay, we must find Zama!"

Once Zama was found, they would be able to find out where Lucas was at and maybe even Nicole as well.

Everything seemed to be related to Zama.

It was very likely that Zama was the one who caused Petty to disappear, protected Riley well, and caused Lucas to disappear.

Samuel felt terrified.

She was just an old servant, yet she had such a powerful network, couldn't be found when the three big families searched together, and was able to transport people right under their watch.

Was it because he was too incompetent or because Zama was too powerful?

Jason and Tim also heard the news and rushed to the Green Family.

This time, Samuel didn't hide anything from them and told them about Zama.

Jason's face was cold but didn't say anything. He turned around and went to search. However, Tim grabbed Samuel by the collar. "If anything happens to her, you'll have to deal with me."

"If something really happened to her, I wouldn't be able to forgive myself."

Samuel said coldly.

Tim let go of him, turned around and left.

While everyone went crazy looking for Zama, Lucas and Joseph were locked in a small room. Joseph called out to Lucas in sniffles and sobs. "Boss, you can't die. What am I going to do if you die?"

"Shut up!"

Lucas had a headache because of Joseph making a racket. He spoke weakly.

Seeing that he was awake, Joseph immediately continued in a happy tone. "Boss, are you awake? Are you not going to die?"

"Do you want me to die that badly?"

Lucas moved his shoulders and felt that he didn't have any strength at all. It seemed that the anesthetic wasn't out of his system yet.

He looked at the hole on his wrist that was left by the needle. Excessive blood loss made him appear particularly weak.

"Boss, would you like to drink water? I'll get you some water to drink."

Joseph ran out quickly, poured a cup of warm water, and handed it to Lucas.

He wasn't big, so it was difficult for him to support Lucas, but he didn't give up.

Water from the cup spilled on the back of Joseph's hand, but he didn't care at all.

Seeing what Joseph was doing, Lucas whispered. "Find a straw. It'll be more convenient."

"Okay."

Joseph followed Lucas' instruction and ran to find a straw.

Fortunately, there were straws in the room.

Joseph brought the straw over, put it in the cup, and handed the cup to Lucas.

Lucas was really hungry that he felt like he was seeing stars. He didn't know if it was because of excessive blood loss or because of hunger.

Chapter 160 He Will Be Fine

Joseph kept running and didn't dare stop at all.

Lucas' words kept ringing in his mind. Lucas could only be saved once he ran out and found daddy.

There were footsteps behind him, and Joseph hurriedly hid behind a trash can.

He had never had such an experience before that he trembled all over.

Seeing Riley getting closer, Joseph was too frightened to make a sound.

The woman in front of him was no longer his mommy.

She was the devil!

Joseph saw what Riley did to Lucas with his own eyes and even saw Riley punching and kicking him.

Riley said that he was born so that she could gain a foothold in the Green Family and become the young lady of the Green Family. But because of his stupidity, everything was over.

His mommy hated him!

This was the emotion that Joseph felt immediately.

She was no longer the mommy who cared for him.

Joseph was very sad, but he couldn't tell the boss because the boss was more injured than him.

He couldn't let boss die!

No!

Joseph curled up and hid behind the trash can, watching Riley run past him madly.

He dared not come out or make a sound.

It wasn't until Riley ran away that Joseph came out from behind the trash can and hurried towards the Green Family.

He couldn't tell the direction but remembered what Lucas had said.

He said to find a place to call daddy.

Joseph ran to the supermarket, crying and begging someone to lend him a phone to use.

Many parents with children couldn't help but feel sorry seeing Joseph that some even called the police right away.

The police rushed to the supermarket. The moment he saw Joseph, the chief felt as if his heart was in his mouth.

“Young master Joseph! Oh my god, how did you become like this?”

“I want to find my daddy, call my daddy! Save boss! Hurry up!”

Joseph firmly grasped the chief's cuff.

The chief couldn't help but quickly gave the phone to Joseph.

When Samuel received Joseph's call, he was anxious.

“Where are you?”

Joseph burst into tears when he heard Samuel's voice.

“Daddy, go and save boss. Boss has lost a lot of blood!”

Samuel couldn't bear it anymore.

The chief quickly reported the location.

Samuel brought Jacob and the others and quickly headed towards Joseph.

At the same time, Jason and Tim also received news.

However, when the group of people rushed to the small broken house, there was no sign of Lucas apart from the large pool of blood on the ground.

“Where is him? Where is him?”
