Chapter 1591 Give Me a Reason

Asked by Nicole, Jacob didn't know how to answer. His handsome face turned reddened.

Looking at him, Nicole said with a sneer, "Just divorce."

"No! Mrs. Green, I won't divorce her!"

Jacob suddenly became so nervous.

Nicole looked at him, thinking what Olivia had to bear for him. She said, "You said you won't divorce Olivia. Why did you hurt her so much? What has she done wrong? If you divorce and you are free, nobody cares no matter what you'll do with that Julissa Caldwell."

"There's nothing between Julissa and me! Mrs. Green, I swear!"

Judging from Jacob's anxious tone, Nicole didn't think that he was lying. However, she was quite disappointed at what he had done.

"I'll give you one week to consider."

After finishing her words, Nicole turned away.

Jacob was about to stop her but was scared by her cold gaze.

Out of Louis Group, Nicole thought about Olivia's sickness.

If it couldn't be diagnosed by a doctor, what kind of sickness would it be?

Olivia looked quite smart, but Nicole felt sorry for her because of her personal life.

Nicole went to the filming set directly.

Since she knew that Nicole had come back, Olivia understood that she couldn't possibly avoid Nicole.

When Phil saw Nicole waiting for Olivia while leaning against the door of her car, he was taken aback, wondering if he should walk up to her. Olivia heaved a sigh and said, "You can leave now."

"What about you..."

"What did you say?"

Nicole was taken aback.

Didn't Jacob cheat on Olivia?

If not, why Olivia would be like this?

Nicole was quite surprised and confused, but she couldn't ask Olivia right now. When Olivia gradually calmed down, she helped Olivia to sit back. Looking at her swollen eyes, Nicole couldn't blame her at all.

"Olivia, what on earth are you doing?"

Nicole heaved a sigh helplessly.

Olivia's suppressed grievance finally had been vented. She wiped her tears off and said, "I just don't want to be with him anymore."

"Does he treat you poorly?"

Olivia shook her head.

"Not really. He treats me very well, always caring about me. He also supports my career. If a good husband scores ten points, he could get nine."

Nicole slightly frowned.

"Divorce him! No matter how difficult it will be. You must divorce him!"

Nicole couldn't imagine how Olivia spent the past days.

What right did Jacob have to bully Olivia like this?

It was just because Olivia didn't have family here.

If Booth was in a good health, would Jacob have the guts to do it?

If Olivia's parents were still alive, would Jacob dare?

Seriously speaking, Olivia was a daughter from an influential family. What was Jacob?

If it weren't that Samuel liked him, Jacob was only an assistant in a company.

Nicole didn't blame him for wanting his own child. However, he had completely messed with the principles of having his own child.

He had established his desire on Olivia's pains and required her to accept it generously. If Olivia wasn't willing to, he remarked her as a vicious woman. It didn't make any sense at all.

Besides, he also made a mistake with that Julissa.

Relying on Jacob's baby, she kept harming Olivia unscrupulously.

What if after she gave birth and request to become Mrs. Brown in the name of the baby? Nicole wondered in that case, whether Jacob would kick Olivia out.

She believed that it would be better for Olivia to cut ties with him completely now rather than waiting until that happened.

Even Jacob hadn't cheated on Olivia, he was the party who made the mistake. In Nicole's presence, Olivia could get compensation from Jacob for sure. As for Olivia's love, Nicole couldn't help at all. Olivia could only help herself.

Upon hearing Samuel's suggestion, Jacob was startled.

He wondered if that was true.

Was he protecting Julissa?

Samuel didn't care what Jacob was thinking. He continued, "Do you know Olivia has fallen off the wire?"

"Yes, I do. But I just got to know it. Mrs. Green told me so. Mr. Green, I didn't know about this matter before at all."

Upon hearing that, Samuel choked up.

Heaving a sigh, he said, "Your wife fell off the wire. You even didn't know such a serious matter. Do you truly believe you love her?"

"Mr. Green, I truly love Olivia. You should know it. I can do anything for her."

"It was true in the past. Think about yourself now. Olivia fell off the wire and was sent to the hospital. Her assistant called you but Julissa answered the phone. However, you said you've just known this matter. It happened almost a month ago but you didn't know it until just now. Do you still think you love her? Besides, as soon as the incident happened, the crew member in charge of the wire quit his job. The wire was missing as well. Do you think it was a coincidence?"

While listening to Samuel, Jacob's eyes were darkened. Emotions surged in them, and he clenched his hands tightly.

He said, "Mr. Green, I felt quite stressed because of the baby. I need to hide it from Olivia and I need to care about Julissa's belly. I don't have the energy to do everything perfectly."

"Who has caused this situation? Why did you make a baby behind Olivia's back? Just because of your desire? If you truly want a child, and you had already known that Olivia couldn't become a mother, then why did you have to marry her?"

Biting his bottom lip, Jacob whispered, "I didn't have such a strong desire to have a baby before. However, in the recent two years, Olivia has been concentrating on her career. Whenever I got home, I could only face the loneliness and coldness at home. Then I was wondering if having a baby could make me less lonely. Olivia is quite stunning on the screen. She also has a lot of fans, so she won't feel lonely at all. I'm different, and I'm alone. I'm a married man, but whenever I'm at home alone and looking at the empty house, I doubt if I'm truly married. I just hope a child would make my house more lively. She likes her job, and I support her. She can't give birth, and I don't force her. What have I done wrong?"

Samuel had already lost the mood to argue with him.

So far, Jacob still hadn't realized what he had done wrong. He even started complaining that Olivia didn't care about their home.

Chapter 1595 A Climax

“Mr. Green, the baby is innocent,” finally Jacob uttered a few words.

Samuel wondered what else he could speak to Jacob.

He whispered, “Jacob, we’ve been good friends. Let me give you a kindly reminder -- divorce as soon as possible. Otherwise, there would be a fuss ahead. I can’t protect you. I’ve thought that you are a man who can be entrusted for life and even thought you are a good man with decent character. I thought Olivia would be quite happy after marrying you. But you’re truly different than I’ve thought. Probably everyone is selfish in some way. Some of us are selfish but it doesn’t mean they are bad or something, but some of us would turn others down by doing just one thing. I have to admit I’m so disappointed in you.”

After finishing his words, Samuel hung up the phone.

For so many years, Samuel seldom spoke so harshly to Jacob.

Jacob was taken aback for a moment as if he was hit by something. He stood there motionlessly and didn’t notice even when his cell phone dropped on the ground.

Mr. Green remarked that he was selfish. However, he had his reason to have done so. He was afraid that Olivia wouldn’t have anyone to rely on after getting aged.

If they had a child, even if he died earlier, Olivia would still have a baby, wouldn’t she?

The baby was raised by her. Since it was just born, it wouldn’t know anything. Hence, it would treat Olivia as its birth mother.

Jacob wondered why she couldn’t understand his effort.

Why was he remarked being selfish?

Jacob didn’t think he had done anything wrong. However, when he thought about Samuel’s words, he felt quite upset.

There were a few knocks on the door.

Before Jacob answered, Julissa opened the office door and came in with a cup of coffee.

“What happened? Why do you look so upset? I made you a cup of coffee. Try it.”

Julissa smiled brightly at him. However, Jacob recalled Samuel’s words.

"Are you crazy? Right now? I haven't even packed my clothes!"

Olivia was astonished at Nicole's decision.

But Nicole just smiled and said, "Clothes? We'll get you some new clothes when we get there. Let's go. There's a private jet waiting for us and ready to take off."

"I haven't eaten anything."

"We'll eat when we get there."

Olivia finally could see that Nicole had made up her mind.

Never mind.

She might feel a lot better if she went out of town.

And Nicole was with her. So why was she so afraid about this?

Samuel's fortune was far beyond her imagination. Money for a couple of new clothes meant nothing to him. She had gotten her own money anyway.

"If you say so, then let's go."

Olivia shrugged her shoulders and acted like she didn't care, just like the way she used to be.

Nicole really didn't want Olivia to be chained by an unhappy marriage and be so depressed. When Olivia said yes, Nicole and her drove to the airport and left City B.

Just like what Nicole presumed, Jacob was looking for Olivia. But her phone was turned off and no one knew where she went. Her assistant was ditched and didn't know anything, which made Jacob extremely worried.

But he was relieved to hear that Olivia had work to do tomorrow.

He knew she was serious about her job and he planned to find her there no matter what.

They hadn't really had a nice talk for a long time.

Nicole giggled, "You've done so much acting that you're confused."

As they went in, Zayn put down his work and walked towards them. Nicole introduced Olivia to Zayn.

Olivia's elegant behavior impressed him.

They had a dinner together afterwards.

Samuel had been working when Nicole wasn't around. He didn't eat much at dinner before so he ate again with Nicole since she was finally back.

After dinner, Nicole showed her around in the palace and Olivia was quite amazed.

Samuel thought he and Nicole could have some alone time. But then he saw Nicole took her pillow and went into Olivia's room. She ditched him.

Seeing that, Lucas laughed, "Dad, you want me to stay with you tonight?"

"Fine."

He thought Samuel would say no. But he said fine!

Lucas was regretful.

"Can I take that back?"

"No."

Samuel lifted his collar and dragged him away.

Olivia was surprised to see Nicole but she thought it was sweet for her to do that.

Chapter 1598 It's Much Worse When Living Is More Suffering Than Dying

The second he saw Olivia, Davon knew they met before. He remembered that he found her during a mission before.

Back then, she was hiding in a grave and looked terrified. He was trying to save her but he was on a mission and couldn't get her out of there. He gave her a phone number to call for help and told her his name was Davon. After the mission was accomplished, he asked his friends if they had gotten any calls, only to find out none of them got a call from her. Then Davon realized Olivia might not have a phone on her at all.

If she had one, how could she not call for help herself?

But he was too busy to think this through.

So she got sick after that?

If so, he owed her once.

He looked at the unknown components in the blood test result and frowned.

This was not a disease. It was poison!

A slow poison.

Who poisoned her?

Her husband?

Davon kept frowning and went out of the room.

"Davon."

Nicole was waiting outside. She stood up and looked nervous as Davon walked out. But Olivia just glanced at him and scrolled through her phone, as if she didn't give a crap about her condition.

Davon kept staring, which finally made her lift her head. She asked, "Something wrong with me?"

"No."

Davon didn't tell her the truth.

Nicole felt some tension in the air.

"Really, Davon?"

"Yes. She didn't sleep well lately and her blood pressure is too low. I'll give her some medicine and she'll be okay."

Davon patted Nicole's head, If Samuel saw that, he would get mad. Thinking that, he rubbed her hair and messed it up.

Chapter 1599 Who Is He

Olivia was surprised when Nicole said Jacob's name. She lowered her head and murmured, "I just wanted them to turn on each other."

"Turned on each other? With your life? Olivia, are you dumb?"

Nicole pointed at Olivia's forehead.

She was pissed off.

"What the hell happened?"

Seeing Nicole like that, Olivia didn't dare to hide anything.

"Jacob looked into the wire accident. He knew Julissa had something to do with that, but he pretended he didn't know anything and even protected her. He was afraid that I would do something to her baby. What can I do? I can get a knife and gut that woman, but what's next? Jacob and I would hate each other for the rest of our lives."

"What do you want Jacob to do to you? He already treated you like that. You still want him back?"

Nicole was so angry that her chest was aching. If Olivia said yes, she wouldn't care about her situation from now on.

Olivia shook her head, "No, I didn't do that so I could get him back. I love him like crazy, but I will never let him hurt me. Julissa did such things to me. I'm his wife and he acted like he didn't know anything. Then I realized that I should end this marriage. But I won't divorce him so easily."

"Did that have anything to do with you poisoning yourself?"

Nicole was confused.

Olivia smiled, "My assistant was appointed by Jacob. She works for him. He knew everything I did. But after the wire accident I found out the assistant was in touch with Julissa. Julissa even asked my assistant to buy me some nourishment. I've checked the nourishment. They put something in it. It was not poison but musk. If I took that for a long period of time, I would never be able to get pregnant. Maybe Jacob didn't tell Julissa about my health conditions, so she used this method and the assistant successfully got me to eat the nourishment. If she did such a horrible thing, why wouldn't I take advantage of it? Even if Jacob and I divorce, I want him to feel guilty and regretful. I want them to fight and turned on each other. He wants a child then I'll let him have one. But if he wrecked my marriage, I would make his life miserable!"

"Olivia!"

Even though she knew the poison wasn't dangerous to Olivia, Nicole's face went pale when she saw Olivia like that.

Olivia waved her hand, looking dead pale. She sat down by herself.

She didn't know exactly how she felt. She was joyful, thrilled and sad at the same time.

If Jacob didn't hurt her, she could tell him she could be a mother right now. He would be so happy. But now there was no need to do that.

Nicole didn't say anything and just wanted to be there with Olivia.

After a long time, Olivia said, "Nicole, I want to take a walk."

"I'll walk with you."

"I want to be alone. Can you lend me a car? I saw there are race cars in the garage."

Nicole was stunned. But considering what Olivia had been through, she nodded.

"Be safe. Call me if anything happens."

"Alright."

Nicole chose a safer race car and gave the key to Olivia.

Olivia took the key and went out.

She was driving fast. She was holding back when she was on the streets. But as long as she went out of town, she raced straight to the suburban area.

There was a moving dot on her phone. Clearly, someone gave her the location.

Olivia drove to the southern suburban area. There was a bunch of race car teams in a competition.

She drifted and parked the car nicely, then she got off the car.

The cars were chasing each other, competing for the best.
