

Escape Wife 1601

Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1601 I Spoiled You Too Much

Tony didn't expect that a woman who had just failed her marriage would be so sensitive about such kind of details. He was sort of impressed by Olivia.

"I suppose the rumors are true. You are too smart to be seen as a trophy wife."

"Stop changing the topic. Answer my question."

This was why she came to see Tony behind Nicole's back.

She didn't know Tony that well. It was all because she bumped into him when she had just found out that the nourishment her assistant gave her had something else in it.

At that time, he suggested that she should shift the medicine and make Julissa pay for it. Olivia had the medicine examined and it wouldn't do much harm to her body. She had got nothing to lose so she accepted his offer.

She thought this was just between the two of them and Tony made her believe the reason why he wanted to test his medicine. Whatever reason that was, she didn't care anymore.

But this morning, she woke up and saw the message he sent her that he would be waiting for her in the southern suburban area. At that moment, she became suspicious.

That was why she didn't tell Nicole who gave her the medicine. She wanted to find out whether she would bring disaster to Nicole and Samuel first. As for Davon, she just guessed that he might be involved.

"You know the relationship between Nicole and Davon?"

Olivia squinted her eyes.

Tony paused for a moment and stopped smiling. He said in a low voice, "You're smart. But aren't you afraid that I might kill you if I'm really onto those people?"

"I don't give a crap about death. But if I die, you won't be able to make it out of here. Though I haven't told her who gave me the medicine, she will find out who you are in a blink of the eye."

"You seem okay with it. But you will be long gone when that happens. Even if they find out, what can they do? Davon is not good enough to bring the dead back to life, is he?"

Hearing that, Olivia knew who he was coming for.

He used the medicine as a trap to draw Davon's attention?

But how could he know the relationship between Davon and Nicole?

Chapter 1602 A Letter of Challenge

Olivia was driving on the highway and thinking fast.

She was surprised that Tony was actually looking for Davon. But he was Nicole's cousin and they were pretty close, which was a big problem to her.

This was bugging her.

How did Tony know her relationship with Nicole and Nicole's relationship with Davon?

She remembered that Nicole and Samuel were quarantined and investigated for more than a year. Olivia didn't know why but she heard that the son of the Don family was dead. How did he come back to life? But the Don family didn't make a move, which meant that his revival was a secret. And she remembered that his name used to be Davon Sawyer.

So, if Tony could find such a big secret, he must have a powerful background.

She started to frown.

This was big deal and she couldn't pretend that she didn't know.

Thinking that, Olivia drove back to the palace. She didn't get stopped because the car belonged to the Royal family.

She went to Davon's lab but didn't see Davon so she went back. On the way, she saw Davon and Phoenix. They were smiling and seemed to be a lovely couple, which reminded Olivia of how sweet Olivia and Jacob's marriage used to be.

How could a wonderful man change like that?

Olivia was sorrowful but she still came towards Davon.

"Mr. Davon, can we talk for a minute?"

Phoenix glanced at Olivia, looking surprised.

She knew who Olivia was but they were not close. She knew Olivia was Nicole's best friend and she saw her once when Nicole was giving birth. How could she become so weak and tired in such a short time?

Phoenix asked worriedly, "Miss Olivia, are you doing well?"

"I'm alright. Thanks for asking. Can I talk to your husband for a while? Is that okay?"

"Of course."

Phoenix trusted him very much.

Olivia used to trust Jacob like that. But their marriage still didn't end up well. She was embarrassed to be here.

Davon noticed Olivia's difference and said quietly, "She needs special treatment. You also need to take some medicine, okay? I'll have the maid send it to you."

"I still have to take that?"

"Yes."

“I’m gonna kill him!”

Olivia turned around but Nicole grabbed her arm. And Davon began to smile.

“You can’t. He and I both studied under the same master.”

Nicole and Olivia were shocked.

“So you know each other?”

“Yes. He is not an enemy. But he is kind of cynical. We studied different fields under the same masters. He excelled at poison-making so he always wanted to challenge my capability of detoxifying. But this time, it’s more than just a letter of challenge.”

Davon frowned a little.

“What do you mean?”

Nicole was intrigued. She pulled Olivia to sit down with her so they could hear the whole story.

Davon whispered, “Tony is from the Country F. The Thompson family is one of the four officials of the Cabinet. But I heard that the Thompson family is in trouble now, which is probably why he is looking for me. And Olivia might be the referrer. I think Tony did some research on Olivia and might even know about what happened with Jacob before he approached her.

Chapter 1604 Let Them Take Care Of It

Nicole suddenly didn't know what to do.

And Olivia couldn't face herself anymore.

She couldn't just ignore what Jacob did.

But getting divorce was too painful for her. And to be honest, she didn't want to.

Yes!

She didn't want to!

It was Jacob who carried her downhill when she was all alone in the grave. At that time, his shoulders were so broad and comforting.

Afterwards, he devoted a lot for her. He even gave up his promising career for her and became a businessman. He also did a lot for her career and her dream.

Other people didn't know everything. But she knew the best that Jacob gave up a lot for their relationship. She always took it for granted and did nothing in return. When she had done filming at night and called him to say she missed him, Jacob would come to her from miles away just to see her and bring her food.

But such a caring husband cheated on her and had a baby with another woman behind her back!

Though they never met, she couldn't stand that this baby was not hers.

Davon could tell that Olivia was feeling miserable and he felt sorry for her. But sometimes he had to tell the truth or she would continue to think in a wrong way. He was not taking Jacob's side. He just wanted Olivia to see that the heart wanted what it wanted.

Davon dragged Nicole out of the room as Olivia was feeling bad.

Nicole seemed not very happy.

Seeing Nicole like this, Samuel knew she felt terrible. He said, "Stay with Lucas for a couple of days. Morty will come and take him back in two days. What are you gonna do then?"

"I don't know. You? You transferred all your properties now?"

Nicole knew Samuel had been quite busy and she had to ask.

Samuel smiled, "Things need to be taken slowly. Don't worry. But I'm gonna go abroad after a while. I got some things to deal with."

Nicole nodded.

Now they were in unusual times. It was natural that Samuel needed to go out. Nicole just wanted him to be safe.

"Take care of yourself. If anything happens, call me."

"Okay."

"I'll help you pack up."

“No need. I’ll be back in two days. It’s not business. It’s kind of personal.”

Nicole froze.

“Personal?”

“Yes. One of my comrades passed away. We used to be very close. I want to see him for the last time.”

Samuel didn’t hide this from her.

They were soldiers and it was normal to sacrifice. But it was still devastating.

They devoted themselves to their nation and people. But for their families, it was cruel. Now Samuel wanted to say goodbye to him.

Nicole couldn’t fully understand his feelings. But she knew he must go.

She turned around to fix his collar. She whispered, “I know it doesn’t help much for me to comfort you. But you have to look after yourself, okay? You’ve got your wife and children here.”

"What happened?"

Jacob's voice was trembling.

Looking at Samuel's expression, Jacob suddenly grabbed his hand and asked nervously, "Did it have anything to do with Olivia?"

"Let me ask you a question -- will you not care about Olivia's life and death for your baby?"

As soon as Samuel finished asking, Jacob suddenly became excited.

"How could it be?"

"If you were asked to choose between the baby and Olivia's life and death, which one would you choose?"

Jacob was in dilemma after hearing the question.

His obsession and persistence with children were beyond everyone's imagination. However, he also loved Olivia truly, which couldn't be denied.

Hence, Jacob frowned deeply. He asked while looking bitterly, "Do I have to make a choice? Can't I choose both options?"

"There are a lot of things in this world that you can't choose both options. Jacob, don't be so greedy."

Heaving a sigh, Samuel patted on his shoulder and whispered, "After Olivia went back to Country F with Nicole, Davon checked her up. Olivia was drugged by chronic toxicity. She has started coughing blood. The hospital couldn't diagnosis what kind of poison it was. No one knows how long she could live on."

After finishing his words, Samuel lifted his foot and walked away.

He had told Jacob whatever he ought to. It would be Jacob's decision to make the choice.

Jacob felt as if he was struck by the lightning. He stood motionlessly, and Samuel's words kept reechoing in his mind.

Chapter 1607 It Was She Who Came to Jacob Actively

'Julissa Caldwell!' Jacob's inner voice roared out this name.

Jacob wasn't a fool. Thinking of those video clips, he naturally could figure out what had happened exactly.

Originally, he had thought that Julissa just needed more money and she probably would aim for the position of Mrs. Brown so she would do something extreme. However, he had never expected that she would play dirty tricks to harm Olivia.

Under the circumstance that Olivia wouldn't face any life risks, Jacob had been tolerant. He wanted to punish Julissa after the baby's birth. However, Julissa was so bold that she wanted to kill Olivia and become his second wife.

Jacob wondered what Olivia felt at that time.

He repeatedly watched the last video clip. Olivia was squatting down there like a dumped puppy. She kept weeping and laughing, just like a lunatic.

He couldn't help but recall the first time when he carried Olivia on his back to walk from the cemetery to the bottom of the hill. Back then, he felt sorry for her a lot because he had seen how lonely and helpless she was in the cemetery. His heart was softened and his nose went sore for her.

At that time, it was someone else who had bullied Olivia, and Jacob was just a passer-by. He disdained the man who had bullied Olivia to the extreme. But, how about now?

Olivia was still lonely and helpless, but it was Jacob who had harmed her.

Even he hadn't done anything in person, it was caused by his neglect and inaction.

How much he had despised the man at that time, how much he was despising himself now. He even wished that he would kill himself.

No wonder Olivia wanted to divorce him.

Jacob believed that if he were Olivia, he wouldn't need such a marriage either, and nor would he continue living on with such a bastard.

Chapter 1608 Olivia Is My Rock Bottom

Julissa had the evil intention after she got pregnant.

She was a young woman and had never had a boyfriend. She didn't know that a mother would suffer so much to get a tube test baby.

In the beginning, the matching was unsuccessful, and the ovulation needle almost killed her. The unbearable pain behind it made her feel more unbalanced.

Why would she have to suffer so much but her own baby would call another woman Mommy?"

Julissa knew how wealthy Jacob was and also he was a talented businessman. His risk control company would surely make a profit. If she didn't fight for such a good husband and would dump her son to go abroad, Julissa didn't think she would find such a rich and handsome man like Jacob in the future.

Since something was wrong between Olivia and Jacob, Julissa believed that she could take the chance to separate them.

In the beginning, Julissa was afraid and worried. However, she didn't expect that Olivia didn't make a fuss and even disdained to speak to her. Olivia also kept silent for the small tricks she had played and tolerated them. Also, after Jacob got to know what she had done to Olivia, he just turned a blind eye and let go of her. Julissa became bolder and bolder.

She had never expected that Jacob would want to kill her.

The assistant to Olivia, Ava, was found by Julissa. She knew what Ava's weakness was. She just threatened her and then she gave Ava some benefits. Ava naturally took Julissa's side. However, Julissa wondered how Jacob got to know it.

She believed that it must be Olivia who had told him.

It turned out that Olivia always kept silent, but she would react after finding the vital point.

Julissa's brain worked fast. She felt more and more strangled. Looking at Jacob's eyes, she realized that he was truly going to kill her.

It was the first time she felt fearful.

The ever-rich-and-handsome man in front of her looked like Death from hell. He was brutal and horrible.

Julissa gaped.

She wondered how it could be.

Didn't Jacob like the baby the most?

Why did the baby mean nothing to him at all right now?

"No! Mr. Brown, you must be kidding me. You don't like Olivia Kent! You like the baby. You want a baby that belongs to you. What can you get if you are with her? She can't give you a baby! She never can!"

Jacob kicked her away. Julissa flew afar. The blood under her was so shocking. The whole office was fulfilled with the smell of blood. However, Jacob didn't care about it at all.

“I do care about the baby. I do want to have a baby. Said who I don’t love Olivia? She’s my wife! I proposed to her myself! I can even give my life to her. Who do you think you are? Do you know what love is? You want to guess my mind through judging my attitude, don’t you? You asked me what I can get when being with Olivia. Let me tell you -- she’s where my love is and she can give me peace in mind. She’s the existence in my heart that no one else could replace. In the beginning, I warned you not to tell her about it. Behind my back, you tricked her secretly and made her heartbroken. I knew it. For the sake of the baby, I did bear what you’ve done. I planned to punish you after the baby is born. You should pay back my Olivia’s tears in double, in ten times. You must suffer what my Olivia has suffered one after another. You do have balls. Can’t you wait even for nine months? How dare you drug my Olivia? You should feel lucky I still have some reason right now. Otherwise, I’ve already killed you.”

After speaking, Jacob pulled out his cell phone and called the ambulance. Julissa finally couldn’t hold on and fainted. The blood continuously flew out of her lower belly. The onlookers were so shocked.

They all held their breath.

Inwardly, they couldn’t help exclaiming.

What breaking news had they overheard?

They wondered if they would get in trouble by watching the fun.

Would Mr. Brown do away with them?

The onlookers became frightened. Jacob looked as if he hadn’t seen them at all. After calling the ambulance for Julissa, he called the police.

When the police came in, Jacob kept silent and left with them.

The employees at the scene gaped.

“Or, how would you like to explain those sudden things done by Jacob?”
Nicole felt a light pain on her forehead. She glared at him unhappily but didn’t speak anything else.
Samuel repeated what he had said to Jacob to Nicole.
Nicole understood instantly.

“In Jacob’s heart, Olivia is still the most important. Before facing life and death, he could be quite persistent with the baby. However, if the baby conflicts with Olivia’s life and death, he has chosen Olivia without any hesitation. It means Olivia is still his beloved woman.”

While she spoke, Nicole felt a bit upset.

“However, what he has done would put Olivia in a dilemma. Earlier, he has gone too far and been such a scumbag that all of us wanted to beat him to death. Now, he used a fundamental solution. If Olivia doesn’t want to forgive him, would others think Olivia is sensible? Or they might criticize her for not loving Jacob as deeply as he loves her.”

Seeing that Nicole was angry, Samuel said, “It’s their own business. Let them resolve it by themselves. You don’t need to worry about them.”

“How could I leave them alone and not worry about them?”

Nicole rolled her eyes at Samuel.

Samuel hugged her and said with a smile, “Anyone who’s facing such a situation would be in a dilemma. They love each other and there is no mistress. The problem occurred because they didn’t know how to communicate with each other and how to manage their marriage. However, no one was born to be able to manage the marriage. We also experienced a lot of ups and downs before finally being happy, didn’t we? Jacob has realized that he was wrong, so he must show his attitude. I guess he didn’t plan to let go of himself when he decided to abort the baby and punish Julissa Caldwell. After all, Olivia was harmed and he chose to ignore it. He encouraged Julissa to become bold, and he was also an accomplice. He has done it not for making it difficult for Olivia but to give her an explanation. If I’m not wrong, probably he would propose the divorce and set her free.”

“Divorce?”

Nicole was taken aback.

Suddenly, she realized Jacob’s former identity.

Both Jacob and Samuel used to be soldiers, which could teach them a lot of things, including how to be responsible man.

Jacob was a jerk earlier. At that time, he hadn’t realized his mistake and even thought that Olivia couldn’t understand him. Right now, he realized it so he would bear the consequences of making the mistake.

Hence, when Jacob came back to punish Julissa, he had already made up his mind.

Upon thinking of it, Nicole suddenly thought of something.
