

Escape Wife 1661

Chapter 1661 She Can't Even Keep Her Daughter, Can She?

Mrs. Shaffer's heart went cold when she heard this.

"Dad, do you want the Shaffer family to have no descendants as much Cody Shaffer does?"

"No. But with what the Shaffer family has done over the years, do you think it will be possible for its descendants to survive?"

Chad Shaffer's eyes opened with heartache.

In fact, no one would be more heartbroken than he was.

He had been wise and brilliant all his life, but both of his sons' merits were lost out by Cody Shaffer, and now he was burdened with stigma.

He knew better than anyone that if this incident was exposed, no one, not to mention Mr. Hill, could save the Shaffer family.

And over the years, had anyone in the Shaffer family been clean?

If there was a thorough investigation, the Shaffer family would be scattered, and no one would escape, including his daughter-in-law.

He knew that Mrs. Shaffer had suffered in the Shaffer family over the years, but she had also helped Cody Shaffer do some bad things for the sake of her child's well-being, and Cody Shaffer had just threatened her with these things.

Neither of them could get away with it.

Perhaps it was because of this that Mrs. Shaffer planned to see Cara one last time while she was still unconscious.

Chad Shaffer had mixed feelings now.

Mrs. Shaffer froze for a moment and then understood what Chad Shaffer meant. She said with a bitter smile, "So now Cara is known by them?"

"What do you think could be hidden from Mr. Hill and Mr. Morty?"

Chad Shaffer's words were tantamount to shattering all hope in Mrs. Shaffer's heart.

Chapter 1662 Too Inhuman

Chad Shaffer did not force Mrs. Shaffer to answer, and he knew she would figure it out sooner or later.

The car was quiet for a while and the atmosphere was somewhat depressing.

The driver drove quietly as if he was just a tool man.

The car soon arrived at Morty's house.

Morty's house was brightly lit and he was standing outside the door to greet Chad Shaffer personally. It was obvious that Chad Shaffer had informed him in advance.

Just as the car was about to stop, Mrs. Shaffer suddenly asked in a low voice, "Dad, why do I have to talk to Mr. Morty? Wouldn't we have a better chance of winning if we confessed to Mr. Hill?"

"Mr. Hill is old, and sooner or later the world will be Mr. Morty's. Don't you see? The Shaffer family was the touchstone given to Mr. Morty by Mr. Hill. The quicker and better Mr. Morty solves the problem, the more satisfied Mr. Hill will be, and the higher the national outcry will be when the time comes. Don't you think I don't know what Cody Shaffer has been doing for over a year! He's been canvassing for votes everywhere, and he's eyeing Mr. Hill's seat, isn't he? That bastard! How can he deserve it?"

Chad Shaffer finally spoke up what he was thinking, and Mrs. Shaffer broke out in a cold sweat.

It turned out that Chad Shaffer knew everything, and so did Mr. Hill.

They were just stepping stones for Mr. Morty's rise to the top, which was why they had survived until now.

The funny thing was that Cody Shaffer really thought he was quite capable and kept being proud of himself.

It turned out to be a trap from the start.

Cody Shaffer thought he had set Elvis up to take all the blame, and he could steal everything behind his back to pave his own way. But Mr. Hill knew it all along and was just using it to train Morty.

Sure enough, Morty and Samuel grew close along the way, and Tim and Samuel were related. Now with the Mason family's sailing line, when the time came, as long as Samuel was Morty's man, the Mason family's sailing line was ready to do anything for Morty whenever he needed it, such as smuggling supplies to overseas battlefields without anyone knowing.

Now she was wondering if it was true or not that Jacob was missing on the overseas battlefield.

Mrs. Shaffer thought about it one by one, while her back was wet with cold sweat.

Mr. Hill was the shrewdest one.

Chapter 1663 How Dare I Expect Her To Forgive Me

"Dad, I'm going in to see my daughter."

Mrs. Shaffer couldn't wait to see Cara now.

It had been over twenty years and she didn't know how she was doing now.

Mrs. Shaffer barely waited for Chad Shaffer to speak before she headed towards the room off to the side, with Luna following behind her.

Morty came out and saw that Chad Shaffer seemed to have aged a lot overnight. He waved away the people around him and personally poured a cup of hot water for Chad Shaffer and handed it over.

Chad Shaffer was slightly dazed. When he realized that the person in front of him was Morty, he quickly took the cup and thanked him.

He was really a bit puzzled. To speak of power, the Hill family was incredibly powerful, but Morty had never gone astray. How could it be that his sons had become social tumors and national scum?

He had followed Mr. Hill around the world, and he had seen how Mr. Hill had educated Morty. How did his sons get to this point?

Chad Shaffer could not understand, and looked at the cup in his hand for a long time without speaking.

Morty sighed and said, "Uncle Shaffer, don't worry. We won't implicate the innocent. You permitted this, didn't you?"

Chad Shaffer laughed bitterly and didn't say anything.

What should he say?

Even if he obstructed it, and even if he didn't allow it, what could he do? There was no way to hide what those bastards had done. As the Green Family's case was resolved, little by little, it would all unravel.

Who would have thought that Cara would have met Nicole?

It was probably fate.

"Miss, it's too aggravating for you to be like this."

Luna, somewhat sad to see Mrs. Shaffer like this, raised her hand to wipe her tears.

But Mrs. Shaffer said contentedly, "Aggravating? Maybe. But now that I see her, I don't think it's a big deal. Now my life is coming to an end, but I can see her alive and can even anticipate her peaceful life afterward. I feel that God has been good to me. My bond with her was too short in this life, but hopefully, I can make it up to her in the next. Perhaps not having a mother like me would be a blessing to her."

Cara listened as if she knew the identity of the person in front of her. She tried to open her eyes to look at her mother, but unfortunately, she couldn't.

Mrs. Shaffer sat with Cara for a while. She knew that it was almost time, then kissed her forehead reluctantly and turned to leave.

It was the first time Cara had ever felt a kiss from her mother, and she couldn't help but feel her heart jolted. She hated how powerless she was now, and wondered if Mrs. Shaffer would return later.

Chad Shaffer had come to his senses outside. After all, he was a man. After talking to Morty for a while, he saw Mrs. Shaffer come out with red eyes. He slightly froze, then sighed and said, "Can I go in and see her?"

His attitude took Mrs. Shaffer by surprise.

"Of course you can. You're her grandfather."

Chad Shaffer gave a bitter smile and then walked in.

He looked at Cara on the bed and said with tears, "Cara, I'm sorry for you. I didn't know about you even in the earlier years. Now I know, but there is nothing more the Shaffer family can give you. I hope you won't blame me."

After saying that, he gently touched Cara's head and took out a piece of emerald from his pocket, and put it around Cara's neck.

"I went to the temple shortly before you were born and asked for this for you, hoping that it would keep you safe. Unfortunately, after you were born, I thought you were dead and I didn't give you this. Today I am finally putting it on you with my own hands. My child, you are strong. I know you have suffered too much, but you have pulled through. Of all the descendants of the Shaffer family, I think you are most like me. Blair said you might not make it, but I don't think so. You are my granddaughter. How could you not make it? Not to mention you're worried about Laurence, aren't you? I know all about you, but I have to tell you that if you keep lying down, Laurence could be in danger. So you must cheer up."

Cara's heart ached suddenly.

Chapter 1665 You're So Bad

Cara was already awake when Blair arrived. She just looked at Luna without saying a word, but the look in her eyes made Luna's heart ache.

"Miss Cara, how are you feeling? Does it hurt a lot? Hold on for a while. Mr. Blair will be here in a minute."

Luna's distressed look made Cara feel very bad.

She thought of Mrs. Shaffer.

She had been thrilled when she first learned of her identity, but Cody Shaffer's words had knocked her into the abyss.

Cody Shaffer's attitude towards her was indescribable. The look of disgust on his face and the way he couldn't wait for her to die had made her question her life for a while.

What was wrong with her being a girl?

Did girls deserve to die?

What era was this? It wasn't like the Shaffer family had a throne to inherit. How was it that she couldn't live because she was a girl? How was it that she couldn't be tolerated by her own parents?

She had thought her mother was the same way, but Mrs. Shaffer's words made her understand a lot.

In fact, Cara had given up struggling and had given up on life. The moment Cody Shaffer told her who she was, she was devastated.

Since he had given her life, if he wanted to take it back, she would just give it back to him.

She didn't care about her life!

What was the point of living for a child who was not recognized and acknowledged by her parents?

It wasn't until Mrs. Shaffer's arrival and Chad Shaffer's words rang in her ears that Cara realized how stupid she had been.

Why would she want to die?

Even if everyone didn't love her, she still had Laurence and Mrs. Green.

She didn't have just her parents in her life.

For over twenty years, they had no part in her life, so who were they to decide whether she lived or died?

Especially when Mrs. Shaffer said that it might be the last time they would see each other, Cara wanted to open her eyes and look at her mother.

Shaffer, even more so, made Cara feel mixed emotions and do not know

"Mommy, be careful!"

Lucas was so frightened that he shouted quickly, but then he saw the car stopped in front of them. Those people who got out of the car were all Morty's men.

Nicole frowned slightly. Meanwhile, Xander stepped forward quickly.

Those people were saying something in a low voice that they couldn't hear clearly. With a serious face expression, Xander looked in the car, and then nodded.

Then they drove away just the way they came.

After getting in the car, Xander whispered, "You are going to stay at Mr. Morty's house temporarily. The Capital City will not be peaceful tonight."

"What's wrong? Something is about to happen?"

Nicole asked anxiously.

Xander told Nicole about the Shaffer family in detail while driving.

Although Lucas also told Nicole about it before. It was not as detailed as what Xander told her. Now she couldn't help but felt at loss after hearing this.

"This reveals the secret side of the Shaffer family. By the way, how is Cara now?"

"News came that she just woke up. Even after knowing her identity, she was still calm. But I'm afraid that Mrs. Shaffer would not be able to get out."

Xander really couldn't imagine why a father in this world could be a cold-blooded and ruthless father like Cody.

Nicole couldn't understand either. But she was still worried about Cara.

The car quickly drove to Morty's place.

Morty was not there, and the house was empty. Obviously, he came out for some business.

Nicole checked out the time and didn't say anything. After she settled down with Lucas, she didn't let Xander go out, but asked Xander to take care of those children, and then she went to Cara by herself.

She knew that Cara might already be asleep in the late night, but she had been just worried.

Luna woke up immediately when she heard the footsteps.

Although staying here, Luna is very cautious and takes care of Cara meticulously.

When Nicole came in the room, she saw a middle-aged woman holding a mop and looking at her cautiously.

Chapter 1667 The Hope of the Shaffer family

When everyone was asleep, Morty had already sent his man to surround the Shaffer family.

Cody was dragged up while sleeping, and he was very grumpy.

“Bastards! Who the hell are you? Do you know who I am? How dare you to break into the Shaffer family? Wanna take a bullet?”

Chad’s slap made his mouth shut.

Cody now completely sobered up.

He looked at his father who was standing in front of him, and was completely shocked.

“Dad, what are you doing here in the middle of the night?”

The woman lying next to Cody was certainly not Mrs. Shaffer.

Looking at this wastrel, Chad almost spat out blood.

“You still remember that I am your dad? Cody, you are a fucking pussy!”

The woman next to Cody quickly pulled the quilt to cover herself, shivering in the corner.

She only heard that Old Mr. Shaffer was working with Old Mr. Hill, but she didn’t know why he brought his subordinates to Cody’s room in the middle of the night.

When Cody heard his father scolding himself, he retorted, “Dad, what on earth is going on here?”

“Dress yourself up and get out of the fucking room!”

Cody didn’t know what’s going on, but still, he put on clothes and went out of the room cursingly, only to see there are many people standing in the waiting hall.

These people were wearing army uniforms, and Morty was sitting on their sofa drinking tea. Morty couldn’t help but smile when he saw Cody coming out.

“Mr. Shaffer, Good morning!”

It was only just two o’clock in the morning, this “Good morning” was too strange. But this made Cody a little uneasy.

“Why is Mr. Morty here?”

Chapter 1668 What Do I Want You to Do?

Cara never thought that she could have this opportunity before. Now after hearing about Chad's heroic deeds and knowing her real identity, she actually did want to join the army. But what Cody did was a huge obstacle in her journey of joining the army.

Thinking of this, Cara's excited mood gradually fade away, and she lowered her head and said, "I'm satisfied with what I have right now."

Chad looked at Cara, trying to understand why she would say this. He sighed and said, "Child, you are a good girl. If you want to join the army, Grandpa will find a solution for you."

"Grandpa! I'm fine with who I am right now."

Cara knew that Chad had never used his power for personal reasons in his life, and she didn't want the old man to compromise his dignity and honor.

She didn't have to join the army. She would be just fine even staying with Night Elf.

Nicole offered her a lot of feelings that she couldn't had before, and she was grateful for that.

Chad looked at Cara without saying anything but his heart was filled with mixed feelings.

"I heard that you fall in love with Laurence?"

Speaking of her sweetheart, Cara's face finally turned rosy.

"Well, he is fine."

Thinking of the surveillance and investigation against Laurence from above, Cara was a little worried.

"Grandpa, Laurence is completely recovered now!"

"I know. Don't worry. I won't do anything to him."

Chad's words didn't relieve Cara, she was still worried.

"Grandpa, what would you do to him? What about your supervisors?"

"Neither will them. But as for Laurence, I'm afraid he can't live an ordinary life in the future."

What Chad said made Cara even more worried.

“Grandpa, what do you mean by this?”

and then whispered, “Although Laurence is back to normal. His military talent, his mobility, for example, was amazing. The Hearing Nicole entrusting Lucas to her, Cara nodded quickly.

“Madam, don’t worry, I will take good care of Lucas.”

“Take care of yourself, too. By the way, Mr. Morty and I have already agreed on letting you visit Mrs. Shaffer soon.”

Cara was stunned by this.

Luna was also very excited.

“Mrs. Green, is this true?”

“It’s true, but maybe this is the last time that you can meet each other, Cara, you have to be mentally prepared.”

Nicole knows Cara’s desire for family affection, but this is so serious that there cannot be any exception. It was a favor to let Cara meet her.

Cara knew it too. She nodded, feeling a little down.

Because of the impact of this incident, Nicole’s parting mood eased a little.

Cara was sent out in a special car in the afternoon, accompanied by Luna.

Actually, they didn’t need to bring Luna with them, but Cara knows Luna’s feelings for Mrs. Shaffer. She wished to give them a chance to say farewell.

When she sat in the reception room seeing Mrs. Shaffer came out in a prison uniform. Even though it was the first time they met, Cara’s eyes were full of tears.

Mrs. Shaffer’s eyes were calm at first, but she became a little excited when she saw Cara.

“You shouldn’t come to this kind of place.”

“Mom...”

Cara had thought she couldn’t call out this word. But the moment she saw Mrs. Shaffer, she just yelled that word out naturally, not knowing it’s because of family relationship in her heart or it’s something else that she couldn’t even tell. Not only did she yell out the word, but also burst into tears directly.

Mrs. Shaffer was crying for Cara’s calling.

“Yeah! Mom’s here!”

She never thought that she could hear her daughter call her mother before her death.

Mrs. Shaffer wanted to hug Cara, but she knew she couldn’t.

Mrs. Shaffer stretched out her hand to portray Cara’s face, engraving the face

With the bang sound, the sky outside was suddenly shining with different colors. Fireworks rose into the sky, so colorful and breathtaking.

Cara was stunned suddenly. She could only hear Laurence's soft voice echoing in her ears.

"Do you like this?"

"Yes!"

Cara's eyes suddenly filled with tears.

She couldn't help but remember the scene when she first saw Laurence. At that time, he was alienated, and paid attention to no one. It was she who followed him without caring her own dignity. Even though she had gone through times of rejection and embarrassment, she didn't give up and keep trying again and again.

Now this man had finally become her boyfriend and now even husband. Cara couldn't tell how happy she was at the time.

"Then why are you crying if you like it?"

With pampering expression, Laurence took out a diamond ring from his pocket and put it on Cara's finger. He said in a low voice, "Mr. Green told me that this ring can only be ordered once in a lifetime with an ID card. So, think about it carefully. I won't take it off once I put it on your finger. I, Laurence, will never be divorced in my life."

Cara felt her tears flowed even more fiercely.

“Oh, how could you do that?”

She plunged into Laurence’s arms, feeling that the happiness struck her so sudden that make her felt a little dazed.

Laurence was turned on by the cute little lady in his arms. After Cara agreed, he lowered his head and blocked her mouth severely. Both of them fell down directly to the bed.

No one disturbed such enjoyable moment.

Nicole had been with Xander and the children these days. Lucas was called back by Morty because of a temporary business. Joseph also told Nicole about his plan to stay in Capital City.

In other words, both of her sons were taken by Morty.

This feeling was terrible.

Nicole rushed into Morty’s office the next day, and closed the office door without caring the opinion of others.
