Chapter 1671 This Place was Isolated

Xander took Eaton to part with Nicole.

Nicole felt the pain of parting again.

She sniffed, kissed her son on the forehead, and then whispered, "Dad, when I return from overseas battlefields this time, I don't want to part with any of you again. This feels so bad."

Xander was also down for this.

He used to be a tough guy who worried about nothing. Since knowing that Audrey is still alive, and that he still has a daughter, he was getting softer and gentler.

No one likes parting, but hasn't someone said the word before?

"The parting at present is for the better reunion in the future", and they are all looking forward to the reunion.

"Take care of yourself! Be safe, and don't make your mother and me worried about you."

"Understood."

Nicole nodded.

She knew that she could stay in country F and wait for Samuel and the others to come back. But the feeling of missing made her unable to let go.

So, she must go abroad this time.

Xander took the baby on the helicopter first.

Until the moment she saw the helicopter flying up, Nicole couldn't tell the feeling in her mind.

Trevin stood behind her quietly without being noticed. He held up an umbrella for her to block the hot sun, and whispered, "Mrs. Green, we should go too."

Nicole looked at Trevin behind him. He has grown a lot in the past two years, and he was almost only second to Finn at Night Elf Empire.

His immaturity had also been replaced by ignorable calmness.

Nicole nodded and got on the plane.

Fill and some team members were also on the plane.

"Madam, watch out!"

Trevin covered Nicole almost immediately.

The loud explosion shook everyone to numb.

Nicole went deaf for a while. She quickly pushed Trevin away and ran directly to the window.

There was a lot of firing outside, and it seemed that they had gone into war.

Nicole hadn't witnessed war with her own eyes. She always thought that she was living in a peaceful world, and she would never have a chance to see what war will be like. But she finally discovered how cruel war is and wished she had not wonder about this before.

In the firing and explosion, it seemed that someone was blown into the sky. And all kinds of sounds mixed together, making them felt extremely uncomfortable.

"Madam, it's dangerous here!"

Trevin wanted to drag Nicole away, but Fill came over without being noticed.

"This is war. Compared with our time, it is crueller now because the weapon is too advanced. Nuclear weapons might even be used."

Nicole's heart tightened a little bit.

Before she came here, she didn't even know that the battlefield here was so bad. Only after she came did she know how terrified for people to live here.

"What can I do?"

At this moment, Nicole understood Olivia.

She understood why even she was worried about Jacob, but she didn't go and stay with Jacob. She now understood why she stayed here to help the wounded.

Because Olivia knew that even if she went out and looked for Jacob, she might not be able to survive.

Jacob, like Samuel and Tim, was a soldier and a sharp sword of the country. Since they were sent on missions, they definitely couldn't be found by women who had never experienced war.

The reason why they came here as women was just to get closer to them, to the soldiers, dreaming about the small possibility that they can meet each other by chance.

Chapter 1673 Nicole will Check out the Wounded for Olivia

It's been an hour since Nicole knew that Fill had left to help Samuel. Trevin always tried to tell Nicole, but there were too many wounded. Nicole and Olivia had been busy helping, so they didn't have much time.

When she finally had some time, it's been more than an hour.

Nicole paused, but she said nothing. But she simply asked Trevin to take care of the wounded with her instead.

The battle had lasted all night. When the morning sun shone in, there was finally no sound of cannons, but it was not quiet here.

Many of the wounded started to cry in pain after the effect of the anesthetic faded down.

For the first time, Nicole realized the hardships of being a battlefield medic.

Olivia hadn't rested all night long. Nicole couldn't help dragging her as she noticed Olivia's haggard look.

"Just go and take a break."

"There are so many patients that need my help..."

"Take a break!"

Nicole interrupted Olivia with a firm attitude.

Olivia had rarely seen Nicole being so tough like this. She couldn't help but feel a little shocked. But then she followed Nicole's eyesight to her belly.

"Olivia, I won't stop you from doing what you want. But you have to mind your own body. You are a pregnant woman now! If you are still planning to give birth to this child for Jacob, then go and rest. I can take care of all the stuff here!"

Nicole's words silenced Olivia.

She was indeed a little tired.

In fact, she had her own reason.

She wanted to check out the wounded here and confirm with her own eyes that there was no Jacob among them. Maybe this was stupid, but what else could she do now?

The battlefield was too big. Even if she walked around the whole battle ground, she would not be able to find Jacob. That's why she waited here.

This is the only battlefield hospital. No matter who is injured, they must be sent here.

If she never got to see Jacob, she felt relieved.

But Olivia also knew that Nicole was right. She needed to mind her body. After all, it's the precious of their love in her belly.

"Okay, I'll take a rest, if there is any news..."

Chapter 1674 Why Let Them Go

Nicole told Olivia her plan.

Olivia obviously agreed.

The two secretly told the doctor in charge about their plan. After hearing this, the doctor wanted to inform his supervisor, only to find that the signal here was blocked.

Obviously, everything they had done here was for poisoning.

Olivia couldn't sleep now.

Nicole and Olivia were still as busy as before, doing jobs such as changing the dressings and drips for the wounded. At the same time, they were also observing some of the wounded.

Soon, Trevin took everyone's information.

Nicole, Olivia, and the doctor began to compare each list.

Those two guys in the forest said that there were twelve people.

Then these twelve people cannot be sent in at the same time, they can only be sent in batch by batch.

Nicole recalled the time when the wounded were sent in last night. After sorting out this clue, she quickly looked up for the name, and quickly found the twelve people.

Olivia looked at the list of the twelve, with very ordinary names and very ordinary backgrounds, but with such evil purposes. She could hardly hold back her anger.

“That’s terrible! If they have the real military force and power and fight with us with decent battles, I will respect them for their struggle. After all, we are fighting for our own country. But what the hell is this? God damn whore! Bunch of suckers! Don’t they fear that their children get fucked up?”

Nicole frowned when she heard Olivia cursing like this.

“Olivia, watch your language. Your baby will hear it.”

“I’m doing prenatal education! I want to tell my baby: that don’t be such a dick in the future.”

Nicole was speechless.

She looked at the list and suddenly narrowed her eyes.

“What’s wrong? Did you find something again?”

Olivia walked over quickly, without realizing she was a pregnant woman. But Nicole was so scared that her heart almost stopped.

“Slow down!”

“It’s okay. My boy is really strong. He will be fine. What’s wrong?”

“They want to infect the whole country, which is extremely evil, so I just want to let them taste their own evil results. I don’t know what will happen to their country later.”

Nicole’s words made Olivia understand immediately.

“The poison you gave them is also contagious?”

“Why not? Isn’t this their purpose of their coming to our boundary?”

Olivia was shocked by Nicole’s words.

She whispered, “But the people are innocent.”

“Did they ever think that our people are innocent when they implemented that decision to us?”

After speaking, Nicole walked out.

Looking at Nicole’s back, Olivia never believed that she would disregard the lives of ordinary people. But she didn’t chase her out and ask again. Nicole had her own rules.

After Nicole came out, she felt very uncomfortable.

She really didn’t want to think about morality so much.

Since the enemy could treat the people of her country so cruelly, why should she be so polite to them?

But the look of Olivia just now made her understand that she could not be that cruel.

She sighed and went to a corner of the hospital. Seeing Trevin and the team were repairing the network system, trying to contact the outside world.

They didn’t know if it was because the twelve people completed the task. The network was quickly back online and the signal shielding disappeared.

Trevin was very excited, but Nicole didn’t feel anything.

Chapter 1676 Have you seen Mr. Samuel?

The team members were suddenly scared by Nicole’s momentum. But when they think of Jacob’s situation, some of them were not happy.

“Who are you, madam? Why do you blame our group leader Brown for his family affairs? Our group leader has given his blood to the country and the people. Why can’t he see his wife and children?”

Trevin heard the other party say this, and was about to step forward to say something when he heard Nicole say, "Who am I? I am Samuel's wife! I am Mrs. Green! Just with Jacob following our Mr. Samuel for more than ten years, I have the right to manage his family affairs! And his wife Olivia is my sister, my sister! I know what Jacob wants most more than any of you!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone was stunned, and then the group member who had just spoken quickly got up and respectfully saluted Nicole.

"Mrs. Green, I'm sorry, I offended you! If it weren't for Commander Samuel, none of us would be able to come out alive! We listen to you!"

The words made Nicole suddenly excited.

"Have you seen Samuel?"

"Yes, Commander Samuel and Major Brown helped us break out."

"So where are they?"

Nicole knew they meant Tim.

Samuel and Tim were together all the time.

That's great!

This was the first time Nicole had heard about Samuel and Tim on the battlefield.

She knew that Evelyn must also want to know about Tim. But Evelyn couldn't come to overseas battlefields, and she was a pregnant woman like Olivia, who needed good news urgently.

The team members glanced at each other and said, "Commander Samuel and Major Brown have taken over our mission to pursue the enemy. Commander Samuel's strategy is really too meticulous. We only heard that he is a legend of the military district before, but now we have finally seen it with our own eyes."

Nicole didn't hear the myths they said but heard that Samuel and Tim took over Jacob's mission and continued to pursue the enemy.

Jacob's head was in a whirl. He couldn't digest the news for a while. And he saw that although Olivia was staring at him fiercely, there were tears in her eyes, which were red.

He saw Olivia traveled thousands of miles away to come to the overseas battlefield with a big belly.

Thinking of Olivia's feelings for him, he was suddenly full of moving, even with a trace of sorrow and distress.

"I don't believe you, but what are you doing here as a pregnant woman? There is so much gunfire, so dangerous, you are not afraid..."

"I'm afraid that no one will collect your body for you when you die. I don't want to wait for you to be sent homeland wearing a pennant, and as the living, I have to wait there. Though you Jacob is dead, you are my man. And I must be the first one to see your death."

Olivia suddenly choked up.

Jacob couldn't help holding Olivia's hand anymore, and said in a dumb voice, "Olivia, I've given you a chance to regret it. What the fuck is wrong with you? Are you going to hang yourself on my tree?"

"I'm happy, can you control it?"

Olivia's tears finally slipped.

Jacob suddenly felt distressed.

"No matter, I will spoil you in the future."

"You should have spoiled me, even I was pregnant with your son."

Olivia rubbed his face into Jacob's palm, and Jacob was deeply moved by the voice.

"You knew you have a son before he is born?"

"Well, I have the final say."

Jacob laughed immediately.

He felt that the biggest gain from coming out this time was Olivia. The biggest surprise was the child.

He was actually a person with children.

It would be a lie to say that he was not moved. After completely giving up the idea, his wife told him that he had a child, the feeling was really too exciting.

"Okay, you have the final say."

Jacob felt that the injuries on his body no longer hurt, and his eyes were filled with Olivia's joy, anger, and sorrow.

Trevin knelt down on the ground as if he hadn't heard anything.

Nicole looked at Trevin and said resignedly, "Samuel is my husband and the father of my kids. It's inappropriate for you to let me just wait."

“But you are also the owner of Night Elf! If you are there, there is still a glimmer of hope, but what if this is the trap left by the other party? Ma'am, you can do everything for Mr. Green, but if you are trapped in, what shall we do? A general in the army is indispensable. I know that you have a deep affection for President Green. I swear that I will bring Mr. Green out even if I die, and I ask you to stay here and command.”

Trevin's eyes flashed with water, which immediately stung Nicole.

Nicole knew he was doing it for her, but...

“Ma'am, think about it. This is alright. We don't know if the descendants of the Close family have any backs. Jacob and Olivia are also here. If you leave, what will they do? If the other party is taking advantage of it. Sneak attack here when we left? So, it's most suitable for you to stay.”

Trevin's words silenced Nicole.

Seeing that Nicole was loosening, Trevin continued to work hard and said, “Ma'am, do you worry about me? Or do you think I will collude with Close's descendants to harm Mr. Green?”

“You are serious about this. Get up first.”

Nicole reached out to support Trevin.

Seeing Nicole had some thoughts, Trevin stood up.

He looked at Nicole, and his thoughts were overwhelming, but he could only suppress them. Now he said everything that should be said, it depends on how Nicole chooses.

In fact, Trevin still had selfish intentions.

As long as Nicole did not go, there would be no danger for her to stay here, as long as Nicole could be safe, it would be enough.

In fact, Nicole was also a bit tormented inside.

She really wanted to find Samuel in person. After all, she had missed him for so long. It would be best if she could see him the first time, but what Trevin said also made sense.

If this was a strategy of the enemy to lure the enemy into deep, all of them would be wiped out if she went there, let alone Samuel, he is afraid that the people of Night Elf would not be able to retreat.

Thinking of this, although Nicole felt uncomfortable, he nodded and said, “Okay, I will let you go, but Trevin, you have to remember it for me, you must come back whole!”

Chapter 1679 You Are Reconciled

Olivia and Jacob had a moment of tenderness in the room for a while. Until they heard the sound of the helicopter, they ran out subconsciously. They saw Nicole standing on the open ground and looking at the helicopter going away in the sky, with her eyes heavy.

“What’s wrong? What happened?”

“Nothing, let Trevin go around. After all, this is not a domestic place. The situation is changing rapidly, and here are all wounded. I have to ensure their safety.”

At this time, Nicole didn’t want Olivia to know anything. After all, she is pregnant now, and it would be nice for her to be able to guard Jacob to have a peaceful life. If possible, Nicole wants them to return homeland.

Back homeland?

Nicole suddenly felt that this path could be taken.

The wounded were now stagnant here because some of the wounded are not suitable for moving. Additionally, the place was previously sealed off. Now the descendants of the Close family were eager for the wounded to return to their homeland, so taking this opportunity to send the wounded away may be a good thing.

Trevin asked her to stay because of the wounded, but what if the wounded were gone?

Nicole patted Olivia on the shoulder, smiled and said, “You are really my lucky star.”

“What?”

Olivia couldn’t figure it out and didn’t know that her words made Nicole happy. In short, seeing Nicole’s happy face, she felt much more comfortable.

“I told you, I and Jacob...”

“I see, you are reconciled.”

Nicole’s words made Olivia understand immediately.

“Okay, you eavesdrop on our talk! Nicole, how can you eavesdrop on the wall? You are Mrs. Green! Pay attention to your identity, OK?”

She was going to scratch Nicole, but Nicole avoided her.

“Where am I eavesdropping? Your domineering voice is heard all over the corridor, I am just listening, okay?”

“You still say it!”

"What did you say? Did you go to an overseas battlefield? Didn't Mr. Samuel retreat?"

“Jacob is the leader of the operation team, but life or death is unclear. He and Tim came here in person. Now Jacob is seriously injured and has just been sent to the field hospital. Samuel and my cousin took his place in the enemy occupation area.”

Nicole quickly talked to Steven about the situation here. Including the descendants of the Close family.

Steven couldn't help frowning after listening.

“The enemy-occupied area? The enemy-occupied area is now solid. Is he crazy?”

“He's not crazy! He just knows his mission and responsibilities. If our country loses in this battle, there will really be no relationship with our country in the overseas field. Now you know the domestic situation. If the overseas battlefield is lost, there is not much possibility for Morty to get to the top. Let's forget about personal emotions. This overseas field was originally lost by our country many years ago. Now the people here are controlled by the enemy-occupied area. How many people are eager to return to the country. Samuel and my cousin are soldiers. Even if they retire, they are in reserve. They will prepare for a life since they become soldiers. I understand him.”

Steven was stunned by Nicole's words.

He didn't think Nicole was worthy of Samuel. Although he didn't say anything, he didn't think much of her. As a brother, he respected Samuel's feelings and choices. Now he officially looked at Nicole differently.

The pattern of a woman can be so big, I have to say that Mr. Samuel had a good choice.

Steven glanced at Ashley who was still sleeping, and the tenderness between his eyebrows was involuntarily revealed.

If there is no warmth in this world, it would be really chilling.

“What do you want me to do?”

Steven spoke directly.

Although Nicole was prepared, she was still shocked when she heard Steven say this.

“Pull your country down, won't you blame me?”

“What's the blame? I also grew up in country Z. For me, country Z is also my homeland country. Now my Mr. Samuel is in trouble. The most regrettable thing in my life is that I can't join the army in country Z like the three of them. Now that I have the opportunity to help them, I have nothing to hesitate. Besides, it is up to me in this country. Who dares to say what I am going to do.”

Steven is still so loyal, and Nicole is very moved.

“Don't worry, country F will also be on your side in the future.”
