Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1701 I Just Want to Be Alone

Alison was a little surprised to see Ernesto, but not that surprised about that. Her dull eyes finally had a hint of brightening.

"I just want to be alone."

"Well, I'll accompany you."

Ernesto sat beside her, looked at the dishes that she had not started eating, and asked, "Not to your liking? What do you want to eat? I'll make it for you."

Tears suddenly came into Alison's eyes.

Her voice was hoarse as she whispered, "I want to eat meatballs with sweet and sour sauce and fried rice with eggs that my mom makes, and I want to..."

As she said, the tears rolled down her cheeks.

Ernesto felt a sudden heartache.

He pulled Alison into his arms and whispered, "Once dead, the departed one could not come back again. Look at the bright side, and such an ending should be good for them. If they're holding in captivity for a lifetime and losing their freedom, you're the only one who gets comfort. How could people like your parents spend their whole life in prison? They are always so ambitious. Alison, you can't be too selfish."

"I know what you say is right, but I just can't let go and can't go over it. If I had known that my parents were planning to do so, I would never have been so indifferent to them. I was regretful. I was afraid to be too good to them, and I would not be able to be ruthless when the time came. But I didn't expect..."

Alison was loaded down with regret as if she was about to lose her breath.

Ernesto gently patted her on the back and said, "There's no moving back in the world. So do you still want to leave me because of what you had missed and then regret again?"

Alison was stunned and looked at the man in front of her. At first, she thought he was childish and timid. She even thought that he was incompetent to be the assistant of Samuel, but now Alison realized that none of Samuel's men were fools indeed.

"You're very eloquent."

Alison left his arms and wiped her tears. She suddenly felt she was like having a nightmare these days.

"Who is it?"

Nicole quickly turned around but could only see the shadow of someone leaving.

Samuel frowned slightly. He made a gesture, and one of his men immediately chased after the shadow.

"Did someone follow you back from the battlefield?"

Nicole was a little worried.

Samuel stroked her hair and said in a low voice, "Don't worry about me. Are you okay?"

"I'm okay. I have the formula for antidote and have also given it to Jacob, but I need a quarantine of fourteen days just in case. It's a responsibility for myself and my fellow people."

Nicole was aware of her physical condition. It was okay if she got the symptoms of infection at the battlefield hospital. However, her fellow people might not think so, so she had to be cautious.

"Theoretically speaking, no problem with that. Although the Closes died, some might just want to fish over the troubled water, so we can't be careless. I'll have Fill manage all the people here later. Nobody is allowed to go out of the place within fourteen days."

Samuel's face grew grave.

Nicole did not think of anything else but just felt that it was a bit inhumane.

"There's no need to force them. Everyone could understand the purpose of the quarantine and would cooperate with us. Today is the second day of quarantine. I see that everyone's mood is still okay."

"Two days and fourteen days are not the same. Nicole, sometimes human nature can't stand the scrutiny of time."

It seemed like there was a long story from Samuel's eyes.

Nicole suddenly felt that Samuel was so strange like this.

Did something happen to Samuel when Nicole did not know and made Samuel had a deep understanding of human nature?

Nicole pondered within but did not continue to think about it, and she got up from the bed.

"I'll go get you something to eat. The situation here is special now. We're short of men, and there's no one to serve you. The supplies must be saved. So I'll make you a bowl of noodles with gravy."

"I'll make it myself. You must have had a very hard time."

Chapter 1703 Who Do You Think You Are

Something was very wrong!

Nicole's heart skipped a beat, and she quickly touched Samuel's head.

It was hot!

He had a fever!

It was not a good time to have a fever.

Besides, Samuel had always been so healthy and strong. How come he had a fever suddenly?

Nicole quickly called a doctor, and the doctor started to examine Samuel and had his blood tested, and then his fever reduced.

In the whole process, Samuel slept like a log and was like that he could not sense their movement. Nicole could not help but feel heartache.

“It's a viral infection. Mr. Green is infected.”

The doctor looked at the results of the blood test and concluded.

Nicole was stunned instantly.

“How come? He just came back, and isn't virus here already under control?”

Nicole did not know if she was asking the doctor or herself, and she did not tell anyone that Samuel had Golden Bug in his body that was thus invulnerable to all poisons. To put it bluntly, even if everyone got infected, Samuel might not be infected. However, what was going on?

The doctor could not answer Nicole's question, and everyone was a little depressed at this moment.

At the same time, the sound of footsteps came from outside.

“Doctor, we have a problem. Mr. Howard and his men are also unconscious with a raging temperature.”

“What?”

The doctor was a little surprised, and Nicole was even more surprised.

Although some individuals had got infected in the past two days, they got timely rescued and took medicine, and the overall situation was under control. How did Samuel and Fill and the others get infected?

Chapter 1704 I'll Take Care Of Myself

The crowd looked at Nicole and did not talk because the soldier was dragged away. However, Nicole can still tell some things from their eyes.

If it was not for her identity as Mrs. Green, she did not know what these people would do to her.

“Prepare the detoxification serum for them.”

“Okay.”

Although several people agreed, Nicole knew that it was all because of Samuel.

In this place, Samuel had always been a legend, a myth. Everyone knew how important Nicole was to Samuel after the news got out that he gave all his fortune to Nicole.

If there was evidence, it was okay for them to do something on Nicole, but if they did something to Nicole without any evidence, once Samuel woke up, they could not bear the consequences of it.

Nicole turned around and went back to the room after she straightened out her thinking.

Nicole knew that more words led to more mistakes, so it was better not to say anything.

When Trevin got the news, Fill and the others had already been injected with the antidote, but they had not yet woken up, while Nicole stayed close with Samuel.

He looked at Theresa, who was still in a coma, and he was so worried.

The condition of Theresa was not good, while Nicole had met some big problems at the battlefield hospital. He was the captain of the Night Elf Empire, so he should be at Nicole's side at this time.

However...

It was the first time Trevin felt hesitant.

In the past, he could do anything for Nicole regardless of anything. However, he had hesitated when he looked at Theresa, who was still in a coma with a raging temperature.

It turned out that his feelings for Nicole were that all.

When he thought of Samuel, who had never hesitated to do anything for Nicole, Trevin finally admitted that he was no match for Samuel.

Chapter 1705 Who Is Your New Master

“Have I seen you somewhere before?”

Hearing what Finn said, the soldier raised his head instantly and was stunned when he saw Finn, and then quickly lowered his head.

“You must be mistaken.”

“Is that so?”

Finn sneered and could not help but wheel his wheelchair a little forward and said, "I've wondered how you were able to endure the ruthless means of the Night Elf Empire for extortion. It turns out that you are an old friend of us. Am I right? Paul!"

When Finn shouted his name accurately, the soldier trembled violently and then said, "You must be mistaken."

"It's easy to tell whether I recognize you wrongly. Let's have a DNA test. I remember the Night Elf Empire used to have a DNA database of all of the subordinates!"

When he heard Finn's words, Paul widened his eyes directly, while the others began to understand the meaning of Finn's words.

"Mr. Wood, you mean he's someone from the Night Elf Empire?"

"Only our people know best the process of interrogation, and I remember that the Night Elf Empire was afraid our people would be caught and tortured to force a confession, so the people of the Night Elf Empire had all passed certain physical limit training. So such a mild torture has no effect to him."

Finn pulled a long face.

Although the Night Elf Empire had reformed several times and most of the old units had been disbanded, Finn had a good memory. So he felt familiar when he saw Paul, and he could quickly found some information about Paul in the brain.

The soldier was the old subordinates of the Night Elf Empire!

Paul remained silent when his identity was exposed, but Finn was angry.

He directly picked up a whip from aside and flogged Paul with great force. Instantly, a gash appeared on his skin and his flesh lacerated.

"As a former member of the Night Elf Empire, you framed your master now. Don't you fucking feel ashamed when you say you're from the Night Elf Empire?"

Paul had something on the ball.

Finn had once wanted to promote him to be his deputy. Unfortunately, the Night Elf Empire was disbanded at that time. So, he could only offer another position for Paul. However, Finn did not expect he would now frame Nicole.

Paul clenched his teeth, and a trace of shame flickered across his eyes, but he did not argue for himself. He endured the punishment from Finn.

Finn's expressions were getting more and more serious when he saw Paul like this.

Samuel and Fill still didn't wake up after they were injected with the antidote. There were no other symptoms after various tests, and they didn't have a fever either. But they didn't wake up yet.

Nicole frowned, but said nothing. At this time, she handed all the business here to Finn.

Under Finn's investigation, several people that belonged to the former Night Elf Empire were found from the resident hospital. Now when these people saw Finn, they stood silent in front of Finn and looked like elementary school students who had done something wrong.

They said nothing, but didn't resist either.

Finn would feel sad at the beginning of this situation, but he didn't care anymore after knowing Nicole's decision.

"It's really interesting that you guys, the former member of the Night Elf Empire turned against us."

Finn's words were plain, but they seemed to slap these people in their face, making them ashamed.

But how could Finn care about them now?

"What do you think the Night Elf Empire should do? Give you military status and make you a soldier?"

As soon as Finn said this, several of them looked up at the same time, and their expressions were all incredible.

At this moment Finn understood.

"Mrs. Green, Mr. Green is awake."

The people who came running panted a little, but Nicole couldn't take care of it anymore. She quickly got up and ran towards the room.

The people inside were shocked when they heard this, and Finn was also stunned.

Had Nicole come here already?

It turned out that she cared about them too!

Thinking of this, Finn felt a little sad.

"You people really don't deserve to be part of the Night Elf Empire. If Night Elf Empire is disbanded because of you, will you be very happy?"

"No, Mr. Wood! Don't dismiss the Night Elf Empire. As the superior said, as long as Nicole and Samuel surrender completely, they will incorporate Night Elf Empire into the official army. Then we will not be just a separate civil organization."

Paul suddenly became anxious when he heard Finn say this.

But Finn sneered and said, "Do you believe this? What kind of identity do you have? Incorporated you into the army? Are you worthy of it? If you can all join their army officially, what will it mean to those people with clear political background?"

Finn didn't want to say anything to them anymore. He waved his hand and said, "Let them go and arrange a car to send them out immediately. The battlefield hospital is our base camp. If we drive them out now, they will certainly have a bright future waiting for them ahead. That's what we Night Elf Empire can't give."

After Finn gave the order, these people were shocked.

Didn't he punish them?

Paul looked at Finn and said hesitantly, "Mr. Wood, please don't blame us. In fact, in our hearts, you will always be the Captain Wood of us. As long as you want, we can negotiate the superior and let them accept you. After all, you have such a talent. And we can still be together at that time."

"Don't do that, I'm kind of disgusted."

Finn directly refused.

Following Finn's order, these people were thrown out immediately.

They thought they would be picked up by their superiors when they left the battlefield hospital, but they were all wrong.

Chapter 1708 You Are Too Naive

Nicole suddenly became nervous.

It's been a long time since Samuel last saw Nicole being so anxious, and he couldn't help feeling a little distressed and guilty.

“Relax, isn't this your place? The people in Night Elf Empire are not incompetent. Those people have been cleared out. The people who come now can only be our own.”

Hearing Samuel say this, Nicole finally relaxed a little.

She had never had a good day of rest since she had been on the overseas battlefield. Finally, Samuel returned, but this kind of thing happened. She didn't dare to relax at all.

There was a knock on the door, then Nicole cleared up his emotions and said, “Come in.”

The people opened the door, it was a nurse.

She looked at Nicole and Samuel, and then whispered: “Captain Finn asked me to come over and talk to Mr. Green. Those people were taken away by a car when they got out of the battlefield hospital.”

Nicole's eyes were dark and unclear, but Samuel wasn't much surprised.

This is the style of Aron.

“Got it, you can go now.”

Samuel waved his hand, and the nurse stepped back.

Nicole pondered for a while, and finally couldn't help asking: “Where will they be taken?”

“This is the quarantine area. People released from the quarantine area are generally monitored, but their tasks are not confidential. Now they have failed, so they will be abandoned and destroyed by Aron. If I am right, the news of them getting killed by infection of germs will spread out.”

Samuel said it calmly.

They embarrassed Nicole during his coma. He hadn't had time to deal with them, so they could blame no one but themselves for such a result.

Did they really think they would be accepted into the army?

Aron's vomiting blood made Morty a little panicked. He quickly contacted the doctor, and Chad rushed over immediately.

“Mr. Hill, are you okay?”

Aron's face was pale, and Chad was worried.

Morty asked in surprise, “Chad, what's wrong with my dad? Are you hiding something from me?”

Chad glanced at Aron, then looked at Morty, and finally said, “Mr. Hill's body had been in a bad condition since long ago, but even with so many trifles weighing on him recently you still couldn't achieve this position, Mr. Morty. So a lot of things have to be handled by Mr. Hill for you.”

“Get to the point!”

Morty's temper was not very good.

He was originally coming for Samuel and Nicole, but how did it become like this now?

It seems that it's all his fault now!

Chad was a little speechless, but he still whispered, “Mr. Hill has lung cancer, there is not much time left.”

These words slammed Morty's head like a bolt from the blue sky.

“What did you say?”

Although he was not very close to Aron over the years, Morty didn't expect to farewell with him so early. So he could not accept it for a while.

Aron was now quite awake under the help of the doctor. Seeing Morty like this, he said, "Don't panic, it's not a big deal."

"Isn't this a big deal? What is a big deal? Do you think it's a big deal if you can't move one day or even die in front of your desk without letting me know?"

Morty's voice uncontrollably raised a lot.

Aron looked at him and didn't know how to communicate with his son for a while.

They had been estranged for too long. Even though they were arguing about Samuel and Nicole not long ago, Morty now cared about his health.

Morty quickly took a tissue and wiped the corners of Aron's lips, and whispered, "Don't think you can smooth

Nicole was thinking about it. Chad didn't hear her voice but he didn't urge her either. This proposal was good for both her and Lucas.

Before considering what will happen to Night Elf Empire in the end, if the Night Elf Empire belonged to Lucas, Morty or whoever taking this position in the future would definitely not try to hurt Lucas. This will even be much more beneficial to him.

This was also a kind of protection for Lucas.

Especially now that Samuel and Nicole wanted to withdraw from the Seapolis City and moved their industries abroad.

Nicole herself knew that although she was angry, she could not piss off when she thought that her son might be living here in the future, or even growing up in the military.

She originally planned to disband the Night Elf Empire, but should she do that now?

Suddenly Samuel came to Nicole's back and hugged her from behind. With a trace of fatigue on the engraved features, he whispered, “Who's calling?”

“Chad!”

Nicole didn't hide it from Samuel, and told Samuel about it.

Samuel was silent for a moment, and said, "You should agree, unless you want to take that kid out of the country."

Nicole found this a little difficult, especially her father and uncle were all in this country.

She sighed and said, "Come on, I still feel very uncomfortable while thinking I am fooled after all these."

"Vent out if you feel uncomfortable. Just do whatever you want to do as long as you feel comfortable. I think if you want to vent, Mr. Morty or Aron will have no objection, right? Chad?"

Samuel's words were very tricky, and Chad don't know how to answer it.

He said embarrassedly, "Mr. Green, it's useless for you to embarrass me, this matter..."

"If my wife is uncomfortable with this matter, then there is no need to talk about it. It's better to let Morty come over so that I can beat him to vent my anger. Otherwise, it's not impossible for me to take Lucas out of Country Z since I am his father, let alone what might happen to the Night Elf Empire. And if you really want to fight now, I don't think Mr. Hill has the energy and strength to fight me, right?"

Samuel's words were crazy, but Chad was speechless. Because what Samuel said was true.
