Chapter 171: There Is a Better Way

“What?”

Both Samuel and Jason were very surprised, and even quickly went to Tim's side.

Tim wanted to take this news alone, and then find Nicole by himself, but he wasn't allowed to.

“You let me go first! Samuel! You are strangling me to death.”

Before Tim finished his words, Samuel already grabbed onto his collar and almost pulled him up from the ground.

Jason knew Samuel almost went crazy looking for Nicole recently. Plus, he just learned about the relationship between Nicole and Samuel, so he naturally understood Samuel at this time.

“Samuel, you let go of Tim first. Since he brought the news, he would tell us. Don't actually strangle him to death. We won't get any news if that happens.”

Jason's words made Samuel a little relaxed, but he still felt very anxious.

Tim rubbed his neck and spoke. “Samuel, you are a crazy. If I knew you are going to be like this, I wouldn't tell you her news. I would've went looking for her by myself, and then the beauty would've been mine.”

“Do you want to die?”

Samuel was like the dragon who was dormant at this time. Even if he was capable of everything, he had no choice but to listen to Tim yammer away.

“What's the point of screaming at me? I'm telling you, you are the one who lost the beauty, and the one who sold her was your nanny!”

“What did you say?”

Samuel was stunned, as if he was struck by lightning.

He thought about many possibilities, but not that Nicole would be trafficked. He thought it was impossible.

No matter how much Zama hated Nicole, she shouldn't do anything like that, right?

But now when he heard what Tim said, Samuel almost couldn't stand straight.

Jason frowned as well.

“Tell us clearly, what is going on?”

“I heard from my bros who are involved with this kind of thing. They said that someone trafficked people in a ship a few days ago and went abroad. One of them saw Catherine. She was in a coma and was taken to the ship by Zama. Now I only know that the ship went to an uninhabited island to transfer to somewhere else. As for where it ended up, no one knows. It's said that the women there are sold to places all over the world and will become the locals' toys according to the rules of the black market."

As he told them about these things, he didn't feel very well about it.

He liked Nicole, and even felt that Nicole gave him the peaceful feel that he had always wanted. He could almost imagine what she would have to endure when she was sold abroad as a weak woman.

That beauty would never be pure and clean again. Her hands and feet might even be severed.

As soon as he thought of this possibility, Tim felt furious and couldn't wait to kill Samuel, who was in front of him.

Chapter 172: Even if It Is A Trap, I Have to Go

The water in the teacup was very hot that when it splashed on the woman's hand, her skin blistered instantly but she didn't notice.

"What's the matter? How did he suddenly become seriously ill? Investigate for me! What's the matter?"

The woman smashed everything around to the ground like crazy. There were fragments everywhere, but no one dared step forward.

Soon after, the news that Samuel vomited blood a few times after learning that Nicole had been sold reached the woman.

"Damn woman! Even if I sold her, she can still do a lot of harm! Sir is such a good man, yet he became wasted for a woman like her!"

She threw out what was next to her again. Her gaze was so fierce and piercing as if it wanted to break Nicole into pieces.

At this time, everyone saw her anger.

She was no one else but Zama, someone Samuel couldn't find.

"What did the doctor say?"

Zama truly cared about Samuel. Hearing that Samuel vomited blood and was hospitalized because of this news, she was very angry yet did not forget to ask about Samuel's condition.

"The doctor said that Mr. Green's love was too deep that it hurt his heart and lungs. Maybe, maybe..."

The servant replied

while trembling.

"What could it be?"

Zama was suddenly worried and anxious.

The servant was sweating, but he didn't dare say anything.

"The hardest thing to cure in the world is love. Mr. Green might know that Miss Bush won't be alive for long, so he doesn't want to live either."

Finally, a brave servant made a speculation, but was knocked to the ground by Zama.

“Nonsense! How can a man die for a woman?”

Zama panted, but she seemed to have thought of something that she fell onto the sofa while staring blankly into space.

She cried and laughed, and finally snarled. “Andrew Green, you were blindly passionate all your life, but you never expected that your son would also to be blindly passionate. Is this the curse of the Green Family? Or is it God's punishment for me? No! Impossible! Sir can't die! Samuel must not die for a woman! I don't allow it! I don't allow it!”

Zama started smashing things in the house like crazy.

The servants trembled, but none of them dared approach her, let alone dissuade and comfort her.

After Zama vented for a while, she calmed down.

At this moment, news came saying that Samuel had entered the operating room again.

Chapter 173: Everything I Did Was for You

“From now on, you better pray that Nicole will come back safely, otherwise...”

Samuel didn't finish his sentence, but it shocked Zama a lot.

“Why? She's just a woman! Besides, didn't you not love her five years ago? She was the one who initially went up to you. The woman you liked originally wasn't her, right? She got plastic surgery and was more good-looking than before, so you came to like her? This kind of like is superficial!”

Zama yelled and refused to accept what happened.

Samuel turned to look at her and spoke word by word. “I didn't know how to love five years ago, and I thought I didn't love her. When I knew she was pregnant with my baby, do you have any idea how happy I was? When I knew she was buried in the flames, did you know I almost followed her? Some love may be love at first sight, but there is also a kind of love that grows gradually. My heart isn't made of iron. She waits for me to return home every night. When I was drunk, she took care of me. I don't know when it started, but I started to like having her follow my footsteps and I started to like seeing her. As long as I can see her, I feel at peace and I feel happy being alive.”

“I knew that there was something fishy about the fire that took her away five years ago, but I couldn't find out. I always feel that there was someone interfering with me, but I didn't know how to investigate. If it weren't to investigate what happened these past five years, I might have been gone. But what I didn't expect what that you are the one who planned all this! Maybe the fire five years ago also had something to do with you, right? You were so good to her five years ago and I always thought you liked her, but why are you so cruel now? Why?”

Zama almost couldn't bear Samuel's questions.

“Everything I did was for you. You didn't love her five years ago, but she kept coming after you. What can I do? I could only help you get rid of her, but she was deeply in love with you. If I made her leave, she would definitely come back to pester you! And at that time, Riley was pregnant with Vincent's child. That child was Vincent's last child. For that child, I couldn't let Nicole become the young madam of the Green Family!”

Zama's words made Samuel's heart hurt.

So this was the truth.

So he was the one who harmed Nicole and the children!

Samuel laughed loudly.

"This is your love for me and Vincent! But what right did you have? Just because you are our nanny doesn't mean you can make decisions for us. You are just a nanny, are not our mother! Even our mother doesn't interfere with our affairs. Who do you think you are?”

Samuel didn't want to talk so hurtfully, but he couldn't help it.

The way that Zama thought surprised him.

She claimed that she was being good to him and Vincent, but who did she think she was?

Zama was shocked by Samuel's words. Her face turned pale and her body faltered.

“Who do you think you are? Samuel, let me tell you, without me, you and Vincent wouldn't exist!”

“You take yourself too seriously. I don't have time to talk to you. Jacob, take her away and keep a close guard on her. If it doesn't work, then send her to the Don Family and have Jason help us guard her. Find out who from the Green Family is her subordinate. Also, book me a ticket to America. I need to fly to America soon!”

After Samuel spoke coldly, he turned and left.

Jacob quickly came in and took control of Zama.

Zama still struggled.

“You can't go! Are you crazy? Your body is already this way, how can you go to America? Even if you do go there, that woman won't be clean anymore. What do you want a dirty woman for?”

With a "bang", Samuel's fist passed by Zama's ear, hitting the wall behind her. Bright red blood oozed from his fingers.

Chapter 174: There Is Only Me in Your Life

This was the first time Nicole ever saw Allen get angry.

He was no longer gentle, no longer like a spring breeze. He even appeared terrifying. The low air pressure around him seemed to have decreased the temperature quite a bit, making Nicole feel very depressed.

Nicole looked at Allen blankly and suddenly felt that he was very, very unfamiliar.

“Allen, what's the matter with you? You watched Lucas grow up since he was a child. Now we don't know whether he is alive or dead. Aren't you worried?”

“What am I worried about? He is the son of you and Samuel, not you and I. Nicole, why can you be so cruel? Don't you know how I have treated you in five years? My grandma came to propose a marriage and didn't care if you brought in two children who were not from the Brook Family. You refused. What did you tell me before going back? You said you went back to cure Zoe's illness. You said you went back to get revenge on Samuel. You said that you want Samuel to suffer, but what about now? You keep talking about Samuel and you are thinking of taking the children back to him and living with him, right?”

Allen asked Nicole sharply. The anger in his eyes flared as if it could burn everything in this world.

Nicole felt ashamed and whispered. “What happened five years ago wasn't because of him. He didn't know anything. It was also very hard for him the past five years.”

“It was hard for him? Wasn't it hard for me? Don't you know what I gave up for you? I treated Lucas and Zoe like my own children. What else do you want me to do? You didn't tell me that you returned to reconnect with Samuel. I investigated. That brat Lucas also accepted Samuel, right? I was so kind to him and I mentored him, but in the end what I did couldn't compare with the short few months he spent with his biological father.”

Allen felt a little bit lonely.

Nicole also felt sorry for Allen, but what could she do about these things?

Blood kinship wasn't something anyone could sever.

Lucas and Samuel were originally father and son, and the mutual attachment between them wouldn't change with the passage of time.

“Allen, I know that I owe you. I have wasted five years of your youth. No matter what you want me to do in the future, I will agree. But let me go back now, okay? You know, Lucas is as important as my life. If I can't find Lucas, I won't ever be free from worries for my entire life!”

“You don't have to look. Lucas is dead. Your and Samuel's son is dead!”

Allen suddenly let out a low growl, but it struck Nicole like a thunderbolt.

“What are you talking about? What are you talking about?”

“I said Lucas is dead! He was killed by Riley! Joseph is Riley's biological son, but he spoke up for you and Lucas. Riley killed Lucas in a fit of anger and threw him into the sea to feed the fish. Samuel had people try to rescue him, but he wasn't found. The son between you and him is dead!”

Allen was like a cold-blooded emperor at this time as he spoke coldly about this cruel reality.

Nicole thought he was joking, but his eyes were so serious. The sadness that flashed through his eyes wasn't something that could be faked.

She could only feel shock.

“No! My Lucas will not die! He is only four years old. He is so smart. How could he die?”

Nicole struggled and roared, but she couldn't escape.

Nicole's words made Allen glower.

"Don't even think about it!"

Allen angrily stuffed the food into Nicole's mouth, no sign of gentleness at all.

Nicole tried her best to dodge, but in the end, Allen still managed to stuff a few mouthfuls in Nicole. Just as Allen thought he was successful, Nicole began retching.

"Blargh."

She threw up the food she had just eaten, even including bile.

Allen grew sullen seeing her like this.

“Have the family doctor come over and give her the IV.”

Allen gave the order coldly, and then he looked at Nicole. “You have not yet paid off what you owe me. Don't think you can just die. Nicole, let me tell you, Samuel and Zoe are matched, and the surgery is about to happen soon. If you don't cooperate with me, Samuel would die on the operating table and Zoe would also be buried. Do you want to see me do this?”

His voice was very gentle, but it made Nicole's eyes suddenly widen.

“Allen, are you kidding? Zoe is the child you have been protecting for five years!”

“So what? I love her so much and treated her so well. I even put aside all my work to spend time with her, but did you know? When she knew that Samuel was her father, she ignored me. She completely ignored my existence. This is the child I have cared about for five years! Sure enough, it's not the same when it comes to the biological father. But it's okay, we will have children of our own in the future, and I will love her more.”

Allen smiled longingly, but Nicole's heart was bleeding.

Why did things turn out this way?

Why did he become like this?

Now she really hoped that someone would come and help her escape.

She wanted to see her daughter and Samuel!

She couldn't die here, no!

“Allen, can you let me see Zoe? I just want to take one look at her, okay? Let me see her!”

Nicole never begged Allen like this.

For the past five years, he respected her. No matter what she wanted to do, Allen would let her and support her. What happened now?

Allen coaxed her as if she was a child. “It's not impossible for you to see her. I can even take you to see her surgery. But you have to eat well.”

“I'll eat, I'll eat! I'll eat now!”

Nicole nodded quickly in order to see her daughter and leave here.

Seeing that she had compromised, Allen smiled and touched her head. “Good. This is what my favourite girl looks like.”

He brought the food, and then fed it to Nicole bit by bit.

Nicole's stomach was resistant.

She felt a burst of nausea coming up, but when she saw Allen's eyes, she forced it down.

"What?"

Allen frowned subconsciously, with a hint of alert in his two eyes.

Did he find out something?

What a keen person Samuel was, so he naturally noticed Allen's rushing homicidal intent.

Homicidal intent?

Why would Allen treat him like this?

Samuel's mind flashed with a hint of doubt, but he smiled and said, "Mr. Brook's girlfriend is quite fierce. This action to declare sovereignty is a bit obvious."

He left with smile after talking.

At first, Allen didn't quite understand. With two eyes staring after Samuel, he tried his best to remember whether he had leaked any flaws, but when he turned his head back, he saw the swelling and blood on the corners of his lips.

So it was!

Allen frowned slightly and wiped his lips subconsciously.

He didn't dare to leave, but he stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, seeing Samuel walking out of the house.

After getting into the car, Samuel quickly called Jacob.

"How is the investigation of my wife?"

"It's still going on, but there aren't any clues at all. Many people here have gone to the United States to buy women back, but they don't seem to be Mrs. Green. I'm still continuing to investigate."

Jacob was a little distressed.

This method of finding a needle in a haystack is indeed a little exhausting, but thinking of Samuel's body and the upcoming surgery, he had to try his best.

Looking at the villa of Allen, Samuel said in a low voice, "Hand it to Macon to investigate and come to the US by air right now, because I think Allen is a little suspicious,"

"Allen?"

"Yes. Just in case, come here in secret without anyone knowing. If necessary, take a private airplane and don't leave any traces."

Samuel didn't know why he had such feelings.

Allen in front of him was so unfathomable

The two of them were not friends, or even rivals in love. For Samuel, the understanding of Allen was learned from Nicole, and Zoe also said that this foster father was very nice. Now that he came to the US, Allen rarely appeared.

At first he thought maybe Allen did so in order to create more parent-child time for him and his children, but now it seemed not to be so.

If Allen was really kind to Zoe, how could he not come to take a look at Zoe for so many days?

Although this hospital was run by the Brook Family, Zoe was, after all, the child that he had spent five years caring for.

Moreover, Samuel learned from the young nurse that no matter how busy Allen was in the past five years, he would come to the hospital to accompany Zoe. But now all these actions disappeared.

Chapter 177: It Felt So Good

After Samuel entered the bathroom, Allen's face darkened completely.

What method on earth did he need in order to let Samuel leave quickly?

After Samuel packed the hair, he turned on the faucet, pretending to have taken a pee, and then walked out of the bathroom.

Allen was already sitting on the sofa and began to drink tea. There seemed to be sprezzatura on his face, as if nothing had happened, but Samuel seemed to see his hands trembling.

The suspicions to Allen were growing.

Samuel kept his countenance, and nodded to Allen. Then he left.

After his leaving this time, Allen didn't move for a long time standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window.

He was afraid that Samuel would return again.

This fellow was so disgusting.

If he hadn't reacted quickly just now, it would have been caught in the act by Samuel.

At the thought of Nicole being taken away from him after being found by Samuel, Allen's hatred of Samuel became more intense.

He even wanted Samuel to die in the US.

This thought flashed by quickly, and there was a trace of fierceness flashing across Allen's eyes, then disappearing quickly.

This time Samuel didn't return but went directly to a hospital, for the purpose of DNA identification of the hair with the identity of someone else.

The result of the genetic test would take at least 3 days. During this time Samuel couldn't wait and he decided to visit Allen's mansion at night.

Jacob arrived several hours after, fatigued with the journey.

"Mr. Green"

When Jacob met Samuel outside the hospital, he looked very cautious.

Samuel nodded and asked him to get into the car. The two left where they were quickly.

"I suspect that Allen has hidden Nicole. You go to the Fallen Paradise Club on the sly to investigate whether Allen went there on the day of the auction.”

Samuel's eyes looked somewhat darkened, with two hands clasping tightly.

He didn't want to be enemy of the Brook Family, and even planned to be reconciled with the Brook Family because of the Brook Family's care for Nicole and his children over the past five years. However, if it was really Allen who had taken Nicole away, Samuel didn't dare to imagine what he would do.

Jacob was still a little capable here. After hearing Samuel's words, he immediately went to act.

When Samuel returned to the hospital, Zoe and Joseph were playing.

Since these days, Joseph suddenly seemed to have grown up, showing great affection and caring for Zoe so that Zoe

Chapter 178: Different Marrow Match

Zoe fell asleep very quickly.

Samuel covered her well with quilt, and left the ward noiselessly, and he saw Joseph was wiping his tears secretly standing in front of the window of the corridor.

He sighed slightly and scooped up Joseph in front of him.

“Do you think of Lucas again?”

With Samuel's words, Joseph couldn't help but start crying on his shoulder.

“Daddy, do you think Lucas will come back? Where did he go? Why isn't there any news? Our Green Family has so many resources, but why can't we find his whereabouts? I am so afraid, Daddy. What if Lucas won't come back?”

Samuel's nose twitched.

He pressed Joseph's head tightly on his shoulder, with two eyes already moist.

“No, Lucas will be fine and he will come back some day.”

“But I missed him very much. Sister Zoe will have the operation soon and Lucas always cares about her illness. Why doesn't he come back at this time?”

Joseph cried with his body trembling.

Since Lucas disappeared, Joseph seemed to have changed a lot. Except that he smiled in front of Zoe, his look at other times was always distressing.

Samuel felt sad, but he could only comfort Joseph and said, “After Zoe recovers from the illness, we will go to find Lucas together. Don't cry. You have grown up. You should believe Lucas will come back and miracle will happen for sure. God will not be so cruel.”

He didn't know if these words were said to Joseph or to himself. The current feeling of weakness was really driving him crazy.

Unexpectedly, Joseph fell asleep after crying on Samuel's shoulder for a while.

After coming to the US, this boy didn't have a good rest. He was always worried about Zoe and strained his heartstrings too tightly. Now he was exhausted after venting, and gradually fell asleep.

Samuel lifted him back to the ward, put him together with Zoe and covered the quilt.

At this moment, the doctor came in.

“Mr. Green, I have something to talk with you”

“It's about Zoe?”

Samuel's heart suddenly tightened.

The doctor nodded.

But during the five years of marriage, you didn't let yourself understand your heart until the fire, which took everything away, including you. Do you know how sad mom was? Chapter 179: What's This?

Samuel looked at the appraisal report in front of him, with voice a little depressed.

The doctor whispered, “Mr. Green, we did do some investigation and match to the donated marrow at first, but it was really inappropriate for Zoe's need. We didn't intend to show you this report, but now that you have contacted the donor, who may be your relative or friend, I will tell you about this incidentally. There's something wrong with this lady's body, because there are toxins in her marrow. Even if the marrow match is successful, it's impossible to perform the transplant operation. Besides, as for the toxins in her body, it seems to be accumulated over a long period, and it has been left in her bones after so many years. It seems that she has discontinued to take toxins in these years, otherwise, she would have passed away long time ago.”

Samuel's hands were trembling intensely.

He had never known someone would do harm to his mother.

In those years, mom worked hard every day for the group, so they seldom had opportunity to see each other. During that period, Mrs. Green was really in a bad health. The doctor said it was because of excessive fatigue, so no one took it seriously.

Actually it was because of poisoning.

After mom went abroad these years, he didn't hear anything wrong with mom's health. He always thought it was because mom had let go of the group's affairs and didn't have anything to worry about. But it was not so.

Samuel's heart was a little cold.

Who on earth wanted to do harm to his mother?

“Doctor, is there anything wrong with my body?”

Samuel looked at the doctor very seriously.

The doctor shook his head and said, “No, nothing wrong. You are very healthy, but recently your heart and lungs have a little problem, so you had better pay attention to it”

Samuel began to mutter in his heart.

There was nothing wrong with his body, but something wrong with Mrs. Green's. Besides, Nicole had an accident in the Green Family. Was the assailant very kind to him and couldn't bear to hurt him?

Who would do that?

Zama?

Zama was the first that appeared in Samuel's mind.

Was it her?

Mrs. Green had been so kind to her during these years. How could she strike at Mrs. Green?

“Doctor, what's wrong with my mother?”

“Your mother? You just said this persona is your mother?”

The doctor was a little surprised.

Knowing he had already told the truth, Samuel nodded and said, “Yes, she is my mother and the grandmother of my child. I wish you can tell me about it.”

“I am not sure about that until she comes for a general physical check-up. Well, if possible, please take Mrs. Green to the hospital.”

The doctor's words made Samuel somewhat understand.

“I see, and I will notify her to come.”

Chapter 180: The Green Family Was a Real Pain in the Neck

Samuel could not understand what was going on, but now it was not the time to think about it. He put the questions behind him for the moment, and began to concentrate on his evening talk about the Brook family.

He found the original structure map near the house Allen bought.

Samuel found that there was a leak in the air vent here, so he could get in. He sent Jacob a message in the evening, asking him to take good care of Laurel and the children and then he went to the place not far from Allen's house by himself.

The Brook family looked like a city that never slept with bright lights everywhere, but it was strange that Allen didn't go out all day.

Samuel looked at the surveillance video he had installed in the dark and thought it was strange.

It was said that Allen had been so dedicated to his work that he even used the office as his home for several days and nights. But now he did not go to the group for several days, as strange.

Moreover, the day he began to be closed to the house was the day when the auction of Fallen Paradise Club was completed, and if there was not any correlation between it, Samuel would not believe it.

He found the original vent and quickly crawled in.

It was very damp, and the air vents were so cold that it was unbearable, but Samuel didn't have any feeling of it.

He went to Allen's house with the map in his head.

Allen was sitting on the sofa drinking tea, holding a photograph in his hand. His eyes narrowed as he saw a woman who looked very similar to Nicole five years ago.

Could it be a picture of Nicole?

But the clothes didn't look like modern clothes. Was it five years ago when Nicole went to take old pictures?

Samuel was a little confused.

Allen sighed, placed the photo on the coffee table, and backed up to meditate.

A secretary next to him whispered, "Mr. Allen, where did you get this picture? Isn't that what Miss Bush looked like five years ago? How can it come back? I remember destroying all the pictures."

"It's not her. It's a picture of a woman who looks very similar to her."

Allen turned and frowned. "That's what I found on her. She didn't lose it even when she was in the Fallen Paradise Club. She kept it close to her. If it isn't someone important to her, how could she keep it so close to her?"

"Could it have been shot by Miss Bush before?"

"No, it's old and it is already yellow at the edges. It must be old. The woman in this photo does look a bit like Nicole, but if you look closely, their eyes and eyebrows are different. They are not the same one.'

When Samuel heard Allen say this, he felt angry and jealous.

Allen remembered so well what Nicole looked like five years ago, so Samuel would never believe that he could forget that Nicole was dating another woman.

The secretary got a little confused and said, "Mr. Allen, today I found out someone checked your personal account again."
