Chapter 1751 Want a Silly Wife

Nicole suddenly smiled comfortingly when she saw her son's helpless expression.

"Boy, you have to treat Yasmeen well in the future. How much did Yasmeen suffer just to be with you? How far had she gone through with you? She was even teased by Michele s while ago. Even the kid Edison was dissatisfied with Yasmeen."

Nicole seemed to say it unintentionally, but Lucas still noticed something and frowned slightly.

"Edison and Michele have been here?"

He looked at Yasmeen and asked.

Yasmeen nodded and said, "They have been here for a while, but then they left in a hurry. Probably because of business. And they let me pass on their greeting."

Nicole sighed after hearing Yasmeen's words of breaking the ice. But in the end, she didn't intervene.

"Okay, your dad and I have something to deal with. Yasmeen will take care of you recently. Call me if there's anything wrong. As for the mother and daughter, you can step aside and leave it to me."

"Thank you, mommy."

Lucas nodded, but said, "Please don't interfere with Penny and her mother. I can still use their help in the future."

"Um?"

"The secret is not to be revealed."

She glared at Lucas, and then said, "You can mess around as long as you want to, but your eldest brother will be engaged this week. Just come back if you're available."

"This week?"

Lucas was a little surprised.

Lucas didn't hear much about Joseph's love story. How could he suddenly get engaged?

Speaking of the eldest son, Nicole was also a little helpless.

"You are all grown up and have your own life or emotional life. I can't just control you guys anymore. Joseph called me and said that he is going to get engaged this week. I can only notify you with the news."

"Who is the fiancé? Do we know them?"

Nicole shook her head when she heard it.

"I don't know, but I will send someone to check her out."

“Forget it, Mom. Joseph is prudent. Since he said he is going to get engaged, he must be serious. Just don't check it. It won't help to make him feel uncomfortable.”

She glanced at Lucas, and was relieved to find that he hadn't awakened. She then quickly walked out of the ward.

Penny's ward was guarded by soldiers from Nicole. Though they said it's for their protection, Yasmeen knew that Penny was under house arrest, for fear of her disturbing them.

Yasmeen felt that she was extremely lucky for having such a mother-in-law, but...

She looked at the text message on her phone, then looked in the direction of the ward. She quickly walked out of the hospital afterward, and drove out as soon as she hopped in.

Lucas opened his eyes immediately after Yasmeen left.

He got up and stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, watching Yasmeen's car speeding in the street. His beautiful eyes narrowed slightly, and confusion passed through his eyes.

Yasmeen is gone.

She left suddenly just like this, without a reason nor a word.

When Michele learned from the customs that Yasmeen returned to her homeland through customs that night, she was furious.

She came to Lucas's ward with Edison.

With a book in his hand, Lucas read happily, as if there was no big deal about Yasmeen's leaving. But Michele couldn't help but feel aggrieved for him.

“You don't know anything since you are staying here, right? Yasmeen has gone abroad an hour ago and her location is unknown at the moment. You still care about her so much and keep saying that she is your girlfriend. Now she ran away when you need her most. And you still love such a girlfriend?”

Lucas's hand stopped still in the air.

Going abroad?

She left in a hurry. Or maybe she left because there was something wrong with Steven Bradford?

Seeing Lucas was at a loss and not listening to Michele at all, Edison was also a little sad for him.

“Boss, I also think that the young boss was crossing the line this time.”

Samuel and Nicole were staying in their own hotel. They were having launch when Lucas came to them as like landing from the sky. He drew a chair out, sat down without a word. Afterward, he took out the tableware to eat.

Samuel's brows were frowning at his reckless behavior.

"Aren't you in a quarantine?"

Nicole noticed the abnormal in Samuel's voice and kicked Lucas under the table. But Lucas said out directly, "Mom, you kicked me."

Nicole was embarrassed at the moment.

Samuel saw his wife doing this, and said quickly, "It's right for your mother to kick you. You are such an adult with a cute girlfriend. And what a shame it is for you to still come back to have lunch with us? Aren't you embarrassed?"

"I haven't gotten married yet, Daddy. And you've started to think I am annoying? Besides, I haven't lived off home in the past few years?"

Samuel was a little depressed when Lucas said this.

“You interrupted my meal with your mother.”

“You could have just said that I disturbed the romantic lunchtime of you and it's over.”

Lucas's words made Samuel's expression frozen again.

“I remember you used to be cooler.”

“People will change, and I plan to come back to be a boomerang child.”

Hearing what Lucas said, Nicole instantly became interested.

“Are you going to retire?”

“How is it possible? According to his ambition, I believe that he could sacrifice his life for the army.”

Samuel spoke directly.

Lucas put down his chopsticks and said very seriously, “Dad, Mom is right. I may really have to retire.”

“What do you mean?”

Samuel was shocked.

“I'm leaving.”

Lucas's words made Edison stunned, and then he suddenly realized, “Oh, you mean the quarantine, right? Don't worry. With Michele and I around as well as protection from Mr. Morty, you will be fine. The whole military area belongs to us. It's just a mere formality, don't be so nervous.”

Hearing Edison's thoughts, Lucas didn't explain so much. Compare to let him accept the sadness of parting, it will be better to let him think so. He will calm down and everything will be fine.

“Well, I see. Just be well, boss. Since I am not around, you'd better be careful.”

“Understood.”

After settling down Edison, Lucas hung up the phone and then began to write a retirement application. In the application, he even advised Edison to replace him.

Edison's qualifications and experience were sufficient to take his position.

After settling everything, Lucas found Mark Don.

"Uncle Mark, do me a favor. I want to retire."

"Are you crazy?"

Mark was about to explode.

"Lucas, do you know that if you go one step forward now, you can reach a height that few people can get to with life effort. Now you tell me that you are retiring?"

"Yes, it's my decision."

Lucas didn't feel anything. Perhaps in everyone's eyes, Lucas wouldn't be emotional even if mount Alps collapses in front of him.

He said gently, "Uncle Mark, my gun for the mission was set up."

As soon as he said this, Mark fell into silence, with his brows tightly frowning.

It was a small boy, thin and weak, but his eyes were bright. He seemed to have no feeling for tear gas. When everyone was choked by the tear gas and coughed, he was the only one who got up, picked up the tear gas and threw it out.

Lucas caught him at a glance.

"You, fall out!"

When the boy saw Lucas, he was taken back for a moment. But he was on alert still, and quickly stepped forward to fight.

Lucas's skill was examined on the battlefield, and he instantly fought with the opponent.

The two had fought more than twenty rounds, with the result of final defeat of the boy.

Only then did the others come back to what had happened. They wanted to enclose Lucas when they heard the instructor, "This is Mr. Green, the future master of the Green family!"

When Lucas heard the words, he raised his hand and show his tail ring. The audience was quiet for an instant.

The boy was defeated for the first time, and he was still a bit dissatisfied. But when he saw that it was the master of the Green family, he quickly brought his knees together.

“Mr. Green!”

Following his yelling, other people also yelled out.

Lucas didn't say anything. He stared at the boy and asked, “What's your name?”

“Jaydon.”

“How old are you?”

“Eighteen!”

Jaydon's answer made Lucas frown slightly.

This kid was eighteen years old?

He looked like a fourteen or fifteen-year-old.

Chapter 1756 I Will Carry You on My Back

Yasmeen breathed a sigh of relief seeing the smile on Julian's face disappear.

She didn't know if Lucas has noticed that she is missing. Or would he think that she has something to do and go back to Country Y?

Yasmeen couldn't help but feel a little worried. But she had gone so far to this. She was thinking about how to get out of here. As for Julian, she didn't think he dared to do anything to her.

Lucas quickly came to the high seas with his crew, and soon he discovered something was wrong. It seemed that the place was taken.

The high seas were a public area, under no jurisdiction of any country or force. But now it had been enforced, which showed that something must have happened here.

Thinking of this, Lucas's eyes squinted slightly.

Jaydon saw Lucas's expression, not knowing what he was thinking. He didn't say a word, just waiting for orders and instructions.

Lucas was very satisfied with him.

"No matter what happened, you must ensure your own safety afterwards. I don't have the time and energy to take care of you. If possible, I hope you can cooperate well with me."

“Aye, Master.”

Jaydon nodded.

He originally thought that Lucas would send him out to perform the task, but he didn't expect Lucas to perform the mission in person. Jaydon was a little confused, but Lucas was gone by the time he noticed what had happened.

Lucas quickly jumped into the sea.

The cold water made him shiver for a moment. But thinking of what might happened to Yasmeen, he couldn't care that much anymore but swim faster.

There is a ship not far away. It seemed that it was a personal property. Lucas didn't know if Yasmeen was on the ship or not. The signal was lost on the public waters. Apparently, someone used a signal jamming system.

Lucas got on the ship quietly, quickly hid in a cabin. Taking out a suit of clothes from the backpack, he quickly changed the clothes and pinned his weapon to his waist.

This time it's not a mission, but it made him more nervous than regular mission.

There was the sound of footsteps outside, and Lucas quickly hid behind. Then he heard someone knock on the cabin next door and said, “Miss Shaw, time to dinner.”

"Lucas, you come back to me!"

Yasmeen growled, but didn't dare to yelled out loudly.

What was Lucas going back to do?

Julian was not so easy to deal with. What if he was discovered by Julian's men alone by then?

Yasmeen wanted to follow him, but Jaydon grabbed her arm.

"Ma'am, I need to send you away."

"Let go!"

Yasmeen had never met Jaydon. But from the way he called Lucas, she could know that he was from the Green family.

Jaydon said indifferently, "I only obey the orders of the master. Please don't blame me for this!"

Jaydon directly knocked Yasmeen out, dragged her into the helicopter. He then glanced at the direction of the sea one more time, and drove the helicopter back without hesitation.

Lucas returned to Julian's ship, quickly climbed up, planted bombs in several hidden locations, and then left silently again.

There was a cold smile on the corner of his lips.

How dare to set his woman up and kidnapped his woman, he must pay the corresponding price!

Lucas moved away quickly, then took out the remote control from his pocket and pressed it against the ship.

The sound of the bomb explosion resounded through the sky, and the black mushroom cloud filled the sea.

The bomb was so powerful that Julian had to jump into the sea to escape, but he was almost fainted with anger.

"Who is it? Where's Princess Shaw? We can't let anything happen to her!"

However, the panic caused by the explosion made the people on the ship so nervous that no one listened to him. All of them just fled for their lives.

Scratching his cheeks angrily Julian watched this scene fiercely, and could only leave.

Seeing Yasmeen's expression like this, Lucas's anxiety and worry somewhat eased.

Piece of cake!

Make him so worried for so long, and she can't bear his mean words to her?

She might not dare to act without permission.

Lucas thought to himself, but he didn't expect Yasmeen to let go of his arm directly and sat quietly on the other side of the cabin, watching the blue sky and white clouds outside. She quieted down suddenly but also weirdly.

Yasmeen looking out of the window quietly made Lucas feel a little sad for no reason, and the atmosphere was also a little depressing.

“Hungry? Do you want something to eat?”

Lucas took the lead in breaking this strange atmosphere.

Didn't he just say something mean to her?

Was that worth this?

Wasn't she a person who is not usually very tough?

Seeing that Yasmeen didn't respond, Lucas passed the hardtack from his backpack again. Right in Yasmeen's face.

Yasmeen frowned slightly, finally feeling a little more alive.

“I don't eat this. It's terrible.”

“It's not easy to have something to eat, how could you be so choosy?”

After Lucas finished speaking, he opened the hardtack, stuffed them in her mouth as Yasmeen was absent-minded.

“Ahem! Lucas, are you going to murder me? I know you are angry. You are mad at me for leaving you without saying goodbye. You are mad at me for wandering alone. And you are mad at me for hiding something from you, but you are so...”

“You think too much, why should I be angry? Does it have anything to do with me?”

Lucas interrupted Yasmeen's words directly, put the hot water into her hand again, and said coldly, “Either eat or throw up. I haven't slept all night. I need to rest.”

After speaking, Lucas sat down and closed his eyes as if he was really asleep.

All of Yasmeen's emotions were choked in her throat, unable to burst out.

Yasmeen suddenly got confused. Is this the man she has been chasing for twenty years?

Too fucking...

Forget it. There is no way to describe it. She felt distressed to scold him too cruelly, and she felt distressed to forgive him and speak of him too lightly. Lucas is right. The man is chosen by herself and she has to accept everything.

After Yasmeen figured this out, she was silent again. As if she was angry with someone, or as if she was completely conceded.

Seeing her like this, Lucas's cold eyes finally warmed up a little.

“Wake me up when we get to the Seapolis City, I'll take a nap for a while.”

This was spoken to Jaydon.

Jaydon nodded quickly, and he could tell that the Patriarch really cares about this future mistress, otherwise he would not come to rescue her alone. He is just a little angry that Yasmeen was set up stupidly. To be honest, there are still more worry and caring. He was afraid that the punishment just now was just a tough act by Lucas to appease his uneasy heart.

And Lucas was the kind of guy who didn't like to explain. He could only whisper to Yasmeen, “The Patriarch started the plan as soon as he knew that you had an accident. He went to the training base to select an assistant to rescue you. I heard that the Patriarch was unwilling to take over the family business. But to save you, the Patriarch returned to the Green family without saying a word. Now he is the Patriarch of the Green family, Miss Shaw. But he only slept for less than three hours last night.”

As soon as this word came out, Yasmeen was stunned.

“What are you talking about? Concentrate on flying the plane.”

Lucas frowned slightly, unable to tell whether she was happy or unhappy.

It was the first time that Jaydon and Lucas had cooperated, and they were a little confused about the future master, but they did what they should say and did what they should do, but they did their assistants.

So, Jaydon shut up and focused on flying the plane.

Yasmeen's heart was not at peace anymore.

She looked at Lucas and found that the man's eyes were all black eye circle, and when she thought of the conditions needed to return to the Green family and take over the position of Patriarch. Her nose suddenly turned a bit sore and her eyes turned red.

“Lucas, have you retired?”

"What happened?"

Lucas's face suddenly changed. Yasmeen also frowned, but she didn't panic. After all, they both had experienced such a matter.

Jaydon's face was a little pale.

"Patriarch, our plane seems to be located, and it is now within the attack range of others."

Jaydon's words made Lucas's eyes narrow.

The Green family's private jets have their own logos, and they have also applied for the right to use them. They are used internationally. Now someone has pointed at their Green family's aircraft and taken aim. If this is an accident, Lucas would laugh to death.

"Get out, I'll do it!"

Lucas stepped forward quickly.

Jaydon only paused for a second, and then quickly moved away from the driver's seat.

Yasmeen was somewhat worried.

"What should I do?"

"Go and see what you can do for yourself."

Lucas never regarded Yasmeen as a treasure hidden in the box, nor did he think that women cannot go to the battlefield, especially Yasmeen. In fact, Lucas really appreciates her firmness.

Yasmeen heard what Lucas said, and quickly turned to Jaydon and said, "Is there a weapon system?"

"This is a private helicopter so it should be available. But assault weapons are not allowed on our aircraft."

Jaydon was telling the truth.

No matter country R or country Z, the Green family has some specialty. Once they carry weapons, many things are in a mess.

Lucas certainly heard this.
