Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 1801 How Dare He

“Dad, think about it! If you continue hitting him, Yasmeen will get really angry and ignore you later. You know how she is. She may throw a temper and don’t even want to hold the wedding anymore. She’ll probably just elope with Lucas, then you’ll regret this.”

Patrick said casually. Steven stopped whipping Lucas upon hearing that.

Lucas glanced at Patrick. Awesome! He had a nice future brother-in-law.

“Get out and go rest somewhere.”

But Lucas said nonchalantly, “I don’t have time to rest because I must take the plane back home later. I also told my brother to find a compatible kidney donor so that Yasmeen do the surgery tomorrow.”

“What?”

Steven was taken aback.

“It’s not that easy to find a compatible kidney donor. If you really love my daughter, you should just give the kidney back to her. Why go through so much trouble?”

Lucas looked at Steven and explained patiently, “I cannot give it back to her just like that. It’s risky for her health if we do so. Even though Yasmeen should be most compatible with her own kidney, but it has already been in my body for so long. It was compatible with me and my body didn’t reject it. It’s not necessarily a good idea to give it back to Yasmeen right now. It’s better to find her another donor. Not to mention that I’m afraid of dying now.”

“What?”

Steven thought that he was hearing things.

Lucas said that he was scared of dying?

Lucas was in the army for many years and was always risking his life. He did every mission even though some were dangerous. Steven had never seen him afraid of anything, but now Lucas was saying that he was afraid of dying.

Lucas noticed how shocked Steven was. He smiled and said, “Yes, I’m scared of dying. I never thought this way before, but my life also belongs to Yasmeen right now. I need to stay alive. My main priority now is to make sure that she’s happy for as long as she lives.”

“Such a smooth talker. Your father wasn’t like this.”

Even though Steven mocked Lucas, but the expression in his eyes and on his face looked gentler now.

“Ask Patrick to put some ointment on your wound, you should leave immediately after that. Also, I’m going with you after I settle some matters.”

Steven went out after saying that.

Patrick quickly went up and helped Lucas up.

Lucas was actually hurt quite badly.

It definitely hurt to get whipped on the body. Patrick had experienced this before, so he was awed at how Lucas didn't even make any noises when he got hit.

Jaydon came back swiftly. She noticed Yasmeen standing in front of the French window. She was staring outside and looked like she was lost in thoughts. She quickly went up and closed the window.

"Miss Shaw, you're not feeling well. Please rest."

"Who said that I'm not feeling well?"

Yasmeen was perceptive and quickly caught what X was saying.

Jaydon was puzzled, "Aren't you? That's what Young Master told me. That's why he told me to be by your side and take care of you."

Yasmeen squinted her eyes.

Why would Lucas say that?

Did he know something she didn't?

"What else did he tell you?"

"Nothing else. He just told me to never leave your side."

What Jaydon said made Yasmeen suspicious.

She thought about how Lucas went to country Y alone and her father whipped Lucas. Her brother sent her a picture. Everything that happened had to have something to do with her.

Kidney donation!

Yasmeen figured it out.

Did Lucas find out about that and go to the Shaw family to ask for forgiveness?

She felt bad thinking about this.

She tried everything to hide the truth. How did Lucas find out about this?

What went wrong?

Did Julian tell Lucas something?

Yasmeen felt uneasy.

Lucas felt like his back was hot and burning. He didn't have any strength, but he tried to sit up. He grabbed his phone and saw that he got a few missed calls from Joseph. He quickly called him back.

"Joseph."

"Where are you?"

Joseph noticed that Lucas' voice sounded weak. He couldn't help but ask.

Lucas looked outside and it was dark. He wondered if it was about to rain. He then replied, "I'm at Country Y. I have something to do here and will go back soon. Have you found a compatible kidney donor?"

"Yeah, please come back as soon as possible. You should know that donated kidneys are extremely limited. We have to arrange for a transplant quickly."

"Okay, I'll board the plane soon."

After he hung up the call, Lucas put on clothes swiftly. It was as if the wound on his back wasn't there anymore.

He walked out of the room and noticed that Patrick and Ashley were waiting for him outside already.

Lucas was taken aback, but he still said politely, "Aunty Ashley, I need to go back."

"Have you found a kidney?"

Ashley overheard his phone call just now.

Lucas didn't try to hide it and nodded.

"How are you feeling?"

"I'm fine."

"Then let's go. Patrick, take good care of Lucas on the way."

"Yes, mom."

Patrick reached out his hand and wanted to support Lucas while he was walking, but he got rejected.

They boarded the plane and flew to Capital City.

Morty heard that Ashley was reaching soon, so he went to greet her personally. Lucas went directly to the hospital dean's office to see Joseph.

Chapter 1804 I Want to Be Alone

“Mom, how did you know about this? Who told you this? Who’s spreading this rumour?”

Yasmeen subconsciously tried to hide it.

Ashley said angrily, "Rumour? Okay, then come with me to the clinic and I'll check it for you. I'll see for myself how many kidneys do you still have. If you still have two, then I'll apologize to you. If not, you're done for."

She tried to yank Yasmeen to the clinical laboratory.

"I'm not going!"

Yasmeen didn't want to go. She grabbed the corner of the wall with one hand and didn't want to leave.

What was going on? She would be exposed if her mother gave her a checkup.

How did her mother find out about this?

Yasmeen was so baffled.

Jaydon noticed that Yasmeen didn't want to leave and Ashley was trying to bring her away by force. She went up and stood in front of Yasmeen, "Dr. Ashley, please let her go. Otherwise, I have to do something about you."

"You dare to touch me?"

Ashley thought that she was joking.

She was just teaching her daughter a lesson. Who did Jaydon think she was to come out to stop her?

But Jaydon answered nonchalantly, "Young Master told me to protect Miss Shaw no matter what. I don't care that you're her mother. If you hurt her, I'll protect her."

Ashley was taken aback. She glared at Jaydon intensely, but Jaydon stared back at her without fear. She didn't care that Ashley was scrutinizing her. She didn't question anything.

Patrick saw everything and was amazed by Lucas' subordinate's ability.

Yasmeen noticed that things were about to go south. She quickly went up and grabbed Jaydon's shoulder, "Jaydon, this is my mom. She's just messing with me, no need to be so serious."

"No, Young Master told me to protect you from everything before he comes back. Otherwise, I would be neglecting my duty."

Chapter 1805 The Choice to Not Accept

“I’m not leaving!”

Lucas grabbed Yasmeen’s wrist when she was pushing him. He then pulled her and hugged her in his arms.

“Lucas, let go of me! I want to be alone right now!”

Yasmeen struggled.

She didn't know what was going on with her. It was as if a shameful part of her was exposed to Lucas and it made her lose control.

How did he find out?

She thought she hid it well, but he still found out anyways.

Lucas was nice to her in the past few days because of the kidney, right?

She thought Lucas really accepted her feelings, she thought that she finally managed to get into his heart. But what was this?

"I'm begging you, please let me be alone!"

Yasmeen moved her hand and tried to push Lucas out once again, but Lucas grabbed her hand. She could feel his warm breath on her face. His eyes turned dim.

"Yasmeen, do you really think that I love you because of this kidney?"

She looked away and didn't say anything, but her eyes were getting redder.

Lucas scoffed, "Fine. If you really think so, then I'll give it back to you."

He then pushed her away and left the room.

Chapter 1806 You're Such a Bully, Lucas

'Oh, my God.'

She had annoyed Lucas!

What should she do?

Yasmeen thought of what Lucas said before he left. He said that he didn't care, and she couldn't help but flinch.

However, having thought of Lucas being with other woman, she took a deep breath.

Alright, although she still felt a little uncomfortable, and she still can't get rid of the curse of repaying kindness, compared with Lucas's leaving, Yasmeen still compromised.

She quickly ran towards the direction Lucas left.

Lucas didn't leave and he went directly to Joseph. As soon as he entered the room, he opened a bottle of water and gulped down the water.

His behavior surprised Joseph.

Lucas had always been calm and modest. The way he was angry but still repressed his anger made Joseph curious.

"What's the matter?"

"Nothing."

Lucas sat down and browsed the nephrogenic records.

Seeing his gloomy look, Joseph could not help but put down the document and asked, "Is it because of Yasmeen?"

"Joseph, do you have any idea what women are thinking?"

Lucas was indeed a little enraged.

He was born with a silver spoon and had grown up in a bed of roses too. He had spent a lot of energy and patience on Yasmeen. He clearly knew that he can compromise for Yasmeen and do something childish which he didn't want or disdain to do. But as long as Yasmeen likes, he doesn't mind doing them. Was Yasmeen blind towards such a change?

"So? Should I be single all my life and let you dwell in the thought of repaying kindness?"

Without waiting for Yasmeen to speak, Lucas continued, "In fact, it's okay for me too. It doesn't matter whether I get married or not, the Green family doesn't need me to give birth to descendants too."

Yasmeen was immediately speechless and she couldn't say a word.

She had set herself up, and Lucas's indifference at this time was very heartbreaking to her.

The rim of Yasmeen's eyes went red. Lucas didn't say anything, he only let her grab his collar, and the two of them stayed like that at length.

Joseph felt extremely awkward. At this time, if he said he wanted to leave, he supposed Lucas's cold glare would freeze him to death, but it was really awkward for him to stay there.

He coughed. "Well, Yasmeen, please let Lucas go first and let's talk nicely."

Joseph still spoke after all.

Yasmeen glanced at Lucas and saw that he was still composed and aloof. It looked like he had never been furious in front of Joseph just now.

He was always like that.

He was calm and indifferent especially in front of her, unlike a man in love, which made her feel uneasy and insecure all the time.

She was now on pins and needles, but Lucas seemed as if he had calmed down all over, and he seemed to have a decision on what kind of result he wanted.

Yasmeen suddenly panicked.

"Lucas, do you really want to break up with me?"

Her voice was deep, and there was even a tremor.

Lucas was slightly moved. He knew that Yasmeen had already abased herself as much as possible in front of him.

She was a princess, who was spoiled as she grew up in the family too. She had always been arrogant in front of outsiders, but she was so cautious in front of him, which made his heart ached.

Chapter 1808 Could You Help Me, Lucas

Seeing that Lucas was a little confused, Joseph quite had a sense of accomplishment, and he was even more excited than that of completely researching a topic.

"Well, you can take your time to think. I'll treat your wound."

Joseph opened the medical kit and began to treat Lucas's wound.

Lucas did not cry out in pain but his body was tense, which portrayed how much it hurt.

Yasmeen ran all the way back to her own ward, closed the door and bawled after covering herself in the quilt.

She was with the extreme grievance and her entire person was feeling bad. But, she could do nothing when facing Lucas. After all, it was indeed her who started to chase him.

But when she thought about Reece who had said that he wanted to cut all ties and be even with her and so that they did not owe each other anything, she felt as if her chest was torn open. The pain was excruciating.

Twenty years.

It was an obsession but also deep love.

She would die without Lucas.

Yasmeen did not know how long she had cried. She fell asleep amid crying. She slept especially soundly as if she was completely exhausted. She did not want to think about anything and was just feeling bad because of the exhaustion.

Whilst she was sleeping, Lucas came. When he saw Yasmeen's reddened eyes upon crying, he personally went to apply an ice compress to her eyes and stayed with her for a while. If Jaydon had not come to him for something important, he probably would not have left so soon.

Ashley did not comment anything after she learnt about what happened between Lucas and Yasmeen but when she was looking at Lucas, her eyes seemingly looked as if she was pondering about something.

Patrick felt somewhat sorry for Lucas.

He came to Lucas's room and saw that Lucas was handling something. He initially intended to leave but Lucas noticed him.

"Anything?"

"Nothing, I'm just bored so I want to talk with you."

Patrick walked in carelessly and casually. Seeing Lucas meticulously handling the business matters, he could not help but admire him slightly.

"Don't you have a headache watching so many numbers?"

"If you had younger siblings, you would know that there is no way to escape and refrain from some matters because once you escape, your younger siblings will be miserable."

Lucas replied indifferently.

Patrick froze suddenly.

Patrick was instantly a little irritated. When he turned back and saw Ashley standing behind him, he instantly became a wimp.

"Mom, I'll become a fool if you beat me like this."

“That would be good, so that you can’t stick up to the outsider every day.”

Ashley was extremely speechless with her youngest son. She did not even know how was Patrick bribed by Lucas.

Patrick, however, giggled and said, “Mom, I’m not bribed by Lucas. I just acknowledge Yasmeen’s feelings for him. Moreover, he treats her quite well, doesn’t he?”

“Making your elder sister cry is called treat her quite well?”

Ashley rolled her eyes at her youngest son.

Patrick hurriedly replied, “That was also just to let her vent her tense emotions. I believe Mom is able to understand it. If you simply just want to disagree with Lucas, then I can do nothing about it. But I think that without Lucas in this world, Yasmeen may not be happy. Isn’t letting Yasmeen happy what we want?”

Ashley instantly did not know what to say.

After quite a while, Ashley responded, “No matter what, you have to prioritize your elder sister’s well-being first, understand?”

“Got it.”

“Get some rest.”

Ashley got up and walked out.

Yasmeen was entirely stunned. She stared at the magnified handsome face in front of her with her eyes opened. She felt it was dreamy and could not distinguish if this was real.

Even if Lucas was really mentally strong, he was also a little embarrassed to be looked at by her like that.

"Close your eyes."

His voice was hoarse and his eyes were with a hint of lust.

Yasmeen suddenly felt that her heartbeat was a little out of control. She hurriedly closed her eyes and felt Lucas's slightly cool thin lips that were covering hers again and then twisting and entangling.

The temperature in the room skyrocketed to the boiling point at once. Yasmeen even thought she would drown in the tenderness but at the most critical point, there was a gunfire sound outside.

Lucas and Yasmeen were stunned. Almost subconsciously, Yasmeen jumped off Lucas's lap and turned around to get Lucas's jacket. She then said while walking, "Be careful. I'll wait for you here to come back."

Seeing this scene, Lucas froze.

It was as if she had rehearsed this action countless times and an instinct had been formed in her body as if she was ready for Lucas to go on a mission at any time. This deeply stung Lucas's heart.

Lucas's throat was a bit sore. He held Yasmeen's hand and spoke in a low voice, "Yasmeen, I've retired from the military. I'm just an ordinary businessman now."

Once, Lucas used to be proud as a soldier.

He had never thought about how much his family would be worried about him when we went on missions because Samuel and Nicole never showed it in front of him. All his family members supported and encouraged him with his ambitions.

He had never seen how his family was worried about him, but now from Yasmeen's subconscious actions, he apparently saw a woman who loved him was nervous at all times and was worried about him due to his ambitions, yet arranged her life and lifestyle according to his liking.

Lucas was touched.

Realization dawned on Yasmeen after she heard Lucas say so. She could not help but feel a little embarrassed.
