

Escape Wife 1832

Chapter 1832 Misunderstanding

It was a big deal.

Lucas had always thought that Joseph and Mia couldn't be a match. On the contrary, Kylie was very likely to be with Joseph.

Now Joseph was not here, and Kylie was missing because of the operation on Yasmeen. Lucas frowned and made a phone call.

"Ask everyone in the Green Family to find Kylie."

After saying that, he quickly checked the surveillance video. However, there was no surveillance video in the dressing room. To protect the doctor's privacy, there was also no surveillance video around.

Lucas had no other method.

The people from the Green Family moved quickly.

Ashley also liked Kylie a lot, so she also went to find her. But Kylie seemed to have disappeared without any trace.

Lucas didn't dare to tell Joseph the news because he was afraid that something bad would happen if Joseph got too anxious. He could only ask the people from the Green Family to look for Kylie as soon as possible. In fact, Lucas's mind was already in a mess.

When Yasmeen woke up, she didn't see Lucas. Only Patrick was there. But if she didn't look carefully, she even couldn't recognize Patrick.

"Did you have plastic surgery?"

Yasmeen teased, looking at Patrick, whose face was wounded and swollen.

Patrick glared at Yasmeen and mumbled, "what the hell plastic surgery! I was beaten by your man! Look at me! He beat me so hard! If my face is disfigured and I can't find a wife for this, both of you should be responsible for this."

"You deserve it because you have told the nonsense to so many people. Lucas is merciful."

Yasmeen didn't feel pity for Patrick at all.

She looked around but didn't see Lucas. She frowned slightly.

"Where is Lucas?"

Patrick paused for a while and then said, "Something happened in Lucas's company. He went back to solve it. He asked me to buy you ice cream. He said he would buy you whatever you want after you recover."

Thinking of what Lucas had said before she entered the operating room, Yasmeen's face softened.

"Where is the ice cream?"

"Oh, I didn't know when you would wake up, so I ate it."

Patrick took it for granted. Yasmeen was so angry.

"I think Lucas was too merciful. He should have beaten you even harder so that you would be unable to talk so much and eat so much."

Yasmeen said through gritted teeth, but Patrick was unconvinced. "It's just ice cream. If you want to eat it, I'll buy it for you."

"That's not the point."

Yasmeen was pissed off.
