

Escape Wife 191

Chapter 191: It's Actually Allen

Joseph was held in Nicole's arms, and he cried more and more fiercely.

He missed his mother.

But Mommy was bad!

It was even worse that the elder brother had disappeared and his whereabouts was unknown. He didn't dare to mention his mother's name or think about her. He was afraid that he would be sorry for the elder brother. However, facing Nicole's tolerance, Joseph didn't know how to express his thoughts, just feeling aggrieved and wanted to cry.

"Auntie, daddy hates my mommy, right? I dared not mention it. I knew she was a villain, but I really miss her."

Joseph was crying heavily.

The strength that he pretended for days, in this moment, had collapse completely.

Nicole hated Riley.

Without her, Lucas would not have been lost, and she would not return after such a long period. But Riley was Riley, and Joseph was Joseph.

In Nicole's mind, Joseph and Lucas were both four-year-old kids.

The child was innocent. What's more, he treated Lucas with sincerity. For Lucas, he even regarded his mother as enemy.

How could Nicole be censured by his temperament?

No one could choose their own parents, right?

Nicole gently patted Joseph's back and said softly, "She has given you life and brought you into this world. She is a mother and a guide for you. You don't need to forget her. No matter what she did, she did not give up a mother's responsibility for you, which is just enough to let you remember her for life. Joseph, no matter what she has done to Lucas and me, and even to others, you just need to remember that she is your mother. Now she is no longer here, gratitude and resentment will disappear spontaneously. You can miss her. It doesn't conflict with your friendly attitude towards me, Lucas and Zoe. You don't need to blame yourself or feel guilty. After all, that is not your fault. Though she is your mother, you don't have to atone for her faults. You are still a child. You should enjoy your childhood and grow up well. You just remember her good to you."

Hearing Nicole's words, Joseph looked up with a lump in his throat.

"Auntie, don't you hate her?"

"I hate her. Because of her, I have lost my son now; because of her, my family is a mess. But Joseph, as I said, you are not her, I will not be angry with you. Even when I saw you, it reminded me of Lucas. If you are willing to, I will be your mother in the future, and I will treat you like Lucas. "

"Really?"

Joseph's eyes were looking straight at Nicole. There was an indescribable desire and pain in his eyes.

"Of course."

Nicole reached out his hand and gently dried Joseph's tears.

The child touched her too much, and he was kind-hearted. Just looking at his sincerity towards Lucas was enough to convince Nicole of treating him with heart.

"Mommy!"

Joseph bumped into Nicole's arms and cried.

"The boss allowed me to take good care of you and be filial to you for him. And he asked me to protect sister well. I can do it. Really, I can really do it. These days I learned skills hard from Yan instructor. I will not let you and sister encounter danger again. But I really miss boss. The boss will be back, right? He will come back! He's my brother! He won't leave us alone! I call you mommy for him. As long as he does not come back, I will be your son one day. In the future, you can beat me and scold me. If I make any mistakes, you can punish me. "

"Silly boy!"

Nicole's eyes were wet.

For Joseph and Lucas.

Nicole was shocked, but Joseph didn't understand.

"Mommy, what is morphine?"

He asked quietly, but his mouth was shut by Nicole. However, she was shivering.

She couldn't face the truth!

The doctor obviously understood Samuel's mood. He didn't blame him for his attitude, but said helplessly, "Mr. Green, I knew you are suffering and in pain, but now Miss Bush is very uncomfortable. Let's think about how to calm her down. Her physical condition is not suitable for operation at all and it takes time for her to recover. I'm really at a loss in this situation."

"You're a doctor, and you're telling me there's nothing you could do? She is only a four-year-old child. Her great life has not begun yet! Now you tell me that you couldn't do anything about it?"

Samuel collapsed completely.

His voice was sharp and cold. The doctor couldn't hold the bitter cold atmosphere.

"Mr. Green, I'm just a doctor. I could check Miss Bush's condition and formulate a scheme according to her condition. But now I need you family members to make a sign!"

*Sign what? My daughter is only four years old! Do you want me to sign up that you could use morphine on her? That's my daughter! My own daughter!"

Samuel's eyes were scarlet and even wetter.

Nicole couldn't bear it anymore and pushed the door of the office.

"I don't agree!"

Her voice was not loud, but two men in the office were both stunned.

"Nicole? Why are you here?"

Samuel was a little astonished.

Joseph felt that he had done something wrong. He hid behind Nicole, looking at Samuel timidly and said, "I brought Mommy here."

The sound of "Mummy" made Samuel dazed for a moment, and then he was a little relieved. However, he loosened the doctor and came to the front of Nicole.

"Are you all right?"

"What's the matter with Zoe? You should make it clear to me. "

She was staring at him, with tears filling her eyes.

Samuel knew that she must have heard something.

"Nicole, I'll take care of all these."

Samuel didn't want to upset Nicole. Over the years, Nicole's feelings towards Allen were very complicated. Although Samuel was jealous, he still suppressed his jealousy compared with his love to Nicole.

With tearful eyes, Nicole also knew Samuel's kind intentions, but the more so, the more she was eager to know the truth.

Laurel left the ward and Nicole went to Zoe's bed.

"Mommy, why have you lost weight? I didn't even recognize you. Is it because you're tired of taking care of my sick brother?"

Zoe reached out her hand in a distressed way and touched Nicole's face gently.

Her hands were cold, not as warm as a child should be.

Nicole had always thought it was her fault, but now she realized it was caused by many reasons.

She felt sad, and remorse and distressed when she heard Zoe's words. She didn't know how to answer her. She just gently held Zoe in her arms.

"Does Zoe think Mummy is getting uglier?"

"No, Mommy is always the prettiest. And I miss Mommy so much!"

Zoe cuddled up in Nicole's arms.

Nicole could feel Zoe was trembling, and perhaps the pain was too much for her, but she kept smiling at her and at life.

"Does it hurt, Zoe?" she asked sadly.

"No."

Zoe still smiled, a little reluctantly.

Nicole finally burst into tears.

"You don't have to pretend to be strong in front of Mommy. Mommy knows that you are not feeling well, are you? Mommy is happy that Zoe is strong, but Mommy doesn't want Zoe to face it alone. Tell Mommy, does it hurt?"

"Yes!"

Zoe's smile disappeared, her nose crumpled, and she subconsciously moved closer to Nicole.

"Mommy, I don't know why it hurts so much when I'm here. But my grandma and dad are so kind to me, and Joseph is comforting me. I'm afraid they'll hate me if I say I feel painful."

"Silly girl, no one will hate you. Daddy and Grandma, Mommy and Joseph will always love Zoe. Mommy knows that Zoe hurts, and mommy hurts, too. Mummy is sick too, and like Zoe, I need treatment, but we have to fight it out for ourselves first, you know?"

Nicole fondly touched Zoe's hair, feeling very uncomfortable.

Zoe raised her head, looked at Nicole with her beautiful eyes, and whispered, "Mommy, doesn't godfather like Zoe anymore? Is it because Zoe's illness can't be cured, so godfather doesn't want Zoe?"

"No! Zoe is so cute. Anyone would love you."

Chapter 194: Samuel Was Just A Man, Not God

Nicole suddenly woke up to the fact.

She had just said that she was going to be with Samuel, that she was going to be a woman worthy of Samuel, and how could she be overcome by these difficulties when her daughter was waiting for her to stand up and accompany her, and her son was waiting in some unknown place for her to come to her rescue?

She was Nicole!

Five years ago, the fire had not taken her life. What was the matter of such a setback now?

Nicole suddenly had a lot of courage.

"Mom, I know what I have to do."

Nicole's eyes were clear.

She was still very worried and sad, and even wanted to accompany Zoe in the operating room to know what kind of pain she would go through on the operating table, but at this moment, she knew better what she should do.

Laurel smiled gratified.

"I'll buy you something to eat. I'll let Joseph stay with you."

"Yes!"

Nicole didn't refuse.

She really wanted to follow to the operating room, but as Jacob led all the experts to the operating room, Nicole turned and went back to her room.

Joseph's brows knit together. He didn't know Mommy was sick!

Joseph followed Nicole as she returned to the hospital room.

"Mommy, are you really sick? What's the matter with you?"

Joseph was worried, looking straight at Nicole.

Nicole laughed and said, "Mommy's okay. Mommy's just tired and wants to have a rest. Don't worry, Mommy will be all right."

"Is there a bad man who bullies Mommy? Tell me, I'll go to teach them a lesson." Joseph said angrily.

Nicole laughed and said, "No, Mommy's fine."

"But Grandma said you are ill."

"Mommy is just in bad mood, and nobody can help me but myself."

Nicole touched Joseph's head and thought of Lucas again.

If Lucas had known that she was ill, and that Zoe was in this bad situation, would he have come back?

Nicole felt hysterical.

She didn't believe Lucas was killed.

That boy would never leave her so soon, would he?

Joseph looked at Nicole and saw she was lost in thought. He knew that she was missing Lucas again.

He really hoped that he could replace Lucas. If he had let the eldest brother run away, maybe Mommy would not be so sad, and Daddy would not be so sad as well.

Chapter 195: Took the Initiative

All the doctors in the nursing home were trying to save Zoe, while Laurel was a bit nervous. At that moment, Mike came with the doctor.

"How's Laurel?"

"You just sent her here in time!"

Samuel quickly told him about Laurel.

The doctor who examined Laurel was quickly called out.

The doctor was quite respectful to Mike when he saw him, and whispered, "Mrs. Green's report had some out. There are some toxins in her body. Although she hasn't taken something unusual for a long time, there are hidden dangers to her body. She must be too tired this time and her immunity is not so strong as ever, which triggers some unmentionable disease of the body. We will do our best to treat her.”

“Thank you.”

Samuel was now under siege. He really wanted him to be separated into many parts, so that he could take care of his beloved at the same time.

The doctors led the medical team into the operating room and began rescuing Laurel.

Mike hugged Samuel's shoulder and whispered, "I know you're not in the mood, but there's no use staying here. You're not a doctor, and you can't decide a lot of things. Let's go to the roof deck and have a smoke."

Samuel really stressed out these days. Hearing what Mike said, he asked Jacob to stay here and went to the roof with Mike.

There was a strong wind on the roof, but Samuel didn't seem to feel it.

For nearly 30 years he had been able to get everything he wanted, but five years ago when Nicole had an accident with her baby and his life had been changed.

He was really passive in such circumstance.

Mike lit a cigarette and handed it over.

Samuel took it and inhaled it so hard that he coughed and choked.

"Why? I haven't seen you for years. Don't tell me you quit smoking?"

"No.

Samuel coughed and took another puff.

The smell of nicotine soothed his heart somewhat.

He puffed out the smoke as if to spit out all the gloomy smells.

Mike lit a cigarette for himself, leaned against the corner of the roof, looked out into the sky, and whispered, "Allen has started action."

"Is it? I am afraid he wouldn't act."

Samuel sneered, like a ghost from hell.

Until then, he had been grateful to Allen, but now he wished he had cut him to pieces.

Chapter 196: To Be the Mistress of the Green Family

"How's Mrs. Green, Doctor?" Jacob asked at once.

The doctor looked from Jacob to Nicole, but Samuel was not there, and for a moment he hesitated.

"Where's Mr. Green?"

"He's resting,' Nicole whispered. "I'm his wife Nicole and Laurel's daughter-in-law. You could tell me, doctor."

"Yes, yes, this is our lady. You could tell her.'

Jacob hastened to agree.

The doctor, who knew Jacob and naturally believed him, said in a low voice, "Miss, let's go to the office and have a talk."

"My mother-in-law..."

"Fine for the moment."

The doctor's words were a relief to Nicole.

The two men entered the office one after the other.

As the door of the office closed, the doctor sighed and said, "Miss, Mrs. Green is in a bad condition.

"What exactly happened?"

Nicole was more or less prepared, but she was not at ease when she heard this. She had little contact with Laurel, but this time, she felt that this woman was very wise and kind. No matter what her previous attitude was, she was really nice to Zoe.

The doctor sighed and handed over Laurel's healthy report.

"Mrs. Green's health was not so good when she was young, and I don't know what happened then. She may have taken a lot of folk prescriptions, which is not approved by doctors. After all, many medicines in folk prescriptions are toxic, which will make people collapse after years of taking-in. Moreover, I have examined Mrs. Green's body carefully, and found that apart from the room toxicity in the folk prescription, there is other toxicity that has been surrounding her. Although it has improved in recent years, it still hurts her in the core"

"Can it be treated?"

Now Nicole understood what it was. Laurel's body could have been tampered with just like Joseph's.

She wanted to know now if there was any way Laurel would get better.

The doctor shook his head and said, "It's too late."

"What do you mean?"

"Mrs. Green's health is not good. Now look here."

The doctor pointed to Mrs. Green's X-ray picture and said, "She's got cancer here, and it's already spread around the body, and it's advanced."

"Is this advanced liver cancer?" Nicole froze.

The doctor nodded.

but once a person feels the pain, it's already too late. The medicine Mrs. Green had been taking for years had already eaten into her body. After the metabolism, the liver is the first to be attacked and persecuted. Now all the toxins accumulated in the liver couldn't get out, so it becomes cancerous, which is very common in medicine. Nicole could see something from Laurel's eyes, and she seemed to guess something. Nicole was so smart that made Laurel smile in relief.

She patted Nicole on the back of her hand and whispered, "This is what the mistress of the Green Family should have. Keep it. A lot of people swear by it."

"A lot of people? For example, .."

"See how anxious you are."

Laurel sighed and gave the box to Nicole.

Nicole opened it up, and it was an old ring with a totem that seemed to have a different meaning, with an earthiness and yet a dignity around it.

"It's a pair of rings. This one here is the mistress's ring, and Samuel has another, but he never takes it out. The reason I didn't give it to you five years ago was because I didn't know how long your relationship Samuel would last. At that time, you liked my son so much. As a mother, I am proud and gratified, but as the mistress of the Green Family, I feel guilty because I don't know if you are suitable for my son.'

Laurel was speaking freely now.

Nicole might have been upset with these words before, but now that she had been through so much, she didn't care about much. She knew that what Laurel was going to say to her was probably a secret to the Green Family and that might be the secret she had been trying to find but she couldn't.

"Does mother think I'm good enough now?"

"It's not that you're unqualified, it's Samuel's approval of you. Samuel once told me about Lucas, and for you and Lucas, he even wants to give up the identity of the Green Family. He only wants to stay with you and children. This kind of renunciation made me understand Samuel's heart. He has been a man of few words. Vincent, on the other hand, is the opposite. He tells everything. He leads a free and easy life, and then he walks away free and easy."

Speaking of Vincent, Mrs. Green's eyes were wet.

The loss of a child in middle age was too much for anyone to bear.

Nicole hadn't seen Vincent, and she didn't say anything about him, but she could see that Samuel and Laurel were missing him very much.

"Mother, the dead can't live again. Don't be sad."

"What if I tell you Vincent isn't dead yet?"

Laurel's words startled Nicole.

"Mom, I still don't understand, I..."

"If you have something you don't understand, take your time to explore it. I can only stop here. As for how far the Green Family can go, that's just about you and Samuel. I feel so much more relieved to have it handed over to you today. I don't know how long I will live, but I will be a Mrs. Green in the future. I will concentrate on taking care of Zoe and Joseph, and I will live a happy life from now on."

Mrs. Green smiled mischievously.

Nicole knew she didn't want to talk.

Although she had not been in contact with Mrs. Green for a long time, she knew that Mrs. Green had a wise mind.

She always thought that Mrs. Green did not like Lucas and did not recognize Lucas, so from the time they appeared in the Seapolis City to the time when Lucas was missing, Laurel did not show the anxiety and attention that a grandma should have, and even said nothing about Lucas.

Nicole had been sad about it, and she was especially distressed.

But now it seemed that Mrs. Green paid too much attention, not too little.

Nicole was too distracted to know what to say.

"Mom," she whispered, "you know everything. How could you let Zama do that to me and Samuel and even to Lucas?"

"That is because there is no peace in the Night Elf Empire."

Laurel narrowed her eyes and said gravely, "Since ancient times, high power has always made others have evil intentions. Even the descendants of the Green Family, there will be some people with bad intentions. At that time, Samuel's father was in charge of the Green Family. His brother, Samuel's uncle, was in charge of the Night Elf Empire. Unfortunately, he wanted to turn the Night Elf Empire into his own, and become an exclusive organization. Nicole, remember, at all times, the Night Elf Empire is for the country. You may not have been in the army, but you must remember this, and that is the main thing. The Green Family belonged to the country, and so did the Night Elf Empire. What the Green Family has now is given by the state. It is meant to serve the country and the people, not any single individual, understand?"

Mrs. Green said with great care, even with a touch of sternness.

Nicole wondered, but nodded.

Mrs. Green said in a low voice, "His uncle had an evil idea. He thought that the roots of the Green Family of so many years could be separated from the state and become a single organization. So, he planned to leave the country with the Night Elf Empire, and even encouraged many people to join him in the attempt to seize power. Unfortunately, it failed in the end. His uncle's whereabouts are unknown, and unrest begins in the Night Elf Empire. I know my condition, so I know the family condition better than anyone else."

Nicole was struck dumb again.

She thought it was amazing to hear so many things today.

"Mother, do you know who's been poisoning you?"

"It's Zama!"

Laurel was very calm.

Nicole was not surprised that Zama would do that.

As long as Zama was not a fool, she will get closer to the head of the Green Family after knowing that Mrs. Green could have children.

If she could successfully seduce Laurel's husband and made him fall in love with her, it may be possible to replace Laurel.

Zama hadn't been that impressed before, but as the series of events unfolded, Nicole found Zama to be calculating, even tolerant, and good at pretending.

Laurel calmed down a bit and said, "At that time, your father was afraid of another blow to me, so he had been hiding it from me, and started to stay away from Zama, and put forward to change another one to do the surrogacy, I didn't know what was going on, thinking that your father was not satisfied with my arrangement, even felt he felt in love with someone else. After some quarrels, your father finally agreed to do a test tube. Unfortunately, it didn't work out."

"Zama was able to conceive only after an ivf procedure. When Zama was pregnant, I had mixed feelings and could not tell what I felt. I knew that I would love this child very much, because it was the child of the person I loved most. However, I was somewhat estranged, because it was not born out of my body. The struggle lasted until the moment the baby was born, and when Samuel smiled at me, I suddenly felt that my whole life was complete. It was the purest smile in the world, something I would want to protect in my whole life."

Mrs. Green's eyes were full of tears, but her lips were smiling, so charming, so kind.

Nicole understood Mrs. Green all of a sudden.

A woman who could do this for love was so admirable.

"You could have let Zama go after that."

"Yes, that's what your father said, but I was afraid the baby wouldn't breastfeed, so I didn't agree. Instead, I kept Zama. Zama did act like a babysitter, bringing the baby to me as soon as she finished feeding him. I thought it would last forever."

"She won't be satisfied as a babysitter!

Nicole's positive tone made Laurel laugh bitterly.

"Yes, she was not satisfied as a babysitter, and it was too late when I slowly discovered that. She drugged me and my husband, and my husband's health collapsed in one night. I never knew that she wanted all of your father's property. She even tried to force me to abdicate and make her child the heir of the Green Family, and she could control everything."

Laurel's eyes went cold.

Nicole was surprised.

"She killed Papa?"

"Yes."

Mrs. Green was furious.

"Then how can you tolerate her being in the Green Family?"

"Because she took control of Vincent and poisoned him. Can you imagine that? A mother would poison her own son, for the illusory rights and riches."

Nicole was in shock.

"So, you gave in?"

"That's my husband's son! It's the Green Family's child!"

Mrs. Green covered her face in pain.

to my husband and to the Green Family. I brought Zama to the Green Family, and I killed my husband indirectly. Samuel was there for me, so she didn't have a chance to kill him. But Vincent was still a little boy, she took over him and I had to make a pact with her. I said that Samuel would become the heir of the Green Family. Even if she controlled Vincent, I would lose a son at the worst and have nothing to lose, but she would have to bear the anger

Chapter 200: Where Is Joseph

After Samuel and Nicole had a happy time, they lay quietly in bed, enjoying a moment of peace and quiet.

Nicole knew that Samuel was upset. No one would ever feel good when knowing that the mother he had loved for case, nearly 30 years was not his own mother, but he just didn't know how to say it.

Finally, Samuel sighed and said, "I had no idea Zama was my real mother. No wonder my mother always protected her from me. That's the reason."

"Do you blame mother?"

Nicole, not knowing what was going on in Samuel's mind, asked him carefully.

Samuel smiled sadly and said, "What is she to blame for? Blame her for being so nice to me? Or did she hide the truth from me? To be honest, I always felt that my mother was strict and always had a busy schedule. I actually knew that it was not easy for such a big industry as the Green Family to rely on my mother alone to support it. However, I really wanted to be by her side as a child at that time'

"Maybe Vincent doesn't have a lot of feelings, because he has been in poor health since he was a child, and Zama always was with him and I with my mother. Or maybe because I am the heir of the Green Family, and my mother always took me with her everywhere. I could see how difficult she was and how she looked when she went out to negotiate with illness, so we were kind to each other. Until once day when Zama told me that my mother didn't really love us, and I was really sad."

Speaking of the past, Samuel felt uncomfortable, and even after all these years, he still seemed unable to recover from that feeling.

"Zama was really mean and shrew."

Nicole burst out and felt awkward after saying that.

It used to be fine to say anything, but now that Zama was Samuel's biological mother, she didn't know if Samuel would be offended.

She took a wary look at Samuel and saw him looking at her with a smile on his lips.

"You're afraid now?"

"Who's afraid of you?"

Nicole had been snooped into her mind and looked away.

Samuel reached out and took her hand. "In the days since you disappeared, he said, "I've looked into a lot of things. I've learned a lot about Zama. This woman is my own mother, but I'm not favoritism. I'll find out what she did to my mother.'

"You know what?"

Nicole suddenly thought about Laurel's illness.

Laurel kept Samuel from knowing. Maybe she was afraid Samuel would be embarrassed.

Between enmity and hatred, Mrs. Green decided to destroy her own illness report for the sake of Samuel's mood. She even didn't want Samuel to know what kind of person her biological mother was, perhaps because she was afraid of hurting Samuel.

Nicole wondered how much Samuel had heard outside, so she could only ask.

Samuel saw her little eyes rolling, and suddenly asked, "Is there something you are not telling me?"

"No!"

Nicole was quick with her answer, but also showed a little guilty.

Samuel looked at her and whispered, "Is it the report on my mother's health?"
