Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 21 See Through but Not Expose

Nicole and Olivia quickly went through the discharge procedures. They were worried about Lucas. So, they hastened to return home. At this time, Lucas had already gotten up, cleaned himself up and prepared breakfast.

"Mommy, you're back? You feel better? Why did you leave the hospital so early?"

Lucas was especially happy when he saw Nicole.

Olivia looked at the congee with minced pork and preserved egg and hot buns prepared by Lucas and said gently, "Brat, did you make this congee?"

Lucas shook his head and said, "No, I went out to buy it. But I can learn how to make it from now on and prepare meals for Mommy."

"Baby, you are so nice."

Nicole softened up. She touched Lucas's head, feeling that he was the best angel in her life and was the best gift God had given her.

"Today is Saturday. You have no class and Mommy is fine. After breakfast, you can go to have fun."

Nicole wanted her child to have his own life. That was why she brought him back. She was very relieved to leave Lucas to Olivia.

Lucas smiled and took Nicole's hand. He pulled her to the dining room and sat down, whispering, "Mommy, [I'll eat with you first. But I have to go out today. I have an appointment with my classmates to go out and play. You're not going to disallow it, are you?"

Looking at her son's pleading eyes, Nicole couldn't bring herself to reject him.

"Alright. But you have to be careful. If something happens, call mommy at any time."
