Chapter 331 What Are You Thinking

Nicole was slightly stunned, and then she felt warm in her heart.

"It's really nice to have a man caring about you. Are you sure you don't want to be with Jacob?"

"Nicole! Shut up!"

Olivia felt shy and embarrassed. She pretended to be angry and shouted.

Nicole only smiled and didn't say anything else. Her eyes were still meaningful and Olivia felt uneasy.

Ten days passed quickly.

Nicole felt much better.

For the past ten days, Samuel had been taking care of Nicole on his own. Sometimes, Olivia would help him.

Jacob was very busy. His time in the villa was limited. Every time he came back, there was no time for Olivia and him to talk.

After being banned by Tim, Olivia stayed in the villa with Nicole and did not leave.

The villa was like a forgotten paradise, filled with laughter and joy.

Petty had recovered a lot. Although Zac didn't talk much, he made a good gardener. He fixed the flowers and other plants well. The yard looked pleasant and elegant.

Nicole could already get out of bed and walk around, but Samuel still didn't let her leave the villa.

She stood in front of the window and watched Petty and Zac fixing the plants. Although they didn't talk much, the expression of love on their face made Nicole feel pleased.

"What are you looking at?"

Samuel hugged Nicole from behind.

Despite being taken good care of, Nicole suffered from cold hands and feet, which was completely different from before. She became weak and it was easy for her to catch a cold. Samuel was very worried.

Nicole leaned against Samuel's embrace and whispered, "Look how close they are."

"They grew up together. They were childhood sweethearts. Naturally, they are close."

Samuel knew about them. Now that he saw that they could have such an ending, he felt happy for them.

"We should help them hold their wedding."

Nicole suddenly said.

Samuel was slightly stunned.

"A wedding for them?"

"Yes, they should. Since they have feelings for each other, they should get married. They are both orphans and have no family or friends. Shall we be their witnesses?"

Nicole said with great interest.

She said this with a nostalgia for her own wedding, as well as her admiration for pure love.

"Alright!"

Seeing her excitement, Samuel could bear to disagree.

"I'll talk about it with Zac."

"As the boss, you have to give them some wedding gifts. What are you going to give them?"

Nicole was especially excited.

Over the past ten days, Nicole's mood was much better with Olivia being with her. She was also much more cheerful.

"Ha-ha!"

Nicole couldn't help but laugh.

Olivia heard a lot about Zoe, but she had not ever met her. She had always thought that Zoe was a quiet and cute little girl. But Zoe actually sprayed cold water onto Olivia's face, which shocked her.

Lucas struggled and said, "Auntie Olivia, quickly put me down! My sister is very protective of me."

"Quickly let go of my brother!"

Zoe took the water gun and walked forward, staring fixedly at Olivia.

Olivia looked back at Nicole depressingly. Seeing that Nicole was laughing happily, she felt speechless.

"Little girl, be reasonable! Your brother hurt me last time. He let me stay in the cemetery for an entire night. I almost had a heart attack. I have to settle this with him, right?"

Hearing that, Lucas could say nothing but shrink his neck.

Nicole only knew that Olivia was there because of Tim. She didn't know about the details. Aware of the truth, Nicole immediately turned to look at Lucas.

Lucas felt that he was unlucky today. He shouted, "How did I know that Uncle Tim would do such a thing to you? It was urgent then. Besides, you knew each other, so I did that."

"So you still have a point? Brat, you didn't mean it, but you actually hurt me. You were responsible for the mater. It seems like you haven't realize your mistake now."

Olivia was angry thinking of this.

Zoe hurriedly took a step forward and grabbed Olivia's wrist and said, "Even if my brother hurt you, you could not hurt him back! Besides, you were also useless because you could not even defeat a kid!"

"What?"

Olivia was speechless.

The little girl was unreasonable.

"Little girl, you should know that your brother did something wrong."

"I don't care. Let go of my brother! Let go!"

Zoe shook Olivia's arm, but she couldn't succeed. Zoe was so angry that she took out her water gun again and sprayed it towards Olivia's face.

"Bad woman! Let go of my brother!"

Olivia was once again shot by the water gun. She shouted angrily,

"Nicole, look at your daughter! She is going to turn the world upside down!"

Seeing that Zoe had gone too far, Nicole hurriedly said,

"Zoe, stop! You can't treat Auntie Olivia like this! She's an elder!"

"But she bullied my brother!"

Zoe felt wronged, and she almost cried.

Lucas was always a sensible child, which made Nicole sometimes ignore the fact that Lucas was only less than five years old. Seeing his expectant gaze, she felt slight heartache.

Compared to his peers, Lucas had really endured too much.

She stretched out her arm and gently touched Lucas' face. She whispered, "Honey, it's been hard on you."

Lucas' eyes suddenly turned red.

He hurriedly shook his head and smiled, "It was not hard. I'm your elder son!"

The words made Nicole's heart tremble.

"But you're also my baby. It's time for me to take care of you. It's been a hard time for you, baby. In the future, let me and daddy deal with all the staff."

Nicole wanted to rub Lucas into her arms.

Lucas had been very sensible since he was young, which touched her a lot.

Lucas saw what Nicole wanted and hurriedly stopped her, "Mommy, you're still sick. When you're better, I'll let you hug me properly."

"Alright!"

Nicole felt that she had owed too much to Lucas.

Zoe smiled and said, "Lucas, can we go downstairs to find Daddy? Mommy is not well yet, and we should send Grandma and Grandpa up to see her. Maybe they have a lot to say."

At this time, Zoe was still thinking about Samuel.

It had been a long time since she had seen Daddy!

Nicole knew what Zoe was thinking. Compared to Nicole, Zoe preferred to be with Samuel.

She used to be a little jealous, but seeing her son and daughter were so healthy, Nicole doesn't care about that anymore.

"Alright, Lucas, take your sister down. Be careful."

"Alright!"

Lucas nodded.

Olivia stepped forward and carried Zoe off the bed, but she did not put Zoe on the ground. Instead, she directly held Zoe in her arms and said with a smile, "I'll go. Have a good rest."

Nicole held her mother's hands tightly. Ms. Bush was deeply touched.

"Alright, just remember what you said."

After a while, Ms. Bush finally calmed down.

"I heard that the Dons have already obtained your permission for your identity certificate. Perhaps they will give you a new ID soon. You must be good to Mrs. Don. She let you take the surname of Bush for the sake of your dad and me. Help us to repay her."

Her mother's words made Nicole feel complex.

"I know. Mom, I'll take care of this matter myself."

"Alright, let's not talk too much. You are still weak now. Lie down and rest for a while. I'll make you something delicious."

"Thank you, mom."

Nicole felt more at ease in front of Ms. Bush.

Although Audrey gave her birth, she hadn't been with Audrey for a long time. She really couldn't get close with Audrey quickly.

However, Ms. Bush raised her since she was young and really cared about her.

Looking at Ms. Bush staggering, Nicole felt sorry again.

She owed the old woman too much.

Shortly after Ms. Bush left, Nicole leaned against the bed and closed her eyes to rest.

In a few days, the Dons would get her identity certificate. Then she would have to show up. She had not seen Mrs. Don for some time.

Nicole thought a lot.

Nicole heard that Laurel was getting better. Besides, she was helping with Vincent on managing Eternal Group, so she did not have time to see Nicole. She had sent much nourishment over. And she asked Nicole not to think too much about it for the time being. She and Vincent were there for everything.

Nicole knew that Laurel cared about her, but she was too busy to be here.

Nicole felt that she would owe Laurel a lot.

It would be too cruel for Laurel that Nicole might leave the Seapolis City with Samuel and settle in another city.

However, if they didn't leave this place, the Bushes wouldn't be at ease.

Nicole sighed softly, unknown what to do.

"Why are you sighing?"

Samuel opened the door and walked in.

When Nicole saw him, she was slightly shocked. She looked behind him and did not see Zoe. She asked immediately, "Where is Zoe? Didn't she come up with you?"

"She was tired and fell asleep. Lucas and dad are watching her. Oh right, why did you sigh just now?"

Samuel came to Nicole's side, took off his shoes, went to bed, and hugged Nicole in his arms.

More than ten days had passed, but Nicole's hands were still cold. Samuel was helpless. This was also why he asked Ms. Bush to stay.

Chapter 335 Attention Seeker

"What's the matter?"

Nicole felt nervous.

In the morning, Samuel said that he had something to do and had not returned yet. Did anything happen to him?

When she thought of that, Nicole was no longer calm.

She stood up and walked towards Jacob.

Jacob looked at Nicole, then looked at Petty, and whispered, "It's not Mr. Green, it's..."

"Who is it?"

When Nicole heard that it wasn't Samuel, she heaved a sigh of relief. However, the person who could let Jacob report the bad news should be the people in the villa.

Jacob looked at Petty and whispered, "It's Zac."

The key in Petty's hand suddenly fell to the ground.

"What happened to Zac?"

Petty's voice trembled.

Nicole frowned slightly.

Petty and Zac had just been together for a few days. What happened to Zac?

"What's going on?"

Nicole hugged Petty's shoulder so that she wouldn't fall down.

Jacob whispered, "After Zac sent Mr. Green to Eternal Group, he told Mr. Green that Petty liked to eat crab roe buns from the east of the city. Coincidentally, Mr. Green didn't have things to order him, so he let Zac go. However, not long ago, the captain of the traffic brigade called Mr. Green and said that Zac had collided with a large truck at the intersection. He was currently in the hospital for treatment, so I didn't know the exact situation. Mr. Green told me to come back and tell you and Petty. If possible, let Petty go and visit him. I'm afraid... that..."

Jacob didn't say anything, but Petty's face turned pale.

"What buns? I'm okay if I don't eat them. Why did he buy them?"

As Petty spoke, tears began to flow out of her eyes.

Jacob didn't feel good either.

During this period, Zac and Samuel had been doing their best to help Samuel. Zac really wanted to live a good life with Petty, but they didn't expect things would turn out like this.

"Petty, don't be sad. It's better to pack up and hurry over."

"I'll go take a look too."

Nicole was also very anxious.

"I'll go out and make a phone call!"

Samuel could tell that Mrs. Don wanted to be alone with Nicole, and he said so.

"Nicole, call me if you need anything. I'll be right outside."

Although he intended to leave, Samuel still said this to Nicole.

Nicole knew that he was worried about her, so she nodded.

"Grandma, I'm going out."

"Alright."

Mrs. Don nodded at Samuel.

Although she was facing her grandma, they were still relatively unfamiliar. Apart from the blood relationship, Nicole really was not intimate with her grandma and didn't know what to say.

Mrs. Don looked at Nicole, pulled her to sit in front of her bed and whispered, "I know, you probably don't like Viola. To be honest, I didn't like her very much at first, but after all, you have the same mother, and she is your younger sister. Even if she has nothing to do with the Don family, for your mother's sake, I can't be too harsh, right? Moreover, for the past twenty days, she has been taking care of me wholeheartedly. She has done a lot for me. I can't drive her out, can I?"

When Nicole heard that Viola was taking care of Mrs. Don wholeheartedly, she felt that something was wrong.

Viola was spoiled and arrogant.

That was impossible for her to do so.

She didn't know what Viola intended to do.

However, it was useless to say anything now. Her grandma's attitude towards her was very good, so she could not say anything.

"I see. I don't mind."

Nicole smiled faintly and then asked, "Are you feeling better?"

"Much better. Speaking of which, it's all thanks to Viola. It's said that she got the antidote to prevent me from having a stroke and paralysis. And for that, we can't neglect this girl, can we?"

Nicole's body suddenly trembled.

"Who told you that she brought back the antidote? Minister Shaw? Or uncle?"

"Look at you. You're about to return to our family, but you still call your mother Minister Shaw. That's your mother. Although she didn't raise you and I know your love towards your adoptive mother, you can't call your mother Minister Shaw. If she heard that, she must feel sad."

Mrs. Don had no intention of harshly criticizing Nicole, but she still hoped that Nicole would not act like a stranger with them.

"What can you do to me? Other than Samuel's protection, what else can you have? I heard that Samuel is no longer the president of Eternal Group, and your status in the Green family can also be predicted. Mrs. Don loves me now. What do you think you can do to me?"

Viola was especially arrogant. Her face disgusted Nicole.

"You'd better restrain yourself."

"What if I don't?"

Viola continued to provoke.

Nicole narrows her eyes and says coldly, "Then don't blame me."

"What do you want to do? Kill me? Do you dare?"

Viola took a step forward and reached out to push Nicole.

Nicole subconsciously raised her hand to stop her, but she suddenly heard Viola scream, and Viola's entire body quickly fell backwards.

"Nicole, I know you don't like me being nice to grandma. Didn't I do it for your sake? Are you so intolerant of me? I don't have any other intentions. If you want me to leave, just tell me. Why do you attack me?"

Viola cried miserably, and her entire body fell to the ground, and she was in a sorry state.

As for Nicole, her arm was still in the air. Anyone who looked at such a scene would think that she had bullied Viola just now.

"Viola, who do you think will believe your hypocritical shit?"

Nicole was simply infuriated.

Everyone's gazes swept over as if she really was a vicious woman.

Viola was still crying pitifully.

"I know that you don't like me. Everything I do is acting in your eyes. Now that you're back, grandma doesn't need me anymore. I'll just leave!"

With that, she hurriedly got up and ran away crying.

Nicole was so angry. Why did this Viola act like this?

She looked around and did not see Mrs. Don or Audrey. Then who was she doing it for?

Nicole felt that today was terrible. She didn't care to pay any attention to Viola. She turned around angrily and went to look for Samuel.

Her eyes narrowed, but she quickly left.

Viola immediately stopped, but her eyes were somewhat dodged.

"What did you say about Nicole in front of Mrs. Don again?"

Audrey's voice was somewhat cold.

"Mom, I didn't say anything. What can I say to her? This is the Seapolis City, not the United States. No one will support me, what else can I do to her?" Viola paused slightly and said in a particularly aggrieved tone.

"Is that so?"

Audrey's voice carried a hint of doubt.

"Of course, I just want to stay by your side right now. I can do anything you want me to do. As for Nicole, I have no intention of provoking her."

Viola whispered.

Audrey looked at Viola in front of her. She really didn't feel good. They were all her own daughters. Although she didn't like Viola, she didn't want her to do anything stupid.

"That's best, but you'd better find some time to explain the antidote to Mrs. Don. It's your fault. You'd better not take the credit for it. There is no impervious wall in the world. Don't wait until you lose your reputation one day."

After saying that, Audrey turned around and left. She did not see Viola's tightly clenched hands. A trace of unwillingness and anger slid through her eyes.

However, Nicole did not know that so many things had happened in the hospital. When Samuel found her, she was sitting on the bench in the corridor, as if she was thinking about something.

"What are you thinking?"

Seeing her, Samuel could not help but quickly step forward.

Nicole suddenly regained her senses. Seeing that it was Samuel, she whispered, "I was wondering what exactly Viola had in mind. Why did she stay in the Seapolis City? Furthermore, she treated my grandmother so well."

"Don't think too much. Let her do whatever she wants. As long as she doesn't interfere with us, it doesn't matter."

Samuel handed the hot milk in his hand to Nicole.

"Where did you get it?"

"Minister Shaw gave it to you. She said it was for you as you didn't look good."

Samuel's words got Nicole stunned again.

"What did you two talk just now?"

"Nothing. Just things about your identity. At least you should get her approval."

Samuel sat beside Nicole and felt that Nicole was in a bad mood.

"What happened between you and Viola?"

"Nothing."

When Nicole mentioned Viola, she frowned slightly, but did not intend to say anything. She couldn't figure out what was going on right now, so she didn't even think about it anymore.

"I hired a nurse to take care of Zac and Petty. It should be better."

"You guys actually came here? You're so romantic!"

When the voice sounded, Samuel stopped. Nicole had no choice but to stop. She turned around and saw Mike.

"Mike? Why are you here?"

Nicole was a little surprised.

Mike laughed and cried, "Why can't I be here? I've been in the Seapolis City for so long, and Sam has been taking care of you. He ignores me. It's harder for me to see him than to ascend to the heavens."

Nicole was somewhat embarrassed by Mike's teasing.

"I'm not feeling well these days. Samuel is worried about me."

"Why are you talking to him about this? Do you really think he came to the Seapolis City to catch up with me?"

Samuel didn't care about Mike at all. He said indifferently, "He came here for a woman, but she ignored him. He just thought of me when he was idle. Do you think that I, Samuel, am the backup?"

Mike's expression immediately turned awkward when he said this, while Nicole was a little curious.

"Chasing a woman here? Who's so charming?"

"Viola!"

Samuel's words stunned Nicole.

"How could it be her?"

Nicole was simply too surprised.

Although she also felt that Mike and Viola had a good relationship in the United States, it was hard for her to understand why Mike would actually like Viola.

Samuel said mockingly, "Some people are blind, and their hearts are also blind."

"Sam, are you looking for trouble?"

Mike was a little unhappy to hear it.

"Scram, I don't have time to spend with you today. I have to buy jewelry with my wife."

As he spoke, Samuel ignored Mike and took Nicole's shoulder to register.

Mike was free now, and Viola didn't allow him to find her. Now that he had finally met Samuel and Nicole, he didn't want to leave at all and followed them shamelessly.

"I said, what do you plan to design? I've already asked. This jewelry shop is quite famous. I'll design one later."

"Prepare for you and Viola? I don't think so. It's useless."

Samuel's words pierced Mike's heart.

"Can't you be nice when you talk with me?"

"Who talked to me first? It was you who wanted to talk to me."

Nicole couldn't help but push the manager away and ran upstairs like crazy.

Jacob followed closely behind her.

The manager still wanted to stop them, but Samuel said coldly, "You'd better think about the consequences of turning against the Greens."

The manager was stunned by this sentence and didn't dare to move at all.

Whether it was the Louis family or the Green family, though as a manager, he could not afford to offend either. Now, he could only watch as Samuel followed Nicole and Jacob up the second floor quickly.

Nicole was completely nervous.

When she heard Olivia's shouts becoming intenser, she could feel her heart pounding fiercely.

As soon as she stepped into the corridor on the second floor, the Louis family's bodyguard at the entrance immediately stopped Nicole.

"Who're you? This place is booked and blocked. Get out of here!"

As soon as the bodyguard finished speaking, Jacob gave him a left hook who then fell to the ground.

Seeing this, the other bodyguards immediately surrounded him.

As Jacob was filled with anger, he didn't care about anything else and hit that bodyguard.

When Jacob did this, Nicole directly passed through them. And the next scene in front of her almost made her faint from anger.

In the huge corridor, several men surrounded Olivia, a poor woman. And at this moment, Olivia was crushed on the floor by Tim, her clothes stripped terribly to the point that there remained only one undergarment.

Tim looked like a complete lunatic and said ferociously, "I can fix you today! Aren't you always unwilling to submit? I'll rape you in front of these people today. I'll see what you can do to me!"

"Tim, if you dare to do this to me, I won't let you off even if I become a ghost!"

Olivia cried out as she tried to resist Tim with both hands, but the man beside her held her hands and feet tightly, and she completely couldn't do anything.

Nicole's anger immediately surged up.

"Tim, stop!"

Nicole shouted angrily, but Tim's eyes had already turned red. He grew up with no woman ever daring to shout at him like this. And he simply did not bear in mind who the best friend of the woman in front of him was.

When the other men heard Nicole's yell, they turned around to see that a beautiful woman was coming in and all of them immediately snickered.

"Oh, here comes another beauty. We are so lucky today!"

As he spoke, two men let go of Olivia and headed towards Nicole.

Olivia recognized Nicole's voice and cried even more uncomfortably.

"Don't come over! Leave me alone! They're all beasts! You go! Go!"

Olivia was afraid that Nicole would be harmed because of her.
