Chapter 341 You Have Me at Your back

"Let them handle it themselves."

Since Samuel and Jacob had been together for a long time, Jacob, Samuel naturally knew that Jacob would not easily lose his temper. Now he did lose his temper because of Olivia; maybe this matter was extremely bad for him and he couldn't bear it any more.

Tim was thinking about what Jacob meant by that sentence while he was stunned again hearing Nicole's voice.

He, whose brain was alcohol-stimulated, seemed to be clear-headed all of a sudden.

"Nicole? Why are you here?"

"Why am I here? If I don't come, what are you going to do? Right here, in front of all the men, you want to rape my best friend? Not only that, do you also want to share my best friend with these playboys? Tim, in the past, I only felt that you were just unruly and at least had some humanity. But I didn't expect that you'd do such a thing. You are the successor of the Louis family. You think you're awesome because you are a big man in the Seapolis City and can do everything you want to do? Let me tell you, for this matter today, I won't let go of you! Tim, our friendship has come to an end! "

Nicole had never been so angry.

In the past, she could tolerate Tim playing a harmless joke with her, but she definitely couldn't tolerate what Tim had done to Olivia today.

Tim was also stunned.

He seemed to realize what he had done. He then looked at the people around him and found that they all looked at him with somewhat dodging gazes.

Tim was suddenly enraged.

"What did you put into my wine? What's in it?"

He wasn't the one who would do such a thing like that!

No matter how unruly he used to be, he would never do such a thing.

But just now, it was as if he had been haunted, and his behavior was truly unlike him.

Right now, his brain was swollen and his entire body ached. Although it looked like it was because he had been drunk, Tim definitely knew it wasn't it. He had often been in clubs drinking wine, how could he not know what he would be like when he was drunk?

"Stop pretending. Who are you still pretending to be in front of me? Last time you left Olivia alone in the cemetery, and I didn't blame you. But now you're going too far. Tim, not everyone can be forgiven after doing something wrong in a drunken state!"

Nicole was very disappointed in Tim.

It was like one's good friend had suddenly turned into a stranger, which was upsetting.

"No, Nicole, it's not like this. Listen to me..."

Tim was about to pull Nicole's hand when Samuel put it away.

"You'd know what you have done and what you would suffer!"

After Samuel finished speaking, he helped Nicole's shoulder and left.

"Nicole, you have to believe me. I didn't mean to do it! Someone must have drugged me!"

Seeing Jacob like this, Nicole was somewhat worried.

"Is he really going to fight against Tim? What Tim did today is really severe, but if something bad happens to Jacob, I'm afraid that Olivia ... Samuel, why don't we do something about this? You're at least the Green family's eldest young master, so Tim doesn't dare to do anything to you."

Nicole knew that it was not good to make things difficult for Samuel, but she could only have Samuel come forward.

Right now, her identity in the Dons had yet to be confirmed. Even if she was the Don family's daughter now, it would be improper for a girl to speak out another girl's affair like Olivia's. If so, Olivia's reputation would really be ruined.

Samuel looked at Nicole and knew that she was worrying about Olivia's affair. He felt heartache for her and said, "It hasn't been a month since you had the miscarriage. You should rest. Why are you worrying about these things?"

"I can ignore other people, but I can't ignore Olivia. You know, she is my best friend. She has no parents since she was young. We supported each other all the way until now. Now that something like this has happened to her, how can I ignore it?"

Nicole was afraid that Samuel would say something more, so she hurriedly took the initiative to speak.

Samuel sighed and said, "I know that you care about her, and I also know that in your heart, she is not only your best friend, but also your sister, your family. However, Nicole, you should understand that I am not qualified to interfere. Don't underestimate Jacob. He wants to get justice for his girl. We can sit back and watch, and interfere when Jacob really can't handle it himself, OK?"

"But Jacob is just an assistant. Although he has been working for you for many years and has saved some money, his status could not be equal to Tim's. I'm afraid that Jacob will suffer. After all, in this world, money is not everything."

This was something that Nicole had only learned a few years ago.

Samuel hugged her shoulders and let her sit on the sofa in the living room. Looking at the tightly shut door of Olivia's room, Samuel whispered, "In fact, Jacob is the secret child of the Louis family."

"What?"

Nicole was stunned.

Samuel said patiently, "Jacob is the child of Mr. Louis and his current wife. When Tim was kidnapped, no one came to his rescue because Jacob's mother showed up. After this, Tim's mother became mentally ill. Since then, Jacob had always felt guilty about what he had done to Tim and his mother. Jacob was stolen out of the hospital and thrown away when he was born. It was a winter day. Fortunately, he wasn't frozen to death. He was picked up by the director of the orphanage who named him 'Jacob Brown'."

"Because of this, the current Mrs. Louis has always been unfriendly to Tim and her mother. She thought that it was Tim's mother who pretended to be insane and stole the child, so in the Louis family there have always been conflicts these years. Afterwards, the current wife of Mr. Louis was pregnant twice. But each time she would miscarry for no reason, and in the end, she was infertile. Some people said that it was Tim who had done all of this, but no one dared to say anything when Mr. Louis suppressed the rumor. But for so many years, neither Mr. Louis nor his wife gave up hope of finding Jacob."

"Just a few years ago, Mr. Louis was abroad and in danger. Coincidentally, Jacob saved him by donating blood. Mr. Louis said that Jacob looked very like his wife, so he asked Jacob to do a paternity test with him. It turned out that they were actually father and son. However, after Jacob knew about the whole thing, he did not want to live with the Louis family. He felt that all of this was her mother's retribution for destroying other people's families. Moreover, Jacob felt that his life was pretty good, and he didn't want to go to that place of struggles and conflicts."

"Although he is my special assistant, I have never treated him as my servant. Jacob could have left the Green's and me and started his own business many years ago, but he was just somewhat lazy and didn't do it. Otherwise, he wouldn't be like what he was now. Now that his half-brother has insulted his woman in public, how can I interfere? This is their family affair. There are some things that Jacob has to face and solve by himself. "

When Samuel told all of this to Nicole, Nicole was stunned.

She never imagined that Jacob, who was always grinning cheekily, would be the second young master of the Louis family.

Chapter 343 What Exactly Happened to the Two of You

Olivia stopped crying abruptly.

She looked at Nicole, wanted to say something but hesitated.

"Is it something you can't say? So between us there's secret? Olivia, you'd know that Tim was my friend before and you are my best friend. Tim knows this. Even if there is a conflict between you two, he won't go too far like this. I also know who you are. You won't cling to nobles, and won't be interested in those rich second generations. Therefore, Tim definitely won't call you out without any reason. If you went to the Imperial Sea Residence to look for him, it must be because he said something, or because he had something in his hand to threaten you, right? And I heard from the manager that you went there in a fury. What exactly happened to the two of you?"

Nicole was very puzzled.

However, Olivia gritted her teeth and didn't say anything, which made Nicole somewhat anxious.

"What's the problem? You can't even tell me? You know, Jacob won't let it go! He will definitely go back and investigate this matter. If he'd find out then, why don't you tell me now?"

Nicole was somewhat anxious.

Olivia shook her head and said, "It's nothing. I just hated him. Furthermore, as he left me alone in the cemetery the last time, I had to take revenge on him. That's why I went over."

"Olivia! Since when do we have secrets?"

Nicole knew that this was not the truth.

Nicole was the person who understood Olivia the best. How could she not know Olivia's temper?

Even for what happened last time, Olivia would definitely not be so rash.

However, Olivia was determined to keep this matter from anyone else, so she didn't say anything, which made Nicole somewhat helpless.

"I know that you may have your own difficulties. As you don't want to say, I won't force you. But you can't do stupid things for what happened today, get it? I know that you are difficult, but no matter how difficult you are, you have to continue to live, understand?"

"Don't worry. I won't commit suicide. Although I, Olivia, don't have parents, the god has allowed me to live until now and I would continue to live well."

Olivia revealed a smile, but that smile made others feel sour.

Nicole patted her shoulder and said, "There are some things you don't want to tell me and I won't ask, but if you need help, you must tell me. Although Samuel and I are no longer the Greens' leaders, we can still help you."

"I know. I won't hesitate to ask for your help when I really need it. Don't worry. Alright, I might have scared Zoe when I came back just now. If you have time, you should spend some time with her."

Nicole shook her head and said, "Samuel has been with her. With him being around the children, I have nothing to worry about. Right now, the person I'm most worried about is you, understand?"

"I finally know why you are still with Samuel although you have experienced so many things."

Olivia suddenly said these, which stunned Nicole for a moment.

"What do you want to say?"

"Nothing. I always think that I'll never get any pure love in my life, but after being with Jacob, I realize that there's still such a good man in the world. As I have him in my heart, then no matter how outstanding or good another man is, I won't care even a glimpse of him. It turns out that the size of the heart is only that big. When Nicole wanted to answer the phone, Samuel got it first.

"Let me take it."

Nicole felt that she was now like a protected porcelain doll. Samuel's care made her happy, but at the same time, she also felt that it was amusing.

"It's just answering the phone and I'm not disabled. Are you afraid that the phone will eat me?"

"I'm afraid that you'll get an electric shock."

Samuel had often joked with Nicole recently.

"So what!"

Nicole didn't intend to argue with him, and she lay on the sofa like a quail in its nest. She felt that she was about to be turned into a useless cripple by Samuel's way of care.

The two children were also mysterious and Nicole didn't know what they were doing with her parents. The children didn't come out all day.

When the phone was answered by Samuel, Samuel only said a few words of "Mm, good" and then hung up.

"What is it? Things about the company?"

Nicole asked casually.

However, Samuel shook his head and said, "No. With Vincent in the company, there's no problem. It's from the old lady of the Dons who said that Jason had returned from Capital City. She wants you to come over and talk about your identity."

Speaking of Mrs. Don, Nicole was shocked for a moment.

The last time she saw Mrs. Don in the hospital, she promised to have dinner with Mrs. Don the next day. Unfortunately, she forgot about this after Olivia's incident. And Mrs. Don also didn't call her at that time.

Now that Mrs. Don suddenly called, Nicole was stunned.

"What's wrong? Isn't it good that your grandmother invites you to dinner? Why are you like this?"

Samuel looked at Nicole who was in such a shock and felt that it was somewhat amusing.

He found her increasingly adorable.

Only then did Nicole react and she did not know what to say. Actually, she liked Mrs. Don very much, but when she thought of the Viola beside her, she felt a barrier.

"Do you think Viola will also be there today?"

Nicole suddenly asked, which shocked Samuel slightly.

"Things of the Dons have nothing to do with her, right? She shouldn't be there."

"If so, that's good."

Only then did Nicole let out a sigh of relief and said, "I'll go up and change my clothes. Then we go there together."

"Alright."

Samuel smiled and did not reject. However, from Nicole's words, he seemed to have noticed that Nicole did not like Viola.

Although he had always known it, he felt somewhat uncomfortable noticing that Nicole seemed to dodge Viola now.

His wife was a legitimate granddaughter of the Dons, why would she still dodge her? Or did Viola do something bad which made Nicole feel disgusted?

Thinking of this, Samuel took out his phone and called Finn.

"Check whether anything unpleasant happened to Viola and Nicole when Nicole went to the hospital last time."

"Alright."

Jason was shocked by what Samuel just said.

"Really?"

He looked at Nicole with a trace of pity in his eyes.

However, Nicole said indifferently, "It seems that the threshold of the Don family is too high for me. Therefore, I'll leave the Don family's identity to Viola. Although I have no identity right now, I think Samuel has a way to give me one, right?"

Then she turned around and left.

"Nicole, wait a moment. Maybe your grandma didn't know about this. Come in. We'll explain to her later."

Seeing Nicole's determination, Jason suddenly panicked.

How could she abandon her identity as a Dons?

However, Samuel was not as nervous as Jason. He looked at Jason and said coldly, "Mrs. Don is probably out of her mind due to the stroke. If she doesn't want keep Nicole as her granddaughter, I will give Nicole a home. Please tell your adopted daughter to behave herself. Otherwise, I'll leave the Don family no respect."

Then Samuel left after Nicole. No matter how hard Jason called out, they did not look back.

Nicole's heart was filled with anger and she couldn't find a way to get it out. She felt extremely aggrieved and uncomfortable.

It's already hard and disgusting for Nicole to deal with Viola, and now Mrs. Don even planned to adopt Viola and claimed Viola a member of the Don family.

Viola said that she would snatch whatever belonged to Nicole as her own. It seemed that she was not joking.

Nicole walked faster and faster. She was at a loss and felt disturbed. However, she was suddenly pulled back by a pair of powerful arms. Then, a car drove by her with a thud.

"Wanna die or something?"

The driver cursed angrily and stepped on the accelerator to leave.

Nicole was still a little dumbfounded when she heard Samuel say worriedly, "For someone who is not worth it, you almost put yourself in danger. What are you thinking?"

The familiar body temperature and aura made Nicole react rapidly.

She raised her head and saw Samuel's worried eyes. She suddenly felt a little guilty.

"I'm sorry."

"You don't have to apologize to me. I know you're feeling bad. Tell me, how can I do to make you feel better? Nathan told me before that when a woman is in a bad mood, she should either go shopping or to eat and drink gluttonously. Which one do you want? "

Samuel's indulgence instantly dispelled Nicole's unhappiness.

The Don family didn't like her, so what?

It wasn't a big deal even if all the people in the world didn't like her.

"Where are we going?"

Nicole was instantly curious.

However, Samuel did not say anything and directly took her into the car. Not long after, they stopped at a fitness club.

Nicole thought it was unbelievable.

"Is this the place you want to bring me to? Do you think I would like here?"

She felt that their communication as well as cognition might be different.

But Samuel smiled and said, "When people are in a bad mood, overeating is bad for their stomach. As for shopping, it's fine. But I think the best way to deal with the bad mood is to vent your anger. Just think about the person that you hate the most, and would it be more comfortable to just beat up the punch bag as if it were the person you hate?"

Nicole paused for a moment. She felt that it really made sense. Moreover, she had been eating and drinking without restraint for the past month. She had indeed gained some weight.

"Alright, you are right. Let's go!"

Nicole smiled and walked in.

Samuel was a frequent customer here, so naturally, they can enjoy a single room.

Nicole was amazed at the equipment inside.

"I didn't expect the dignified President Green to come to such a place to vent!"

"If I said I was here to exercise, would you believe me?"

"No, I wouldn't."

Nicole shook her head.

Then Samuel handed her a set of women's clothes, without saying anything.

"Where did you get these women's clothes?"

"Don't misunderstand. I asked the staff here to buy them when we were coming."

Samuel waved the trademark that hadn't been taken off to prove his innocence.

Nicole thought that Samuel was so cute. She couldn't help but take a step forward and kiss him on the cheek.

The sudden kiss made Samuel a little at a loss.

At this moment, Nicole took the clothes away and said with a smile, "Don't come in!"

She closed the door of the changing room and even locked inside.

Samuel suddenly burst into laughter.

Didn't Nicole know that they had already got married?

Why did she always act like they were still a couple who had just been together?

However, this kind of feeling was quite good!

Samuel touched his face, as if her warm kiss and touch was still there. He simpered.

Nicole's heart thundered as she felt that she was becoming more and more like a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl.

Nicole was so astonished by his fluent actions that she almost forgot what happened just now.

When he pulled her up, she finally realized that her face was blushing like hell.

"I won't come out with you again, you're such a rascal."

Nicole rushed to the dressing room to change and locked Samuel out of the door.

He just held her full of desire. But now she just ran away. That feeling was indescribable without her in his arms. However, when he thought about her health condition, his desire faded and just felt sorrier for her.

Alas!

He had no choice but to control himself.

It was inappropriate for him to do anything intense with her considering what she had been through. It was better to wait a few more days. Otherwise, how could he let such a good opportunity slip by?

Samuel sighed. He looked around and found that his clothes were taken into the dressing room by her. He didn't know what to do.

"Nicole!"

"Don't talk to me. I don't want to hear you. I don't want to see you. Please stay quiet for a while."

She felt so embarrassed when she thought of what happened just now.

Although it was an accident, she was still seized by shock.

Looking at the mirror, she saw that her pinkish cheeks were like peach blossoms. She was beautiful and attractive in any way. How could Samuel restrain himself?

They had already had a physical check-up, and she was allowed to do that kind of thing. Why did Samuel still do nothing and suddenly wrap her up?

When Nicole realized what she was thinking, she couldn't help but feel a little shy.

What was she expecting?

Kissing him and having fun with him?

Or even to do something more right here?

Nicole felt more and more confused about herself.

Was she really so pretentious and contradictory?

While Samuel totally had no idea about what was going on in Nicole's mind. But since Nicole wanted him to be quiet, he should obey and give her a buffer time.

They were both silent for a moment.

Then Samuel took the phone and glanced at it. He found that there were several missed calls, mostly from Jason.

He knew why he called, but he didn't want to answer it now.

Family reunion has no wrong, but it was totally messed up by Mrs. Don who could not tell right from wrong. He didn't want his woman to suffer that indignity.

Wasn't it just a matter of identity?

The Don family didn't care, but he did.

Thinking of this, Samuel picked up the phone and went to the window, calling Mr. Morty in Capital City.

"You want to buy something for my mother?"

"Shouldn't I?"

Nicole felt that Samuel's reaction was quite interesting.

As a daughter-in-law, she did not stay by Mrs. Green's side while she hospitalized. However, Mrs. Green still cared about her health now. So she must do something to prove her love.

However, Samuel did not say anything. He just smiled and said, "Everything is up to you."

Nicole felt that Samuel's gaze was especially gentle, so gentle that she wanted to drown in it.

"Your peach blossom eyes are so intriguing. No wonder so many girls are crazy about you."

Samuel felt speechless and aggrieved.

"They are not in the shape of peach blossoms. They are slender."

"It's all the same."

Nicole was becoming a little unreasonable.

Samuel could only agree with her.

"Alright, alright, alright. Whatever you say is right, but you can't blame me for that. It's a genetic problem."

These words were a little complacent.

Nicole felt that Samuel was becoming more and more arrogant.

She looked at him with contempt, but Samuel just ignored that.

They walked into the nearby shopping mall hand in hand.

"What does Mom like?"

Nicole felt that she was so unfilial that she still had no idea about what her mother-in-law liked after so many years they had been together.

Samuel smiled and said, "She likes anything you buy."

"I'm serious."

Nicole didn't know why, but she was actually a little nervous.

She had never been so nervous before. It's not that big a deal, right?

Samuel noticed that Nicole was serious. He whispered, "Really, Mom doesn't need anything. They have everything at home! All you have to do is to express your love. If she really need anything, that would be my father. Can you bring him back to her?"

"What are you talking about? I'm not omnipotent."

Nicole felt that Samuel was teasing her, but what Samuel said was also correct. Mrs. Green really has had everything these years.

This was a real conundrum.

Mrs. Green was also speechless.

Samuel frowned and asked, "Why did he bring Joseph to the company?"

"Joseph said that he wants to develop their relationship, so he just went along with Vincent. This is not the first time that Vincent left him in the company."

Mrs. Green sighed.

Because the meal couldn't begin without Vincent, so they could only sit on the sofa and chat with each other till he came back.

Nicole had been busy all morning. She was somewhat tired though she was trying to hold on, but Samuel could tell.

"Do you want to go up and rest for a while?"

He suddenly uttered, causing Mrs. Green to be shocked for a moment. Only then did she notice that Nicole's face was somewhat exhausted.

"It was all my fault. I was over happy and even forgot that you've just recovered. Go to have a rest as long as possible. Samuel, hurry up. Bring her up and rest for a while. When the Vincent returns, I'll have someone to call you."

Mrs. Green said hurriedly.

"Never mind, Mom. I'm fine."

Nicole wanted to refuse, but Samuel directly picked her up and walked towards their bedroom.

"Samuel!"

Nicole felt extremely embarrassed.

Was it really appropriate to do this in front of their mom?

However, Samuel did not seem to have heard it. In just several steps he had hugged Nicole into the bedroom and put her on the bed to lie down.

"Rest for a while. We've been busy all morning, and consumed so much energy in the training room. How can you stand it? It will be a while before Vincent comes back. A rest is still better than no rest at all."

Samuel somewhat blamed himself. If he knew that he was going back to the Green family for lunch, he would not have brought Nicole to the gym with him.

Seeing Nicole's exhausted appearance, he couldn't help but feel a little distressed.

Nicole wanted to say something, but when she saw Samuel's expression, she swallowed all her words.

This man loved her sincerely. What did she have to worry about?

"I'll just rest for a while. You can go to stay with Mom."

"Alright."

Samuel knew that Nicole was worried about Mrs. Green, so he agreed.

Then Nicole closed her eyes.

Perhaps because she was really too tired, she quickly fell asleep.

Samuel pulled the blanket over and covered her. Looking at her peaceful sleeping face, he frowned slightly.

He looked for a while and then went downstairs.

Mrs. Green was still researching the foot basin, which surprised Samuel.

"Mom, why are you studying this?"

"It's pretty good."

Green leaned against the wheelchair and said with a smile. It seemed that this gift

Chapter 350 Are You Looking for Trouble?

Viola suddenly hugged herself, her face pale from fear.

"What's going on? Who is coming after me? Or is it coming after the Don family? Hurry up! Call Grandma! Tell her something happened to me!"

Viola grabbed the driver's hand and hastily ordered.

However, before she could finish speaking, their car had already been overtaken by the car behind them, which blocked their path.

The driver was in this industry for long and knew his way around. He frowned slightly and opened the car door. "Hey, maybe you got the wrong person? We're the Dons."

The men Samuel found were professional, so they definitely knew about the driver. One of them said coldly, "Sorry, we don't come after your master. It's just that this woman in the car caused some trouble. We are paid to get her. I suggest you stay out of it, bro."

When Viola heard they were coming for her, she was so frightened that she hastily opened the car door and was about to run away. However, someone grabbed her long hair.

"Oh! Let go of me! Let go! Help! How dare you do this to me? I am the adopted daughter of the Don family. I am also a Don. If you ever hurt me, you will be sorry!"

Viola shouted.

Samuel and Jacob watched this show in the car not too far away, their eyes disdainful.

"She is not a Don yet. What an annoying leech."

Samuel did not say anything, but his eyes became much colder.

"I was going to directly throw her into the sea. But now, find a place where no one will go and starve her for a few days."

Hearing Samuel's instructions, Jacob hurriedly informed the hatchet men.

When Viola heard their phone ringing, she took the opportunity and was about to escape. But how could she outrun those men?

The driver also tried to resist, but he was knocked unconscious.

Viola was stuffed into the car and driven away.

After that, Samuel stretched himself and said, "Let's go home. Nicole will wake up soon."

Seeing him like this, Jacob became somewhat gloomy.

Samuel looked at him and asked, "Hasn't Olivia recovered from it yet?"

"No."

Jacob felt himself useless.

"What did the Louis family say?"

Samuel didn't want to meddle in his affairs, but he was somewhat disappointed that Jacob hadn't dealt with it properly.

Olivia is Nicole's bestie. If he didn't do it well, Nicole probably wouldn't be relieved.

Hearing this, Jacob said, "Tim claimed he was drugged. He didn't do it on purpose. Now he knew who I am, he is tit-for-tat with me. He doesn't want to meet halfway at all."

"So he just sticks to this fight?"
