

Escape Wife 451

Chapter 451 What Do They Want

When Nicole woke up, she found herself locked up in a dark room.

She tried to move. Then she realized that her hands and feet were tied, and that she was thrown on a sofa.

Nicole looked around. This should be a private room, similar to a club's. The decoration here was luxurious. It was night, and there was no light, making her unable to see it clearly.

Was she at a club?

Could it be the Crown Club?

Perhaps she didn't leave the Crown Club.

Nicole was guessing, but she couldn't move.

She struggled, finding that her entire body was numb.

She was once kidnapped, so she did not panic. Instead, she calmed herself down.

Who was the kidnapper?

Why did he kidnap her?

Was it Swift?

If it was her, Ryan had already been locked by Vincent. Who else would contact Swift and work for her?

Nicole's mind was constantly racing, but she got no clue.

Her sanitary napkin was about to wet through.

Nicole never thought that she would encounter such an awkward problem.

Nicole was kidnapped during this special period of time. 'What the fuck?'

She didn't dare to move, afraid that more blood would flow out. If she wet her pants, she would be humiliated.

But she couldn't stay still. Otherwise, how could he save herself?

After weighing up the pros and cons, Nicole decided to move. Although she could not struggle away, she sat up.

Nicole was parched, but her mouth was stuffed with towels, so she could not make any noise.

Outside, people were obsessed with singing and dancing. On one would have thought that Nicole was tied up in a small private room.

Nicole tried her best to stand up, but unfortunately, she did not succeed. On the contrary, she felt that the last thing she wanted happened.

There was a chill in her trousers.

The embarrassing thing finally happened.

She was extremely depressed. She had to quiet down and gather her momentum.

"Impossible!"

Thinking of this possibility, Jacob became even more uneasy.

"Alright, let's try our best to find Nicole. We can't get in touch with Samuel now. We can just hope that Nicole will be lucky. Anyway, if Tim interferes, there might be a trace of hope. He has well connections, so he may be able to find Nicole."

Jacob was at a loss what to do now.

Olivia said somewhat angrily, "Damn Tim, he is only kind to Nicole. But what he said is correct. Where exactly is Samuel? Such a terrible incident happens, but no one can get through to him. Do you think Samuel also happens to an incident?"

"No! Samuel will be fine!"

Jacob immediately rejected Olivia's speculation.

In Jacob's opinion, Samuel was able to handle everything. Therefore, he believed Samuel would definitely be fine!

But why was Jacob worried?

The Greens had called Jacob for many times, and Laurel personally came to inquire about Nicole. Lucas even used his computer technology to search for Nicole's whereabouts. It seemed that everyone was searching for Nicole.

However, Nicole's whereabouts was still unknown.

Jason didn't dare to alarm Mrs. Don, but he used all the strength of the Don family to look for her.

So many parties were working together, but they failed to find Nicole.

When Lucas disappeared, it was the same. At that time, Zama was in charge of the Green family. Naturally, her remnant forces existed.

Now that Samuel had completely uprooted Zama's forces, who else could quietly take Nicole away? Moreover, the kidnapper didn't contact them.

Jacob was confused.

The most suspicious one was Swift, but Swift also disappeared.

Everyone was gloomy because of Nicole's disappearance.

Nicole was about to give up.

To her surprise, she would die like this.

She was like a fish out of water, lying on the floor gasping for breath.

The floor was very cold. She felt as if she were lying on ices. She fell into a coma from cold, and then was woken up by the chill again and again.

Nicole didn't know how much longer she could hold on.

She missed Samuel very much.

Where was he now?

Would he be anxious and uneasy because of her disappearance? Could it be that he had already returned to the Seapolis City and had been with their children?

'Do I have a chance to see my children?'

Nicole felt that she was a loser. She had no idea who kidnapped her or who wanted her to die.

'Am I going to die in confusion?'

'How are Laurel and Lucas? Will Zoe cry for me?'

If the other party was only targeting Nicole, it would be fine when she died. However, if the Green family, Samuel, and Nicole's children were targets, was Nicole willing to die just like that?

"What's the matter?"

Tim was surprisingly calm.

When he saw Nicole, his entire body trembled. When he escorted Nicole into the operating room, he was out of his wits. Now he had regained all his composure, looking distant.

After a brief pause, Jason said, "Viola has escaped."

"There are so many kung fu experts in the Don's. But Viola escapes under their noses. Moreover, Nicole was found in the club owned by your family. Mr. Jason, if you claim that your family has nothing to do with this, do you think I'll believe it?"

Tim targeted Jason. His tone carried a hint of anger.

Blair hurriedly said, "There may be something else behind this incident. No matter what, the Dons won't do it to Nicole, considering their relationship."

"It's hard to say. We all know how Mrs. Don treated Nicole earlier. So, I don't believe that the Dons have nothing to do Nicole's kidnapping. Let me make myself clear. It'll be best that Nicole is fine. But if not, you won't be able to live a peaceful life! If you don't believe me, wait and see!"

Hearing Tim's threat, everyone present was astonished.

Jacob frowned, feeling that Tim's remark was not proper.

"Mr. Tim, Nicole is a member of the Green family. The Greens owe you a favor. Naturally, I will report it to Laurel. The Greens will repay your kindness. However, Mr. Tim, I hope that you will stop intervening with this affair."

"Why do you ask me to stay out of it? The Greens fail to find Nicole. You know that she is the young madam of the Green family. But you lost her! Four days have passed. No one knows what Nicole has experienced. Where is Samuel? Where is he?"

Tim was infuriated.

Samuel, whom Nicole cared about the most, did not show up, nor did he give his regards to Nicole.

Was he dead?

Nicole had been kidnapped for four days. Tim believed that Samuel must have been notified of it.

Since then, why didn't Samuel come?

Why hadn't Samuel been heard of?

Samuel said he would love Nicole forever and make her happy. This was bullshit!

Tim saw Nicole lying on the floor alone, as if she had been abandoned by the whole world.

Who could understand that kind of despair and loneliness?

When Nicole needed Samuel the most, where was he?

Jacob was silenced by Tim's questions.

Olivia did not speak for Samuel anymore.

Chapter 454 Just Take Him as a Selfish Person

Laurel never expected herself to face such a choice in her life. Samuel wasn't here, and she was Nicole's mother-in-law. What should she choose?

"Laurel, this is serious. You'd better ask Samuel to come back."

Jason said.

Nicole was his niece, so of course he cared about her. Besides, everyone knew what it meant for a woman to lose her uterus.

Nicole was so nice that she shouldn't suffer from this.

Even Jason, who had always believed in Samuel, couldn't wait to get Samuel back now.

Laurel didn't know how to explain it away.

If she knew where Samuel was, she would definitely ask him to come back. However, she didn't know.

Jacob and Olivia looked at Laurel too. Although they didn't say anything, their intention was obvious.

Laurel felt stressful.

"I'll go call Vincent and see if he can contact Samuel."

She walked away to make the phone call.

She was eager to find Samuel.

While talking on the phone, she asked Vincent to have his subordinates in the Night Elf Empire to find Samuel. Vincent agreed and asked how Nicole was doing now.

When he knew Nicole's condition, he whispered, "Mom, Samuel is off the radar. Could it be that something has happened to him?"

"Impossible. Nothing will happen to Samuel. Hurry to find him."

"Alright!"

After hanging up the phone, Laurel discovered Lucas standing behind her.

She didn't know when he moved here, and felt distressed at sight of his worried face.

"Lucas, don't worry. Your mommy will be fine."

"What about daddy? Why can't we find him? I contacted him online, but he didn't reply to me. He never did this before."

Lucas' little face puckered.

Mommy lay between life and death, but daddy didn't show up. Lucas told himself to be strong and calm, but he couldn't. After all, he was just a child.

Laurel knew Lucas was worried and hugged him in her arms.

"It's fine. Your mommy will be fine, so will your daddy. God will bless them."

However, soothing statement was useless now.

As time passed, everyone was burning with anxiety.

Chapter 455 I Won't Let You Go Even If I Die

Gabrielle and Blair were arguing in the office.

"Anyway, we should get Samuel back!"

Gabrielle said resolutely.

However, Blair firmly said, "No way. We both know what it means if Samuel comes back now."

"But Nicole is in danger. Nobody knows what will happen to her tomorrow. If she can't survive, do you bear to stop her from seeing her husband one last time? Blair, I know you want the best for Samuel, but you are also a doctor. Think carefully, if I'm dying and no one tells you about it, you find that I'm dead or dying after coming back. How do you feel about that?"

This analogy made Blair uncomfortable.

"It won't happen to you!"

"I am also a human! And I am a woman!"

"Gabrielle, both of us are excellent doctors. I know that you are good at gynecological diseases and can handle difficult illnesses that others can't solve. We just wait for three days. Three days later, no matter whether Nicole gets better or worse, I will ask Samuel to come back. Is it okay?"

Gabrielle felt somewhat helpless.

"What if Nicole can't survive three days?"

Blair got stuck on the question.

"Didn't you say that her operation was successful?"

"The operation was indeed successful, but she is in poorer health now. Moreover, her uterus is damaged. Whether there will be a massive bleeding is unknown. I only temporarily stopped the bleeding, and I don't know what will happen next. As doctors, we both know what's good for the patients. We know that it's best for Samuel to come back and guard Nicole. Perhaps, perhaps...."

Gabrielle didn't finish her words, but Blair understood what she meant.

He did feel sympathy for Nicole, but he still insisted on his decision.

"I told you to wait for three days! After that, I will ask Samuel to come back. I know that you feel bad for Nicole, but only I know where Samuel is. If you want me to be in trouble, you can tell others about that."

Then he turned around and left.

Gabrielle bit her lips angrily, but she also didn't want Blair to be targeted by the Dons, the Greens and the Louis family.

It turned out that both she and Blaire were selfish.

Gabrielle realized that a person would give up his principles and the bottom line for his beloved one.

She sat down on the chair in depression.

When Tim arrived, he saw Blair leave the office unhappily. Tim didn't dig into it but knocked on the door.

"Gabrielle, something is wrong with Nicole. Hurry up and check on her!"

Tim's voice trembled.

Gabrielle quickly got up and ran towards the ICU.

When she arrived, she saw Olivia's panicked expression and hastened to examine Nicole.

Olivia was still confused somehow, but seeing Swift under Jacob's control, she understood everything.

Just now, Nicole was almost in danger!

Thinking about this, Olivia became angry.

Olivia came to the front of Swift and kicked her with anger, "What grudge do you have with Nicole? Why do you attack her again and again? Swift, are you still a human?"

Being controlled by Jacob with her mouth opened, Swift couldn't say a word now. She could only stare at Olivia fiercely, looking like a poisonous snake.

Olivia wasn't afraid of Swift, so she kicked the woman again fiercely. At this moment, Jacob said, "Hurry to call the nurse. If Tim continued bleeding, he would faint."

Hearing this, Olivia turned her head slightly, and saw Jacob pull out the dagger on Tim's shoulder without hesitation. The blood sprayed everywhere.

"Did he try to save Nicole?"

Olivia asked Jacob in a low voice.

Jacob nodded.

Olivia's expression changed slightly.

Without saying more, she soon went out to call a nurse in.

Gabrielle, who was living in the office, rushed over when she heard that Nicole was in trouble.

As Gabrielle arrived, Jacob had already taken Swift away.

Looking at the blood on Tim's body, Gabrielle couldn't help but say, "Let me help you."

She took over the job as a nurse and carefully bandaged Tim's wounds.

"The wound isn't too deep, but you'd better keep it dry these days. You're injured now, so you should go back and rest. Nicole may not wake up tonight."

From Tim's eyes, Gabrielle could read his love for Nicole.

Actually, Gabrielle was contradictory in her mind.

On the one hand, she hoped Tim could stay here to protect Nicole, but on the other hand, she didn't want him to stay.

After all, Nicole was only concerned about Samuel.

However, Tim said with ease, "I'm fine. I used to fight on the battlefield, and this little wound was nothing. Besides, I have ever been awake for three days, so I don't care about this night. Let's talk about it tomorrow when Jason comes over. To leave a weak woman like Olivia here only, I can't rest assured."

Hearing this, Olivia felt somewhat guilty.

"I was careless. I thought she was a nurse, but I didn't expect it to be Swift."

Speaking of this, Olivia felt remorse.

"We didn't take good care of her, so it was also the responsibility of the hospital."

Hearing Gabrielle's words, Tim said, "It's not the time to talk about who is right and who is wrong. I just wonder when she will wake up, and whether she will be fine if she wakes up."

Hearing Tim's question, Gabrielle said in a low voice, "Not necessarily. She will be in danger anytime and anywhere, but she needs to be taken good care of. She is very weak these days and not suitable for eating. You'd better help her to walk after she wakes up tomorrow. Then let her eat some liquid food, but not too much."

Chapter 457 I've Never Turned It on

Olivia was filled with anger when Nicole mentioned Samuel.

"Samuel? Where is he? Nicole, I don't mean to upset you, but he is simply too terrible. Jacob made countless phone calls to him, but he didn't answer them at all. Now that you're in such a state, he is still hiding somewhere. Jacob also sent him messages, but got no reply. I wonder if Samuel has changed his phone number."

At the sound of it, Nicole stiffened for a moment. For some reason, her heart ached slightly.

"Didn't Samuel save me?"

"Of course not!"

Olivia looked at Nicole and sighed, "It was Tim who saved you. You don't even know that he was carrying you to the hospital as if he went crazy. His clothes were stained with your blood, scaring us all. He has been here with you all day and night, and he just returned not long ago. Last night, when you were in the intensive care unit, Swift disguised herself as a nurse and came here to assassinate you. Tim stood in front of you and got hurt. His shoulder was stabbed and was almost crippled. You'll have to thank him later."

As Olivia narrated, she washed Nicole's face with a towel.

Nicole froze for a moment. She never thought that it was Tim who had saved her.

Now thinking of it, she probably missed Samuel so much that she had mistaken her savior to be Samuel.

But why did everyone lose in touch with Samuel?

Nicole was slightly uneasy.

"Hasn't he replied?"

"No, if he had responded to the message, I wouldn't be so angry. He is your husband, but he just disappears when you need him. What's wrong with that?"

Olivia became angrier as she spoke. She really felt sorry for Nicole.

But Nicole struggled to get up.

"Nicole, what are you doing? Do you know that you almost died this time? Doctor Farley said if you don't take care of yourself, you will lose your uterus forever. If Tim hadn't saved you, I wouldn't even have guts to imagine what you would be like right now. You even had a surgery for over 14 hours. What are you doing now?"

Olivia stopped Nicole from getting up.

Nicole did not know that she had been in such a danger. She whispered, "I want to call Samuel."

"You won't get through to him!"

"But I should do it. Samuel is not a heartless person, nor will he leave me and our children behind at this time. How many days has he left? Other than the phone call to you, who else has gotten through to him? I'm afraid that something has happened to him!"

This was what Nicole was worried about.

She was reminded of the dream that she had when she was in a daze.

Although she didn't know what it meant, she felt uneasy.

Seeing that Nicole was worried about Samuel, Olivia couldn't help but snap angrily, "Do you only keep him in your mind? Nothing can happen to him! Nicole, think about it. He was a soldier, so how can he be hit by others? Even if something really happened to him, why did he call me? If I may say so, he must have something to hide from you. I reckon he is enjoying a good time now. "

"No, he won't. That's not who he is!"

Nicole was still trying to straighten up. Olivia really didn't have the heart to see her act like this, so she yielded eventually.

"All right. Your Samuel isn't a hard-hearted man. Is that okay? Don't you just want a phone? I'll get it for you, but even if you want to call him, you should wait until Doctor Farley examines your body and allows you to do that."

"Olivia!"

Chapter 458 I Miss You

"Mrs. Green!"

The nurse's face turned pallor from fright. She went forward to support Nicole.

Nicole was afraid that Samuel would hang up if she didn't answer the phone in time. She didn't care about her current appearance, stood up with the help of the nurse and said, "I'd like to go to the bathroom."

"I'll be by your side."

"No need. Don't come in and don't speak."

Nicole went to the bathroom.

When she answered the phone, she was a little out of breath.

"What's the matter?"

Samuel hadn't seen Nicole for five days. Now he saw her face and suddenly missed her even more.

"Nothing. I'm in the bathroom."

Nicole tried her best to breathe more gently. Her palms were sweaty and her knees hurt.

It seemed that she had been seriously hurt when she fell.

When Samuel noticed that Nicole had lost weight and her eyes were a little hollow, he couldn't help but ask, "Don't you eat properly when I'm not at home? Your face looks smaller."

"Yes. After you leave, you don't call me or answer my phone. I don't even know how you are, so I lose weight."

Samuel was slightly surprised.

"Have you called me?"

"Yes. What's wrong?"

Nicole felt that Samuel's question was a little strange, but she still replied.

Samuel didn't say anything and smiled, "Maybe I didn't see it. I've been too busy lately. I don't even have time to look at my phone."

"You...."

Nicole would like to ask him what he was busy with, but she changed the topic.

"When will you come back?"

"Three days. I'll be back in three days."

Nicole nodded slightly.

"You've also lost weight."

"I'm fine. I don't like the food outside. I miss the food you cooked."

"When you come back, I'll cook for you."

Nicole smiled faintly, and her smile was filled with tolerance.

"OK."

Samuel felt that Nicole was so beautiful that he held his breath. It would be better if he was by her side.

"By the way, this isn't our bathroom. Aren't you at home?"

"No. I'm hanging out."

Nicole nodded.

Chapter 459 I've Never Wanted Your Gratitude

Olivia was about to ask the special nurse outside what had just happened, but she suddenly heard a low snort from Nicole.

Although the noise was vague and small, she felt worried.

"Nicole, are you alright?"

She asked worriedly.

Nicole felt weak all over, her legs giving way. She said, "I'm fine. I just feel a little weak."

"You ... you can't go in!"

Olivia was talking to Nicole, but she suddenly raised her voice. Before Nicole knew what was going on, the bathroom door was flung open, and Tim suddenly appeared in front of Nicole.

"Why did you come in?"

Nicole was surprised, and her hand that was held against the wall almost slipped off.

Without saying anything, Tim carried her in his arms and strode into the ward.

"Hey, Tim, I admit that you saved Nicole, and I'm grateful for that. But you've gone too far. Nicole was in the bathroom just now. If she hadn't tidied herself up yet, what would others think of her if you went in like this?"

Olivia felt that Tim was simply too bold now.

Wasn't Jason outside the ward?

How did he let Tim in?

Besides, didn't Tim go back to rest?

Why did he suddenly come back?

Olivia had a series of questions, but before she could ask, she saw Tim put Nicole on the bed and gently roll up her pants.

"Tim, that's enough!"

Olivia hastily pushed him away, but she accidentally touched the wound on his shoulder.

He gave a low snort, blood oozing out of his clothes, which was a startling sight.

Nicole suddenly felt a lump in her throat. She didn't know how to express her indescribable gratitude.

Saying thank you was not enough to express her gratitude for what he had done for her, but if she didn't say anything, she felt that she owed him a lot.

"Olivia, forget it. I just fell and my knee hurts a little."

Nicole was going to keep it from Olivia lest she would be worried, but now it seemed that Tim knew what had happened.

Tim turned grim. After she spoke, he looked up straight at her face, but he met her eyes.

There were gratitude and other emotions in her eyes, which dispelled all his anger.

"You are a grownup and mother of two children. Why don't you take good care of yourself? I took pains to rescue you not to see you treat yourself like this."

"Ouch!"

Feeling a warm breath spray on her face, Nicole regained consciousness. However, she was startled by the enlarged face in front of her and couldn't help but retreat. Her back ran into the wall and the pain immediately caused her to burst into tears.

"Tim, are you crazy?"

Tim suddenly laughed.

"I thought you became a fool."

He retreated with a little pity.

'Almost. I almost kissed her.'

Although Nicole's face was a little pale, her skin was good.

"Look at your skin. So tender. I would rather die if I could kiss it!"

"Go to hell!"

Nicole hit him.

This man should be joking at this time! She was really scared just now.

Tim laughed.

Hearing their laughter, Olivia and Jason looked at each other and said, "Fortunately, Tim is here."

"It seems that Nicole is in a better mood today. People said that a good mood can do great help to one's illness. Nicole's change today makes me relieved."

Olivia said with relief.

No one knew that Nicole was in a good mood because she had just had a phone call with Samuel.

After being hit, Tim pretended to be deeply hurt. He said with his hands clenching on his breast, "My heart is broken. How can you be so cruel to me?"

Nicole laughed with more delight.

"You are simply a drama king."

"Smile can make you younger. Besides, a good mental state is helpful to your health. I was just afraid that you would feel ashamed to see me, so I just sacrificed myself to cheer you up. "

Tim made such strong argument.

Thinking of the fact that he had seen her terrible state, Nicole felt awkward and said, "Who is ashamed to see you? It cannot be me. Who am I? I am Nicole! I have experienced so many things. How can I be afraid of being laughed at by you!"

"Really?"

Seeing that Nicole's vitality had returned, Tim felt that he was alive. The grin that had been taken off from his face also returned.

He leaned towards Nicole and jogged Nicole's arm with his arm, saying, "Is there anything you want to eat? I can make it for you."

"You know how to cook?"

Nicole doubted.
