

Escape Wife 471

Chapter 471 I Am Used to Protect My Own Woman Myself

"He said that he would come back in two days. Is that true?"

Blair was surprised by what Nicole said.

"Did you talk on the phone?"

"It wasn't a phone call. He sent me a video and said something to me. But I didn't know that he was suffering."

Nicole didn't think that she needed hide anything from Blair anymore.

Blair was slightly shocked. He said, "He still couldn't keep himself from contacting you. You didn't tell him about your current condition, did you?"

"No, I didn't."

Nicole was glad that she didn't tell Samuel, otherwise she would have regretted it so much.

If she could not hold back her grievances and complained to Samuel about what had happened to her, Samuel would have rushed back desperately.

Now she suddenly felt that it was advisable for her to hold back sometimes.

Since Nicole said that she didn't tell Samuel, Blair heaved a sigh of relief.

"That's good. I think he wouldn't be affected. If you didn't tell him anything, he will struggle very hard to get better in two days and come back to see you and the kids. However, I have to tell you that changing blood is very harmful for his health. He may have to face a lot of things when he comes back. When the time comes..."

"Don't worry, I understand what you mean. I won't let Samuel know about my condition. I understand that he can't be distracted now."

Blair admired what Nicole said, but Gabrielle did not agree.

"Blair, you are out of line. Samuel is your best friend, and Nicole is also my friend. You just want your friend to be in health and lighten his burden. Have you ever thought that Nicole's condition is not optimistic? If we can't find an anti-atrophy drug for her organs in a short period of time, Samuel will regret it for the rest of his life. Do you want to see that happen?"

Gabrielle was a little angry.

On this matter, she had a different attitude from Blair.

Perhaps because Nicole was similar to Gabrielle, or perhaps because Nicole was so tough and her toughness wrenched people's hearts, Gabrielle could not help but say so.

Seeing that Gabrielle was so excited, Blair wanted to say something but stopped on a second thought.

However, Nicole smiled, "Stop arguing. This is my decision. Samuel doesn't want me to know about his situation because he is afraid that I would be worried. Similarly, I am worried about him. Blair is right. Those who could secretly poison Samuel were definitely not ordinary people. Samuel has a lot of work to do when he comes back. I can't hold him back. Besides, I'm sure you two won't just watch me get into trouble, right?"

Gabrielle's eyes suddenly turned red with tears.

"Nicole, no one can be sure what will happen."

"It doesn't matter. I told you. If the heavens really want me to die, I won't blame you. During this period of time, I will treasure every moment that I can spend with Samuel. You guys shouldn't have too much burden. Let everything be as it is."

Nicole recovered her gentle and easy-going appearance. However, Blair felt upset.

"I will do my best. Don't worry."

"I believe in your medical skills. Do you know how Samuel is now?"

After finding out the reason for all of this, Nicole felt even more distressed for Samuel and wanted to see him even more.

Chapter 472 What a Liar He Is

"Hello!"

Nicole tried her best to calm her voice, but in vain.

Samuel immediately noticed that something was wrong with her.

"Are you crying?"

He frowned, as if he was very nervous. He even stood up anxiously, but by doing so, his hand started to bleed again. The needle went in the wrong place.

"Mr. Green..."

Arthur was a little worried. He hurriedly calmed Samuel down. When Samuel was on his seat again, he gave him a new shot.

Looking at Samuel, Nicole couldn't help but feel a little sad. She coughed and said, "I didn't cry. It's just that I'm having a cold and a sore throat."

She looked at the screen and lied seriously.

However, Samuel was only getting more and more worried.

"You caught a cold? Are you taking any medicine? Did you go to the doctor, or invite Gabrielle over? How did you catch a cold? Is Mom there? Have her make you some ginger soup. You haven't fully recovered from the abortion yet. Ginger soup will help you get rid of the cold. I'm not around and I can't do anything for you. You must take care of yourself. I'll be back in two days."

"You don't have to worry about me. I'm fine. It's just a cold. What's the big deal? Look at how nervous you are. It's not like I'm seriously ill."

Samuel frowned more deeply when he heard this.

"Stop saying that! What nonsense. You will be fine. We'll grow old together this lifetime, till we're both a hundred years old."

Although he talked causally, his frown could almost kill a fly.

Worries and anxiety almost engulfed him. How he wished he could have wings and fly to Nicole right now!

Seeing him like this, Nicole's eyes turned red again.

"Don't worry about me. I'm fine, here at home. It's you who we should worry about. You have to take good care of yourself outside, do you hear? Eat more if you can. Let me know if you feel uncomfortable. Don't wear yourself out just to get back in a hurry. I won't allow that."

Hearing Nicole's words, Samuel immediately smiled with great satisfaction.

"I'm fine. Rest assured. I'm a big eater, and a sleeper. After all, I'm the young master of the Green family. How could I compromise to anything? I'm telling you that I'm living in a five-star presidential suite. You can never imagine how at ease I am."

Nicole looked at the screen as she hurriedly covered her mouth with her hand.

A Five-star presidential suite?

What a liar he was!

However, she must not cry. She mustn't let Samuel notice her unstable emotions. She tried really hard to endure.

"Nicole? Why aren't you talking?"

Samuel sensed that Nicole was silent, so he could not help but ask. He did not have the guts to video with Nicole now.

Nicole quickly suppressed her sadness and whispered, "I wonder what your five-star presidential suite looks like."

"Why are you asking? It's not like you haven't seen it before."

"I haven't seen a foreign presidential suite, neither did I get the chance to see one when I went to the United States. If we are to go on a trip later, you have to book one for me, so that I can enjoy myself properly."

Nicole said casually.

Chapter 473 I'm Not Used to The Way You Are Right Now

"Why aren't you answering the phone? It's ringing."

Olivia felt that Nicole was a little strange. Perhaps because Nicole had just woken up, she was actually a little dumb--in a cute way.

However, Nicole hung up the phone directly and whispered, "No one called. It's Lucas' phone. He left it for me, so that I can play games to kill time. I didn't expect this kid to set an alarm clock."

"Really? Lucas has developed a new game? I want to try it!"

Olivia hurriedly reached out for the phone.

However, Nicole smiled and said, "I haven't had enough fun yet. Queue up! Oh right, I suddenly feel like eating something. Go and buy me some mangoes, will you?"

Olivia curled her lips and said, "You stingy bastard! Play it yourself! I don't care. Besides, you're just getting a little better now, is it alright to eat mangoes?"

"I don't know. Go ask Gabrielle."

"You glutton," Olivia said

Still, she quickly walked out and headed towards Gabrielle's office.

She had to ask Gabrielle if Nicole could eat mangoes. If she couldn't, she would never buy Nicole any mango, even if she was to be beaten to death.

Seeing Olivia leave, Nicole dialed Tim's number.

"Damn brat, you actually dare to hang up on me? Are you that sure that I won't get angry with you? I'm telling you, if you weren't Nicole's son, I won't even bother to look at you! Do you hear?"

"Tim, this is Nicole."

As soon as Nicole spoke, Tim was frozen.

"Nicole?"

He hurriedly took out his phone and looked at it carefully.

But it was indeed Lucas' number!

When Tim was still a little dumbfounded, Nicole said, "I know what you and Lucas have done for Samuel."

Upon these words, Tim immediately understood.

"You have that brat's phone?"

"Yes. Lucas already told me everything. Thank you."

Nicole was truly grateful to Tim.

Not everyone would risk their lives to do such things.

Nicole felt that she owed Tim more and more favors. She wondered if she could ever repay him in this lifetime.

Thinking of her illness, Nicole hoped that Tim could have a bright future. She hoped that he could have a woman who loved him by his side, and live the rest of his life in peace.

However, Nicole would not say these words right now. Even if she did, Tim wouldn't listen.

Chapter 474 I Am the Young Mistress of a Wealthy Family

Olivia pretended to stop Nicole from leaving unless what Nicole said made sense.

Nicole sighed and said, "Alright, to tell you the truth, today is the day that Zoe and Lucas go to the kindergarten. I want to send them there, okay? I look terrible now. If I didn't buy a nice dress that gives a contrast to my skin tone, I would embarrass my children, wouldn't I?"

Hearing Nicole, Olivia glared at her and said, "You are so gorgeous. Who would dare to say that you are a disgrace to them?"

"Alright, alright, I'm a mom. You don't know what mothers think. You will when you have a child. Go sign the discharge papers for me. Hurry up!"

Nicole immediately pushed Olivia out.

Olivia was reluctant to do so, but after some thought, she went to Gabrielle's office and wanted to ask if Nicole could really be discharged from the hospital.

Nicole took this time to call Jacob over.

"Madam, may I help you?"

Nicole looked at Jacob in front of her and suddenly said with a serious expression, "Is there a way to let Olivia leave with you? It will be best that she leaves the Seapolis City at this point."

Jacob was a bit puzzled.

"Madam, what happened?"

Jacob was sensitive. He could sense that Nicole was hiding something from everyone. However, since Nicole did not tell him, he would not ask. But now Nicole even wanted to pull Olivia out of the Seapolis City. Jacob had no choice but to ask.

Nicole looked at Jacob and whispered, "Something has happened to Samuel recently. I can't put it clearly. He's back today. We plan to do something. Olivia will not be safe if she stays here. So I hope you can take her away."

"As Mr. Green's special assistant, I can't leave. I can promise you to put her in a safe place, but I need to come back."

"Jacob."

Nicole said suddenly.

"I know your feelings and loyalty to Samuel, but if you want to do something for our sake, just listen to me. Protect Olivia well. Don't worry about everything in the Seapolis City for the time being. Samuel will contact you later. You lurk in somewhere safe under the guise of taking Olivia away from the Seapolis City. You can offer him help secretly when Samuel handle things, understand?"

Hearing Nicole, Jacob could only nod, even though he didn't know what was going on.

"It's easy to take Nicole away as I have ways. However, if we leave, what if you run into danger?"

"Don't be worried. I've notified Finn. He will come over to protect me."

Jacob felt somewhat relieved after hearing that.

"Do I need to pick Mr. Green up?"

"No need, I will handle this. I will go shopping and buy clothes with Olivia in a few minutes I will. Think out a way to take Olivia away after we buy clothes. Tell her it's my idea. I require her to leave here temporarily so that she can be my backup. If she asks you what happened, tell her that I hide the truth, nor do I allow her to ask. Jacob, I entrust Olivia to you. I will not forgive you if she is in any danger. You should know she's my best friend."

Nicole was reluctant to let Olivia go, but she couldn't let Olivia stay here.

She couldn't figure out things in the Seapolis City.

Chapter 475 Am I a Decoration

Jacob stared at the fitting room.

He really wanted to see what Olivia looked like in the dress. Although Olivia had always acted tough, he knew better than anyone that Olivia was very soft inside.

Nicole paid attention to the dressing room, but she also saw people behind her from the corner of her eyes.

Finn had walked in, but the person that followed Finn walked along the store instead of coming in. That person seemed to have nothing to do with Finn, but Nicole just felt that something was wrong.

"Ma'am."

When Finn came over, Jacob was a bit surprised. He didn't realize that Finn had come.

Was he too unwary?

Or did he lower his guard when he focused on Olivia?

Jacob blamed himself.

Nicole seemed to know what Jacob was thinking. She whispered, "Right now, your task is to protect Olivia. As for me, Night Elf Empire is guarding me, so don't worry about me."

Hearing Nicole, Jacob couldn't help but nod.

Finn found a seat on the side and sat down.

When Olivia came out, both Jacob and Nicole were surprised.

They never knew Olivia would look so good in a dress.

"What do you think? Do I look weird in the dress? I feel very awkward. I still feel more comfortable in my jeans."

Olivia couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed when she saw their astonished look. As she spoke, she was about to take it off, but was stopped by Nicole.

"No need, it's fine. I really can't tell that you have a perfect figure. You look gorgeous in this dress."

Olivia was shocked by what Nicole said.

"Are you comforting me?"

"It's true. If you don't believe me, ask Jacob. No, look at him. He can't get his eyes off you."

Nicole couldn't help but laugh when she saw Jacob look dumb.

Hearing Nicole, Olivia saw Jacob fix his eyes on her. She couldn't help but feel shy.

No matter how tough a woman acted, once she faced her sweetheart, she would be timid and tender involuntarily.

"Am I really good-looking?"

"Sure."

Jacob didn't expect Olivia to look like a different person after changing the clothes. He really couldn't describe that feeling.

Seeing that both of them were satisfied, Olivia bit her lower lip and said, "But this dress is too expensive."

"To celebrate Jacob becomes your boyfriend, I give you this dress as a present."

As Nicole spoke, she paid it by credit card.

Chapter 476 Lucas Was a Bit Precocious

Nicole suddenly felt conflicted.

She really hadn't thought about where the child would turn to.

Seeing that Nicole was in a dilemma, Dad Bush said to his wife, "What's wrong with you? Zoe can go wherever she wants to go. Stop asking. Besides, Zoe is also the granddaughter of the Greens. It's okay if she wants to go back to the Green's."

Ms. Bush felt wronged.

"I'm just asking. Zoe likes the dishes I cook the most. If she comes back tonight, I would need to prepare in advance."

Hearing what her mother said, Nicole felt quite sad.

Ever since he left home five years ago, her parents have been living a lonely life. Now they could finally find sustenance in Zoe. Nicole really didn't know how to decide.

"Mom and Dad, Samuel is coming back today, we might go to the Green's tonight for a reunion dinner. We will come back for dinner tomorrow, alright? I'll bring Lucas with me."

Nicole's words instantly lifted her mother's spirits.

"Good! I'll prepare the dishes and wait for you to come tomorrow."

Although Dad Bush didn't say anything, there was a smile on his face.

Seeing that her parents could be so happy with such a small action of hers, Nicole felt sorry for them.

Nicole always felt that she was a good daughter, but it seemed that she wasn't good enough.

Zoe did not know what was on Nicole's mind. Zoe was thinking about the kindergarten. She anxiously pulled Nicole's hand and said, "Mommy, hurry up. Otherwise, we will be late."

"Alright. We're leaving now."

Nicole said goodbye to her parents with a smile, and then got into the car with Zoe.

Until they drove a long way, her parents were still standing at the door and watched their car. Their figures really made Nicole feel sad.

Beside her, Zoe said excitedly, "Mommy, is this the schoolbag you bought for me?"

"Yes. Do you like it?"

Nicole took out a small pink schoolbag and handed it to Zoe.

"Yes!"

Zoe hugged the bag in her arms as if it was a treasure.

Along the way, she kept talking excitedly, asking tons of questions. Nicole answered all of the questions patiently.

When Nicole arrived at the Green's, Lucas had already packed up. Seeing Nicole's car, Laurel went out with Lucas.

"Mom, you didn't need to come out. I could have come in and picked him up."

Seeing that Nicole was in good spirits today, Laurel smiled and said, "I said that I could send them to school. But you insisted to do it yourself. How are you feeling now? Can you handle it?"

"It's fine. Mom, I have recovered. Don't worry about me anymore. Please don't tell Samuel that I was in the hospital when he comes back today. Otherwise, he would be worried."

Nicole's words caused Laurel to pause for a moment, but then she instantly understood.

"Ma'am, please sit still."

Finn knew that Nicole had not fully recovered, so he reminded her.

Nicole fastened her seat belt and said in a low voice, "Don't worry about me. Just do it."

After receiving such an order, Finn did not say anything else, and the car suddenly accelerated.

Seeing that Finn's car had accelerated, people in the car behind them hurriedly followed suit.

The two cars were racing on the highway.

Nicole felt a bit uncomfortable, and she tightly grabbed the armrest.

She suddenly thought of something and said to Finn, "Are there any of our people around the kindergarten?"

"Ma'am, don't worry. I've already arranged for it. I guarantee that Mr. Lucas and Miss Zoe will be safe and sound."

"That's good."

After knowing that the children were safe, Nicole closed her eyes. There was nothing else she could do. The car was driving too fast. Looking at the constantly retreating scenery outside, she felt a bit nauseated.

They went all the way out of the highway, and the car behind it was still chasing after them.

Finn suddenly stopped the car. The people behind them didn't react in time but didn't dare to hit their car. They could only turn around and crashed the curbside.

Then the car was forced to stop.

Finn quickly got off the car. Before the other party could react, he directly shattered the window on the driver's side and grabbed the driver by the collar.

"Who told you to follow us?"

The other party didn't think Finn could be so tough.

The other person in the car wanted to open the door and escape, but Nicole held him in the car.

"Since you've followed us, let's have a good chat. Aren't you here for me?"

Nicole's eyes turned cold.

She had learnt a few moves from Samuel. Although she wasn't an expert, she could still use them to scare people occasionally.

Realizing that they had been captured, the two men felt a little annoyed.

Seeing that they were unwilling to speak, Finn directly grabbed the driver's wrist. With a cracking sound, the driver's wrist was dislocated.

The driver screamed in pain. The other man was scared and his face turned pale.

Finn said expressionlessly, "If you don't say anything else, I will consider crippling your other hand and then your foot. Do you think your master will still keep you around if you become a crippled piece of trash?"

Finn didn't seem like he was joking. So, the driver panicked.

"I will tell you everything. It was Mr. Bates. Mr. Bates asked us to follow you. But he didn't have any bad intention. He just wanted to know where Mr. Green is. We really didn't want anything else."

"Mr. Bates has always wanted to contact Mr. Green, but wasn't able to reach him. We can only follow Lady Green and see if we can find Mr. Green."

Chapter 478 You Finally Come Back

Nicole couldn't help thinking and was absent-minded.

When Nicole thought that Samuel struggled in pain and Blair said that it was best for Samuel to observe for two days, she felt heart-broken.

Finn felt relieved before Nicole noticed him.

Finn knew that he should restrain his emotions as soon as possible. Nicole was not someone he could imagine.

Finn drove at high speed.

Nicole and Finn had their own thoughts, but they didn't have any conversation.

They arrived at the airport very quickly.

Nicole couldn't wait to get out of the car and said to Finn, "You park the car. I'm going to the lobby."

"There are so many people here. I'd better call you by name. Nicole, it's a bit of a mess here, and I'd better go in with you after I park the car."

Finn was very concerned about Nicole's safety.

"No need, I can protect myself. Besides, there are a lot of people here, so nothing will happen. Come back soon. I'll wait for you at Gate 3."

With that, Finn did not argue. He quickly went to park the car.

Nicole quickly got off the car and immediately went to the exit where Samuel was about to come out.

There were too many people. Nicole stared at the exit without blinking, afraid of missing Samuel.

However, Samuel did not come out of the normal passageway. Instead, he pulled some strings to take the green channel.

When Samuel walked out of the lobby, he saw Nicole waiting anxiously.

Nicole crossed her legs and kept looking inside. Her worry swept away Samuel's tiredness over the past few days.

Samuel quickly walked over and hugged Nicole from behind.

"Who?"

Nicole subconsciously gave Samuel an overarm throw, but it didn't work. She felt a little frustrated. Just as she was about to make her next move, Samuel said, "You're really getting stronger and stronger now. Are you going to hit me the moment we meet?"

The familiar voice stiffened Nicole. Then, she quickly turned around and saw Samuel.

Samuel had lost weight.

He had lost a lot of weight!

He was much thinner than he looked on the screen.

His beautiful eyes were sunken, and he had a beard. But he still looked so handsome.

Nicole felt aggrieved and was in tears.

"You're back?"

"Why are you crying?"

Samuel suddenly panicked.

"I'm just joking with you. You're not strong, not at all."

Samuel was in a hurry to wipe away tears for Nicole, but Nicole hugged his waist and buried her head in his arms. Samuel could feel her warmth.

Nicole naturally knew that Laurel loved her, but she didn't want Samuel to know about her health. She hurriedly said, "I'll go with you. I'll run you a bath."

"OK."

Samuel did not want to separate from Nicole at all.

Laurel felt even more distressed when she saw Nicole like this.

"I'll get someone to prepare some food."

"No need, Mom. I ate on the plane. I want to take a rest after bathing."

Samuel was tired.

Over the years, Samuel had never felt an overdraft. If it hadn't been for Nicole, Samuel really didn't know if he could hold on until he came back.

Nicole also saw the dark circles under Samuel's eyes, and felt somewhat distressed.

"Mom, we're not hungry yet. We will go back to our room and rest for a while."

"Go!"

Laurel also knew that it was useless for her to say more now. Even if she said something to Samuel, he would not listen.

Nicole took Samuel back to their room.

Entering the room, Samuel pressed Nicole on the door, kissing her passionately.

Facing Samuel's enthusiasm, Nicole did not resist. Instead, she cooperatively hugged his neck and stood on tiptoe to try to respond.

They lingered, instantly heating up the house.

Samuel hugged Nicole tightly and he became dishonest with his hands.

Although Nicole wanted to, she still knew her own body. She couldn't do it now.

Just as Samuel was about to take off her clothes, Nicole panted and said, "My period is not over yet."

Samuel was slightly stunned.

"It's not over yet?"

He remembered that Nicole had been menstruating for seven or eight days. Wasn't it?

How could it not be over?

Nicole didn't dare to look into his eyes. She whispered, "Gabrielle said that I hurt my body in the last parturition. The blood stasis hasn't been drained yet, so it took longer. This is also the discharge of lochia."

Samuel was not very clear about what Nicole said. Since it was Gabrielle who said it, and Nicole didn't look as well as before, Samuel stopped.

"But I miss you so much."

That was the truth.

Samuel was a man of high spirit. He had endured the inhuman torture for eight days. Now that he had returned to Nicole, he wished he could linger with her."

Nicole was with Samuel now, but Samuel couldn't do anything to her. How could Samuel not be depressed?

Nicole also felt somewhat guilty and whispered, "Let me run you a bath now."

With that, she escaped from Samuel's armpit and walked towards the bathroom, but Samuel picked her up from behind.

"Samuel, put me down!"

Samuel quickly left.

Blair understood his anxiety. If it was him, he would probably go crazy. Now that Samuel was doing well, he was relieved. And he would try his best to help him.

When Samuel returned to the Green's, Nicole had not woken up yet.

Looking at her who was sleeping soundly, Samuel was torn with grief.

When Mrs. Green saw that he was back so soon, she said, "Nicole usually sleeps for two or three hours. Don't disturb her. Come down. Let's have a talk."

Hearing this, Samuel left the bedroom and went to the study.

"What do you think about Swift's escape?"

What Mrs. Green said shocked Samuel slightly. He then replied, "There must be a mole in the house. Otherwise, with our family's security system, Swift would not be able to sneak out."

"Who do you think the mole is?"

Mrs. Green looked at Samuel with a sharp gaze.

Samuel shook his head and said, "I don't know."

"You don't know? Do you know many people will be harmed because of that? Let's talk about your wife and children first. Can you keep them safe? Samuel, our family has always been faced with problems. You and I both know that. But as a man, if you can't protect your wife and children, others will laugh at you."

"I know. I will find out as soon as possible."

Samuel also knew that he hadn't settled this matter well.

Mrs. Green sighed and said, "There is something you should know. It may help you."

"Tell me."

"Vincent has been busy recently and seems to be working on the relocation plan for the southern suburbs. But, is the real estate business of Eternal Group that urgent? Why does he have to start the relocation plan for the southern suburbs at this time?"

Hearing that, Samuel frowned slightly.

"The relocation plan for the southern suburbs is a five-year plan. There's no rush. Why is Vincent so anxious about it?"

"I also want to know. Recently, Vincent brought Joseph out. He said that he wanted to train Joseph and broaden his horizon. For this, I have no objection. But now it has been almost ten days. I haven't seen Joseph for almost ten days. I don't know what Vincent is doing."

As Mrs. Green said this, she whispered, "The place where Swift was locked up was arranged by you. So only our family knows about the mechanism. I didn't believe that it was the guards who rescued Swift."

"Mom, what do you mean? Are you suspecting Vincent?"

Samuel found it unbelievable.

Was that what Mrs. Green meant?

Vincent was his twin brother!

Moreover, why did he let Swift go?

Did he want Swift to plot against Nicole?
