

Escape Wife 491

Chapter 491 You Are Fooled This Time

"What's wrong? Is it hurting somewhere?"

Nicole quickly walked over.

Lucas, however, made a victory gesture to Joseph behind Nicole.

Joseph didn't open his eyes until Nicole came to his side.

"Mommy."

"Do you feel uncomfortable?"

Nicole felt very sorry for Joseph.

Joseph shook his head and said, "I'm much better. Thank you, Mommy."

A trace of sadness suddenly welled up in Joseph's heart as he thought he would leave home with Lucas at night and leave Nicole who was so good to him.

"Mommy, can you hug me?"

Joseph's request surprised Nicole for a moment.

'He must be very sorrowful right now,' thought Nicole.

"Of course!"

She hugged Joseph without hesitation.

Joseph was a little thinner than before, but he also became stronger.

Joseph whispered as he hugged Nicole, "Mommy, you are the best mommy in the world. If only you were my real mommy!"

Nicole wanted to cry upon hearing it.

"I am your mommy. No matter how old you are or where you go, I am your mommy. You can treat me as your mommy for the rest of your life."

"Thank you, Mommy."

Joseph was so moved that he wanted to cry.

He looked at Lucas. Seeing that Lucas didn't show any unhappiness, he let go of Nicole and said, "I'll go wash my face."

"Alright, hurry up. Come downstairs with Lucas and have meals later."

Joseph seemed to be in a better mood, and Nicole also had a smile on her face.

"I'll go with you!"

Lucas and Joseph were like twin babies now.

At the sight of this, Nicole felt somewhat comforted.

After Joseph and Lucas went to the bathroom, Nicole tidied up the bed and went downstairs.

Vincent had been released, but still had a strained relationship with Samuel.

Feeling the tension between them, Laurel couldn't help but sigh. "Get on well today. Sit down and have a peaceful reunion dinner with me. What's wrong? Are you guys feeling wronged?"

"No, Mom, what are you talking about?"

Samuel hurriedly replied.

Although Vincent did not say anything, his expression also softened a lot.

Not long after, Nicole came.

Zoe sat beside Laurel and whispered, "Grandma, since there are so many delicacies, can I eat more today?"

"No way."

Laurel's refusal froze Zoe's smiling face.

"Why?"

"You can't digest properly if you eat too much for dinner."

Joseph was puzzled and took a step forward.

Lucas grabbed him and asked, "Where are you going?"

Joseph regained his senses.

"Nothing."

Joseph smiled and didn't say that he had seen Vincent even though he had a lot of doubts.

Daddy had gone. Would Daddy discover their plans tonight?

Joseph was somewhat worried.

Lucas and Zoe had fun for a while before returning home with Joseph.

Samuel and Nicole were chatting with Mrs. Green, and the atmosphere was quite harmonious.

Returning home, Zoe pounced into Samuel's arms.

"Daddy, Lucas was mean to me."

Lucas couldn't believe what he had just heard.

"Come on! Seriously, who's the mean one?"

"You are!"

Zoe stuck out her tongue at Lucas. Her mischievous appearance made everyone laugh.

Joseph asked in a low voice, "Grandma, has Daddy gone out yet?"

"Yes. He said that he had to deal with something in the company, but he didn't say when he would get back. So if you're scared of being alone, you can sleep with Lucas. You haven't been together for a long time, right?"

Mrs. Green's words made Lucas happy.

"Wow! Grandma's the best."

"Of course I am!"

Mrs. Green was overjoyed.

Nicole and Samuel also laughed.

Lucas said sweet words only to Mrs. Green.

"We are going up first."

Then Lucas dragged Joseph away.

Zoe was a little sad.

Nicole couldn't figure it out, so she didn't think about it anymore.

"It will come to light anyway. Don't think too much about it. You look tired and just take a rest. We'll investigate it tomorrow when you're better."

Nicole comforted Samuel.

However, it was not even eight o'clock. How could they sleep?

Samuel held her in his arms and said, "You know what? I've been dreaming about holding you in my arms these days. We may just talk like this, about the child, our future or our past."

"What do you want to say? I'm listening."

Nicole snuggled up to Samuel and was really satisfied at this moment.

She did not know how long she could live. However, she would be satisfied if every day that followed was so quiet and peaceful.

Samuel kissed her hair and said, "You are my gift from the heavens."

"Saying stupid things again."

"Really, I say what I think. Let's go to the Don's tomorrow."

Nicole was surprised.

"To the Don's?"

"Yes!"

Samuel looked at Nicole and said, "Mrs. Don had also been poisoned. This poison was leaked by Ryan. However, Ryan was controlled by Vincent. Now that Swift has escaped as well as Viola, and Swift has been caught by Tim, where is Viola now? I don't know if Ryan is still controlled by Vincent or not. I really want to check it up, but I'm afraid that Vincent will be annoyed with me and think that I don't trust him."

Samuel was conflicted.

If they hadn't fought today, perhaps he could find a reason to see if Ryan was still there tomorrow. But now that things had turned out like this, probably this plan would have to stop.

"At present, we can only go to the Don's to see if we can find any clues. Although Viola is no longer there, there should be traces left behind."

Nicole frowned.

To be honest, she didn't really want to go to the Don's.

It was because of Mrs. Don and those bad memories. But hearing Samuel's words, she knew that it could not be avoided.

"Sure, I'll accompany you tomorrow."

"Do you feel uncomfortable about going to the Don's?"

Samuel looked at Nicole and knew what Nicole was thinking.

Nicole smiled and said, "It's not like that. I just don't want to go. But since it's for the sake of the investigation, then I don't care."

"Thank you."

"Sure."

They talked for a while and both felt a little tired.

Samuel had just recovered, and Nicole was still weak, so they were easily tired.

Seeing Nicole yawning, Samuel hugged her and said, "Time to sleep."

Chapter 494 Had They Run Away from Home

The Greens knew nothing about the runaway of Lucas and Joseph.

Nicole woke up early in the morning, feeling refreshed. The man she loved the most was lying beside her, his breathing the most beautiful piece of music to her.

She stretched out her hand to outline Samuel's eyebrows in a slow fashion. The longer she looked at his face, the more attracted she was by him.

Suddenly, her hand was wrapped in by a large hand whose owner opened his eyes consequently.

No drowsiness could be found in his bright eyes.

"You were awake long ago?"

"How would I have known that you like to peep at me so much if I were not?"

His words made Nicole slightly flushed.

"Who was peeping at you? I'm just looking at you openly, okay?"

"Openly, huh?"

Samuel simply thought she was so enchanting right now.

So, he lowered his head straightforward and gave her a morning kiss.

Failing to dodge his raw kiss, she was made nearly exhausted.

Only after long did they let go of each other.

Nicole could feel his stiff manhood and repressed lust.

She whispered with flushed cheeks, "Actually, if you feel it irresistible, I can help you."

"What?"

He had never thought that she would say such words.

Had his shy little wife suddenly grown mature?

Seeing that he was so surprised, she regretted to have said those words. So, she hurriedly said, "Forget it, I didn't say anything. I'll go to see if the children are awake."

"It's too late. I heard everything."

How could he let he leave this place?

No way!

He would be stupid enough to let such a bonus slip.

However bashful and hesitant she appeared, she succumbed to the temptation at last and lost herself in his soulful kisses.

An hour had passed when they sat up on bed for another time.

Nicole suddenly let out a scream after checking the time.

"Gosh! It's so late!"

She directly pushed Samuel away, and went to put on her clothes and shoes before running downstairs.

A feeling of desertedness swept over him.

'Really?'

'What the big deal to send those two little brats to the kindergarten?'

'It's only a while past seven, totally ok to send them over around eight. What's the rush?'

'Besides, has she forgotten about Wendy?'

However, he said nothing no matter how much he wanted to say.

The vibes still lingered in the air, but his little wife had long since disappeared.

Unbeknownst to her, he just felt he should send those two little brats to a boarding kindergarten instead to prevent them from keeping encroaching on her time.

Nicole directly went to Zoe's room after dressing

"Vincent is back?"

Mrs. Green's expression also changed.

"Let me go downstairs and talk to him. After all, it's my son who took his son away."

Samuel hated it dearly that he couldn't give Lucas a good beating right now.

But Nicole was also a little worried. There had been a fighting between Samuel and Vincent because of Joseph yesterday and now the child had run away from home in just one day. How should this be explained?

They all went downstairs.

Vincent presumably hadn't got much rest all night in that he walked in with bloodshot eyes. He asked as soon as he saw them.

"Where's Joseph? I'm taking him away."

Mrs. Green was immediately infuriated by his words. Without letting Samuel or Nicole say something, she snapped.

"You still want to take Joseph away? The child has already run away from home because of your beating. Who are you going to take away now?"

"What?"

Vincent didn't quite understand.

"What do you mean by 'run away from home'?"

Mrs. Green said angrily, "If you hadn't been so strict with him, how would Joseph run away from home? What's more, Lucas also left with him. Now neither of the two boys is here. You happy? Satisfied? Are you feeling particularly well now?"

"Mom, it has nothing to do with Joseph. It's completely..."

"Shut up!"

Before Samuel could finish his words, she stopped him with a reprimand.

Nicole also swallowed her words at the sight of Mrs. Green's exasperation.

Only then did Vincent realize what had happened.

"How should that brat dare to run away from home? I'll break his legs after I find him."

"I'll break your legs first if anything happens to him because of you!"

Mrs. Green was angry this time, or rather, she was at a loss because of the disappearance of the kids, so she could only vent all her anger on Vincent.

Vincent was stunned for a moment, then he turned around and left.

"Where are you going?"

Mrs. Green couldn't help but ask him.

Vincent replied anxiously, "Where else can I go? Definitely go to look for the kids!"

Currently, he was completely a worried father.

"Right. Look for the kids first!"

Nicole hurriedly went back to her room and changed her clothes. Without washing her face, she directly went out with Samuel.

The rest people of the Green family also went to look for the kids hurriedly.

But they dared not act conspicuously for fear that the enemies of the Green family would know about the kids' runaway and would try to harm them.

Whatever had been planned beforehand should be cancelled now because nothing was more important than looking for Lucas and Joseph.

After Vincent left, the manager did not stay any longer. He quickly went out to arrange for his men.

After everyone left, Joseph whispered, "Lucas, was what I just heard true?"

"I also want to know."

Lucas was totally shocked.

His uncle wanted to kill him!

When he studied and trained with his uncle in the Night Elf Empire, his uncle treated him extremely well and even treated him as his own son. Why did his uncle want to kill him now?

Lucas could not figure out.

Joseph said with fear, "Let's go home now. I can tell that this is my daddy's place. Maybe this shooting club was secretly owned by my daddy. We're in danger. I heard that uncle and mommy have also come out to look for us. As long as we give them a call, can we go back? As long as we return to the Greens' house, perhaps my daddy will not do anything to you."

Lucas did not say anything.

Lucas frowned, as if he hadn't recovered from the previous shock. It seemed that he was thinking of something else.

"Lucas, did you listen to me?"

Joseph hurriedly shook Lucas.

Lucas frowned and said, "We can't call here. We don't know if there is a signal blocker or not. Besides, we don't know where my daddy and mommy are. They may not believe us when we tell them this. Let's get some evidence first."

"Evidence? What evidence?"

Joseph didn't quite understand.

Lucas looked at Joseph with a complicated expression.

"Just follow me."

Lucas didn't say anything.

However, Joseph grasped Lucas' hand and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely not let anyone to hurt you."

Last time, because of Riley, he had lost Lucas. During that time, he wished he could kill himself.

Now, Joseph didn't know why Vincent wanted to kill Lucas, but he didn't want to see anything happen to Lucas.

"Aren't you afraid of your daddy anymore?"

Joseph froze by Lucas' question and whispered, "I'm afraid, but even if I'm afraid, I will protect you. You're my brother."

Hearing Joseph's words, Lucas smiled and said, "Take it easy! I won't die so easily."

The two children talked for a while. When they were about to get down, the door of the office was opened again.

This time, the manager and a coach came in.

Chapter 497 I Hope They Are There

"Where?"

A look of hope flashed across Nicole's face.

Samuel did not say anything and went to the amusement park with Nicole. They directly came to the shooting stall and found the owner.

"Hello. Do you remember me?"

Nicole hurriedly said.

The boss had an impression of Nicole who had won several rounds in a day.

"Oh, lady, I remember you. Are you bringing your son to play again today? I don't want to continue with you."

The boss thought that they were here to challenge him, so he was very nervous.

However, Nicole shook her head and said, "No, no. Actually, I came here today to ask you some things."

"What is it?"

The boss was puzzled.

Looking at the clothes and attire of these two people in front of him, he could tell that they definitely were not ordinary people. However, what were they asking about if they weren't ordinary people?

Seeing that Nicole was a little anxious, Samuel couldn't help but say, "Our son shot here yesterday and performed quite well. Then a coach said that he worked in a shooting club. My wife accidentally lost his business card. We just came to ask you whether you know that coach or not. Can you show us the way? My son is really interested in shooting. We discussed it yesterday and planned to visit the club."

Hearing that Samuel was talking about this matter, the boss heaved a sigh of relief.

"If this is the case, then it's easy. As long as you go there, you won't come here to challenge me again, right?"

"No, no. Actually, my son just came to play yesterday. Do me a favor, please."

Samuel took out his wallet and gave the boss five hundred.

The five hundred was much more valuable than the dolls that Lucas had taken away.

The boss quickly put the money away with a smile and said, "You should be talking about Lionel, right?"

"Yes, yes, yes, it's him."

Nicole had some impression of what that coach's name was.

Hearing their answer, the boss whispered, "Lionel is an excellent coach here. The students he taught are really excellent. They have participated in several competitions and almost all of them have won the prizes. He often comes here to find good candidates. If you want to find him, go along this road. There is a subway station about five hundred meters away. Take the subway and get off at Pampas River Station. The shooting club is opposite the subway station. "

Nicole and Samuel quickly became happy.

"Thank you, boss."

After saying that, they quickly left.

Nicole was somewhat excited.

"Do you think Lucas and Joseph will be there?"

Samuel shook his head slightly, "I don't know. But we have to go over and see. What if they are there? I can't figure out where they can go."

Chapter 498 Stop Right There

Nicole quickly answered the phone.

She thought it was Samuel.

"Samuel, leave right now. Someone has returned and directly entered the club."

As soon as she answered the phone, Nicole said this directly.

When Joseph heard Nicole's voice, he was surprised. Then, he subconsciously asked, "Mommy, is Daddy coming in?"

"Joseph? Are you inside?"

Nicole's heart suddenly jumped into her throat.

"Yes, Lucas and I are both here. We might be trapped, so I want to tell you and Uncle to save us."

Joseph quickly told Nicole about the current situation.

"Where are you? I'll tell Samuel to pick you up."

Now, Nicole didn't have time to blame Joseph and Lucas. It was better to keep the two children safe.

Joseph hurriedly told Nicole the address.

After hanging up the phone, Lucas whispered, "What did Mommy say?"

"Mommy said that Daddy had come in, but she also said that the people of the club were back. They have already come in. What should we do? Should we stay here and wait for Uncle, or should we go out?"

Joseph was a little uncertain.

Lucas heard footsteps outside and hurriedly pulled Joseph to hide under the table.

It was impossible to climb up the vent now.

Joseph's heart pounded.

He hoped no one would come into the office.

On the other hand, Nicole was contacting Samuel. Unfortunately, Samuel's phone had somehow switched on flight mode, so she couldn't even call in.

Nicole was extremely anxious, but she could not enter.

The door to the office opened.

Lucas clenched Joseph's hands tightly. They were somewhat nervous.

A man walked to the desk and tried to open the drawer to look for something.

Joseph was a little scared. He couldn't help but shrink inside, accidentally touching the table.

Shit!

Lucas said secretly, and then he directly winked at Joseph.

The man noticed that there was someone under the table, so he bent down to check.

Right at this moment, Joseph directly punched him in the eye.

"Which little bastard hit me?"

With this shout, Lucas hurriedly rushed out, punched and kicked the man, and even used a towel to cover his mouth.

"Run!"

Lucas tangled the man and shouted to Joseph, who was a little dumbfounded.

"What about you?"

"Don't worry about me. I can manage it. Go now!"

Chapter 499 How Long Could They Protect Him

It was difficult for Samuel to answer.

Vincent's attitude towards Joseph earlier was obvious. If Joseph went back now, according to Vincent's current rigorous standards, it was very likely that he would be punished with corporal punishment.

After all, Samuel had witnessed this child grow up. Thinking about the pain he had received recently, Samuel whispered, "Take Joseph to our villa first. We'll talk about it when we find Lucas."

"Be careful."

Actually, Nicole wanted to go together with Samuel to save her son, but she couldn't leave Joseph alone. Most importantly, the Green family had many people around now, and it was uncertain if Samuel's men were around.

If what Joseph said was true, if the club had something to do with Vincent, then Joseph was not safe here.

Although she was worried about Lucas, she knew that she could not ignore Joseph.

Nicole knew what Samuel meant. They had been together for a long time, so they understood what to do without speaking out.

Seeing that Nicole understood what he meant, Samuel whispered, "Take care of yourself."

"I've already called Finn over just in case anything happens. Don't worry. But since Jacob isn't here, can you do it by yourself?"

Nicole was concerned about Samuel.

However, Samuel smiled and said, "Don't worry about me. As your husband, I can always make it. You and Joseph go back to the villa now and wait for me."

"Be careful."

"I see."

Samuel watched as Nicole left with Joseph.

Joseph said worriedly, "Mommy, can Uncle save Lucas out?"

"Sure!"

Nicole continued to cheer Joseph up, but in fact, she was also cheering herself up.

Lucas woke up not long after he was thrown into the basement.

He looked around and saw that several children had been captured. Most importantly, they were older than him. However, they were all wounded. Some even hid in the corner coldly without saying a word.

It wasn't that they hadn't seen Lucas, but that they were so indifferent that when they saw him, they didn't even step forward to ask who he was.

The children's eyes were filled with sadness and despair.

Lucas didn't know where he was, but he knew that he definitely couldn't just sit here and wait to die.

"Friends, where is this place?"

Lucas sat up and felt a slight pain in his neck.

The other children only glanced at him but did not respond.

Lucas was a little depressed.

"I was captured here. Don't you want to get out of here? Can you tell me where this place is? I'll find a way to inform my daddy and let him save us."

Lucas hoped to seek help.

But the children remained indifferent.

Just as Lucas had no idea what to do, a little girl who was not much older than him came over.

Lucas cried so sadly alone that he no longer had the sense of honor that a favored person usually assumed.

Seeing Lucas like this, the little girl couldn't help but stretch out her hand and gently patted him on the shoulder.

Lucas raised his head slightly and saw the little girl smiling at him. She even took out a piece of melted chocolate from her pocket.

This piece of chocolate seemed to be the treasure of the little girl. She hesitated for a moment before she handed it to Lucas.

This was the first time Lucas knew that a piece of such chocolate was most likely the little girl's all wealth, or even the last thing she had left to save her life.

He didn't know if he should take it.

Actually, he was a little hungry.

Normally, at this point, Grandma would definitely have someone prepare delicious food, allowing him and Zoe to pick and choose among them.

But now he looked at the chocolate and suddenly felt a little guilty.

Compared with the present, his past life was simply a world apart.

When the surrounding children saw the little girl doing this, they all gestured for Lucas to eat the chocolate.

Lucas cried again.

He felt himself particularly weak here.

None of these children could speak, but Lucas was somewhat touched by their expressions and actions.

"I will definitely take you out!"

Lucas whispered.

He didn't know if the children could hear him; he didn't know what his fate would be, but he knew that he didn't want to abandon them.

The dungeon Lucas stayed seemed to have been forgotten. No one would remember this place. Even a coach like Lionel had forgotten that there was such a place.

These children were all picked up from outside, or bought from traffickers. The money they spent was very cheap and these children's aptitudes were not good.

The reason they still left these children was to nurture them into tools for the assassination organization.

These children did not have any human rights here, nor did they have any freedom. They had to receive any kind of training as they were instructed.

They could not speak, and could only passively accept everything.

Lucas was caught by the security guards. Of course, they did not know that Lucas was the person they were looking for. They just thought that he was a naughty child who had entered the manager's office to cause trouble.

As long as the manager didn't lose his papers and didn't know about this thing, they won't be punished.

Therefore, the people who had participated in capturing Lucas reached agreement. No one would say anything about Lucas.

In fact, not many people cared about how many children there were in the dungeon, because some of children here died, and some of them were newly brought in, so no one cared too much about them.

Lucas ate the chocolate in the end.
