Chapter 541 She Had Good Luck

"What is this?"

Nicole was puzzled.

The doctor hesitated for a moment and whispered, "This is a stamina booster I developed. Once consumed, one's stamina will last for a long time before being exhausted. However, this medicine is not perfect. There are some drawbacks which I haven't figured out yet. I know that you don't have enough energy right now, so it's impossible for you to get out of here. But if you take this medicine, you can have enough time to get out of here, right?"

Nicole frowned slightly.

"Why did you bring this medicine with you?"

"I bring it for research. To tell you the truth, this villa has a dungeon. There are some people inside that are used to test medicine for me. That's why I brought it with me."

Hearing what the doctor said, Nicole was a little angry.

"You want a living person to test the medicine?"

She couldn't help but think of Zama.

This family doctor was just as hateful as Zama!

Seeing that Nicole was angry, the doctor hurriedly said, "This is not my idea. It's Chuck who said that the people here are all criminals, the unforgivable ones, so..."

"Aren't criminals human? What right do you have to treat them like this? What are the side effects of this medicine?"

"I really don't know. I've just developed it, so I'm going to test it. However, theoretically speaking, drugs that increase physical strength are all overdrawing life and physical strength. I think it will make people even weaker after the effect wears off."

Hearing what the doctor said, Nicole's brows furrowed.

"Is this your idea? Are you planning to treat me as a rat? How dare you!"

Hearing that, the doctor was so scared that he almost knelt down.

"Mrs. Green, I really don't mean that, but I don't have any other way to get you out of here right now. With your weak health, you can by no means leave this villa. Even if you leave, you won't be able to walk a hundred miles and then you will fall down. No one knows what will happen at that time."

"If I take this medicine, can I reach City A?"

That was the place where Samuel disappeared, the place where Tim had an accident. This was all Nicole wanted to know right now.

The doctor counted the distance and whispered, "Almost all right, but you'll probably be weak when you get there."

"How many bottles do you have?"

"Mrs. Green, don't be foolish! It is dangerous enough to take it once because it will overdraw your stamina. You can't overdraw many times. If there is something wrong with you, Chuck will blame me. Mr. Bates will even take my life."

When the doctor heard Nicole's question, he couldn't help but feel a little worried.

"Mr. Bates? You're Mr. Bates' man?"

"This is all Mr. Bates' men. Mr. Bates heard that Mrs. Green was controlled by Vincent, so he asked Chuck to find you. I don't know why Chuck brought you here, but Mr. Bates probably wanted to protect you."

Hearing that, Nicole sneered.

"Protect me? Invite me here in this way? This is the first time I've heard that someone would knock me out to invite me."

Chapter 542 She's Still Breathing

"Excuse me, ma'am, but can I see your phone?"

Nicole involuntarily stepped forward. Her words immediately made the hotel owner alert.

"Why would you want to see my phone? It's mine! Do you know how much it is? Would you pay for it, if it's broken?"

"OK, I'll pay for it!"

"Even if you would pay for it, I won't give it to you. Do you want to stay? If you want to stay, now check in. If you ask for directions, leave now."

The owner's attitude towards Nicole was obviously not as good as her attitude towards Tim. Moreover, Nicole was so beautiful. The lady disliked her even more.

Nicole didn't mind, instead, she smiled and said, "Beauty, I'm going to stay at your hotel. You don't have a reason to drive the guests out, do you?"

"Pay the money and register here. Let me start by saying whether you stay here, you have to pay the money first."

The lady was somewhat happy when Nicole called her a beauty.

Nicole continued smiling and said, "Alright. I'll pay for ten days first, okay?"

"Ten days? What are you doing here?"

The lady suddenly asked.

This was a small village. There were no tourist attractions and historical sites nearby. According to her dresses, Nicole didn't seem to be a native. Why would she stay here for ten days?

The lady couldn't help but think of Tim who came here not long ago.

'That man was also dressed very well and was generous. Unfortunately...'

Thinking of this, the lady suddenly said, "I just remembered that there are no rooms left. You can visit other hotels. There is an Emperor Hotel about five kilometers south from here. It's not bad. You can go there."

Seeing the lady pushing her out, Nicole thought it was strange.

"Lady, I don't think you have many guests here. Why don't you have an empty room? It's not like I don't give you money. What are you doing?"

"I don't have to explain the reason to you. I just don't want you to stay here. Leave my hotel now!"

The hotel owner suddenly turned against Nicole.

Nicole narrowed her eyes slightly. The moment the lady reached out her hand, Nicole quickly grabbed her wrist and exerted a little strength.

"No! It hurts! Let go of me! Don't provoke me. If you don't let go of me, I'll make it hard for you!"

The lady was fierce. However, Nicole didn't care.

Nicole stretched out her other hand and snatched the phone from the lady, holding it in her hand to observe.

The lady hurriedly shouted.

"Give me back my phone! Or, I'll call the police!"

"Your phone? Are you sure, it's your phone? You don't know the power-on password of your phone?"

Nicole's mocking words made the lady's expression even colder.

"I just forget it."

"Okay! However, this doesn't seem to be your phone. If you keep saying it's yours, it's fine. Let's go to the police station and talk about it. You don't know its power-on password, but I do!"

Chapter 543 Nightmare

'I was screwed!'

Nicole finally thought to herself. She had already fallen uncontrollably.

Nicole did not know what would happen to her, nor did she know what would happen to the little girl. Everything was out of her control.

The doctor caught Nicole the moment she fell.

'This girl was very fierce, but she was also very good-looking.'

The doctor looked through Nicole. In the end, the doctor placed Nicole on the hospital bed beside her while she concentrated on treating the little girl.

Nicole slept soundly this time.

In her sleep, there seemed to be countless people chasing after her. Nicole didn't know where to run. She could only see Samuel waiting for her not far away.

But when she wanted to get closer, Samuel took a few steps back.

"Samuel, don't leave!"

Nicole cried out, tears streaming down her face. She ran faster and chased after Samuel. However, there was still a distance away.

"Where the hell are you? Quickly come back!"

Nicole cried out in pain.

It looked only a few dozen meters between them. However, Nicole felt as if there were countless mountains and rivers. She just cannot get close to him.

Nicole squatted on the ground in pain and cried.

A pair of slender legs fell into her line of sight.

"Why are you crying again? Haven't I told you that you're not allowed to cry anymore? Crying isn't pretty."

A familiar voice rang out. Nicole suddenly raised her head and saw Samuel standing in front of her with a gentle expression. He extended his hand towards her.

"Samuel!"

Nicole suddenly felt wronged.

She suddenly threw herself into Samuel's embrace.

His embrace was still so warm and safe that Nicole didn't want to leave.

"Silly girl."

Samuel gently touched her head and smiled indulgently.

His palms were still so warm and comfortable.

Suddenly, the sound of a sharp knife piercing into her skin came. With a severe pain, Nicole released Samuel in disbelief.

Bright red blood flowed out of her chest. The one who stabbed her was actually Samuel, who had a gentle smile on his face.

"That's who I am. What? You don't like it?"

The doctor smiled, but it looked like a forced one.

"Return my things!"

Nicole took a deep breath and intended to throw caution to the wind. As long as she could control the doctor at the first possible moment, she would have a way to have her return her things.

However, the moment Nicole exerted her strength, she felt a pain in the bone as if she was stabbed by a needle. She couldn't help but groan and collapse onto the sick bed again.

The doctor looked at her coldly and said, "You'd better be obedient. I'm a doctor, and I can save or kill people, if you want to die soon."

After that, she did not say a word and turned around to leave the ward.

Nicole's heart suddenly turned cold.

She could feel being stabbed by needles all over her body.

She didn't know what that doctor had done to her, or, was the pain the result of exhaustion caused by the drug? She didn't know anything, but the only thing she knew was that she was more like a cripple now.

Not only was she a cripple, she was in this remote place, controlled by a doctor who seemed to be somewhat paranoid.

What should she do?

How could she turn the table?

She didn't know how the little girl was doing. Although the doctor said that she had been rescued, Nicole was still a little worried because she didn't see it with her own eyes.

Maybe the doctor lied to her.

She struggled to get up, but the more she struggled, the more painful she felt. In the end, she had no choice but to lie on the bed and pant, and she punched the bed fiercely.

Why did she put herself into such a situation?

Samuel and Tim might be waiting for her to rescue them, she couldn't be trapped here!

Nicole was a little depressed. She had used all of her strength, but she couldn't leave the sick bed. Instead, she was so tired that she was out of breath.

She lay on the bed and looked at the ceiling. She suddenly noticed a camera.

There was a camera in this hospital?

Nicole frowned.

She remained silent and looked straight at the camera. She didn't know if the doctor was watching her from the camera.

Nicole's mind raced.

A seemingly dilapidated hospital actually had cameras in the ward. What did this mean?

It looked like this doctor wasn't simple.

Who was she?

Nicole now knew that she couldn't leave. Rather than struggling, she might as well gather her strength and leave this place while the doctor didn't pay attention.

Thinking of this, Nicole quieted down and felt that her body was empty.

"What condition?"

Nicole's vigilance rose again.

When the doctor saw her like this, she whispered, "Don't be nervous. I won't make things difficult for you. Let me see the person you just called after I cure the little girl."

"What?"

Nicole was quite surprised.

What kind of condition was this?

Or, was this woman asking for something from Lucas?

Nicole didn't know, but just as she was about to refuse, she heard the doctor say, "If you agree, I can tell you where to find your husband and your friends."

"How did you know I was looking for my friend?"

Nicole frowned. She had a hunch that this woman was not simple.

"This is a man's phone. I saw someone take it a few days ago," the doctor said as she looked at the phone Nicole put on the table.

Nicole's heart skipped a beat upon hearing this sentence.

"You saw someone else take it? What did that person look like? Where did he live?"

"Let's see the little girl first. Remember my condition."

After saying that, the doctor pushed the wheelchair over and let Nicole sit on it. Then, she pushed her out of the ward.

The hospital was deserted, and there was not even a single patient. Nicole felt it so desolate.

"Why is there no patient in this hospital? Are you running illegal businesses?"

Nicole wanted to set a trap.

The doctor said coldly, "Local people rarely get sick. Even if they do, they will not be treated by me."

"Why?"

The doctor did not answer Nicole's question.

When they arrived at Karina's room, Karina was still unconscious, but she looked much better.

It had to be acknowledged that the doctor's medical practices were outstanding, and Karina's pale body was under recover.

"Is she alright?"

"I told you, she doesn't have any big problems for now."

After the doctor finished speaking, she walked out, leaving this space for Nicole.

When Nicole arrived in front of Karina, she looked carefully. Three days ago, due to the immersion in the river water, Karina's appearance couldn't be seen clearly. Now, her skin was getting rosy, and she discovered that Karina and Hedy looked indeed somewhat similar.

Chapter 546 I Want Your Life

When Nicole returned to the ward, she saw the doctor standing in front of the window, holding a toy in her hand. She did not know what she was thinking.

That was a child's toy.

Nicole remained silent. She knew that the doctor might have many stories, but she didn't have time to listen to them now.

"I want to leave."

Nicole said lightly.

Without looking back, the doctor whispered, "You can leave as long as you feel better."

"I know my physical condition. Thank you for your concern, but I can't stay here anymore. I want to leave."

Nicole knew that without the permission of the doctor, she couldn't leave. Ordinary and depressed as the hospital looked, Nicole found that there were surveillance cameras everywhere.

If there were a few patients in a hospital, why would there be so many surveillance cameras? Or was there something here that she didn't know?

If it was in the past, Nicole might have the mood to explore, but now she couldn't wait to leave and find Samuel and Tim's whereabouts.

City A was so weird.

The doctor turned around slowly and looked straight at Nicole. "You can leave," she whispered. "That little girl stays."

"No."

"There's no room for discussion. If this little girl is here, you might come back. But if she leaves with you, you won't. I'll give you three days. If you don't show up by then, I'll kill her!"

"What did you say? How could you do this?"

Nicole was instantly enraged.

The doctor said unhurriedly, "I told you that I'm not a good doctor. I can save lives and take lives. But for me, that little girl would have died a long time ago. Now that I save her life, I can take it away. Your body can last for three days. If you don't come back on time, you will be exhausted. And there is no guarantee that I could save you at that time. Since you're not here, the life of the little girl won't matter anymore, right?"

Nicole clenched her hands, seething with anger and saying, "Is that how you see life?"

"I don't know about others, but I want your life. With me, you can't die."

"Why? I didn't make any deal with you or owe you anything."

"You promised me something. Don't you remember? Before it is fulfilled, your life is mine."

Only then did Nicole recall what the doctor had said before agreeing to see the little girl.

Not knowing why the doctor insisted on seeing Lucas, she suddenly found it strange, so much so that she wanted to go back on her word.

"If you change your mind, I will kill that little girl immediately. Anyway, her life is meaningless to me."

The doctor said as she walked out.

"Wait!"

Seeing that she didn't seem to be joking at all, Nicole couldn't help but panic.

She could not let anything happen to Karina. Although that child got something on her mind, she could not leave her alone.

"I promise I'll come back and take her away after three days."

"No, you have to bring the person I want in three days before you take the little girl away."

Chapter 547 Who Is Kemp

It was Josh!

Nicole knew Josh. Josh wasn't famous in the Seapolis City, but he was known to others because he was too close to Tim. To be exact, Josh's family was also from the upper class, but not that prestigious. If it weren't for his relationship with Tim, many people wouldn't have shown respect to his family.

Now that Tim was in trouble and Josh showed up here, could it be that Josh came for Tim?

Just as Nicole wanted to go out and say something to Josh, and even talk to him about Tim, a thought flashed through her mind, telling her to be vigilant.

Something was wrong!

No one knew what happened to Tim. The person probably called her to lure her over. There was no reason for him to call Josh.

Nicole suddenly remembered that the voice of the person who called her and told her that something had happened to Tim sounded more and more like Josh's.

"Sorry, I'll look for you later. I suddenly remembered that something was left in the room. I need to go back."

Nicole smiled faintly, turned around, and went straight into the elevator.

Fiona didn't think a lot. She smiled, "Okay, if you need my service, feel free to contact me. As a local, it's convenient for me to do anything. I understand that everyone is here for the Dungeon and doesn't want others to know their identity. Don't worry. I won't inquire about your privacy."

"I see."

After saying that, Nicole left, yet her mind was filled with doubt.

Dungeon?

The people who came here were all for the Dungeon?

With so many luxury cars, it seemed that this Dungeon was famous.

Thinking of this, she got into the elevator, up to one floor and down again. Before she left just now, she noticed a bathroom at the elevator entrance that could hide people.

After Nicole came down, Josh happened to meet Fiona.

Fiona was very respectful to Josh and smiled, "Mr. Josh, you are here."

"Has a woman called Nicole Bush checked in for the past two days?"

Nicole was astounded at his words.

He was looking for her?

Why?

When Fiona heard the name, she was stunned.

"Why is Mr. Josh also looking for Nicole? Who is she?"

"You shouldn't pry into it. Just do your job. Yes or no?"

"No. I have checked all the guests in the hotel. There is no such name."

"What? Miss Finger doesn't want to show it?"

Fiona's expression changed slightly.

Nicole knew that Fiona had doubts about her after Josh's arrival here. In this case, each woman would suspect Nicole. The best way now was to take out her ID card to show her identity. However, it was this ID card that troubled Nicole.

"No, I don't."

Nicole said indifferently. Seeing that Fiona became embarrassed, Nicole smiled and said, "If Manager Fiona insists, I can show you. I'll go back to my room and get it for you."

"Miss Finger, I'm not doing things for nothing. I'm really sorry. As long as I see your ID card, I'll help you get the pass card to Dungeon. I promise."

Hearing Nicole's words, Fiona's mood became better.

Nicole smiled, then turned around and walked towards her room. However, she felt a little uneasy.

Where could she get Marina's ID card?

Moreover, the Internet became part of everyday life now, so it was easy to know with a single check.

Nicole returned to her room worriedly. She felt the room was stuffy and opened the floor-to-ceiling window. Only then did she realize that the hotel was already filled with bodyguards.

It seemed that Josh and Fiona were all on guard. She knew that she couldn't leave now. Moreover, she still had a three-day agreement with Satan King. Even if she didn't find out the whereabouts of Tim and Samuel, she couldn't ignore Karina.

Nicole frowned.

What could she do?

At this moment, her phone rang.

Nicole looked at her phone. It was from Lucas.

"Lucas, what's wrong?"

Nicole asked calmly.

But Lucas did not say anything, which made Nicole worried.

"Lucas?"

"Mommy, where are you?"

Lucas seemed upset judging by his tone.

Nicole thought that he and Hedy had a quarrel, so she whispered, "I'm not at home. What's wrong? I heard that you were in a bad mood. Did you quarrel with Hedy?"

"Are you in City A?"

Lucas' question made Nicole pause for a moment.

"You're in City A, aren't you? Something happened to Samuel, right?"

Lucas' words made Nicole blush.

"No, I'm not interested in it."

"You can have a look and compare it with Samuel's. I haven't peeked at Samuel's yet."

Nicole froze for a moment.

"If you don't want to be beaten up by your daddy, you'd better not do this."

Nicole didn't know what was in Lucas' mind.

At this moment, Fiona's voice came from outside.

"Miss Finger, hello?"

Nicole paused for a moment. How could she forget this?

"Yes, but I'm busy now. I'll meet you later. I'm on the phone."

Nicole said in the room.

Although Fiona was a little puzzled, there were so many surveillance cameras and bodyguards in the hotel, so Nicole couldn't escape. Then Fiona said, "Alright, Miss Finger, please hurry up. You know, I don't have many pass cards, and it's very strict now. There are three more people who want to get it today, and I won't keep them for someone."

"I see."

Nicole frowned.

There were so many people. Why was the Dungeon so attractive?

Nicole became more curious.

When Lucas heard this, he whispered, "Mommy, are you in trouble?"

"Yes. There are some difficulties."

Nicole thought for a moment. Now, Lucas was probably the only one who could help her. Previously, she was afraid that Lucas would know it, so she didn't tell him anything. But she didn't expect that Lucas still knew it.

Right now, only Lucas could help her.

"Lucas, in order to prevent others from knowing who I am, I used a fake name. Now they want to check my ID card, and I can't prove myself. Do you have any ideas?"

If Lucas was an ordinary child, Nicole might not ask him. But since Lucas was so smart, she wanted to have a try.

Lucas frowned slightly.

"What's Mommy's name?"

"Marina Finger."

"You can tell them that you lost your ID card and let them check it online. Because even if we make it right now, you still can't get it. However, if it's online, I can get you a temporary ID and I'm sure that they won't suspect you. However, it can't take too long, because I have to hack into the security system of the police. Did you tell them the place you come from?"

Lucas' words made Nicole somewhat calm.

"No. As long as it's not the Seapolis City."

Chapter 550 Killing Someone Here Is Not Good

"Lucas!"

Nicole was very worried, but there was no news of Lucas.

Could something have happened to Lucas?

Nicole was so anxious that she wished she could have a pair of wings and fly back to Lucas.

Just as Nicole was thinking about what to do, there came Lucas' phone call.

"Mommy."

"Are you OK? Did something happen?"

Nicole was so nervous that she felt her heart was almost in her throat.

She could no longer withstand any more shocks, especially when it had something to do with the person closest to her.

Lucas shook his head and said, "No, there's nothing wrong with me. However, I was tracked just now and was almost found, so I had no choice but to cut off the signal."

Hearing this, Nicole heaved a sigh of relief. However, she was still worried, "Is it really alright?"

"It's really fine, Mommy. But, Uncle Jacob's signal is probably blocked. I can't find him."

"It doesn't matter. We know about the location. Leave the rest to Mommy. Don't take any risks."

Nicole was scared in a cold sweat.

She even regretted getting Lucas into this.

No matter what, he was still a child. How could she let a child take risks with her?

Nicole felt that she was very useless.

"Mommy, don't worry. I'm really fine. It's OK. Although the signal is blocked, I can enter in some other way."

"No! Never!"

Nicole directly refused.

"Lucas, listen to Mommy. You've done well. Leave the rest to Mommy. Really, Mommy can do it myself."

Lucas could feel Nicole's anxiety. He could even feel Nicole's concern and worry for him.

"Mommy, I promise you, but if there's anything that needs me, you must tell me. Samuel has already had an accident. I don't want Mommy to have an accident too. Otherwise, Zoe and I will really be orphans."

Lucas cried as he said this.
