Don't Try to Escape, My Wife!

Chapter 631 Better Miss Than Meet

The lady did not notice Nicole's expression at all. She was busy telling her husband through the phone that she had earned 10,000 today.

After Nicole heard what she said, she quickly opened the door of the ladies' room, only to see the figure of a person.

She did not see that person clearly. However, Samuel felt rather nervous, as if he had done something bad.

Nicole looked around and went back to the ladies' room. Unfortunately, the lady who had talked to her had already gone.

Nicole felt a little strange and didn't have the nerve to buy the toys anymore. She quickly walked out of the ladies' room and went straight back to the Kent's.

Along the way, she watched carefully to see if there was a car following her.

Samuel realized that Nicole was simply too cautious. Perhaps she had already noticed him.

He changed several routes along the way. Fortunately, he put a tracker in Nicole's car when she was upstairs. Otherwise, he really wouldn't be able to catch up with her.

Seeing Nicole arrive at the Kent's safely, Samuel felt relieved.

After getting out of the car, Nicole subconsciously looked back. She did not find anyone suspicious. However, she couldn't get rid of the strange feeling of being followed. Accidentally, she saw an unfamiliar car parked somewhere. The lights in the car were turned off. She could not see what was inside, but felt someone watching her through the darkness.

Nicole quickly ran to the front of that car. Samuel suddenly ducked under the seat. His heart was beating hard.

'Has she found me?' he thought.

He held his breath and looked out the window at Nicole with mixed feelings.

Nicole stared at the car for a long time. She frowned, memorized the license plate number, and then returned to the Kent's step by step.

Samuel let out a sigh of relief after Nicole entered the house. His back was drenched in cold sweat. Knowing that he might have been discovered, Samuel couldn't help but smile bitterly. What Nicole would think of this remained a mystery.

He knew that leaving was the best way to get himself under cover now, but he hated to part with her. More than a month of sleeplessness frightened him to be alone. Simply being together with Nicole, even with a gate dividing them, was enough.

When Nicole returned, she happened to meet Booth looking for her.

"Nicole, where were you?"

Nicole smiled and gestured, "Out for a walk."

"I was so worried. I thought you were kidnapped, and almost sent someone to look for you."

"How could it be?"

Nicole was really touched that Booth cared about her so much.

"Where's Olivia?"

Nicole did not see Olivia. She was afraid that Olivia had already gone out to look for her, so she hurriedly gestured to Booth.

Booth smiled and said, "Her boyfriend called. It seems that they are having problems, and she's shouting to him through the phone in the room right now."

Nicole froze slightly.

Yeah.

Jacob was Samuel's assistant. 'Will Samuel find me through Olivia?' Nicole said to herself.

Chapter 632 How Could She Fall Asleep

"Nicole, what's wrong? Are you not feeling well?"

Olivia quickly ran to Nicole and touched her forehead.

Her temperature was OK, but Nicole seemed to be extremely cold and was trembling.

"Nicole, what's wrong?"

"It hurts!"

Nicole wanted to say something and couldn't utter a word.

It hurt!

It hurt!

She felt as if her heart had been torn apart, and the pain was unbearable.

She was like a person who had her hands and feet tied up. She could not move, but it was so painful that she almost suffocated.

What should she do?

Who was gonna save her?

Olivia's eyes instantly became moist.

She knew best how much Nicole had paid for her relationship with Samuel. Now that she suffered like this, Olivia hated Samuel terribly.

"I'm here! I'm hugging you."

Olivia hurriedly went to bed and hugged Nicole, but Nicole was still trembling.

When Booth saw this outside the door, he was filled with heartache.

He silently turned around and walked out.

"Find out who owns this license plate."

Booth sent out the license plate of the car Samuel drove.

At that time, Samuel was not in the car, leaving to buy cigarettes. When he came back, he saw Nicole and the others in front of the car. Booth was smashing the car. Samuel knew that he had been discovered.

He watched Nicole turn around and leave, and her cold expression was like a sharp knife piercing into Samuel's heart.

When he saw Olivia call someone, he knew that he might be discovered.

After Olivia finished calling, Samuel quickly called Jacob.

"Who is the owner of this car?"

"TY Group's General Manager Timony."

Hearing this, Samuel breathed a sigh of relief.

"Tell Timony, if they ask him, just say that he was curious about the female translator for the company, so he followed her."

"What?"

Jacob couldn't understand Samuel.

"Follow? Mr. Green, you..."

"Yes, I've been following Nicole. Is there a problem?"

Samuel asked in response, and there was still a faint trace of anger.

Jacob hurriedly said, "No, no problem. I'll do it immediately. However, Mr. Green, Olivia seems to have noticed that you are in Land City and wants to break up with me. If you don't want to have direct contact with your wife, you'd better not go out."

Samuel felt

Chapter 633 Alimony

Something happened to Lucas?

Nicole got worried.

After leaving the Green family, she had not contacted the children. She was afraid that the children would be in a bad mood. Now that something had happened to Lucas, Nicole was extremely nervous.

Jacob glanced at Nicole and turned on the speakerphone.

"What happened?"

"Lucas was sent to another base for training by Mrs. Green. But he heard that something had happened to his mother and left alone. We've searched for Lucas for more than a month. Not long ago, we found him, but his leg was broken."

Hearing this, Nicole's face instantly turned a lot paler.

Lucas' leg was broken?

What was going on?

She grabbed the phone and anxiously asked, "Where is Lucas? How is he?"

It wasn't until she finished that she realized that she couldn't speak.

When Jacob saw this, he felt somewhat sorry for her.

Nicole, however, was stunned.

She couldn't speak!

She couldn't even care about her son now. What else could she do?

What was the use of having a mother like her for Lucas?

Nicole pushed the phone to Jacob dejectedly. She wanted to leave, but Jacob grabbed her arm directly.

"Jacob, let go! The Greens have hurt Nicole deeply. What else do you want? She's already mute. Do you want to see her dead body?"

Olivia directly stepped forward and pulled Jacob away, protecting Nicole behind her.

What happened just now really broke her heart.

Jacob looked at Nicole and whispered, "Mrs. Green, don't you think Lucas needs your help and care the most now? He was sent out by Laurel on an excuse of finding medicine for you, but he accidentally heard that something had happened to you halfway. He shook off all the bodyguards and came to look for you, but he had an accident. Don't you think you should stay by his side? Lucas is a sensible and undemanding child, isn't he? But that doesn't mean he doesn't need you! I know, you have some complaints against Mr. Green because of his mother. And you may not want to face Mr. Green and the Green Family because of Mrs. Don's death, but no matter what, Lucas is innocent, right? Since you care Joseph, why can't you show concern for Lucas?"

Nicole's tears instantly filled her eyes.

How could she not miss her own children? But now, how could she face her children like this? And what if Lucas saw her like this?

Nicole did not know, nor did she dare to think about it.

When his subordinate heard that Jacob was talking to Nicole, they didn't dare to interrupt or hang up the phone.

Seeing that Nicole had no intention of leaving, Jacob said to his subordinate, "What happened to Lucas' leg?"

Only then did his subordinate say, "Lucas came back in a hurry. When he crossed the road, he did not see the car and was hit by it. The driver saw that Lucas was just a child, so he immediately escaped. Some passers-by saw him, called an ambulance and sent Lucas to the hospital for emergency treatment. However, Lucas had refused to contact his family. The hospital couldn't send him away. After all, he was a patient who broke the leg. It had only been more than a month and Lucas' leg plaster hadn't been removed yet. We wasted a lot of effort to find Lucas."

Nicole was unable to accept the news and was stunned for a moment. It was such a great shock for Nicole that she cannot think straight.

Olivia had never asked Nicole what happened from beginning to end, so she did not understand Jacob's words.

"Nicole, what does he mean?"

Olivia looked at Nicole, but Nicole make a fist tightly, her fingernails sticking into her flesh without her knowing it.

Nicole took a step forward and grabbed Jacob by the collar. She wanted to question him, shout, and get justice. However, she opened her mouth and could only stare at Jacob, unable to spit out a single word.

She was in such a poor state now because of Laurel. Originally, Nicole thought that the Don family owed the Green family a life, so she endured it. After losing her grandmother, she cried bitterly and blamed herself, but she did not hate the Green family, but now she did!

Nicole hated Laurel, the Green family, and herself even more!

Seeing Nicole's excited expression, Jacob guessed what Nicole was thinking, but he really didn't know what to say.

He sighed and said, "Mrs. Green is dead. Mr. Green came back and knew what happened to you. Mr. Green let Mrs. Green experience all the pain you suffered. Then, he planned to send Mrs. Green to cemetery of the Green family as punishment. The car exploded halfway and Mrs. Green was dead. Perhaps this was her retribution. I know you might find it unfair. Compared to what Mrs. Green did to you and the Don family, her death can't relieve you. But Nicole, things have already turned out like this. Can't you really forgive Mr. Green? He had been blaming himself for more than a month. He wished he could turn back time and make it impossible for anything to happen. You..."

Nicole pushed Jacob away.

Nicole grabbed her collar and shouted. She used all her strength to shout. Her voice was hoarse and her face was red. She was going all out to shout. It hurt Jacob and everyone's hearts.

"Nicole, don't do this!"

Olivia stepped forward and hugged Nicole.

However, Nicole didn't seem to hear it and continued to shout silently.

Olivia angrily threw a tantrum at Jacob.

"Get lost! Can't you and Samuel leave her alone? What else do you want to do? Do you believe I would set fire to your place?"

Jacob knew that Olivia could really do it.

He sighed and said, "Nicole, I know you are sad. I also know that these things are too cruel for you. If you really want to break up with the Green family and Mr. Green, then you should sign the contract and accept the alimony. Mr. Green will agree to whatever conditions you want. By the way, Mr. Green tore that divorce agreement apart. So far, you are still husband and wife. "

When Nicole heard these, she finally calmed down, but a trace of pain flashed across her eyes.

Husband and wife?

Was there a couple like them in this world?

Marriage was said to be the best ending of love. Why can't she see anything good?

Perhaps it was really because she had no fate with Samuel in this lifetime.

The more Nicole knew the truth, the sadder she was.

She could not forgive Laurel, nor could she step into the Green family!

It was even more impossible to live with Samuel without hatred.

They really couldn't continue the marriage anymore.

She looked at Jacob and

"Be careful!"
The bodyguard beside her hurriedly stepped forward to stop it.
However, Nicole did not dodge. She watched as the vase smashed towards her and reached out to grab it as it approached her face.
"I said I don't need you here!"
Lucas did not look at that direction. He thought that it was still a bodyguard of the Green family, so he instantly lost his temper.
He wanted to find Mommy, but because of the car accident, he was lying in bed and couldn't move. It was terrible.
Something happened to Mommy, but Samuel didn't protect Mommy properly. He didn't even want to see Samuel right now.
Lucas' manic state made Nicole feel a little sad.
She had never seen Lucas like this since he was a baby.
Why did such a calm and wise boy become such an irritable little boy?
Nicole quickly walked forward and hugged him tightly.
"Let go of me! No!"
Lucas struggled, but suddenly calmed down.
He allowed Nicole to hug him motionlessly, then turned his head gently and looked at Nicole. His eyes couldn't help but turn red.
"Mommy!"
Lucas pounced into her arms.
The warm liquid penetrated through Nicole's shirt and almost burned her skin.

Her heart hurt.

Originally, Nicole thought that Lucas would receive the best care if he stayed in the Green family. After all, he was the successor appointed by Laurel, but she never thought that this would happen.

'If I had known earlier, if...'

Nicole suddenly stopped.

How could there be so many ifs in the world?

She hugged Lucas tightly. She wanted to comfort him but she can't.

Seeing that Nicole had not spoken, Lucas thought that Nicole was angry with him. He hurriedly whispered, "Mommy, it's not that I'm bad. I'm sorry. I hurt myself. Even if I have a plaster cast, it doesn't hurt. Really, it doesn't hurt at all."

Nicole felt tortured by fear and anxiety.

How could it not hurt as the injury was so serious?

Lucas was just comforting her!

Moreover, how did it feel to be alone in a strange place for a month?

He was the young master of the Green family, with powerful daddy and mommy, but he was trapped in the hospital like an orphan.

What did Lucas think at that time?

Nicole's eyes were wet.

She shook her head and felt that she should apologize to Lucas, but she could not speak it out.

"I don't want it!"

Nicole gestured, not caring whether Samuel could understand or not. She turned around and left after making herself clear.

But Samuel understood.

He knew that Nicole would never take a fancy to his money, but he really didn't know what to give her. He seemed to have nothing but money.

"Nicole!"

Samuel subconsciously wanted to chase after her, but his head hurt violently and he fell to his knees on the corridor.

He held his head and felt like being stabbed by a needle. Watching Nicole walk further and further away, he felt his heart ached more violently than his head.

"Mr. Green! Are you okay?"

The bodyguard stepped forward, but Samuel could not hold back his headache anymore.

He smashed his head against the wall. The pain was like a nightmare that occurred more and more frequently.

However, that was good for him.

It was good that Nicole divorced him. At least she wouldn't know what he was like now. At least when he died, she wouldn't be so sad.

Samuel comforted himself like this, but his heart was so painful that he almost convulsed.

Seeing that Samuel was so unwell, the bodyguard went to find a doctor.

Nicole did not dare to turn back, nor did she allow herself to do so. Since she had decided to divorce, she shouldn't get involved.

She saw neither Samuel's excruciating look nor the scene of him smashing his head against the wall.

Nicole walked out of the hospital but met a woman at the entrance.

It was Julissa from JH Mall, the shopping assistant.

When she saw Nicole come out, she greeted her and then knelt down in front of Nicole.

"Madam, I was ignorant and I spoke improperly. I judged people by their looks. Please, don't fire me. I have old parents to support and kids to raise. I can't lose this job. Please."

As she spoke, Julissa kowtowed to Nicole in public.

Nicole was stunned.

What was going on?

"Get up!"

But she realized that she was mute.

She was always unable to face the fact that she was mute. Every time she was anxious, she would subconsciously cry out. However, after she tried, she would sadly discover that no one else could hear her.

There were more and more people gathering and gossiping.

Chapter 637 She Suddenly Feel So Aggrieved

"Samuel, let me out!"

Although Nicole couldn't make a sound, she still knocked on the window and shouted.

Samuel understood her lip language and whispered, "Stay here. I'll deal with it."

Deal with what?

Nicole didn't think that what happened just now needed to be dealt with.

Julissa's true nature was now known by the spectators. Everyone in the crowd was afraid that Samuel would upload the video and would not do anything. This matter was over just like that.

Nicole didn't know what Samuel had to deal with.

She didn't want to stay here, she didn't want to stay under Samuel's shelter. Although she was a little embarrassed just now, she had called the police and didn't need Samuel's help.

However, Samuel did not listen to her but turned around and left.

Turning a corner at the parking lot, Samuel could not hold on any longer.

He suddenly knelt on the ground, panting heavily.

His head was about to explode.

Samuel covered his head tightly and punched it, as if this was the only way to alleviate his pain.

Nicole had given him the contact information of the hypnotic master Morgan, but he didn't want to ask for help.

He made Nicole suffer such a great grievance, and now it was his turn to get punished.

Samuel curled up.

He was afraid that Nicole would see him being like this, so he locked her in the car.

He also knew that Nicole didn't want his help and didn't even want to have any connection with him, but when he heard that something had happened to Nicole, he couldn't help protecting her.

After all, she was the apple of his eye.

Samuel almost fainted from the pain.

This headache was getting worse and worse. It was even worse than killing him. However, it was precisely because of this that it constantly reminded him of how he lost his wife.

When Julissa followed him, she happened to see Samuel curled up on the ground, as if he was in great pain.

Her eyebrows were furrowed, and a trace of maliciousness flashed through her eyes. She took out her phone and approached Samuel quietly.

With much effort, Julissa cleaned up her face. After approaching Samuel, she hugged Samuel's neck and kissed him on the face. At the same time, she pressed the shutter with her right hand and photographed the scene.

Samuel's head hurt so much that he didn't pay attention to his surroundings. By the time he realized it, he had been plotted against by Julissa.

He suddenly raised his head, and his bloodshot eyes frightened Julissa to the point that she almost retreated. However, seeing Samuel in agony, she mustered her courage.

"I can see that you and that woman know each other. I don't want to lose the job. As long as you persuade that woman out of firing me and pursuing the matter, I'll delete the photo. Otherwise, I'll send it to her and tell her that you and I are having an affair. At that time, you won't be able to explain no matter how eloquent you are. You're a couple, right? The way you look at each other is unique."

Julissa held her phone proudly in front of Samuel.

A sick man was not something she cared about.

"Nicole!"

Samuel stood up and ran over.

A car stopped in front of Nicole, and Booth hugged her tightly.

"Are you blind?"

The driver broke out in a cold sweat, and then he became angry.

Booth glared at the driver and said, "Fortunately, you're not blind. Scram!"

The driver noticed that Booth looked angry, and Nicole was shocked. So he gunned the car and ran away hurriedly.

Samuel saw them when he arrived.

Nicole was in Booth's arms, which made Samuel jealous.

Just as he was about to pull Nicole away, he got a headache, and then he stopped.

He saw Booth hug Nicole and clenched his hands tightly. Compared to headache, Samuel felt more distressed now.

Was he going to lose Nicole?

No!

Even if he agreed to the divorce, he never wanted to give up on Nicole.

Samuel finally knew himself.

He agreed to give Nicole freedom and get a divorce. But all of these were an excuse. He wanted to chase after Nicole again.

Seeing Booth beside Nicole, Samuel felt more distressed.

That was his wife. That was his woman!

No one could take Nicole away from him!

But before that, he needed to do something.

Samuel turned around and left with emotion in his gaze.

Nicole was dumbfounded.

She did not know why she was like this just now. After being kissed by Samuel forcefully, she wasn't not that angry with him. She was angrier to herself for she couldn't control herself.

Just now, she almost fell in love with him again, indulging in Samuel's kiss.

But she couldn't.

She was so lost that she didn't see the car in front of her. She almost died when she fled in a panic. If Booth wasn't there, she didn't know what she would suffer.

Chapter 639 Let Him Be Jealous

"Joseph?"

Nicole searched everywhere anxiously.

When Olivia saw Nicole go downstairs anxiously, she couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong?"

"Joseph is gone."

Nicole quickly signed.

Olivia stopped her and said, "Joseph should still be in the room. I've been in the living room all the time, and I haven't seen him. Maybe he's hiding somewhere. Let's look for him together."

Nicole looked at Olivia and nodded.

They went back to the room and there was no trace of Joseph.

Suddenly, Olivia heard a voice in the wardrobe. She grabbed Nicole and pointed at the wardrobe.

Nicole walked over and opened the wardrobe. She saw Joseph lying in the wardrobe looking for something.

"Joseph, what are you looking for?"

Olivia said.

However, Joseph ignored her.

Seeing Joseph, Nicole became sad. She wanted to pull Joseph out, but Joseph was still rummaging around.

Nicole could only let Joseph search.

When Olivia saw this, she sighed and said, "It's not good for Joseph to continue like this. Nicole, you have to send him to sanatorium for treatment."

Originally, Nicole was not capable to live outside. Her salary was just enough for her and Joseph. Now that Samuel had given her JH Mall, she felt that Olivia's suggestion was right.

Joseph was still young, and she can't delay anymore.

Nicole looked at Joseph and said in sign language, "I will pay attention to it in the next few days."

Seeing that Nicole agreed to her, Olivia was a little surprised. After all, Nicole cared Joseph so much that it was normal for her to be reluctant to let him leave her.

She took out her phone and pointed at a sanatorium. "This one is nice. I checked it and went there with Booth. The environment and service are good," she said.

Seeing that Olivia had already checked the place, Nicole couldn't help but think of her pride.

If not for her pride, perhaps Olivia would have sent her money and asked her to take Joseph to see a doctor from the beginning.

Although the doctor said that Joseph needed the company of his relatives, he also said that they were not professional.

Nicole looked at Olivia and said in sign language, "Thank you, Olivia. Please ask the staff if they can add two more rooms. I want to accompany Joseph with Lucas. Joseph can't be quarantined. He is already like this, and I don't want it to get worse."

"Alright, I'll ask them."

Olivia took her phone and walked away.

Joseph finally found what he wanted and laughed happily.

Only then did Nicole see that it was the tablet that Lucas had designed for Joseph.

you see that Samuel had put on his angry face?"

Nicole paused for a moment when hearing this.

She looked at Lucas and found that Joseph was also looking at her. He looked sympathetic about Booth.

So, both Lucas and Joseph could tell that Booth would definitely be beaten up today?

And they didn't stop him!

Nicole knew Lucas very well and she understood why he didn't help Booth. But Joseph lived with Booth for more than a month. Although he was a little autistic, Nicole thought that he could still feel the outside world. Why did he just let Booth, who didn't realize the seriousness of the matter, provoke Samuel?

Nicole looked at them helplessly. It was too late to call Olivia now. She could only make a gesture to Lucas that she was gonna leave for a while.

Lucas said, "Mommy, the more you care about Uncle Booth, the angrier Samuel will be, and the more likely Uncle Booth will get beaten up. Can't you see? Samuel is jealous!"

Jealous?

Nicole was stunned.

She sighed when she recalled what had happened just now.

Did Samuel really think that she and Booth had an affair?

God. She was really speechless.

Booth was three years younger than her.

Lucas seemed to sense what Nicole was thinking and said unhurriedly, "To marry a woman who is three years older than oneself will bring him goof fortune. Age is not a problem."

Nicole choked again.

Who did this kid learn from?

Why did he know so much?

She glared fiercely at Lucas and thought for a moment. Then she quickly ran towards the backyard.

Lucas looked at Joseph and smiled mischievously, "Joseph, guess which one of them will fall first, Uncle Booth or Samuel?"

"Uncle Booth."

Joseph subconsciously replied.

"I think so. How dare he provoke Samuel? I didn't know where he's borrowed the courage from?"

Lucas shook his head, but suddenly, he was dumbfounded.

He turned around and looked at Joseph. "Joseph, who did you say would fall first?"

Joseph smiled and kept his mouth shut.

"Hey, don't be silent. Didn't you just say that? Who is it? Say it."

Lucas was extremely excited.

Didn't Mommy say that Joseph had autism?

And he usually didn't say anything?

Did he just hear an auditory hallucination?

Lucas grabbed Joseph's hand tightly, which made Joseph feel a little painful.
