Chapter 801 Who Started This Rumor?

"Have they had their eyes on us?"

Nicole asked as she ate.

Samuel's eyes turned cold.

"Enjoy your food. I'll take care of it."

After they finished speaking, a few people surrounded them.

One of the burly men stepped on the stool and said fiercely while resting his hands on the wrist, "You're not from around here, are you? Do you know who runs this place?"

Such a classic line made Nicole laugh involuntarily.

"How dare you laugh? Give us a few million today, or you have to stay!"

Samuel's expression immediately changed.

"Say that again?"

"I will! And I will even touch her. So what?"

As he spoke, the man indecently reached out his hand towards Nicole, wanting to touch her face.

Samuel put on a gloomy face and quickly grabbed the man's arm and twisted it. A loud cracking sound was heard. The man immediately began to howl.

"My arm!"

Samuel asked with a serious face, "Who asked you to be here?"

"I don't know what you're talking about. Quickly let go of me, or I'll make you suffer!"

Samuel directly kicked him away.

Nicole finished her meal gracefully. Looking at the scene in front of her, she sighed and shook her head.

"I really feel sorry for you. You come to block us without knowing our background. Do you want to die?"

When the other men saw how powerful Samuel was, they immediately felt a little timid and started to retreat one by one.

"Hey, don't leave!"

The man who was kicked was wailing on the ground. Seeing his men quickly run away, he couldn't help but shout.

Samuel didn't bother to pay attention to them. Seeing that Nicole had finished, he asked softly, "Are you full?"

"Yes, let's go."

Nicole stood up. Samuel helped her to the front of the car, only to find that the tire had been punctured. Samuel frowned.

However, Nicole stopped him and said, "Forget it. You didn't even have time to eat before. Hurry up."

As she spoke, she handed the food that she had packed to Samuel.

"I have no appetite," Samuel said in a low voice. "I'll go to the nearby 4S store to buy another car later."

"There's no need to buy it. You'll get a puncture. Don't you see? These people are deliberately trying to stop us from going to the Miller's house. Although we don't know who they are, they will probably keep blocking us."

After hearing what Nicole said, Samuel paused for a moment. Then he said in a low voice, "Then are we still going?"

"Yes. But we don't have to drive. We can take a taxi or take a bus. Isn't it a new experience for you?"

Seeing Nicole's mischievous expression, Samuel was cheered up.

"Whatever you say."

Samuel had the food that Nicole packed for him. Even if it was ordinary pasta, he found it very delicious.

After the meal, they rested for a while. Then, leaving behind the car, they hitched a ride to the Miller's.

The car was owned by a young couple. Seeing how close Nicole and Samuel were, the girl said enviously, "Only after a woman gets pregnant will her husband treat her like this, right?"

Nicole looked at Samuel and said with a smile, "He has always been like this. This is our second child."

Afterwards, Nicole returned to China and somehow hooked Samuel. She abandoned my uncle. She even made my family bankrupted by joining forces with Samuel. This woman has been blacklisted by the Brooks. Grandma has sent us Nicole's photo. I know her even if she turns into ashes. Yesterday, I went to Allen's house. Allen is instructing someone to stop her from coming to Shore City. I feel that Allen still has feelings for her. So, get them out of the car somewhere up ahead. Zac hesitated for a moment, which immediately made Samuel anxious.

"What? Can't you tell me?"

"No, but I don't know if it's accurate or not. I just feel that they are very similar."

What Zac said was confusing.

"What do you mean? Be more specific."

Zac hurriedly coughed and said, "Mr. Green, someone has seen her in the Miller's. But I'm not sure."

"Who are you talking about?"

Nicole instantly asked, and her brows were tightly knitted together.

Samuel narrowed his eyes.

When Zac heard Nicole's anxious voice, he hurriedly said, "I mean Laurel. However, I only saw her once. I've never seen her again. But Laurel died a long time ago. Does she have a twin sister?"

Samuel and Nicole instantly exchanged glances.

"She has no twin sister. It's her."

Samuel remembered that Laurel's body had not been found. Some people said that it exploded with the car, but there was no reasonable explanation for why the car exploded at that time. It seemed that this was a scheme that Laurel had used to escape.

Perhaps she had expected that after treating Nicole like that, Samuel would not let her off, so she left a path for herself.

Nicole's face darkened.

Laurel hounded Mrs. Don to death. Nicole almost became a mute for the rest of her life, and Joseph almost couldn't get out of her autism.

Laurel had done so many poisonous things, yet she was still alive! She might even hide behind the scenes and manipulate everything that was happening to them!

Thinking of this, Nicole was so exasperated that she felt pain in her chest.

If Laurel died in that explosion, Nicole wouldn't hold any grudges. Since Laurel was still alive, then Nicole would not let her go!

Samuel knew what Nicole was thinking. He held her hand tightly and said, "Don't worry, I'm here."

"I want to do it myself."

Nicole said coldly. Then, she asked Zac, "When did Laurel appear in the Miller's?"

"About a month ago. No one has seen her since then. Coincidentally, after that person met Laurel, Adela fell ill for no reason. Later, the Millers asked Morgan to treat her. Adela did not manage to survive and Morgan disappeared."

Hearing Zac's statement, Nicole and Samuel were shocked.

More than a month ago, Laurel faked her death. Adela was sick the moment Laurel returned to the Millers. Was there anything behind it?

Laurence had said that Adela's death was more than that. Was it the reason?

Besides, how could Allen have anything to do with the Miller family?

"Who are you?"

The doorman finally noticed them and hurriedly went forward to ask.

Nicole smiled faintly. Before she could say anything, she heard the other party immediately say respectfully, "Ms. Miller, you are alright now? May I ask who he is?"

Samuel's expression immediately went gloomy.

"Are you blind? Take a good look. Is she your 'Ms. Miller'?"

The doorman examined Nicole, and then said, "Ms. Miller, you seem to have gained some weight."

"Look closely!"

Samuel got angrier and angrier.

Nicole hurriedly pulled him back.

"It's useless. They won't understand. Back then, just like them, when I saw Adela, it was like looking in a mirror. I think this is probably the main purpose of Allen's plastic surgery on me so as to make me look like Adela. Perhaps someone has expected that one day I will become Adela's substitute."

Nicole said to Samuel in a voice that only they could hear.

Samuel held Nicole's hand tightly and said in a low voice, "No matter what, you are yourself. You will not be a substitute for anyone. I will definitely not allow it to happen!"

"I believe you, but this matter is probably beyond our control."

As they spoke, a couple had already walked out. When they saw Nicole and Samuel, they immediately burst into tears.

"Adela, Adela, here you are."

The woman took a step forward and hugged Nicole tightly.

When Samuel wanted to push away the woman, he saw a flash not far away, and a lot of reporters immediately rushed out.

"Ms. Miller, are you well?"

"Ms. Miller, I heard that you're getting engaged with Allen, the president of the Brook Group. Is that true?"

"Ms. Miller, when is your wedding day?"

As Nicole was bombarded with questions, she and Samuel were separated.

Samuel's eyes suddenly turned cold. He wanted to rush over and pull Nicole over, but he saw Nicole shaking her head at him.

The other party wanted Nicole to pretend to be Adela. If Nicole didn't cooperate, how could the play continue?

Samuel was very worried about Nicole, but Nicole was a knowledgeable person and would definitely not let herself suffer a loss. Moreover, he had made some arrangements outside. Seeing Nicole behaved in this way, under the push of the crowd, Samuel left the crowd outside the Miller's secretly.

Nicole wanted to say that she was not afraid of her. But thinking of her baby and Laurel's viciousness and cruelty, she hurriedly said, "I'll kneel."

After that, she slowly knelt down.

A wise man knew when to retreat. Although Nicole had Samuel's help, she still had to rely on herself when she came inside.

Thinking of this, Nicole knelt down unwillingly to Laurel.

Seeing Nicole admit being defeated, Laurel smiled more triumphantly.

"You should have done it earlier. I advise you to listen to me so as not to suffer from the pain of your flesh."

"Well, you want me to pretend to be Adela and marry Allen, right? I really want to ask why. Adela is one of your family. To ask her to marry Allen is beyond reproach. But have you forgotten I am your daughter-in-law, and your grandson's mother? Don't you think it's against ethics if you ask me to marry Allen? "

Hearing it, Laurel laughed loudly.

"Ethics? Are you my daughter-in-law? I don't have any children. Zama gave birth to children for the Green family, and I had thought I could handle these two children. If not, do you think I would be willing to allow such a housekeeper to do it and let the servant's children be my sons? Are they worthy of it?"

Nicole narrowed her eyes slightly at her words.

"Don't you like Vincent a lot?"

"That's because Vincent listened to me! If Samuel were as obedient as Vincent, I might treat him well now. Unfortunately, for an outsider like you, he threw me into the cemetery of the Green family and left me alone! Samuel was disrespectful to me, so I might as well kill him!"

"Isn't that because you are cruel and tyrannical?"

Nicole felt that Laurel's outlook on life and values as well as her worldview were wrong.

Laurel, instead, said nonchalantly, "It's none of your business. Think about yourself. I hear that during your five years in the Brook family, Mrs. Brook didn't like you. Although you will marry into that family as a Miller, I think Mrs. Brook can tell it. I need to tell you if Mrs. Brook knows that you are fake, I will ruin the Green family."

"Aren't you too confident? Do you think you can destroy the Green family by yourself?"

Nicole felt that this was simply a fantasy.

Laurel sneered, "You may not know how powerful my family is. I'm not afraid to tell you the truth. I married Samuel's father back then because of my family's decision. It was also my family's intention to let Samuel join the army. The Miller family may be unknown to you. But as long as I want, the entire world will change because of the Miller family. Do you believe me? "

In the past, Nicole would not believe it. She would think that Laurel was scaring her. But now that Nicole knew the history of the Miller family, she did not dare to underestimate it.

Especially, Laurel was in charge of the Miller family now. Thus, Nicole felt even more uneasy.

Seeing that Nicole did not refute, Laurel felt a sense of superiority.

"I don't think you deserve to be the daughter-in-law of the Green family. Meanwhile, I disdain to marry into the Green family. If it weren't for my parents' intentions, I would not marry into such a shabby family. Do you think I really like Samuel's father? If it weren't for the fact that the Green family possesses the Night Elf Empire, I wouldn't have wronged myself like that. I've been pretending all my life. Unfortunately, I gave it away in the end. So, I had to end his life with my own hands. Outsiders believe that we are a loving couple. No one will suspect me."

Laurel's words immediately shocked Nicole.

"You killed Samuel's father?"

"What? Are you afraid?"

Nicole looked at them with a puzzled expression.

"Just go in. Cut the crap!"

One of the bodyguards was a little embarrassed and angered, directly pushing Nicole inside.

A cold wind instantly blew towards Nicole's face.

Nicole involuntarily touched her arm.

It was so cold!

Was this room a freezer?

She looked around but could not see anything clearly. It was daytime, but it was terribly dark here.

Nicole stretched out her hand and fumbled on the wall. When she touched the switch on the wall, she turned on the light. At the same time, the door was quickly closed and even locked.

The strange goings-on made Nicole somewhat scared, but she still risked a glance.

The entire room was designed as a mourning hall. Adela's photo was hung on the head of the bed, and her body was placed upright on the bed.

The windows of the entire room were tightly shut, and black curtains were even drawn. If Nicole was right, there should be a cold storage device in this room to prevent Adela's body from decaying.

Nicole was quite bold. Besides, she didn't think that Adela would harm her. After all, they had no grievances or enmity, right? To be exact, they could be considered friends.

Nicole slowly walked up to Adela's bed. When she saw Adela's expression, she was shocked and almost squatted on the ground.

Blood oozed from Adela's eyes, nose and mouth, and her face was purple. It could be told at a glance that Adela died from poisoning.

But Laurence said that Adela died of illness.

Moreover, if Adela was poisoned, wouldn't it be easy to save Adela with Laurence's blood? Why did they bother to invite Morgan over?

Nicole did not understand.

She swallowed a mouthful of saliva and gently reached out to hold Adela's hand.

Adela's body was already stiff. Because of the cold air, her body was intact, but Nicole felt that this was Adela's greatest insult.

Nicole looked at Cynthia and felt that it was useless to say anything else. This woman's mind was twisted and she could no longer tell what was right and wrong.

Cynthia seemed to have vented all her anger on Nicole, as if it was it was Nicole's fault that her daughter died.

Seeing that Nicole was silent, she quickly stepped forward and grabbed Nicole's collar, saying fiercely, "Since you came to this place, you won't be able to leave here alive. Since we have a way to use Laurence to renew Adela's life, we will have a way to make you die here."

"If I die now, Laurel will make you pay for it."

Nicole said indifferently.

Cynthia couldn't help but tremble, which indicated that she was scared of Laurel.

Nicole sneered, "As a mother, you can't even protect your own child. What makes you think you can yell at me so arrogantly? You're not even qualified to be a mother! If you couldn't give her a complete life, why did you give birth to her in the first place? Since she has been born, why didn't you protect her? Even though Laurel wanted her dead, so what? Even though she wanted to pursue her own happiness and elope with Laurence, so what? If I were you, I wouldn't let my daughter die in my own hands even if protecting her would cost my life. Do you know how desperate Adela was at the time? Do you know how painful she was? She suffered all the pain because of you!"

She pushed Cynthia away.

Cynthia fell to the ground and cried as she looked at Adela's corpse on the bed.

However, Nicole could not sympathize with her.

A mother who could kill her own child was no human.

To Nicole, even if Cynthia committed suicide wouldn't make her deserve any forgiveness.

Laurel was standing outside the door. When she heard what Nicole had said, she couldn't help but clap her hands.

"Good, very good! Since you're willing to risk your life for your own daughter, you will obediently marry Allen, right? After all, marrying someone is much easier than dying."

Cynthia turned ghastly pale when she heard Laurel's voice.

She flinched and quickly shut up, standing humbly like a servant, not daring to make a sound.

Seeing her being so cowardly, Laurel said discontentedly, "You're Professor Miller's wife, but even an outsider is better than you. What a humiliation for us! Go back to your room! If I see you here again, I assure you that you won't even be able to keep Adela's corpse."

"No, Please! I'm leaving now! I promise I won't come here again!"

Cynthia was so scared that her face turned pale.

She looked at Adela's corpse and left without looking back.

Nicole didn't know how Laurel had managed to scare Cynthia so much, but at the moment, she really hated this old lady's guts.

"I'll marry him, but I want to see Laurence."

"You're in no position to negotiate with me!"

Laurel said coldly, not giving Nicole any chance at all.

Nicole sneered, "Really? Are you sure? Do you really think others don't know what you've done? If you don't let me see Laurence, I won't marry Allen. Even if I have to die here, I will make the world know about the true face of you and the Millers."

Only then did Nicole recall that there was no signal here probably because the signal here was blocked or something.

She looked at the painful Laurence and went for the switch without thinking.

"Stop her! Or the next person to be locked in there will be you!"

Laurel's voice was dignified, and a few bodyguards immediately ran towards Nicole.

Nicole wasn't afraid of them. She agilely avoided them as she ran forward. Finally, she reached the handle of the lightning switch, but the bodyguards had pounced over.

When Laurence saw Nicole, he was so painful that he couldn't breathe. When he saw Nicole desperately fighting for him, he seemed to have seen Adela.

No!

Adela was already dead!

The person he was looking at was Nicole!

Laurence shouted and struggled, but he was unable to resist the electric shock.

Seeing Laurence in pain, Nicole risked being beaten up by the bodyguards and pulled down the lightning switch with all her strength.

Laurence finally got to take a breath.

"Leave! Get out of here! Don't worry about me!"

Laurence shouted, his mouth covered in blood.

Only then did Nicole concentrate on fighting with those bodyguards.

She was not as skilled as Samuel, and she was pregnant now, but perhaps because her potential had been stimulated, Nicole wrestled the men like a warrior and even had the upper hand.

When Laurel saw this, she was so angry that her lips twitched.

"Trash! You can't even defeat a woman. What do I keep you for? Finn!"

When Nicole heard this name, she was shocked.

Finn?

Was that him?

Just as Nicole was in a daze, a bodyguard punched Nicole in the face and warm liquid flowed out of her nose.

Nicole took a few steps back and looked at Finn, who was walking in from outside. Her eyes became colder.

She still remembered how Finn had begged her to forgive him. If she hadn't held onto her principles, she would have been hurt by him again, right?

Watching Finn walking towards her, Nicole sneered and said, "I must have been blind. I actually believed you would help me."

Finn looked at Nicole, a hint of pain in his eyes.

"Ma'am, I'm sorry."

"Don't call me Ma'am! Your owner is watching you behind the camera."

Chapter 808 She's No Longer the Mother You Know

Nicole was shocked.

"What are you doing here?"

Seeing Allen, who had been with her five years, Nicole's expression was somewhat cold.

Watching the cold face of the woman he liked, Allen felt sad.

He still remembered the ups and downs he and Nicole had gone through during the past five years and the happy moments the four of them had shared.

But how did it turn out like this?

Now, even Nicole hated him.

Was there something wrong to love someone?

Allen looked at Nicole and said affectionately, "You can't escape unless you marry me with Adela's identity."

"You knew it all the time?"

When Nicole recalled that it was Allen who had given her this face, she was furious.

If he had known all of this all the time for the past five years and still treated her and her children like that, that would be unforgivable.

Allen shook his head and said, "No, I didn't know before. It was Grandma's idea to save you five years ago, but I didn't know that there were so many secrets behind this."

"Your grandmother asked you to save me?"

"Yes. Back then, I wasn't going on a business trip to the Seapolis City. I went there because my grandmother ordered me to. She gave me an address. I didn't know why, but I couldn't defy her, so I went to the gas station. Then, I ran into you and saved your life. I always consider this a chance given by God, but it turned out to be a conspiracy. Nevertheless, I am grateful that we met five years ago. I don't regret living with you for the past five years. If possible, I don't even mind you continuing to live with me with Adela's identity. To me, as long as it's you, it doesn't matter whether you are Nicole or Adela."

"But I do!"

Nicole interrupted Allen firmly.

"I am me, and Adela is Adela. We are two independent individuals. Nobody has the right to erase either of our existences. Allen, you should know my temper after all these years. Love cannot be forced. I am grateful to you, but I will not love you. This isn't the same thing. Furthermore, after the lesson Samuel taught your family the last time, I think you and your family should know there is something you shouldn't do."

Nicole's proud look when mentioning Samuel made Allen feel jealous.

"What makes Samuel better than me?"

"It's not about who's better. I love him. Even if he is a beggar, I'll still do."

Nicole saw no point in continuing this topic with Allen now. She had said everything she could and should say, but Allen was still stubborn. What else could she say?

Hearing Nicole's words, Allen's face turned ugly.

Nicole knew that it would be a waste of time to explain to him.

"Get out of the way! Or I'll make you get out of the way! Your choice!"

Nicole was ready to resort to violence.

Allen saw through Nicole's intentions.

He said sadly, "Are you going to hit me? Nicole, are you really going to hit me? If it wasn't for me, you would have died five years ago, and the baby in your belly wouldn't have survived in this world."

"That's why you are still alive and why your family hasn't been wiped out from this world. Otherwise, do you think Samuel would have let you and your family live after what you guys have done to me and my children?"

Chapter 809 Samuel, You're Awesome

"Are you sure this is where you parked the car?"

Seeing that Samuel's face was gloomy, Nicole hurriedly asked.

"Are you doubting your husband's memory?"

"No, I'm just thinking that your memory might have got it wrong. Let's go look somewhere else."

As Nicole spoke, she grabbed Samuel's hand and wanted to leave, but it was already too late. They were soon surrounded by the footsteps approaching.

Laurence's eyes darkened as he said in a low voice, "It's the Night Elf Empire."

Nicole felt awful when she heard the name "Night Elf Empire". Although she was nominally the owner of Night Elf Empire, the entire organization was under Laurel's control. The fact that Finn didn't take her orders had proven it.

Samuel's eyes turned cold.

"Night Elf Empire belongs to the Greens. It's supposed to work for the higher-ups. But now, it's used as a tool to achieve a personal agenda. It might as well be disbanded."

When Nicole heard what Samuel said, she knew that he was really furious.

Laurel had been challenging Samuel's bottom line again and again. Did she really think that Samuel would not fight back? Or did she think that there was still a lot of love between her and her son?

"I agree. Now that Night Elf Empire no longer answers to the Green family, it might as well be disbanded. Laurence, stay back and find a safe place to hide. We'll tell you to come out once we're done."

Nicole took off her coat.

It had been a long time since she last had such a pleasant "leisure activity".

However, Samuel held her hand tightly and said, "You should find a place to hide, too."

"What do you mean? Are you looking down on me?"

Nicole felt that Samuel was insulting her.

Samuel smiled and said, "You don't need to get into the battlefield every time. Besides, you're now pregnant. I am your man. If I couldn't handle such a small matter, I wouldn't deserve to be your husband. Stay back and protect Laurence. If we're both engaged with them, they might find an opportunity to hurt Laurence. Take him away. After all, Laurence is our weakness now."

He had made such a good point that Nicole didn't know how to refute.

"Alright, you win. But be careful and don't get hurt."

"Don't worry."

Samuel's confident look made Nicole started to believe that he probably could do it alone.

Seeing that, Laurence said in a low voice, "I will work hard to learn to protect myself. I promise I will not be your liability in the future."

"Better be. Take Nicole and stay back."

Chapter 810 Samuel, You're So Ungrateful

"Samuel, Nicole, you're just leaving like that? You don't care about your friend?"

Samuel stopped when he heard Laurel's words.

Nicole knew that Laurel had a big impact on Samuel now. Although Samuel looked cold and heartless, he had liked Laurel like she was his real mother. Unfortunately, Laurel let him down.

Nicole gripped Samuel's wrist. She was worried that Samuel would fall for it.

Samuel did get a little soft-hearted, but he remembered what Laurel had done. So, he turned calm again. And Nicole's soft hand reminded him of what he should cherish more.

Samuel smiled at Nicole and slowly turned around.

Nicole was worried that Samuel would be set up, so she also turned around. Then she saw Finn was placed there, as if his bones were broken.

Blood trickled down his forehead.

Nicole suddenly felt bad for him.

Although Finn had betrayed her, he ended up like this because of her and Samuel.

Nicole wanted to save Finn, but Samuel grabbed her hands tightly and stopped her.

"Laurel, what do you mean? Isn't it ridiculous to threaten us with your man?"

Samuel didn't even call her mom anymore. When he said that he wanted to disband the Night Elf Empire, he had stopped seeing Laurel as his mother.

Laurel walked out of the darkness.

She was surrounded by a lot of bodyguards, looking intimidating. But Nicole knew that she was scared.

Laurel was scared that Samuel would kill her.

"Laurel, come out and face us alone. I dare you."

Nicole looked at Laurel and tried to irritate her.

Laurel was so angry that she gritted her teeth, but she didn't fall for it.

"Nicole, enough with your smart mouth. That can't save Finn."

"Why should I save him? He's your man."

Nicole knew what Samuel was going to do when he pulled her back. So, she smiled brightly as if she wasn't affected at all.
