Chapter 871 I'm Not As Upright As You Think

"Mommy, do you feel bad?"

Lucas looked at Nicole's sad expression. He was so cute that Nicole was deeply touched.

"No, I'm fine. I still have you, Joseph and Zoe. I won't have any worries as long as I see you."

Nicole scooped Lucas up.

Lucas struggled for a moment.

"Mommy, I've gained much weight. Don't scoop me up since you are not well now."

"Oh my dear. No matter when, you are always my dear son. Let me just hug you for a while. It has been a long time since I hugged you like this."

Nicole let Lucas sit on her thigh, and she looked peaceful and gentle because of her son.

For her, she couldn't stand the fact that her son had been away from her for too long. So how could she criticize Mr. and Mrs. Bush for looking for their daughter? Although Melissa was quite annoying, she thought she could endure that for the sake of Mr. and Mrs. Bush.

Nicole kept comforting herself, so that she could feel a little better.

When Wendy came up, Nicole was still talking to Lucas.

"Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Bush are leaving. Do you want to say a few words to them?"

Nicole was slightly stunned.

"Alright, I'll go down now."

She put Lucas on the bed and whispered, "You stay here by yourself. I'm going to bid farewell to grandpa and grandma."

"I wanna go with you."

Lucas was about to stand up as he spoke, but he was stopped by Nicole.

"No need. They are grandparents, not bad people. They won't hurt me. Don't worry."

"I'm worried that Melissa would do something to you."

Lucas frowned tightly.

Nicole stretched out to touch his nose. She smiled and said, "Watch your language. You should call her aunt."

"Well, she doesn't deserve it."

Lucas was very stubborn and Nicole did not force him. She stood up, adjusted her clothes, and then walked out.

When Melissa saw Nicole come out, she said with disdain, "You're really a daughter from a noble family, coming out only when mom and dad are about to leave. You haven't sat down and chatted with your parents. But they still treat you as a treasure."

"Alright, enough."

Ms. Bush stopped Melissa, and then smiled at Nicole. "Nicole, we'll just go back. I'll deliver Melissa's stuff here tomorrow."

"Mommy, why did you do this? Those clothes are old. Just ask her to buy me some new ones."

Chapter 872 You Are Threatening Me Again

Nicole was now officially had problem with Melissa.

Originally, she didn't want to hurt Melissa for her mother's sake, but Melissa actually dared to provoke her again and again. Nicole thought that if Melissa disturbed her again, she would throw her out.

Under Nicole's cold gaze, Melissa was terrified.

"Well, I will turn it off. Why are you so angry? I can't understand why Samuel likes you."

As Melissa spoke, she went back to her room, and the door was slammed.

Nicole didn't give vent to her anger, and she was very depressed.

Lucas looked out at her and asked, "Mommy, do you want me to throw her out?"

"No need. Don't mind it. I'll go out to take a walk."

Nicole walked out of the Green's.

Feeling the breeze outside, she finally felt relieved.

She lost the previous designing ideas and it was very difficult to get them back. Nicole just gave up. And instead, she wanted to see Olivia.

Although Olivia said that she didn't want to see her, Nicole was still worried. Besides, things seemed to become better. She felt that the relationship between her and Olivia could be repaired.

Thinking of this, Nicole drove to the Nightspot Zone.

Jacob paused for a moment when he saw Nicole. He whispered, "Mrs. Green, they're not here anymore. I'm here to pack things up."

"Where did they go?"

"To the hospital. The operation was very successful, but these days are critical. The doctor suggested that we should stay in the hospital."

Hearing Jacob's words, Nicole heaved a sigh of relief.

"What about Booth's operating expenses?"

"I've paid that. Don't worry, Mrs. Green. Are you here to see Olivia and Booth?"

"Yep. But now I don't need to see them. Olivia is very emotional. Since they are in the hospital, if I'm there, it's easily to attract others' attention. And it won't be a good thing if I bring them danger. So please take good care of them."

Actually, Nicole really wanted to see them, but she gave up.

"Alright."

Jacob nodded.

Nicole turned around and planned to return.

She thought of the incident of poppy and what happened in the Kent family. Then she thought of Gerry and Elvis. There was something that she couldn't figure out.

If Gerry was really the initiator of the poppy incident, then why did he admit it so quickly? Moreover, he had admitted her as sister-in-law not long ago, which really surprised her.

Samuel hadn't returned yet, and she didn't know if she should go and take a look at him.

Nicole drove around the streets, restless and annoyed.

Suddenly, she saw Dad Bush take a few calligraphy and paintings to the pawnshop.

Chapter 873 There are Many Ways

After Samuel brought Nicole back to her bedroom, he looked at her, worried.

Nicole knew what worried him. She smiled, saying, "I'm fine. I did feel uncomfortable at the beginning, but then I thought I have been loved by them for years. How can I prevent them from finding their own child? I also have my birth parents, right? I'm just not happy that they made a move without telling me."

"Without telling you? I'm afraid that they forced you to do so. I'm very angry that they asked you to take her like a child. She's your age! They know what's going on with you..."

Samuel was sophisticated enough to see Mr. and Mrs. Bush' plan.

Samuel had treated them as his parents because they raised Nicole, but now, he was unsatisfied with what they had done.

Nicole covered his mouth in time.

"I know you care about me, and you stick up for me. But what can I do? It's impossible I don't care about them. Today I saw Dad pawn his paintings and spend eight million on a violin. You know how much my father cherishes his paintings. Now he would like to do everything for this daughter. I only hope she can be filial and not let them down. I will help them as long as Melissa doesn't go too far. Anyway, I see her as my sister."

Nicole shook her head resignedly.

Seeing her like this, Samuel said in distress, "You always make yourself suffer."

"It's fine. It will only be a few days. After the room is ready, they'll probably take her away."

Nicole wanted to tidy up the floor, but she found it very clean.

"What's the matter?"

"Nothing. Perhaps Wendy has cleaned it up."

Nicole did not take it to heart. She put away her paper and brush.

When Samuel noticed she had drawn, he asked directly.

"Are you designing something?"

"Yes, I left the notebook at my Grandfather's. I'll fetch it tomorrow. I have some inspiration today, but I don't feel right. Let's talk about it later."

"Do you want me to give you a reference?"

Nicole paused, then shook her head and said, "No, thanks. I want to show my ability. Even if I lost, I would have tried my best. I know with your help I can be selected, but I don't want that."

"Alright, it's totally up to you."

Samuel stroked her head.

Suddenly something occurred to Nicole.

"Well, what happened to Gerry?"

"Gerry?"

Samuel was a little surprised.

"Didn't Gerry get released?"

"Of course he didn't. What?"

Chapter 874 You're a Bad Guy

"What?"

Nicole thought she hallucinated.

He was fine yesterday. How come he died today?

"Did you torture him?"

"No. Though we forced him to confess, we didn't really hurt him, you know, because of his identity."

Hearing that, Nicole frowned.

"Have you got him a doctor?"

"Mr. Blair checked him, saying he died of myocardial infarction."

Laurence told her honestly.

"Does he have heart problems?"

"We don't know."

Nicole realized she thought too much. Gerry just came here, while Samuel and she just knew him. How could they possibly know about his health?

Now that Gerry had died here, what would happen to Uncle Elvis?

No matter whether this Gerry was real or fake, now his death upset her greatly.

"Wait, I'll go find Samuel."

Nicole felt that this thing was a little out of her control.

She hastened upstairs. Samuel was still unconscious and looked very tired.

Nicole woke Samuel up.

"Samuel, wake up. Something's wrong."

Samuel opened his eyes and subconsciously hugged Nicole. He said in a hoarse voice, "Why did you get up so early? Come into my arms."

"Samuel, something's up. Gerry died."

"So what?"

Samuel subconsciously said that, and then he repeated it in his mind for a while before he suddenly regained senses.

"What did you say? Who died?"

"Gerry, he died of myocardial infarction. Blair is still there. Do you want to go there and take a look now?"

Nicole said quickly.

Samuel was now completely sober.

"Why did he suddenly die?"

"I don't know. I always feel something is wrong, but I can't tell what is wrong."

Nicole's sixth sense told her that.

Seeing her worries, Samuel comforted her with a smile and said, "Don't worry. It will be fine. I'll go take a look. Be careful at home. You don't need to visit Zoe and Joseph. I'll ask Zac to exchange Petty."

"No. I can handle it. Lucas is going back to the army tomorrow. He decided to start his career in the army."

Nicole thought she should tell Samuel about that.

Samuel paused, and nodded.

As Melissa was speaking, she dragged Lucas out.
Lucas looked a little impatient and he directly stopped her.
"Stop."
Before Melissa could understand what was going on, Lucas had pressed her onto the door frame by his catching and grappling skills.
"I forgot to tell you not to touch me."
Lucas directly pushed her away and then cast a look at Nicole, saying, "Excuse me, Mommy. I'm going to pack my things. Grandpa Mark is coming soon."
"Alright. Aren't you going to eat anything?"
"Nope. Grandpa Mark said we would eat in the military area."
Lucas glanced at Dad Bush with a meaningful look in his eyes.
Dad Bush's face was red, but no one knew it was because of anger or embarrassment.
"Well, Nicole, have the clothes been prepared? Hurry and get Melissa changed. Mr. Seuss doesn't have much time, so we can't be late."
Dad Bush wished he could leave right this second, but he had to wait for Melissa.
Nicole did not know why Dad Bush went red, but she guessed it should have something to do with Melissa, judged from how she treated Lucas earlier.

However, Nicole could no longer care about so much now.

She handed the clothes in her hand to Melissa.

It was a plain and delicate dress, the latest style of this year.

Melissa once saw this dress in a magazine, but she couldn't afford it. Now receiving it from Nicole, she felt pleased but also a bit jealous.

If she had grown up in the Bush family from the beginning, perhaps all of these would have belonged to her now.

Melissa took the dress and went back to her room without thanking Nicole.

When there were only Dad Bush and Nicole in the living room, he felt extremely embarrassed.

"Nicole, I'm sorry to bother you. Melissa has a bad temper, since she grew up in an orphanage and was always bullied there. Please don't mind her bad temper."

"Of course not."

Nicole nodded in agreement.

She really wanted to give Dad Bush the painting, but she was afraid that it would hurt his feelings if she did it now.

"Mrs. Green, are you okay?"

Cara couldn't help but ask Nicole when seeing her seem to have immersed herself in thoughts as she looked at her notebook.

Nicole replied to Cara quickly with a faint smile.

Cara sensed nothing from Nicole's expressions. She said with a childish smile, "If you like the notebook, I will ask Doctor Morgan to give you one. She has several of them."

"Really? That'll be great."

Nicole nodded pleasantly.

"Have a good rest, and I'll go check on Joseph."

"What happened to Mr. Joseph?"

Cara had known every member of the Green family, and it was Laurence who asked Ernesto to introduce them to her. Laurence didn't do it himself, because he had been avoiding her ever since he failed to tell her about his feelings.

Cara felt a little uncomfortable when thinking of Laurence, but she calmed herself soon.

Smiling at her, Nicole said, "It wasn't a big deal. He wiped out and Zoe is keeping him company."

"Well, fine. Ms. Green, you must be tired during the period. You should find someone to replace me."

"No need. Petty is back. Having Petty by my side is enough. And you yourself should have a good rest. I'm looking forward to seeing you come back healthy."

Nicole left after saying that.

Looking at Nicole's back view, Cara suddenly realized that Nicole wouldn't keep anyone by her side easily, though she looked kind.

Nicole was familiar with Laurence, Ernesto, Petty and Zac. Cara was the only one who came from the Miller family. Nicole had made an exception to keep Cara by her side.

It was a great honor for her, so she wouldn't let her down. Then she made up her mind to learn to be a good dietician so that she could take good care of Nicole.

Of course, Nicole didn't know these things.

Walking out of Cara's ward, Nicole intended to visit Morgan, but she saw Petty walking over.

"What's wrong?"

"Mrs. Green, Mr. Green is in trouble."

Nicole's heart suddenly missed a beat.

"What happened?"

"He was taken away by the police, so was the body of Gerry. There're plenty of wounds on the body of Gerry, so the police thought he was imprisoned and lynched by Mr. Green. Someone has already filed a lawsuit against him."

As Petty was telling it to Nicole quickly,

Nicole frowned tightly.

"Is Elvis the one who filed the lawsuit?"

"Exactly."

"Where's Mr. Blair? He's supposed to be with Samuel, isn't he? He should bail him out."

Casting a glance at Nicole,

Petty whispered, "Those policemen were from the criminal police team. Mr. Blair did use his connections, but it didn't work. They took Mr. Green away because the evidence they got was quite reliable. Mr. Green left you a message, telling you not to worry about him but take good care of the baby in your belly. But it is said that Mr. Green may not be released this time."

Hearing Petty's words, Nicole narrowed her eyes slightly.

Blair felt somewhat bad seeing that Nicole was frightened, but he still said seriously, "What you need to do now is to find the person behind this in time and ask him to admit his crime. If that's the case, Samuel might be released on bail. Otherwise, no one can easily bail him out."

Nicole had never been so furious.

She had tried hard to clear the bad eggs of the Green family over and over again. She thought that maybe Samuel and she could be safe and sound this time. Yet, something bad happened again. Samuel was framed.

Who was it?

Nicole did not want to suspect anyone, because the guards of the dungeon were the people they trusted the most. She did not want to suspect these men, but what Blair said was true. If she did not find the person behind all this as soon as possible, maybe something bad would really happen to Samuel.

Blair looked at Nicole, who had become silent. He whispered, "Actually, there is another way."

"What way?"

"Go with the children. I can send you out of the Seapolis City as quickly as possible. As long as you leave the city, there will be people outside to help you. I can guarantee your safety. In fact, this is what Samuel asked me to do. After all, you are pregnant now, and we have to be cautious."

Blair looked at Nicole and said word by word.

Nicole didn't even look at Blair. She directly said, "No, but you can send the children away. Even if I die, I will stay here and stay with Samuel no matter what happens."

"It's no use for you to stay here. You and Samuel are already targeted. Samuel is in jail now. If you are also framed, who would be there for the children? Think about the property of the Green family as well."

Blair was a little angry. He felt that Nicole was like a burden now.

If Samuel's wife wasn't Nicole, but anyone else from the military, Blair wouldn't be so worried. What could Nicole do?

What could a car designer do?

Also, Nicole was pregnant. Even if she knew a little about how to fight, could she break into jail?

Nicole had noticed Blair's gaze. She knew that Blair was Samuel's best friend, and that he was anxious. She also knew how Blair thought of her now, but she didn't say anything. She just waited quietly.

"Nicole, did you hear what I said? Pack your things. I'll have someone take the children away from the hospital. Don't worry about Samuel. I'll think of a way to save him."

Blair was a little worried.

Nicole shook her head and said firmly, "I said no. He's my husband, and someone had thrown him into jail on purpose. I can't just leave with the children. Do you really think I can only share happiness with him but not adversities?"

"You can't help us even if you stay."

"Whether I can help or not is not up to you."

People could go crazy because of Nicole's stubbornness.

Suddenly, they heard the sound of a car's engine outside.

Nicole heaved a sigh of relief. She thought that Petty had returned.

Just as she was about to get up, she saw Lucas pushing open the door in a camouflage suit.

"Lucas? Why are you back?"

"Did something happen to Samuel?"

Lucas' face was a bit pale.

Nicole looked at her son and nodded.

"Nicole, are you threatening me?"

Elvis sneered.

Nicole hung up the phone directly.

"Lucas, have you found the location?"

Nicole asked Lucas.

Lucas whispered, "Yes. He's at 32 West Ring Road. I just checked. It is the Technology Center. I'm not sure which floor he's in. The call was too short for me to figure that out."

"That's enough."

Nicole directly called "1".

"Where are your people?"

"Outside. Just give Heather the order."

Nicole hung up the phone.

She got up and walked upstairs.

Blair was confused, but now he seemed to have understood that Nicole was planning to capture Elvis.

He hurriedly stopped her.

"What are you doing? Do you know that you will get Samuel killed if you do this?"

"I want him happy better than anyone."

Nicole pushed Blair away and went back to the bedroom to change into a neat sportswear.

Lucas also got changed. He looked at Blair and whispered, "Uncle Blair, don't worry. We will be fine. We'll get Samuel out."

"You guys are messing around!"

Blair was so angry that he felt a headache. However, he had to admit that if Nicole could control Elvis and negotiate with him, Samuel could be saved.

"I'll go with you."

This time, Nicole did not refuse.

When they left the Green's, they saw Petty and Ernesto return.

Ernesto's car was in a mess while Petty's was slightly better.

Seeing that they weren't injured, Nicole heaved a sigh of relief.

"Go back and have a good rest."

"Mrs. Green, where are you going?"

Petty hurriedly asked.

Nicole paused for a moment and said, "I've got something to do. Take some rest. Maybe I'll need your help later."

"I'll go with you. Mr. Green had told me to protect you before he left."

"I don't want to leave. I'll stay with you wherever you are. Don't drive me away. I know this thing took us off guard and it's not easy to deal with. And you are afraid that I'll be your burden. But don't worry. I won't. Since I can come to see you, I'm able to get you out. I won't let you stay here for long."

Nicole refused to do as Samuel said.

Samuel was also shocked when he knew that Nicole would come to see him. It wasn't an easy thing to see him at this time. He never thought that Nicole was able to do that.

Being married for eight years, he now realized that he didn't know much about Nicole. He always thought he knew what Nicole had experienced abroad in the past five years. He knew about the thing about Allen. But now, it seemed that what he knew was far from enough.

"I know what you mean. But Nicole, we still have kids and you're pregnant now. You...."

"Yes, we do have kids. And we have Lucas. But, do you think everything will be better if I leave? No!
Since Elvis is targeting at us, he doesn't want us to be alive. Now that he wants us to die, where else can
I go? You perhaps don't know that Gerry is really your biological brother. I've got the paternity test report. And he died of sudden cardiac death caused by drugs. This is murder. If I don't help you, are you going to spend the rest of your life in prison?"

Nicole's words made Samuel frown slightly.

"Is he really my biological brother?"

"Yes."

Nicole didn't know what was going on. Perhaps Elvis knew, but she didn't want to see him now.

Samuel became silent.

Nicole did not force him.

She looked at Samuel, who was quite haggard. After all, no one could stay in such a place.

Nicole sighed.

After a few minutes, Samuel said, "After going out, you can give Elvis whatever he wants. Don't argue with him. I know you have your own way, but money is nothing compared to life. If he can let us go, it's best. If not, you can go to Jacob and he will tell you what to do."

Samuel looked at Nicole and felt a little sad.

He said that he would protect Nicole, but he didn't expect that in the end, it was Nicole who tried to save him.

"I'm sorry to bring all this to you. Maybe I'm your burden. After you marry me, you haven't had a peaceful life."

"Not really. I'm very happy every day when I stay with you. No matter what we do, as long as I'm with you, I'm satisfied."

Nicole smiled faintly.

Their hands were holding tightly together.

Nicole hoped that time would stop, so that she could stay with Samuel like this forever. But she knew that this was impossible.

Visiting hours were over very soon.

Nicole was reluctant to leave. She looked at Samuel and whispered, "Wait for me to save you."

"Do what you can. If you really can't, don't force yourself. You know that I'd rather stay here by myself than you take the risk for me."

Samuel knew Nicole's temperament.

Nicole nodded.

No matter how reluctant she was, she had to bid farewell to Samuel.

Elvis looked at Nicole with disbelief. Nicole did not explain this. She looked coldly at Elvis, cross-legged, and her right arm casually supported her chin. She looked relaxed, but also dangerous.

Seeing Nicole like this, Elvis frowned. He didn't believe that a weak woman could do that. He took Nicole's phone and quickly dialed a number.

"Did anyone visit Samuel this morning?"

Although he felt that this was impossible, he still made a call.

"Yes, Mrs. Green has come to visit him."

"What?"

Elvis was stunned.

"How could it be?"

"We don't know. We just carried out the order."

The other party's words made Elvis narrow his eyes.

"I see."

After hanging up the phone, he finally took Nicole seriously.

"So you have someone as your backup? Who's he? Can he control everything in this city?"

Nicole smiled indifferently.

"Uncle Elvis, what are you talking about? I don't understand. I'm no different from any wife. All I want is to live a peaceful life and my husband and children can be healthy. I really don't want to care about other things. Elvis, you are our uncle, so you care about us, right? If you need anything, the Green family can provide you, as long as we can. I promise."

Nicole's words sounded attractive.

At the beginning, she was threatening him. But now, after he knew her ability, she began to pretend to be humble. She indeed appeared humble enough.

"I have to say that Nicole, you are really good."

Elvis praised Nicole without any hesitation.

Nicole was not modest. She smiled faintly and said, "Thank you for your praise. So Uncle Elvis, what are you plan to do now?"

"Are you here to sue for peace?"

"Yes."
