Chapter 901 My Mother Is Pregnant, So She Is Sentimental

Being questioned by Nicole like this, the reporter panicked.

"Mrs. Green, it seems that I asked you a question, right?"

"Do I have to answer?"

Nicole's smile turned much colder.

Lucas said indifferently, "If my mommy is angered by you and is sent to the emergency room again, I'm afraid that daddy may kill you."

The reporter involuntarily retreated upon hearing that.

Nicole suddenly took a step forward and said coldly, "Get lost!"

The reporter still wanted to say something, but seeing Nicole's freaking look, she had no choice but to step aside.

Nicole held Lucas' hand and got on the car. She said to Ernesto, "Check who that reporter works for. I suspect she's an impostor."

"Okay, madam."

Ernesto had someone investigate.

Nicole and Lucas sat in the back seat and went directly to the military compound. On the way, they found that someone was following them. It seemed to be that reporter.

She sneered, "Let her go. I want to see how she can get into the military compound."

Sure enough, that car was stopped at the entrance.

But Nicole's car went in.

Seeing that the reporter was arguing with the sentinel but couldn't get in, Nicole heaved a sigh of relief.

She didn't know if it was because of her pregnancy, but she was irritated recently and was in a bad mood.

The car drove to Edwin's place. Nicole and Lucas got out and walked in.

Edwin was astounded when he saw Nicole and Lucas coming.

"Nicole? Lucas? Why are you here?"

"What? We are not welcomed?"

Nicole acted like she would leave as long as she felt unwelcomed. Edwin was so frightened and grabbed her.

"Who told you? I'm just a little puzzled. Not long ago, you said in the hospital that you would come back with Samuel."

"Can't I change my mind?"

Nicole acted like a child.

Edwin paused for a moment, then smiled affectionately and said, "Alright, whatever you say."

Only then did Nicole start laughing.

Lucas asked Edwin politely.

"Hello, great-grandpa. Don't take it to heart. My mommy is pregnant, so she is sentimental."

Nicole and Edwin were both dumbfounded, and then Edwin laughed out loud.

"That's right, she's quite sentimental. How about letting your grandmother be with her and having fun with me in the study?"

It seemed like he had something to say to Lucas.

Lucas nodded.

Nicole wouldn't hold back her uneasiness. Since she had found it out, she would definitely ask.

Seeing how anxious Nicole was, Audrey sighed but did not stop her.

Nicole came to the study and knocked on the door. She heard Edwin say, "Come in."

She pushed the door open and then closed it.

As soon as Edwin put down the phone, he saw Nicole walk in and immediately knew what she wanted to ask.

"Elvis ran away."

"What? How is that possible?"

Nicole frowned.

Zac and she had spent so much effort to catch Elvis, and there were police guarding him, how could he escape?

Edwin's mood was as gloomy as Nicole's.

He whispered, "I don't want to believe it either, but it's true. I think Mark must have known this when he came but he didn't say it because you were here. He was afraid that you would get anxious. I talked to Samuel. From now on, you are staying with me and you are not allowed to go out until Elvis is captured."

"No!"

Nicole refused, enraging Edwin.

"My words don't work, do they?"

"Grandfather, Elvis doesn't just want to deal with me, he wants the Green family's genetic data. Zac and Petty have injured him, so he would not let them go. I can hide here with you, but what about Petty? Petty is pregnant now. Zac's parents are also in trouble because of what happened to Samuel's grandfather. If something happens to them, how will Samuel face them when he comes back? How will he face himself? "

Edwin didn't know what Nicole was talking about, but even if she said so, Edwin didn't agree to let go.

"I don't care what you say. Anyway, I won't allow anything to happen to you."

"Grandfather! Petty is Samuel's younger sister!"

Nicole looked at Edwin anxiously.

Edwin sighed and said, "You are too soft-hearted. Stay here and I'll have Steve take them here. No matter what, you can't go out. This is the military compound. I dare Elvis to cause trouble here!"

When Nicole heard what Edwin said, she felt relieved.

"Thank you, grandfather! Ask Steve to bring Zoe and Joseph over. I should have brought them with me."

"I see."

Edwin shook his head helplessly.

Nicole grabbed his arm coquettishly.

"Grandfather, you're the best."

"Save that. I won't buy it."

Although Edwin said this, the corners of his mouth still curved up.

Edwin and Nicole came out of the study, chatting and laughing, which relieved Audrey, who was waiting outside.

Audrey was clear about her father's temper. Nicole was also stubborn, which was why she was worried that they would fall out. She didn't expect them to come out in such a harmonious way.

Chapter 903 Will You Exchange Yourself for Melissa?

"Mom, dad?"

When Nicole heard the voice of her adoptive parents, she was dumbfounded.

She looked at the caller ID again and confirmed that it was them. Before she could heave a sigh of relief, she heard Mrs. Bush crying, "Nicole, you must save Melissa. Please save her."

"Mom, don't cry. What's wrong? What happened to Melissa?"

From Nicole's point of view, Melissa would at most offend someone when learning violin. As long as she was in Seapolis City, she could help.

When Mrs. Bush heard Nicole's question, she cried harder.

"Nicole, a person called Elvis went to our home and took Melissa. He asked to exchange you for Melissa, otherwise he will kill her. Nicole, Elvis is Samuel's father, isn't he? You are his daughter-in-law and he won't hurt you. Please exchange yourself for Melissa, will you? I only have one daughter! I've missed her life for so many years and just found her recently, I can't live without her! "

When Nicole heard these words, she was shocked.

"Mom, did you know that I was stabbed?"

Mrs. Bush's crying abruptly stopped when hearing this, and then she awkwardly asked, "Are you alright?"

Hearing her words, Nicole was a little hurt.

The news of her being stabbed had long since been released. Everyone had visited her expect her adoptive parents yet they called her for Melissa.

Just ignore the reason why Elvis took Melissa, why did they think that she would voluntarily exchange herself for Melissa after being stabbed?

Was a biological daughter different to an adopted one?

She was the child that they had raised for more than twenty years. Did the love they had for her in the past was fake?

Nicole's heart was hurt again.

However, she said indifferently, "I'm seriously injured and can't get up. Do you really want me to exchange for Melissa even like this? I'd like to correct you that although Elvis is Samuel's dad, he is incompatible with him. He even wishes to kill me. If I go over, he might kill me as well to vent his anger. Are you sure you want me to do that?"

Hearing this, Mrs. Bush cried even more sadly.

"Then what should I do? How can I save Melissa? Why is my life so bitter? Oh, my poor daughter!"

Mrs. Bush cried in hysteria. Although she no longer forced Nicole, her words were still like a sharp dagger that was stabbing Nicole's heart.

"Mom, what else did he say?"

"That's all. Nicole, your biological parents are influential. Can you ask them to help bring Melissa back? I have never asked you for anything, but I'm begging you this time, okay?"

Nicole was suffocated by her mother's words.

When had the relationship between them become like this?

"Alright, I'll try my best."

Nicole hung up and realized that she was tearful.

Nicole had a sound sleep. When she woke up, the person sitting in front of her was not Audrey, but Samuel.

"You're awake?"

Samuel smiled and looked at her.

Nicole thought that she was still dreaming, so she rubbed her eyes. When she opened her eyes again, Samuel was still there.

Seeing such cuteness, Samuel felt a little heartbroken.

"It's me. I'm back."

He didn't even have time to change his clothes.

Nicole suddenly sat up and threw herself into his embrace.

His warm body and sturdy chest brought her back to reality.

However, Samuel said anxiously, "I haven't changed yet. My body is cold."

"I don't care. I just want to hug you."

She hugged Samuel tightly like a child, not letting go.

Samuel smiled and did the same.

"You are a mother, but you still act like a child."

"I'd like to."

Nicole rubbed against Samuel as she spoke.

Samuel felt that his desire was aroused, but he could not push her away.

This was a sweet torture.

Nicole noticed Samuel's change. She looked at him with amusement and said, "You want that?"

"Or else?"

Samuel couldn't help but sigh when he read her intentions from her eyes.

"You, sit there and let me see if you've lost weight."

Samuel sat Nicole upright and looked at her from head to toe. Only then was he relieved.

"How is it going over there? Are you hurt?"

Nicole knew that destroying Elvis' research base might not be easy, so she was a little worried.

Samuel shook his head and said, "Nothing much. I have had my men there and it has been a few years. They have contributed a lot this time. I just commanded them behind the scenes. The structure of Elvis' experimental base was somewhat complicated. It took us some time, and now the military region has sent people to take over. I've brought Zac's father and Olivia's father back. Jacob has gone back with Harper. I'll bring you to them tomorrow. "

Faced with Samuel's question, Mrs. Bush was at a loss. In fact, the answer came to Mrs. Bush, but she just didn't want to say it.

Samuel also knew this, but now he had to force Mrs. Bush to tell what she wanted.

"Mom, if you can't make up your mind, I will just turn my back on Melissa."

"No! Don't be like that!"

Mrs. Bush became anxious instantly.

Samuel's eyes were cold.

Mrs. Bush was silent for a minute before saying, "With you, the Dons, and the Shaws as her backings, Nicole can still live well even without us. But that's not the case with Melissa. Melissa was sent to the orphanage and suffered a lot from an early age. We owe Melissa too much. She only has us with her. Samuel, don't push me, okay?"

Samuel's face fell.

"Should Nicole be abandoned by you just because she has the Dons, the Shaws, and me as her backings? Nicole is not an object, much less a piece of trash. You being nice to her is just a passing fancy. When you have found Melissa, you're going to trash Nicole as if she is a piece of garbage. Now you come to Nicole since you need her. Do you think that she's so tough that she won't be sad? Nicole considers you as her parents all these years, but do you care for her as your own daughter?"

Facing Samuel's rebuke, Mrs. Bush didn't refute him but remained silent.

Samuel knew that Mrs. Bush would not change her mind.

Samuel couldn't help but feel deeply sorry for Nicole.

How sad Nicole would be after knowing that.

"Mrs. Bush, I can promise you to bring Melissa back, but please leave Nicole alone from now on. Forget Nicole since you only care about Melissa. I think it's best that we won't be in touch. Of course, Nicole and I will do the last honors to you when you pass away. As long as you take the deal, I will save Melissa."

The condition that Samuel offered was a bit harsh. If Mr. and Mrs. Bush felt a shred of sadness to leave Nicole, Samuel would be more lenient. However, when Samuel finished, Mrs. Bush said without a moment's hesitation, "Alright, I agree. As long as you save Melissa, we won't disturb your lives. I promise."

Although Samuel had guessed it, he was surprised that Mrs. Bush didn't think twice.

Samuel was relieved that Nicole didn't make the call. Otherwise, Nicole would be so heartbroken.

Samuel took a deep breath and said, "Alright, I will bring Melissa back. Keep your word."

Samuel hung up. As Samuel turned around, he saw Nicole leaning against the balcony door and looking at him, her eyes gloomy.

"Nicole? When did you come?"

Samuel felt a flutter.

Nicole wanted to laugh, but she couldn't.

"Does Mrs. Bush care so much about blood ties?"

"Don't be like this. Everyone has their own choices. It's not a bad thing. We don't owe Mr. and Mrs. Bush anything. If you feel guilty about their fostering all these years, I'll give them a sum of money in return."

Samuel knew that Nicole should have heard everything.

Right now, Nicole only hoped that Nicole cut herself from Mr. and Mrs. Bush soon so that she wouldn't be hurt.

Elvis looked like a ruffian and Samuel really hated him.
"If I had a choice, I wouldn't want to share the same blood with you. I feel dirty."
Samuel attacked Elvis when Elvis suddenly threw some powder at him.
Samuel took a step back abruptly and Elvis took advantage of it to run away.
"Bastard!"
Samuel was so furious and realized that Melissa was gone when he wanted to chase after Elvis.
Samuel paused and then hurriedly made a call.
"Seal off every intersection. Elvis escaped. Melissa is probably in his hands."
Samuel's men carried out the order at once.
Samuel didn't bring Melissa back and felt annoyed.
After washing his face, Samuel realized that it was just flour, only temporarily blocking his view.
Samuel really underestimated how shameless Elvis was.

Samuel had no clue. When he was going back, Lucas called.

"Samuel, Elvis has the other den. Moreover, not all Elvis' work these years went into research base. It's just a trick to deceive us."

"What?"

Samuel paused.

"What exactly is Elvis going to do?"

"I don't know, but was Melissa captured by Elvis?"

"I'm afraid not. Melissa is very respectful to Elvis."

Samuel couldn't figure out what Elvis wanted.

Elvis ran out of the house, followed by Melissa.

"Uncle Elvis, this way, I'll take you."

Melissa prepared tools to escape in advance, but Elvis shook his head and said, "I have a way out. Do me a favor."

"Alright."

Melissa always did exactly what Elvis said.

Elvis whispered a few words in Melissa's ear before leaving.

Melissa immediately took a taxi and arrived at the entrance of the military compound.

Melissa took out her phone and called Nicole.

"Nicole, save me."

"Melissa?"

Nicole knew that Samuel had gone to save Melissa, but why was she here?

Chapter 907 Is There No Way Out of Seapolis City

Melissa looked out of the window and saw a silver local car owner.
Melissa dragged Nicole out right away to the basement, sealing the way there.
The car owner came in, quickly searched here, but couldn't find Nicole.

"Mrs. Green! Nicole!"

Laurence called out, but didn't see Nicole.

That was impossible!

Laurence navigated his way here by the position Lucas told him, but why didn't he find Nicole?

Laurence suddenly touched the iron cage, which was warm. Laurence took a step back and squinted.

Was Nicole here just now?

So where could Nicole go in such a short period of time?

Melissa watched what Laurence did from below and couldn't help but feel nervous when she saw Laurence frown.

Melissa hurriedly sent a message to Elvis.

"Uncle Elvis, someone is here. What should we do?"

Receiving the message, Elvis was pissed off.

If Melissa stayed there without doing anything, Laurence might have left soon. But Melissa sending a message to Elvis exposed their location.

The red light on Lucas' side lit up.

"Uncle Laurence, mommy is in your room. You find out if there are basements."

Hearing Lucas' words, Laurence looked around and searched at once.

Melissa was so anxious. What should she do?

Melissa put Nicole into an iron box which she threw into the middle of all the boxes. Even Melissa couldn't tell which box Nicole was in.

After finishing all this, Melissa put dust on her face and sent a message to Elvis.

"Uncle Elvis, I was wrong. Please spare me. Let me go. I can't stand it anymore."

Elvis saw this and became slightly surprised.

Lucas found where Melissa hid with that message.

"Uncle Laurence, the signal is sent from under your feet. Look for it. It will definitely be right under your feet."

Laurence quickly groped and touched a button abruptly. Laurence directly pressed it down, and Melissa appeared in front of him right away.

"Help! Help!"

Melissa cried and ran out.

Chapter 908 We Got in Touch Again

Before Elvis' man could finish, Elvis directly kicked him.

"Hurry up. I want to leave here! You're so useless!"

Elvis had a bad temper.

Looking at the unconscious Nicole, Elvis smiled.

Elvis walked to the balcony, picked up the phone and dialed a number.

Elvis got through soon and a female voice came.

"Who is it?"

"Audrey, Nicole is in my hands."

Just as Elvis finished, Audrey became nervous.

"Elvis?"

"What a coincidence. We're in touch again."

Hearing Elvis' words, Audrey squinted, alert.

"What do you want to do?"

"Audrey, don't you know what I'm going to do? Oh, right, I just told Nicole something, and I guess you're interested. It's about Xander's body. Do you want to see him?"

As soon as Elvis finished, Audrey became furious.

"You bastard! What exactly are you going to say? I knew twenty years ago that it was not Xander's body. The testing equipment was limited. The DNA sample was blurry, but the similarity was 80%. I have been staying at the border for diplomatic services all these years just to find Xander. Elvis, it was really you who took him away."

Audrey was so angry that her chest hurt. Even after so many years, Audrey still couldn't get over it.

Elvis said coldly, "If you hadn't run after me, how could I have left here in such a hurry? Fortunately, only then did I develop my own power abroad. Do you want Xander's body?"

"Yes!"

"Then come to see me with what I want. Remember, you are not allowed to call the police. You can't tell Samuel about it and bring someone here. Otherwise, I'm not sure if I will do anything to Nicole. You know Nicole is pregnant. She is the best candidate for the experiment."

"Don't you dare! If you dare to touch Nicole, I promise you'll get nothing."

Audrey raised her voice.

Elvis only smiled and said, "Audrey, you're not that lofty and great. If you were really like that, you should have given what I want to the military region, right? But you haven't handed it over for so many years. You're selfish, aren't you? So why don't we cooperate?"

"I won't cooperate with you, and the reason why I didn't hand it over is not that I have selfish intentions. It's just a memento Xander left to me. Elvis, don't force me."

"No, Audrey. I'll give you an address and you'll only have an hour. If you come late, I really don't know what I will do to Nicole."

With that, Elvis hung up.

Audrey looked worried.

"Mr. Green."

Samuel fell into a trance, so Laurence tried to wake him.

Samuel regained consciousness.

"I'll lead a team to the port nearby. Please handle things here."

Samuel turned around and left.

Although Laurence was also worried about them, seeing Samuel's action, he knew that he had enough men, so he didn't insist in following him.

After Audrey and Elvis got on the boat, he left it right away and used it to distract Samuel and his team. He took Audrey and unconscious Nicole to a different boat.

Audrey was by her side while Nicole was unconscious.

She stared at her and wiped her face from time to time. But she wondered what to say to her after she woke up.

She slept for so long, as if she didn't want to wake up, so that her mom didn't need to worry about what to say to her.

"What did you do to her? Why is she still sleeping?"

"Don't worry. I didn't drug her but just knocked her out. I have no idea why she still hasn't wake up yet. Maybe she is too weak, not like you and your husband." Elvis said indifferently.

Audrey glared at him coldly, and carefully looked after Nicole.

When Nicole woke up and saw Audrey, she wondered if she was still dreaming.

"Mom? Is that you? No, I must be dreaming."

Nicole smiled bitterly and wanted to get up, but she felt so painful from the back of her neck.

Then she remembered something.

"Elvis?!"

She suddenly sat up and felt extremely dizzy.

"Easy, Nicole. You need to rest."

She heard Audrey's voice again, and was totally stunned.

"Mom? Is it really you?"

Chapter 910 I Would Never Believe You

"Am I right? You want more than just the notebook, you also want the things in Samuel's hand, right?"

Audrey was stunned by Nicole's words. But Elvis smiled and said, "Nicole, you are smart, but sometimes being smart may bring you troubles."

"You don't need to worry about that. My father's data must be put together with data from the Green family, and you've told me that Samuel isn't the only one that uses me as a hostage. I didn't know why, but now I do. Elvis, why are you doing all these? Even if you create genetic miracles and remake humans. Can you be immortal? Or, have lots of children and grandchildren? You don't even care for your own daughter, what's the point of doing so? How can you know that remade humans will all be your puppets?"

Elvis' face darkened after hearing these words.

"You don't get to say what I should or shouldn't do."

"You are right, but don't get people that I cared into your crazy project. You can build an entire new world, but hear this, if you dare to hurt any of them again, I guarantee that you will pay for that."

"You are my prisoner, do you really think you should be talking to me like this?"

Elvis snorted coldly and left.

Audrey had been contemplating. After Elvis left, she whispered, "I never gave much thought about why he did all these things."

"Mom, I know that you want to see dad again. But how can you know that he really has dad's body? Don't get too emotional into this...."

Audrey shook her head with a smile and said, "It doesn't matter anymore. Through my life, I never did what I really wished for, I never got to be with the one I loved and for those who cared for me got hurt because of what I did. Now I am dying, I don't intend to make amends for what I did. I only want to do what I wished the most. Don't worry, I won't give the notebook to him and I will do my best to keep you safe. Nicole, I'd rather come here with the slightest hope of seeing your dad again than waiting to die at home. Maybe miracles do exist, right? "

Nicole didn't know what to say to her now. She wasn't the way as how Nicole remembered. However, everyone had their soft spots and she didn't want to argue with her over it.

Audrey's soft spot was Xander.

Nicole kept silent and leaned on Audrey's chest. She could hear her heart beating, it was forceful and desperate at the same time.

Then, she thought about of Samuel.

Samuel must be very worried now, because she had been missing for hours.

He went through all kinds of difficulties for her.

Nicole checked on her pockets and she still had her phone, but there were no signals at all.

The signals should cover the sea area, it must be Elvis who managed to block it, so he could be carefree about their phones.

Nicole looked at the photos on her phone. There were many photos of Lucas, Zoe and Joseph, but very few from Samuel.

She wasn't a fan of taking pictures, she only wanted to record the good memories of their childhood. However, she didn't realize that there were good memories in adults' lives that also worth to be recorded.

Nicole flipped through the photos, seeing them grow up day by day, she felt fulfilled and happy.

Audrey was glad to see Nicole took things as they were.
