Chapter 991 Who Is Dead?

Samuel smiled bitterly. He had been the hunter all his life, but now, he was hunted.

The sound of footsteps was getting closer and closer. Samuel did not hide. He took out a cigarette and lit it.

When the door opened, he had only taken a few puffs of his cigarette.

Obviously, the person who knocked on the door was surprised to see Samuel. The policeman behind him also froze for a moment.

"Mr. Green?"

"What's going on?"

Samuel asked subconsciously.

The policeman whispered, "Someone called the police and said there was a murder. We're here to take a look."

"Go ahead."

Samuel did not say anything.

The policeman felt Pedro's breath and frowned.

"Mr. Green, I'm really sorry. I'm afraid you will have to come with us."

"OK."

Samuel was very cooperative.

He smiled bitterly and said, "Do you need to handcuff me?"

"No. We trust you, Mr. Green."

The police took Samuel away.

There were many reporters outside. When they saw Samuel taken out by the police, they all hurriedly walked over.

"Mr. Green, may I ask what's going on? Do you have any grudges with Mr. Pedro?"

"Mr. Green, may I ask when did you come here? Was Mr. Pedro still alive when you arrived?"

A series of sharp questions rushed into Samuel's ears.

However, he only sneered.

He entered the room and found Pedro was already dead. Now there were reporters waiting for him. Someone must have set this all up.

The policeman was rather professional. He stopped the reporters.

"Sorry, the case is still unclear. No interview is accepted for the time being. Thank you."

After saying that, he took Samuel away.

Nicole was waiting for Samuel, but Samuel still didn't come back after a long time. His phone was dead either. Nicole suddenly felt a little depressed.

Samuel, what was going on?

Olivia knew that something had happened to Samuel. She was quite worried.

If Nicole knew that something had happened to Samuel, would she insist on going out to see him?

Thinking of Nicole's injuries, Olivia felt a headache.

"What's going on? Are you hiding something from me?"

Nicole and Olivia had been friends for long. Seeing that Olivia was quite upset, Nicole asked her worriedly.

"Am I?"

Olivia tried her best to calm herself down, but in vain. She would think of Samuel whenever she saw Nicole's face.

"Get ready. Let's go back to the Seapolis City."

Nicole said to the bodyguards beside her as soon as she left the room.

"Yes, Mrs. Green."

The bodyguards would do whatever Nicole told them. Samuel must have given the order in advance.

When Olivia finally caught up with Nicole, Nicole had arrived at the inpatient department. She was paying the hospital bills and was about to be discharged.

"Hey, Nicole, it's not time yet for you to leave here. You can't go out like this. I'm going to find Dr.
Ashley."

Olivia knew that Nicole was determined to go. She hurriedly ran to Ashley's office.

"Dr. Ashley, hurry up and take a look. Nicole is going to be discharged from the hospital. Also, she's going back to the Seapolis City. You know, she's not fully recovered. Things are all in a mess now. What if anything happens to her if she goes back? If so, Samuel will literally skin me!"

Olivia talked non-stop.

Ashley was slightly surprised.

It was known in the city now that Samuel was involved in a murder case. Ashley was not expecting that she could hide it from Nicole. However, it was indeed a little troublesome for Nicole to be discharged from the hospital and go back to the Seapolis City now.

"I'll go take a look."

Ashley got up and walked towards the inpatient department.

Olivia followed behind.

Ashley had just taken two steps when her phone rang.

She lowered her head and found that it was Steven calling. She was a little surprised.

"What's the matter?"

Steven's voice was familiar as usual.

"Samuel is in trouble."

"I know. What is your plan?"

"Try your best to keep Nicole in the hospital and protect her. This is exactly what Samuel said."

Ashley slightly froze upon Steven's words, but she immediately understood his meaning.

"Are you saying that we should let the person who set this up get what he wants?"

"Not really, but it's complicated. Pedro died not long after Samuel entered the room. Moreover, the time of his death was about the same as the time Samuel went there. Therefore, Samuel was suspicious and should cooperate with the investigation. He would not be able to get out for some time now. Samuel wanted to see what the next move of them. He was afraid that without him around, his enemy would lay eyes on Nicole. Then it would be really troublesome. Samuel asked me to protect Nicole's safety and I said yes. I want to keep my promise now."

Steven talked fast.

However, Ashley smiled and said, "I'm afraid you can't. Nicole has gone to the inpatient department to pay the bill and is about to leave."

"Really? Why don't you stop her?"

"Why should I?"

Ashley said indifferently, and then kept walking.

Steven felt depressed every time he talked to his wife. Ashley was always so calm, so indifferent. He could even be driven mad by her words.

Chapter 993 You're Crazy

"Watch out!"

Olivia broke out in cold sweat and grabbed the handle in the car. Nicole's face was somewhat pale and cold sweat oozed out of her forehead.

Ashley was composed, but the corner of her mouth twitched slightly.

Nicole braked. The screech was terrifyingly ear-piercing.

The cars almost crashed, but they finally stopped with a very close distance between them.

Nicole's heart beat wildly. Before she could calm down, the door of the Ferrari opened.

Zayn, dressed in a white suit, walked out of the Ferrari and knocked on the door of Nicole's car.

Nicole's heart skipped a beat.

Ever since she found out that the person who died was Zayn's assistant, Nicole had been wondering when Zayn would find her. Now, before she got on the plane, Zayn had come to her. Although she was not surprised, Nicole still frowned.

"Get out of the car. Let's talk."

Zayn's voice was hoarse, and it sounded like he wasn't in a good mood.

Olivia grabbed Nicole and whispered, "You can't go. What if he goes mad and kills you? Don't forget that you're still injured."

However, Nicole knew that she had to go. No matter what, his assistant was dead, and out of conscience, she had to go meet him.

"I'd better go. I have to give Zayn an explanation. And if he wants to accuse Samuel, there will be nothing we can do. Right now, the most important thing is to resolve the misunderstanding."

As Nicole spoke, she unbuckled her seat belt.

Olivia was anxious.

"Don't be stupid, okay? It's a misunderstanding. How can you resolve it with just a few words? Look how Zayn is like! He can't wait to kill people. It will be useless to go out talk to him and you'd better wait until we get back to Seapolis City."

Ashley coughed and said, "Nicole will take care of this herself. Don't worry about her."

Olivia was immediately irritated.

"What kind of doctor are you? It's not like you don't know her current condition."

"Alright, stop arguing. Wait here."

Nicole got out of the car in disregard of everyone's opinions.

Zayn had a strong smell of tobacco, which made Nicole's throat itch.

She subconsciously pinched her nose and heard Zayn whisper, "Let's talk alone."

"Okay."

Nicole agreed.

"Where to talk?"

"In my car! Don't worry, I won't delay you from boarding the plane."

When Zayn said this, Nicole was in a daze. She even couldn't believe what she had heard.

"Who?"

"Me. She is in my hands, to be exact, Pedro did it for me and he died."

Zayn's lips curled into a bitter smile.

Nicole felt that she couldn't digest it.

"Do you have a grudge against Melissa?"

"Sort of."

Zayn replied ambiguously. He looked at Nicole and pointed at his watch. "You don't have much time left to board the plane, so what are you going to do? Will you leave or not?"

Nicole frowned tightly.

Pedro kidnapped Melissa in Country F, which surprised Nicole, and what surprised her even more was that Zayn was the mastermind. What was this man going to do?

"Do you have any deal with Samuel?"

"Yes."

Zayn did not hide it from Nicole and whispered, "Samuel promised me that as long as I got him a pass to enable his people to take Melissa away, he would take you to my mother."

"Your mother?"

What kind of deal was this?

Zayn nodded seriously with a complicated emotion flashing in his eyes.

"I can promise you this, but I will bring Melissa back on behalf of Samuel, okay?"

"Absolutely."

Zayn had no objections to this.

Melissa was captured for her sake, so it was reasonable to let Nicole have the woman.

"But aren't you going back to Seapolis City now?"

Nicole felt that this was really a tricky problem.

"Yes. But..."

"Go back to Seapolis City first. I will ask Samuel's men to bring Melissa back to Seapolis City and leave her at your mercy. As for the terms of the exchange, we'll talk about it when you are free."

Zayn waved his hand as soon as he finished speaking. Obviously, he was going to drive Nicole away.

Nicole could not understand either what Zayn meant or what kind of person he was.

Pedro was dead. He was heartbreaking, and meanwhile, Samuel was a suspect. If she was Zayn, she would definitely not be so easy to convince, much less hand Melissa over.

Zayn seemed to be too good to her.

"Why are you so kind to me?"

Nicole didn't want to ask, but she couldn't help it. After asking, she felt like a fool.

Zayn was also surprised.

Ever since he was young, he had lived in such a chaotic environment, and had never seen such a straightforward person.

He couldn't help but glance at Nicole and whispered, "Perhaps I like you."

What reason was this?

Nicole didn't know why, but she didn't dare to ask further.

Zayn had been mysterious since he showed up. She couldn't understand him. She felt that it was better to stay away from such a person.

"Then, goodbye."

Chapter 995 I Only Want You

Samuel blinked his eyes and pretended to be innocent as he asked, "What's going on?"

"You still don't want to tell me the truth, right?"

Nicole suddenly twisted Samuel's ear and said, "Answer me."

Samuel froze for a moment.

He had only seen this scene on TV and had never imagined that he would actually become one of the husbands whose ears twisted by their wives. He thought that he would be mad about it, but he didn't hate it at all. Nicole was not using her full strength, and she sounded quite flirtatious when she questioned him. For no reason, Samuel found her charming in this way. He involuntarily swallowed.

"Darling, you're a bad ass."

"Yeah, so what? Be honest with me!"

Nicole pouted, looking so lovely. Samuel wished that he could bang her right here, right now, but he couldn't. He knew what kind of place a detention center was.

"It's nothing. Don't worry, I guarantee that I'm straight. Of all the women in the world, I only want you. I promise."

Hearing this, Nicole was slightly astonished. Only then did she remember that Zayn liked men. She pushed Samuel away.

"Don't change the subject. If you dare to mess with a man, I will make sure that you are the one at the bottom. I promise too."

Nicole said proudly.

Samuel smiled at Nicole indulgently.

His little wife was getting tougher and tougher, but also more and more adorable.

"No. I won't do that, madam."

"That's my good boy!"

Nicole felt that Samuel's temperature was extremely high. She suddenly felt a little worried.

"You're running a temperature. Could it be...?"

"I'm totally fine. It's a bit stuffy here. Besides, they'll make sure that I'm fine. Don't worry."

Seeing that Samuel was in high spirits, Nicole felt relieved.

"Zayn said that he would ask someone to send Melissa back to the Seapolis City. What do you plan to do with Melissa?"

"Do as you wish."

Samuel had always hoped that Nicole would personally deal with the matter of Melissa.

"Okay. Just stay here for a few days and take some rest. Leave the matters outside to me. They think that you are my backer. Now that you are trapped here, they will definitely begin to attack me. These villains... I must see who they really are, or else they'll never stop plotting and scheming against us. Look at us. We are on the edge of losing our happy days. "

Nicole said softly as she played with Samuel's tie.

Samuel naturally had no objections.

"Protect yourself. You can always turn to the Dons and the Shaws."

Nicole did not express her doubts. Zac hurriedly asked someone to bring Nicole some hot water.

"Petty, come here and have a seat. Your belly is swelling now. Are you alright these days?"

Nicole remembered that she and Petty learnt about their pregnancy at about the same time. Now, Petty's child was still here while hers was not. Nicole couldn't help but feel a little sad. However, she didn't show her sadness. She didn't want Petty to notice that she was in a bad mood.

Happiness was shown on Petty's face.

"I'm fine. Isn't it something that every woman has to experience at least once in their lives? I went to see the doctor. The doctor said that there was only one baby. Somehow, I was disappointed."

Petty was Elvis' daughter. The Greens had the genes to be pregnant with twins. Petty wanted twins too. She enjoyed watching Lucas and Zoe. If she could have two children at once, it would also save her the trouble to get pregnant again.

Therefore, Petty didn't expect that she wasn't pregnant with twins, as other Greens were. She only had one baby.

Nicole smiled and said, "As long as the baby is healthy."

"Exactly."

Petty immediately smiled.

Zac pulled Petty and whispered to her, "Nicole has just returned. We should let her rest for a while. You can chat with her later."

After all, this was not a normal time. Nicole came back to deal with Samuel's matter. Petty didn't notice it, but Zac knew that Nicole had other important things to do.

Petty hurriedly said to Nicole, "Nicole, forgive me. I'm just happy to see you. You should go upstairs and have some rest now. I don't know when the reporters outside will go away, and I don't know what's going to happen. Without Samuel here, we are all counting on you."

"It's fine. Don't worry. I'll go upstairs and rest. Talk to you later."

The injuries on Nicole's back hurt so bad. Nicole really couldn't hold on any longer.

"Alright."

Petty hurriedly made way for Nicole.

Nicole smiled and went upstairs to the bedroom.

When she was about to take off her clothes, Petty's voice came from outside.

"Nicole, Olivia and a doctor are here."

"Let them in."

Just as Nicole was wondering how to take off her clothes, Ashley and Olivia were here. She immediately felt relieved.

When Olivia brought Ashley in, Nicole was taking off her coat.

Nicole was wearing a black coat today, and she looked normal on the surface. However, her shirt inside the coat was soaked in blood, and the blood was dried. It was very difficult to take it off.

"Heavens, Nicole, how did you manage to endure the pain? Can't you feel it? You went to the detention center to see Samuel just like this?"

Olivia's face instantly became ugly.

Of course, Nicole felt painful, but she was still smiling at Olivia, "How did you know that I went to the detention center?"

"Blair told us."

Hearing Ashley's words, Nicole was startled for a moment.

Chapter 997 Everyone Should Have a Home

Nicole knew the fragrance. She had smelt it on Melissa's body before.

But now Melissa should be controlled by Zayn. Why was there a same scent on Lillian?

Nicole got a good idea.

"Lillian, you smell good. Do you wear a new perfume? What's the brand? I'll get one."

Nicole asked with a faint smile.

There was a flash in Lillian's eyes. Then she smiled and said, "I'm not young. I don't wear any perfume. You might be wrong."

"Really? Perhaps I get it wrong. I was injured and I have been staying in the hospital. Maybe that's why I feel everything is fragrant."

Nicole still smiled, but there wasn't smile in her eyes.

Lillian looked at her in surprise, "Were you injured? What's going on? Is it serious?"

Nicole thought Lillian was really a hypocrite.

The news that Nicole was hurt by Melissa was almost on the top of the Twitter trending news. Even if she didn't use Twitter at the age, she should have heard from Petty about it. Now that Petty had already see the news, Lillian must have known it.

Nicole never thought that Lillian would betray her. But now, she found the betrayer in the family as soon as she went home.

Nicole thought about it and smiled, "Not a big deal. I'm still standing here. I know someone wants me dead. They seek every way to kill me. But I am lucky that I'm not dead."

As she spoke, she shrugged mischievously.

Lillian coughed and said, "Are you going out?"

"Yes. I am going to see my grandfather. No need to save a meal for me, Lillian. I'll have lunch with my grandfather."

As soon as Nicole walked out of the house, she stopped smiling.

Then she called Ernesto.

"Check out what Lillian has done and whom has she met recently?"

"No problem."

Nicole and Samuel trusted in Ernesto. Without asking anything, he began to work at once.

Entering the garage, Nicole examined her car and found the tires muddy.

She always had her car cleaned before it was sent in the garage. Moreover, she had not been in the Seapolis City recently. In other words, someone drove her car recently.

Then she called Ernesto again.

"I have got one more thing to tell you. Check whether I have received any parking or speeding tickets for my car recently. And go to the traffic police station to check if my car has been driven to any places."

"Yes, madam."

Hanging up the phone, Nicole got on a Land Rover of Samuel and drove it out.

"Grandpa, you make me feel I am an idiot!"

Nicole pouted her lips like a kid.

Edwin laughed.

"You really are not smart. Otherwise, you won't get injured so many times. Look! You have gotten into the hospital several times since you came back. It is the hospital, not your home! I don't care the cost, but I care about your health."

Seeing that Edwin was about to preach, Nicole said, "Grandpa, I think Lillian is suspicious."

"Lillian? Petty's mother? The one you saved from Elvis'?"

"Yes!"

Nicole nodded.

Edwin sneered, "Elvis abused her for years, but she got out of the hell alive. She is an unusual woman. Nobody would let her stay except you. She is different from Petty. Petty grew up with Samuel since she was a little girl, so she is kind. She was just used by other sometimes. As for her mother, she may not be a good person."

Nicole didn't understand, "Why?"

"I think she is smart. Or she would have been killed. To Una, Lillian was a great threat. I am a man too. If I were Elvis, I would not let Lillian live, even if she was pregnant. But Lillian gave birth to the child right under Elvis' nose and lived in the place where Una lived for years. She even waited for you to save her. Do you really think that it was just a coincidence or a miracle?"

Nicole immediately understood.

She never thought of that before.

"But what is she going to do?"

"She wants to get rid of you and Samuel for Petty."

Nicole was stunned at the moment.

"Don't you understand?"

Edwin looked at Nicole and sighed, "You still don't understand? Petty is a member of the Green family. If the fact wasn't revealed, then she is just an orphan, so she wouldn't be a threat to you and Samuel. But now everyone knows Petty is the daughter of the Green family. Elvis dreamed about taking back everything of the Green family. Then Petty came back home. She has the right to inherit the wealth. Yet, I'm not saying that Petty has this intention to compete with Samuel, but Lillian will. That's the motive. "

Nicole really hadn't thought about it before.

She and Samuel managed to take everything in place. Now the Green family was getting better. Lillian was saved by her. It was why Nicole thought that Lillian would be grateful to her. It was Nicole that let her be with her daughter again.

She never thought that it would be so complicated. Nor did she expect that Lillian would have the evil thoughts after getting rid of the adversity.

"Grandpa, this is all your guess. There is no evidence."

Nicole tried to deny it. However, in fact, she had already accepted what Edwin had said.

Edwin shook his head, "Well, I know you won't admit it. But, now that you found her suspicious, you have to find ways to protect yourself. Beware of her! Understand?"

"I see. I'm not a fool. I just don't like these tricks."

Edwin looked at Nicole and touched her head. "If you want a simple life, you should marry another man. People only see the brilliant side of the wealthy family, but they don't know it is really dirty under the gorgeous surface. I feel sorry for you!"

"Grandpa, I just marry someone I love."

Nicole immediately felt unhappy.

"Ms. Nicole, right? Mr. Bush wants to see you."

Nicole sneered at the doctor's words.

"I am not sure if I am allowed in the operating room."

"Technically, you are not allowed in the operating room, but Mr. Bush is in critical condition now. We think it is for the patient's best if his relatives can say some words of encouragement."

The doctor calmly talked to Nicole.

Nicole felt that this doctor must have been bought by someone like Mr. Bush.

She did not move, but said calmly, "I can sign a consent form for operation or a critically ill notification. But I can't take a last look at him on behalf of his daughter or his wife. I'm sorry I have to leave now if there is nothing that I can do."

Nicole then turned around and was about to leave, but she was stopped by the doctor.

"Ms. Nicole, you can't be so unkind. Mr. Bush is truly in critical condition. Perhaps this is his last wish."

"Sorry, I am not his relative or his close friend."

Nicole easily got rid of the doctor.

She looked at the policemen outside the operating room and said, "Remember to keep your eyes on him. Otherwise, he might just run away."

Nicole then directly gave Gabrielle a call.

"Gabrielle, do you know anyone at the Central Hospital?"

"Yes, I know the Director of that hospital. What's the matter?"

Gabrielle was slightly stunned when she received Nicole's call.

"I wonder if you could help me to contact the Director. Braden is in critical condition. His doctor asked me to go to the operating room to pep him up. I want to know if I am allowed to do so according to the rules of the hospital."

The doctor looked pale when Nicole called Gabrielle. She was so scared that she quickly took a step back when she heard Nicole asked such a question.

However, Nicole was not in the mood to forgive her.

Since you have the guts to take money from Braden, you should also be prepared to take the consequences for it.

What's worse, she even tried to force her to go into the operating room just now.

Nicole glanced at her badge and coldly said, "Her name was Carrie Caldwell."

Carrie was so scared that she immediately talked to Nicole.

"Ms. Nicole, I'm just trying to get patients' thoughts across. You can just forget it if you are unwilling to do so."

"It's too late and I can't let it go now. Your Director will be here soon. Why don't you wait and explain what happened just now to him?"

Chapter 1000 I Miss You, I Really Miss You

"You can't call the police! Nicole, you can't do this!"

Mrs. Bush ran as fast as a sprinter. Unfortunately, Nicole acted more quickly than her.

Nicole turned around and quickly called the police.

"Hello, 911. I would like to report an attempted murder against me."

"No!"

Alison directly stepped forward and grabbed Mrs. Bush against the wall before she could do anything to Nicole.

"Don't move!"

Alison tried to step in a while ago, but Nicole asked her to stand by giving her the look. As a result, Alison could do nothing but stand aside. However, when Alison saw Mrs. Bush might hurt Nicole's back, she suddenly remembered that Nicole's back was injured. That's why she stopped Mrs. Bush and tried to protect Nicole.

Nicole gave an ugly look.

Nicole thought to herself, "Mrs. Bush knew that I was injured. How could she be so out of mind after failing to grab the phone from me?"

Nicole actually was a little hesitating about how to deal with them back then, but she did not have the slightest intention of letting them off now.

They were not qualified to be her foster parents.

"What do you want to do with me?"

Nicole gave a sharp look.

Mrs. Bush seemed to give up on herself and shouted, "I said, I want you to die. You should go down with me if I am arrested by the policemen."

"You really think that you can hurt me? You hurt and threatened me recklessly because you think that I am soft-hearted and that I won't turn to the police. But once I leave my gratitude for you behind, however you swear at me means nothing. That's why I am not going to forgive you for what you have done to me. It seems that you can't think clearly because of Melissa."

Braden and Mrs. Bush instantly changed the look on their face when they heard Nicole's words.

"Nicole, you are really going to ask them to arrest us?"

It was only then did Mrs. Bush realize that Nicole was really angry.

Nicole suddenly felt blue.

It would be useless to talk to them anymore.

She waved her hand and said to Alison, "Keep your eyes on her. The police will be here soon. Remember to tell the captain that I hope that what happened today could be taken seriously."

"Copy that."

Alison hurriedly nodded.

Nicole suddenly felt uncomfortable in this place.

She walked to the window around the corner to get some air.

Mrs. Bush immediately cried out.

"Nicole, how could you be so cold-blooded to us! Have you ever thought about how other people would talk about you behind your back?"

At this moment, Ernesto ran to Nicole.

"Mrs. Green, there were a lot of reporters from nowhere standing outside just now, but you don't have to worry about it, I've already ask them to leave."

Mrs. Bush was stunned at Ernesto's words, and then she suddenly cried.
