Chapter 311: Filling Niti*

As Niti had promised, she submitted her body to Rudy and asked him to pleasure himself.

"I need to stop."

"No~ Why~? Don't stop~ You can't do that~" she begged while moaning.

"I do. I am going to cum soon. Where do you want it? Should I milk your unexplored cave and nourish it?"

"No~ You can't cum inside me~"

"Why not? I have heard that getting creampie'd feels good."

"I bet it does, but if you shoot inside me, it will eventually leak out, and I could get in a trouble~"

"Then where do you want it? If I shoot it on you, your clothes will get ruined."

Niti opened her mouth widely and said, "Let me drink my favorite drink."

Rudy humped Niti for a few more seconds before pulling his snake out of Niti's cave and putting it into her mouth.

"Open wide~" he said as he released his load inside Niti's mouth.

After releasing all the shots, he slowly pulled his snake out of Niti's mouth, or he wanted to, but Niti had grabbed it with her lips and used her tongue to prod it.

She swallowed everything while sucking the tip of his snake and finally released it from her bat mouth.

"Wow. I didn't expect you to be aggressive, but I should have known about it since it's your favorite drink."

Niti took deep breaths as her stomach moved up and down while her breasts moved a little with a slight movement. She was out of breath after staying sane during the first round of the pleasure of her life, which wasn't gentle but rough.

"Not going to lie, you are something else." Rudy moved his head between Niti's mountains and sucker her nipples before saying, "That's commendable."

Niti smiled and patted Rudy's head like a mother would pat her child dearly. She played with his ears before moving her hands to his cheek and pulling them.

Rudy was sucking Niti's nipples like a newborn, expecting milk to come out of them, but he could only hope for that as that wasn't going to happen.

"Calm down," Niti said with a chuckle. "At this rate, you end up eating them."

Rudy stopped and uttered, "Are you ready for round two?"

"Huh?" Niti's smile vanished from her face as she asked, "You want to do... more...?"

"Obviously." Rudy shrugged his shoulders and said, "There is no way I will be satisfied with only one round. I finally got my hands on a real milf, so I must taste her inside out."

Niti slowly sat up and gulped down anxiously before dragging her hips back.

"It's already too late. I think we should end it here."

Niti turned around on all fours and tried to get off the bed, but Rudy grabbed her from behind and plunged his snake inside her cave in one go.

"Not so fast, you milfy maid~"

"Please don't give me weird names~!" Niti hissed and tried to break free from Rudy's grip. But Rudy started his engine and began to thrust his hips back and forth while drilling his snake deeper into her cave.

"Anh~ No~ Stop~ I can't take this anymore~" she moaned as he resisted the pleasure but couldn't move an inch forward.

"Hmm? Weren't you the one who was saying 'Don't stop~ Harder~ Harder~ Make a mess out of me~' and 'Please use my body until you are satisfied~'?" Rudy placed his hand on Niti's shoulders to pull her back.

"I did say all that, but—Anh~ Stop~ I can't think straight with your big dick inside me~"

"I am doing what you asked me to. I am a man of my word, so I won't stop even if you ask me to."

"No~ If your dick stays inside me for even one more second, I will go insane~ You will break me~" Niti's legs and hands gave out, and she dropped lazily on the bed.

Rudy raised Niti's hips and grabbed her by the waist as he pulled her body back and forth while thrusting his hips accordingly.

"You lost the challenge earlier, and that makes you my personal maid. While I may be doing it to make myself feel good, my main goal is to have you experience the pleasure of sex. I will make you addicted to my dick like the rest of the girls!"

"Mnh~" Niti couldn't even bother to moan anymore. "I will die from the pleasure~"

"No, you won't. But as I had promised, you will now visit the heavens."

The pleasure had gone over her head, and she was literally flying above the clouds. The only thing she could feel at that moment was getting plugged up by Rudy's snake.

She couldn't understand how something like this could be so enjoyable. But it wasn't until Rudy broke the spells on her and let her taste the natural pleasure. If he wanted, he could hypnotize Niti to fake her pleasure, but he had promised himself to never use his powers on his girls. He wanted to make them his without any help of his powers.

"Aanh~ Aamnh~ Deeper~ Go harder~" she moaned loudly.

"Oh?" Rudy smirked from the corner of his lips and asked, "What's wrong? Gave in so easily already?"

He teased playfully.

"I don't care anything about anymore~ Fuck me until I pass out~"

After railing Niti from behind for a few minutes, he released his fresh, hot load inside Niti's malnourished cave.

"Mnmnh~~!" She clenched the bedsheet tightly as her cave got filled with hot milk. However, she had no idea what had happened.

Rudy kept his snake inside her cave and slowly wriggled his snake to paint his milk inside every corner of her cave.

"What was that?" she asked with an orgasmic look on her face. She smiled in satisfaction and asked, "That felt so good."

Rudy smirked and responded, "That was me creampieing you."

"What...?"

"I dried my balls inside you. Your favorite drink is watering your lonely cave right now."

"B-But... it will leak out! I will get caught!" she yelled with an anxious look on her face.

"No, you won't. Your maid dress covers your body, and your panties will hold it in. Sure, it would drip a little, but you can always take a bath."

Niti squinted her eyes and remarked, "It seems you are used to situations like this."

Rudy shrugged his shoulders and said, "I can't refute that."

Niti thought Rudy was done, but he hadn't even started yet.

Chapter 312: Round Three***

"I seriously can't tell what type of person you are. One instance, you act like a kind gentle like you were when you started to... err... fuck me, and then you became rough and evil when you r*ped me," Niti stated.

"Oi Oi, don't call it a r*pe, okay? Even as a joke, that's going too far."

"I was just teasing you..."

"I know, but such is a sensitive topic, and you shouldn't joke about it."

"Sorry... I didn't know you would get angry..." she said in a meek voice.

"Oh, I am not angry." Rudy let out a weary sigh and muttered, "I ruined such a good mood, didn't I?"

"Don't say that. It was my fault, so I will make it up for it."

"Oh?"

Niti moved her body forward and pulled Rudy's snake out of her cave as a few drops of his milk leaked.

She placed her hand above her cave and muttered, "I suddenly feel so empty from inside..."

"Rudy pushed Niti down on the bed and said, "Don't worry, I will plug you up again."

"No. Let me pleasure you now." Niti pushed Rudy to the side and grabbed his wet snake that was dipped with his milk in her cave.

She sniffed and filled her lungs with the fresh scent of his milk before opening her mouth and licking it. She continued licking like how one would when the ice cream melts from the sides, and it trails down the fingers.

After cleaning his snake from all the sides, she once again engulfed it and began sucking him off.

Rudy chuckled after seeing the delighted look on Niti's face. He patted her head and uttered, "You really do love it, huh?"

"Of course. It's the best part of your body. It gives me milk to drink, it keeps my body warm, it gives me immeasurable pleasure, it feels me up, it makes me feel complete," Niti asserted while sucking his snake and gazing into his eyes.

"Ouch. So you like mister Dick more than mister Rudy?"

"I didn't say that. After all, it's a part of you." She grinned and continued, "So you may feel good when I compliment your dick."

After sucking for a few minutes and cleaning it entirely without leaving the scent of his milk on his snake, Niti looked at Rudy and asked, "When are you going to shoot your milk?"

"Maybe in a few minutes."

Niti got on top of Rudy and pointed his snake at the entrance of her cave.

"..."

Rudy waited for Niti to sit down so his snake could enter her cave, but she didn't.

"Uhh... what are you waiting for?" he asked.

"I am scared of the pleasure...."

"I see. Let me help you. " Rudy grabbed Niti's hands and said, "Look me in the eyes."

Niti looked into Rudy's face with an anxious look on her face.

"There is no need to be afraid. Think about something nice that calms you down. Think about a happy memory," Rudy said calmly.

"I don't have many happy memories. It was when my daughter was born, and the rest is my time with you—anh!"

While Niti was reminiscing about her happy memories, Rudy suddenly thrust his hips up and plunged his snake inside Niti's cave. That was his intention from the start to distract her and plug her up, just like how a nurse would try to distract a kid before giving an injection.

"Anh~!" She moaned again as Rudy turned on his engine. "I~ Hate~ You~"

"Aww~ Thanks!" Rudy smirked and began to thrust his hips up and down.

"Mnh~ Anh~ Amh~" Niti's breasts bounced up and down with every thrust as she tried her best to not fall from the top of Rudy.

"Do you like getting drilled in this position?" Rudy asked.

"Shut up~ I am angry at you~ So I will ignore you from now onwards~"

"Is that so? Then maybe I should pull it out."

"No~! It feels good~ I like this position~ Please don't stop~"

"Heh!"

Rudy was the master in bed with the girls, and he always felt like a sense of dominance over them. He could control them from the moment his snake entered their cave, and he couldn't help but feel sadistic after learning that.

Sometimes, he felt that was the best way to take revenge and pay them back for all the teasing they did to him at the other times.

However, he was aware that his sadism won't work if the girl didn't care about his snake. If any of them said 'Fine. I don't care.' when he threatened them to pull his snake out of their caves, it would be him getting blue balled by himself.

"Mnh~ Nmnh~ Yes~ I can't get used to this feeling~ I want it deeper~ Go harder~"

"Let me tell you a fun fact; if you move your hips back and forth while I thrust mine up and down, you will feel much better."

"Are you trying to tease me again~"

"No."

"I will hate you forever if you are taking advantage of my weakness~"

Niti moved her hips back and forth as Rudy asked her to, and she didn't stop until Rudy's snake began to twitch vigorously inside her cave.

"Are you going to shoot~?"

"Yes. Brace yourself."

"Don't shoot it inside me! My pussy will definitely flood with your milk!"

"I already shot it once, the second time won't make much of a difference."

"It will—aaah~!"

Rudy released his load inside Niti's cave and watched the orgasmic look on her face. That was the true satisfaction for Rudy.

"No..." Niti looked at her cave that was still plugged up by Rudy's snake and muttered, "You wasted so much precious milk..."

"Alright, I will shoot it in your mouth next time."

"Yay~"

Rudy pushed Niti down with his snake still inside her cave and grabbed her by the waist.

"Ready?"

"Yes~"

Rudy slowly began to hump Niti, and the sound of his milk and her juice getting mixed inside her cave was loud enough for both of them to hear.

KNOCK~KNOCK!

"Why is the door locked?! Rudy? Rudy!"

Jane had arrived.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 313: In a Closed Room

BANG~ BANG!

Rudy and Niti were about to start the fourth round of their session, but Jane had returned from the royal bath house.

Fortunately, Rudy had locked the door to stop Niti from escaping, so Jane couldn't open the door and catch her husband on the bed with her maid.

When Niti heard the knock, her face turned pale, and her heart skipped a beat. Her eyes widened as she turned to Rudy with a petrified look on her face.

BANG~ BANG!

"What should I do?!" she asked with a concerned look on her face.

"Hmm? Why are you so afraid of Jane?" Rudy asked calmly.

"Why are you not?! And how are you so calm?! If she catches us, she will kill us both!" Niti yelled anxiously.

"To be honest, I can just say 'Niti seduced me,' and I will be safe. And that's what actually happened. You seduced me by sucking my cock when I was sleeping," Rudy asserted in a neutral tone.

Niti bit her lips, and her eyes got teary. But Of course, Rudy was only teasing her.

"Please don't do that..." she begged. "I don't want to lose either you or Princess Jane."

"..." Rudy chuckled softly and hugged Niti tightly. 'She is so afraid of her...'

BANG~ BANG!

He patted on her back and uttered, "Wear your panties and fix your clothes. And do as I say, okay?"

Niti nodded meekly and fixed her clothes.

"Listen..." Rudy whispered something into Niti's ears and smiled at her before saying, "If anything goes wrong, I will help you. I promise."

"Really...?"

"Yeah. You belong to me now, so it's my responsibility to protect you from any dangers."

BANG~ BANG!

Rudy wore his pants and laid down on the bed. Niti covered him with a blanket and said with a gentle smile on her face:

"Thank you today. It was the best day of my life."

"Then you are now going to have the best days for the rest of your life," Rudy mumbled with his eyes closed.

Niti fixed her hair and everything and took a deep breath before rushing to the door to unlock it.

BANG~ BANG!

Jane had been banging at the door for more than a minute, and the banging sound increased with every bang.

Niti's anxiety grew rapidly as he got closer to the door.

BANG~ BANG!

Niti placed her hands on the handles and opened the door after unlocking the door.

"Niti...? What were..." Jane frowned her face and peeked inside the room by looking past Niti's shoulders. She saw Rudy sleeping, so she turned to Niti and asked, "What were you doing with Rudy in a locked room?"

"I was doing my job, which is cleaning, of course," Niti replied calmly.

Jane raised her brow and asked, "Was there a need to lock the door?"

"The guests from the function were coming here again and again, and Master Rudy was sleeping. You already know how exhausted he was and if someone ruined his sleep, who knows what he might have done. So I decided to lock the room."

Even Rudy hadn't told Niti to use that as an excuse.

"If that was the case, why did it take you so long to open the door?"

"I was fixing your wardrobe, so it took me a while to open the door. At first, I thought it was yet another guest until I heard your voice and instantly rushed to—"

"Okay, that's enough." Jane let out a sharp sigh and entered the room. "Can you bring me something to drink? I was thinking of drinking Rudy's blood, but he is still sleeping, and I can't dare to disturb him."

Said the girl who rode him for the entire night like crazy.

"Sure. I will bring a blood moon milkshake."

"Thanks."

Niti left the room while Jane walked to the bed and smiled after looking at Rudy.

"He must be so tired that he is still sleeping. Yet, he came to save me twice today. I can't help but fall in love with him more and more." Jane placed her hand on her chest and murmured, "I don't want to give him to Rias..."

Jane sat on the bed beside Rudy and glanced around the room to confirm whether Niti had truly cleaned the room or not. While scanning the room, her gaze fell on the glass on the table that was filled with Rudy's milk which had now become a cream.

"..." Jane got up and walked to the table. "What's that?"

'Oh shit!' Rudy nearly opened his eyes, but he managed to keep them close.

While in truth, he had been watching everything, even with his eyes closed, by teleporting his vision into the room. He wasn't going to let his abilities go to waste when he could exploit them thoroughly at any given a chance.

Jane grabbed the glass and squinted her eyes with a confused look on her face. She moved it to her face to smell it to know what it was.

"Princess Jane!" But suddenly, Niti rushed into the room and snatched the glass from Jane before she could sniff it.

Halfway to the kitchen, she remembered the glass and returned in a hurry.

"Niti? What are you doing here? I thought you went to get the milkshake for me."

"Yes! Uhh... the fruits are not available right now. But I asked a maid to bring them from the royal hall. I came here to get this glass."

"What is that thing?" Jane asked curiously.

"It's milk! Master Rudy asked me to get one for him in the morning, but it seems he didn't drink it."

"I haven't drank raw milk. Let me drink this one."

"No! This is... spoiled since it's been here since morning. If you want, I can bring a new one for you," Niti uttered with an awkward smile on her face.

"Leave it." Jane returned to bed after saying, "Just bring me the milkshake. I am tired as well. Maybe I will sleep as well."

Niti rushed out of the room with the glass in her hand and first went straight to the maids' chamber to hide it somewhere safe from public eyes. Afterward, she went to the kitchen and returned to Jane's room with a blood moon milkshake.

"Thanks as always, Niti. You way leave now. I think I will sleep."

Chapter 314: Jane's Obsession

A girl and boy alone in a room together was nothing but suspicious. Any lover would be suspicious of their partner if they found them alone in a closed room with the opposite sex, or in some cases, the same.

It was natural for her to doubt Niti and ask her questions, but her trust in them was so much that she believed everything she said. To be honest, Niti didn't lie.

She was indeed cleaning, but something else. She took all the load and got filled with something that would have made a mess.

After drinking the blood moon fruit, Jane lay on the bed beside Rudy and smiled at him. She sighed and got near him, placing her head on his chest.

"I was hoping you would be awake..." she muttered.

After a brief pause, she continued, "I don't know how to say this, but... I am sorry..."

I said so many mean things to you without realizing it, even though you were trying to help me. I couldn't understand it. So far in my life, no one has stood out for me, supported me, or defended me from berating.

I didn't expect someone to do that, but still... maybe I wanted that to happen.

I always thought I was supposed to defend myself, so when you did that, I was... confused. That was something new for me, and I ended up saying those mean things to you.

I know if I apologize to you, you will forgive me. Maybe you have already forgiven me as you are much more mature than me, after all. But let me apologize right now and tell you that I am thankful to have you as my lover.

I will keep relying on you from now on, so please, you should rely a little on me too. And I know I have said this so many times, but I am truly glad to have met you. At first, I regretted it and felt guilty for having to be in a relationship with Rias' lover, but that guild has long vanished.

I don't care about any of that. I just want you. Even if Rias herself asks me to leave you, I won't. No matter what happens and no matter what it costs— which would be my healthy relationship with Rias— I will not let you go.

Maybe you were right about me. Perhaps I am the yawndere you claimed me to be. I am obsessed with you and get extremely jealous when I see you with someone else. Oh, so I am now possessive too."

SIGH!

"Say, Rudy, would you leave me behind if Rias asks you to? But please... don't answer that question. I am afraid to know the answer.

Maybe... I already know the answer. I am aware that Rias is still your best girl, and that's not surprising. After all, your love story with her is something I cannot compete with. Well, you don't know that yet, but you soon will.

Everything will be in motion once everything is set, and when that happens, what's supposed to happen. But hey, if you dare to leave me behind, I won't forgive you.

I will chase after you to the depths of hell and find you from any corner of the worlds. I will... no, I shouldn't think about something like that.

You promised me that you would never leave me behind, so I will trust you on that. But don't break your promise, or I will break you..."

Rudy got chills down his spine after hearing that. The coldness in Jane's voice was enough for Rudy to realize that she wasn't kidding.

However, Rudy never intended to leave Jane behind, so he was safe regardless of what would happen in the future.

Jane slowly got on top of Rudy and was completely sleeping on him.

Rudy didn't know when was the best time to open his eyes and act as if he had just woken up. After hearing Jane's feelings, he was unsure if that was the best time to do that.

In the end, he decided to turn to the side and accidentally open his eyes. But when he did, Jane was staring right into his eyes.

"Sorry, did I wake you up?" Jane asked calmly, utterly contradictory to how she was acting a few seconds ago.

"Hmm? When did you return?" Rudy asked, playing dumb.

"I returned a while ago, but I went to take a bath and just returned," Jane replied honestly. "What about you? Are you fine now? Niti informed me that you were not feeling well."

She asked with a concerned look on her face.

"Yeah, I had a nice sleep."

"That's good then." Jane smiled gently at Rudy and kissed him on the lips before pushing him to the side and getting on top of him again.

"You know... I was... err... can I drink your blood if you don't mind?" she asked in an awkward manner.

"Sure, go ahead."

"Thank you!" She kissed him on the lips a couple of times before moving to his neck and drinking his blood.

'I have gotten a lot used to this feeling of getting my blood sucked. It was a little painful at first, but now it's only pleasurable. I now know how awesome it feels to suck blood when I drank Nyxia's blood at noon.

Seriously, having a vampire wife is a blessing. But to be honest, I am looking forward to meeting the girls of other races.

Still, I wonder if Jane knows that she did a marriage ritual with me and that we are actually married now?

Nyxia did announce it in the hall, but I am not sure if Jane heard it or believed it. She might be thinking that Nyxia lied to use it as an excuse.

I mean, if she heard it, she wouldn't have said what she said a while ago. She shouldn't be worrying about me living with her as we are married.'

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 315: A Guest

'Anyway, I am more curious about what she meant by 'once everything is set in motion' and all? Even an idiot would know that she is hiding something.

She knows something I don't. But I can't ask her directly, and even if I did, I wouldn't get an answer as she didn't even tell me why Rias fell in love with me.

Well, sooner or later, I will learn everything. Let's spend the rest of the days in peace and ignorance because I am sure as hell that something big is going to happen soon. And I... am going to crush it.

Still, it doesn't feel good when someone hides something from you. I was planning to tell Jane about Niti right away, but I think I should do it after convincing Rias.'

Minutes passed, and Jane still wasn't done drinking Rudy's blood. Rudy patted her back to let her know that she had drunk enough. Nyxia had told him that drinking too much human blood was also bad for the vampires as it could increase their thirst in the long run.

Jane stopped sucking his blood and licked her lips to clean them.

"It was delicious as always."

"Of course. But if I was a normal human with no super regenerative powers, I would be dead on the first go," he chuckled.

"If that was the case, I would have drank your white blood instead," she said with a seductive smile on her face.

"Oh? Kinky~"

"Can we... ummm..."

"What?"

She shook her head and said, "It's nothing."

Rudy pressed Jane's erect nipples from over her clothes and remarked, "Your nipples are erect, and you have constantly been rubbing your hips against my crotch. Even if you don't say it, your body says it."

"I..."

"Hmm? What's wrong? You have been acting strange. Is it about what happened in the royal hall? Don't worry, I am not angry," he said calmly.

Jane lowered her gaze and muttered, "I don't want to make it look like I only care about sex when I am with you. So I will avoid intimate contact with you for the next 24—"

Rudy pinched and squeezed Jane's breasts before pulling her close and kissing her on the lips.

"Don't you dare make another dumb challenge! And what's wrong if you want to have sex with me all the time?"

"I don't want you to feel that I don't care about you..."

"Oh, come on~ You are so sensitive when it comes to relationships, aren't you? And believe me or not, but it's completely normal to think about sex with you are with your lover."

"Is that... so? Do you... also, think about fucking me when I am with you?" Jane asked curiously.

"Of course. I think about fucking you even when you are not with me. But yeah, there are times and places to do that. And..." Rudy undressed Jane and sucked her nipples after saying, "This is the perfect time and place."

"I just took a bath~ You are going to stain me again."

"Then we will take a bath together at night." Rudy pulled Jane's bottom and fingered her. "As expected, you are already wet."

"It's bath water."

Rudy licked Jane's cave and ate it for a while. He drank her juice and said:

"Doesn't taste like one."

"Enough~" Jane spread her legs and pointed her finger at her cave. Then, she looked into Rudy's eyes with an alluring gaze and said, "I want Mister Dick inside on the count of three."

"Oh? What if Dick doesn't want to come?"

"I will close and lock the place for the night." After a brief pause, she counted, "One—!"

Rudy didn't let her count and plunged his snake inside her wet cave.

"Yes~ I missed this~ I wanted it inside me for the entire day~"

Rudy railed Jane for half an hour before shooting his load inside her, while Jane had orgasmed three times.

"Usually, you shoot it within the first fifteen minutes when it's the first round," Jane remarked with a judging look on her face.

'That's because I already shot it four times for Niti,' Rudy uttered inwardly.

Without reacting to Jane's remark, Rudy grabbed Jane's waist and asked, "Ready for round two?"

"Any time~"

Rudy began round two, but after ten minutes, the door of Jane's room suddenly opened, and an unknown girl walked in.

As always, Jane was lost in the pleasure, and Rudy was the only one who noticed her, but he didn't stop humping Jane and continued drilling her cave.

"...?"

At first, Rudy assumed it was a maid, but after noticing she was wearing luxurious clothes, Rudy was sure that she was one of the royals.

'Is she a guest who accidentally came here?' Rudy thought. 'But why should she still enter the room if that was the case?'

Either way, Rudy had no intention to stop. Had he been in someone else's room or in a public space, he would have stopped, but he was the master in Jane's room.

The girl stopped near the bed and watched Jane and Rudy in astonishment.

"Yes~ Harder~ Harder~ Keep doing~ Yes~ Yes~ I am going to cum~ I am going to cum~ I am going to cum~!" Jane moaned loudly as she got closer to orgasm.

"You are getting so tight suddenly. I might cum too. Where do you want me to shoot?" Rudy asked while glancing back and forth between Jane and the girl.

"Inside~ Inside~ Let's cum together~ Yes~ I am cumming~ I am cummin~ I am cumming~!"

Jane's cave repeatedly twitched as it tightened and clenched Rudy's snake even more.

"Why didn't you cum together~?"

She noticed Rudy was looking somewhere else, and she followed his gaze, only to see the girl standing next to the bed.

"Miu?!"

That girl was none other than Jane's cousin, who wanted Jane's help with her essay and was invited by her to her room at night during the function at the royal hall.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 316: Miu

The satisfied look on Jane's face turned anxious after seeing Miu, and she separated herself from Rudy and turned round to rush to the girl.

Rudy was in the middle of humping, and he was close to ejaculating, but when Jane moved, he was left thrusting his hips in the air.

He furrowed his brows and pulled Jane back before plunging his snake back inside her cave from behind.

"Anh~! Hey~ No— wait~ Not now~ Miu is here~" Jane tried to move, but Rudy had grabbed her by her waist.

"It will only take a minute. I am close to cumming," Rudy said as he continued humping Jane and increased his speed so that Jane would moan even louder and show her orgasmic face.

"We can do it later~ Please~ I can't show this to her~"

"Why not?" Rudy raised Jane's head and pointed it at Miu. "Look. She seems to be enjoying the show."

"No~ I will hate you if you don't stop~"

Rudy ignored Jane's warning and continued railing her. Jane thought Rudy would cum soon, and it would end in a minute, but that didn't happen.

Now that Jane was aware of Miu's presence, her cave had gotten tighter than before, and Rudy couldn't let that chance slip. He wanted to enjoy every moment of his snake getting crushed by Jane's cave, so he held the urge to cum and kept nailing her.

She was so tight that he had to move her hips back and forth while thrusting his. And even after five minutes passed, Rudy hadn't stopped, and the orgasmic look on Jane was proof of how much she was enjoying it.

Miu, who had been watching everything for a while now, began to feel strange below her stomach and placed her hand on her cave. She was the youngest cousin Jane had, and she turned 18 a few days ago.

Not only that, but she was Vesier's youngest daughter.

Her knowledge of sex was practically zero, but she did have some knowledge about it as a royal. She wasn't as innocent and oblivious as Alice. No adult girl could be as innocent as Alice in any of the worlds.

It was Miu's first time watching someone do it, which turned out to be her own cousin, whom she admired deeply.

After a few more minutes, Rudy released the biggest load of the day and filled Jane's cave with his hot milk.

"Anmh~!"

Jane bit her lips to hold her satisfying moan and avoid showing it to Miu, but she had already seen more than enough.

Even though Jane's cave swallowed the hot milk, it still wasn't letting go of Rudy's snake.

'This is really something else. I want to keep fucking her all night, but she will kill me if I don't pull out now. Let's tease her a little, though.'

Rudy smirked from the corner of his lips and wriggled his snake inside Jane's cave.

"No~! Don't stir it inside me like this~ You know how much I like that~!" Jane moaned softly.

"That's why I am doing that," Rudy scoffed softly.

He continued doing that for over five minutes and then stopped. He slowly pulled his snake out of her cave and leaned back on the bed in a relaxed manner.

Miu looked at Rudy's mighty snake and covered her mouth in astonishment.

'Something so big, thick, and long was inside Jane Sis' private part? That must be so... painful...' Miu recalled the orgasmic look on Jane's face and remembered how satisfied her facial expressions were.

'I don't understand. The more I learn about it, the more confused I get. Maybe I should ask—'

Jane turned to Rudy with a soft glare in her teary eyes and uttered, "Get out of here."

"Hey... come on... why are you kicking me out? I was just teasing you, and you enjoyed it too..." Rudy was genuinely heartbroken after hearing that from Jane's mouth.

"No. That's not what I..." Jane sighed and pointed her gaze at Miu before saying, "She wants my help with her essay as the exams are near. So..."

"Oh. Alright. If that's the case, then I have no other choice." Rudy got up from the bed and stretched his arms in the air before wearing his clothes and leaving the room.

"Close the door while you are at it!" Jane said out loud.

Rudy closed the door and left Jane and Miu alone in the room.

"..."

"..."

They both stared at each other, but Jane was too embarrassed to look into her eyes, so she averted her face to the side.

Miu stared at Jane's naked body and admired her beauty.

'She is as beautiful as always. I hope I become like her when I grow up,' she uttered inwardly.

Jane tried to get up, so she could wear her clothes, but her body was still lost in the heavenly pleasure Rudy had given her. She couldn't move her body.

"Uhh... Miu, can you cover my body with a blanket?" she asked awkwardly.

"Of course."

Miu covered Jane's body with a blanket and sat beside her after noticing her cave overflowing with Rudy's milk.

"So..." Jane didn't know where to start their conversation.

"Was that... was that your lover?"

"Yes. Did you not see him in the hall earlier in the morning?" Jane asked calmly.

"No. I left after meeting you to study for exams. I also couldn't see elder sister Rias' human lover that night. You see, my grades aren't exactly good. They are a little better than average, but I need to work harder as a royal. All my other siblings from different mothers have always been the toppers. Father said he would make me his personal maid if I didn't score top this time, so I was studying hard..." she said meekly with a gloomy face.

"Is that what they tried to tell me this morning?"

She nodded and muttered, "I also wanted to meet your lover."

Jane furrowed her brow and asked, "Why... did you want to meet him?"

Chapter 317: He is the One

"Why... did you want to meet him? And how did you even know about him? I kept it a secret from everyone."

"From the vampire academy. My classmates told me that you had visited there with a human boy. And everyone knows you would never sit with a boy. I wasn't sure if he was your lover, but after witnessing everything just now, it's obvious," she replied honestly.

"You still haven't answered me. Why did you want to meet him?" Jane asked with a judging look on her face.

"You are the best among all my cousins, and I admire you a lot. Everyone in the royal and noble family—even their personal maids— always humiliate you, but you never let any of that affect you. You give me courage. You are my role model, and I want to become like you," she said while smiling slightly.

"So if you decided to give your heart to a boy, he must be the perfect man in the universe. So I was just curious and wanted to see what type of person he is..." she added.

"Oh, so that was it." Jane sighed in relief and smiled at Miu as she said, "You are indeed correct. He is the best man in the universe."

"What about elder sister Rias' lover? Who is better? Your lover or hers?" she asked curiously in excitement.

All this time, she had thought that Rias' and Jane's lovers were different entities, and it wasn't her fault to jump to that conclusion. She knew better than anyone how close Jane and Rias were, and she was certain that they would never hurt, let alone badmouth each other. So the possibility of Jane stealing Rias' lover was unfathomable to her.

"Well..." Jane had already realized what impression Miu had on her, and telling her that she stole Rias' lover from her when she was in a slumber, would surely ruin her perfect image in Miu's eyes.

She was stuck in a situation she never imagined she would ever be in. She didn't know what to answer, but she didn't want to lie to her either.

Admitting that Rias' lover was better would make it look like her lover wasn't the best man in the universe as she claimed to be. But she didn't want to say her lover was better than Rias' as they both had the same lover.

After pondering for a good ten seconds, Jane took a deep breath and decided to tell the truth to Miu. That showed how much she cared for Rudy and that she was ready to ruin her perfect image.

After telling Miu everything, her reaction was as she had expected.

"What?!" Miu exclaimed in astonishment.

"I know what you are thinking, but it's the truth." Jane shrugged her shoulders and said, "I am not as—"

"That's so awesome!" Miu exclaimed again with a resolute expression on her face. "As expected from you, sister Jane! You really do love elder sister Rias so much that you got the same lover as her. My respect for you has increased tenfold!"

"..."

Maybe Miu's reaction wasn't as she had expected. Regardless, Jane was thrilled to know that her image was safe and her character wasn't questioned.

"Are you feeling okay now?" Miu asked with a concerned look on her face. "If you want to rest, then it's completely okay. I will visit you tomorrow."

"No, it's fine." Jane sat up and fixed her clothes under the blanket before tossing it to the side.

After that, Jane helped Miu with the essay and her studies.

Meanwhile, Rudy was flying around the vampire world.

"I have nothing to do... should I visit Nyxia? But it's hard to find her. Hmm..." He pondered for a while and muttered, "Maybe I should go to a library and read some books about this world?"

While he was flying, his nose caught the scent of the blood moon fruit.

"Yeah, I now know what I am doing."

Rudy flew to the blood moon trees' garden and scanned the area. As expected, it was guarded heavily by the guards, but Rudy had no need to worry.

He landed in the middle of the garden and activated the magic sensory alarm. However, that was his plan, to begin with.

The guards rushed to the spot and surrounded him with deadly weapons and magic spells in their hands.

Those guards were appointed to protect the trees, no matter what the situation. They also weren't allowed to move from their assigned spot. That's why, none of them knew who and how powerful Rudy was.

"Heh!" Rudy smirked arrogantly to copy Jane's haughty expression and summoned a fireball in his hand. He pointed it at the trees and said, "If you don't back off, I will burn all the trees to the ashes."

"...!" The guards glanced at each other with a petrified look on their faces and lowered their hands and weapons.

"Good. Now make sure to keep your mouth shut and not tell anyone about this. Or you will be my next target."

One of the guards approached the other guard and whispered something in his ears. Then, the said guard began to sweat and bowed down before Rudy.

"..."

The others did the same and left the garden to go to their assigned spot.

Of course, Rudy heard what the guard said to the other guard, but he didn't understand why he said that.

'He is the one.' The guard had whispered.

Rudy walked closer to one of the trees and plucked the nearest fruit. He then took a bite and muttered, "It tastes awesome. What were they on about? Harvesting the fruit at certain hours and all. Bunch of superstitions."

He leisurely ate the fruit and was surprised to see that it had no seed. However, he didn't stop there. One by one, he ate all the fruits from one tree and let out a soft sigh.

"Now, time to do what I really came here for."

Rudy's main goal for going there wasn't to eat blood moon fruits— even though he ate an entire tree— he was there to find a solution to produce more blood moon trees.

Chapter 318: Re(pro)ducing the Blood Moon Tree

"Now, time to use my science knowledge..."

Rudy placed his hand on the tree trunk, and as he had expected, it was ice cold, just like the fruits.

"I kind of hoped I would have a seed. If it had, I would have fast-forwarded its time and made it a tree. Still, how do the flowers turn into the fruit without a seed? Or perhaps, it actually has a seed, but it expands and gets absorbed by the fruit as it grows?"

Hmm. That's the most logical explanation I can come up with. But I think I am wrong. This world can defy science. Magic can defy science.

The first tree was created by the Lord using his magic. That makes me question how the first trees were produced in the human world? No big bang theory can explain such things. The variety between them, even the simple cell analysis, brings out intricate details.

The human anatomy itself is a mystery. How everything works the way it's supposed to be. Even a simple process like breathing is so interesting.

Dammit! My inner science geek is coming out!"

Rudy placed his both hands on the tree and closed his eyes.

'I don't know what I am doing, but here I go.'

Rudy pierced his fingers into the tree's trunk and absorbed its magical power. After a few seconds, he tried to stop, but his body kept sucking its powers, and soon, the leaves started falling.

Before he could do anything, he had sucked all the power from the tree and made it lifeless.

All the leaves and branches fell off, and the trunk itself became so hollow that even a kid would kick it, and it would break.

"..."

A strong gust of wind broke the tree from where Rudy was holding it. It fell on the other trees, but Rudy turned it into ashes before that could happen.

The guards who witnessed everything could only pray in fear.

Since the trees were created by the Lord himself, damaging them was considered as a bad omen. And it wasn't one of those superstitions like the blue moon child; it was a real bad omen.

Many tried to cut the trees or steal their parts, but they were struck with a calamity and died a horrible death. In truth, the garden didn't require the protection it was getting because the trees could protect themselves without anyone's help.

"...."

Rudy was lost at his words and didn't know what to do next. He only tried to take a sample of the tree and had it analyzed by his body, but he never expected something like that to happen.

"I am sure the powers don't have a taste to them, but... I feel sweet..."

SIGH!

Rudy looked at the ground where the ashes of the blood moon tree's root were lying. He placed his hand on them and used his restoration ability, but nothing happened.

"..." He lowered his gaze and muttered, "I basically killed that tree. It was alive, and now it's dead. I never used my restoration ability on a dead person, but I was sure I wouldn't be able to bring them back to life. And these ashes just confirmed it."

Rudy was feeling upset. He came here to produce more trees but ended up reducing them.

'Think... think, Rudy. There has to be a trick...'

Rudy raised his brow at the ashes and slowly moved his hand towards them. After grabbing one layer of ash, he gulped down hesitantly and ate it.

'As expected, it's sweet...'

He ate all the ashes and ended up creating a pit on the ground while searching for the deepest parts of its roots. After digging deep enough, he found a red orb, which resembled the blood moon fruit, but it was hard as a marble.

Rudy tried to crush it, but the orb had no cracks even after using half of his super strength.

'So this is the main seed providing the nutrients required to the tree. It's like the universal seed that won't ever decay or get eaten by the worms... if they exist in this world.

I am sure the vampires know about this orb too, but they don't know how to cultivate trees using it. Anyway...'

Rudy stared at the orb and muttered:

"This will help me grow more trees. Now I just need to find a way to grow it again..."

The first thing Rudy tried was his time-forwarding ability to see if a new tree grew out of it, but that didn't happen.

"It needs something to make it bud. I doubt water would work. Maybe some kind of magic?"

Rudy released a bit of the power he had absorbed from the tree before, and the orb began to glow.

"Alright! I think I can make it work. But even if I grow this tree again, I won't be able to produce more. Unless... I have this orb..."

It was time for Rudy to shine once again and create a new power with a reasonable logic behind it. After pondering for three seconds, he smirked from the corner of his lips and uttered with a proud face:

"Damn, I am smart!"

Rudy held the orb properly and uttered, "Duplicate."

As soon as he uttered that, the orb was duplicated.

"Noice!"

It was a simple ability that required minimal logic. Rudy copied the data from the orb and created another orb by conjuring the correct elements from the world.

'I shouldn't get too happy. I still haven't produced a tree...'

Rudy buried one orb in the pit and released the power he had absorbed in the tree. The orb glowed for a few seconds and began to shake.

With a loud popping sound, a four clover leaf came out of the orb.

Rudy kept releasing the power on it, and the leaf slowly grew into a plant and later became a tree. After a few minutes, that tree had become large, and it eventually became the largest and the tallest blood moon tree in the entire Vampire World.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 319: Blood Moon Forest

Rudy gazed at the colossal-sized blood moon tree he had just created and smiled. For some reason, he genuinely felt happy from the bottom of his heart. It was the kind of happiness one would get when they least expect it. The satisfaction from that happiness was indescribable by the words.

"Now... time to make more blood moon trees. If I can make one, I can make hundreds."

Rudy created hundreds of blood moon tree orbs and spread them across the garden and even outside it. He used telekinesis to maintain a certain distance between each tree, from what he had learned about the plants and trees in the school.

But Rudy was sure that those rules wouldn't be applicable here as the primary sources for the plant to grow, such as sunlight and water, weren't needed.

Since there was no sun, there was no evaporation. There were clouds, but they weren't filled with water. The vampire world never had rainfall ever since it was created as they didn't need it.

The source of everything, or rather their origin in the vampire world, was a mystery. The rivers and seas were automatically filled with water every year despite them being used in abundance. The trees never grew old or died even in harsh conditions.

Such was the grace and the blessing of a magical world that one would call it a fantasy.

After burying the orbs into the ground, Rudy placed his hand on the ground and released the power there instead of releasing them on each and every orb. That spread the power evenly to the entire surface, and the blood moon trees began to emerge from the ground.

Sure, Rudy had only absorbed a limited power from the blood moon tree, which obviously wouldn't be sufficient to grow a tree larger than that. However, Rudy's body had the power of super regeneration.

When Rudy absorbed the essence from the tree, it became a part of his body, and his super regeneration ability made it limitless. Now, Rudy could grow an infinite amount of blood moon trees if he wanted.

Rudy stopped releasing the power in the ground when the tree grew large enough to produce the blood moon fruits.

The place that was once a garden of the blood moon tree had now become a forest.

SIGH!

"That was so exhausting~ I will take a few fruits as my payment~" Rudy plucked a few fruits and walked out of place through the gate this time.

The guards bowed down to him as he passed through them. When Rudy glanced at them from the corner of his eyes while taking bites from the fruit, some of them were dumbfounded by what they had just witnessed, while the rest were petrified to their bones.

Rudy jumped in the air and flew aimlessly while eating the fruit. He stopped to have to look at the blood moon forest from a distance, and it looked better than he had expected.

Since it was night and the moon shined more brightly, the red moon's light that fell on the blood moon trees illuminated the blood moon fruits. They looked like tiny red moons hanging on the tree.

"Now that this is taken care of... let's visit Rias..."

Rudy teleported outside the chamber of the valley and stood in front of the hidden mountain door.

"I don't think it would open by knocking, so I will have to open it the way Jane did by using blood magic." Rudy placed his hand on the wall and muttered, "Now that I think of it, Veseir wanted to use Rias as a hostage. Does that mean he knew how to open the door?"

He probably didn't since Nyxia explained to me a few things about the vampires and their relation with the blood."

The blood magic seal was casted on the wall, and only those whose blood was selected as a key to unsealing it could open the door. And there was no way Virgil would have allowed Vesier to even come near the chamber of the valley.

Rudy made a cut on his finger and spread the droplets across the wall. He muttered what Jane had muttered when she opened the door and waited for it to open. But much to his surprise, the door didn't open.

'I kind of hoped that I would be able to bypass this using my powers, but it was worth a try.'

He hummed and wondered, "Should I return to the palace and bring someone with me? Jane is busy with that girl, and Virgil should be sleeping or something. Nyxia can help me, but I don't know her whereabouts. I can try using my 'find my prey' ability to search for Nyxia, but I think that would be useless. I don't know the locations of this world, so even if I find Nyxia, I wouldn't know where she is.'

SIGH!

"Maybe I should break the wall? But there are chances it could trigger some traps." Rudy squinted his eyes and muttered, "I don't think teleportation would work, but let's try it."

Rudy wished to teleport inside the chamber, and he got there instantly.

"..." He facepalmed himself and thought, 'Talk about anticlimactic.'

He looked at Rias sleeping on the bed and smiled gently at her.

'It wouldn't be an exaggeration to call her a sleeping beauty...' he chuckled softly.

He walked to the bed and moved his hand to feel her cheeks, but suddenly, magical chains and shackles were wrapped around him.

The blood moon fruits fell from his hand as he lost his grip on them. His life force was sucked into the chains and shackles, which made him weak, or that was supposed to happen, but Rudy shrugged his hands and broke the chains and shackles into small pieces.

He then caught the blood moon fruits using telekinesis and scanned the dark room with his eyes.

He spotted someone hiding in the corner of the room and muttered, "You are..."

Chapter 320: The Attacker's Identity

Rudy raised his brow and asked, "What are you doing here?"

The person who attacked Rudy was none other than Niti.

"If this was a joke, then it's understandable, but it didn't seem like it. I can sense the blood thirst coming from you. So what's this all about? Why did you attack me?" Rudy asked in a solemn voice.

'Can she not see me in the dark and think I am an intruder?' Rudy wondered.

"I don't need to answer you!" She threw a few magic spells on Rudy, and after realizing they had no effect on him, she dashed at him with a dagger in her hand and stabbed Rudy in the chest.

However, the dagger bent and broke instead of piercing Rudy's body.

"What?!" she exclaimed and used her bare fist to attack Rudy.

"Calm your tits!" Rudy grabbed her both hands and asked, "What's going on?!"

"You will have to get through me first before—"

Before she could finish what she was saying, Rudy shut her up with a kiss on her lips. He thought Niti hadn't seen him and didn't recognize him by his voice, so he decided to kiss her instead to calm her down and handle the situation.

"Hope this kiss helped you come back to your senses," he said calmly. "That was our first kiss, by the way."

"Whoever you are, I won't let you harm Princess Rias! Even if you defile my body—"

"Wait a minute... why are you acting as though you don't know... wait..." Rudy let go of her and asked, "Are you... Vriti, Niti's daughter?"

"Yes, I am! Who are you?!" she snarled.

"Oh... okay..." Rudy inspected Vriti's body from head to toe and asked, "I don't understand. Is it common for a daughter to look exactly like a mother? And since you are vampires, you look the same age."

Vriti was the exact copy of Niti except for a few different body features and lesser growth than Niti. Niti seemed like a mature and milf version of Vriti.

"Uhh... surely, you know who I am, right? You must have seen me a couple of times now."

"No! It's my first time seeing you. How did you even appear in this chamber out of thin air?!" she asked with a baffled expression on her face.

"Well then, allow me to introduce myself." Rudy backed a few steps and spreads his hands as he introduced himself:

"My name is Rudy, and I am Rias' Lover. You might not have seen me before as you are claiming, but you surely would have heard about me."

"I... have..."

"And you know, it's not nice to attack someone like this. Not going to lie, the blood thirst coming from you was... something else. And... I just kissed you..."

Rudy was at a loss for words. He knew he was in the wrong, but that wouldn't have happened if everything was settled via talk instead of jumping straight to the action. It could have also been easily avoided if Vriti didn't look like Niti, which, by the way, was neither of their's fault.

'I knew Vriti was Rias' personal maid, but I didn't expect her to be around at this hour. It's past midnight. Even though she is supposed to stay with Rias, she still needs to go to eat and sleep.

I didn't see any food or an extra bed, or even a couch where she could possibly rest. And most importantly, who would think that a daughter would look like a mother to the extent that they would seem like twins.

Seriously, vampires' beauty is truly the scariest thing about vampires.'

"I don't care what you did to me; I was only doing my job to protect Princess Rias. And I am not going to apologize for my actions. It was your fault. You can't just come inside without permission," she shrugged.

'Well, I came inside your mother, and she had no complaints...' Rudy uttered inwardly.

"Did you hear me? You can't enter this cave chamber!"

'I entered your mother's cave from where you were born...' Rudy facepalmed himself and muttered, "What am I even doing? Am I high (drunk) on blood moon fruits?"

"What did you say?"

"Nothing. Can you leave me alone with Rias?"

"I cannot do that. If you are here to check up on Princess Rias, do it and leave. No one is allowed to stay here for more than five minutes," she stated monotonously and added, "Other than the Vampire Monarch and Princess Jane."

"Well, add my name to the list." Rudy shrugged his shoulders and uttered, "And besides, I don't need anybody's permission to be here."

"That's enough! If you don't leave this place in the next ten seconds, I will call the guards and report this to the Vampire Monarch! He will punish you for breaking—"

Rudy pressed and stuffed a blood moon fruit against Vriti's mouth and said, "Just calm down, girl. Enjoy this fruit and take a rest. Rias is in safe hands."

Vriti took a bite of the fruit, and her glare softened as she started chewing.

"Did you steal them?" she asked with a judging look on her face.

"Sheesh, you are so unfriendly, do you know that? I know Niti, and she seemed more relative to Rias than Jane, and you seem more comparable to Jane than Rias.

I can't imagine Rias being so haughty and unfriendly like Jane or you and vice versa. That suits their personality, but there is a limit and place to it. And right now... is not the best time.

I am not the best person you should act unfriendly with."

Vriti squinted her eyes while taking small bites from the blood moon trees and said with a judging look on her face: "You don't sound so friendly either."

"..." Rudy couldn't help but stare at her with an annoyed look on his face.

"I will take my leave."

"Should have done that a lot sooner when I first asked."

Rudy let out a weary sigh and turned around, facing his back to Vriti.

"I was about to go to eat anyway," she commented.
