Chapter 371: Shopping

When a boy would go to a mall, he would usually buy clothes. Some would buy games and consoles, others would buy toys as gifts, while the rest would buy something they wanted to. However, Rudy was built differently.

"So..." Reina turned to Rudy and asked, "Why are we in front of the women's underwear store?"

"To buy them, obviously," he replied casually.

"But I don't want them, And it's... embarrassing," she muttered.

"What's so embarrassing about that?" he shrugged his shoulders and said, "I have seen you naked many times, and even today, I was staring at you this whole time— which activated my see-through ability— so yeah, for me, you are always naked."

Reina squinted her eyes at Rudy and said, "We will talk about this later. For now, let's leave."

"Wait." He grabbed her hand and said, "Even if you don't want to buy them, at least come with me."

"Why... would you want to buy them if I don't want them...?" she asked with a puzzled look on her face.

"For other girls, obviously," he chuckled. "The vampire squad will be moving to the human world soon, so I want clothes for them, including underwear."

"You can always buy them later when they are here. That way, you would know their perfect size too," she suggested awkwardly.

"Oh, don't worry about that. I know everything about their body. How many times do you think I have held them in my arms?" he said while grinning.

"There should be a rule in the harem; that you can't mention other girls when you are on a date with another," Reina asserted with a knowing look on her face.

"That would be tough."

SIGH!

Reina let out a soft sigh and took Rudy into the shop.

"If you are buying them, then I want one too, but that one has to be chosen by you. After all, I would want to wear your favorite pair. I bet you would be happy to see me wearing them when we have fun."

"Oho? Someone's getting bolder."

Rudy bought ten premium underwear pairs for Jane, Rias, and Niti. And one pair of simple underwear for Vriti.

"Now, time to buy them clothes."

They strolled in the mall for two hours and bought many pairs of clothes for all the girls, including Reina, Alice, and Angelica.

"Should we go home now?" Reina asked calmly. "The sun is about to set too."

"Umm... would you like to come with me somewhere?" Rudy asked with a distant smile on his face.

"Sure..."

'Are we going to a love hotel or something?' she wondered.

"Give me the bags." Rudy grabbed all the bags and teleported them to Reina's office. And the spot they teleported was the couch, where Alice was lying down to take a break.

She wasn't happy about that.

Rudy and Reina left the mall and flew away without being noticed by anyone. However, since the sun was about to set soon, he had no choice but to fly faster than ever before.

Reina was scared, but she trusted Rudy more than herself.

After flying for 5 minutes, they reached a beach.

"This is...?"

Rudy landed on the beach and said, "After watching movies, Elise and I used to come here, but only sometimes."

He pointed his finger at the broken fence in the distance and said, "This beach closes at sunset, so we used to break in from that fence and enjoy the sunset together."

Rudy grabbed Reina's hand and led her to a particular spot.

Waves were coming, and the water was hitting the shores, only to get washed by the next wave.

"This is... was... our favorite spot. Elise used to say that the sunset looked more beautiful from here," he said calmly.

"..."

Reina could easily feel the sadness in Rudy's voice, but she chose to stay silent and let him reminisce about his past life.

"Do you know what a memory box is?" Rudy asked Reina without looking at her.

"No... oh. Are you perhaps talking about the box where you write something and bury it?"

"Yes," Rudy nodded and looked at the far-away sky. "One time, Elise and I were sitting here, and an ancient-looking box was washed to the shore. I honestly thought it would have some valuable items since the box was antique.

The box didn't have any locking mechanism in it, and it could easily be opened by moving the lid in a specific pattern- like a puzzle box. But when we opened it, it was filled with nothing but water. Most likely, whatever was in there was already taken by someone else, or it got lost in the sea.

Elise and I joked about it for a while, and then she suddenly looked at me and said, 'Let's write something for our future self. We would come back here after ten years and see if our dreams came true.'

We had our bags with us, so we were able to write with a pen on paper. We both wrote a note and placed it in the box."

Rudy pointed his finger at the side of the cave and said, "We buried it there."

"Can I ask what you write?" Reina asked curiously.

Rudy chuckled softly with a distant smile on his face and said, "I wanted to have a family with you and spend the rest of my life with you."

Reina smiled bitterly and said, "That's... romantic..."

"We had promised to return after ten years, so we would have also had our child with us. I... thought about that when I was writing that not and smiled. It was hard to imagine myself as a dad, after all.

But regardless, just the thought of having a family with Elise was so exhilarating that I can't describe it in words. It was so... so..."

Rudy couldn't finish the sentence, and his vision was clouded by water in his eyes.

Reina hugged Rudy and said, "You have another chance."

Chapter 372: Good Old Memories

"What did Elise wish for in the note?" Reina asked curiously.

"I don't know... we kept it a secret from each other. And..." he chuckled with a distant look on his face and said, "I wanted to know that so badly. I even hoped that the ten years would pass by in a blink, but then again, I wanted to live each and every moment with Elise and enjoy it."

Reina smiled with Rudy and looked at the sunset.

The sun had painted the sky orange with a pink-purplish shade, which reflected on the sea's surface, making it look like a mirror copy. The waves of the sea had also calmed down, so there was no movement.

The birds were chirping in the distance, and all the sounds slowly faded away. The sun looked like it was about to submerge into the sea, but of course, that wasn't the case.

At that moment, Reina realized why it was Rudy and Elise's favorite spot. She wasn't sure if that spot was the best to see the sunset or if Elise simply liked to sit there. Regardless, the feeling Reina was experiencing made her understand how much Rudy loved Elise.

Rudy moved his hand forward to the sea and lowered his gaze before saying, "Right now, when I look at and recall those days, I feel like they were the best days of my life. Everything was perfect, not in a worldly way, but I was satisfied. I had everything, and I didn't wish for more.

However, a few years from now, we would look back and remember these days and think the same thing and say the same thing. It doesn't really matter. Every moment of our life is precious and memorable, and nothing can replace it.

The happy moments, the sad moments, the mixed moments... everything... makes us alive. We can call ourselves lively. Not many get to experience life the way we do.

I suffered a hell lot of pain in my past life after getting into an accident. I was... devastated. My life was about to be complete. I was going to achieve everything I ever wanted, but... fate had different plans for me.

'Why me?' I had asked myself that question countless times when I was in the hospital. Lying helpless and hopeless on the bed and watching your loved ones cry in front of you. I swore to wipe their tears, but I became the source of them.

Ultimately, after suffering and cursing my luck numberless times, I died. And came into this world. If all my suffering was a redemption so I could have this life, then I would say it was worth it.

But was it? I am doing nothing but running away from the truth. Nothing will ever be the same again. I am not the same."

Rudy's voice became calmer and calmer as he spoke, and it eventually sounded lifeless.

Reina gathered enough courage and took a deep breath before saying, "You will meet her again soon."

"Yeah..." he muttered.

"Even if she won't remember, you can just use that power to share your memories with her."

"Hmm."

"I don't know how to say this but..." Reina scratched her cheek and grinned nervously before saying, "You are Rudy, and that's all that matters. You might have carried your memories from your previous life, but you still have this life."

"Yeah. You are right. There won't be a third time." As soon as Rudy finished saying that, a big wave suddenly hit them, but Rudy was able to stop it.

Reina had closed her eyes and prepared herself for a splash that never happened. When she opened her eyes, she saw a black aurora emitting from Rudy's body that seemed alive and malicious, as if it was going to devour everything.

"Rudy?" She touched Rudy, and the aura disappeared. "No matter what choice you make, I will always support you. And I know the other girls will too."

Rudy smiled at her and said, "I know. And sorry for making all this dramatic. I didn't plan to do that. I genuinely wanted to show this place to you, but it ended up jogging my old memories."

"It's okay." Reina hugged Rudy and rubbed his back as she said, "You are a human too. You have heart. You might never feel physical pain, but you are hurt emotionally. You are only a teenager, and you don't deserve the pain you are going through. I can lend you my shoulders any time if you want to cry."

"I can endure."

"Sometimes, it's okay to cry. It takes out all the negative emotions from you and makes you refreshed. I do that a lot... well, I used to until I met you."

"After sharing everything with you, I feel a little good. Thank you for listening to me. I still don't know if I will be able to hold my emotions when I see Elise, but I will try my best. You girls are my courage and strength; my everything."

Reina kissed Rudy on the lips and uttered in a low voice: "Same. I don't know where I would have been if I hadn't met you at the right place at the right time. Meeting you was the best thing of my life."

Rudy kissed Reina, and she kissed him back. They made out for a few minutes before the mood heated, and they began touching each other's private parts.

Reina looked into Rudy's eyes with a seductive smile on her face and got on her knees.

ZIP~

She began unzipping Rudy's pants, but his ears twitched as they caught the sound of footsteps from somewhere.

"Hey. Not here. Someone is coming our way."

Rudy grabbed Reina and teleported to a familiar park where he had planned to go from the start.

"Isn't this park closed for maintenance after the apocalypse and the pandemic?" Reina asked with a knowing look on her face.

"Yeah. Come with me. I want to show you something." Rudy grabbed Reina's hand and uttered, "There is this statue here that you might like."

Chapter 373: Emotional Damage

"How far is it?" Reina asked as she tiredly let Rudy drag her.

"We are almost there."

"But why are we here?"

"I told you already, I want to show you something."

"I am not interested in watching statues, to be honest. I would rather spend our time together having fun..." she said the last part with a flushed face.

"We can do that here."

"Huh? But we are in the park!"

"You know it's closed, I know it's closed, everyone knows it's closed. So what's the problem? No one would be here anyway," Rudy shrugged.

"But it's just... embarrassing to do it in the open like that..."

"Oh? And you were ready to do it on the beach?"

"Well..."

"Trust me. This will be a thrilling experience for both you and me."

"Just admit that you want to fulfill your fetish of having sex in public!" Reina remarked.

"Eh, no. I actually wouldn't even kiss a girl in public."

Reina nudged Rudy and said, "You have already done it multiple times."

"Well, if you think about it." Rudy placed his hand around Reina's shoulders and said, "We have done so many things in public."

"When....?"

"First time when I chased after you in the locker room and you--"

Reina interrupted Rudy and said, "We didn't do anything there. We just... kissed and... touched each other's body..."

"Second time was in the pool. In fact, you were the one who wanted to have sex in the open. You said, 'This place holds my happy memories, and I want one more--'."

"Okay, okay. Don't mention it!" Reina yelled with a red face. "And that doesn't count!"

"Wow. Look at her denying her own hypocrisy."

"No. The pool is my home. So we technically had sex in our home!" she stated.

"Wow."

"And no one was around, so it doesn't count!"

"Sure, sure. Then what about when I was on a date with Alice, and we had sex in your office, huh?"

"That's...." Reina averted her gaze and muttered, "That was in a closed room."

Rudy knew that Reina would make excuses and try to delay the inevitable, so he carried her in his arms and rushed to the statue.

After reaching there, he placed Reina on the bench located directly facing the statue.

"How's the statue?" Rudy asked with a grin on his face.

"Uhh..." Reina looked at the statue and then read the name: "Fool's Pride. Is this related to the circus or something?" she asked curiously.

"Uh... no. But the person surely resembles a clown," he scoffed.

Of course, the statue was none other than Scott, who was alive inside. He could see, smell, and hear everything, but everything else in his body had turned into stone.

"I don't know what to say. Why did you even bring me here?"

"Do you like the statue?"

"Not really. I hate mannequins, clowns, and statues. And this one seems like a mixture of all of them."

"Heh!" Rudy smirked while locking his eyes with the statue and said, "Too bad."

"But I guess the person who made this statue was skilled and must be praised for his work," she then added.

"You bet." Rudy sat on the bench beside Reina and touched her breasts before kissing her on the lips.

He did all that while looking into Scott's eyes.

'If you thought your punishment had ended when I made you the statue, then you were wrong! I did all that for this moment!' he smirked from the corner of his lips.

Rudy was well aware that Scott harbored feelings for Reina, but it was nothing but his obsession. Regardless, watching your loved one with another man was something no man would want to see. And Rudy was showing Scott just that.

After kissing for a while, Rudy looked into Reina's eyes and said, "Say it like you always do."

"Do I have to...?"

"Yes. It makes me feel good."

Reina touched Rudy's crotch and said, "Give me your big, thick, and long cock and make a mess out of my pussy."

Rudy couldn't hold his smirk and ended up snickering.

"Why are you smirking?"

"Because it's exciting!"

Rudy ripped Reina's clothes entirely and stripped her naked.

"No! Why did you do that? What am I going to wear now?"

"Calm down." Rudy grabbed a piece of clothes from the ground and used his restoration ability to fix them.

"..."

"Ripping clothes is the fastest and best way to strip," he said with a proud look on his face.

Reina took the initiative and kissed Rudy on the lips as she said, "Enough of that. Let's do it."

Rudy pointed his gaze at his snake and said, "You do the honor."

Reina licked her lips seductively as she said, "With pleasure."

She grabbed Rudy's snake and licked the tip of his snake, and kissed it before sucking it. And moved her lips up and down without moving her head and played with the tip.

A few seconds later, she engulfed his entire snake in one go and began to move her head up and down.

"Let me know when you are about to cum~" Reina said while sucking.

"Sure."

Rudy placed his hand on her head and began pressing her head down whenever it moved up to control Reina's head movement.

"You have gotten a lot better at this. I might cum in a minute."

"That's because you make me do this every time," she said with a slurping sound.

"Of course." Rudy smirked haughtily and looked at Scott before saying, "Your mouth and your body belong to me."

Rudy always questioned his morals and ideals and wondered whether he was still sane or not. While he might be sane most of the time, whenever it came to punishing or passing a judgment on someone, his responsibility as a Lord came into existence, and he punished them cruelly.

He was giving Scott massive emotional damage as he was already physically damaged to the core. That was his judgment and punishment to Scott, which would never end unless he wished to.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 374: Double Emotional Damage

Rudy was enjoying the moment more than usual, and he even thought it was one of the best situations he had been in.

"I am going to cum soon!" he said while letting go of her head.

Rudy tried his best to hold it as he didn't want that feeling to stop as he wanted to show it more to Scott. But nothing lasted long, and he shot everything inside Reina's mouth. He saw Reina's mouth getting filled and her cheeks getting puffed.

That was something Rudy was used to seeing as every girl's mouth was filled with his essence. However, it felt exciting every time as he couldn't get used to that.

Rudy pulled his snake out of Reina's mouth and said, "Show it to the statue and swallow it while savoring every drop of it."

"Why....?" she asked with a confused look on her face, her cheeks puffed and her eyes narrow.

"Think about it. This place has been closed for a long time, and no one has come here. This fool's statue must have been lonely all this time. Shouldn't we entertain him a little?" Rudy asked while holding his smirk.

"I would rather not let anyone see us..."

"Me too. But this is just a statue. A worthless piece of shit that is a burden to this world," Rudy said with a smug look on his face.

Reina did as Rudy asked her to do. She opened her mouth and showed Rudy's milk to the statue (Scott). Then, she slowly swallowed it while savoring every drop and showed her empty mouth to Scott again.

"How did it taste?" Rudy asked curiously.

"Amazing as always."

"Did it taste sweet?"

"Hmm?"

"Nevermind. Let's plug you up."

Rudy wanted to confirm Nyxia's theory, which turned out to be true. His essence tasted sweet in the vampire world because his body was absorbing power from the surroundings. In the human world, it tasted normal as it should.

'I wonder if it will taste different in other worlds...'

Rudy tapped on his lap and said, "Sit on your throne, your highness."

Reina sat on Rudy's lap, facing face-to-face, and looked into his eyes before licking her lips seductively and curling her bottom lip from the side.

"I want your sword inside me, your majesty," she said with a grin on her face.

"Wait a second. You have to turn around so you can face the statue."

"But I wouldn't be able to see your face then~!" she groaned.

"You don't have to see my face, but make sure that statue sees the orgasmic look on your face."

"Eh?"

Reina turned around while staying on Rudy's lap and faced the statue.

Rudy lifted Reina's hips and pointed his snake at her cave as he asked, "Ready?"

"I am always ready~"

Rudy plunged his snake inside Reina's cave in one go by pulling her hips down.

"Aanh~!" Reina moaned out loud and said, "That felt amazing! The best part of sex is when you penetrate me with your big, thick, and long dick~"

"Do you love my dick?" Rudy asked with a smirk on his face while looking at Scott.

"Obviously~! But I love you more than that!"

After drilling Reina for a few minutes, Rudy said, "Let's change the position to doggy style."

"Okay~" Reina got on her fours on the bench and shook her hips, seemingly inviting Rudy.

"Come on~ What are you waiting for~?"

"Hehe." Rudy carried Reina and said, "We are not doing it on the bench but on the ledge of this fountain. So this fool can hear your moans loud and clear."

"Why are you so—"

"Better yet." Rudy flew in the air with Reina and said, "Let's do it in the air."

"Absolutely not!" Reina yelled. "You know how much I am afraid of heights, and you want to have sex in the air?"

"Isn't it great?" Rudy squeezed Reina's breasts and suckled them while saying, "You fear one thing and enjoy the other. It will balance out. And who knows, your fear of heights might also die after getting overwhelmed by the pleasure of sex."

Reina pondered for a while and said, "What if I fall down? And what about the gravity and stuff? We would constantly be pulled down. I don't think having sex in the air is practically, scientifically, and theoretically possible.

"My existence is to defy everything."

Rudy let go of Reina in the air, and she fell to the ground, or so she thought, but surprisingly, she was standing in the air without any support from anything.

"What...?" She was confused. But she soon realized that she was standing on a hard invisible surface.

"What did you do?" she asked with a puzzled look on her face.

"I just created a layer of hard air beneath you. Uhh... solid-gas...? I don't think such a thing exists as it sounds so contradictory. And I myself don't know how this works, but think of it as an invisible ground."

"Will I fall down if I move?"

"Of course not." Rudy rubbed his snake on Reina's stomach and said, "Ready to get stabbed by my sword?"

"Yes~"

Reina got on all four and raised her hips so Rudy could penetrate his snake in her cave. She was directly in front of Scott's face, and he was watching Reina getting drilled by Rudy in the maximum quality possible.

"Anh~" Reina moaned as her cave got plugged with Rudy's snake.

Rudy grabbed Reina's breasts from behind and raised her body while humping his hips into her.

"Mnh~ Mnh~ Nhm~!"

"How do you feel?"

"Amazing~!"

"What about the fear of height?"

"I don't want to think about that right now."

Rudy let go of Reina and grabbed her waist to pull her body back and forth.

"Anh~ Yes~ Go deeper~"

"By the way, do you know what happened to Scott?" Rudy asked while smirking at Scott's statue.

"Don't take his name. I don't want the pleasure to get ruined because of his name."

"Hah!" Rudy snickered at Scott.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 375: Emotional Damage Subscription

After hearing how Scott's existence didn't matter to Reina, Rudy couldn't help but ask:

"Apparently, he has gone missing or something."

"Who cares about him? He can die for all I care~ Now, keep fucking me~ I am about to cum soon~"

"As you wish, your highness!" Rudy scoffed out loud while looking at Scott and increased his speed. He went rough on her for a few seconds before filling her cave with his fresh, hot load.

"Aanh~! Yes~ You are filling me up~"

After Rudy filled Reina's cave with his fresh milk, he pulled his snake out and sat beside her in the air.

Reina placed her head on Rudy's lap and looked up at the starry sky.

"It's so beautiful," she said.

"Yeah."

"Are you sure no one will come here?" Reina looked up at Rudy and asked, "What if a guard comes here for patrolling?"

"That won't happen, but if it does, we can always teleport before someone sees us. And don't forget that I can sense any movement from afar. Even now, I can sense the wind moving the leaves of a tree. I can sense the insects moving on or in the ground.

It's honestly too much, to be honest, so most of the time, I have it off. If I am in the house, I keep it on sometimes, but most of the time is disabled. And when I am outside... it gets... annoying. Especially in a crowded area where I can literally hear every single thing from their breaths to their yells."

He said with a soft chuckle.

While Rudy was telling his experience to Reina, Reina was busy cleaning his snake with her mouth. She was only sucking the tip and using her tongue to play with the rest.

Rudy played with Reina's hair while smirking at Scott.

After a few minutes, he asked, "Shall we go a few more rounds?"

Reina stopped sucking the tip and said, "I was just going to ask you that."

Reina spread her legs and said, "Fuck me~"

Rudy pulled Reina's legs and penetrated her cave in one go.

"Did you like it when I was rough?" he asked jokingly, even though he already knew the answer.

"Yes~ I did~ But I don't think I would like you to be that rough. Maybe when we are close to cumming. Otherwise, you will break me~"

"I felt your pussy getting tight when I went rough. And you are right. You wouldn't be able to handle that rough yet. Even Angelica was overwhelmed by that."

"Anh~ Mnh~ Yes~"

Rudy thrust his hips while saying, "Only vampires can handle that rough. Still, if you had long hair, I would have grabbed them and tried medium rough."

"Nhm~" Reina moaned and managed to ask, "Would you like me to grow my hair?"

"Hmm? Not really. You are fine the way you are."

Reina smiled after hearing that.

'You are fine the way you are.' Those were the words most people, especially a partner, wanted to hear from their lover. In many relationships, they were often asked to change themselves to one's needs, beliefs, and wishes.

Of course, if one had a bad habit or did something that could be considered sensitive or offensive to another, it was necessary to ask them to change.

Reina, however, didn't think of herself as a perfect girl. She wanted to change for Rudy, but after hearing the words 'You are fine the way you are.', she felt relieved and delighted.

"Mnh~ I actually used to have long hair~"

"Oh?"

"But since I inherited curly hair from my mother, they became curly whenever I grew my hair longer than my shoulder. And taking care of curly hair is a pain in the ass."

"You don't say..." Rudy sighed and muttered, "I had long silky hair for a while, and it was a disaster. I don't know if I liked them or not, but yeah, taking care of them is surely something I would never be able to do."

After a few minutes, Reina felt Rudy's snake twitching vigorously in her cave, so she wrapped her legs around his waist and said:

"Make sure to not leave a drop behind in your balls~"

Rudy increased his speed and prepared to shoot his milk after saying, "Don't worry. I will empty my balls inside you."

A while later, Rudy once again released his load inside Reina.

Of course, he did all that while looking and smirking at Scott.

"I think my fear of height has vanished now~" Reina said with a smile on her face.

They continued making love to each other until Reina had enough.

"I am full. I don't think I can continue this anymore..."

"Alright." Rudy moved Reina to the ground and said, "Wear your clothes."

Rudy looked at Scott and said, "We will come here every week."

"Hmm? Why would you want to come to the closed park?" Reina asked with a confused look on her face.

"It will open soon, so we should come here once in a while," Rudy responded.

He landed on the ground and looked at the time to see it was past 8 PM.

"Well, I thought it would be past ten or so. But this is good," he muttered. "Alice is going to be pissed at me."

Once Reina had gotten dressed, they teleported to Reina's office, where Alice was waiting for them.

"We are back~!" he said to Alice.

Alice turned to Rudy and said, "Do you want me to say 'Welcome back'?"

'Yup. She is angry.'

"Our date lasted for longer than I thought. We were stuck somewhere and didn't realize the time," he said.

Alice shot a glance at Rudy's crotch and then looked between Reina's legs. Her cave had begun to drip Rudy's milk; hence, her clothes were wet from her cave area.

"You mean, you were stuck inside her," she remarked with a knowing look on her face.

"Exactly. You know me too well."

Alice grabbed something from the table and handed it to Reina without saying anything.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 376: Reina's Demise

Reina looked at the thing Alice handed her and asked, "What's this?"

"It's a pill. Birth control pill, to be exact," Alice responded.

"Uhh... and... why are you giving me this?"

"So you can eat them, obviously. Since Rudy has been creampieing you, you should take them. You wouldn't want to get pregnant at such a young age, right?"

"Hmm? I don't really care, to be honest." Reina looked into Rudy's eyes before saying, "I belong to Rudy. So if he wishes to impregnate me, I am fine with it."

"Uhh..." Alice was at a loss for words. "But you are still young. How old are you, 22?"

"20."

"That's even worse!"

"Maybe for you. I am fine with becoming a mother of Rudy's child. What about you? It seems like you are not interested," Reina asked with a judging look on her face.

"It's not like that!" Alice refuted. "I am still in high school. I have to go to university, and I have my own dreams. I am sure even Rudy wouldn't want to become a father at such a young age."

Reina and Alice turned to Rudy to hear his response.

"Well... I will leave that to you girls. Obviously, I wouldn't force my wishes on you. If a girl is ready to get pregnant, I will impregnate her. So far, I have been making sure that they don't get pregnant."

"How?"

"The milk I release doesn't have the power to impregnate a girl; I have disabled that function," Rudy replied with a shrug.

Reina squinted her eyes at Rudy and said, "Don't make it look like you are a robot who can enable and disable things in the body."

"That's the easiest term I can explain with."

"Well, whatever." Alice let out a weary sigh and said, "It was your first date with her, and I didn't want to be that annoying girl who calls you. I had fun today, anyway. It was a nice experience, but an exhausting one too. I can't imagine how you do this every day."

"Thank you for being considerate of me," Reina said with a smile.

"Don't mention it. You didn't interfere on my date with Rudy when we came here, and you even knew everything before me. You could have done something to stop us from being alone.

You would have refused to give us the private pool, but you didn't. We both love the same man, so we should get along. I don't know if I would be able to get along with the other girls."

Alice shot a glance at Rudy and said, "For example, Rize, whom Rudy is trying to seduce."

"If I remember correctly... Rize was Rudy's... teacher from school?" Reina asked to confirm.

"Yes. And for some reason, Rudy thinks that he has to make her fall in love with him to save her."

"No. That's not the only reason. And before you say something else, I want to make it clear that I had a crush on her before I developed a crush on you," Rudy remarked.

"Which you never realized until it was too late?"

"Yeah. I was a dense motherfucker back then, but not anymore."

"Oh, by the way," Alice turned to Reina and said, "Someone named Rina dropped by."

'Rina... I have heard that name before...' Rudy uttered inwardly as his eyes suddenly widened after remembering. 'That's Reina's little sister!'

"Oh, my god!" Reina facepalmed herself and said, "I forgot she had said that she would come here for a weekend!"

"Uhh... who is that girl?" Alice asked with a confused look on her face.

"My little sister! This place doesn't have enough space for two people to live comfortably. Not to mention, it's far away from her school. So to save time and bus fare fees, she decided to live at her friend's house, which is near her school," Reina responded in a low voice.

"When did she come? And where is she now?!" she asked.

"She came here a few minutes after you..." Alice pointed her finger at the shopping bags in the corner and said, "After you did an express delivery of the bags on my face."

"I didn't do that on purpose."

"Anyway, she came straight to the office and knocked on the door. I obviously thought it was one of the customers, so I didn't open the door and talked with her just like that. She mentioned her name and asked where you were. I told her you went on a date, and I am—"

"Wait, what?!" Reina exclaimed and asked, "What did you say to her?!"

"Uhh... I said you went on a date..." Alice glanced back and forth at Rudy and Reina and asked, "Wait, was I not supposed to say that?"

"No shit! I am supposed to be working hard. Not go on one date and have fun. What would she think of me now?"

"I wasn't provided any instruction, so I just told her the truth."

"Please tell me you did not tell her that I went on a date with my boyfriend," Reina uttered with a distressed look on her face.

"I did."

"..." Reina sat on the couch with her head in her hands and asked, "Where is she right now?"

"She left soon after but said she would drop by at night. So she should be here at any minute now," Alice responded.

"I see."

Rudy glanced at Reina and Alice from the corner of his eyes and thought, 'I don't think I should say something here.'

He turned to Alice and said, "Shall we go now?"

"Yeah."

"Take the bags with you," Reina said.

"I can't. I have a step-sister now, and if she finds the bags full of the girl's underwear and clothes in my room..."

"Then give it to Alice."

"I don't have space for them."

"I don't have space either. As you can see, this office is my room."

"Keep it here for a few days until I settle everything," Rudy said.

"Okay."

He kissed Reina on the lips and asked, "What will you eat for dinner? Do you want me to buy you something?"

Reina shook her head and said, "As you know, Rina is coming, so maybe I will order something."

"Alright. See you soon."

"Hmm."

Rudy grabbed Alice and teleported near her house. Alice walked to her house while Rudy teleported to his.

Thus, ended Rudy and Reina's first date, mixed with many memorable and emotional moments.

Chapter 377: Meanwhile

Meanwhile, the pale pink-haired girl glanced around the beach and muttered, "Weird. I sensed malicious energy from this place, so I came here to get rid of it. But I don't see anyone. I was on the other side of this world, so it took me a while to come here. But am I in the correct place?"

Why are my powers acting like this? I get powers from 'master', so unless his powers are currently not fully awakened, I can't think of any other possibility. That would mean I wouldn't be able to find him even if he was in front of me."

SIGH!

"I should keep looking for him. This era of the human world also seems interesting. There are so many new things. I find it hard to believe that humans invented such things.

They were so weak and helpless back then, but now... they dare to zap me with their— a weapon they called—a taser gun for not paying for the food. They even made me wash dishes as compensation."

"Hmph!" She puffed her cheeks and stomped her feet on the ground in anger.

"If only I hadn't promised my master that I would hurt a soul, I would have shown them my wrath. Master, where are you? I want you to praise me for the good girl I have been today. You better spoil me rotten~"

The girl looked at the sea waves and walked towards them. She kept walking even though the water was reaching to her knees. And she eventually submerged into the water.

At the same time in the vampire world, Rias was in her room in the palace, getting ready for bed after having a nice dinner.

She was doing her hair on the vanity table and humming a familiar song while looking at her reflection in the mirror.

"Princess Rias..." Vriti called out to her and said, "Your bed is ready."

"Thanks, Vriti. You may go now."

Even though Rias had permitted Vriti to go, Vriti stood behind Rias and looked at her with an anxious face.

Rias looked at Vriti in the mirror and asked, "What's wrong?"

Vriti gulped down anxiously and uttered, "Princess, what do you like about that human?"

Rias furrowed her brows and said, "His name is Rudy."

Vriti took a deep breath and asked, "What do you like about Rudy?"

"You are not allowed to call him by his name. Call him master like your mother does," she said calmly.

"There is no way I am calling that human my master!" she yelled inwardly.

"He is not a trustworthy man, princess," Vriti said in a low voice.

"What do you even know about him?"

"I didn't want to tell you this as it would surely break your heart and ruin your relationship with princess Jane, but your lover laid hands on princess Jane and defiled her while you were resting in your slumber," Vriti stated with a regretful face.

"I am already aware of it," Rias responded casually.

"Then why do you..."

"Because I love him. Jane loves him too. And I am fine with him having a harem."

"A h-harem?! Princess, you are a royal. You have pride. You can't let some man use—"

Rias placed down the brush and turned to Vriti with a smile on her face. She grabbed her hands and said:

"Vriti, I know you don't like men, especially the ones like Vesier— your father. But Rudy isn't like that. He cares about Jane and me, just like the other girls in his harem. You don't know him well, so please don't judge him," she said calmly.

"I am just... trying to save you from the pain..."

"I know," she nodded. "I know that you are worried about it. To me, you are like my mother, and every mother worries about her child. That's natural. But Vriti, Rudy is the most lovely person I have ever met."

Do you think that I would fall in love with someone so easily?" She asked with a judging look on her face.

"I..." Vriti stuttered as she struggled to say something in response.

"Forget about me. Jane, you know her. Do you truly think someone as haughty as Jane could fall in love with the man I love?"

"No..."

"I will not force you to change your opinions about Rudy. You will come with me when we go to the human world and see for yourself."

"Wait... the human world?" Vriti's eyes widened after hearing that. "You are planning to go to the human world?!"

"Yes. And not only me but Jane and Niti too."

"What?! There is no way the Vampire Monarch would allow such a—"

"He has already agreed to it."

"But I haven't! I will never go to a human world!" she refuted.

Rias stared into Vriti's eyes for a few seconds and said, "Whether you come with me or not, I am going."

"You mustn't, princess! The human world is dangerous!"

"Even if it is, I have Rudy to protect me." Rias shrugged her shoulders and continued, "And if you truly care about my well-being, then you should come with me."

"That's not fair of you, princess. You are manipulating me..."

"You have time to decide whether you want to come or not. I will not force you, Vriti. But my decision will never change."

After a few seconds of silence, Vriti bowed down to Rias and said, "I will take my leave now. Have a good night."

"Good night."

Vriti left Rias' room and closed the door behind her.

SIGH!

"I don't know if it was a good idea to not tell her that even her mother— Niti, has an intimate relationship with Rudy. I don't think she hates Rudy, but she has a bad impression of him. I wouldn't blame her, though. If I wasn't in love with Rudy and I saw her fooling around with my sister, I would be angry too. But that doesn't justify anything."

Rias got up from the chair and looked at the blue moon from the window.

"I wonder if Jane is asleep already."

Jane was indeed sleeping in her room. However, her consciousness was somewhere else.

"Why... am I here again...?" Jane asked as her body trembled.

She was in the desert of the blue moon.

Chapter 378: Under the Blue Moon

"How am I here...?" Jane asked herself. "I am sure I was sleeping in my room."

Jane grabbed a fistful of sand from the dessert and muttered, "It's cold..."

She slapped herself, thinking she was in a dream and everything was fake. She thought she would wake up, but even after hitting herself, she was still there.

"Ow!"

She glanced around and walked forward, seemingly looking for something.

"Where is that door?"

Still, she was afraid to run into the cloaked figure from last time.

"Am I trapped here?" she wondered. "Rudy was with me last time, so I wasn't that scared. But right now, I am alone."

Jane closed her eyes and took a deep breath. She exhaled shortly after and opened her eyes with a resolute expression on her face.

"My name is Jane OrionHeart, the heir to the throne and the third strongest vampire alive. I am Rudy's wife— who is the almighty Lord. I have no reason to fear anything. I will face my fear and surpass my limits. I will become the child of the blue moon!"

She yelled out loud in the middle of the desert.

She smiled as her gaze fell on the colossal glass hand that Rudy had made.

"Rudy is here with me."

She looked up at the sky at the full blue moon and said, "You can't do anything to me!"

Suddenly, her attention was diverted by a popping sound. It was a soft and weak sound, but it sounded loud enough to be heard by anyone— especially in a place like the desert.

Jane saw a five clover leaf where the blood moon tree once stood. The leaf grew more and turned into a plant. Within a second, it had become a young tree with one blue moon fruit ripening on a branch.

[Eat this, and you shall receive vast knowledge that surpasses all. You will also acquire prowess that is second to none. Nobody will ever dare to block your path again. Not even the despicable Lord be able to match your existence.]

Jane recalled the words of the cloaked figure.

She looked at the fruit with an alluring gaze as though she was attracted to it. It was like a forbidden fruit to her, which she knew she shouldn't eat in any circumstances. But she couldn't help it, nor could she resist the temptation.

"What should I do...?" she gulped down nervously and muttered, "If I eat it, I will gain vast knowledge. But should I believe what the cloaked figure said? Even more, it seemed like it bore hatred towards the Lord. Right now, the Lord is Rudy.

If I eat this fruit, does that mean I will become Rudy's enemy? I don't understand. How would eating this fruit and gaining knowledge make me his enemy? I love Rudy more than anything, and nothing can change that. Love doesn't die."

Jane stared at the blue moon fruit for a few seconds and slowly moved her hand towards it.

"I may be the third strongest, but I am nothing compared to Rudy. I lack many things. If I eat this fruit, maybe I will be able to help him with the things he wants to know? I am doing this for his sake. I want to be worthy to be his wife," she stated in an emotionless voice.

The blue moon fruit shined as the blue moon's light spread across the desert.

PLUCK!

Jane felt the fruit in her hand, and its fresh smell filled her lungs, which made her lose her senses. Her eyes shined blue even though they were red.

The only thing in her mind was to eat the fruit. Her thirst to become useful to Rudy boosted the effect of the blue moon fruit.

She opened her mouth and moved the fruit close. Her fangs elongated as the fruit got closer to her mouth.

"Stop it."

Just when she was about to take a bite from the blood moon fruit, a voice called out to her and asked her to stop. But of course, Jane didn't hear it, or rather, she couldn't hear it as she had lost all her senses.

"Jane. If you do that, everything will change," the voice said as it got closer, seemingly walking towards Jane.

The voice belonged to none other than Nyxia. She grabbed Jane's hand and snapped her out of it.

Jane's eyes turned normal as she exhaled sharply.

"Grandma... Nyxia... what are you doing here?" she asked in confusion.

Nyxia stared into Jane's eyes and said, "I am dream walking."

"What...? But... why are you here? This place is... I don't know what, but it's not safe..."

"I don't want to hear that from you." She pointed her gaze at the fruit in Jane's hand and asked, "What were you going to do?"

"What do you—" Jane stopped on her words when she saw the blue moon fruit in her hand. Her eyes widened as she looked at the tree and found no fruit there.

"Why...? I don't remember plucking it..."

"This blue fruit tree, the blue moon, and everything here plays with one's emotion and gives them a false dream of what they want the most. You must have wished for something, and it took advantage of your feeling," Nyxia stated.

"I..." Jane lowered her gaze in embarrassment and muttered, "I call myself the third strongest vampire alive, yet, I fell for such a pathetic trick."

"It's not your fault. Not in the least. You didn't come here on purpose. You were brought here. And even if you manage to escape this place, you will find yourself here again and again. Every time you sleep, you will wake up here.

The same thing will keep happening until you eat this fruit and accept its promise."

Nyxia asserted with a soft glare in her eyes, seemingly, she was a little angry.

"I see... wait... how do you know about all this?" Jane asked with a confused look on her face.

"..."

"Oh! Obviously, you are all knowledgeable." Jane laughed awkwardly.

"You must know everything."

"Ever wondered why?" Nyxia asked with a judging look on her face.

Chapter 379: Blessings of the Blue Child

"Do you know why or how I know everything?" Nyxia asked with a judging look on her face.

"How...?!" Jane's eyes widened as she suddenly gasped in realization. "Don't... tell me..."

A sudden gust of wind swayed the desert's sand, the tree's leaves, and Jane and Nyxia's clothes and hair.

"I am also a blue moon child, born under the blue moon."

"Wait... how? I don't understand. If you are also the same as me... then why is your hair not white like me?" she asked with a puzzled look on her face.

"Oh, I had white hair for the first six thousand and ninety years of my life. I was already well known in the human world before I came to this world created by the Lord. Then one night, I had a dream and found myself in this place.

I was surprised. I was sure it was a dream, but everything felt so real. The same breeze, even the light coming from the blue moon. That's when I realized I was dream walking, and someone or something had pulled me into this place.

I was fairly strong and knowledgeable at that time and... well, arrogant too. I tried to leave this place but I couldn't. I can't remember how many nights I spent in this place. I would randomly wake up in the vampire world and continue my day, but whenever I slept, I was here.

I was afraid of this place. I was scared of sleeping. It had become an absolute nightmare for me. And... I ran out of patience and called whoever was doing this to me. And then it appeared.

A colossal cloaked figure with a scythe in its hand. I was so furious that I only cared about the answers. The figure didn't say anything but led me to this place and made a cut on my hand.

A blue fruit tree sprouted from my blood, and I was in the same state as you. Attracted to its scent, my thirst increased.

I was asked to eat the fruit and gain a vast knowledge of the world that surpassed all. I gained unparalleled wisdom. I knew everything. From the creation of the universe to the time I ate the fruit. I saw all the past events and what had truly happened.

I didn't see the future or would have known things and prevented it. Perhaps, that's the reason the future can't be seen.

The knowledge I gained helped me rise to the pinnacle. I became the wise sage to the mad Queen. I was reborn the night I consumed the blue moon fruit. And I have to admit, I don't regret eating it.

However, that's because I was alone. I had no family or friends, no one to talk to. I wanted attention. I wanted to love. And that's why I embraced the role of the cursed child. It was truly a long, painful journey mixed with suffering.

But, you have a choice, Jane. You have a family who loves you. You have friends to protect you. And most of all, you have a lover who cherishes you dearly. You don't have to become the cursed child. You don't need to fulfill the role of the child of the blue moon.

Live your life the way you want. Don't become the slave to fate."

Nyxia stated in a calm voice with a gentle smile on her face.

"What will happen if I eat the fruit?" Jane asked in a neutral tone.

"You will gain knowledge and wisdom more than me. You might even surpass Virgil and become the strongest vampire alive. However, everything comes with a price. If you accept the blue moon fruit, you will become the Queen of the blue moon.

You will have to fulfill your duties and end the reign of the Lord— which you know is your lover. You might think you will eat the fruit and ditch your duties, but that won't work. You will be forced to comply. Your powers will be used to bring calamities everywhere.

To put it in simple words..."

Nyxia stared into Jane's eyes and continued, "Willingly or unwillingly, you will become the Lord's enemy. And this is not something new. History is repeating itself. Now, you have to decide what's more important to you; the unfathomable power or Rudy."

"..." Jane looked at the fruit in her hand and pondered.

"I chose the fruit as I had nothing to lose. I had already lost everything," Nyxia said in a low voice.

Jane moved the fruit close to her mouth and crushed it in her fist.

"I don't even need to think for a second. Rudy is always the most important to me. I don't care about power or fame. Even if I lost everything, I would be content as long as I have Rudy!"

Nyxia smiled at Jane and said, "Well done, my cursed child."

She held Jane's face in her hands and pulled her cheeks before saying, "You broke the curse, so I guess I can no longer call you the cursed child. Tonight, you have been reborn as a new person, as the wife of Rudy."

"I don't think I have ever heard you call Rudy by his name..." Jane muttered.

"Don't tell him that I called him by his name."

The blue moon tree suddenly caught fire and slowly turned into ashes.

"Let's hope it doesn't grow again like earlier..." Jane muttered.

"It won't. You rejected the blessings of the blue moon. You are a free bird... or should I say 'free bat' now," Nyxia scoffed softly.

"That's something Rudy would say," Jane chuckled.

"I know, right!"

"Wait..." Jane raised her brow at Nyxia and asked, "Since when did you and Rudy get close to each other. I can surely see you have been influenced by him. So what's going on?"

"Whatever do you mean? That's how all humans are." Nyxia told a blatant lie to hide her immoral relationship with Rudy.

"Say, did you also hear that loud drum sound?"

"I did."

"And how do you know Rudy is the Lord? Did Grandpa Virgil tell you?"

"No. I already knew it. And keep this a secret, but Rudy isn't actually a Lord."

"Huh?"

"He is something more powerful than the Lord."

Chapter 380: Tailing Rebecca

Rudy woke up, took a bath (had a few quickies with Angelica), and ate breakfast with Lucy.

"Mom hasn't returned yet?" he asked Lucy.

"You woke up earlier than usual. Her shift shouldn't have ended yet," she responded.

"I went to bed early, so I don't even know when she went to work," he sighed.

"Where were you, though?" Lucy asked while acting normal.

"Uhh... I was with my friend."

"Who, Eric?" she asked.

'Mom must have told her a few things about me,' Rudy uttered inwardly.

"No. Alice. She is my... childhood friend."

"Oh, I know that. Your mother showed me the photo album of your childhood pictures."

"Is that so...?"

"Yes! You were so cute when you were a kid!" she said cheerfully.

Rudy squinted his eyes and asked, "Why are you saying it like I am no longer cute?"

"Hmm~" Lucy hummed in amusement and said, "You are handsome, not cute."

"Oh...! That's right!"

Rudy and Lucy ate breakfast while talking like a normal brother and sister— although it was a rare occurrence for a sister would call her brother handsome.

"What about you? Do you have any friends?"

"Of course I do!" she said in a rather loud voice. "I have friends in school."

"Oh, I was talking about childhood friends or, you know, close friends that are like family to you."

"I don't have a childhood friend, since we have been moving a lot from one city to another and never had a chance to... you know..."

"Yeah, I feel you. I only had three childhood friends, and our friendship slowly faded as time passed..." he muttered with a distant look on his face.

"Hmm? They are still your friends, right?"

"Ah, I was talking about the possibility." Rudy cleared his throat and said, "I said if I had the same circumstances as you, our friendship would have faded away as time passed."

"True."

After eating breakfast, Rudy went to his room to grab his phone and returned downstairs.

He looked at the time and muttered, "Mom should be on her way."

"Rudy? Are you going somewhere today too?" Lucy asked with a little annoyed look on her face.

"Yes. I am young, so I should enjoy myself, right?"

"That's true, but don't you think you should focus more on your studies?" she asked with a judging look on her face.

"Oh, come on. You now sound like mom," he groaned.

'You sound like mom.'— That was something everyone in the world was familiar with, and not in a pleasant way.

"Our tests ended not long ago, and we have a sports week coming up soon, which was delayed for some reason. Let me live my life a little," he scoffed. "What about you? What do you do all day at home?"

"I watch television shows," she said with a straight face.

"And then you ask me to study," he commented.

"At least I don't go out and hang out with 'girls'," she quoted 'girls' with her fingers and continued, "Or in my case, boys."

"Anyway, I am leaving. I will be back in an hour or two. Make sure to lock the doors~"

After saying that, he left the house and flew to the sky.

SIGH!

"Seriously..." Rudy shook his head and muttered, "She hasn't changed at all. She was just like this in my past life."

"Angelica, I am going to the convenience store. Do you want me to buy something?"

"...?"

Rudy waited for a few seconds, but after receiving no response from Angelica, he assumed she had fallen asleep.

"She was watching anime all night again. But at least, this time, the phone had enough battery."

Rudy flew to the convenience store Rebecca worked at, and landed near it. He walked the rest of the way in and searched for her, but she wasn't there.

"She left around 10 minutes ago," the staff said.

"Oh, okay."

'If she left ten minutes ago, she should be home already. Maybe she stopped on her way to buy something? Still, I flew all the way and kept my eyes on the streets. I didn't see her...'

Rudy furrowed his brows and left the store in frustration. He then closed his eyes and used 'Find my prey' to search for Rebecca's location, only to find her walking on a familiar street.

"Eh? Why would she take a long way instead of the short way?" Rudy wondered in confusion. "Actually... I might know. I think she is trying to avoid running into me. She thinks that I will go out today too as I did yesterday and she will be able to avoid me with ease. But mom, you are mistaken. I am not going to let you off the hook for the emotional pain you have given me recently."

Rudy soared into the sky and reached where Rebecca was. He wanted to confront her in the middle of the street, but he stopped himself.

'If she asks me, 'How did you know I was here?' I would be speechless. And instead of me confronting her, she would confront me. Let's follow her home and then do everything,' he uttered inwardly.

Rudy hadn't realized that he was acting like a professional stalker.

He slowly followed Rebecca from the sky while chatting on the phone with Alice.

"Should I go home and wait for her? But she can still avoid me. I will have to corner her somehow..." Rudy placed his hand on his chin and thought of various ideas, but all of them were extreme.

While Rudy was busy answering Alice's question about mathematics for the homework, he glanced at the street and saw Rebecca wasn't there.

"Hmm?"

He glanced to the side and saw her walking to a different street that was opposite to his house.

"She was supposed to take a left, but she turned right. I don't think she would make a mistake, so why is she...?"

Rudy followed her for a while and realized where she was going.

"That way is..."
