Chapter 461: Maria and Lilim

Rudy was flirting with Maria and Lilim and discussing things about the future. He also told Maria more things he hadn't shown to her the other night.

"And that's how it went." Rudy finished his story.

"But what about the other abilities you have?" Maria asked curiously.

"I have too many abilities. Be specific."

"The one that makes you blind," Maria responded.

"That's not the function of the ability, but I get what you mean..." Rudy sighed. "I have to work on that ability."

"You can just decrease the radius of that ability and scan a limited area to avoid the load on your eyes, right?" Lilim wondered.

"I can, but then there would be no point in using that ability," Rudy shrugged and continued, "I can sense things in a limited area anyway. My sight has always been better than my hearing, but in a close distance or short radius, the difference is negligible."

"I see..." Lilim nodded. "Daddy have it hard."

Maria shot a glare at Lilim and said, "Don't call him that!"

"Why not? He has no problem with it."

"It's so immoral. Don't you feel... weird calling him that?"

"No. In fact, I feel excited every time I call him that. I am sure daddy feels the same." Lilim turned to Rudy and asked, "Right, daddy? I remember how you played with my body every time I called you 'daddy' on the bed."

"Yeah." Rudy gave a thumbs-up sign to Lilim and said, "Roleplays are always the best."

Lilim glanced at Maria and smirked, "See?"

Maria shook her head in disbelief and muttered, "You two have no shame."

"Aww, Lady/ Maria, you are so innocent," Rudy and Lilim said in unison to tease Maria.

"I see. So this is how the rest of my life is going to be. I will be teased by you two. I see. I see. Well, what can I do? I have chosen to love this man. Mistakes were made, but it's too late now," she said like a robot reading a script.

"Look, now she is sulking," Lilim commented. She hugged Maria and said, "You know, I was genuinely hurt when you said I wasn't your friend. But then you said you think of me as your sister. I am so happy right now that I can die."

"Are you really?" Maria asked with a judging look on her face.

Rudy watched Maria and Lilim interact and thought, 'I am glad they are on good terms again.'

"Now that reminds me..." Lilim nudged Rudy and said, "You never told me who confessed first. Was it Lady Maria or you, daddy?"

"It was... uhh..." Rudy raised his brow and pondered for a few seconds before answering, "I don't think any of us confessed our love to each other, actually."

"What?!" Lilim exclaimed and shot a smirk at Maria. "Well, well. So that would mean Lady Maria kissed you even though you have no relationship. Maybe she is not as innocent as I thought she was."

"Stop teasing me already!" Maria hissed. "I forgot to confess my love to him because of everything that's happening! I also wasn't sure if I should confess to him or not since he said he was in a complicated relationship."

However, I wanted him to be mine, so I made a move. I didn't want to lose him, but it turns out he belongs to multiple girls. I was in a hurry at first, but not anymore. So I can take it easy without worrying about losing him."

"Wait, so are you saying that you are going to postpone the wedding?" Lilim asked nervously.

Maria looked at the toffee wrapper ring on her finger and said, "I don't know. I have yet to understand what love means. I, of course, want to marry him soon. But will my life change after the marriage?"

"It won't," Rudy answered. "Even after the marriage, we will remain the same. You can take your time in our relationship. And as you said, neither of us are going anywhere."

"Thank you," Maria said with a smile.

"And... I will get you a ring soon. I can get you one now, but I want it to be special."

Lilim squinted her eyes after seeing Maria and Rudy flirting in front of her.

"Or you can just be friends with benefits with him," Lilim suggested. "Just like me."

"I am not a shameless girl like you who would lay hands on her friends or sister's lover," Maria remarked.

Lilim raised her brows and said, "Lady Maria, if you make fun of me like that, then I am not going to sit and watch. I will fight back."

"Oh? What will you do? Punch me? Or perhaps change into your demon form and scare me away?"

"I wish I could change into my demon form right now. I mean, I can, but it takes a while to change into the human form again. And I don't want anyone to see me in that form."

Maria bit her lips and muttered, "I wanted to see you in a demon form..."

"I can show you if you want," Rudy quipped.

"That's right! daddy can do the thing he did a while ago and show... wait, no. That would mean she would see my naked figure!"

"Hey, hey. It looks like even Lilim can get embarrassed," Rudy teased.

"Daddy!"

Rudy placed his hand on Lilim's shoulder and calmly said, "Don't worry, Lilim. I won't show Maria you naked demon form."

He reassured Lilim with a gentle smile on his face.

"Daddy... you are so—"

The gentle smile on Rudy's face turned into a smirk as he took out his phone and played the video he had recorded of Lilim cleaning his snake with her mouth in her demon form.

"Daddy!"

"We were teasing each other, right?" Rudy asked. "You teased Maria. I teased Maria. Now, it's your turn."

He shrugged and continued, "You are also free to tease me, that is if you can."

Rudy had no idea that his words would bite him one day on his snake.

Chapter 462: How To (Not) Get Blue Balled

Maria was watching the video of Lilim sucking Rudy's snake on Rudy's phone. Lilim was glaring at Rudy, and Rudy was enjoying their reactions.

"Come on, stop glaring at me like that. It's turning me on."

"You promised you wouldn't show it to anyone!"

"And I did say that I might show it to the girls. And hey, it's not really that big of a deal, you know? This would happen more often than you think. And once I get the vampire gang in this world, you all are going to live together in one place under one roof.

So how often do you think you would watch us fucking and sucking each other? They would walk on you too. And... it's my dream to have an orgy with my harem," Rudy said with a straight face.

"..."

"But I haven't even had a threesome..." he sighed. "Because I made a promise to Rias-- just the other day-- that the first threesome would be with her and any girl she selects from my harem."

"So I assume she is your second favorite girl?" Lilim asked curiously.

"I don't do favorites."

"It's very hard to believe it," Lilim muttered with a judging and knowing look on her face.

"How can you...." Maria gulped down as she finished watching the video. "This looks so wrong. Why do I feel like I am committing a crime? And my stomach feels... funny..."

Even though Maria said that, she played the video again and started touching herself.

"Is it safe to think that Maria has never watched porn before?" Rudy asked Lilim.

"You can say that. Those sites are blocked in this network, and even VPN won't work. Just think of it as an advanced blocking system installed by Master Rusher to keep everything safe," Lilim responded.

"But she does know some of the stuff. Let me guess, she watched it on movies or television shows or something something?"

"Correct."

Rudy snatched his phone from Maria's hands and said, "That's enough dose of horny for today."

Maria looked so desperate to watch more, and her face seemed like she was about to orgasm soon.

"By the way, what about our bet? I was supposed to suck your tits, and as interest you were going to suck my dick, remember?"

"I do remember. But you are no longer at #2 so--"

"The bet was for me to enter the top 5. And I believe I am still at #5."

Maria moved her gaze to Rudy's crotch and gulped down nervously.

"Well... we are going to do this one day anyway, so I guess today is a good day to start doing it..." she said without taking her eyes off Rudy's crotch.

"Oh~ My~ Lord~" Lilim chirped. "I can't believe this is happening. Lady Maria is going to do something so immoral!"

Rudy gently smacked Lilim on the head and said, "Stop it. If she gets embarrassed or changes her mind, I will be left blue balled."

Lilim licked her lips and said, "If that happens, I will help you out."

"Come to think of it... you said you were Maria's bodyguard for years, but how many years exactly?"

"Hmm~ When Lady Maria was two or three years old, I assume?"

"Maria is nineteen right now, so if she was two years old when you joined the Ross Syndicate, that would mean you were nine years old at that time?" Rudy wondered with a puzzled look on his face.

"Yes."

"Why would you become someone's bodyguard at the age of nine years? Scratch that. How did Rusher even make you a bodyguard? You were only a kid at that time."

"It wasn't Master Rusher, it was the boss who assigned me as Maria's bodyguard. And I don't want to talk about it right now, please."

"Alright, I won't force you."

"I was asked by someone to protect Maria, but I won't tell who," she added.

"Are you two done?" Maria's gaze was still fixated on Rudy's crotch. "I don't know how to do it, so teach me."

Rudy was standing in front of Maria and Lilim, while they both were sitting on the couch.

"How about your first start by taking off my pants?"

"I have to do even that?"

"It makes things more exciting."

Maria gulped down nervously and moved her hands to Rudy's pants. She unhooked the button and pulled down the zipper while staring at his crotch. Then, she slowly pulled down his pants and witnessed an erect snake.

"Why are you hard already?!"

"This is a normal function of a healthy teenage boy," Rudy shrugged.

Maria opened her mouth and licked her lips a couple of times as she stared at Rudy's snake.

"Looking at it closely, it looks so big. I can't believe Lilim was sucking it entirely with her mouth without any problems," she uttered.

"I can take it whole in my hole, too," Lilim quipped. "It feels so so good~"

"I will experience it by myself one day," Maria said without taking her eyes off of Rudy's snake.

"Are you going to keep staring or do something else too?" Rudy asked.

"I am trying to gather my thoughts." Maria slowly moved her hand towards Rudy's snake and touched it.

"It's so hard! And hot!"

"Then make it cold with your mouth," he chuckled softly.

Maria gulped nervously and slowly opened her mouth, moving it forward to suck Rudy's snake.

Suddenly, a loud rattling noise mixed with whirring ran across the estate ground. Soon, that noise was overlapped by even louder noise. And then one more.

Yells and screams roared outside the estate ground as they got louder and clearer. Gun firing shots, as well as banging noises were also mixed with all the noises.

"Fuck me. I shouldn't have jinxed it. Curse you, my powers!"

"What's going on?!" Maria exclaimed.

"Uhh..." Rudy let out a short sigh and wore his pants. "It seems my fans have come to greet me."

"They are here to collect the debt?"

"Yeah."

"What will you do now?"

"Just buy me some time. You two should go and try to calm them down. I will be there in a minute."

"Okay."

- Angry Fans.

Thanks, @IAmEviLL, for the gifts!

Chapter 463: Angry Fans

Maria and Lilim made their way to the estate's main balcony and couldn't help but drop their jaws after what they saw.

There were five helicopters in the air above the estate, dozens of jeeps and motorbikes, and hundreds of thousands of people marching towards the estate.

The guards at the estate were holding them off, and Lu Bela had also sent Under Blades army to protect Maria and Lilim.

"What will you do now... Rudy?" Maria wondered.

"Bring us, Rudy Ross!" They yelled furiously.

"Yeah!"

"Where is he?!"

"Bring him out!"

"We trusted him, and he betrayed us!"

"Is this how he treats his fans?!"

Maria and Lilim watched as everyone broke through the first check post. They were using mics and speakers to make their voices loud.

The jeeps were carrying big speakers and gang members, and dozens of jeeps were on the way.

The helicopters had the UBC members and Under Blades guards carrying advanced weapons that could turn anyone into ashes upon firing.

Lu Bela had sent them to protect Maria and Lilim.

"Daddy said he would be here in a minute, but it has been five minutes! Where is he?!" Lilim yelled next to Maria.

The noise of the helicopters was so loud that Lilim had to yell to talk to Maria even though they were standing next to each other.

"Did you say something?!"

"...nevermind," Lilim sighed.

[Take action if they break through the fifth check post,] Lu Bela ordered them although she was sitting in her underground palace.

The noise outside was so loud that even a gunshot wouldn't be heard if someone were to fire the gun in between.

However, they all went silent when they saw the sky getting covered with black clouds and the thunder roaring across.

"You can move your choppers, Lu Bela. I don't want to owe you in any way," Rudy's voice echoed with the lightning.

The choppers flew even higher as Rudy finally made his entrance. He was pulling five huge carts covered with shiny clothes.

He stood on the balcony between Maria and Lilim and watched his fans making riot.

"What's up, guys? How's it going?!"

"Give us our money back!" Someone yelled.

"Yeah, yeah!"

'Damn, they aren't even ready to listen to me. I bet half of them haven't even bet money on me, and they are just here to join the fun.'

Rudy made the clouds thunder again, but this time, even louder.

"My dear fans, how about another challenge?"

"Fuck off!"

"Yeah, yeah!"

"You will steal our money again!"

SIGH!

Rudy looked up at the choppers and asked, "Do you have hologram projectors?"

"We do."

"Good. Show me the underworld ranking."

A drone dropped from the chopper and stopped mid-air above everyone else. Then, it projected a hologram that showed underworld ranking.

'Damn, I dropped to #7. Most of them pulled their bets back and got their money. And they still came here to get more. Well, a promise is a promise and credit when the credit is due.'

"Send another drone with a detailed list of the people who betted on me. And another with the list of the people who already withdrew their money," Rudy ordered.

A few seconds later, two more drones came down and projected two more screens with the detailed ranking on them.

"Alright!" Rudy said aloud. "Those who have come to get their money for the challenge stand on the left side. And those who are interested in my next challenge, stand on the right."

Out of 100%, 90% of them stood on the left side, and only 10% of them stood on the right.

Rudy furrowed his brows and said, "As for those, who hadn't betted on me and are still here to collect the money, thinking they would get it for free, you have a chance to leave now."

"..."

"I have a detailed list of who had credit money on me. And if I don't find you on that list, the UBC will fine you a huge sum!"

Out of the 90%, 25% backed off and stood in the corner.

'Motherfuckers...' Rudy sighed.

"Okay. I am ready to give you a hundred times the money you betted on me, but unfortunately, I don't have cash with me. That's why..."

Rudy grabbed the cloth covering one of the carts and pulled it, revealing a golden glowing metal.

There were ten thousand gold biscuits weighing one kilo each in one cart; he had five carts full of them.

"Whoa!"

"That's why, I will give this according to your betting amount. Stand in a line. I will call your name in alphabetical order and give it to you," Rudy stated.

When everyone needed a mic with speakers or a communication device to speak out loud, Rudy's voice alone was enough to spread out around the entire area.

"Uhh... you were saying something about another challenge. What is it?" someone from the left side asked.

"Hmm~ That challenge is only for those who haven't withdrawn their money yet."

In the next few seconds, Rudy's rank jumped from #7 to #5.

"Of course, regardless, whether they have or have not withdrawn their money, they will get one hundred times more money as promised. But the former one won't get to participate in the next challenge. It's only for my true fans. If they want to participate, they can deposit the money again and join."

Out of the remaining 65% on the left side, 50% of them moved to the right side.

#5 ⇒ #4.

"This will be the last call. You are free to do whatever you want. I won't force you to do something you don't want to, but know that it will be your loss."

Out of the remaining 15%, 9% of them moved to the right, leaving only 6% on the left, who didn't seem to be interested in Rudy's next challenge. The other 69% of the right side had credited the amount back to Rudy and joined his army of true fans.

However, his rank still remained at #4.

Even though he had recovered most of his fans and worth, he had lost his fame.

"Alright, let's do this."

The answer to the question in the last chapter is indeed Rize as stated in s. But Rudy could be hiding something.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 464: Rudy's New Challenge

Rudy called the 6% one by one and gave them the gold worth a hundred times more than their betting amount. He could precisely change the shape and weight in his hand, so he didn't need anyone's help.

Once he was done with them, he looked up at the chopper and said, "Can you make it so that the 6% of them can't bet or invest in me again?"

After talking on the device for a few seconds, one of them said, "It will be done in a few minutes."

Rudy nodded in response and then moved his gaze to the 69% of fans who still remained loyal to him even after what he had done— although most of them were after the challenge rather than Rudy himself.

"Before I state the next challenge, please come forward and take what I owe you."

They came to collect the gold one by one as Rudy called their name in alphabetical order. Hundreds of thousands of them couldn't even fit in one place. However, Rudy's processing was so fast that he was dealing with one person in one second.

Still, it was taking too much time, so he decided to split the line into two and began distributing with two hands. That was also not enough, as Rudy could do it even faster.

The simplest solution for that would be using Maria and Lilim too, but he didn't want any of them to get near the scene as he didn't want to take any risk.

'Assassination attempts can still happen. And they usually happen in a mega event like this where no one can find the culprit, but I can,' Rudy uttered inwardly.

After pondering for a few seconds while distributing the gold, Rudy decided to go all out.

"The citizens of the underworld are already used to advanced technology, so I can use my powers and just call it yet another technology."

Rudy looked up at the screen and read the names, details, and their faces within a minute. Then, he used telekinesis and temperature tempering with other forms of his psychic abilities to break down the gold into a required amount.

Then, he tossed them to the respective people without messing up even a milligram of the gold he owed them.

The entire cart of ten thousand gold biscuits was used up in distribution. Still, some of the fans were left.

There were also the fans who had bet money on Rudy but didn't come to take one hundred times more after he lost the challenge. Maybe because the amount they bet was negligible, and one hundred times of it wouldn't be too much. Or perhaps they simply had too much money to burn and betted on Rudy for fun.

Regardless, Rudy planned to return the debt to anyone who came to ask for it with valid proof. After all, he was the Lord, and Lord owed no one— except his girls.

Around thirty minutes later, Rudy had paid all the debt, and 35% gold of the second cart was also used. He had sent Maria and Lilim inside as it was going to take a while to finish everything up.

Once everything was cleared, Rudy looked at his ranking, but it hadn't changed much. He was still at #4 with a slight increase in his worth and fame points.

"Alright, my dear fans! Are you ready for the next and hopefully my last challenge?!"

"Yeah!"

"Let's go!"

"It better be amazing!"

"Ahem!" Rudy cleared his throat and uttered, "The challenge is quite simple, you see."

He pointed his finger at his ranking and said, "I am currently at #4. Make me top #1 in the next ten minutes, and I will give you one hundred times more regardless of how much you bet on me. It can be one dollar or a hundred dollars.

Of course, if your betting amount is more than the worth of one gold biscuit, you will get more in return. And as you can see, the gold I have given you is 100% authentic. So do whatever you can!

Ask your friends and families, or anyone you want. As long as I become #1, I don't care how you do it. Of course, they will also get the promised reward."

Rudy's worth and fame began to increase rapidly, but his fan increase was slow. He had purposely given them such a short time as he didn't want to give them time to think.

His challenge was no different than the previous challenge. However, instead of putting a failing condition this time, he was giving rewards for free. He also removed all the restrictions and requirements so anyone could participate in this challenge.

Except for his old fans who gave up on him. They must be regretting not holding Rudy's finger when he was giving them his hand.

Moreover, Rudy promised to give more rewards if they bet more, so the rich gamblers had a strong incentive to bet as much as they could without using too much of their money.

It was similar to an investment, except they were getting the rewards in such a short time.

After looking at his worth and closing Lu Bela's worth, Rudy knew he would soon be out of gold. So he went inside and flew to space again to gather more gold.

He could do that on the earth too, but his gathering ability conjured things from his surroundings. So if he used that ability on earth, he would be stealing gold from his surroundings.

Going to space was the best choice as it was vast and contained an infinite amount of resources depending on what one was looking for. The space was expanded to infinity with no end, or so one believed.

Rudy had to increase his gathering ability radius and conjure as much gold as he could. However, halfway through, he returned to the estate to try something new using one of his old abilities.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 465: Number One

Rudy teleported back to the estate with only one thought in his mind.

'I actually thought about trying this before but didn't do it as I didn't have time and wanted results as soon as possible without any mess up. I still don't have too much time, but let's try using it. If it works, then voila. And if it doesn't, then I can buy some time by causing a distraction.'

When Rudy reached the balcony again, he looked at the ranking and was surprised to see himself back on #2 with only a tiny gap between the #1.

'I will probably take over in the rest of the minutes.'

Rudy pulled the clothes from all the carts and revealed the gold, but he needed more. He placed his hand on the cart full with ten thousand biscuits and uttered:

"Duplicate."

Duplicate was the ability that allowed him to copy and paste the exact thing, but there were limitations to that ability.

Rudy first needed to analyze and study the thing he wanted to duplicate. It worked with the blood moon tree as Rudy had analyzed the core of the blood moon tree.

Fortunately, Rudy knew the characteristics and properties of gold and how it was produced from raw materials; he had done that himself in space while conjuring gold.

Rudy then walked to the empty cart and covered it with a cloth before muttering, "Duplicate."

The cloth rose as the cart became full of gold.

'It worked!'

Rudy pulled the cloth and checked the authenticity of the gold. Sure enough, it was authentic gold.

His fans below couldn't see anything, but the Under Blades in the chopper saw Rudy's trick and thought it was a magic trick. Although they weren't completely wrong, it wasn't a simple magic trick either.

Rudy had to use the same amount of power he used to conjure the gold as even though he was duplicating the object, he still had to create it. The only difference between conjuring and duplicating was that he didn't need to gather, which saved a significant amount of time.

Rudy made five more carts and patiently waited for his rank to surpass Lu Bela.

Since he was handing out the rewards based on the betting amount, the increase in his fame points and fan numbers were irrelevant to the challenge. He knew that the fame points would increase regardless of what he did, and his fan numbers were bound to increase with his rank.

Within the next five minutes, Rudy did what he had proclaimed to Lu Bela. He had become the #1 and broke every record of the ranking.

"You guys are awesome!" Rudy shouted. "Let's get you rewards!"

Rudy began handing out the rewards, but he suddenly stopped and said, "I forgot to mention one thing."

He furrowed his brow and announced, "If my rank or stats decreased, I would find the one who betrayed me with the help of the Under Blades and get you punished. I am giving you rewards for your faithfulness, so there has to be a punishment for your betrayal too!"

Rudy had purposely left that out when he announced the new challenge. Now, not only had he become the top one, he had marked that spot as his. In the underworld, everyone feared the Under Blades, and no one would raise their voice if they were involved with something.

Rudy was using Lu Bela without getting her help.

"But of course, if someone were to surpass me in ranking without the change in my ranking, there will be no punishment."

'Not that it will ever happen,' he uttered inwardly.

Rudy distributed gold to everyone and asked them to leave once they were done. Slowly, the crowd began to decrease as they left; from one hundred thousand to ten thousand to thousands.

Ultimately, all of them left except a few hundred and the choppers in the air.

"Oh... they are the maids and butlers who work here."

Rudy looked up at the choppers and said, "Thanks for the cooperation. You all did a good job."

Two carts were still left, and Rudy had no idea what to do with them. He grabbed one biscuit and wrote something on it. Then, he tossed it at the Under Blades and said,

"Give this to Lu Bela, and tell her if she manages to answer this correctly, I might forgive her."

After that, the choppers flew away, and Rudy was left alone in between the gold carts.

SIGH!

"This went surprisingly easy. And now that I have become #1 in the underworld, I don't feel anything. I thought I would be happy and satisfied, but nope. I am indeed happy, but I don't feel satisfied.

Gambling is much more fun than this.

The only way to increase the worth in the Underworld ranking was through gambling, and betting on something or someone was a form of gambling. Had I sold the gold in the underworld to someone and gotten money in return, or hadn't proposed a challenge, it wouldn't have been considered betting or gambling. Thus, my worth in the underworld ranking wouldn't have increased."

Rudy hit many birds with one stone. He paid the debt, became #1, and regained everything he had lost.

He went inside and searched for Maria and Lilim, only to find them watching television in the living room of the inner area.

"..."

Suddenly, he had an urge to prank them, so he hid outside the room and played a clip of one of his memories of his adventure with Lilim— on the television.

He used electrification to connect with the television and turned his memory into data to send it as a video file. He accidentally created a new ability, which was a living cast device.

Lilim was obviously surprised and embarrassed at the same time, while Maria was confused as to why the television played something like that all of a sudden.

[Aanh~ Mnh~ Yes~ Yes~ Go harder~ Daddy~ Punish me~ Yes~ Harder! Yes~ Aanh~]

"...!"

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 466: Spilling Beans || Revealing Secrets

[Yes~ Harder! Aanh~!] Lilim was moaning loudly with an orgasmic look on his face.

Maria watched it with an amused look on her face as she started touching herself, while Lilim was looking for a remote to turn it off.

She found it in the gap on the couch and pressed the off switch, but nothing happened. She pressed the button repeatedly, but it wasn't turning off. So she assumed the remote must be out of battery.

She got up and rushed to pull the cord from the socket, but even after doing that, the television didn't go off.

[Daddy~ Daddy~ I am cumming~!]

At that moment, Lilim realized it was Rudy's doing. While Maria, on the other hand, was so immersed in watching it that she had no idea Lilim had made several attempts to turn off the television.

[Yes~ Yes~ Daddy~ Nmh~]

"..."

[Daddy~ Daddy~ Keep going~]

"..."

[Yes, Daddy~]

"Daddy!" Lilim yelled while she moaned the same in the clip.

[Daddy~]

"Daddy!" She stormed out of the living room while yelling for Rudy and found him hiding behind the wall, holding his laughter so he wouldn't get caught.

"Oh no, I have been caught by a demon."

"You meanie!"

Rudy hugged Lilim and said, "Come on, look, Maria is enjoying it."

Lilim glanced at Maria and found her touching herself while watching the clip.

"See? As her future husband, I am educating her about sex. That's right, I am giving her sex education," he said with a straight face.

"You have fucked so many girls, so why would you choose mine?!"

"To be honest, I kind of feel good when I see my clips, although this is my second time watching. It's much better than watching porn. And I am sure you are also getting on by watching yourself getting fucked so roughly."

"I don't really mind it after you mentioned what could happen after your harem lives together under one roof. But..." Lilim squinted her eyes and asked, "When did you even record this?"

"I didn't." Rudy explained his ability to her and said, "Did you understand?"

"Yeah... somewhat. So you can turn your memories into data and play them as a video. That could be helpful to review things you missed or when you were looking at something but were focused on something else."

"That's possible," Rudy nodded.

"Hey, so you can do it live too?" Lilim asked curiously.

"I am not sure. In fact, even this was my first time using my abilities like that. But... I can try doing a live feed, although there will be a bit of a delay," Rudy responded while pondering to find a way to do that.

"Try it now."

Rudy tried using a live feed and showed live footage of what his eyes were seeing— on the television. Maria was once again confused, but this time, she was a little irritated as she was close to orgasm after masturbating on Lilim and Rudy's clip.

"It's working!" Lilim jumped in joy.

Rudy turned off the casting and said, "There is no point of this, and it's nothing special. You can find such devices anywhere. The CCTV camera, for example."

"True."

"It can only be useful to watch my sex sessions from first P.O.V."

While Lilim and Rudy were walking, Maria caught them and stood in front of them with a furious look on her face.

"You did that on purpose, didn't you?" she asked Rudy with a judging look on her face.

"I would never." He pointed his finger at Lilim and said, "She was the one who asked me to change."

Maria suddenly hugged Rudy and muttered, "Are we going to do that one day?"

"Well... that day can be today, but your gang is back. Let's go."

Rudy, Maria, and Lilim left for the outer area and met the maids and butlers who were abducted by the two maids.

'Hmm? I am pretty sure I had seen Rusher from the balcony.'

"Where is Rusher?" Rudy asked.

He is checking the damage caused by those people.

'Uhh... that was me. I caused that damage, and I can't even restore it using my ability.'

A few minutes later, Rusher walked in with his wife beside him. He turned to the butlers and said, "Father and mother are in the car. Take them to their room."

Everyone scattered inside and outside the estate, and the only people standing there were Maria, Lilim, Rudy, Rusher, and his wife.

Rudy locked his eyes with Rusher and stared at him with a straight face.

SIGH!

Rusher nodded with a sigh and walked forward between everyone.

"I have something to tell you all. I wanted to tell this to father and mother too, but they are sleepy, so I will tell them later." After a brief pause, Rusher turned to his wife and said, "This syndicate is dying, and it will be dead in a month if we don't save it."

I am the one responsible for everything, so I will take the blame when the time comes. So please, forgive me. I will try my best to restore the Ross Syndicate back to its former glory."

Rusher's wife took a while to understand what Rusher was trying to say. One couldn't blame her as Rusher had kept everything so vague, and even Maria couldn't understand a single thing.

Lilim knew about it as Lu Bela had told her, but she had kept everything secret from Maria as she didn't want to mess up Rudy or Rusher's relationship with Maria. Lu Bela felt she had no right to decide for Maria and left everything to Rudy and Rusher, to tell the truth.

"Brother-in-law, you have to tell them everything in detail if you want them to understand what made you take such measures to save your family," Rudy calmly said.

"You are right..." Rusher slowly began to tell everything to his wife and Maria and answered their every question.

At first, Rusher's wife was angry at him as he decided to handle everything alone without consulting anyone, but she forgave him as she realized Rusher had no control over it.

Once everything was resolved, Rusher sighed in relief and turned to Rudy to thank him for giving him a final push to confess everything to his family. However, the expression on Rudy's face hadn't changed.

Rudy pointed his gaze at Maria and said, "You have one more thing to tell them, right?"

"..." Rusher gulped down anxiously as he decided to confess Maria's origin to his wife and Maria.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 467: Who To Blame

Rusher gulped down anxiously and took a deep breath before saying anything. He was prepared for what was going to come. The worst thing that could happen to him was a divorce.

When Rusher had an incestuous relationship with his twin sister— Ria, he hadn't met his wife— Nyara, yet. Even when he got her pregnant, he hadn't met his wife.

Even incestuous, that was his past relationship, and Nyara couldn't judge him for that as it was before he met her, although it was surely questionable. However, even after he met Nyara and later married her, he still continued his relationship with his sister.

If he were to confess everything to Nyara, there was a high chance that she was going to divorce him, and their whole family would break apart.

Rusher was prepared for the worst.

He looked into Nyara's eyes and then glanced at Maria, who was looking at him with a curious and confused look on her face. She had no idea what was going to come.

Even Rudy was afraid of how Maria would react.

'I noticed it before when I was playing dead after the boss shot me, that Maria is mentally unstable. Even Rusher had mentioned something about her having a mental breakdown 'again'. Not in a way one would think, but she is mentally weak. She was ready to kill herself back then.

So this can also easily go wrong. Honestly, anyone would start questioning their existence quite literally. I can't imagine how one would feel if someone told them that the family members they considered their brother and sister were actually their biological parents who produced you from an incestuous activity.

But well... I am not the one to judge here. I have no right to say that after I look at mom that way. If I tell her my honest feelings, wouldn't she feel the same as Maria would feel when Rusher will confess everything?

Part of me doesn't want that to happen, but the other part wants her to know everything. This is honestly mind boggling. Even if Rusher doesn't tell her now, Maria will realize it one day eventually. And then she would ask me if I knew about it. I don't want to break her trust.'

Even Rudy was feeling a bit anxious, so he held Lilim's hand, who was standing beside him. Lilim glanced at Rudy in surprise but didn't say anything.

"What is it?" Nyara asked. "Hurry up. It's late at night, and I want to go to sleep. I don't even remember how I got outside, so there is that. You said you would tell that in the morning when everyone is at the dining table, so if what you are going to tell now is not that important, then why don't you just tell everything in the morning altogether?"

"This is... important." Rusher exhaled sharply and said, "The truth is that Maria is actually—"

"Father, I am home," a loud, feminine voice said from behind.

Rusher looked past Nyara's shoulder and saw Ruby standing at the doorway.

"Ruby... when did you...?" Rusher had no idea Ruby had returned, nor did he know that she had won the VIP underworld tournament.

"What's going on here?" she asked while glancing around. "Why is the door broken?"

"Some angry people—"

"Oh, you mean them." Ruby walked past Nyara and Rusher and stood in front of Rudy. She looked into his eyes with a soft glare and said, "In other words, he is responsible for that, am I right?"

"If you put it that way, yes," Rusher nodded.

"This is the only way to put it. This wouldn't have happened if he had not made such a stupid challenge. Had he not skipped the tournament today, this wouldn't have happened," she said while glaring into Rudy's eyes.

"If your family wasn't kidnapped, I would have made it to the tournament, and this wouldn't have happened." Rudy shrugged his shoulders and said, "In other words, it's technically your father's fault."

"But you made the challenge before this happened, so you are responsible for it."

"How bold of you to assume that you would have won the VIP tournament," Ruby scoffed softly. "I was planning to return in today's tournament anyway, so we would have faced each other."

"Mind your manners, little girl. You are standing in front of #1 in the underworld. Have some respect."

Rudy and Ruby glared into each other's eyes, and neither of them wanted to back off. Ruby was right, and Rudy was also right. It was one of those rare situations where neither of the parties was in the wrong.

"Let's stop blaming each other," Maria interjected and stood between Rudy and Ruby so they couldn't glare at each other. However, both Ruby and Rudy were tall compared to Maria, so that didn't do anything.

Ruby raised her brows and said with a judging look on her face, "I see. So you are already taking his side now, huh?"

"I am not taking anyone's side!"

"Is that so?" Ruby squinted her eyes and said, "Then you should have blamed him with me. What I am saying is true. It's also true that father and you all were kidnapped by the Under Blades because of father's action. But that could have happened any day. It could have happened tomorrow too. The issue here is that he made such a stupid challenge."

"What makes you think that? It had to be today, you know? If it was tomorrow, then I would have never known or heard about it as there is no tournament tomorrow, and I wouldn't have come here."

"..." Ruby raised her brows in confusion and muttered, "But... you would have made it to the tournament and either completed or failed the challenge. Either way, they wouldn't have marched here and done all the damage."

"Uhh... there seems to be a misunderstanding..."

"What?"

"They didn't break the door. They didn't even get past the fifth check post, so it makes no sense for them to destroy the door."

"Then who did it? The Under Blades?" she asked curiously. "If that was the case, then I apologize for my rudeness."

"It was me."

"...!"

However, it was indeed Rudy who had destroyed the door, although he did that because he didn't receive any response from the other side.

Chapter 468: Ruby Ross

"You broke the door?!"

"Yes."

"With a cannonball?"

"With my hand... or maybe it was my leg."

"..."

"What's wrong? Did Lu Bela not tell you this?" he smirked from the corner of his lips.

"How do you... oh..." Ruby let out a short sigh and muttered, "I see. So this was all your plan to make me confess everything, and I fell right into it. Not going to lie, that was very smart of you. I am impressed."

She smiled at Rudy.

Maria squinted her eyes and hugged Rudy's arm while staring at Ruby.

"Look at her getting jealous," Ruby remarked. "Never in my wildest dream had I thought I would see a day where my aunt will bring home her boyfriend."

Maria puffed her cheeks and muttered, "Even you are teasing me..."

"So what should I call you?" Rudy asked Ruby. "I don't want to call you by your name as our names are similar. And calling you niece-in-law sounds weird. I don't even know if that's a word, to be honest."

Ruby reached her hand to Rudy and said, "You can call me Mia since I am Mafia. Get it?"

"Yeah."

Rudy shook hands with her and said, "Nice to meet you, Mia. As you know, I am Rudy, and I am engaged to your 'aunt'. But since we are the same age, you don't have to treat me formally."

"Of course, uncle Rudy," she chuckled softly.

'She is lying. She knows... she knows everything. I purposely mentioned 'aunt' to know what she thought about it, and she colored me surprised. She knows that Maria is not her aunt but her half-sister.

Now I think she knew what Ruser was going to confess, and she purposely interrupted him from telling them. But why? Isn't it better if that secret is out? Well, it is their family matter, but it does concern me, does it not?' Rudy wondered.

Rudy and Ruby shook hands with each other with fake smiles on their faces, but Maria was too jealous to notice that. She separated their hands and glared at Ruby.

"Ruby, you must be tired from all the traveling and gambling. Why don't you go sleep in your room?" Maria said in a demanding tone.

"Don't you try to scare me with that creepy forced smile of yours. You have been doing this ever since we were kids. You can't just scare me away whenever you don't want me around," Ruby remarked.

"It has always worked, though," Maria shrugged.

"Is that so?" Ruby raised her brow and said, "Then how about I do what you fear the most at this moment?"

Maria averted her gaze and said, "I don't fear anything."

"Oh? Very well, then. Don't hate me for what I am going to do now."

"What are you—"

Maria watched Ruby pull Rudy's face close to her and kiss him on the lips. Then, Ruby glanced at Maria from the corner of her eyes and kissed him again.

After the kiss, she turned to Maria and said, "That was my first kiss, and it doesn't feel as special as they say."

"That's because you don't have feelings for him. It's only special if you do it with someone you love," Maria said calmly.

"..." Ruby stood there in confusion and thought, 'Why is she not angry? I kissed her fiance, and she was so calm. I was expecting her to yell at me. Does that mean I wasted my first kiss for nothing?!

Ruby turned to Rudy and said, "You changed her."

After saying that, she left the scene.

"..."

Maria hugged Rudy and kissed him on the cheek before whispering something in his ears. Then, she rushed after Ruby and left the scene.

"Well..." Rudy glanced at Lilim and shrugged his shoulders.

"Dear, you should tell everything in the morning when all the family members are present," Nyara said, leaving in a hurry.

Rusher turned to Rudy and said, "I will tell them soon."

"Yeah, it's fine. I would feel the same if I tried to confess a secret and got interrupted. Anyway, it's getting late so I should leave. Can you drop me off?" he asked Rusher.

"I will send Lilim."

"Yes." Lilim licked her lips and said, "I will drop you off like I did that night."

"I would love to, but I want Rusher to drop me off."

Lilim understood what Rudy was planning, so she nodded and said, "I wouldn't impose."

Rusher, on the other hand, was utterly confused. But he couldn't say no to Rudy.

"I will get the keys. You can wait outside for me in the meantime."

Now, only Rudy and Lilim were there. They looked at each other for a few seconds without uttering a single word.

"I was lowkey looking forward to dropping you off so we could have some 'fun' again," Lilim muttered.

"Well, so was I, but... I got some business with Rusher, so..."

"It's okay." Lilim hugged Rudy and said, "Daddy is busy. I understand."

"You know, we can actually still have fun if you want."

"Here?"

"Of course not."

"Then?"

"After I leave with Rusher, you follow us. Or you can just wait for me somewhere and send me your location. Once Rusher drops me off, I will come to you to cum in you," he chuckled.

"I could just teleport into your room, actually, but since it's night and everyone is sleeping in the rooms next to yours, your moans will wake them up," he added with a grin.

"Then... I will wait for you in the forest."

"Which forest, though? There are many."

"The one near your house by the lake."

"Uhh... how do you know where my house is?" Rudy asked with a judging look on his face.

Lilim gulped anxiously and responded, "I was watching you, remember?"

"That's true, but still..." Rudy squinted his eyes at Lilim and asked, "Why do I feel like you are hiding something?"

"I am not."

Rudy heard footsteps approaching near, so he patted on Lilim's head and left.

Lilim confirmed Rudy's leave and sighed in relief.

'Rebecca would have killed me if I had let daddy ask me more questions. I would have had to answer them as it would be the Lord's command.'

Rusher later picked up Rudy and left the underworld.

Chapter 469: Relationship Counselling

It has been a while since Rudy left the underworld with Rusher.

Rusher was driving the car at the speed of 69km/h while glancing at Rudy from the rearview mirror again and again. Seemingly, waiting for Rudy to start a conversation. But after waiting for what it felt like eons to Rusher, he couldn't be more patient.

"So... why did you ask me to be your driver?" Rusher asked Rudy.

Rudy was looking outside at the sky from the window, seemingly lost in deep thought, but Rusher's voice brought him back to his senses.

"There is... something I want to ask you," Rudy muttered.

"Oh, I know what it is," Rusher said as he decreased the speed of the car.

"I doubt you do."

"It's about what happened back there, right? I still don't understand what that was all about, but don't worry; I will keep it a secret. I won't tell you about your powers or... whatever it was to anyone, especially to Maria." Rusher reassured with a smile.

"No, it's not about that. I don't actually care if someone knows about my powers. I am not particularly trying to hide it; I just don't want to show them to everyone. And Maria knows about it, so it's not that big of a deal," Rudy said in a little annoyed tone.

"Then... what is it?" Rusher asked with a confused look on his face. "I was sure you wanted to talk about it."

After a brief pause, Rusher's eyes widened in realization and gasped, "Don't tell me you just wanted to treat me as your driver?!"

"Of course not.

"..."

A while later, Rudy let out a soft sigh and asked, "How... how did it start... with your sister?"

Rusher immediately hit the break after hearing that. He then turned around to look at Rudy and asked, "What?"

"You had and still are having an incestuous relationship with your sister. So how did it all start? I believe it was when your father sent you both overseas because of an ongoing war in the underworld.

Were you already committing incest even before that, or was there something that made it happen and... well, you made you made Maria?"

"Why... are you asking for something like this?"

"I am just interested in it. Maybe it would change my opinion of you," Rus shrugged.

Rudy wanted to know more about it as he was having a hard time making moves on Rebecca. He still thought she was his mother, and doing something to her would not only be morally disgusting but legally questionable too.

Of course, those boundaries would not stop Rudy from getting what he wanted, but he thought Rebecca would find it repulsive and hate him for even thinking of something like that.

SIGH!

Rusher hit the accelerator and began driving the car again. He gulped a few times while looking at Rudy repeatedly from the corner of his eyes.

"It... it started when we were overseas. I was a playboy who only thought of the girls as a tool of pleasure. I was the son of the strongest mafia boss and the heir of the strongest syndicate, so no one dared even to look me in the eyes.

I brought new girls home every day and changed them like clothes. I had no remorse for what I did with them, even when they begged me not to let them go. And then there was my twin sister— Ria, who was the polar opposite of me.

My father didn't love or have done anything for her because she was a girl. But she was close to my mother, and she turned out kind and innocent, unlike me. However, we had the same ambition.

I wanted to be the next leader of the Ross syndicate, and so was Ria. But she had a different purpose to become a leader. I wanted to expand our territory and get rid of all the enemies, while Ria wanted to undo everything my father had done and make peace with everyone.

As you might have guessed, we hated each other for that. To me, my father was like a god, but he was a demon for my sister. I couldn't blame her, to be honest.

When there was a war in the underworld, my father sent Ria and me overseas to a safe location. I was angry at first. I wanted to join the war and make my name because I have been known as the son of the strongest mafia boss all my years.

They feared me because of my father, not because of who I was. That irked me, but there was nothing I could do.

After Ria and I got into the safe house, we never talked to each other for days. I still picked up girls from there and brought them home to have fun, while Ria was busy planning her future and what she would do after becoming the next leader.

I was pissed off at her for doing that. We didn't even know the status of the underworld war, and here she was writing her fairy tale. She didn't know the consequences of her actions— although I was not the one to talk.

One night, like every other night, I was having fun with the girls in my room. And then suddenly, one of the girls tried to kill me. She stabbed me in the chest, but fortunately, it wasn't a deep wound.

I made a run to the door, only to find out that all the girls were in this together; they were assassins from another syndicate. I could have run out of the room, but I was worried about Ria, so I had no other choice but to fight them.

However, the girls had mixed something in my drink, and I was barely conscious. I was trained to fight in any circumstances, but I had never actually fought for real in such circumstances. Training and real situations differ a lot.

I fought them and fought them, but I couldn't gather my strength. My punches seemed weaker than a three-year-old. That's when Ria suddenly barged into my room and got rid of them.

It turned out she had hidden cameras in my room and had been watching me having sex with girls for all those nights and days."

Chapter 470: Rusher's Immoral Tale

"I had passed out when all that happened, and when I woke up, I found myself on the bed smeared with blood. I tried to remember what had happened, and I remembered everything.

The girl I hated the most... saved my life. That was a... humiliating experience. My father used to say, 'If someone manages to graze you, then you are not fit to be a leader.'

And I was not only grazed, I nearly died. I wasn't fit to be a leader. I was depressed, angry, annoyed, frustrated... all because of Ria. I hated her even more.

Deep down, I wished she would have let me die. At least I wouldn't have to remember and live through that humiliation for my entire life. So... I tried to kill myself, but I failed again.

When I woke up after my failed attempt to kill myself, I found myself on the same bed again, but I was tied this time. I called out to Ria, and she came to me... she looked me in the eyes and said, 'I saved your life twice, and for that, you owe me. For today onwards, you are my slave.'

She never untied me after that day. She fed me with her hands, changed my clothes, and did everything for me, but as a master. I had become her pet."

Rusher chuckled with a distant smile on his face and muttered, "It turned out she wasn't as innocent and kind as she seemed. She was just acting like that to make her look vulnerable to others.

Days passed by, and she still kept treating me like a pet. Then one day, she caught me masturbating. At that time, I didn't know she had hidden cameras in my room and that she had been watching my sex sessions with the girls all these times.

I thought, 'Oh shit! She saw me!' but in truth, she came to my room after watching me masturbate. She then looked at me in disgust and said, 'You are pathetic.'

She was right, of course. I had fallen so low that I had to masturbate to pleasure myself. But then... something unexpected happened. Out of rage and frustration, I told her, 'You are to blame. Why don't you help me out?!'

And for some reason, she agreed. She jerked me off. Days after another, our intimacy level increased. Don't forget that I was a sex addict, and I wanted to fuck at least one new girl a day.

So after spending a month doing nothing but masturbating, I had lost my sanity. One day, when Ria was washing me in the bathroom, I took advantage of the situation and tried to r*pe her. I didn't know what I was doing, but I wanted to r*pe her so badly to satisfy my lust.

However, I still failed.

She had kicked me in the nuts and punched me in the face so hard that I got knocked out. When I woke up... you already know in what condition I would have woken up.

I was tied more brutally this time. From that day onwards, Ria completely changed. She had become a sadist who liked to see me suffer. It was like she was a completely new person.

She still jerked me off, but... she never let me cum. Every time I was close to cumming, she stopped. My hands were tied to the bed, so I couldn't even jerk by myself. She did that for a week until I eventually had a mental breakdown.

Ria probably felt pity for me, and she untied me. Then, she laid down on my bed and said, 'You can take revenge on me for everything I have done to you. You can do anything you want with my body, and I won't stop you.'

Those words seemed like words of wisdom to me. And without wasting a single second, I committed incest. I fucked her for the entire night, and she eventually began to react to it; it was her first time too.

We continued that. Day and night. All the time. In the bedroom, kitchen, bathroom, living room, and even when we went to take a walk outside. We had fallen so deep into that immoral relationship that we cared about nothing else.

Until a few months later, we learned that Ria was pregnant. I had never been that scared in my life when she gave me the news. I didn't know what to do, so I asked Ria, and she said she wanted to keep the baby.

I was obviously afraid of how my father would react, but Ria told me she was ready to elope with me. I felt like an idiot at that moment. I gave up on everything and continued my relationship with Ria.

We had blocked all the numbers, changed houses and names, and lived a different life. I got a job and rented a house to start a new life with Ria. However, my father's men managed to find us. At that time, Ria had already given birth to Maria, and our immoral relationship was healthy and ongoing.

When we returned back to the syndicate, my father looked at the baby and said, 'I will raise her.'

He didn't ask us a single question. Perhaps, he was already aware of it, or he didn't care. In any case, he had completely changed. He had turned into a saint.

A few days later, he ordered me to marry the only daughter from the enemy syndicate. I was obviously against it as I had decided to spend the rest of my life with Ria, but he said if I didn't marry her, there would be a war again, and he wanted to prevent it.

I also wanted to prevent a war. I wanted peace for Ria and Maria's sake. I didn't want to risk their lives in any way, so I agreed to marry her.

A week later, we got married. We hadn't even seen each other or knew what we looked like. Actually, she probably knew what I looked like as I was famous in the underworld, but it was my first time seeing her.

Apparently, her father had kept her well hidden. Some didn't even know he had a daughter. After our marriage, we rarely talked to each other. Just like me, she was also forced into marriage.

However, we slowly opened up to each other and eventually fell in love after a few months."
