Chapter 571: Evolved Abilities

Rudy did not waste his time in 1989 and just enjoyed his life with Elena, Rebecca, and Jessica, but he also learned various ways to use his powers.

It wasn't a new discovery of his power but a new invention based on his other abilities. Such as, he used his restoration power and fast-forward power to control the action of the objects.

He could touch a plant and make it a tree or touch a tree and make it a plan. Sure, he could do that before, but now he had learned to control it precisely and mastered it perfectly.

Not only that, but he could touch a living being and alter their age using his powers. But the best of all was his ability to stop something.

He could literally stop something from aging and prevent it from ever dying.

He also learned to use his sense and vision abilities more precisely. Back then, he had to scan the entire area when he wanted to look for something. But now, he could scan the things he wanted to.

It was similar to marking, but here it was vision marking where he marked the things he was looking for, and his vision abilities only searched for the specific thing. The same with his senses.

If he wanted to hear footsteps from only one direction and not all the other noises, he would cancel everything else except the footsteps sound of the specific direction.

If he wanted to hear the voices of specific frequencies, he could set his senses to that to capture them. Of course, all these new combinations of his abilities didn't seem groundbreaking, but they were more useful than anyone could have imagined.

His most used powers were teleportation, flying, and his vision and sense abilities. And he had evolved them all in one way or another.

Rudy couldn't teleport to the places he had never been before, but he created a new ability called molecular teleportation that allowed him to teleport to the places he could see 'live' with his eyes.

However, that process was extremely tedious and time-consuming. Thus, Rudy thought of a new idea that could erase that problem entirely.

It took so long to use molecular teleportation because Rudy had to break his body to the molecular level and then slowly send his cells to where he wanted. But the simple and the easiest solution to that was to combine that ability with another.

Rudy could shrink his body at will, so if he shrunk his body to the molecular level and teleported. And then enlarged his body. He could do molecular teleportation within a second. But Rudy hadn't tested this new combination yet.

As for his flight ability, Rudy had already achieved top speed by turning his cells into the lightning matter and then traveling with the speed of lightning, but he had yet to achieve to travel with the speed of light.

Rudy wanted to do that, but the only place he could test was space. And he knew a little about space and time, in which some theories suggested that traveling at the speed of light or faster can cause time dilation.

Of course, that wasn't his field of expertise, so his knowledge was limited. But he didn't want to take any risk when he was in the 1989 timeline with Elena, Rebecca, and Jessica— who needed him more than anything.

His vision and senses abilities had infinite combinations, so there was no limit to how much they could evolve. Still, Rudy had found a few combinations that were useful on a daily basis.

Just like his ability to convert his memory or vision into data and feed them on television or any electronic device with a screen, he could do the same with his senses.

He could leave a fragment of his senses somewhere and later check the recording of his senses. But the ability required heavy processing and no interference.

Suppose he had left the fragment of his senses somewhere, and another ability was used near the area, the fragment would collapse and stop recording, but it would still save the recorded data up to that moment.

One night, Rudy returned to his house after his night session with Elena, he sensed traces of something strange that didn't belong near the house. He inspected the house but didn't find anything, so he followed the trails that led him to the forest behind his house.

The traces were very faint, and it could have been anyone.

Rudy's guess was that some big insect, such as a spider or bee, or small animals like rats, squirrels, or even a rabbit, or a bird could have come to the house and left for the forest.

If Rudy knew what exactly he was looking for, he could trace it with his new vision ability combination, but now he had to scan the entire forest. Or perhaps, there was no need since he sensed something nearby.

RUSTLE~ RUSTLE~!

With a sharp rustling sound, a horned creature appeared from the bushes in front of Rudy.

"...!"

It stared at Rudy for a few seconds before rushing to him and hugging him.

"Li...lim?" Rudy muttered while looking at her.

"Daddy~ I finally found you!" she said.

"Wait... what are you doing here?" Rudy asked with a confused look on his face.

"You brought me here."

Rudy crouched down in front of Lilim to match her height and looked into her eyes before smiling at him.

"Since how long have you been here?"

"I don't know... but you asked me to hide..."

"I did?"

Lilim nodded, saying, "You said we are playing hide and seek."

'What's going on? Why is Lilim here? And this place is the exact spot where Lilim had asked me to meet that other night. And most importantly, why is she calling me daddy?'

I thought it was just a roleplay thing she was into. Wait, I think I know why she thinks I am her father. I remember she told me that her father was a human, and since I am a human... kind of, she thinks I am her father... right?'

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 572: Little Demon

Since it was late at night and Rudy obviously couldn't leave Lilim in the forest, he brought her back to the house.

"Is this your house, daddy?"

"Uhh... yes and no."

"I was looking for you earlier. Even though I was the one hiding, I had to search for you because you didn't come to find me. I was scared, so I ran out of the forest even when you had warned me. And I looked around the houses, but you weren't there."

She hugged Rudy and said, "It was so scary. I thought you left me behind like mommy did. But I finally found you! Let's never play that game again. I don't want to be alone."

'She seems to be the same age as... wait... she is nine years old, isn't she?' Rudy asked himself. 'That's when 'someone' asked Lilim to be Maria's bodyguard.'

Rudy patted Lilim's head and asked, "How old are you, Lilim?"

"Nine! Today is my birthday!" Lilim said cheerfully.

"Oh, is it?" Rudy conjured an ice cream cone and handed it to Lilim. "Here."

Since Jessica always demanded ice cream, Rudy copied one and conjured it whenever she asked for it.

"What is this?" Lilim asked while sniffing it.

"Lick it."

"Is it food?"

"Yes."

Lilim licked it and immediately covered her mouth.

"It's so cold!"

'She is acting as if it's her first time eating it.'

Rudy sat on the couch, and Lilim sat on his lap as if it was a normal thing to do.

"Where did you come from?"

"Hell. You said we are going to look for mommy and brought me here."

'Hell?!' Rudy exclaimed inwardly. 'Like hell hell!'

Rudy had scanned the entire forest using his all-vision ability but couldn't find a single sign of anyone else around.

'It's not like she popped out of nowhere. Someone obviously brought her here and abandoned her in the forest. Who could do such a thing? That person wasn't me, obviously.'

There is no way I am her daddy or whatever. I haven't even been born yet. Since she is a kid, she should be easy to interrogate. I will ask her the questions I couldn't get the answers of-- in 2008. Let's hope I find a clue or a lead.'

"Say, Lilim."

"Hmm?" she asked while taking a bite.

"What is the name of your mother?"

"I don't know."

"Do you know what she looks like?"

Lilim shook her head and said, "No. But you said we would find her here."

'Yeah, her answers aren't useful.'

"What were you doing before you came here?"

"I was in the forest."

"And before that?"

"We were in hell."

"Yes. What were you doing in hell?"

"I don't know. I was just there."

Lilim finished the ice cream, but she was still hungry, so Rudy went to the kitchen and made some food for her.

Lilim was sitting on the platform while Rudy cooked, but she got bored soon and started exploring the house. She checked upstairs and also the other room downstairs except the room Rebecca and Jessica were sleeping in as it was closed— but not locked.

She returned a few minutes later and said, "There was water in the room."

"That's called a bathroom."

"What do they do there?"

"We take a bath."

'Why is she asking questions like that? Well, she might be raised in hell, but she should know this stuff, right? I don't know how the civilization in hell works, but her questions are the same as a three-year-old.'

Rudy served the food to Lilim on a plate and sat on the couch with her. She looked at the food on the plate and asked, "What is this?"

"Noodles."

"They look like worms."

"..."

"Can I eat them?"

"Let it cool down a little. It would be too hot for you."

Lilim didn't listen and started eating hot noodles with her hands.

"What are you doing... is it not hot?"

"No."

Even when the steam was coming out, Lilim didn't feel hot or get burned.

'Well, it makes sense since she is a demon.'

Rudy handed her the fork and said, "Use this."

Lilim stared at the fork for a few seconds and started biting it.

"It's hard."

SIGH!

"You don't have to eat it. You have to use it." Rudy took the fork from Lilim's hand and ate a bite to show Lilim.

Lilim puckered her lips and asked, "Why would you eat like that?"

"Because that's how we are supposed to eat?"

Lilim looked at her hands and asked, "Then what are these hands for?"

"...you are not wrong. But it's better to eat some dishes using a spoon and fork as it could be hard to eat with your hands." Rudy pointed his finger at the soup Lilim had spilled while eating and said, "Look. You use a fork and spoon to ensure such things don't happen."

Lilim obediently followed Rudy's guidance and finished eating the noodles, but she had soup left in the bowl.

She tried to use a fork to drink it, but that obviously didn't work. So she used a spoon, but Rudy asked her to drink directly from the bowl.

"It's better that way," he said.

After drinking the soup, she looked at Rudy and said, "Daddy knows everything! He is smart!"

"Err... you should stop calling me that."

"But you are smart!"

"Not that. I think you should stop calling me daddy," he said calmly.

"Why?" Lilim puffed her cheeks and said, "Do you not want to be my daddy anymore?"

"It's not like that."

"Then do you not love Lilim anymore?" she asked with teary eyes.

SIGH!

"Let's forget about it. Go take a bath. I changed the water a while ago."

"How do you do that?" she asked curiously.

"You spill water on your body to clean. And soap too."

"What is soap?"

'Seriously? I don't mind her asking these questions, but... I am worried about why she is asking such simple questions. Lilim had said that hell is also well civilized, so she should know these things, right?' Rudy wondered.

Lilim grabbed Rudy's hand and said, "Let's spill water together!"

Chapter 573: Lilim Meets the Girls

The next day, Rudy woke up as usual, but in his room instead of the couch as he had gotten a bed.

Lilim was sleeping on the bed of his room upstairs, while Rudy prepared breakfast downstairs.

He looked at the time and muttered, "Rebecca is late. She usually wakes up at around the same time as me."

"It's a weekend," someone responded.

It was Rebecca.

"Don't suddenly do that. How did you even learn to be so quiet without making a faint noise that even my senses can't pick up?" he asked Rebecca.

"Maybe your powers aren't as great as you think."

"Ouch."

Rebecca looked at the ingredients and asked, "What are you making?"

"Eggs."

"I will help you!"

"No, you are going to brush your teeth and take a bath."

"..."

Rebecca reluctantly agreed and returned after twenty minutes. Of course, the breakfast was already prepared and served on the table.

"Jessica hasn't woken up yet?" Rebecca asked Rudy.

"Nope. Princess must be lost in the magic forest in her dream." He chuckled softly. "Go wake her up."

After waking Jessica up, they ate breakfast, but soon Lilim came downstairs while rubbing her eyes and stood before them.

"Oh, you are awake. Come here," Rudy called her.

Lilim walked to Rudy and sat on his lap.

"Do you want to eat?" he calmly asked.

Lilim shook her head and said, "I want to play."

"We will play later."

"..." For the first time, Rebecca was as confused as Jessica was.

It was natural for them to be baffled after seeing an unknown girl in their house that seemed so close to Rudy.

"Who is this girl?" Rebecca asked with an annoyed look on her face.

"Whoa!" Jessica pointed her finger at Lilim's forehead and said, "She has horns!"

"...!" It took a while for Rebecca to notice that Lilim had horns.

"I know you have a lot to ask, and I will explain things to you. But first, let's eat breakfast."

Rebecca had never eaten food so fast before in her life.

After breakfast, Rudy sat the girls down on the couch and stood in front of them.

"Rebecca, Jessica, this girl is Lilim. She is my... errr.... she is an important person to me, and she will be staying with us from now on. If you don't mind, that is."

"What if I mind?" Rebecca asked with a judging look on her face.

"Well, I will ask Elena to let her stay at her house."

Lilim jumped off the couch and hugged Rudy's leg tightly. She looked up and asked, "Daddy, who are they?"

"They are...uhm... treat them as your sisters."

"Sisters?"

"Yes."

Lilim turned to Jessica, who smiled at her in return, but when she looked at Rebecca, she found her glaring at her.

She pointed her finger at Rebecca and said, "This girl is scary!"

"I know. She becomes scary sometimes." Rudy patted Lilim and looked at Rebecca. "Be more friendly."

Rebecca glared at Rudy for a few seconds before letting out a weary sigh.

"Wow. You are becoming more and more... mature day by day."

'I was going to say more and more like mom. And yeah, she actually. The glare in her eyes just now is exactly the same as how mom glares at me when I do something she doesn't like.

I understand that she must have been shocked, surprised, even. But I cannot leave Lilim alone. She is as important to me as mom, Jessica, and Elena are.

"Rudy, Rudy!" Jessica also jumped from the couch and hugged Rudy, just like Lilim.

"What is it?" Rudy asked.

"Are we going out today?"

"Err... I have a date today with Elena. We haven't gone on any dates this month, so..." Rudy smiled awkwardly and said, "How about tomorrow?"

"I understand."

'Wow, I can't believe she actually agreed for once.'

Rudy turned to Rebecca and said, "Rebecca, will you take care of Lilim and Jessica for me?"

"What do I get in return?" Rebecca squinted her eyes and said, "Jessica always gets anything she wants by demanding, but I never get anything."

"What do you mean? I always gave you whatever you wanted. Didn't I? But if you feel like I have been neglecting you or treating you unfairly, you can always ask for anything," he said calmly.

"You can't give me what I want."

"Did you forget I have superpowers to do anything I want?" Rudy said with a smug face and asked, "Tell me, what is it that you desire?"

"..."

"Hmm? Go on. I don't want you complaining or holding a grudge against me for it."

"..tt..." Rebecca muttered something under her breath, and of course, Rudy heard it a little.

"Hmm? What was that?" Rudy asked.

"Attention! I want your attention!"

"Wha...t? What do you... mean? When have I ever not given you attention? My eyes are always on you when you are around."

"I think she wants to say that she also wants to hug you," Lilim quipped.

"Oh... I see..."

'She wants to be spoiled too. That's right, mom has always acted mature and has kept up this act all this time. She is only ten years old... I forget that sometimes.'

"Rebecca, when is your birthday?"

"After 2 days," she said without looking at Rudy.

'That's when I am supposed to be born, as my birthdate is also the same as hers.'

"Okay, Rebecca. On your birthday, I will be all yours. You can ask me anything, and I will do it for you. I won't pay attention to Lilim, Jessica, or even Elena."

"Will you do anything?" Rebecca asked curiously.

"Yes. Are you happy now?" he asked with a slight smile.

"You better not break your promise."

"I am a man of my word."

"So when are you going to explain her horns? Are they fake?"

Rudy tapped on Jessica and Lilim's heads and asked them to sit on the couch.

"It's going to be a long explanation. I will tell you everything about this world and the other worlds and races. Don't freak out, okay?"

"Okay!"

Even though they said that they freaked out the second Rudy told them that Lilim was a demon and Rias was a vampire.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 574: Don't Call Me Daddy

After telling everything to the girls, Rudy went on a date with Elena as promised. And returned later in the evening with food and snacks. At night, Rudy delivered food to Elena's grandparents while Elena stayed at Rudy's house.

Rudy didn't have to explain anything to Elena about Rias as she had already seen and known everything after Rudy had shared his memories.

They watched a movie together, but the kids fell asleep halfway, and Rudy took them to Rebecca's room to sleep. After that, he and Elena continued watching the movie, or they were supposed to, but they went upstairs to Rudy's room and had fun.

When Rudy opened his eyes in the morning, he saw Elena sucking him off.

"What are you doing?" he asked calmly.

"Good morning," she responded and continued sucking him off as his snake began to twitch. "Mmnh~"

After drinking the morning load, she slowly swallowed it while savoring the taste and smiled at Rudy.

"Morning load has a rich taste."

"You didn't have to wake me up like that, you know?"

"When I woke up, I saw your dick was up straight, so I couldn't help it. And you never complained when Angelica did this to you."

"Angelica also climbs and rides me like a thirsty pervert."

Elena clicked her lips and buried Rudy's snake inside her cave.

"How's this?"

"Better~"

Elena moved slowly while enjoying the pleasure, while Rudy simply watched Elena in amusement.

"I know this is not my first time waking up next to you, but it still makes my heart flutter every time I open my eyes and see you," Elena said.

"If we live together, you can do that every day."

"I wish I could. But I can't leave my grandparents on their own. They both are on meds, and sometimes their health gets worse, so I have to be with them. And I cannot bring them here either, as they don't want to leave their house behind.

I have been asking them to move to a different house or a house near your home, but they say they have precious memories in that house and don't want to leave them behind. And I can't force them to move out either."

"It's fine. Don't worry about it. We are already spending half of our day together."

A few minutes later, Rudy shot his load inside Elena's cave and said, "It's getting late, so we better take a bath before the girls wake up."

"Yeah."

They got dressed and went downstairs to see the girls were still sleeping.

Elena turned to Rudy and said, "You should take a bath first. I will make breakfast in the meantime."

Rudy pointed his gaze at the bulge under his pants and said, "How about we take a bath together?"

Elena's face flushed a little after hearing that.

"That's kind of... embarrassing for some reason..." she muttered. "I know we have done everything, but it would be my first time bathing with you... which is..."

"Yeah, I get it. The first experience in everything makes you nervous or, in some cases... embarrassed." Rudy grabbed Elena's hand and dragged her to the bathroom after saying, "But that's not an excuse to not try it."

Elena had the best bath of her life with Rudy, where they washed each other's bodies, and Rudy washed Elena's body inside out.

When they came out forty minutes later, they were surprised to see the girls had woken up and were sitting in the living room.

"..."

When Jessica saw them, she asked, "Where is breakfast?"

Rebecca didn't say a word, but her glare was enough to convey her thoughts.

"Daddy!" Lilim, however, rushed to hug Rudy and asked, "Where were you?"

"Umh.. I was taking a bath."

"Oh!"

"Why was Elena with you, then?" Rebecca suddenly quipped.

"We were taking a bath together," Rudy replied.

"Like we did?!" Lilim asked innocently.

"A little different, but yes." Rudy patted Lilim on the head and said, "Now, go play with them. I will make breakfast, and then we will go out on a picnic."

"What's a picnic?" she asked.

"Ask Jessica. She knows everything about picnics."

"Okay!"

Rudy and Elena went to the kitchen and started making breakfast.

"We have to make extra for your grandparents, too, right?" Rudy asked.

"Yes."

"Then we better hurry up."

A few minutes later, Elena suddenly had her 'horny switch' turned on and kept glancing at Rudy's snake repeatedly. Rudy noticed that and asked if everything was alright, but instead of replying to him, she got on her knees and hid in the cabinet under the kitchen platform so no one could see her.

Then, she unzipped Rudy's pants and started sucking him off. Rudy tried to stop her, but after realizing how desperate she was, he let it slide.

'I can't believe this is happening. If the girls came this way to wash their hands or grab something from the refrigerator, we would get caught.'

Rudy saw Jessica get up from the couch and head toward the kitchen. His heartbeat got louder with every step Jessica took, but he sighed in relief when Jessica stopped at the entrance of the kitchen.

"What's wrong?" Rudy asked her.

"Can I call you daddy too?"

"No... please. Anything but that," Rudy shook his head. "Don't call me daddy."

"But you let Lilim call you that!" she pouted.

"I do not. She just calls me that even though I asked her not to."

"Then I will also call you daddy even though you asked me not to."

"Oh, come on. Why do you get so hung up on small things? Just because someone is doing something doesn't mean you have to do it too."

"Then let's vote!" Jessica turned to the living room and called Rebecca and Lilim.

Voting. That's what Rudy always did whenever Jessica made unreasonable demands. He would ask for Rebecca's and Elena's, too— if she was around. That was the only way to smack some discipline to Jessica.

"Whoever wants to call him daddy, raise their hands!" Jessica announced.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 575: Voting

'What the hell is going on?! Here Elena is giving me a blowjob where I can get caught any time. And now Jessica is voting on calling me daddy. To be honest, I don't mind if Lilim and Jessica call me that, but I would rather prefer they wouldn't.

However, there is no way in hell I am letting Rebecca call me that. Never ever. We currently have five people to vote, so I will have to make sure at least three people vote for 'no'.

Elena and I will obviously vote for no, but what about Rebecca? Lilim won't stop calling me that, and Jessica wants to call me that, so they would vote for 'yes.'

Jessica and Lilim raised their hands with 'yes'.

Rudy raised his hand with a 'no.'

"Where is Miss Elena?" Jessica asked.

"She is... uh..." Rudy lowered his gaze and saw Elena smirking at him while sucking his snake. "She must have gone to the washroom. But I know her vote will be a 'no'."

"Yes. I don't think Miss Elena would call you daddy as her father must be old with white hair, and you don't have white hair," Jessica muttered.

"So it's 2-2." Rudy and Jessica turned to Rebecca and looked at her, patiently waiting for her vote.

'Please say no. But... I mean... ' Rudy gulped down nervously and thought, 'If she really wants to call me that, I cannot stop her, right? Lilim is Lilim, but Angelica is Jessica, and mom is Rebecca.

I don't see them as the same person. We have had different relationships prior to this, and right now, they are nothing but kids who need a guardian. It's been a little over a year since I time-traveled, and I have been living with Rebecca and Jessica since then.

I don't want to say this, but I see them as my little sisters... at least in this timeline. Even if our relationship in 2008 was different, that doesn't matter in this timeline. But as for Lilim... I don't really know what's going on with her.

I know that this town— Hel, is an express point to all the other worlds, so that forest must be connected to the gates of hell. Lilim must have escaped somehow and ended up in the woods.

However, she seems to know me. Why is that? She doesn't know anything about her mother, but in 2008 she said a few things about her. I don't think she is or was lying in this or the 2008 timeline, but something doesn't add up.

2008's Lilim did know something and was hiding it from me. But I guess I will only get my answers when I return. Honestly, spending a year here wasn't that bad. I miss my harem every day, but I am not worried about them as the time has stopped in 2008 relative to my time flow of the 1989 timeline.

I do want to return to 2008, though. I don't belong in this timeline, but at the same time I don't want to leave the girls and Elena behind.'

Rebecca raised her hand and locked her eyes with Rudy before opening her mouth to say, "I vote for no."

"..." - Rudy.

"What?! Why?!" Jessica jumped on the floor in anger and shouted, "Why did you do that?!"

"You might be young enough to be his daughter, but I am not. I am not interested in becoming his daughter when I can become something else," she asserted while staring into Rudy's eyes.

'What's with that look in her eyes? I have never seen her acting like this.'

Rudy raised his brow and asked, "And what exactly is 'something else'?"

Rebecca hadn't expected that question, and she was caught off guard. Of course, she had no plans of saying it out loud, but she couldn't shake the stares from Jessica and Rudy.

"I want to... I want to be his..." Rebecca clenched her fists and said, "I want to be his sister."

"I want to be his sister too!" Jessica affirmed.

'Great, now I have something else to worry about.'

While Rudy was having a hard time, Elena was having something else that was also hard.

"Uhm... how about you girls take a bath? It will take me a while to prepare breakfast. And I also have to make some lunch for the picnic," Rudy suggested.

He wanted the girls to get away from the kitchen and the living room without raising any suspicions.

"Okay."

"And Rebecca, can you give one of your clothes to Lilim? When we took a bath, she wanted to wear new clothes yesterday, but I didn't want to trigger your wrath by using your clothes without your permission. So I used my power to duplicate them."

"Do you think I am angry all the time?" Rebecca asked.

"Sadly, yes. You always have that grumpy look on your face. But that's mostly because you never try to smile while talking or looking at someone."

Rebecca grabbed Lilim's hand and took her to the room after saying, "Come. Tell me which one of my clothes you want to wear."

However, Jessica didn't go with them and stared at Rudy.

"What?" Rudy asked.

"When are we taking a bath together?"

"Never."

"But you did with Lilim!"

"Because she didn't know how to bathe."

"I also don't know how to bathe."

'Honestly, considering how demanding and spoiled she is... I don't think Angelica ever lost her true personality. I never paid much attention to comparing Jessica and Angelica, but there were subtle hints that Jessica was Angelica.

Like how her dimension only had our house. And how she loved mom's cooking— although she only ate when she wasn't sleeping. She herself didn't realize it as she thought it was because of me, but it was because of her.

The question is, should I tell Angelica about this once I return to 2008? How would she react? Would she be able to accept it? Would she regain her memories of Jessica?

Her becoming evil after learning the truth is the least of my concern. After all, I am not a saint either.'

Jessica soon joined Rebecca and Lilim and went to take a bath.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 576: Ripping Tights

The three girls went to take a bath, relieving Rudy from the fear of getting caught. And all that because of his horny lover— Elena.

She was still sucking him off, waiting for the milk shot. She knew it was going to be a big one as Rudy had been holding it for a while.

Within a minute, she released his milk inside Elena's mouth, but to punish her for her actions, he didn't take it out and kept his snake inside her mouth until she swallowed everything.

Even after that, he kept it inside Elena's mouth while Elena tried to ask Rudy to pull it out. She tapped on his thighs and glared at him in the eyes.

"What's wrong?" Rudy asked with an innocent look on his face. "I thought you liked having my dick in your mouth. Isn't that why you were so eager to suck it even when the girls were around?"

"Hngm!" Elena's glare sharpened.

"What was that? I can't understand what you are trying to say," he smirked slightly.

Elena wasn't letting Rudy have his way, so she bit his snake and started rubbing her teeth on it, but gently. Seemingly, making sure she doesn't hurt him in any way.

Rudy pulled his snake out a few seconds later and slapped Elena on the cheek with his snake.

"Ehehe. Do it again," Elena said with a grin.

"..." Rudy shook his head in disbelief and said, "Why must all my harem members become perverts?"

"That's totally 100% your fault, you know?"

"I only show my love to you girls, and you become perverts."

Elena got up and whispered, "Want to fuck?"

"Here?"

"Yes. I don't know, but I feel so horny all of a sudden."

"But the girls..."

"They just went to take a bath, which will take at least 15 to 20 mins. We can have a quick round in the meantime," Elena insisted.

"Just so you know, 20 mins round is already a long time. Normal quickies are 3 to 5 minutes only."

"Not for you, right?" she asked with a knowing look on her face. "Now, let's do it."

Elena sat on the platform and said, "I am wearing tights, but feel free to rip them. I know you always wanted to do that."

Rudy averted his gaze and said, "I have no idea what you are talking about."

"Oh, come on. Don't play dumb. You always stared at my legs whenever I wore tights." She wrapped her legs around Rudy's waist and pulled him close.

"..."

"Go on. You won't get another chance to rip my tights, not anytime soon."

"You always know what I want..."

Rudy copied the tights and ripped them from Elena's private area. Then, he slid her panties to the side and penetrated his snake inside her wet cave.

"Mnh~ Yes! It feels so good!"

"Make sure you don't moan loudly. Remember, if we get caught, I am throwing all the blame on you. In fact, as soon as I hear the sound of the bathroom door unlocking, I am teleporting out of the house and won't return until you have explained everything to them," he said with a straight face.

"You are lying. I know you won't do that~"

"We will see."

"You will teleport the thing you touch when you teleport. And your dick will be ravaging my pussy if we get caught, so if you teleport, I will be teleported with you, darling~!"

After a few minutes, Elena orgasmed, but Rudy wasn't going to stop anytime soon.

"Is this your first time having sex in a kitchen?" Elena asked.

"In this house, yes. But I have had sex with Elise in places you can't imagine."

"Let me make things more exciting then." Elena licked her lips and said, "How does it feel to have sex with the constant fear of getting caught?"

"I am not answering that."

"Come on! You are no fun!"

"I want to teach you a lesson by going rough, but I know how loudly you moan when I go rough."

"Are you angry?"

"No. I just like punishing naughty girls," he chuckled.

"To think that you will do with all three of them one day..."

"Oh, come on. You didn't have to mention that!" Rudy groaned.

"But it's truth." Elena shrugged and said, "You already did it with Jessica and Lilim many times in 2008, and you had the hots for Rebecca too. It was about time you made moves on her."

"Still, it's awkward. Don't mention that again, please."

"You find this awkward. So imagine what I would have felt like?"

"..."

"You said we have never met before, but what if we have? What if I saw you grow up and decided our age gap was too much?"

"..."

"Hmm? The current age gap between you and Rebecca is mere 11 years. 8 years for Jessica and Lilim. Not to mention, all of them are actually older than you.

While in my case, our age gap would be 18 years. It's too big. What if I thought I should just let you go?"

Rudy shook his head and said, "I won't let you do that. I now remember-slash-know everything. So there is no way I am letting you go. Never."

Elena bit her lips and asked, "What if it was the other way around?"

"Huh?"

"What if you were a 37-year-old man and I was an 18-year-old girl? Would you still have said the same thing?" she asked with a judging look on her face.

"I... I understand your point. It always sounds weird when you flip it over. But... I guess... even if that was the case... I would have still accepted you because we already have a relationship— that too, in the last phase. It would be too late to bail out."

"That sounds exciting, doesn't it?"

"Wow. Did you really just say that?"

After a few minutes of nailing Elena, Rudy was about to shoot his load, but he had something prepared.

"Elena."

"Yes~ Go ahead and fill me up~!" Elena thought Rudy was asking for permission to creampie her, but that wasn't the case.

He looked into Elena's eyes while thrusting his hips deep into her cave and asked, "Will you marry me?"

Chapter 577: Eromantic Propose

Elena's face flushed redder than ever before. She was caught completely off guard and had never expected Rudy to propose to her while having sex.

"W-What?!"

"Will you marry me?" she asked again.

"Are you seriously proposing to me at a time like this? I thought your proposal would be romantic. This is not romantic at all."

"Did you just say sex is not romantic?"

"Don't change my words."

"Just answer with a yes or no."

"Of course, I want to marry you!"

The next second, Rudy released his load inside Elena's cave.

"Mnh~!"

Elena hugged Rudy and stayed like that for a while until she had gathered her senses.

"Why did you propose to me?" Elena asked in a low voice.

"Because I want our relationship to be official?"

"And the real reason?"

Rudy chuckled and said, "I just want to marry you. I have been thinking about it for a while, and I think I should do something to make you feel reassured. Just think of it as a formality with feelings."

"I have to say... I never expected that this day would ever come. I am so happy right now! Can I choose the day I want us to get married?" she asked excitedly.

"Sure."

"The day after tomorrow."

"Huh? That's too soon."

"I know, but I don't want a grand wedding. I will invite the other teachers from the school and a few of the student's parents we are close to. And my grandparents," Elena shrugged.

"What about... your parents?"

"I don't care about them. I know they won't come even if I die."

Rudy lowered his gaze and thought, 'After Rias left, I have been trying to deepen my relationship with Elena. And I thought if I made her patch up with her parents, she would be happy.

So I searched for her parents and found them after a few days of searching. I talked with them, but they cared more about their business and reputation than their own daughter.

It kind of reminded me of Rize's parents, but at least Elena's parents weren't scums like Rize's parents. Elena's parents didn't force her or get her married to someone else. They let her do whatever she wanted.

One could say they gave her freedom. I wasn't angry at Elena's parents as they never actually harmed Elena. But Rize's parents... they are going to die by my hands once I find the businessman who married Rize in my past life.'

"Are you sure?" Rudy asked calmly. "I can marry you right now if you want. But we don't have to hurry, so if you need time, we can marry later this week."

"No. Tomorrow is Rebecca's birthday, and also the day you will be born. And the day after that is my birthday. I would actually prefer to marry you tomorrow, but I know you promised Rebecca that you would spend time with her on her birthday.

So..." Elena pushed Rudy back and got on her knees again. Then, she grabbed Rudy's snake and began licking it.

"So?"

"Nothing."

Elena began cleaning Rudy's snake with her mouth, but Rudy had one more thing he wanted to say to her.

"Elena... I have decided to... fulfill your wish."

"What is that?" She kissed the tip and said, "I have many wishes."

"On our wedding night, I will impregnate you."

"Really?!"

"Yes."

"Wait... why are you being so kind all of a sudden?" Elena asked with an anxious look on her face. "You granted two of my biggest wishes in the same minute. Don't tell me you are going to return to 2008 soon!"

It was natural for Elena to be scared. After all, not all wishes were supposed to come true at once. But she forgot who she made those wishes to.

"No, it's nothing like that." Rudy rubbed the tip of his snake on Elena's lips and said, "The reason I didn't want to impregnate you was that I didn't want you to be my mother. I know you said it as a joke, but that could have been possible.

But I will be born tomorrow, and I will finally know who my real parents are. I don't know how mom adopted me, but I will know that tomorrow or soon enough. However, I no longer have to worry about anything. So I can impregnate you if you truly wish to have my child."

"I do!"

Rudy grinned and said, "Already taking vows of marriage, huh?"

"Shut up."

Rudy conjured similar tights and handed them to Elena.

"Go change it before the girls come out."

Elena quickly went upstairs and returned after a few minutes.

"The girls are still in the bathroom?" Elena asked with a surprised look on her face.

"Yes."

"But it's been over twenty minutes."

"You can go check on them if you want to. I can't do that, but you can."

"I should check."

Elena went to check on them but didn't return for the next five minutes.

"Great."

Rudy focused on making breakfast, as he had already wasted too much time nailing Elena. Thus, he decided to duplicate the food and focus on the lunch for the picnic.

The girls came out ten minutes later when Rudy had served everything on the table. He had also packed breakfast and lunch for Elena's grandparents so they could deliver them soon.

"What took you so long?" Rudy asked Elena.

"They were playing in the bathtub instead of taking a bath. Not only that, but they used up all the shampoo and conditioner. When I entered the bathroom, I nearly slipped because of the slippery floor."

Elena glared at the girls and said, "You three are not taking a bath together, never!"

"Already acting like a mom, huh?" Rudy remarked.

Elena shot a glare at Rudy without saying anything.

"And that is a glare a wife would make when her husband defends his child," he commented.

"..." Elena squinted her eyes in response.

"Anyway." Rudy clapped his hands to get the girl's attention and said, "Girls, listen carefully. Elena and I have decided to get married the day after tomorrow. You all are getting a big sister now."

Chapter 578: Picnic with the Girls

Rebecca was already aware of Rudy and Elena's relationship, but she never expected that a day would come when they would get married. Still, she had no problems with their marriage.

Jessica raised her hand and asked, "Does that mean Miss Elena will live together with us?"

"That depends on her. She has to take care of her grandparents, so I guess she can't always be here. But yeah, she will be with us most of the time," Rudy answered.

"So I no longer have to do homework?" she then asked.

"Why is that?"

"Because Miss Elena will become my sister."

"And...?" Rudy was trying to grasp what Jessica was trying to say.

Jessica hugged Rebecca and said, "Sis helps me out with my homework and sometimes even does my homework. So if Miss Elena becomes my sister too, she will do my homework, right?"

"..." Rudy had no words to say.

"Excuse me, you little brat."

However, Elena had a lot to say.

"I am not a brat!" Jessica retorted.

"Once I marry Rudy, I will watch over you closely. And I will make sure Rebecca doesn't do your homework. Not only that, I will teach you even when you are not at school. So think of it as you will be in school 24x7."

Jessica's face turned pale after hearing. She turned to Rudy and said, "Don't marry her!"

Rudy gently smacked Elena on the head and said, "Don't scare her like that."

He then turned to Jessica and calmly said, "Don't worry, Jessica. She won't do anything like that. She will be Miss Elena only at your school. Here, in the house, she will be Elena. Only Elena."

"Daddy~" Lilim rushed to Rudy and jumped on him.

"Whoa! Don't jump around like that."

Rudy grabbed Lilim mid-air and picked her up in his arms.

"Why are you jumping like that?"

"You are awesome!"

"I know, I am," he nodded with a smug face.

"You found mommy!"

"Hmm?"

Lilim pointed her finger at Elena and said, "Mommy!"

"Oh... right."

'So she thinks Elena is her mother. I am glad she is happy, but I should try looking for her real mother. And her father too, of course.'

It was Lilim's second day with the girls, but she had become so close to them that she thought of them as her real sisters. She even asked them where their horns and tails were when they were playing earlier in the morning.

Rudy later teleported with Elena to her house and gave breakfast and lunch to her grandparents.

Rudy had also gotten close to Elena's grandparents in the past year, and he thought of them as his grandparents. They gave him so much life advice, and Rudy was grateful to them for everything they had done for him.

Rudy didn't have any relatives or grandparents, so spending time with Elena's grandparents gave him a sense of love he had never felt before. He had no idea what he was missing in his life before he met them.

After delivering the food to Elena's house, they teleported back and ate breakfast. As always, Lilim chooses to sit on Rudy's lap rather than on an empty chair. Jessica would often pout and glare at Lilim, but Lilim had no idea why Jessica was doing that.

Undoubtedly, Jessica was jealous of Lilim. Before Lilim's arrival, Rudy paid the most attention to Jessica and spoiled her rotten, but Lilim had replaced her and taken her spot from Rudy. Or so she thought, but that wasn't the case at all.

Just like Rebecca, Jessica now yearned for Rudy's attention.

After having breakfast and washing the dishes with Elena, they left for a picnic. Since it was Lilim's first time going anywhere in the human world, Rudy asked her if there was a place she wanted to go.

But, of course, Lilim had no knowledge of the human world and had no idea where to go. Jessica took that opportunity and told Rudy the places she wanted to go.

A few hours passed by, and later, Rudy decided to rest at the nearby park and eat the lunch he had made. After lunch, he bought them ice cream, and they all relaxed for a few minutes.

"It's so hot today. I want to go home~!" Jessica demanded.

"We are not going anywhere. But you are right, it's hot today, so let's go somewhere where we can sit and relax."

"Home?"

"No. We will go watch a movie in a theater that has air cooling. We will watch a movie, eat snacks, drink juice, and relax until the movie ends. Let's just hope that good kid-friendly movies are airing."

"Should we go check?" Elena suggested.

"Uhm... actually, we are in luck. There is a special movie airing right now."

"Is... that so?"

"Yeah, it's called house alone."

They all watched the movie, returned after two hours, and went to a mall to shop for the wedding.

"The kid in the movie was just like Jessica, except he was clever," Rudy remarked while looking at Jessica.

"I am smart too!"

"You are just spoiled and always get in trouble."

Jessica puffed her cheeks and started walking behind Rebecca.

'Wow, she is sulking now.'

"Lilim is your favorite now, so you don't love me anymore," she muttered.

"It's not like that. I was just teasing you like I always do. But if you don't want me to tease you, then I will stop."

"No!" She quickly grabbed Rudy's hand and said, "Please tease me!"

"..."

The people passing by shot weird glares at Rudy.

"Today is a special day, so I will buy you whatever you want," Rudy announced.

"Everything?!"

"Not everything. We don't have a house that big."

Elena nudged Rudy and said, "You don't have to do that."

"I want to," he said while kissing her on the cheek.

Rudy used his ability and glanced around the mall to find a tailor shop so he could have a handmade suit and gown.

"Found one."

Rudy went to the store and asked them to make clothes for them.

"That would take us three weeks minimum," the owner said.

Rudy placed ten bundles of notes— one thousand dollars each— and said, "What about now?"

"One week."

"I need it by tomorrow evening. I don't care what you do. You can overwork or hire more workers. It's urgent."

"But sir—"

Rudy placed fifty thousand dollars on the counter and once again said, but in a calm voice, "It's urgent."

"Consider it done, dear sir."

Chapter 579: Couple's Life

The rest of the picnic day passed in an instant, but Rudy was happy as the girls enjoyed the day, especially Lilim, who had never been to the human world before.

They ate food on their way home, and Rudy bought some for Elena's grandparents. After reaching home, Rudy and Elena went to her house and gave the food to her grandparents.

He then asked Elena if she was going to stay there or come with him. Elena wasn't sure, but she decided to stay there for a few minutes to talk with her grandparents about her decision to marry Rudy.

Rudy also thought it was his duty to be there with Elena, so he stayed with her and talked things out. Much to his surprise, her grandparents seemed happy with Elena's decision and congratulated both of them.

When Elena told them the date of their wedding, they were baffled. They were worried that preparation wouldn't be done in one day, but Elena reassured them and said everything was already taken care of.

Once everything was settled, Rudy and Elena teleported to his house to spend the night together.

The girls had locked the front and back doors and had fallen asleep in their room.

"First hurdle cleared," Rudy muttered.

Elena raised her brow and asked, "Did you just call them hurdles?"

"Hurdle in our quality time, not in our life."

"..."

"I wonder how a couple handles their love life after having kids?"

"You mean how they have sex when the kids are away?"

"You can put it like that." Rudy nodded and wondered, "I have a harem, so even if I have one child from each of them, it's going to be a... tough task to raise them. So many moms but only one dad. I bet I am going to be the worst dad of the century if that happens."

He chuckled.

"I think you will be a great father, considering how well you take care of Rebecca, Jessica, and now Lilim. Don't worry too much about it. You will be a super dad."

"Super dad, huh?" Rudy hummed in amusement and muttered, "That sounds good, actually."

Elena kissed Rudy on the lips and whispered, "Now let's go to your room and be a superman on the bed."

Rudy and Elena went upstairs to his room and began their night sessions. Elena and Rudy had school the next day, so they should have slept early but didn't.

After a few hours, Rudy heard footsteps, so he used his vision ability and saw Lilim standing in front of the closed door.

He immediately released his load inside Elena and asked her to get dressed while he wore his clothes within a second.

He fixed the bed sheet before opening the door.

"Lilim? What are you doing here?" he asked calmly.

"I want to sleep with you..."

"Uhh... sure. Come in."

Rudy invited Lilim to his room and kept the door open as there was no reason to close it.

Elena pretended to be asleep on Rudy's bed, so Lilim wouldn't ask more questions.

Rudy looked at the bed and muttered, "This is a single bed. Three people can't sleep on it."

He touched the bed and enlarged it to the size of his room.

"Better now."

Lilim climbed onto the bed and slept beside Elena while Rudy lay on the other side.

"Daddy..."

"Hmm?"

"Today was fun..." Lilim said in a sleepy voice.

"I am glad you enjoyed it."

"When will we do it again?"

"Soon. But for now, you should sleep."

"Mmm..."

Soon enough, they all had fallen asleep for real and woke up in the morning.

Rudy felt something on his chest, so he assumed Lilim must have rolled on top of him, but when he opened his eyes, he saw Jessica sleeping on him.

"..."

He looked at his left and saw Rebecca and Lilim sleeping beside him while Elena was in the corner.

"What the..."

Rudy carefully placed Jessica on the bed and got off the bed without waking her up. Then, he hovered over the bed and woke Elena up.

Elena sat up while rubbing her eyes and asked, "It's morning already?"

"Yes."

Elena looked at the girls and raised her brows.

"When did this happen?"

"When we were sleeping."

"Heh." Elena chuckled and said, "Is this how our life will be once we have our own children?"

"I will probably put them in another room with the girls."

They left the room and went to the bathroom to take a bath, but instead of cleaning themselves, they got more dirty.

"Our sex life will increase after I come to live here."

"I will be honest and say that our current sex life is far, far, better than any other couple in the world. I don't think any couple have sex daily for hours."

Elena counted her fingers and said, "Out of 24 hours, we have sex for like... 7 hours..."

"Exactly. No man can last for more than an hour without taking drugs. This is where I say I am glad that I have a super libido."

"Can a woman last that long?"

"I am not sure. Reina, Alice, Rize, and Maria are the only humans in my harem. And I have only had sex with Reina and Maria. They would pass out after a few hours, but apparently, my cum also works as an energy drink for them."

"Why are we having this conversation again?" Elena wondered.

"I don't know."

After taking a 'real' bath, they went to the kitchen and made breakfast. Sometimes, Rudy felt that he should simply copy dishes and paste them every morning, but he didn't want to make the same dish for breakfast every day.

The girls woke up not long after and went straight to the bathroom to take a bath. But Elena went after them to keep her eyes on them to make sure that they didn't do anything like the other day.

Afterward, they ate breakfast, and Rudy and Elena delivered food to her grandparents— as usual.

It was Rebecca's birthday that day, and as Rudy had promised, he was going to spoil her rotten until she was satisfied.

Esper Harem in the Apocalypse

Chapter 580: Rebecca's Wish

Rudy sat Rebecca on the couch and calmly said, "I was going to wish you at 00:00 AM sharp, but you were sleeping, so I didn't wake you up."

"That's fine. I don't care about all that."

"You don't...?"

Rebecca shook her head and said, "I only care about your promise."

"Yes... of course. So... what do you want me to do? Last year, I was here on your birthday, but you never asked me for anything. I wanted to celebrate your birthday, but... if you still hadn't opened up to me like Jessica, I didn't want to... well, whatever. Let's focus on today."

Rebecca glanced at her room and saw Elena helping Jessica pack her bag.

"You will go to school now?" she asked.

Rudy was a teacher at Jessica's school, so if he went to school, more than half a day would pass by.

"Are you going to school?" Rudy asked her.

"I don't want to go today."

"Then I won't go either."

"But... you are a teacher..."

"Elena would cover up for me." Rudy sat beside Rebecca and smiled at her before saying, "I am not going anywhere unless you are with me."

"..." Rebecca didn't say anything in response, but she smiled with a little flushed face.

"You want to be spoiled today, right? I will spoil you as much as you want."

"You will do anything, right?"

"Yes."

"What if you don't do something I ask for?"

"I will pay the penalty, maybe? But I hope you don't make any improper demands which could raise multiple questions."

Rebecca puckered her lips and said, "I don't know what you mean by improper demands. Can you give me a few examples?"

'She revealed another trait. Mom would also do the same whenever she felt like teasing me for something.'

"Well, I currently don't have any examples, but I will let you know if you make an improper demand."

Elena came to the living room with Jessica and Lilim and stood in front of Rudy and Rebecca.

Of course, Lilim rushed and hugged Rudy as soon as she saw him.

"Where are we going today, daddy?!"

"You are going to the same place as Jessica. Elena will take you there, okay?" he said calmly.

"What about you?"

"I am busy today."

"Nuu! I want to be with you!"

"I know. But it's only for today." Rudy pointed his gaze at Elena and said, "Don't you want to spend more time with mommy?"

"I do... but... if daddy is not there... I will..." Lilim sniffed and started crying.

"Hey, hey." Rudy gently wiped her tears and said, "What happened?"

"Daddy is going to leave me behind!"

"No... I won't. I would never leave any of you behind."

"Then why can't I come with you?"

"Because you need to be a good girl. Mommy and Jessica will take you to school, and you will learn new things. It will be fun."

"Really?" she sobbed.

"Yes. And..." Rudy touched Lilim's horn and said, "We also need to hide them."

Rudy pondered for a while and said, "Can I hide your horns and tail?"

Lilim shook her head and said, "I can do it on my own."

"Oh."

Lilim's horns retracted into her forehead, and her tail also disappeared.

"Wow. I am impressed!"

"You... are?"

"Yes, you are awesome!"

Lilim touched Rudy's hair and asked, "Can I see your horns too?"

"Uhm... okay."

Rudy turned to the girls and said, "You might want to turn around."

"I want to see!" Elena stepped forward.

"I also want horns!"

Rebecca also stood in front of Rudy and said, "I want to see."

"You guys are making me nervous now."

Rudy moved his hair back and made some space between so his horns could come out easily.

"Ready?"

The girls nodded in unison.

SIGH!

Rudy manifested his horns and showed them to the girls. And, of course, their reactions were mixed.

Lilim was happy, and she started touching his horns. Jessica didn't know what to do, but she also touched his horns. Rebecca was surprised and wanted to feel his horns, but she didn't want to do it in front of anyone.

Elena, however, didn't know what to say. She noticed how Rudy's image changed from a human to a devil just by manifesting his horns.

No, she wasn't scared. If anything, she felt attracted towards the horn, but she wanted him to be a normal human Rudy rather than the demon Rudy.

"Are you satisfied? I will retract them now."

Rudy retracted his horns and clapped his hands before saying, "Alright, now! Go to school before you get late."

Rebecca stood beside Rudy and looked at Elena.

"Bye-bye," she waved her hand.

Elena raised her brow and asked, "Aren't you a little too happy that you are getting to spend time with my to-be husband?"

"Of course I am. He belongs to me for today."

"..."

Rebecca smirked a little and said, "Rudy, I don't want you to meet or talk with Elena for the rest of the day."

"...."

"You said you would do anything."

"Well, I am indeed going to spend my time with you today, and Elena is going to school. Then she will go to her house and prepare for the wedding tomorrow. I don't think I would have gotten any chance to meet her anyway," Rudy shrugged.

Elena placed her hand on Rebecca's shoulder and looked into her eyes before saying, "Take care of 'my' man."

After saying that, Elena left for school with Jessica and Lilim.

"Now that they are gone, what do you want to do? Go out somewhere?" Rudy asked Rebecca.

"If I ask you to break up with Elena, would you do it?" Elena asked curiously but with an innocent look on her face.

"Obviously not. That counts as an improper request."

"Hmm~" Rebecca went to her room and came out with a purse in her hand.

"Isn't that Elena's purse?"

"Yes." Rebecca nodded and said, "I want you to treat me as Elena today."

"I don't treat her any differently than I treat you."

Elena grabbed Rudy's hand and said, "I want to recreate your first date with Elena."

"You mean... you want to go on a... date?"

"Yes. We will do exactly the same thing you did on your first date with Elena."

"Sure. I will remove some improper events, and we will do the same thing."
