

Eternal Life 311

Chapter 311: Natural Charm (1)

Shen Ping seemed to be staring at Pei Huoyu, but in fact, he had secretly opened the virtual interface. After these few days of non-stop sex, his talent in spells had increased significantly and he was close to breaking through.

The Spirit Return Technique was a relatively simple Foundation Establishment cultivation technique. Even if one did not have any talent in spells, they could still successfully cultivate it with a large amount of time. Therefore, he believed that as long as his spell talent broke through and transformed, he would quickly understand the sharpness of this spell.

After all, with his constantly improving talent over the past few days, he had become more and more at ease in cultivating spell techniques.

Pei Huoyu's eyes lit up. She had some understanding of Shen Ping's habits. Since he said this, he must be confident. "If Fellow Daoist Shen can really cultivate successfully in ten days, then you can use the back road." As soon as she finished speaking, her Dao foundation suddenly shook.

Soon, a pleasant song sounded from the bedroom again.

In the spell room early in the morning, Shen Ping looked at the words "breakthrough" in the spell column and thought to himself, "Breakthrough!" Boom!

Pei Huoyu's ordinary frame trembled slightly. His spell technique instantly transformed and improved.

Almost instantly, Shen Ping felt that there were some strange changes in his sea of consciousness. The problems he had encountered in the low-level spells related to cultivation in the past suddenly felt simple at this moment, as if he could master those spells in an instant.

For example, the Flame Spell.

It was very easy to master this low-level spell of a cultivator, but to master it at will required a large amount of time to practice. If one wanted to enter the level, they had to understand the trick. At that time, they could activate the fire spell with the least spiritual energy.

In the past, he had spent a lot of time cultivating, but he could only become proficient.

But at this moment, he stretched out his fingertip as if he had been enlightened. As a trace of magic power lingered, a scorching fire spell surged out and blasted against the special material wall. Its power was actually not inferior to a high-grade Level 1 spell technique.

This made Shen Ping's eyes flicker with excitement.

Spells.

His weakest shortcoming in cultivation had finally been made up for. Even though Shen Ping did not want to become a battle cultivator who was proficient in spells like Pei Huoyu, as long as he had the talent for spells, he would not have trouble comprehending and studying the beast scriptures in the future.

Phew.

Ha.

He took a few deep breaths. He began to use the fierce technique of the Spirit Return Technique. Boom! Boom! Boom! Waves of magic power kept bombarding. Muffled sounds sounded in the spell room one after another.

This only lasted for five days. He had completely grasped the sharp intent that had always been difficult to comprehend.

Swoosh.

The moment he grasped it, Shen Ping directly flashed to the talisman room. Then, he took out a special talisman and spread it on the talisman table. He raised the talisman brush and began to outline the fourth volume of the whip tail talisman diagram.

When he had copied one-third of it, the image of the whip tail sweeping through the air subconsciously appeared in his mind. The tail of the talisman scripture seemed to have moved, and the scales on its surface were even more lively, as if it had really come to life.

Psst.

The talisman brush continued to outline and copy. This time, there was no longer that frustrated and unstable feeling. In the end, Shen Ping actually completely copied and outlined the scales on the whip tail of the strange beast in one go.

Buzz!

The moment the whip tail talisman diagram was formed, waves of strange fluctuations erupted from the talisman paper. The vivid whip tail on it carried an unparalleled sharp destructive intent, causing the space in the talisman room to tremble.

Vibrate!

Seeing this, Shen Ping hurriedly used methods like the Vibration Rune and even communicated with the Life Divine Talisman to immediately suppress the power of the talisman diagram.

He had long known that this Talisman Beast Diagram would erupt with power that far exceeded his imagination because of the strange beast scale patterns outlined. It was much stronger than ordinary Level 4 talismans. Although it was powerful, it was extremely difficult to control.

Even after the Nascent Soul realm experts in the headquarters outlined it, they had to use other methods, such as the special array formation in Perfected Yu's side hall. Otherwise, they had to release its power in a short period of time.

However, this was the fourth volume of the Talisman Beast Diagram after all. Its power was not something the first three volumes could compare to. Therefore, Shen Ping did not dare to let it explode in the talisman room like before. Instead, he threw it into the spell room. With the defense of the spell room, it could withstand it.

Boom! As it exploded, waves of violent aura fluctuations surged out. His wife, concubines, and Dao-companions all sensed it. They flashed out of the quiet room and wing room one after another.

When Pei Huoyu sensed this strange aura, her valiant face was filled with joy. She could not help but cup her hands. “Congratulations to Fellow Daoist Shen for successfully creating the fourth volume of the Talisman Beast Diagram!” “Congratulations, husband!” Yu Yan, Wang Yun, and the other women also congratulated him.

Shen Ping smiled and said, “This scroll took a lot of time. Now that I’ve finally comprehended something, it’s indeed worth celebrating!” His gaze swept across his wife and concubines, and finally landed on the curve of Pei Huoyu’s light armor.

His wives and concubines took a look. They knew what their husband was going to do. They left with smiles, leaving time for Perfected Pei.

Hall Master Shan Huo, Hail Master Dan Hai, Perfected Yun Ya, Li Yin, and the others all knew that Shen Ping had successfully comprehended the fourth volume’s final beast form.

“Haha, although Talisman Master Shen delayed a little, at least there were no unexpected twists and turns!”

“I knew it. How can a mere spell stump Talisman Master Shen?”

“I can finally heave a sigh of relief.. As long as he can comprehend the concept of spells, there won’t be any problems with the beast skin, beast bones, and other final states! “

Many cultivators who were paying attention to Shen Ping relaxed.

Even Hall Master Yueling revealed a smile when he heard this. After all, no matter what, Shen Ping was already a member of the Moon Spirit Main Hall. Moreover, the importance of the Head Hall Master was obvious. Hall Master Yueling did not want such a monstrous genius to be trapped in spells.

“Send the message. The exchange between my Mountain Fire Hall and the Moon Lotus Holy Sect will continue.”

“Our Dan Hai Hall...”

The reason why the two halls had delayed the exchange was mainly because they wanted Shen Ping to observe the exchange. This was because it involved the Dao of Talismans, alchemy, puppets, and various other skills. This was very beneficial to Shen Ping.

Late at night.

Pei Huoyu’s fair red skin gradually faded. She leaned on Shen Ping’s shoulder and said softly, “Fellow Daoist Shen, my physical body will no longer have any secrets in your eyes. Now that you’ve cultivated successfully in the fourth volume, I can focus in the future—”

She had not finished speaking when Shen Ping lowered his head and kissed those red lips. A few moments later, he loosened his lips and placed his broad palm on the side of the pear. He said gently, "Perfected Pei, there are still many secrets in your heart. It's as addictive as your physical body. I know you yearn to pursue the path of longevity, but I hope to be by your side on this path."

Pei Huoyu remained silent. Although she had an instinctive reaction to sex with Shen Ping and her thoughts were no longer as pure as before, her heart of the Great Dao was still firm. It was very difficult for her to give up on other things, let alone be restricted by her Dao companion.

Shen Ping sighed in his heart. He knew that it was unrealistic to let Pei Huoyu have hot emotions like Wang Yun and Yu Yan. This core member of the Mountain Fire Hall had her own path.

To be able to do this was already her limit. However, Shen Ping was not disappointed. He believed that no matter how cold her heart was, there would be a day when it would warm up. He did not continue the topic. He lowered his waist and reined in his horse again. It wandered in the water of the pale tiger roar.

After seven o'clock.

In the quiet room.

Shen Ping sat cross-legged on the soft cushion and began to meditate and cultivate today. As the Qianyuan Sutra circulated, the dense spiritual energy of the Level 7 spiritual vein gathered into a dense spiritual fog in the blink of an eye under the crazy absorption of the Earth Spirit Root.

In just two hours of cultivation, his dantian's rich and perfect Foundation Establishment magic powers had some changes. If it were other cultivators, it would usually take a few months for the first change to happen when they wanted to polish their magic powers. According to Shen Ping's situation, he only needed three to four months to successfully polish it and form his core.

However, after knowing the Core Pattern level, he naturally wanted to condense a better Golden Core. He ended his meditation. Shen Ping stepped into the talisman room. He continued to create the Talisman Beast Diagram that outlined the fourth volume.

Although he had succeeded yesterday, he had only copied the most basic patterns of the scales on the tail of the talisman scripture. The perfect overall charm was still quite lacking. Of course, as long as he could survive the previous difficulties, it was only a matter of time for Shen Ping to copy the charm.

At the beginning of the day. Shen Ping arrived at the Dan Hai Hall.

He walked in the corridor for ten minutes before he stepped into the side hall where he cultivated with Perfected Yu. This time, comprehending the fourth volume had indeed delayed him for a long time. It was even longer than when Perfected Yu taught him the third and fourth volumes of the Talisman Beast Scripture.

Of course, under normal circumstances, it would take years for a genius in the Talisman Dao of True Treasure Pavilion to outline an ordinary whip-tail Talisman Beast Diagram. This was even for a Talisman Master like Jing Yu. If it were other cores like B, C, and D, they would need more than sixty years.

Furthermore, Perfected Yu would not just outline the final beast form in the hall and saying that comprehending is key. He had to seriously explain how the spirit runes derived from the scripture were combined, how to accurately grasp the changes in the spirit runes, and so on.

It was very complicated.

However, Shen Ping was too monstrous in the Dao of Talismans. He had even created his own spirit rune. This made Perfected Yu not dare to give him too much guidance, afraid that his guidance would affect Shen Ping. Therefore, what Perfected Yu really did was guide him.

He had just stepped through the hall door when Shen Ping was stunned. In the past, there was only Yu Qingling in the side hall, but today, there were many cultivators. Most of them were actually graceful female cultivators covered by veils.

“Talisman Master Shen, the exchange between my Dan Hai Hall and the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect is placed in this side hall. This way, it’s also convenient for Talisman Master Shen to see. However, if you’re not interested, you can go to the quiet room.” Perfected Yu, who was wearing a simple robe, walked over with a smile.

Shen Ping was puzzled. There were so many side halls in the Dan Hai Hall. Why did he choose the place where he cultivated?

Perfected Yu’s voice transmission also sounded in his ear. “Talisman Master Shen, the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect are all extraordinary in appearance. Their figures are exquisite and charming. In the Zhongsheng Continent, many cultivators have the goal of having a Dao Companion of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. These disciples who have come to interact are even more outstanding in looks and talent. If Talisman Master Shen is tempted by one of them, you can further interact.”

Shen Ping finally reacted. It turned out that this was not an exchange, but the Dan Hai Hall had found a suitable Dao companion for him. The corners of his mouth twitched.

If he really found a deep interaction, then his reputation as a playboy would definitely spread throughout the entire True Treasure Pavilion and even the Zhongsheng Continent in a short period of time like his Talisman Dao talent.

Therefore, even if he was really willing to communicate, he could not agree now. However, just as he was about to reject him, a voice sounded from among the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. “Are you Talisman Master Shen?”

Soon, a female cultivator walked out. Her veil fluttered without any wind, and her dignified and charming face was faintly discernible. Her eyes seemed to have some kind of attraction, making people feel the most primitive urge in their hearts.

Shen Ping, who had read the jade slip of the Views of the Gateway, knew very well that this was a natural manifestation of charm. If he could have sex with such a female cultivator, he could easily reach the second realm of dual cultivation and had a chance of entering the third realm.

It could be said that for such a charming female cultivator, every inch of her skin and form could touch the deepest heat. Even ordinary mortals could maintain their optimal state and last for a long time.

Shen Ping had many wives, concubines, and Dao companions. However, he had never encountered such a female cultivator. Whether it was Wang Yun, Yu Yan, Mu Jin, Qiu Ying, or the others, they were all ordinary in sex.

“Senior, I’m the new core member of the True Treasure Pavilion’s Mountain Fire Hall, Shen Ping.” While he was sighing of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect, Shen Ping bowed.

Qu Wan looked at the broad figure in front of her and was excited and pleasantly surprised. She had never expected to meet Shen Ping on her first exchange with Dan Hai Hall! Previously, they were still planning how to get in touch with this Talisman Dao genius faster. Now, the opportunity has come.

” Talisman Master Shen’s talent in the Dao of Talismans is rare in the world. Even my Moon Lotus Holy Sect has heard a little about you. You’re indeed a dragon among men. If my stupid disciples can spar with Talisman Master Shen in terms of skills, then that will be the greatest blessing in their lives. I believe they’re willing to give up everything.”

Perfected Yu, who was standing at the side, naturally heard the hint in these words, but he did not care. Instead, he looked at Shen Ping calmly.

“Senior, you flatter me. I’m not good at alchemy.” Shen Ping cupped his hands.

Qu Wan took a few steps forward, and the fragrance around her surged out. “My disciples have also made some achievements in other skills. They can communicate with the Dao of Talismans, puppets, and arrays.”

“Well...” Shen Ping pretended to hesitate.

At this moment, Perfected Yu said, “Talisman Master Shen, there’s no need to limit your alchemy here. If you want to exchange other skills, you can choose a quiet room at the side.”

Since Perfected Yu had said so, Shen Ping simply said seriously, “I’m quite interested in puppet techniques.”

Qu Wan was overjoyed. She really did not expect things to go so smoothly. Hence, she turned to look at one of the disciples and said softly, “Ying Yue, you’ve studied puppet techniques for a long time. This time, you’ll spar with Talisman Master Shen.”

“Yes, Master.” Ying Yue walked in front of Shen Ping. “Talisman Master Shen, please guide me.”

Shen Ping hurriedly said, “Senior, you must be joking. I should be the one asking for your guidance.”

The two of them exchanged a few pleasantries. They walked back and forth to the quiet room in the side hall.

“Talisman Master Shen, there’s a powerful array formation in the quiet room. As long as there’s any fluctuation that exceeds the late-stage Foundation Establishment realm, the array formation will activate and restrain the cultivator’s magic. The disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect are good at charm, and the array formation also has countermeasures, so you don't have to worry. Just communicate in peace."

Just as he was about to reach the door of the quiet room, Shen Ping heard Perfected Yu's voice. He knew this, which was why he dared to agree to the exchange..

Chapter 313: Where's Your Sect's Sincerity? (1)

As soon as he stepped into the quiet room, Shen Ping could smell a very faint strange fragrance. As a great fragrance smeller, when he had been accompanying his wife, concubine, and Dao companions in his free time all these years, he had studied many flowers, plants, and strange water that could increase the fun of sex or fragrance powder with special effects. Therefore, he instantly determined that this fragrance was not from any fragrance bag or bath. It seemed to be more likely to come from her body's fragrance.

This was the so-called body fragrance.

This surprised him.

Body fragrance.

Whether it was in his previous life or the cultivation world of the five continents and four seas in this life, they were very rare. Most of these female cultivators who naturally emitted a fragrance from their bodies had special physiques.

Shen Ping could not help but feel a little interested. His original goal was only to test if he could obtain the subsequent content of the Views of the Gateway from the disciple of Moon Lotus Holy Sect. In the end, he actually encountered such a woman with a rare body fragrance.

"Senior Ying Yue,"

"Talisman Master Shen, you don't have to be so distant. You can call me Miss Ying Yue or Fellow Daoist Ying."

Just as he opened his mouth, Ying Yue, who was in front of him, interrupted him bluntly. Moreover, when she spoke, the veil that covered her face actually slipped down quietly. In an instant, the entire quiet room seemed to have a colorful color, and time seemed to have frozen.

Shen Ping was stunned. He swallowed the words he wanted to say. He stared blankly at this face that made one's heart palpitate.

In the cultivation world, he had seen some beautiful female cultivators who were like immortals. Not to mention anything else, Yin Honglian, who was beside him, was the kind of person who could stimulate the primitive urge in his heart. However, when facing such female cultivators, he would only admire them without any possibility of communication.

But Shen Ping wanted to take this person in front of him for himself just by looking at her and then hide her in his golden house. Up until now, he had never produced such a strong urge. In the past, if anyone mentioned this, he would definitely scoff. Including before he met Ying Yue.

Shen Ping did not believe that she could have such a peerless appearance. After all, no matter how beautiful a female cultivator was, in his eyes, who was not obsessed with looks, the most attractive thing was often the scenery.

However, at this moment, he had a new understanding.

“Senior Ying is extremely beautiful. I can’t control myself for a moment. I hope you can forgive me.” Shen Ping was only stunned for a moment before he suppressed the urge in his heart. His expression quickly returned to normal. In fact, if it was not the first time he had encountered a stunning female cultivator, he would not have such a reaction.

Ying Yue was surprised. She was the Holy Maiden of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. Not to mention the geniuses of the other sects in the Zhongsheng Continent, even the true disciples of the Holy Sect who were good at dual cultivation would be affected when they saw her true appearance. She did not expect the rumored playboy, Talisman Master Shen, to have such determination.

For a moment, she did not know how to continue speaking.

“Senior Ying is extraordinary. You should not be an ordinary disciple in the Moon Lotus Holy Sect, right?” Seeing that Ying Yue did not say anything, Shen Ping asked tentatively. Although he did not know much about the Moon Lotus Holy Sect, if her status was not high in a sect that mainly cultivated the Dao of Yin and Yang, she would definitely become a cultivator’s cauldron.

“Talisman Master Shen is talented. I’m indeed not an ordinary disciple.” As she spoke, Ying Yue’s beautiful face revealed a solemn expression. She waved her long sleeve and cupped her hands. She said frankly, “I’m Ying Yue, the Holy Maiden of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. Greetings, Talisman Master Shen.”

Moon Lotus’ Holy Maiden?! Shen Ping was shocked, and his gaze sized up Ying Yue seriously again.

In the Moon Lotus Holy Sect, the Holy Maiden had a high status, and her status was almost not inferior to a Divine Transformation elder. In the True Treasure Pavilion, she was equivalent to a core disciple at the main hall level.

Such a disciple had actually mixed into the Dan Hai Hall’s exchange team and even appeared in front of him. He had only spoken to test her before she revealed her identity. No matter how he thought about it, something was wrong.

Even if Shen Ping was not smart, he realized that the other party was most likely here for him.

Indeed, after the Moon Lotus’ Holy Maiden reported her identity, she sent a voice transmission and said bluntly, “Talisman Master Shen, I came to the Dan Hai Hall for an exchange mainly for you.”

Shen Ping immediately became vigilant. Although he was safe and not worried in this quiet room, the other party was the Holy Maiden of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect after all. She might have some special methods.

Silently, he sent out a trace of divine sense and attached it to the identity jade token at his waist. As long as this Holy Maiden did anything rash, he would not hesitate to throw the jade token in front of him.

However, Shen Ping said calmly, "What do you mean?"

The Moon Lotus' Holy Maiden explained, "Talisman Master Shen's talent is rare in the world. If nothing goes wrong, you will become the core of the Moon Spirit Main Hall in the future. With that identity, you can come into contact with more authority information of the True Treasure Pavilion, including some extremely rare resources and items. Therefore, my Moon Lotus Holy Sect wants to reach a cooperation with Talisman Master Shen in advance."

Shen Ping said indifferently, "I'm afraid you've found the wrong person. Moreover, if the various precious resources of the True Treasure Pavilion are leaked, the consequences are not something I can bear."

The Moon Lotus' Holy Maiden shook her head gently, "Talisman Master Shen, don't misunderstand. My Moon Lotus Holy Sect naturally understands this. In the future, we only want information about some resources and items. It will definitely not affect you. If you're willing to cooperate with my Moon Lotus Holy Sect, my Moon Lotus Holy Sect can agree to any request!"

"Just some information?"

"Yes."

"Any requirements?"

"Ypq "

Shen Ping raised his eyebrows.. Who would believe this?

Chapter 314: Where's Your Sect's Sincerity? (2)

What a joke. Taking such a huge risk to come to the True Treasure Pavilion, even if the information he would obtain in the future was very important, it would not be able to satisfy any needs.

There was no need to think about it. The Moon Lotus Holy Sect's request was definitely not small. This thought flashed through his mind.

Shen Ping suddenly took a few steps forward and looked at the beautiful face of the Moon Lotus' Holy Maiden, who was inches away. He smiled and said, "In that case, if I want to communicate with the Holy Maiden, can I be satisfied?"

Not only did the Moon Lotus' Holy Maiden not retreat, but she also covered her mouth and laughed. Her lips parted slightly, and a fragrant wind surged out, "Looks like the rumors are true. Talisman Master Shen is flirtatious. You should be suitable for my Moon Lotus Holy Sect."

Her voice carried a certain touching rhythm. Her thin and graceful body leaned forward slightly, as if she had taken the initiative to throw herself into his arms. She smiled and said, "I just said that as long as Talisman Master Shen is willing, my Moon Lotus Holy Sect can satisfy everything, including me.” A long drawl came from the most primitive body.

Shen Ping immediately felt a flame burning in his lower abdomen. He could not help but pounce on her.

Dry wood and blazing fire was instantly ignited. As the thin veil faded, the enchanting and endlessly beautiful scenery appeared in front of Shen Ping. A moment later, he lowered his waist and reined in his horse.

A painful cry sounded in his ears. Shen Ping maintained a trace of consciousness and opened the virtual interface. There was no change at all. That primitive impulse instantly dissipated. After his eyes cleared, the graceful and enchanting beautiful figure completely disappeared.

The Moon Lotus’ Holy Maiden was still standing on the spot, her eyes filled with indifference. On the other hand, his clothes were completely gone. His ugliness was revealed.

However, Shen Ping did not feel embarrassed or ashamed at all. He puffed out his chest and cupped his hands as he praised, “Senior Ying is indeed the Holy Maiden of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. This natural charm method is really admirable. However, if your sect is only this sincere, then don’t mention the cooperation again!”

A clear light flashed on his fingertip. He changed into a wide-patterned robe and was about to step out of the quiet room. The Moon Lotus’ Holy Maiden’s beautiful face was filled with unexpected surprise. She had never expected that this Talisman Master Shen would break free from the charm so quickly.

This was a top-notch bewitching technique cultivated from the “Heavenly White Lotus” cultivation technique. As long as the male cultivator was aroused, he would be bewitched. Even a Nascent Soul cultivator would need twenty minutes to wake up. This method could be used without consuming magic power.

It could only bewitch others. Even so, it was definitely not something a perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator like Shen Ping could resist. She had originally planned to use this method to slowly make him fall in love.

But now, her plan has failed!

The curves in front of the Holy Maiden fluctuated. Seeing that the broad figure was about to leave, she hurriedly shouted, “Wait!”

Shen Ping did not stop in his tracks. He stepped out of the quiet room. This made the Holy Maiden anxious. It was not easy to encounter such an opportunity, but they did not reach a cooperation.

After returning, if the sect master and Supreme Elder knew, they would definitely punish her. Thinking of this, the Holy Maiden quickly transmitted her voice, “Talisman Master Shen, Ying Yue was contemptuous just now. There will never be a next time. I hope you can forgive me.”

A voice transmission sounded in her ear, “This exchange is over. Tomorrow, I’ll see your sincerity. In addition, there’s a jade slip book in the Moon Lotus Holy Sect called the Views of the Gateway. I’m very interested in the contents of this jade slip.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Shen Ping quickened his pace. Only then did the Holy Maiden heave a sigh of relief. She covered her beautiful face with a veil again and followed closely behind.

He returned to the hall. The alchemy exchange between the Dan Hai Hall and the Moon Lotus Holy Sect was ongoing. The person who spoke was Yu Qingling. Shen Ping could not help but be interested. He sat cross-legged on the cushion beside her and listened.

“The main requirement for refining the Level 3 medicinal pill, the Jade Spirit Pill, is the spiritual herbs...” Yu Qingling’s voice was different from Wang Yun’s gentleness, Bai Yuying’s softness and Mu Jin’s sweetness. Her sound was very agile and tender. When she cried in the core communication space of the jade pendant, Shen Ping really couldn’t control himself.

As he listened, he instantly felt that Yu Qingling’s serious voice when sparring with medicinal pills was rather pleasing to the ear, so he thought in his heart that he would definitely specially listen to it once he made time tonight.

“This head of black hair is a little short...”

In his reverie, the first day of alchemy exchange came to an end. Before he left, Elder Qu smiled and asked, “I wonder if Talisman Master Shen is satisfied with the exchange with my disciple?”

Shen Ping cupped his hands and replied, “Senior’s disciple is indeed good at puppet techniques. I hope to continue tomorrow.”

“That’s good. This exchange will take at least a few months and at most half a year. Talisman Master Shen, you can communicate well.”

They took their leave one after another. They returned to the guest courtyard. Qu Wan immediately followed Ying Yue to the quiet room. “Holy Maiden, did it go well with Shen Ping this time?”

The Holy Maiden frowned slightly. “This person is much more difficult to deal with than I expected. Although he is indeed anxious, his willpower is extraordinary. Even my bewitching technique is difficult to control!”

Qu Wan was shocked. “This, how can this be? Holy Maiden, you cultivate the True Scripture of our sect and have already reached lesser mastery. Even the core disciples of the sect can’t withstand your methods. That Shen Ping is only a Talisman Master at the perfect Foundation Establishment realm. How can he resist?”

The Holy Maiden shook her head. “I’m afraid it’s a special method of the True Treasure Pavilion. The sect master sent me over to ensure that nothing goes wrong. However, the True Treasure Pavilion’s foundation is ancient and powerful. It’s normal for it to have methods that we didn’t expect. It’s impossible for Perfected Yu of the Dan Hai Hall not to be vigilant. Since he dared to let me communicate with Shen Ping, he must be on guard. In the quiet room, I sensed the pressure of many array formations and didn’t even dare to use my magic powers. No matter what, I’ve gained a lot today.”

Qu Wan nodded. “You’re right. Previously, we were still worried about how to get in touch, but now it’s so smooth. As long as we can get in touch, you will definitely be able to achieve your ultimate goal.” As she spoke, she suggested, “Holy Maiden, since the charm method has failed, why don’t we cooperate with him first and find out some of Shen Ping’s needs?”

“He actually took the initiative to mention this.”

At the beginning of the next day, Shen Ping saw that peerless beauty again. Although he still had a primitive urge, it was no longer as strong as the first time. He smiled and said, “I wonder if you’ve brought your sincerity?”

The Holy Maiden waved her long sleeve. The jade slip floated. “It records the subsequent content of the Views of the Gateway. I used my divine sense to engrave it overnight. This information is very important to my Moon Lotus Holy Sect. Through this content, Talisman Master Shen can easily see the mud marks and grass colors and easily see the ten top physiques. This kind of physique is very rare in the five continents and four seas. If one can dual cultivate with one of them, it will benefit greatly.”

Shen Ping’s divine sense permeated the jade slip. But soon, he frowned slightly and his expression darkened. “Holy Maiden, what do you mean? I know everything inside. Are you playing with me?!”

“Talisman Master Shen, don’t misunderstand. If you want to see the follow-up, you need to use a unique observation method of our Moon Lotus Holy Sect. Now, Talisman Master Shen has not agreed to cooperate with our Moon Lotus Holy Sect.”

Upon hearing this, Shen Ping chuckled and casually cupped his hands. “Since your sect is not sincere, let’s forget about it.” He was not interested in scheming against this Holy Maiden.

She looked at Shen Ping, who had turned around and left. The Holy Maiden was speechless. Why was this different from what Elder Qu had said? “Hold on. Talisman Master Shen, I’ll tell you!”

Shen Ping turned around and said indifferently with a voice transmission, “Holy Maiden, you and I are both taking the risk of death to communicate. If you still treat this as child’s play, don’t blame me for not remembering yesterday’s feelings.”

The Holy Maiden almost choked. The curves in front of her body rose and fell slightly. She bit her lips lightly and said, “Talisman Master Shen is really a sentimental person.”

“Of course. I remember the Holy Maiden’s charming and enchanting figure yesterday. Alright, time is very tight. Quickly tell me the way to view it.” Shen Ping said casually.

Seeing the impatience on his face, the Holy Maiden wanted to turn around and leave. However, she knew that if she left, there would be no follow-up in the future. Therefore, she could only endure the discomfort in her heart and tell him the way to view.

Shen Ping immediately looked at the jade slip again. There was indeed not much content inside. There were only more than a thousand words recorded. However, the information about the top ten physiques was extremely detailed. Not only were there mud marks, but there were also facial features. He closed his eyes and carefully recalled Yu Qingling’s figure and color, and he immediately smiled. However, when he opened his eyes again and looked at the Holy Maiden in front of him,

Shen Ping was stunned. The lines of her cheeks, lips, eyebrows, and pupils, as well as the texture of her skin, seemed to be very similar to another one of the top ten physiques. He couldn’t help but repeatedly look at the jade slip. Then, he asked, "Judging from the Holy Maiden's appearance, you seem to be one of the top ten physiques in the jade slip.."

Chapter 315: Top Cultivation Technique (1)

Ordinary female cultivators were mostly too embarrassed to talk about their physiques. Even Dao companions would not be too involved in such topics. However, Ying Yue was different. She came from the Moon Lotus Holy Sect and did not care about the mortal world. Although she was a Holy Maiden, the cultivation techniques she cultivated and the cultivators she usually interacted with were basically good at the Dao of men and women. Therefore, she was not as reserved and shy as female cultivators from other sects.

Moreover, when she engraved the subsequent contents of the jade slip with her divine sense last night, she was mentally prepared to be seen as one of the top ten physiques.

However, the Holy Maiden did not directly respond. Instead, she said with a calm expression, "In the five continents and four seas, such physiques are very rare. Any one of them is an excellent talent for dual cultivation. If combined with my sect's special cultivation technique, even ordinary cultivators have the possibility of condensing their Nascent Soul or even the Divine Transformation realm.

"The foundation of the True Treasure Pavilion is extraordinary. With Talisman Master Shen's Talisman Dao talent and current status, I believe you can easily obtain many rare resources. It's not difficult for you to condense your Nascent Soul. However, if you can become Dao companions with this physique and cultivate our sect's cultivation technique, the time needed to cultivate will be much shorter!"

When Shen Ping heard that, he couldn't help but look at Ying Yue's beautiful face with interest. "Holy Maiden, do you mean that you want to become Dao companions with me?"

The corners of the Holy Maiden's lips curled into a strange smile. "That's right. As long as Talisman Master Shen is willing, we can become Dao companions. If word gets out, it will definitely be a good story in the Zhongsheng Continent."

"That's exactly what I want." Shen Ping clapped his hands and smiled. "Since the Holy Maiden has the intention and I have the intention, I think there's no time like the present. How about we fulfill this good fate today?" He leaned forward.

The Holy Maiden raised her eyebrows slightly. She subconsciously avoided Shen Ping and said in a charming voice, "Talisman Master Shen, don't be anxious. We haven't reached an agreement."

Shen Ping stopped what he was doing and said with a faint smile, "May I know what your arrangements are?"

"Easy. Just sign the contract." The Holy Maiden was delighted. She took out the special contract paper that she had prepared long ago.

Shen Ping shook his head. "Holy Maiden, are you bullying me because I'm young? Who knows if you have other methods for such a contract? If I sign it and fall for it, I'm afraid I'll be controlled by your Moon Lotus Holy Sect for the rest of my life. How about this? I'll take something and leave a divine sense mark aura to you. At the same time, you'll give me something as a collaboration."

The Holy Maiden immediately hesitated. She thought for a moment. She made a condition. "We can do as Talisman Master Shen says, but it must be a personal item."

"A personal item?" Shen Ping's gaze could not help but land on the exquisite curves of the Holy Maiden. He said in a low voice, "I'm indeed interested in the Holy Maiden's personal item."

How could the Holy Maiden not know what Shen Ping was thinking when she saw this expression? She smiled sweetly and flipped her fair palm to take out her personal item. Fluorescent light surrounded it and floated over.

Shen Ping swept his divine sense and said in dissatisfaction, "Holy Maiden, aren't you being too perfunctory? I'm interested in your current personal item." "You! Even if the Holy Maiden did not care about etiquette, she could not help but blush. She stared at Shen Ping and gritted her teeth. "Isn't Talisman Master Shen's request too rude?"

Shen Ping said indifferently, "This was suggested by the Holy Maiden. I'm just saying that I'm interested. Whether I'm willing or not depends on the Holy Maiden's sincerity. Moreover, for cultivators like us, physical bodies are just external objects. Senior Ying has cultivated until now, don't tell me you can't even see through this!"

A sanctimonious and playboy Talisman Master! The Holy Maiden was furious. All her fantasies about this new demon Talisman Master before she came were shattered at this moment. "Okay!" Her voice came out from between her teeth. She waved her pink long sleeve. Her entire body was enveloped in fluorescent light.

As the fluorescent light dissipated, a black undergarment embroidered with cloud patterns floated in her palm and she threw it to Shen Ping. His broad palm touched it lightly. It was still warm from her skin. Especially the fragrance it emitted. It made one unable to help but have a primitive urge.

After Shen Ping put it into the Light Ring, he waved his hand and threw out something. "This is my identity wooden token when I was a guest of the True Treasure Pavilion. There's a divine sense mark inside. I believe it's sincere enough. Of course, if the Holy Maiden also requests for my personal item, I don't mind."

The Holy Maiden ignored him and put away the wooden token. No matter what, the collaboration this time was quite smooth.

Next, Shen Ping did not make any excessive requests or actions. Instead, he carefully asked about the subsequent transformation of the physique in the "Views of the Gateway" jade slip. Every special physique would constantly transform along with the woman's cultivation and strength. When she transformed to an unknown complete body, she would be the top dual cultivation dao companion in the world.

For example, Qiu Ying's Spirit Sunflower Body would transform into the body of a sea beast in the end.

If it was other cultivators who really dual cultivated with Qiu Ying, they would not benefit much if they did not cultivate cultivation techniques at the same time. However, Shen Ping was different. He had the virtual interface and could directly obtain the effect of the final body.

The Holy Maiden did not hide anything. She told him about the various situations of her physique in detail. Moreover, when she talked about body techniques, she actually discussed a lot with Shen Ping. It was very different from her previous behavior of being shy and giving it to him.

In the end, Shen Ping could tell that this Holy Maiden had probably never experienced the sex of a man and a woman. Everything was limited to theory..

Chapter 316: Top Cultivation Technique (2)

He was not surprised. After all, the other party was the Holy Maiden of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect. She definitely had some requirements for the Vital Yin. The exchange between the two of them only ended when the alchemy sparring in the hall was about to end.

“I’ve really benefited greatly from being able to exchange skills with the Holy Maiden!” Shen Ping cupped his hands and smiled. “If we can really spar, I believe we will definitely gain more!”

He looked expectant. Among his wives and concubines, only Qiu Ying had the top ten physiques. Now, even though he’d confirmed the two of them again, it was very difficult for him to truly have a face-to-face Dao Art exchange with Yu Qingling. Therefore, he could only target the Holy Maiden.

“Talisman Master Shen’s understanding of the Dao of men and women has also broadened Ying Yue’s horizons. Compared to the True Treasure Pavilion, Talisman Master Shen should be most suitable for my Moon Lotus Holy Sect. As for sparring and interaction, when the time is ripe, Ying Yue will serve Talisman Master Shen well and taste the greatest beauty in this world.”

Leaving behind a heart-stirring laugh, the Holy Maiden walked out of the quiet room.

In the blink of an eye, two months passed.

During this period, other than his daily cultivation life, imitating Talisman Scriptures and strange beasts, and being proficient in puppet techniques, Shen Ping would go to the Dan Hai Hall to communicate with the Holy Maiden from time to time. However, the content of the exchange was mainly about cultivating dual cultivation techniques.

The Moon Lotus Holy Sect had indeed displayed great sincerity. Even in her sect, the Yin Yang Dual Manual was considered a relatively top-notch cultivation technique. When he cultivated to the first level, Shen Ping could not wait to have fun with his wives, concubines, and Dao companions. The effect was unexpected. Not only did Wang Yun and Yu Yan’s magic power increase, but even Shen Ping himself improved slightly.

This made his attitude towards the Holy Maiden better.

Of course, the enhancement of the dual cultivation technique was secondary. Shen Ping spent most of his energy on comprehending the third and fourth volumes of the Talisman Beast Scripture.

It took two months before he had finally comprehended the final state of these two volumes.

Fire Spirit Hall.

In the Level 7 spiritual vein chamber.

Shen Ping's divine sense broke free from the Trial Pagoda space, and a smile appeared on his face. Although he did not challenge the sixth level this time and the ranking on the Glory Ranking did not change, he was only left with the fifth volume of the Talisman Beast Scripture.

According to Perfected Yu, if he understood the final state of the fifth volume of the beast form, he had a chance of entering the top three of the Glory Ranking. If he understood the final state of the first volume of the beast skin, he had a 100% chance of entering.

The final form of the beast form, beast skin, beast bone, and beast blood in the Beast Scripture was definitely not something ordinary figures could compare to. The final form was also stronger. Among all the members of the Glory Ranking in the headquarters until now, only the top three had comprehended the final form.

Furthermore, they had only comprehended the third level of their respective beast forms. This was because they had comprehended the combination of the beast bone and the Beast Scripture Pavilion. For someone like Shen Ping, who had only comprehended the beast form, it was difficult to comprehend even a trace of the final form, let alone the advanced beast form.

It was precisely because of this that the entire headquarters of the True Treasure Pavilion, from the main hall to the high-level cultivators in the Pavilion and Boat and the members of the various halls, all thought that Shen Ping could be said to be the most monstrous genius in the Dao of Talismans.

He got up from the futon and walked out of the quiet room. The stars outside were dazzling, and it was almost midnight. He stretched. Shen Ping entered the master bedroom with a relaxed expression. His delicate wife and beautiful concubines were waiting there.

Zhongsheng Continent.

Space rippled in the sky above the barren sea, and two distorted shadows slowly condensed. Instantly, this sea area became a combination of dark blood and warm white.

A gentle voice that gathered thousands of faces and had a cauldron, talismans, array discs, and various faintly discernible patterns beside it was the first to speak, "Junior Brother, how's the ancient blood-colored array?"

The master of Spring Garden said in a serious voice, "There's no change. The roars of the strange beasts seem to have stopped. However, in recent months, the number of mountain monsters born in the five continents and four seas has increased. Although the spiritual energy has not decreased significantly, in sequence, I'm afraid it's difficult to stop the awakening of the strange beasts.

"My initial plan was to take the initiative to break through the barrier and let the demons of the Year of Radiant Sun descend. I would use this to sharpen the cultivators of the various sects of the five continents and four seas to strengthen myself. At the same time, it would let them transform and absorb the power of strange beasts before suppressing them with the white jade tower.

“But it turns out that what I did was wrong.” He looked at the warm white phantom and smiled bitterly under the ferocious blood-colored mask. “Senior Sister, I didn’t submit to you in the past. Ever since Master and the others sacrificed their lives to seal the five continents and four seas, after countless years, you still haven’t fulfilled Master’s last wish and nurtured an inheritor who could truly inherit the Beast Scripture. However... you’re right!”

After hearing this, the gentle voice said slowly, “Junior Brother, you’ve always been stubborn. Even in front of Master, you didn’t admit your mistake.”

The master of Spring Garden laughed self-deprecatingly. “In this situation, what’s the point of me apologizing? The five continents and four seas are Master’s blood, sweat, and tears. The strange beast is Master’s obsession in this life, but it’s going to be destroyed by me. If Master finds out, I’m afraid he won’t be able to rest in peace in the netherworld! I’ve let Master down!” As soon as he finished speaking, the world trembled.

The gentle voice said, “Junior Brother, I’m very happy that you have such an understanding. It’s not too late now. As long as the spiritual energy in the five continents and four seas is maintained and increased, it can delay the collapse of the barrier and the awakening of the strange beast. So go ahead and do it. My True Treasure Pavilion will fully support you this time!”

The master of Spring Garden was stunned for a moment. “Senior Sister, you...”

“Inheritors need time to grow.” The gentle voice said in a firm tone.

Hearing this, the master of Spring Garden looked puzzled. “Senior Sister, the most promising person in the True Treasure Pavilion is the new core disciple, Shen Ping. He’s very strong in the Dao of Talismans, but he might not have extraordinary talent in other skills. You should know that it’s difficult to inherit the Beast Scripture just by relying on one skill!”

The gentle voice laughed warmly. “That’s right. It’s far from enough to rely on just one. However, not only is he talented in Talisman Daoism, but his puppet techniques are also the same. Before he cultivated the Puppet Scripture, he had already created the final state of the patterns of the strange beast puppet!

“Such talent has long surpassed Master and me. As long as he is given enough time to grow, I believe he will definitely comprehend the Beast Scripture.” As the owner of the white jade tower, the Head Hall Master of the True Treasure Pavilion could naturally easily know the progress of Shen Ping’s skills.

“Haha... the heavens have not given up on our five continents and four seas! Senior Sister, this is the best news I’ve heard!” The master of Spring Garden swept away his disappointment, but he looked at the warm white phantom and reminded her, “The inheritance of the Beast Scripture is very important. Senior Sister, you have to be careful. In addition, if anything happens, those main halls of your True Treasure Pavilion...”

He did not continue. However, the gentle voice had already understood the meaning of the Spring Garden’s master. “Don’t worry, I’ll make appropriate arrangements.”

True Treasure Pavilion’s headquarters

In the guest courtyard.

In the quiet room.

Elder Qu Wan first bowed to the Holy Maiden and said, “The Holy Maiden has communicated with Shen Ping alone for two months. Are you confident in confusing him and controlling him?”

The Holy Maiden was silent for a moment.

Over the past few days, she had been teaching the Yin Yang Dual Manual and getting along well with Shen Ping. However, every time she used the charming method of the Heavenly White Lotus to seduce him, she would fail. Moreover, every time she did it, the other party would push his luck. Now, there was already skin contact.

Fortunately, the other party was not as anxious as before and focused on cultivating the cultivation technique. Otherwise, she really did not know how to deal with it.

“That Shen Ping has an extremely strong determination and his words and actions are too serious. I’m afraid it will take a long time.”

Qu Wan looked up at the Holy Maiden and quickly lowered her head. “Holy Maiden, we’ve been in the True Treasure Pavilion for a long time. If we don’t make much progress, I’m afraid the sect will be dissatisfied.”

“I understand.” The Holy Maiden waved her long sleeve and was about to make Qu Wan retreat when she frowned slightly. She took out the communication jade token and sent her divine sense into it. Her face suddenly changed. “The Supreme Elder of the Tai Yan Sect has fallen!” There was disbelief in her voice.

Qu Wan lost her voice. “What? The Supreme Elder of the Tai Yan Sect is a powerful cultivator who stands at the peak of the five continents and four seas. How, how did he die?!”

The Holy Maiden’s body trembled. She suppressed her shock and continued to check the message with her divine sense.

“Disciple, the strength that the master of Spring Garden has revealed this time is too shocking. Many sects in the entire Zhongsheng Continent are shocked. I predict that things are not simple. Even my Moon Lotus Holy Sect might be attacked. The True Treasure Pavilion’s foundation is ancient and powerful. Stay there for the time being. When the situation is clear, I’ll send a message to you! If anything happens, you can make the decision.”

After reading the contents of the message, the Holy Maiden’s heart was in turmoil..

Chapter 317: Secret of the Five Continents and Four Seas Barrier (1)

It was as if it existed in another space in the main hall. Dozens of throne shadows slowly condensed. Instantly, the vast aura in the hall shook endlessly. When the figure of the highest throne appeared, the spatial distortions calm down.

Soon, the voice of a main hall-level phantom expert sounded, “Head Hall Master, the matter of Spring Garden’s master killing the Supreme Elder of the Tai Yan Sect has already shocked and panicked many sects in the Zhongsheng Continent. The Moon Lotus Holy Sect, the Heavenly Inspection Pavilion, and other top sects have all sent messages to our True Treasure Pavilion to discuss the joint crusade against Spring Garden. How should our True Treasure Pavilion respond to this?”

The voice resounded. The other throne phantoms all looked at the tallest graceful and warm white figure with thousands of faces. Although the 12 main halls of the True Treasure Pavilion were in charge of various matters in the headquarters, they needed the Head Hall Master to make the final decision on important matters.

A gentle voice sounded in the hall. “What do you think?”

The hall fell silent for a moment. Then, the main hall-level phantom of Chen Yao said first, “Previously, Spring Garden fought with the Tai Yan Sect for the spirit vein. I originally thought that it was just an ordinary conflict of interest, but from the looks of it, that’s just an excuse for Spring Garden to start a sectarian war in the Zhongsheng Continent. If it’s not stopped, I’m afraid the entire Zhongsheng Continent will fall into a chaotic situation. Now that the calamity of the five continents and four seas has descended, under such circumstances, the stability of the Zhongsheng Continent should be the priority!”

The Star Spirit Main Hall-level phantom added, “Head Hall Master, Spring Garden has always had no bottom line in its actions and has even studied the demon bloodline. It’s not the orthodox lineage of the cultivators of the five continents and four seas. If not for the fact that its foundation is comparable to our True Treasure Pavilion, it would have long been excluded by the other sects of the Zhongsheng Continent. Now, it actually ignored the danger of the five continents and four seas and took the initiative to stir up trouble. It’s impossible to let it continue.”

The other main hall phantoms agreed. However, there were also some objections. For example, Hall Master Yueling said bluntly, “The strength displayed by the Spring Garden’s master this time has already exceeded our expectations. We don’t know what other methods are hidden inside. It’s really not a stable move to rashly accept the invitation of the other sects to discuss a crusade. In my opinion, we should communicate with Spring Garden first. At the very least, we should probe Spring Garden’s intentions before doing anything else.”

“I agree. The strength of the Spring Garden’s master is really unexpected. The Supreme Elder of the Tai Yan Sect is even stronger than us. We should indeed consider it carefully.”

“That’s right. It’s still unknown if we can suppress Spring Garden if we join forces.”

The hall immediately became noisy. The twelve main halls of the sun, moon, and stars each had their own opinions, and they actually quarreled with each other. The gentle phantom sitting on the highest throne watched this scene indifferently.

The True Treasure Pavilion has experienced countless years.

Several batches of the 12 main hall-level phantoms had died. Although the 12 in front of her seemed to be harmonious on the surface, they were secretly fighting with each other. They even vaguely formed three factions. After all, the main hall-level factions under their jurisdiction were huge. Naturally, the distribution of resources became the main competition.

However, on some major matters, there was basically no controversy in the main hall. This time, because the matter involved Spring Garden, main halls such as Chen Yao and Star Spirit, which could not stand Spring Garden, occupied almost half of it. That was why there was a quarrel.

A moment later, the highest throne raised her fair palm. A warm white light lingered. The voices in the hall instantly disappeared. The twelve main hall-level phantoms bowed and did not say anything else.

A gentle voice suddenly laughed. "Everyone, now that the top sects of the Zhongsheng Continent and some powerful sects know about the fluctuations in the barriers of the five continents and four seas, the Heavenly Inspection Platform has also informed us of the calamity. Although Spring Garden's actions are shameless, why did they stir up trouble at this juncture?"

The main hall-level phantoms frowned in thought. In fact, before they came, they had a simple exchange, but they really could not figure out what Spring Garden was up to. This was because even the cultivators of the demonic sects understood that there was no such thing as a perfect egg when the nest was overturned. Although the calamity might not endanger the sect, at the very least, they should not engage in such a dispute in such a short period of time.

However, since the Head Hall Master mentioned it, she probably knew some inside information. The Hall Master of Chen Yao hurriedly bowed and said, "Head Hall Master, please enlighten me."

Whoosh.

The highest throne slowly stepped out. In the blink of an eye, she arrived at the center of the hall and stood beside the floating white jade tower. She looked at the tower that was emitting a sparkling light and said in a nostalgic tone, "Every 10,000 years, a demon tide will erupt in the territory of the Radiant Sun. In order to reduce the number of demons in the demon tide, the Year of Radiant Sun was born. Everyone should know that the barrier of the five continents and four seas is mainly to prevent those demons from entering the five continents and four seas. However, have you thought about how we should deal with the endless demons if the barrier collapses?"

The main hall-level phantom thrones in the hall were all shocked. A few years ago, the barrier fluctuated continuously. Although they had guessed the source, no one had thought of the barrier collapsing. After all, the barrier had existed for so many years and there had never been any problems. Therefore, they were already used to it in their hearts and believed that the barrier would not collapse.

"Head Hall Master, the Five Continents and Four Seas Barrier was set up by the most powerful experts. How could it collapse?!"

“That’s right. The demon tide that was once called the ten-thousand-year calamity rushed to the barrier, but it still didn’t shake it at all!”

“Although the barrier has fluctuated, I think it’s to warn us.”

The voices of many main hall-level phantoms sounded in the hall. The highest throne glanced at the twelve main halls. Her eyes seemed to see the panic in their hearts..

Chapter 318: Secret of the Five Continents and Four Seas Barrier (2)

Any cultivator who had experienced the ten-thousand-year demon tide would feel a trace of fear from the bottom of their hearts. Be it Divine Transformation or powerful cultivators above the Divine Transformation Realm, they were all like this.

This was human nature.

Therefore, the highest throne did not care about the reactions of these main halls. She continued in a gentle voice, “Everyone, this calamity is unprecedented. The reason why our True Treasure Pavilion activated many array formations is to deal with the consequences of the collapse of the barrier. Whether you believe it or not, it can happen. Similarly, Spring Garden’s intention is the same. Therefore, our True Treasure Pavilion will not participate in the joint crusade of the other sects.”

Not participating was support.

Chen Yao, Star Spirit, and the other phantoms of the main hall-level thrones were silent. They did not expect the Head Hall Master to make such a response. However, the information revealed by the Head Hall Master today shocked them slightly.

After the meeting ended, these main halls gathered above the island with the churning sea of clouds. They communicated through voice transmission.

“Once the barrier collapses, the consequences will be unimaginable!”

“That’s right. The endless demons are not something we can deal with with our strength. Fortunately, there’s a barrier blocking them. Moreover, the demons only form a demon tide every thousand years, but...”

“Let’s not talk about the calamity for now. In recent years, the Head Hall Master’s actions have become more and more difficult to figure out. Be it the inheritor of the Beast Scripture or today’s words, they seem to be different from the past.”

“I do have such a feeling. In the past, the Head Hall Master rarely made such a decision. Even the final decision is mostly based on our discussion.”

After conversing for a moment, Chen Yao, Star Spirit, and the other main hall-level phantoms fell silent.

“By the way, how’s the progress of the newly promoted core disciple, Shen Ping, in comprehending the Talisman Beast Scripture recently?” Suddenly, Hall Master Chen Yao asked.

The main hall-level experts like them usually focused on their own cultivation. They would either study techniques, improve their magic power, or enter seclusion to create a powerful divine power or study a powerful spiritual ancient treasure. Occasionally, they would split their divine sense thoughts to pay attention to other things.

However, Shen Ping was related to the inheritor of the Beast Scripture, so the other main halls would more or less pay attention to him.

Soon, Hall Master Star Spirit replied, “Last month, I heard from an elder in my hall that that little guy has already comprehended the final beast form of the fourth volume of the Talisman Beast Scripture. His progress is indeed very fast. With this situation, I’m afraid he will be able to comprehend the final form of the entire five volumes of the beast form in three to five years!”

Hearing this, Hall Master Chen Yao couldn’t help but shake his head. “Everyone, the Head Hall Master’s attitude towards this little fellow is extraordinary. She can even change the important resources of the Beast Scripture Pavilion and the Beast Spirit Pool. It can be seen that the Head Hall Master is already inclined to let him inherit the Beast Scripture!

“No matter how chaotic the Zhongsheng Continent is, the inheritance of the Beast Scripture is the most important thing to us. If that little fellow really becomes the inheritor, we have to think carefully about what to do in the future.”

The other main hall phantoms nodded slowly. In the past, there were also competitions for the inheritance of the Beast Scripture, but in the end, they did not meet the requirements. However, it was different this time.

The Head Hall Master clearly valued that new core disciple very much. Once he inherited it, it meant that he would control the entire True Treasure Pavilion when he grew up in the future. These main halls were not jealous because they knew very well that it was difficult for them to understand the Beast Scripture. However, some resources that concerned their cultivation had to be seriously considered.

The highest throne had a gentle and peaceful personality. She could basically balance the distribution of resources and satisfy the various main halls. If it was this new core in the future, it might not be like this.

Dan Hai Hall.

It was almost evening. The cultivation of the dual cultivation technique in the quiet room of the side hall had already reached its end.

“I’ve already told you all the cultivation secrets of the second level of the Yin Yang Dual Manual. Next, Talisman Master Shen only needs to accumulate experience with your wife and concubine.” The Holy Maiden’s face was covered by a veil, and the entire quiet room seemed to have lost its luster.

At close range, Shen Ping sniffed the fragrance emitted from Ying Yue's body and smiled. "I wonder if the Holy Maiden has thought about what I said some time ago?"

The Holy Maiden knew that this playboy Talisman Master in front of her wanted to have a deep-level Dao communication with her, and she had mentioned it more than once. Before this, she had never thought of having a relationship with him at all. She said that they would become Dao companions in the future just to stabilize him.

Moreover, she believed that with the charm of the "Heavenly White Lotus", as long as she left this quiet room and came into contact with other environments, she would definitely be able to completely charm him and control him.

But now, she hesitated. The death of the Supreme Elder of the Tai Yan Sect had a huge impact on the Zhongsheng Continent. Many sects, including their Moon Lotus Holy Sect, were worried that Spring Garden would target their sect. Once the Supreme Elder died, the overall strength and influence of the sect would definitely decrease. Moreover, Spring Garden had not only killed a Supreme Elder this time, but more than half of the Tai Yan Sect's elders above the Divine Transformation Realm had died.

It could be said that the entire Tai Yan Sect has been wiped out. Such a top sect of the Zhongsheng Continent had actually turned into such a situation in a short period of time. It really made the other sects panic. Therefore, the Holy Maiden had to think of the worst case scenario.

"Talisman Master Shen, my Moon Lotus Holy Sect will stay in the headquarters of the True Treasure Pavilion for a few more days this time. Ying Yue will carefully consider the matter of Dao companions."

When he heard that, Shen Ping was slightly surprised. He did not expect the Holy Maiden's attitude to change..

Chapter 319: Secret of the Five Continents and Four Seas

Barrier (3)

Although the two of them had been conversing in the quiet room for two months and even had skin contact during this period, it was only a light touch. Their words and actions were still polite and did not exceed anything. At most, they chatted freely.

"Then I'll wait for your good news." He cupped his hands. Shen Ping walked out of the quiet room with a smile. No matter what the reason was, his goal was only to have sex with the Holy Maiden and obtain benefits from her top ten physiques. They arrived at the hall.

Yu Qingling glanced at Shen Ping resentfully. During this period of time, she had been discussing Dao techniques in depth with Shen Ping in the core communication space of the jade pendant. The two of them were already very familiar with each other. The texture and color of each other's skin could be seen with their eyes closed.

They were only short of a real spar in reality.

Although Yu Qingling knew that Shen Ping was a playboy, she still felt a little uncomfortable watching him interact alone with the women of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect.

However, Yu Qingling quickly retracted her gaze, and Shen Ping pretended not to see it. The two of them had long discussed that they wouldn't do anything extraordinary in the hall to prevent Perfected Yu from becoming suspicious.

As the disciples of Moon Lotus Holy Sect left, Perfected Yu stopped Shen Ping and smiled gently. "Talisman Master Shen, what do you think of the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect?"

Shen Ping pondered for a moment and said, "Senior Yu, the cultivation thoughts of the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect are indeed different from our True Treasure Pavilion in terms of skills. Although they don't have the Beast Scripture, they have a different view in the study of ordinary skills. When I interact with them, I occasionally feel enlightened."

The corners of Perfected Yu's mouth twitched. He did not believe that Shen Ping and that female disciple called Ying Yue would be alone in the quiet room and would only be limited to the exchange of puppet techniques. "In that case, Talisman Master Shen wants to continue interacting with the disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect?"

Shen Pingyan said, "I have such thoughts."

"The Moon Lotus Holy Sect has sent a message. They are preparing to let their disciples stay in the headquarters of the True Treasure Pavilion for a longer time. The main hall has already agreed, so for the next cultivation, they will let Fellow Daoist Ying Yue cultivate with you in this side hall. As for Qingling..." Perfected Yu looked at his daughter and sighed. "She will continue to stay in the side hall. I hope she won't disturb Talisman Master Shen's cultivation."

He was unwilling in his heart. After all, there were already disciples of the Moon Lotus Holy Sect accompanying her in her cultivation, but the Hall Master insisted that Yu Qingling continue staying.

And how could Perfected Yu not know that the Hall Master was trying to matchmake his daughter with Shen Ping? Although he had let go of a lot of things after his Dao companion's persuasion, he frowned when he thought about how Shen Ping had many wives and concubines.

After saying this, Perfected Yu continued, "Talisman Master Shen, how's your progress on the fourth volume?"

Shen Ping replied truthfully, "I can already create the final beast form!" "Really?" Perfected Yu was stunned as he stared at Shen Ping in disbelief. Shen Ping smiled and took out a special talisman paper. Then, he walked to the jade table. Seeing this scene, Perfected Yu's eyes lit up. Not long after, waves of special and powerful beast-shaped power surged out.

"Good, good!" Perfected Yu revealed a joyful expression and praised repeatedly, "I originally thought that Talisman Master Shen would fall behind in the Dao of Talismans after exchanging puppets these few days. I didn't expect that his progress was still not slow. Very good!"

It was his idea to arrange for him to communicate with the disciples of Moon Lotus Holy Sect in the side hall. Now, it seemed that this arrangement was right.

Indeed, only by doing his best could Talisman Master Shen maintain his progress!

“Since the fourth volume has reached its final state, we’ll start cultivating the fifth volume tomorrow!”

Shen Ping thought for a moment and asked, “Senior Yu, I want to create a perfect final form...”

When Perfected Yu heard this, he couldn’t help but laugh. “Talisman Master Shen, it’s very difficult to comprehend the perfect final form with just one skill. This is the limitation of the Talisman Beast Scripture. It’s not only the Talisman Beast Scripture, but also the various experiences derived from other Beast Scriptures. This is because the derived scripture is not the real Beast Scripture. Those graphics are naturally flawed and it’s difficult to achieve the perfect charm.

“The more outstanding a core skill genius of the True Treasure Pavilion is, the more they need to cultivate other skills. This is also the reason why the main hall requires you to reach the top three in another skill.”

Shen Ping suddenly understood. No wonder when he tried to imitate the Talisman Scripture’s strange beast previously, he would not improve at all every time he reached the final beast form.

“I understand.” Perfected Yu smiled and said nonchalantly, “You’ve only comprehended the Talisman Beast Scripture for a short period of time, so it’s normal for you not to know.” He hesitated for a moment and continued, “Actually, the Mountain Fire Hall and my Dan Hai Hall originally wanted to arrange for you to enter the Beast Scripture Pavilion to comprehend as soon as possible. However, your talent in the Dao of Talismans is really incomparably monstrous, so we delayed it. We planned for you to go to the Beast Scripture Pavilion when you were cultivating puppets. This would speed up your cultivation of another technique!

“If Talisman Master Shen wants to practice puppets in advance, you can tell me so that we can discuss the time.”

After witnessing Shen Ping’s talent, Perfected Yu no longer insisted on letting him comprehend the Talisman Beast Scripture first.

Shen Ping had long wanted to cultivate puppets. He had never understood the key to combining the 36 basic units of the puppet technique. As a result, although he had condensed a Life Divine Puppet, he had always stopped at the first scroll of patterns and could not improve.

Now that he heard Perfected Yu agree, he said without thinking, “Senior Yu, I want to cultivate puppets tomorrow.”

“Tomorrow?” Perfected Yu didn’t expect Shen Ping to be so anxious.

“Yes.” Shen Ping nodded and said repeatedly, “I can come to the side hall early and practice the Talisman Beast Scripture with Senior Yu first. Then, I can practice Puppet Scripture with the other seniors.”

Perfected Yu was stunned for a moment. “Talisman Master Shen, do you mean that you plan to cultivate puppet techniques in my Dan Hai Hall?”

“That’s right. I don’t like trouble. Since we’re cultivating together, I’ll naturally arrange for us to be in the same hall.” Shen Ping did not think too much about it. Moreover, cultivating two skills in this side hall would undoubtedly take longer. If the Holy Maiden could agree to become Dao companions, it would be much more convenient in the future.

Perfected Yu really wanted to agree directly, but this matter was not small and he could not make the decision. “Talisman Master Shen, I’m afraid it will be difficult to arrange it tomorrow. I still have to discuss the teaching of puppet techniques with Mountain Fire Hall. Later, I’ll go to the Mountain Fire Hall and try to deal with this matter as soon as possible.”

Shen Ping hurriedly cupped his hands and said, “Then I’ll have to trouble Senior Yu.”

Perfected Yu’s face was full of smiles. “You’re too kind, Talisman Master Shen.”

In his heart, he could not wait for Shen Ping to cultivate both skills in the Dan Hai Hall. Anyway, it was Shen Ping’s own request now. When the time came, he would see how the Mountain Fire Hall would deal with it. He thought that the Mountain Fire Hall would not go against Talisman Master Shen’s wishes..

Chapter 320: Completed the Last Volume of the Beast Form (1)

It was late at night.

In the spacious hall of the Fire Spirit Hall.

The orioles and swallows sat around the jade table one after another. As various delicacies were served, waves of delicious fragrance lingered in their noses. As far as the eye could see, the spiritual materials consumed by every dish contained extremely dense spiritual energy. If Qi Refinement cultivators ate it often, Foundation Establishment would become easy.

Shen Ping casually picked up a piece of spirit beast meat.

This spirit beast was a relatively rare Level 3 Five-Colored Snow-Patterned Deer in the Zhongsheng Continent. If it was auctioned in the past at Cloud Mountain Parlour, it could be sold for hundreds of thousands of spirit stones at the very least.

In the past, be it Shen Ping or his wife, concubine, or Dao companions, they had never thought that they would be so extravagant as to eat Level 3 spirit beast meat. However, such precious spiritual materials were already commonplace.

“It tastes good. It seems to have the fragrance of the Wei Kingdom’s Mountain Spirit Bamboo.” Shen Ping chewed and swallowed slowly.

Bai Yuying, who was sitting on the left, said coquettishly, “Sister Yun’er, I told you that my husband could taste it at once. Hehe, the Mountain Spirit Bamboo has indeed been added to this spirit beast meat dish. Sister Yun’er asked Deacon Wang to transport it from the Wei Kingdom’s station.”

Wang Yun said gently, “Recently, I saw that you don’t have an appetite, so I want to try using some spiritual materials from the Wei Kingdom.”

The distance from the Wei Kingdom of the South Flame Continent to the headquarters was very far. Just the flying ship alone consumed more than one Level 3 Five-Colored Snow Pattern Deer.

Shen Ping could not help but put down his jade chopsticks and sigh. His current status in the headquarters of the True Treasure Pavilion was high. Even if it was just a word from his wife, Deacon Wang would do his best no matter how much it cost. It was difficult to go from extravagance to frugality. He would probably never return to his previous life.

“Husband, did I do something wrong?” She noticed Shen Ping’s actions. Wang Yun became uneasy.

His wives and concubines also stopped eating. Seeing this, Shen Ping shook his head and smiled. “Yun’er, I’m very glad that you have such thoughts.”

He did not blame her. He knew his wife’s personality very well. When she went to prepare the Mountain Spirit Bamboo, Wang Yun definitely did not think about the consumption. Her thoughts were all on him. If he blamed her because of this, the latter would feel guilty for a long time.

And now, he really had to take his status seriously. After all, some things were already established and unavoidable.

“Let’s eat.” Shen Ping ate the venison in big mouthfuls.

Wang Yun finally smiled. When the delicacies were about to be swept away, Shen Ping looked up and asked about the recent cultivation progress of his wives, concubines, and Dao companions.

With the Level 7 Spiritual Vein Quiet Room, coupled with the Yin-Yang Dual Manual and the provision of various abundant resources, Yu Yan, Mu Jin, and Luo Qing’s cultivation realms improved very quickly. Among them, Yu Yan had already reached the third level of Foundation Establishment and was about to enter the middle stage of Foundation Establishment. Mu Jin was slightly behind, but she had also broken through to the third level of Foundation Establishment half a month ago. The two women’s aptitudes were considered average. If they were in the cultivation environment of the 12 countries, it would take at least 20 to 30 years to advance from Foundation Establishment to their current level.

Luo Qing had the physique of the Black Water Spirit Turtle bloodline. After switching to cultivating a top-notch water-element cultivation technique, her advancement was even faster. Two months ago, she had broken through to the mid-stage Foundation Establishment realm.

Bai Yuying did not work hard in her cultivation, but she was now at the second level of the Foundation Establishment realm.

As for his wife, Wang Yun, she had reached the mid-stage of the Foundation Establishment realm with the help of the Heavenly Fire Silver Fox bloodline. The wife and concubine who had followed Shen Ping the earliest have such a cultivation realm at this age, they were considered relatively outstanding among their peers.

If they were in the Wei Kingdom's Golden Sun Sect, they might be called cultivation geniuses.

Yin Honglian, who was left, had a dual-element spiritual root. Her aptitude was not low, and her cultivation was faster. She was not far from the perfected Foundation Establishment realm.

Lastly, there was Qiu Ying. Originally, with her potential, the late-stage Golden Core realm was the limit. However, Shen Ping had specially applied for restricted resources like the Blood Infant Crystal. There were also other resources that increased the capacity of her meridians, dantian, Spell Thaumaturgy, divine sense, and so on. This allowed her magic power to become stronger in the past half a year. As long as she polished it carefully, she could break through to the Pseudo Nascent Soul realm in less than ten years.

He listened to the longing and anticipation for future cultivation in his wives and concubines' voices.

Shen Ping smiled.

Mountain Great Hall.

Hall Master Shan Huo, who was emitting a mountain-like aura, looked at Perfected Yu, who was standing in front of him and bowing. He waved his sleeve and said, "Perfected Yu, our two halls will be one in the future. There's no need to be polite in the future."

Perfected Yu said slowly, "I can't abandon your etiquette. Hall Master Shan Huo, I'm here today mainly to discuss Talisman Master Shen's puppet technique cultivation arrangements..."

He repeated what Shen Ping had said in the hall. Hall Master Shan Huo frowned. "Did Talisman Master Shen really say that?"

Perfected Yu cupped his hands and said, "How can I dare to lie about such a matter?"

Hall Master Shan Huo did not say anything. His divine sense penetrated the jade token and sent a message to Elder Huo Han. After Elder Huo Han, who was wearing a purple-black robe, found out about this, he immediately sent a message to his disciple, Pei Huoyu, asking him to confirm with Shen Ping.

Soon, a message was sent back.

Hall Master Shan Huo frowned even more. He did not expect Shen Ping to really plan to cultivate puppet techniques in the Dan Hai Hall. In this way, wouldn't it be equivalent to the Dan Hai Hall nurturing him on behalf of the Moon Spirit Main Hall?

"Perfected Yu, return first. I'll inform you of the results after our Mountain Fire Hall discusses."

Dozens of figures appeared in the hall. Every one of them emitted a thick and surging oppressive magic power. All of them, including Elder Huo Han, were Divine Transformation Realm elders of the Mountain Fire Hall.

“Everyone, you’re already clear about the matter. Do you agree with Talisman Master Shen’s intention to arrange for him to cultivate puppet techniques in the Dan Hai Hall, or do you make other arrangements? If you have any suggestions, you can speak freely..”
