Chapter 2041: Wanted Notice

Translator: Legge

“E-Escaped!”

Prince Yuan Zuo’s voice was trembling and he was drenched in sweat, not daring to look up at the heir of King Jin.

“Very good,”

The heir of King Jin nodded slightly and looked at Prince Yuan Zuo before asking, “You should know who Feng Cantian is, right?”

“Y-Yes!”

!!

Prince Yuan Zuo nodded.

“You should know how much of an impact Feng Cantian’s escape has on the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom, right?” The heir of King Jin asked again. His tone was calm and emotionless.

“I do,”

Prince Yuan Zuo gulped.

Pausing for a moment, the gaze of the heir of King Jin suddenly turned incomparably sharp, like a sharp knife that could pierce Prince Yuan Zuo’s chest!

“Since you know everything, why didn’t you inform me beforehand about this?”

There was a shuddering power in the voice of the heir of King Jin.

“I-I... I...!”

Prince Yuan Zuo’s face was pale as a sheet as his body trembled. He raised his head and tried his best to explain, “Feng Cantian was already severely injured. I wanted to suppress him before handing him over to you...”

“Nonsense!”

Suddenly, the heir of King Jin hollered and waved his sleeves, causing an invisible force to collide heavily against Prince Yuan Zuo through the void.

Bang!

Prince Yuan Zuo was sent flying by that attack and fell dozens of feet away. He spat out a mouthful of blood and sprawled on the ground like a dead dog.

That attack from the heir of King Jin had broken more than half of his bones!

He nearly fainted from the pain.

“Yuan Zuo, even in front of me, you’re still spouting nonsense,”

The heir of King Jin said coldly with an icy expression, “You just want to fight for credit! You want to perform in front of father! You want to suppress me!”

What sort of a character was the heir of King Jin?

Initially, he was ranked seventh among the many descendants.

However, because of his ruthless methods, decisiveness and extraordinary endowment, he rose step by step.

The six older brothers in front of him died for various reasons and King Anshi was now the current heir!

Everyone in the royal family knew that the death of the six princes was definitely related to King Anshi.

However, King Jin merely turned a blind eye to this matter.

King Jin had many descendants and he was even happy to see such a situation.

That was the only way a truly ruthless person could stand out from the many princes and inherit his throne and endless territory!

The heir of King Jin had experienced too much bloodshed and Prince Yuan Zuo’s thoughts could not be hidden from him!

“Elder brother, please spare me! Please spare my life...”

Prince Yuan Zuo crawled bit by bit in the direction of the heir of King Jin, coughing blood and begging for mercy in a miserable manner.

King Tianxing stood at the side expressionlessly with his hands behind his back.

He had seen too many fights between princes.

He was only loyal to King Jin and would definitely not interfere.

There was no pity in the eyes of the heir of King Jin when he saw Prince Yuan Zuo's pitiful appearance.

Bloodline and kinship did not matter to him.

Furthermore, they were only half-brothers with different mothers.

"I can understand why you want to take credit and stand out,"

The heir of King Jin said coldly, "However, you should know your limits!"

"Elder brother, I know my mistake now,"

More than half of Prince Yuan Zuo's bones were shattered as he crawled on the ground. He was covered in dust and looked wretched.

His bloodline could not recover within a short period of time after the attack of the heir of King Jin.

"More than a year ago, when Feng Cantian escaped from Absolute Thunder City under your jurisdiction, I did not punish you,"

The heir of King Jin continued, "To think that you would still dare to act on your own and commit such a huge mistake!"

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue glanced at Prince Yuan Zuo at the side and sighed internally.

He knew that if he did not stand out and say something, the heir of King Jin would vent his anger on him as well and he might even die here!

"Your Highness, please allow me to say a few words,"

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue said in a deep voice, "His Highness Yuan Zuo's preparations this time round were indeed foolproof. He even invited Perfected Immortal Fei Yun of Imperial Wind Temple to deal with Feng Cantian."

"In reality, Feng Cantian was severely injured by you and King Tianxing and was indeed vulnerable. He could not defend against our encirclement. Unexpectedly..."

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue recounted in detail how Su Zimo offered the Seven Glow Immortal Ginseng as well as the appearance of Perfected Immortal Burial Night.

"That was what happened. Your Highness, please let us off and allow us to atone for our sins,"

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue kowtowed and begged.

The gaze of the heir of King Jin shifted between Perfected Immortal Jing Yue and Prince Yuan Zuo in silence.

The world fell into a dead silence.

For Prince Yuan Zuo and Perfected Immortal Jing Yue, every single breath felt as long as a thousand years.

Their lives depended on a single thought from the heir of King Jin!

"Scram,"

The heir of King Jin said indifferently, "From now on, I don't want to hear any news of Remnant Night within the territory of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom."

"Definitely, definitely!"

Prince Yuan Zuo was overjoyed.

He knew that since the heir of King Jin said that, his life was saved.

"Thank you, Your Highness,"

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue kowtowed once more and said, "From now on, I'll definitely do my best to repay Your Highness for not killing me."

King Tianxing watched coldly from the sidelines in silence but nodded to himself.

The reason why the heir of King Jin did not kill Prince Yuan Zuo was because the latter was of no threat to him.

After today's incident, Prince Yuan Zuo would not dare to harbor any other thoughts in front of him.

What the heir of King Jin did even managed to take Perfected Immortal Jing Yue under his wing.

When King Tianxing saw that the matter was over, he said slowly, "Your Highness, let's chase after Feng Cantian first."

"After obtaining the Seven Glow Immortal Ginseng, Feng Cantian's injuries will recover as long as he recuperates for a period of time. At that time, it won't be easy to encircle him."

"Let's go,"

The heir of King Jin nodded and waved his palm, slashing in front of him.

The void in front of the heir of King Jin was torn by his palm like a piece of silk, revealing a dark spatial tunnel.

The heir of King Jin disappeared in a flash.

King Tianxing followed closely behind.

The crack in midair healed slowly and the terrifying might that lingered in the skies of the Soaring Dragon Mountain Range dissipated as well.

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue heaved a sigh of relief.

A gentle breeze blew and his body turned cold. Unknowingly, his clothes were drenched in sweat.

"Your Highness, how are you?"

Perfected Immortal Jing Yue hurried forward and helped Prince Yuan Zuo up. He took out a few pills and fed him.

Prince Yuan Zuo's expression was extremely grim and his eyes were filled with endless hatred. Gritting his teeth, he said, "Jing Yue, gather all the forces in Green Cloud County and search for Remnant Night's survivors! Kill them without mercy!"

"The most important thing is to search for Su Zimo!"

"The hatred in my heart won't be appeased until I tear him into pieces and burn his bones into ashes!"

Prince Yuan Zuo had a menacing expression and grit his teeth so tightly that they were about to shatter.

"There's more!"

Prince Yuan Zuo continued, "Send this wanted notice to the other counties and get them to help search as well! I want Su Zimo to have no place to hide in the territory of the Great Jin Dynasty! Anyone who provides clues will be rewarded handsomely!"

“Even if you have to dig underground, find him!”

After Su Zimo left the mountain, he was in no hurry to leave. Instead, he made use of the Trinity Auspicious Jade to change his appearance.

Prince Yuan Zuo and Perfected Immortal Jing Yue were not dead and would definitely not let things go.

Given Prince Yuan Zuo's power and status, he would definitely take revenge on Su Zimo fanatically!

If he were to walk with his true appearance, he would definitely be targeted.

After pondering for a moment, Su Zimo turned into an ugly burly man. He had a majestic figure and wore rough linen clothes. His chest was half exposed and he held a wine jar in his hands with half-opened eyes.

Su Zimo took a few wobbly steps. When he felt that there were no loopholes, he headed towards Cangyu City, which was the closest to this place.

There were more than a hundred cities under the jurisdiction of Solar Luna County.

Every city ruled over a large territory.

Although he was the closest to Cangyu City, Su Zimo took more than three days to arrive at the city.

Carrying the wine jar, Su Zimo glanced at the city gate drowsily and staggered in.

When the guards guarding the city gate saw the detestable burly man who reeked of wine, they revealed disgusted expressions and refused to take another look.

The guards on both sides waved casually and let Su Zimo enter the city.

Su Zimo was secretly delighted.

This was also the reason why he had transformed.

The more disgusted others were, the less they would pay attention to him.

Su Zimo did not wander around the city. Instead, he headed straight for the teleportation formation.

He had to leave the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom as soon as possible.

Although he had the Trinity Auspicious Jade, this treasure might not be able to protect him completely.

He would only be truly safe after leaving the territory of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom.

The territory of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom was vast. Given his cultivation, if he wanted to travel alone, even if there were no obstacles, it would take him hundreds or even thousands of years while traveling day and night.

Furthermore, he was alone and did not know what dangers he would encounter on the way.

Those hundreds or thousands of years would be wasted.

Using the teleportation formation to leave was the fastest!

About two hours later, Su Zimo crossed most of the city and arrived at the teleportation formation.

A large crowd gathered at the front and blocked the entrance of the teleportation formation hall, causing a commotion.

From afar, Su Zimo saw dozens of guards guarding the entrance of the hall, scrutinizing every cultivator who wanted to enter.

The dozens of guards were all Earth Immortals.

Behind the dozens of people, two people sat on chairs and surveyed the crowd with burning gazes and terrifying auras.

There was a high chance that the two of them were Heaven Immortal experts!

“What’s going on? Why did it suddenly become so strict?”

“Haven’t you heard? Something big happened in Green Cloud County!”

“What happened?”

“I heard that Supreme Perfected Immortal Feng Cantian from more than 400,000 years ago escaped from the Ten Absolute Hell with the help of his surviving followers and his whereabouts are unknown. Right now, they're all searching for those surviving followers."

Someone at the side whispered, "I also heard that a clone that Prince Yuan Zuo of Green Cloud County painstakingly cultivated was crippled by someone called Su Zimo and he suffered a huge loss."

"That's right. It's said that anyone who can provide clues to Su Zimo will be rewarded handsomely!"

A series of trivial discussions broke out from the crowd at the front.

Su Zimo blinked.

To think that news would spread so quickly.

He was still a step too late.

"What's happening at the front? Why were some Grade 1 Earth Immortals brought to the two Heaven Immortal experts alone for another check?"

Someone asked softly.

Su Zimo focused his gaze.

In the crowd, any Grade 1 Earth Immortal would be singled out by the guards on both sides of the hall.

The two Heaven Immortal experts searched the Grade 1 Earth Immortal's storage bag before asking the latter's Essence Spirit to leave his body.

Su Zimo frowned slightly and his ears twitched. Before long, he heard a few conversations.

"What are we doing? Why are we targeting these Grade 1 Earth Immortals?"

"It's said that Su Zimo is a Grade 1 Earth Immortal. However, this person knows Myriad Transformations and can change his appearance."

"How is that possible? Myriad Transformations is a supreme divine power!"

"I'm not sure. However, even Myriad Transformations can only change one's body and not their Essence Spirit. Therefore, as long as one reveals their Essence Spirit, they will know if this person was transformed by Su Zimo."

With a grim expression, Su Zimo retreated silently from the crowd.

The situation was bad!

Initially, he wanted to make use of the Trinity Auspicious Jade to change his appearance and leave.

But now that the surroundings of the teleportation formation were so carefully checked, if he went forward, he would reveal his true form even with the Trinity Auspicious Jade.

This plan could not work!

Su Zimo did not dare to take the risk and was prepared to leave Cangyu City for the time being.

According to the situation, there was a high chance that the entire city would be under martial law. At that time, it would be difficult for him to escape even if he wanted to.

Su Zimo walked towards the city gate. Before long, a group of Cangyu City guards arrived in midair and dispersed. Each of them held a painting in their hands.

One of the guards descended not far away from Su Zimo and arrived at the city wall. He opened the painting in his hands and pasted it.

The painting depicted a figure in green robes with a handsome face—it was Su Zimo!

Beneath the painting were a few lines of words.

The general meaning was that anyone who could provide clues about this person would be rewarded handsomely.

Su Zimo knew that he had already transformed into another appearance. If no one asked him to reveal his Essence Spirit, he would not be discovered.

However, he still felt guilty when he saw the painting.

“I can’t linger here,”

When Su Zimo saw the guard beside him turn around and look in his direction, he hurriedly raised his head and drank a mouthful of strong wine. He burped and swayed out of the city.

Before long, he disappeared into the crowd.

After leaving the city, Su Zimo checked the map and headed east.

He walked for two days. Along the way, he would see groups of immortal soldiers from the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom passing by from time to time, searching everywhere.

Relying on the Trinity Auspicious Jade, Su Zimo changed his appearance and did not encounter any situation where his Essence Spirit had to be exposed—it was a close shave.

However, this situation could not last long either.

Su Zimo lamented internally as well.

The entire world belonged to the king.

He had offended Prince Yuan Zuo and this was someone from the royal family of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom. As long as he was in this land, there was almost no place for him!

Even if he found a mountain range and opened up a cave abode, it would be difficult for him to continue cultivating.

Someone would definitely locate him!

Right then, in the forest at the side, a few cultivators walked together. They looked like Black Immortals—two Grade 9 Black Immortals, three Grade 8 Black Immortals and two Grade 7 Black Immortals.

“Brother Liu, do you think Astral Sect will take us in?”

Among them, a young cultivator asked.

Another older person said in a deep voice, “Probably. Astral Sect is only a black-grade sect. We stand a chance.”

“Astral Sect?”

Su Zimo murmured softly in deep thought.

Chapter 2043: Secret News

Translator: Legge

The City Lord of Dragon Abyss City, Xu Shi, had once told Su Zimo that in the Divine Firmament Immortal Domain or even the entire Heavenly World, the major sects could be divided into three levels.

Black, earth and heaven grades.

There were only four heaven-grade immortal sects in the Divine Firmament Immortal Domain—Mountain Sea Immortal Sect, Imperial Wind Temple, Heaven and Earth Academy and Flying Immortal Sect.

Back in the abyss of the Dragon Abyss Star, Su Zimo's Essence Spirit entered the dragon corpse and reanimated it, interacting with the experts of those sects.

The Sect Masters of heaven-grade sects were all Immortal Kings.

Beneath heaven was earth.

Sect Masters of earth-grade sects were usually at the Perfected Immortal realm.

The most common ones were black-grade sects where the Sect Masters were usually Heaven Immortals.

Astral Sect was a black-grade sect.

Su Zimo thought to himself that rather than hiding outside in fear, he might as well hide in a sect and cultivate.

Black-grade sects like this were way too common in the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom.

Even if Prince Yuan Zuo hunted everywhere and came to a black-grade sect, he could not search the disciples one by one.

The guards of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom guarded the major cities and fortresses and searched everywhere—they were already at their limits.

It was impossible for them to run into a black-grade sect and search wantonly. At most, they would just pass down a wanted notice.

Right now, the most important thing for Su Zimo was to cultivate in seclusion and raise his cultivation realm.

When he came out of the Essence Spirit Mine this time round, he entered the Ten Absolute Hell and the Emperor's Tomb. He experienced many battles and witnessed too many experts fight and barely survived along the way.

Those comprehension experiences were his most precious experiences.

Furthermore, he had already accumulated a large number of spirit pills, Essence Spirit Stones and other cultivation resources in his storage bag casually along the way.

He had just broken through to the Level 1 Earth Essence realm. As long as he had sufficient resources and time, his cultivation could advance continuously without encountering much obstacles.

Most importantly, Su Zimo had benefited way too much in the past year!

Breaking through to the Earth Essence realm was secondary.

In the Ten Absolute Hell, he obtained the Void Thunder Manual.

Although he inherited the Thunder Emperor's inheritance directly and could comprehend many things without even cultivating, there were still some insights that he had to comprehend himself.

In the Emperor's Tomb, the third wall of the Hell Suppression Tripod was repaired.

He had yet to cultivate a secret skill imparted to him by the Black Tortoise Sacred Soul.

He did not comprehend the Prajna Nirvana Sutra on the third tripod wall either.

There was also the mysterious Trinity Auspicious Jade.

This treasure accompanying the Green Lotus True Body had endless uses.

Up till now, Su Zimo had only discovered one of those abilities.

If he wanted to cultivate and comprehend the secrets within, he would require a long period of seclusion cultivation!

The path of cultivation was long. Even if one was lucky and had endless opportunities, those with extraordinary talent could not succeed overnight.

Although the grade of Astral Sect was not high, it was suitable for Su Zimo to lay low and wait for an opportunity.

At that thought, Su Zimo carried the wine jar and flew through the air, swaying towards the few people who spoke earlier on.

"Hey, those few over there!"

Before Su Zimo got close, he shouted from afar, exhaling the smell of wine and cursing, "Bloody hell, I'm referring to the few of you!"

Now that he had changed his appearance, his words and actions had to change as well so that no one would see through him.

The few cultivators on the other side looked up and saw an ugly cultivator smelling of wine walking over from afar. All of them revealed disgusted expressions.

However, the older cultivator among them had a calm expression and whispered, "This is an Earth Immortal. Everyone, be careful not to anger him."

"Greetings, Exalted Immortal,"

The older cultivator stood still and bowed to Su Zimo.

Although the other young cultivators were unwilling, they bowed as well.

Su Zimo glanced at the few people on the ground with an intoxicated expression. With a prideful expression, he burped and asked, "How do I get to Astral Sect?"

A few young cultivators, especially the female cultivator, lowered their heads slightly with disgusted expressions. In fact, they did not even want to look at Su Zimo.

The older cultivator smiled and said, "Exalted Immortal, follow this path and head east for more than 2,000 kilometers. That's the location of Astral Sect."

"There are seven peaks in Astral Sect that are the most striking and easy to identify."

"Bloody hell, I actually got lost,"

Su Zimo cursed and took another mouthful of strong wine before swaying towards the east.

The older cultivator heaved a sigh of relief.

"Where did this drunkard come from? How disgusting," A young man spat.

"Brother Liu, our family clan is rather strong in the vicinity of Cangyu City. Why should we be afraid of an alcoholic?" A young girl asked.

The older cultivator shook his head. "When you travel outside, you must not underestimate anyone. Even though he looks like he's dead drunk, who knows what methods he has and what status he has?"

"All these years, there have always been some aristocratic families in Solar Luna County that would send their talented clansmen to join Astral Sect. This person might also be from some aristocratic family."

Another person asked, "Brother Liu, are the rumors about Astral Sect true? Is there really a cultivation technique comparable to a Taboo Mystic Classic hidden in this black-grade sect?"

“That saying has been passed down for a long time and I don’t know if it’s true,”

The older cultivator said, “It’s said that many years ago, an extraterritorial King came to Divine Firmament Mainland and started a massacre. Among the Immortal Kings, no one was his match! Eventually, an Immortal Emperor attacked and killed him in that mountain range.”

“Thereafter, the terrain of the mountain range changed and seven mountain peaks rose against the tide, reaching the skies. The surrounding mountains rose and formed the current Astral Sect.”

“Ever since then, there have been all sorts of legends in the Divine Firmament Immortal Domain. The most widely spread one was that the extraterritorial King died and left his inheritance in that mountain range. Some people said that it was a cultivation technique called the Exalted Mystic Spirit. I can’t remember its name either.”

Everyone behind him was engrossed and someone asked, “What happened after that?”

The older cultivator smiled. “Later on, many cultivators came to this mountain range, wanting to inherit the inheritance of this extraterritorial King and search for that ethereal cultivation technique.”

“I heard that in the beginning, cultivators from the Divine Firmament Immortal Domain, Nine Firmament Immortal Domain, even the Pure Land of Bliss and Fiend Domain came to obtain this opportunity.”

“However, in the end, they returned empty-handed.”

“Some people were unwilling to leave and guarded that mountain range all day long. Later on, they gradually developed into a sect and became the current Astral Sect.”

“When Astral Sect was first established, there were even Perfected Immortals presiding over it.”

“However, as time passed by and the first generation aged without anyone obtaining any opportunities, the number of cultivators that came to Astral Sect decreased.”

“Up till now, only some aristocratic families in our Solar Luna County will send some disciples over. Actually, we don’t bear much hope. Just take it as a training expedition.”

Everyone sighed when they heard that.

The older cultivator shrugged his shoulders and shook his head with a smile. “Actually, those are just rumors. I even heard that the King who died back then did not come from another territory, but another world instead!”

“Another world?”

Everyone was stunned.

The older cultivator said, “He’s not someone from our Heavenly World, but a King of another world.”

The few cultivators thought that Su Zimo had already gone far away and could not hear what they were saying.

In reality, Su Zimo had the Grade 10 Green Lotus True Body and his hearing was strong. He heard their conversation clearly!

“There’s such a rumor?”

Su Zimo murmured softly.

It seemed like Astral Gate was not an ordinary black-grade sect.

However, those rumors did not affect him much.

He only wanted to enter Astral Sect this time round to search for a quiet place to cultivate in peace.

After a period of time, when his cultivation advanced and the search outside gradually relaxed, he would leave Astral Sect.

A few hours later, Su Zimo’s gaze froze and he finally caught sight of seven majestic mountains standing on the horizon, almost at the same level as the skies!

Astral Sect was right ahead!

Before long, Su Zimo arrived at the entrance of Astral Sect.

There were already many cultivators gathered in front of the mountain gate. There were tens of thousands of them spread all over the mountains!

“There are so many people?”

Su Zimo frowned.

However, on second thought, it was good that there were more people. He would not attract attention even if he mixed in the crowd.

Su Zimo drank his strong wine and surveyed his surroundings with intoxicated eyes.

He noticed that among the tens of thousands of cultivators, some were Black Immortals and even low-level ones.

Some of them were Earth Immortals.

In fact, he even caught sight of a few Grade 7 Earth Immortals in the crowd!

Among the group of cultivators, some of them were gathered with extraordinary bearings and similar attire. They wore the same badges and looked like they were from the same faction.

According to the older cultivator from before, there was a high chance that these cultivators came from the same family clan.

Su Zimo swept his intoxicated gaze around and saw a Grade 3 Black Immortal. He leaned forward and grabbed the latter to a corner.

“Bloody hell, a Grade 3 Black Immortal like you came to join Astral Sect?”

Su Zimo cursed and glared at that person drunkenly.

The Grade 3 Black Immortal was skinny and had a sharp mouth and monkey cheeks. His eyes darted around and he could not move at all against Su Zimo’s palm!

Su Zimo’s breath reeked of wine and that person almost vomited.

However, when he sensed Su Zimo’s powerful aura suppressing him completely, he swallowed the vomit in his mouth.

The person’s face flushed purple and he was so scared that he was about to cry. With a trembling voice, he said, “Exalted Immortal, I’m sorry, I was in the wrong. I’ll leave now.”

When Su Zimo saw that, he felt a sense of guilt.

Initially, he did not want to reveal any loopholes. To think that he would scare this person out of his wits.

Instantly, he released the person and harrumphed coldly. “You’re not allowed to leave. Come back!”

“Alright, alright. I won’t leave. I’ll listen to you, Exalted Immortal!”

The person’s voice was trembling—it was clear that he was scared out of his wits.

He was completely stunned. He could neither leave nor not leave.

Su Zimo took out an Essence Condensation Pill from his storage bag and flicked his finger gently, causing it to land in front of the person. “I’ll ask you a few questions. Answer them truthfully.”

“Exalted Immortal, please ask. I’ll tell you everything I know!”

Although that person said that, he did not dare to take the Minor Essence Condensation Pill.

Su Zimo asked, “Why hasn’t Astral Sect’s recruitment of disciples started yet?”

The person said hurriedly, “Exalted Immortal, you don’t know. Every time Astral Sect opens its doors to take in disciples, it has to be during a fixed period. In a few days, it will officially begin.”

Su Zimo acknowledged and asked again, “What are the rules for Astral Sect to accept disciples? Why do I see so many different cultivation realms?”

“From what I know, Astral Sect recruits disciples not through cultivation realms, but through endowment and opportunities.”

The person said, “When the mountain gate is opened, the entrance test will begin at night on that stargazing platform.”

The person pointed in the direction of Astral Sect.

Su Zimo turned around.

Behind the mountain gate of Astral Sect, a stone platform stood tall.

The person continued, “It’s said that this stargazing platform is made from a meteor and can connect with the stars in the skies. As long as we stand on this stargazing platform and our bodies can trigger starlight, we’ll be considered to have passed the test of Astral Sect and can join the sect.”

Su Zimo nodded to himself.

The entrance test of Astral Sect was rather unique and did not depend on one’s cultivation realm.

However, Su Zimo was not worried.

Given his endowment, talent, bloodline, physique and Essence Spirit, he could definitely pass this test.

“Alright, I have nothing more for you,”

Su Zimo waved it off and took out a few more Minor Essence Condensation Pills, tossing them to the Grade 3 Black Immortal.

“Erm...”

The person rubbed his palms and wanted to take it, but he was still a little afraid.

Although it was only a few Minor Essence Condensation Pills, they were rare resources for him!

Just as he was hesitating, Su Zimo had already turned to leave after drinking his strong wine.

The person picked up the Minor Essence Condensation Pills hurriedly and was delighted.

Su Zimo found a random spot and laid down nonchalantly without caring about the dust beneath him. Placing the wine jar on his chest, he closed his eyes and waited patiently.

In the next few days, more and more cultivators gathered in Astral Sect.

By the time the official recruitment of disciples began, there were already a hundred thousand cultivators gathered outside the sect!

This was not a small scale.

To outsiders, Su Zimo was mostly drunk and asleep at the side.

However, among the hundred thousand cultivators, he had already roughly understood the background of some of them through listening.

This night, the stars were resplendent and the mountain gate opened.

Three middle-aged men stood above the mountain gate. They wore Daoist robes embroidered with stars and had calm expressions. All three of them were Heaven Immortals!

“I’m Cold Light,”

The Heaven Immortal in the middle looked at the cultivators from all directions and nodded slightly. "Everyone, welcome to Astral Sect to take part in this entrance test."

"I hereby announce the official start of the entrance test!"

"Hold on!"

Right then, a voice sounded from midair in the distance, interrupting Heaven Immortal Cold Light.

Immediately after, two figures tore through the air at an extremely fast speed and arrived before him in the blink of an eye.

The two of them wore Black Gold Feather Armors and had cold expressions. Although they were only at the Earth Immortal realm, their auras were not disadvantaged against Heaven Immortal Cold Light!

Execution Guards!

The crowd exclaimed.

Many cultivators revealed deep reverence and fear in their eyes.

In the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom, the Execution Guards represented killing and punishment!

Although Cold Light was a Heaven Immortal, he did not dare to disobey the orders of the two Earth Execution Guards. Otherwise, he would be challenging the dignity of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom!

Su Zimo narrowed his eyes slightly. Although he seemed drunk on the surface, he was secretly on guard.

"Fellow Daoists, may I ask why you're here?"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light did not dare to delay and hurried forward.

One of the Execution Guards took out a painting from his storage bag and opened it, revealing a painting within.

The person in the portrait had green robes, black hair and refined features—it was Su Zimo.

"The Great Jin Immortal Kingdom is using all our might to hunt down this person!"

The Execution Guard surveyed the many cultivators beneath his feet and said in a deep voice, "If you see this person, capture him immediately without any mistakes! Anyone with any clues can report it and be rewarded generously!"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light cupped his fists gently. "Fellow Daoists, don't worry. Astral Sect has already heard about this. After today, we'll make a few copies of this painting and send them down separately. If we discover anything, Astral Sect will definitely suppress this person with all our might!"

"Yes,"

An Earth Execution Guard nodded slightly and surveyed his surroundings. He swept his gaze across the crowd in front of the sect sharply.

Su Zimo's current appearance was very different from the painting. He was covered in mud and his face was red, as though he had already fallen asleep.

The gaze of the Earth Execution Guard swept past him without stopping at all.

"Have any of you seen this person?"

The Earth Execution Guard on the left shook the painting in his hands and asked in a deep voice.

"Exalted Immortal, we've waited here for two days along the way but haven't seen this person,"

A young man in white robes stood out. His black hair draped over his shoulders and he had sharp brows and phoenix eyes. He was elegant as he cupped his fists towards the two Earth Execution Guards and said with a smile.

Su Zimo opened his intoxicated eyes and glanced at that person.

Earlier on, he heard people discussing that this young man was from one of the five major family clans of Solar Luna County, the Lin clan. His name was Lin Ming and he was a Grade 7 Earth Immortal!

This time round, the Lin clan brought more than a hundred clansmen over with different cultivation realms. There were Black Immortals and Earth Immortals.

However, among the hundred-odd clansmen, Lin Ming had the highest cultivation realm.

From the positions of the clansmen, it could be determined that Lin Ming had a high status among the Lin clansmen.

Lin Ming stood out this time round in a pandering manner to the Earth Execution Guard.

However, the two Earth Execution Guards in midair did not appreciate it at all. They merely glanced at Lin Ming indifferently before retracting their gazes.

Although the Lin clan was quite powerful in Solar Luna County, they were far inferior compared to the Execution Guards.

The Execution Guards were backed by the royal family of the Great Jin Immortal Kingdom!

On the other side, another young man stood out from the crowd. He held a folding fan and wore purple robes. He cupped his fists. "Exalted Immortals, don't worry. If we discover his tracks, the Xie clan will be the first to stand out!"

The Xie clan was second of the five major family clans of Solar Luna County.

The person who spoke was Xie Tianfeng, also a Grade 7 Earth Immortal.

When that person stood out, he even glanced at Lin Ming, as if he wanted to fight this person.

"Report any news immediately!"

An Earth Execution Guard was expressionless as he threw the painting in his hands to Heaven Immortal Cold Light. After saying that, he turned to leave with the other person.

Su Zimo heaved out a sigh of relief.

If the two Earth Execution Guards were not afraid of trouble and checked the hundred thousand cultivators outside the sect, he would not be able to hide anymore.

On the other side.

Not long after the two Execution Guards left Astral Sect, one of them suddenly asked, "Brother Chen, why didn't we check on the hundred thousand cultivators outside Astral Sect earlier on?"

“Su Zimo is definitely not among them,”

Execution Guard Chen replied.

“Why do you say that?”

The other person was surprised and said, “The commander personally said that Su Zimo knows the Myriad Transformations technique and can change his appearance into another person.”

Execution Guard Chen asked instead, “Let me ask you, how long can a Grade 9 Heaven Immortal sustain the release of Myriad Transformations?”

“That depends on the strength of their Essence Spirit. Even if their Essence Spirit is condensed, they won’t be able to sustain it for long. Myriad Transformations is a supreme divine power after all. Sustaining it will consume too much of the Essence Spirit.”

The person replied.

Execution Guard Chen said, “Doesn’t that settle it? Su Zimo is only a Grade 1 Earth Immortal. Even if he knows Myriad Transformations, how long can he sustain it?”

“There are a hundred thousand cultivators outside Astral Sect with so many pairs of eyes. If he couldn’t hold on, he would have been exposed a long time ago.”

The other person was enlightened and praised, “Brother Chen, you’re wise.”

Execution Guard Chen replied, “These are experiences. You’ve just joined the Execution Guards, take your time to learn. If we have to check everyone we meet from head to toe, won’t we die of exhaustion?”

...

Astral Sect.

After the two Execution Guards left, Heaven Immortal Cold Light instructed the Astral Sect disciples to send the painting in his hands down and send someone to copy it as soon as possible.

On the other side, he had already begun hosting the entrance trial.

Similar to what the Grade 3 Black Immortal said earlier on, the entrance trial of Astral Sect was rather simple and did not have any cultivation realm requirements for cultivators.

Everyone stood on the stargazing platform. As long as starlight appeared on their bodies within ten breaths, they would pass the trial.

There were a hundred thousand cultivators outside the sect.

However, the stargazing platform was made from a meteor and was extremely spacious—it could accommodate more than a hundred people at the same time with ease.

According to normal speed, more than 30,000 people could be tested in an hour.

Before daybreak, the trial for the hundred thousand people could end.

Su Zimo was in no hurry to advance. Instead, he stood in the crowd and paid attention to the movements on the stargazing platform.

Not many of the hundred people who ascended the stargazing platform at the same time could trigger starlight.

At times, there were only one or two people.

At times, even among the hundred people, no starlight could appear.

Before long, a group of cultivators in similar attire headed towards the stargazing platform. On their waists were the word Wang.

It was one of the five major family clans, the Wang clan.

The leader of the Wang clansmen was Wang Yu.

Although he looked ordinary, he had a calm expression, short hair without any beard and a burning gaze. He looked extremely capable and was a Grade 6 Earth Immortal.

Behind Wang Yu were all clansmen of the Wang clan and most of them were Black Immortals.

More than a hundred Wang clansmen stood on the stargazing platform and looked up at the starry skies at the same time.

A single breath later, faint starlight shone from Wang Yu's body.

As time passed by, the starlight on Wang Yu's body intensified and even formed a thick beam of light that extended from his head into the firmaments.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light nodded slightly and said, "It's already not bad for the starlight to leave the body at a height of 10 feet."

On the third breath, the starlight beam above Wang Yu's head rose once more to a height of 20 feet!

That scene caused a series of exclamations.

"I heard that the brighter the starlight, the better one's endowment and talent. Someone who can condense a beam of light is definitely someone with extraordinary talent!"

"What does the triggering of starlight actually have to do with anything?" A failed cultivator asked in frustration.

"I heard that it might be related to the bloodline."

"No matter what, once you're on the stargazing platform, you can activate all your Essence Spirits and bloodlines without holding back."

As everyone discussed, ten breaths passed.

The starlight above Wang Yu's head had reached a height of 40 feet!

Among the 50,000 people who had passed the trial, Wang Yu was the first to condense a beam of light that was 40 feet tall.

"Not bad, 40 feet. He's quite a rare genius,"

Beside Heaven Immortal Cold Light, a yellow-robed Daoist nodded slightly with a smile.

On the other side, an old man lamented, "I heard that when Astral Sect was just established, all the paragons and monster incarnates of the Heavenly World were gathered here. In fact, some of them could even condense starlight beams that were 80 to 90 feet tall..."

"Unfortunately, those have already become legends."

Chapter 2046: Shangguan Qian

After ten breaths, more than half of the Wang clan cultivators released starlight from their bodies and stayed in Astral Sect.

When Xie Tianfeng saw that, he could not help but shout, "Let me do it!"

With that said, Xie Tianfeng led many clansmen of the Xie clan onto the stargazing platform.

From the looks of it, there should be much internal and external strife within the five major family clans from day to day.

There would definitely be another competition during their encounter in Astral Sect.

Indeed, starlight was the first to appear in Xie Tianfeng's body.

On his fourth breath, the starlight left his body and gradually formed a beam of light around him that rose slowly into the firmaments.

"By the looks of it, Xie Tianfeng's starlight beam seems to be smaller than Wang Yu's. I wonder how many feet it can reach."

"I heard that the Wang clan's ancestors once obtained a body tempering divine technique. In terms of physique and bloodline, Xie Tianfeng is probably slightly inferior."

After listening for so long, Su Zimo had more or less understood.

If one's bloodline was strong, not only would the starlight beam released be shockingly tall and wide, it would also be blinding.

For example, the radius of the star beam condensed by Wang Yu earlier on was already half a person.

However, Xie Tianfeng's starlight beam merely just enveloped him.

In the blink of an eye, ten breaths passed.

Xie Tianfeng's starlight beam was only 30 feet tall and was clearly lower than Wang Yu.

"Fufu,"

Lin Ming smiled gently and said, "Brother Xie, your beam of light doesn't seem to be as high as Brother Wang Yu's."

Xie Tianfeng's expression was terrible as he harrumphed coldly. He glanced at Lin Ming, Wang Yu and the others who were not far away. "Today is just an entrance trial. It's nothing much. Wait and see after we enter the sect!"

With that said, Xie Tianfeng led many clansmen of the Xie clan off the stargazing platform.

More than half of the Xie clansmen triggered starlight and joined Astral Sect.

Before long, Lin Ming led his clansmen onto the stargazing platform.

As expected, Lin Ming had also activated his starlight beam.

Although his starlight beam was more than 30 feet tall, it could not reach a height of 40 feet.

Up till now, Wang Yu was still the highest!

“Junior Sister Shangguan, Senior Brother Zuo, your turn is up?”

Lin Ming cupped his fists towards the other two factions.

When his gaze landed on Junior Sister Shangguan, it turned fervent. However, he hid it quickly.

The Zuo and Shangguan family clans were the other two of the five major family clans of Solar Luna County.

The leader of the Zuo clan wore a plain long robe. He was tall and handsome, with defined features and deep eyes. In terms of bearing, he was clearly superior to Lin Ming, Xie Tianfeng and Wang Yu.

Zuo Zhuxuan, a Grade 8 Earth Immortal!

On the other side, the leader of the Shangguan clan was a young woman, Shangguan Qian, who was also a Grade 8 Earth Immortal.

The two of them stood side by side. From afar, they looked like a match made in heaven.

Both Lin Ming and Xie Tianfeng looked jealous and envious.

“Junior Sister Shangguan, you first?”

Zuo Zhuxuan smiled gently and looked at Shangguan Qian, asking softly with a gentle gaze.

“Senior Brother Zuo, please,”

Shangguan Qian shook her head gently and declined.

“That works too,”

Zuo Zhuxuan smiled faintly. "I won't stand on courtesy."

With that said, he tidied his clothes and led his clansmen towards the stargazing platform.

The moment Zuo Zhuxuan stepped foot on the stargazing platform, specks of starlight appeared in his body right away, looking even brighter than Wang Yu's!

Phew!

Starlight shone from Zuo Zhuxuan's body and a beam of starlight was formed before long. It could even accommodate two people!

The starlight beam surged into the skies.

10 feet!

20 feet!

...

It was only after it broke through 40 feet that the speed of the starlight beam gradually slowed down.

Everyone watched fixedly with bated breaths.

The gazes of Astral Sect's Heaven Immortal Cold Light and the other two intensified as well.

"Could that lad be going to break through a height of 50 feet?"

"It's very difficult! How many years has it been since we've seen a starlight beam that's 50 feet tall?"

Ten breaths passed in the blink of an eye.

Just as everyone thought that Zuo Zhuxuan's star beam was at its limits...

Zuo Zhuxuan roared into the skies and his blood qi burst forth with the sound of a tsunami.

Right on the heels of that, the starlight beam surrounding him expanded by an inch and broke through to 50 feet!

Cries of surprises came from the crowd.

“Alright!”

Heaven Immortal Cold Light and the other two could not help but clap and laugh as well, praising.

“Hmph!”

Xie Tianfeng sneered, “What a show-off.”

Lin Ming’s expression was also dark as he glanced at Shangguan Qian who was not far away.

Shangguan Qian looked at the 50 feet starlight beam above Zuo Zhuxuan’s head and her eyes lit up as she nodded with a smile.

“Fufu,”

Zuo Zhuxuan led his clansmen down the stargazing platform and returned to Shangguan Qian’s side with a smile. “Junior Sister Shangguan, it’s your turn. Don’t feel pressured.”

“Yes,”

Shangguan Qian nodded and led the many Shangguan clansmen behind her towards the stargazing platform.

On the other side, when Su Zimo saw that the number of people who were taking the trial was almost full, he no longer waited and headed towards the stargazing platform.

If he wanted to hide in Astral Sect and cultivate in seclusion quietly, he could not be too high-profile.

If anyone noticed him, it would definitely not be peaceful.

As he pondered, he had already arrived at the stargazing platform and leaped up.

“Where did this drunkard come from? Get lost!”

Before Su Zimo’s figure could stabilize, a figure charged over from 500 meters away and kicked Su Zimo fiercely without holding back.

Su Zimo sneered internally.

The person who attacked was only a Grade 9 Black Immortal.

However, he was fearless because he was from the Shangguan clan.

Su Zimo had countless methods to cripple this person against a kick with so many openings!

However, he did not want to attract attention and staggered a few times. Although it seemed like a coincidence, he dodged the Shangguan clansman's kick in an extremely mysterious manner.

Su Zimo was in a drunken state and continued towards the stargazing platform without realizing it.

The Shangguan clansman almost lost control of his momentum after his kick came to nothing and fell from the stargazing platform.

By the time he reacted, Su Zimo had already arrived at the center of the stargazing platform.

Su Zimo's plan was clear.

These were all clansmen of the Shangguan clan and many of them could trigger starlight. If he mixed in, he would not attract attention even if starlight appeared.

Furthermore, everyone's attention was definitely focused on Shangguan Qian and no one would pay attention to a drunkard like him!

Su Zimo reeked of wine. When he arrived in the crowd, some Shangguan clansmen revealed looks of disgust and avoided him.

Some of the Shangguan clansmen could not help but walk towards Su Zimo with unfriendly expressions. They even wanted to attack and throw Su Zimo off the stargazing platform.

"Bloody hell!"

Su Zimo widened his intoxicated eyes and looked at the few Shangguan clansmen who were rushing over. He deliberately shouted, "Why? Is the Shangguan family so overbearing? Has the stargazing platform become part of the Shangguan family?"

The others naturally watched the show. However, Heaven Immortal Cold Light and the other two of Astral Sect frowned slightly.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light coughed gently.

Although the Shangguan clan was one of the major clans of Solar Luna County, they could not chase people away from the stargazing platform casually under his watch.

The few Shangguan clansmen had ugly expressions and could neither advance nor retreat.

“That’s enough,”

Right then, a cold voice sounded. Shangguan Qian was walking over and waved casually. “You guys can disperse. Prepare for the trial.”

When the Shangguan clansmen heard that, they glared at Su Zimo before leaving.

Shangguan Qian glanced at Su Zimo indifferently and stood not far away from him.

There were already more than a hundred people on the stargazing platform.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light channeled his spirit consciousness and conjured a Dharmic art. A spirit light surged from his fingertip and entered the stargazing platform.

The trial had begun!

The many cultivators on the stargazing platform channeled their blood qi hurriedly and released their spirit consciousnesses. They looked up at the starry skies, wanting to establish a connection with the stars in the firmament and activate the starlight.

Su Zimo was the only one trying his best to calm his blood qi and focus like an old monk in meditation, afraid that he would cause too much of a stir.

Since he wanted to enter Astral Sect and lay dormant, he could not be too high-profile.

If the stargazing platform was truly related to his bloodline, the moment he activated his Green Lotus bloodline, it would definitely cause a violent reaction from the stargazing platform!

If he were to condense a starlight beam that was 70 or 80 feet tall at that time, he would become everyone’s focus.

Therefore, even when the Shangguan clansmen were channeling their blood qi with all their might, Su Zimo was still nonchalant and seemed like he could fall asleep at any moment with hazy eyes.

On the other side, Shangguan Qian did not disappoint either.

The range of the starlight beam she condensed was even larger than Zuo Zhuxuan's. By the fifth breath, it had already broken through a height of 40 feet!

If nothing went wrong, she would be able to reach 50 feet or even higher!

"Not bad, not bad,"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light smiled and nodded slightly. "We have two people with 50 feet starlight beams this time round. They're quite the rare geniuses."

"Unfortunately, they won't belong to Astral Sect at the end of the day,"

The old man at the side sighed gently.

The three of them knew that the reason why geniuses of the five major family clans of Solar Luna County joined Astral Sect was because of the illusory legend of the past.

One day, these geniuses would leave again.

At the end of the day, Astral Sect was only a black-grade sect. If these geniuses wanted greater accomplishments, they would definitely have to attempt to join an earth-grade sect.

In the blink of an eye, it was the eighth breath.

The starlight beam around Shangguan Qian had already broken through to a height of 50 feet!

Although Shangguan Qian could not break through to 60 feet in the remaining two breaths, she could still climb a little more.

Almost everyone's eyes were fixed on Shangguan Qian.

Nobody noticed that Su Zimo, who was not far away from her, was frowning in deep thought.

Su Zimo controlled himself well and no starlight appeared in his body.

However, seeing that there were only two breaths left and the trial was about to end, he was carefully trying to circulate a trace of his bloodline.

Right then, a warning flashed in Su Zimo's mind. From the corner of his eye, he caught sight of a gigantic beam of light charging towards him.

Shangguan Qian!

Although she did not say anything earlier on, she was still extremely disgusted when she saw an ugly burly man reeking of alcohol enter the midst of the Shangguan clansmen.

Seeing that the trial was about to end, Shangguan Qian was prepared to teach this drunkard a lesson!

Her method was simple as well. In fact, she did not even have to do it personally.

In Shangguan Qian's eyes, this drunkard was covered in dust and reeked of alcohol. If she were to hit him, she would be dirtying herself.

The starlight beam around Shangguan Qian had a larger radius and could accommodate two people.

As long as she came to the drunkard's side, the 50 feet tall starlight beam that she condensed through the stargazing platform would be enough to send him flying with ease!

Letting this drunkard fall from the stargazing platform could be considered as a lesson for him.

Of course, Su Zimo did not know what Shangguan Qian was thinking. However, he naturally did not want to be sent flying when he saw someone charging over.

After all, he had yet to pass the trial.

Instinctively, Su Zimo stabilized himself and his legs seemed to have taken root, locking onto the stargazing platform!

Shangguan Qian's starlight beam collided with Su Zimo's Green Lotus True Body but he did not budge.

Su Zimo's figure gradually fused into the starlight beam.

Initially, Su Zimo tried his best to control his Green Lotus bloodline so that it would not leak out at all.

But now, the starlight beam enveloped the Green Lotus True Body and starlight filled his body.

The starlight inevitably came into contact with the Green Lotus bloodline as well.

Although the starlight beam was condensed by Shangguan Qian, it was also formed because the stargazing platform was connected to the firmaments.

Now that the starlight sensed the Green Lotus bloodline, it was equivalent to the stargazing platform sensing it as well.

In that instant, the entire world shook and the weather changed!

Immediately after, a bedazzling starlight beam burst forth from Su Zimo's body. The radius of the starlight beam was so large that it even enveloped the entire stargazing platform!

Initially, there were more than a hundred Shangguan clansmen standing on the stargazing platform.

Right then, the hundred-odd Shangguan clansmen were swept down from the stargazing platform by the starlight beam that burst forth from Su Zimo's body!

Even Shangguan Qian could not avoid it.

She did not know what happened at all and merely felt herself colliding against the drunkard. Thereafter, an incomparably terrifying power seemed to burst forth from the drunkard's body and sent her flying!

She wanted to open her eyes and look, but her vision was shrouded by a blinding light. It was white and she could not see anything.

The starlight was way too strong!

She was not the only one—many cultivators watching from the front gate were blinded.

Everyone either closed their eyes or lowered their heads to avoid it.

The crowd exclaimed.

Some of the cultivators who were slower to dodge were blinded by the powerful starlight that burst forth from the stargazing platform and tears streamed down their faces!

Not to mention the Black Immortals and Earth Immortals present...

Even the three Heaven Immortal experts of Astral Sect who were hosting the entrance trial were shocked. They glanced sideways and narrowed their eyes instinctively.

Even they were blinded momentarily by that terrifying light.

The three Heaven Immortal experts hurriedly channeled their spirit consciousnesses and circulated Essence Qi to protect their eyes.

Without hesitation, Heaven Immortal Cold Light condensed a visual technique and secret skill. He tried his best to open his eyes and look towards the stargazing platform.

Psst!

That single glance caused his expression to change and he nearly fell from midair!

In Heaven Immortal Cold Light's line of sight, a gigantic starlight beam burst forth from the stargazing platform and soared into the skies.

Above the firmaments, millions of stars shone and endless starlight scattered down, connecting to the starlight beam.

The starlight beam could no longer be measured using a height of ten feet.

The beam of light seemed to have already connected to Heaven and Earth and the stars!

"How is this possible?"

!!

"What exactly happened?"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light shrugged his head and tried his best to blink.

In fact, he even thought that everything before him was his imagination.

On the stargazing platform.

As the progenitor of this violent reaction, Su Zimo was shocked as well.

He tried his best to control himself and was careful, thinking that he could keep a low profile and not attract attention.

However, he had not expected that by some freak coincidence, the Green Lotus bloodline would trigger such a violent reaction from the stargazing platform!

Actually, the reason why the stargazing platform had such a strong reaction was not only because of the Green Lotus bloodline, but also because of the two divine stones in Su Zimo's eyes, Illumination and Nether Glow.

After the starlight beam was released, Su Zimo knew that the commotion this time round was way too great.

He was anxious as well.

If the starlight beam did not disappear, it would definitely cause a huge stir.

He definitely could not stay in Astral Sect any longer.

Right then, a commotion happened in Su Zimo's consciousness.

The Green Lotus Essence Spirit wielded the Trinity Auspicious Jade and sat on the Creation Lotus Platform the entire time.

At that moment, the Trinity Auspicious Jade in the hands of the Green Lotus Essence Spirit seemed to have sensed something and trembled slightly.

Immediately after, the endless starlight that surrounded him surged into his consciousness through the top of his head as though it had a place to go.

The Trinity Auspicious Jade left the palm of the Green Lotus Essence Spirit and arrived in midair above the consciousness, trembling slightly.

Three dull beads were embedded on the auspicious cloud at the front of the Trinity Auspicious Jade.

Right in front of the Green Lotus Essence Spirit, the endless starlight surged into one of the three beads.

The bead began to glow faintly.

If one focused their attention, they could vaguely see that there seemed to be some starlight floating in the bead like thin stars.

Su Zimo was dumbfounded.

According to the inheritance memories of the Creation Green Lotus, the three beads on the Trinity Auspicious Jade's head indeed had a powerful background—they were the Infinite Beads.

The three beads were condensed from the essence of the sun, moon and stars in the chaos and corresponded to heaven, earth and man. They were blessed by the heavens and coexisted with the Dao.

The term trinity in the Trinity Auspicious Jade referred to the three Infinite Beads.

Although Su Zimo knew the origin of the three Infinite Beads, he had yet to discover how to activate them, let alone how to use them.

The sudden change caused a thought to flash through Su Zimo's mind.

If the three Infinite Beads were condensed from the essence of the sun, moon and stars, there was a high chance that the bead that absorbed the starlight earlier on was a Star Bead.

Su Zimo had a hunch that he might have unintentionally discovered another mysterious aspect of the Trinity Auspicious Jade.

But now was not the time to study that treasure.

He was on the stargazing platform and had caused such a huge commotion. The most important thing was how he could escape unscathed without attracting much attention.

Initially, Su Zimo intended to take advantage of the chaos to leave.

But now, the starlight around him was completely absorbed by one of the Infinite Beads on the Trinity Auspicious Jade and there were no more phenomenons—he could attempt to bluff his way through.

...

On the other side.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light shrugged his head and tried his best to stay awake. When he opened his eyes again, he was stunned on the spot with his mouth agape in a daze.

The resplendent starlight beam from earlier on had already vanished.

It was as though everything he saw earlier was just his imagination.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light frowned.

There was only a drunkard left on the stargazing platform, slumped on the spot. His wine jar was shattered and he was covered in wine. He had a dazed expression, as though he was scared out of his wits.

The other two Heaven Immortals snapped out of their stupor and asked instinctively, "What's going on? What happened just now?"

"I don't know,"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light shook his head—he did not know how to explain or describe it.

"Could it be related to this person?"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light glared at the drunk man on the stargazing platform for a long time. His spirit consciousness scanned him a few times but could not find anything unusual.

"What happened?"

The Sect Master of Astral Sect, Astral Rain, looked at Heaven Immortal Cold Light and the other two and asked in a deep voice.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light hesitated for a moment and said, "For some reason, a gigantic starlight beam suddenly burst forth from the stargazing platform and swept all the cultivators on the platform down."

As he said that, Heaven Immortal Cold Light looked at the drunk man on the stargazing platform.

Right now, the drunkard was the only one left on the stargazing platform.

"Bloody hell!"

The drunkard seemed to have just snapped out of his stupor as he stomped on the stargazing platform repeatedly with widened eyes, cursing, "What's wrong with this lousy thing? There must be something wrong with this stargazing platform! You scared me!"

Sect Master Astral Rain and the elders behind him glanced at Su Zimo as well but did not notice anything unusual.

Furthermore, no one would believe that such a huge commotion earlier on was caused by a Grade 1 Earth Immortal.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light continued, "Earlier on, a phenomenon appeared and endless starlight descended from the stars in the skies, gathering and connecting to the starlight beam. However..."

Pausing for a moment, he said, "However, not long after, the starlight beam seemed to have disappeared within a few breaths."

"Disappeared?"

Sect Master Astral Rain frowned slightly.

In reality, they did not see what happened at the entrance. They only came out of seclusion after sensing a tremendous energy fluctuation and a blinding light.

As for the cultivators around the mountain gate, they were blinded by the bedazzling starlight and could not see the exact process.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light was the only one who could see the entire process clearly.

However, the entire process was too short. Even if he could see it clearly, he was at a loss and could not believe it.

Could something have truly happened to the stargazing platform?

Even in the records of Astral Sect, there seemed to be no precedence of such a phenomenon.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light would definitely not believe that someone's bloodline and physique could trigger such a phenomenon.

When Astral Sect was first established, the paragons and monster incarnates of the Heavenly World only condensed 80 or 90 feet starlight beams at most.

That starlight beam earlier connected Heaven and Earth directly!

How could a phenomenon as such be created by a human?

Sect Master Astral Rain pondered for a moment and said, "Cold Light, continue hosting the trial. I'll watch from here."

"Alright,"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light nodded and declared, "Cultivators with starlight in their bodies on the stargazing platform earlier on, come to my side to receive your sect badge."

Initially, Lin Ming and Xie Tianfeng wanted to cause trouble for Su Zimo. However, they could only give up for the time being when they saw that the Sect Master of Astral Sect was here.

Shangguan Qian and dozens of Shangguan clansmen headed towards Heaven Immortal Cold Light.

Su Zimo leaped down from the stargazing platform and staggered towards Heaven Immortal Cold Light as well.

The dozens of Shangguan clansmen received their sect badges one after another.

In Astral Sect, Black Immortals could only be considered as outer sect disciples with their cultivation realms. They did not have individual cave abodes to cultivate and could only find their own residences in the mountain ranges of Astral Sect.

If one was at the Earth Immortal realm, they could open up their own cave abodes on the seven main peaks of Astral Sect or choose an empty predecessor's cave abode as their own.

Su Zimo arrived before Heaven Immortal Cold Light without any fear. He cupped his fists casually and extended his palm crudely, asking for the sect badge.

His every move had to match his identity as a drunkard and could not be too different.

"You?"

Heaven Immortal Cold Light frowned and glanced at Su Zimo, saying indifferently, "From my observation, there didn't seem to be any starlight in your body earlier on."

"How so?!"

Su Zimo glared drunkenly and argued, "My starlight only appeared later on!"

In reality, because he was suppressing his bloodline, there was indeed no starlight during the eighth breath.

In the next two breaths, a sudden change happened on the stargazing platform and no one could be sure if starlight surged out of Su Zimo's body.

Just as Heaven Immortal Cold Light was hesitating, Shangguan Qian at the side suddenly spoke, "Senior, there was indeed starlight in that person's body at the back. I was the closest to him so I could sense it."

Heaven Immortal Cold Light's expression softened.

Shangguan Qian did not know this drunkard at all. Given her status and cultivation, there was no way she would lie about this.

Furthermore, an additional person for the entrance trial of Astral Sect made no difference.

Without hesitation, Heaven Immortal Cold Light took out a sect badge and asked, "Name."

"Mo Ling,"

Naturally, Su Zimo would not reveal his true name. Instead, he mentioned the name he used when he laid dormant in the capital of Great Zhou in Tianhuang Mainland.

Heaven Immortal Cold Light's spirit consciousness moved.

The words 'Mo Ling' had already appeared on the badge in his hands.

On the other side of the badge were the words 'inner sect', representing inner sect disciples.

Su Zimo received the sect badge and grinned. "It's truly a blessing to join Astral Sect. What a great honor!"

As he said that, he took out a wine jar from his storage bag and raised his head to drink heartily, ignoring the gazes of others.

"Mo Ling,"

Suddenly, Shangguan Qian's voice sounded in Su Zimo's mind. "I know that you were the one who caused the commotion on the stargazing platform earlier on!"

After saying that, Shangguan Qian fixed her gaze on Su Zimo, wanting to see through him.

However, Su Zimo did not pause at all, as though he had not heard anything.

He only threw away the wine jar after he finished the wine in one gulp. With a flushed face and dazed eyes, he approached Shangguan Qian.

“Hehe!”

Su Zimo laughed and said mysteriously, “You’re right. I did it. Impressive, right?”

When Shangguan Qian saw the drunken Su Zimo approaching, she could not help but reveal a disgusted expression and retreat a few steps.

She looked at Su Zimo who seemed to be in a daze and her guess wavered.

The reason why she spoke up for Su Zimo previously so that he could join Astral Sect smoothly was because she was suspicious of him.

What Shangguan Qian said earlier on was merely a test.

If Su Zimo pretended not to hear or revealed anything unusual, it would prove that her guess was right.

But now, this person was openly admitting to it, causing Shangguan Qian to hesitate internally.

‘This person is delirious and crazy. He’s most likely bragging about himself after getting drunk.’

At that thought, Shangguan Qian ignored Su Zimo and retreated to the side with the Shangguan clansmen behind her.

When Lin Ming and Xie Tianfeng saw this, they sneered with unfriendly expressions, seemingly plotting something.

“What’s wrong with that person?”

Zuo Zhuxuan noticed the abnormality on Shangguan Qian’s side and asked softly.

“Nothing much,”

Shangguan Qian shook her head gently. “I must have thought too much.”

Chapter 2050: Alkaid

Before daybreak, the entrance trial for Astral Sect was already over.

Although there were a hundred thousand cultivators, there were less than ten thousand who could join Astral Sect in the end.

Even so, that was a massive number!

After Sect Master Astral Rain and the elders saw that the entrance trial was extremely smooth and there were no more strange movements, they left first.

“Follow me,”

!!

Heaven Immortal Cold Light summoned a gigantic immortal boat and carried the thousands of cultivators behind him into the sect.

“There are many array formations and restrictions in Astral Sect. You have to wear your sect badges at all times. Otherwise, there’s a high chance that you’ll fall into a formation and attract the attacks of the restrictions.”

Heaven Immortal Cold Light stood on the deck of the immortal boat and walked through Astral Sect, pointing to the surrounding mountains, terrain and ancient structures as he introduced.

Astral Sect was way too huge.

Even the lowest-level black-grade sects of the upper world were more than ten times larger than any sect in the lower worlds!

The seven main peaks of Astral Sect alone made one feel insignificant.

When they approached, every single main peak was majestic and towered into the clouds, overshadowing the mountain ranges beneath their feet. When they arrived at the foot of the mountains, they were as insignificant as ants compared to the main peaks before them.

The mountains that surrounded each main peak were connected and extended for 50 kilometers, almost forming a mountain range!

The area formed by the seven main peaks alone was unimaginably vast.

“The seven peaks are Dubhe, Merak, Phecda, Megrez, Alioth, Mizar and Alkaid. The Earth Immortals among you can choose one of the seven main peaks and either open up or look for a cave abode to reside within.”

Heaven Immortal Cold Light said.

Su Zimo released his spirit consciousness and sensed.

The Heaven and Earth Essence Qi surrounding the seven main peaks was clearly much richer than the other regions. It would definitely be better if they could cultivate on the main peaks.

It did not matter which main peak it was.

Su Zimo thought for a moment and rode on his flying sword, speeding towards the back of the seven main peaks.

He would have a lot of time to understand some of the rules of the sect in the future.

Right now, the most important thing for him was to find a cave abode and cultivate in seclusion!

“Junior Sister Shangguan, which main peak will you choose?”

Lin Ming asked with a smile.

What he meant was that he wanted to choose the same main peak as Shangguan Qian so that it would be more convenient for them to interact.

Shangguan Qian glanced at Su Zimo who was leaving and pondered for a moment. “I haven’t settled on one yet. I’ll take a look around first.”

With that said, she left Heaven Immortal Cold Light’s immortal boat and headed towards the back of the seven main peaks, maintaining a distance from Su Zimo.

“Junior Sister Shangguan, wait for me,”

Xie Tianfeng shouted and chased hurriedly.

Lin Ming followed closely behind.

“Brother Wang, aren’t you going to chase after them?”

Zuo Zhuxuan looked at the motionless Wang Yu with a calm expression and asked with a smile.

“No. Senior Brother Zuo, please,”

Wang Yu shook his head gently and looked at the main peak named Dubhe on the left of the seven main peaks. With a leap, he sped forward.

Zuo Zhuxuan pondered for a moment before chasing after Shangguan Qian.

Naturally, Su Zimo could sense the actions of Shangguan Qian and the others behind him. However, he did not care and arrived at the end of the seven main peaks.

Main Peak Alkaid.

“This will do,”

Su Zimo arrived at Main Peak Alkaid and ascended.

Higher on the main peak were the cave abodes of Heaven Immortal experts or elders of the sect.

Su Zimo circled around the middle of the peak and caught sight of an empty cave abode.

Above the cave abode were the words ‘Thousand Miles’.

It should be the name of the previous owner of the cave abode.

Su Zimo could not be bothered to modify it and entered the cave abode directly. He casually released a few lesser immortal arts and cleaned up the place.

Actually, such a thing should be done by some servants.

Although Su Zimo was only a Grade 1 Earth Immortal, he was already qualified to recruit some servants in the upper world.

However, he had too many secrets on him and there was no need for that.

After a simple clean up, Su Zimo began to draw formation patterns at the entrance of the cave abode to set up an array formation.

This seclusion might take a long time.

He would not allow anyone to disturb him during this period of time!

On the other side, Shangguan Qian had already noticed that Su Zimo had entered Main Peak Alkaid. She lingered between the seven main peaks for a while before arriving at Main Peak Alkaid to look for a cave abode to stay in.

Her suspicions towards Su Zimo were not completely resolved.

After all, on the stargazing platform earlier on, she could clearly sense a terrifying power burst forth from Su Zimo’s body before the starlight burst forth!

Naturally, Lin Ming and Xie Tianfeng arrived at Main Peak Alkaid as well. They found a cave abode beside Shangguan Qian's cave abode and stayed there.

When Zuo Zhuxuan saw that, he smiled gently and entered Main Peak Mizar that was beside Main Peak Alkaid to stay.

Naturally, he had to tidy up after moving into the cave abode.

The Shangguan, Lin and Xie Black Immortal clansmen who joined Astral Sect fulfilled the role of servants and began to set up their cave abodes under the lead of Shangguan Qian and the other two.

Pill refinement chamber, cultivation chamber, weapon refinement chamber, spirit beast chamber, immortal herbs medicinal field...

Three days had passed since everything was set up.

Xie Tianfeng looked at his cave abode in satisfaction.

The moment he was free, he thought of Shangguan Qian.

At the thought of Shangguan Qian, he could not help but think of that drunkard.

"Hmph!"

Xie Tianfeng harrumphed. "You've offended Junior Sister Shangguan time and again. I'll teach you a lesson right now!"

Xie Tianfeng had everything planned well.

He was prepared to teach Su Zimo a lesson and bring him to Shangguan Qian. That way, he would have a logical excuse to visit Shangguan Qian and even check out her cave abode.

"If I can enter Junior Sister Shangguan's cave abode..."

The corners of Xie Tianfeng's mouth curled up as he laughed evilly, letting his imagination run wild.

A moment later, he could no longer hold it in. With a burning heart, he rushed out of his cave abode and sprinted towards Su Zimo's cave abode.

Before long, he arrived before Su Zimo's cave abode.

There was already someone standing there—Lin Ming!

Xie Tianfeng was not the only one with those thoughts!

“What are you standing here for?”

Xie Tianfeng frowned slightly.

He and Lin Ming represented their respective family clans and both wanted to be Dao companions with the most outstanding woman of the Shangguan clan in this generation.

That would be equivalent to a union of their two major factions and family clans.

Therefore, both of them disliked the other.

Lin Ming pointed to the cave abode in front of him and said with a fake smile, “That drunkard is inside. Brother Xie, please.”

“Mmm?”

Xie Tianfeng was no fool and immediately realized that something was amiss.

Narrowing his gaze slightly, he released his spirit consciousness and scanned the surroundings of the cave abode. He could not help but frown and mutter softly, “Array formation?”

Lin Ming harrumphed coldly as well. “That drunkard is not simple. He set up such an array formation in three days.”
