

Chapter 3342

Words:2267 Update:23/04/30 03:45:30

When he saw the Evil Lord again, she had already regained her strength and had grown up a lot. She was no longer that weak little girl.

Back then, when the Devil Lord was in his twilight years, the Evil Lord was thin and weak, and the Ghost Mother was old and frail. But because they had been severely wounded, they had been trapped in a dimensional realm and had never recovered.

Facing the Evil Lord, the Nine Heavens Sages were slightly panicked. However, he quickly calmed down and his expression returned to normal.

They were naturally no match for the Evil Lord.

But in the Spacetime Sacred Land, there would be someone who would go up against the Demon Lord!

This fortuitous encounter in the forbidden zone of time and space was originally an overt scheme.

If they could lure the Supremes of the four races into the Forbidden Land of Time, the five Sacred Grounds would join forces and annihilate them!

If the Supremes of the four races did not come, the Supremes of the ten thousand races would continue to occupy the Great Path Saint Thrones, suppressing the strength of the four races.

Of course, the Five Sacred Lands' main target was still the Masters of the Four Daos!

If they could lure the four Dao Masters out of the 33 Heavens, they would have a chance to kill them!

Unfortunately, the development of the situation was somewhat beyond the five Holy Lands' expectations.

Because of Su Zimo's sudden appearance, the various Supremes of the Holy Clans appeared one after another. The Nine Heavens Saints were also forced to descend.

Originally, the Nine Heavens Sages thought that it was impossible for the masters of the four paths to appear, but who would have thought that the Evil Lord would suddenly appear!

The moment the Evil Lord appeared, another figure appeared in the Forbidden Land of Time.

This person wore a long black robe, had a head full of black hair, and stood with his hands behind his back. Just looking at him from afar would produce a sense of pressure that was as deep as the abyss and as lofty as the mountain!

The two of them looked at each other from a distance. They hadn't even fought yet, but the Space-time Forbidden Land was already starting to tremble!

To be able to stand against the Evil Lord and not be at a disadvantage!

The cultivation level of this person was self-evident!

The Great Sage!

The beings of the myriad races were secretly shocked.

Although the arrival of the Ancestral Flame Sacred Master had brought great pressure to everyone, he didn't really make a move. Instead, he left quickly.

Now that these two Great Sages had appeared in the Forbidden Land of Time, it was obvious that they were going to fight!

A battle between Great Sages!

"Greetings, Spacetime Holy Lord."

When the Nine Heavens Sage saw the black-robed man, he hurriedly bowed.

The Lord of the Spacetime Sacred Land!

The Ink Qilin, one of the legendary Five Great Sacred Spirits!

The Space and Time Saint faintly smiled, "I did not think that the Demon Lord would be willing to descend in his true form for the sake of a Supreme's disciple."

After all, in their eyes, even Saints were a price they could abandon at any time.

Hearing this, Sovereign Xie Mie curled his lips and stole a glance at Su Zimo. He thought to himself, "It's hard to say if it's because of me ..."

"However ..."

The Spacetime Sacred Lord stopped smiling and changed the topic. "Since you're here, don't leave!"

His voice hadn't finished resounding through the air when the two figures suddenly collided. It was as if they'd traversed space and time, and a deafening bang erupted!

A battle between Great Sages had broken out!

The power of a Great Sage could destroy Daos!

The clash between the two Great Sages caused cracks to appear in the space-time forbidden zone, as if it could be destroyed at any moment!

Fortunately, the Stone of Life emitted waves of light, quickly repairing this space.

Every time the Spacetime Holy Lord attacked, the sky would collapse and the earth would cave in.

The Spacetime Holy Lord's true form was the Ink Qilin.

The Black Qilin cultivated one of the most fundamental Great Daos, the Great Dao of Earth.

The Great Daos that the Five Great Holy Masters cultivated corresponded to the Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth Daos.

For example, the Great Dao of Yellow Sand, the Great Dao of Earth, the Great Dao of Gravity, the Great Dao of Landslide, the Great Dao of Earth ... The origin of many Great Daos was the Great Dao of Earth.

When the Spacetime Sacred Lord attacked with his full strength, the Great Dao of Earth filled this space-time forbidden zone.

At this moment, all the Great Daos that were related to the Great Dao of Earth were firmly suppressed and fell into chaos, unable to be controlled by themselves!

Even Great Sky Sage could not avoid it!

This was the Saint Domain unique to Great Sages!

In the Saint Domain, all Great Daos would become disordered, and it would not affect or harm the Saint Domain's master at all!

The only place that could resist a Saint Domain was another Saint Domain!

Many experts who were affected by the Demon Lord's Saint Domain were confused and lost. They were immersed in a dream, unable to extricate themselves.

The closer they were to the battlefield, the greater the impact!

The entire space-time forbidden zone had become the battlefield of two Saint Domains!

It was very difficult for the Nine Heavens Sages to attack Su Zimo and the others.

And Su Zimo and the others were unable to move an inch under the resistance of the Saint Domain. It was impossible for them to leave!

No one would have thought that this space-time forbidden zone would eventually become the battlefield of a Great Sage.

"So lively?"

At this moment, another voice suddenly appeared in the space-time forbidden zone.

Even the sound of the battle between the Spacetime Sacred Lord and the Demon Lord could not drown out this person's voice!

The next moment, another Saint Domain forced its way into the space-time forbidden zone and suppressed the Demon Lord!

The second Great Sage had descended!

This Great Sage was tall and his back was abnormally broad. When the Saint Domain descended, all Great Daos related to the origin of water were suppressed!

The first Black Tortoise Sacred Spirit born in the world!

He was also the Master of the Yin Yang Sacred Ground!

With the two Sacred Lords joining forces, the Demon Lord was instantly at a disadvantage. The Dream Realm Saint Domain shook and was on the verge of collapse. He was forced to retreat, and a trace of blood flowed out from the corner of his mouth!

"Demon Lord, you must die today!"

The Spacetime Sacred Lord roared.

Rumble!

With a loud explosion, the three Saint Domains erupted in an earth-shattering collision, almost tearing the space-time forbidden zone apart!

Heaven and earth seemed to have fallen silent.

The next moment, a figure fell heavily to the ground, creating a huge crater!

The Demon Lord was ultimately no match for the two Sacred Lords joining forces!

In a sense, the origins of these two Sacred Lords were much greater than the Demon Lord's.

The two Sacred Lords were living beings born at the beginning of the Three Realms' evolution.

Their starting point was the Sacred Spirit!

As for the Demon Lord, he relied on his cultivation to survive that great upheaval. He was suppressed in a Middle World for several epochs, cultivating step by step until he became a Great Sage.

The Demon Lord, the Brahma Ghost Mother, and the Lord of Hell still had not appeared.

Su Zimo was not surprised by this.

Whether it was the battle of the 33 Heavens or the words of the Spacetime Sacred Lord, they all revealed an important piece of information.

The four Dao Masters were relatively safe only in the 33 Heavens.

Once they left, it was very likely that they would encounter danger!

The Demon Lord, the Brahma Ghost Mother, and the Lord of Hell naturally would not take the risk.

The Demon Lord was extremely egotistical. He did not distinguish between right and wrong. He would only choose the path that was beneficial to him.

The Brahma Ghost Mother and the Lord of Hell had a grudge with Su Zimo, so they would not appear to save him.

The Demon Lord had appeared, but not only did he fail to save Su Zimo and the others, but he had also fallen into a helpless situation!

The Demon Lord slowly stood up from the crater.

Despite being heavily injured, he was still expressionless, as if he could not feel any pain.

The two Sacred Lords did not intend to give the Demon Lord any chance. They joined forces again, and the two Saint Domains descended, suppressing the Demon Lord!

The Demon Lord looked to the side and stared at the white-haired old man in the distance. He suddenly said, "You, are you still not going to attack? Don't forget who you are. "

"This is the human race's Life Sacred Land, and you were once the master of this Sacred Land!"

These were the first words the Demon Lord said after arriving in the spacetime forbidden zone.

And these words were earth-shattering!

End of chapter.
