

Every Night 159

Chapter 159 Someone Wants to Harm Her

Olivia Jenkins had only seen this series of dresses in renowned magazines years ago.

It was said that this black feathered dress was a one-of-a-kind, extraordinarily precious.

This was the first time Olivia had the privilege of seeing the elegance of the black feathered dress in person.

With a delighted heart, Olivia carefully, gently caressed the black feathered dress, in this moment, she found it hard to believe, "Can I actually wear this haute couture piece?"

The stylist, Manager Wu, nodded, "Of course you can wear it, we have already negotiated with the dress collector."

Winona Thornton's sparkling eyes shone with brilliance as she also carefully touched the black feather dress, "It's really beautiful, Olivia, your taste is exceptional! Once you put it on, you'll definitely become the focus of the entire event, maybe you'll even make the headlines tomorrow!"

Olivia continued smiling, but her pupils contracted slightly, a trace of deepness flit across them, "This dress is stunning, but, it's not suitable for dancing the tango."

Manager Wu from the style center chimed in: "It may not be suitable for dancing the tango, but, after you finish dancing, you can change into it. It's not like you will be leaving right after you finish dancing, you'll need to socialize. With events like these, they're rare opportunities, there will be opportunities everywhere, and you'll have a smooth conversation in the black feather dress."

Winona Thornton nodded, also urging Olivia, "After you finish dancing, change into this dress, dazzling throughout the evening. No one can ignore you. Perhaps, you might meet Chief Daniel Marshall, and casually discuss a possible collaboration."

With outsiders present, Winona stopped there, and Olivia understood her intentions.

If she were to meet Daniel Marshall, there was no need for her to go to great lengths to dress up specially.

However, she could upset the Marshall Family's members, making them wear a long face throughout the event.

After hesitating for a moment, Olivia said: "Okay, after the dance, I'll wear the black feathered dress. Tonight, I'll dazzle the entire venue."

Manager Wu breathed a sigh of relief and smiled, "You better go change into your dance attire, I'll fix your makeup later."

Olivia entered the dressing room, where she also tried on the black feathered dress.

When she removed the black feathered dress, ready to put it on, she found a name inside the collar – ZHOUIE.

There was only one in the world, labeled with the buyer's name, so, this dress was personal property.

Normally speaking, those who could afford luxury items weren't ordinary people.

How could they lend out their dress or rent it for money?

Olivia felt a bit wary, sensing something strange.

She decided to be cautious.

This was Marshall Corporation's home court. Any minor error on her part could be magnified, leading to a chain reaction and unimaginable consequences.

Olivia didn't wear the black feathered dress, and neatly hung it back up.

After thinking for a bit, she broke the zipper of her dance dress and casually walked out of the dressing room.

"Manager Wu, I'm really sorry, I accidentally ruined the dance dress. I'll compensate you later."

All of a sudden, Manager Wu went into a frenzy, "What should we do now? What will you wear on stage? Even if we get someone to bring it over, it won't be in time."

Olivia's sharp eyes observed Manager Wu with intensity, it seemed he was more worried than her about the dress being ruined, smelling a rat.

Her decision not to wear the dance attire prepared by the stylist center was indeed correct. Someone had plotted against her behind her back.

Olivia coldly stated, "No problem! I have a habit of preparing an extra set of dance attire before a performance. I didn't expect that I would actually need it this time."

Manager Wu was dumbfounded for a moment, uneasy. Olivia's eagle eyes caught all these details, just as she ha
