

Every Night 160

Chapter 160: Special Hint

Olivia Jenkins didn't dig deeper, as if it was insignificant, as she went to change into the costume she had prepared.

She intended to expose the person plotting against her without causing a scene. This manager Wu was presumably just a pawn in this game.

Faintly, Olivia felt that there was some hidden meaning behind the black feather dress.

What it was trying to suggest, Olivia couldn't figure out immediately.

But Olivia was certain, the owner of the black feather dress must be either rich or noble. Unconsciously, Olivia thought of Daniel Marshall.

If a unique haute couture dress was needed, Daniel Marshall would absolutely have the means to get it.

Olivia's main issue originated from the Marshall Family. The person trying to harm her was likely attempting to attack this point.

Upon seeing Olivia, Manager Wu was utterly stunned by her beauty.

she snapped back to reality after a moment, "MISS Olivia Jenkins, your silver-threaded skin-tone dress suits your aura perfectly. You're so stunning, I can't take my eyes off you. You look sexy and yet, like an elegant and ethereal sprite. In two words – perfect!"

A radiant smile flourished on Olivia's face as her almond eyes hid her intense gaze expertly. She calmly said, "Manager Wu, please take care of the black feather dress. I'll change into it immediately after the performance."

"Rest assured, I won't let anything go wrong."

Olivia smiled in silence, letting Manager Wu touch up her makeup.

After taking a few pictures of the black feather dress from the black wedding gown series, Olivia headed towards the performance center.

Olivia chose a perfect spot hidden in a corner to observe the coming and going of the guests.

Suddenly, Olivia spotted Benjamin Johnson.

What shocked Olivia was seeing Geoffrey Gullington following behind Benjamin Johnson.

Could it be a conspiracy between Benjamin Johnson and Geoffrey Gullington?

Suddenly, Olivia let out a mocking laugh.

Even though she was still cordially interacting with Benjamin Johnson, she never for a moment let her guard down. Benjamin was like a devil, always maintaining a facade whilst only using her!

It seemed that Benjamin Johnson and Daniel Marshall's grudge ran deep, almost as if they were mortal enemies.

Undeniably, Olivia never took Benjamin Johnson seriously, and dealing with him was nothing more than play-acting. She would certainly not let a wolf into her house.

Her silence didn't signify that she was easy prey or easily bullied.

So many people were scheming against her, and it wouldn't be fair if she didn't play along!

Olivia also saw Daniel Marshall. He and Jordan Bennett were standing together, both of them watching Benjamin Johnson.

As Benjamin Johnson attempted to approach them, Simon Howard blocked his path.

Benjamin Johnson stood rooted in place, made a gesture, then politely excused himself.

Due to the distance and the darkness of night, Olivia couldn't see Daniel Marshall's face, and thus couldn't guess his mood. She also couldn't see Benjamin Johnson's action clearly, though she sensed an air of tension.

Matthew Marshall appeared. He initiated a greeting with Benjamin Johnson, and they seemed to have had a brief conversation.

Unaware of their discussion, Olivia noticed Benjamin Johnson's audacious behavior!

Suddenly, Olivia received a call from Winona Thornton.

In a trembling, anxious voice, Winona said over the phone, "Olivia, hurry back, the order of the performances has been changed. Your performance has been arranged first. There are 5 minutes left until the charity event starts. You need to get ready to go on stage."

Olivia frowned slightly, her eyes darkening, "Understood, I'll be back at the backstage area soon."

"The foreign teacher is waiting for you there. Olivia, don't be nervous, I believe you'll give a successful performance."

"Don't worry, 'error' is not in my dictionary. Even if it's a last-minute on stage, it won't affect me.."

