

Every Night 26

Chapter 26: He Had Premeditated

Her mother-in-law had never been to the Pearl Lake Villa before she married Jiang Yu. How abnormal!

Even if they had fallen out, even if they hated each other to the core, it was impossible for them not to have any feelings for each other.

Recalling what she had seen and experienced in the past two days, a bold guess suddenly popped up in Jin Xue's mind—Jiang Yu and her mother-in-law weren't biological mother and son!

"Aunt Zhen, I don't blame you. When I threw away the Chinese medicine, I already knew that she would be watching me at all times. I also thought of the consequences. I'm not afraid. By the way, did you work in Beverly Hills before?"

"Madam, I've never been to Beverly Hills. I've always worked at Pearl Lake Villa.

"In the future, if any old witch comes, ignore her and don't open the door for her. As long as I'm still Jiang Yu's wife, I have the final say in the Pearl Lake Villa!"

Old witch?

Madam really dared to say anything!

Aunt Zhen nodded. "I understand, Madam."

Avoiding Jiang Yu, Jin Xue returned to her room to continue watching surgery videos.

After dealing with the old witch today, she hoped that she would know her place and not cause trouble for her in the future.

Jin Xue was also thinking about how to get a divorce.

After leaving the Pearl Lake Villa, Zhang Baochan returned to his mother's house.

Zhang Baoshan and Xiao Yu were so anxious that they kept asking their sister to beg their brother-in-law for help.

Zhang Baochan glared at his younger brother fiercely. "If you weren't spouting nonsense outside, would you have been caught? You angered the old master, so what else can I say? Even if your brother-in-law dotes on Jiang Yun, he has to listen to the old master. The old master still has the final say in the Jiang family."

Zhang Baoshan slapped his own mouth. "It's all my fault for spouting nonsense. At that time, I drank too much at a dinner party and said that Jiang Yun had to give in to me. Even my brother-in-law had to listen to me.

Yu who deliberately harmed me!"

"He declared war on us. Don't you know that? Jiang Yu alone is enough to deal with him. Now, there's this wretched girl. I'm so angry today."

"Sister, Jiang Yu married that wretched girl to anger you. We can't let Jiang Yu ride on our heads again. Get rid of him."

Zhang Baochan looked at her younger brother coldly. "If you're not 100% sure, don't do anything rash. Don't implicate Jiang Yu. I think Jiang Yu knows something. Before the old woman passed away, she might tell him about that woman. Everyone outside thinks that I have two sons. Who would have thought that I would be so aggrieved as a stepmother?"

"Brother-in-law treats you very well. He will definitely fight for Jiang Yun." Zhang Baochan did not say anything. She was still a little worried.

After that woman left Shen City, she never saw her again.

She had sent people to look for her, but they couldn't find her.

She was afraid that she would suddenly appear.

Glancing at her husband, Xiao Yu said, "Sister, does the Jiang Corporation have to acquire the Xiao Corporation? My brother was so angry that he was sent to the hospital. My sister-in-law even complained to me."

Zhang Baochan frowned. "I heard that Jiang Yu is in charge of the acquisition case. There's no room for reconciliation. He took such a big step that we were caught off guard. I always thought that his target was the Jin Corporation."

Zhang Baoshan said coldly, "He already planned it. Marrying that wretched girl was just a pretense."

Zhang Baochan said calmly, "Xiao Yu, ask your brother to delay the negotiation process as much as possible. We'll wait for an opportunity to strike. Baoshan, endure this anger first. There will still be a chance. After this storm passes, I'll plead with your brother-in-law and ask him to think of a way to let the Yishan Corporation return to the Jiang Corporation's business partners."

Zhang Baoshan did not say anything.

Her hatred for Jiang Yu grew even stronger!
