

Every Night 27

Chapter 27: Reap What You Sow

After watching the surgery videos, Jin Xue contacted the business representative of a fitness center to sign up for boxing and taekwondo.

They immediately recommended the best coach in the fitness center for her.

Jin Xue made up her mind to train her strength and resistance well.

In the future, those despicable people could forget about bullying her.

Aunt Zhen knocked on the door before Jin Xue opened it.

“Madam, we can eat now.” “What about him?”

“Sir is out. He’s not eating at home.”

Jin Xue’s long eyelashes fluttered slightly.

She was also slightly stunned.

Had Jiang Yu gone to accompany that sweet and gentle woman with long straight hair again?

He refused to get a divorce after having an affair. He was definitely a scumbag!

“Aunt Zhen, I’ll wash my hands and go downstairs.”

“Alright!”

It was past 11 pm, but Jiang Yu still hadn't returned home.

Jin Xue left for work.

Jin Xue couldn't be bothered to ask about Jiang Yu.

In any case, they were a fake couple who were going to get a divorce. Even if they were strangers, she did not care.

It had nothing to do with her which woman Jiang Yu liked.

Jin Xue was waiting for her mother-in-law to report to the old man. It would be best if the old man ordered them to get a divorce tomorrow.

Jin Yue only woke up when she was hungry.

The moment she woke up, her entire body was sore and uncomfortable.

Her little face was scrunched up in anger, and her eyes were red. Her resentful gaze was murderous.

Gritting her teeth, Jin Yue slowly got up.

With the vase in her hand, she gently moved out of the living room.

Unexpectedly, Gu Zhou turned around and stared at Jin Yue with interest.

"I've cooked. Do you want to eat? I advise you to leave me alone or I'll kill you. If you want, we can talk. I might be able to advise you."

The anger on her face was obvious, and her eyes were filled with hatred. Jin Yue still raised the vase firmly and threw it at Gu Zhou.

The next second, Gu Zhou snatched Jin Yue's vase and pushed her onto the sofa.

"At this point, you can't blame me. Jin Yue, you brought this upon yourself! If you're smart, you should join forces with me to deal with Jin Xue. Our common enemy is Jin Xue."

Jin Yue was about to cry as she glared at Gu Zhou resentfully.

After her innocence was taken away, she really wanted to kill this b*stard in front of her.

Of course, she hated Jin Xue too. She would not let her have an easy time.

"B*stard! I hate you!" Jin Yue wailed. Her hands were tightly clenched into fists, and her knuckles were white.

Gu Zhou looked at Jin Yue and sneered. "You don't have the right to hate me. It's because you gave me the medicine that I lost control of my actions. Now, it's time for you to recognize the truth. As long as I can stay in Shen City, I can help you with everything else."

The biggest culprit was Jin Xue.

She definitely could not let Jin Xue off.

She would definitely return the humiliation she had suffered to Jin Xue.

Although she hated Gu Zhou, she could still make use of him.

As long as she could take revenge on Jin Xue, she would do anything.

Jin Yue glared at Gu Zhou with a dark gaze. "I'm telling you to stay in Shen City.

You must help me make Jin Xue's life a living hell and destroy her."

The corners of Gu Zhou's lips curled up slightly, and his eyes sparkled. "I promise you, I'll definitely do it."

Jin Yue left without eating.

Since there were no urgent matters to deal with during the night shift, Jin Xue slept until six in the morning.

After reading the nurse's logs and seeing that there were no abnormalities with the patient, Jin Xue took the time to have breakfast.

When she got off work in the afternoon, Jin Xue did not receive a call from her grandfather.

After buying a bag of black beans, Jin Xue headed straight back to the Jin residence.

Her grandmother, stepmother, and Jin Yue were all sitting at the dining table, preparing to eat.

Jin Xue's face was cold. Without a word, she poured a bag of black beans on the dining table.

Instantly, everyone looked at Jin Xue..
