

Every Night 28

Chapter 28: Do Whatever I Want

Not only were there black beans on the dining table, but there were also black beans in the rice bowl, dishes, and soup.

They couldn't eat this meal anymore.

Infuriated, Jin Yue stood up to hit Jin Xue.

Jin Xue glared at Jin Yue viciously and grabbed her wrist tightly.

Seeing that Jin Yue was frowning in pain, she did not let go.

MO Xiaoyan could not tolerate Jin Xue bullying Jin Yue. She shouted angrily, "You lunatic, let Jin Yue go! Otherwise, don't even think about leaving this door. I'm not done with you."

Seeing that Jin Yue was being bullied, Old Madam Jin's heart ached, but she was nervous. She glared at Jin Xue fiercely. "You... let Jin Yue go quickly. You're getting more and more uneducated. I raised you for nothing! Even if I give you a layer of gold, you won't be able to change that wild girl's life." Jin Xue's eyes darkened and her expression turned even colder.

All of a sudden, she gave Jin Yue a tight slap and flung her away. Jin Xue's strength was a little too strong. In an instant, Jin Yue fell to the ground and started crying.

MO Xiaoyan quickly helped her daughter up and coaxed her.

Exasperated, Old Madam Jin wanted to hit Jin Xue.

Jin Xue grabbed her grandmother's hand at lightning speed.

Old Madam Jin's pupils constricted when she saw the sinister glint in Jin Xue's eyes.

This wild girl was very scary when she was ruthless. She had never noticed it before.

"Jin Xue, how dare you lecture me? You have no respect for your elders and deserve a beating. You should be taught a lesson for bullying your sister."

Old Madam Jin struggled, but she could not break free from Jin Xue's restraint.

Old Madam Jin pursed her lips tightly with a sullen expression on her face.

Jin Xue's cold voice came from between her teeth. Her fierce gaze was filled with intimidation. "Today, I'll say this first. I won't let anyone who dares to have designs on me off, no matter who this person is. I'll also tell you a special truth. You reap what you sow. Hence, you're only worthy of eating black beans for this meal."

"How dare a wild girl like you lecture me? Men, chase her out, and don't let her set foot in the Jin residence again."

The servant walked over. Jin Xue glared at her, and she did not dare to go forward again.

"Grandma, actually, my temper is really bad. If I'm angered, I'll do anything. In the past, I tolerated everything because I didn't want Dad to make things difficult for me. Now that we've fallen out, I don't have anything to worry about anymore. I'll do whatever I want. My husband is Jiang Yu. If I talk to him, I he may just take over the Jin Corporation."

"How dare you threaten me?"

"I'm a member of the Jiang family now. Grandma, you have to think carefully.

Every word you say to me might reach the Jiang family's ears. The Yishan

Corporation is an example. Old Master Jiang won't be lenient."

"You..."

Old Madam Jin was so angry that she could not speak. She could only glare at Jin Xue angrily.

Jin Xue sneered and let go of her grandmother's hand. "I'm really grateful to you guys for letting me marry into the Jiang family. Otherwise, my horizons wouldn't be so broad. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to see everything clearly."

"Get out!"

Jin Xue glanced at her grandmother coldly before her gaze landed on Jin Yue.

In an instant, Jin Yue was so frightened that she hugged her mother tightly and leaned into her arms.

Jin Yue was also panicking.

She did not want to let her mother know about what happened yesterday.

She could not let her family know about her relationship with Gu Zhou. Otherwise, her father would chase her out of the Jin family.

Otherwise, how could she marry into a rich family?

Not wanting to leave, Jin Xue continued, "Grandma, I waited for a long time yesterday, but the real estate agent didn't show up. Why don't I go with you this afternoon and negotiate a good price for you?"

Jin Yue's eyes flickered with anxiety as she glared at Jin Xue.. "I'm not selling the apartment!"
