

Every Night 31

Chapter 31: Jiang Yu Liked Her?

Jin Xue's face was expressionless. She didn't even look at Jiang Yu as she spoke indifferently.

"Aunt Zhen, I want abalones and Boston lobster."

Aunt Zhen looked troubled. "Madam, I don't know how to cook." They didn't have these ingredients at home!

This Miss Xiang called herself the mistress of the family and was making a fuss at the Pearl Lake Villa. She was very shameless.

Now, she still dared to provoke Madam and disregard her. Aunt Zhen, an outsider, could not stand it anymore.

Aunt Zhen looked at Sir and waited for instructions.

Jiang Yu raised her eyelids slightly and glanced at Jin Xue. "Aunt Zhen, call the Eight Treasures Pavilion and ask them to send four dried abalones and a

Boston lobster over. Hurry!"

Aunt Zhen nodded and said, "I'll go and ring now."

Xiang Fu pursed her lips slightly and stole a few more glances at Jin Xue with her sly eyes.

She felt that Jin Xue looked very ordinary, but her skin was fairer and there was nothing outstanding about her.

Jiang Yu had actually asked the Eight Treasures Pavilion to send four dried abalones over for Jin Xue to eat. This cost more than a hundred thousand yuan, which was ten times more expensive than the red wine they drank. Xiang Fu was extremely jealous!

Could it be that this woman was special to Jiang Yu?

Jiang Yu liked her?

Xiang Fu felt very uncomfortable, but she was still calm and composed, careful to hide the surging waves in her eyes.

Jin Xue did not say anything. Her gaze was calm as she opened the cabinet to get a glass.

Because the smell was too strong, she even coughed a few times. Her throat felt uncomfortable.

Jin Xue slammed the cabinet shut, making a deafening sound.

Instantly, everyone looked at her except Jiang Yu.

As if nothing had happened, Jin Xue drank the water and went upstairs.

Immediately after, everyone heard the loud sound of the door slamming.

Except for Jiang Yu, everyone was stunned.

This woman had a bad temper. She dared to give Jiang Yu a hard time and didn't even take Jiang Yu seriously. Xiang Fu looked at Jiang Yu, only to see that he didn't react at all and was calmly playing cards.

Jiang Yu wasn't angry?

He let that woman do whatever she wanted?

Did Jiang Yu really treat her as his wife?

After knowing Jiang Yu for so many years, for the first time, Xiang Fu hoped that her guess was wrong. She hated Jin Xue, who had the expression of someone who owed her three million yuan.

Xiang Fu sat down beside Jiang Yu and looked at the cards in his hand affectionately.

“Yu, wash your hands after this round. You can eat now.”

As Jiang Yu played cards, she said coldly, “Xiang Fu, don’t cook chili in my house in the future. It’ll fill the room with a terrible smell. Aunt Zhen, open all the doors and windows.”

The air conditioner was on inside, so Auntie Zhen still went to open all the doors and windows to ventilate.

Looking at Jiang Yu, Xiang Fu’s lips trembled slightly, and disappointment flashed across her eyes.

“Alright. I won’t cook spicy chicken or boiled beef anymore.”

Jiang Yu still didn’t look at Xiang Fu. “Don’t come to my house to cook in the future. I have a helper to cook for me.”

Jiang Yu’s tone was very calm, but when Xiang Fu heard it, every word seemed to pierce her heart. “I saw that Auntie was busy, so I helped her. I didn’t mean to snatch Auntie’s job. Yu, how did you meet your wife? In the past, you didn’t bring her out to meet us.”

“My wife doesn’t like crowds. Xiang Fu, are you very interested in my wife?”

Jiang Yu's handsome face was expressionless. No one could guess his emotions.

Xiang Fu's lips twitched awkwardly. "I was shocked to suddenly hear that you were married! Previously, you didn't release any news to mentally prepare us, nor did you invite us to a wedding banquet, so I was a little curious."

Jiang Yu's cold eyes were as sharp as blades. "Drink whatever you want in my wine cabinet.."