Chapter 35: Just Wait To Raise Jiang Yu's Child

After work in the afternoon, Jin Xue went to Jufu Restaurant.

There was only her and Old Master Jiang in the private room. Two bodyguards stood outside the door.

The dishes were served, and the entire room was filled with the fragrance of food.

Since Jin Xue was hungry, she did not hold back and ate quietly.

Even if Old Master Jiang did not denounce her, he probably would not say anything nice. Jin Xue did not mind, but she could bear it.

Jiang Cong stared at Jin Xue with his eagle-like sharp eyes. His expression was a little serious.

“Girl, are you really not going to consider having children? Do you really want Jiang Yu to have no descendants?”

Jin Xue raised her eyelids slightly and glanced at the old man.

After eating the food in her mouth, she said, “Do you want my opinion? Are you sincere in talking to me about this?”

The old man pursed his lips in displeasure.

Instantly, his expression turned cold.

“You have no right to talk to me. I’m the one asking you now.”

Jin Xue stared at him with a solemn expression.

“Many couples don’t have a good relationship because the elders in the family interfere too much. As soon as we got married, you forced me to give birth to a child and insisted that I give birth to a son. To be honest, I resisted it and even rebelled. No one can predict what will happen in the future, I can’t make Jiang

Yu have no descendants. I said that out of anger.”

Jiang Cong said sternly, “As long as I’m alive, the Jiang family isn’t up to you to mess around. Jiang Yu definitely will have descendants. What I want is to have a great-grandson in my lifetime. Girl, I won’t force you to have children again, but I want you to be responsible for your aloofness and willfulness.”

“I won’t chase you out of the Jiang family, but letting you be trapped in the Jiang family for the rest of your life is the best punishment for not knowing the immensity of heaven and earth.”

Jin Xue ate as she listened.

“Girl, just wait to raise Jiang Yu’s child. There will naturally be other women giving birth to his child. I won’t trouble you.”

“I think that other than you, many women will be willing to give birth to Jiang Yu’s child.”

Jin Xue was not very shocked by the old man’s words. She knew that the Jiang family would definitely do such a thing.

For some reason, she sympathized with Jiang Yu for three seconds.

It was also because of these words that Jin Xue thought of Jiang Yu’s biological mother.

There must be some unknown secret here!

Jin Xue asked teasingly, "Grandpa, do you think Jiang Yu is a dog?"

"How dare you!"

Hearing the cold roar, the bodyguards outside the door immediately rushed in.

Jiang Cong waved his hand, and the two bodyguards tactfully retreated.

"Grandpa, I understand what you mean." Jin Xue continued eating without saying anything else. The Jiang family did not allow her to have her own opinions.

This girl was not angry and could still eat. Jiang Cong narrowed his eyes when he saw Jin Xue's nonchalant expression.

"You're willing to raise the child of Jiang Yu and another woman? Don't you hate me for making you a stepmother?"

Jin Xue took a few sips of the chicken soup made from wormgrass before looking at Jiang Cong and replying, "Is it useful for me to hate you? If I say that I'm unwilling to raise someone else's child, will you do as I wish? Since it's nonsense, of course I won't say it! It's useless to be angry. Why should I be angry? Isn't it good to enjoy wealth and glory?" Jiang Cong pursed his lips and sized Jin Xue up.

This girl was smart!

However, she was too smart and impudent. She had to be taught a lesson!

"You know your place. Very good!"

"It's useless for me to know my place. Both you and I are not Jiang Yu. We can't control him or make him listen to us."

Jiang Cong's expression darkened as he glared at Jin Xue with his deep eyes.. "How dare you threaten me!"
