Read Rebirth of the Evil Life Chapter 1

Chapter 1 Surprise rebirth

“Wake up, wake up!”

There was a gentle tapping sound on his face, and Lin Feng opened his eyes blankly.

“Hey, Dad, you, you, you can get up and walk!!” Lin Feng rubbed his eyes, unable to believe what he saw before him. My father, who has been in bed for three years, can get out of bed and walk.

“Wonderful!” Lin Feng hugged his father tightly. Three years ago, his father was paralyzed in bed due to years of overwork and poverty at home and no money to see a doctor. In the end, his condition worsened and caused a stroke. He was paralyzed in bed. And this lying is three years.

In the past three years, Lin Feng has been very tired and tired. He has to work and take care of his father every day. However, Lin Feng understood that although he was tired, it was his father who suffered more. A man suddenly turned from the pillar of the family to the burden of the family. This psychological gap is beyond imagination and experience.

Fortunately, my father can get out of bed now. -Lin Feng's eyes are moist.

“Xiaofeng, are you okay? I told you not to drink so much. Okay, I'm going to work. I'm at the table early. You wash your face and eat.” His father frowned and touched Lin Feng's forehead. , To see if nothing happened, shook his head, opened the door and left.

Seeing his father walk out the door steadily, and telling himself to remember to eat breakfast, Lin Feng was stunned, vaguely feeling that something was not quite right.

My father hasn't gotten out of bed for three years, and his muscles have already shrunk. It is impossible to walk so steadily overnight; even if he can walk so steadily, his father hasn't gone to work for three years, where is he going to work now? And I will buy myself early, which is incredible. One question after another came to Lin Feng's mind, making Lin Feng even more suspicious of what he saw before him.

Am I dreaming? ——Lin Feng grabbed himself fiercely, and a fiery pain came from the inner thigh. ——Not a dream, it is true. But if this is true, it would be incredible. Is there a miracle?

Lin Feng ate breakfast with full of doubts, thinking about everything that happened this morning.

After eating early with doubts, Lin Feng sat in front of the computer habitually.

what! What about my 19-inch LCD monitor, how did it become a 15-inch crt? —Lin Feng was stunned. ——This, this, what is going on, the system has also become windows98, but I installed the windowsxp operating system!

Could it be that a thief came at home last night and took my computer and replaced it by the way? ——Lin Feng shook his head. This reason is too ridiculous. The one who steals the computer will give you a replacement. Who is so boring.

Lin Feng instinctively sensed that something was wrong, and faintly guessed something in his heart, but he couldn't grasp the key point a bit.

Lin Feng instinctively right-clicked on "My Computer"- "Properties", and was stunned for an instant.

Celeron 333 CPU, 32msd memory. ——Lin Feng's heart jumped, this is an antique computer hundreds of years ago! So broken!

Lin Feng subconsciously glanced at the time bar in the lower right corner of the screen, and the whole person was suddenly stupefied.

September 28, 1999, 8:10 am! ——A time that shocked Lin Feng was displayed on the computer.

This must be a joke to me. ——Lin Feng quickly opened the dial-up connection and wanted to check the time online.

auzw.com Unexpectedly, there was a dial tone.

what happened? ——Lin Feng is stupid again, isn't it all broadband? Why is there a dialing sound? Lin Feng looked sideways, a tp-link modem was making a harsh "meow".

Oh my god, what the **** is going on? ——Lin Feng is a bit mad. On his birthday yesterday, Lin Feng had to celebrate his birthday at home because his father was ill in bed. I was in a bad mood for a while, and I drank a few more glasses. Why did I wake up from a hangover and the world has changed

Fortunately, the modem successfully connected to the network soon, and Lin Feng quickly opened the time bar to check the time on the network. After a few seconds, the time verification is successful on the screen.

Lin Feng immediately confirmed his withdrawal-September 28, 1999, at 8:15 am.

Lin Feng rubbed his eyes, unable to believe what he saw. —Is the web server broken? No, even if the network server is broken, my computer becomes an antique, and broadband Internet access becomes dial-up Internet access. This is too, wait, maybe

A word popped out of Lin Feng's mind. At this moment, his heart twitched violently, his blood was agitated like boiling happiness, and his breathing became hurried-am I really so lucky?

Lin Feng was so excited that he almost couldn't hold the mouse. He couldn't help but yelled a few times, cheering for his adventure. —Wait, wait, just when Lin Feng could not restrain the ecstasy in his heart, he was always cautious and made Lin Fengqiang hold back the ecstasy in his heart, and tremblingly wanted to find QQ, he went online to find someone to confirm his current situation. The specific time.

Huh, what about qq? —Lin Feng searched for a long time, but no trace of QQ was found on the computer.

By the way, I didn't have QQ in 1999. Lin Feng's ecstasy was another point.

Chat rooms, now the most popular is chat rooms. Lin Feng quickly clicked on "ie", and a window opened after the computer's hard disk counted down a few seconds.

Happy x base camp website. —When "ie" is opened, it is the homepage of Happy x Camp. After seeing this homepage, Lin Feng is already convinced 8 points. In 2009, this homepage no longer existed.

Lin Feng could not contain his excitement at this moment, and reluctantly clicked into the chat room.

"Brother, here it is." As soon as he entered the chat room, someone greeted Lin Feng.

The person who said hello was Er Kang, whose real name was Jia Kang. In my memory, there are only two of them in the happy x base camp at this time. In order to earn points, the two of them are always hanging here all day.

"Come on, brother. What year, month and date is it today?" Lin Feng had already believed ten times at this time, knowing that he had run into **** luck, and met the legendary rebirth. But the cautious mind made Lin Feng ask again.

"Brother, are you okay, today is September 28, 1999, at 8:27 am." Jia Kang typed out every word.

Wow haha . Lin Feng could no longer control the ecstasy in his heart. He slapped the table and laughed wildly. He didn't think that such an ordinary person like himself would meet the legendary rebirth.

“Thank God ” Lin Feng was about to go crazy, roaring incoherently, Tuer jumped on the bed, and Tuer fell on the ground and rolled, looking like crazy. Helpless, Lin Feng feared that if he didn’t vent his ecstasy, he would laugh alive.

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

Just as Lin Feng vented his ecstasy recklessly, there was a rude and hasty clap at the door.

Chapter 2 Childhood sweetheart

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

The door was banged by a hammer.

“Who and who?” Lin Feng was startled, his almost crazy state immediately recovered, but the joy from the heart couldn’t be suppressed, and he opened the door with a smirk.

Cross-brows and anger! As soon as the door opened, a face of a middle-aged woman who was extremely distorted by anger appeared in front of Lin Feng. The unnatural beating of flesh on his face is enough to explain the anger in this person’s heart at the moment.

Aunt Huang. ——Lin Feng gave a cold sweat on his forehead, and took a breath of cold air. This is a well-known shrew in the community. Not only is she violent, she is also a stubborn shrew. She is a rare shrew in the community, but she still lives downstairs in Lin Feng.

Before rebirth, since his father was paralyzed, the two families have been wrangling because of the sound of the wheelchair rolling. Of course, all Lin Feng without exception was defeated. One is because Lin Feng really can’t argue with this pungent Aunt Huang, and the other is that Aunt Huang lost her husband in her early years, and her life is really not easy when one person pulls the child. This is also the reason why most people in the community tolerate her.

This is a woman who feels sorrowful, don’t offend her in her spare time. ——Consensus of everyone in the community.

“Aunt Huang Huang, may I ask what’s the matter with you?” Lin Feng’s ecstasy dissipated instantly, looking at the woman who looked like a Yaksha in front of him, Lin Feng was uneasy, not knowing where he caused this “great god”. Although Aunt Huang in front of her was ten years younger than before she was born again, her temper is still so hot.

“Little **** boy, what are you doing upstairs, the noisy old lady can’t be peaceful. If you noisy, be careful that the old lady slaps you to death.” Mrs. Huang’s mouth shot Lin

Feng like a machine gun, and at the same time, her fists were like meatballs. The hammer of Lin Feng's iron door banged loudly. Just at this voice, you can hear it outside the community.

"Yes." Lin Feng knew that he must have been too excited just now to accidentally provoke the shrew downstairs, so he didn't dare to argue, and quickly apologized.

"Huh, my Shuqi is in the third year of high school this year, and I will be preparing for college entrance examination next year. Do you dare to make a noise again to tell Shuqi how old lady Shuhe is going to deal with you!" After cursing and warning, Mrs. Huang took it with me. Going downstairs with a murderous look.

lucky! ——Lin Feng quickly closed the door. This Aunt Huang is really terrifying, and he deserves to be the "Overlord" of the community.

But after Aunt Huang's trouble, Lin Feng also remembered the little girl who used to run with her ponytail when she was a child. Think about it carefully. Huang Shuqi is also 16 years old this year. She has just entered the third year of high school and will face the most important test of her life next year—the college entrance examination.

In my memory, Huang Shuqi seemed to be admitted to a good university. I remember that after Huang Shuqi was admitted to the university, Huang Auntie had a big banquet, and all those who had a relationship with the community were invited. Lin Feng is naturally within the scope of the invitation, after all, the two neighbors upstairs and downstairs have been neighbors for more than ten years.

In fact, the relationship between the two has been good before. Since Huang Shuqi's family is a single-parent family, Aunt Huang has to go to work again, and often cannot take care of Huang Shuqi. Therefore, Huang Shuqi often plays at Lin Feng's house and waits for Aunt Huang to return home. Since childhood, the two have been in a good relationship. Aunt Huang is also very relieved that Huang Shuqi is playing at Lin Feng's house, so her burden is much lighter.

However, since Lin Feng failed the college entrance examination in 1998, it seems that Aunt Huang's attitude towards herself has changed 180 degrees, and Huang Shuqi is no longer allowed to come to Lin Feng. By chance, Lin Feng passed by Aunt Huang's door and found out why. It turned out that Aunt Huang thought that Lin Feng, who had not been admitted to the university, had no prospects and did not read well, so she let Huang Shuqi and Lin Feng be together, fearing that Lin Feng would damage Huang Shuqi. After knowing the reason, Lin Feng never went to Huang Shuqi again. The two gradually became partakers.

A few minutes later.

"Knock, knock, knock!" There was a slight knock on the door.

auzw.com “Who is it?” Lin Feng frowned, how come someone came again.

Shuqi? — Lin Feng was taken aback for a moment. He hadn’t seen each other for ten years in his memory. I don’t know what this little girl looks like now. Is she still as chubby as before? Before rebirth, Lin Feng occasionally thought of Huang Shuqi, and often fantasized about what Huang Shuqi would be like when he became an adult, and whether he would be as hot as Aunt Huang.

The thoughts in his heart turned into actions, and Lin Feng quickly opened the door.

As soon as the door opened, Lin Feng only felt his eyes light up. In the original memory, that one was a bit round and fleshy, and the face that I wanted to pull has become much thinner, showing the shape of a melon seed, and it is also at the tip of Lin Feng’s nose. The only thing that Lin Feng remembers is his shoulder height, The chubby Huang Shuqi is very different, and now Huang Shuqi has become pretty.

Slim, small cherry mouth, lovely and lovely! ——This is the only evaluation of Huang Shuqi in Lin Feng’s mind. Instinctively wanted to reach out and touch Huang Shuqi’s forehead as before, but just raised his hand and remembered that Huang Shuqi has grown up and is no longer the little girl in the past. This action is a bit wrong.

With a vicissitudes of laughter, Lin Feng put down his hand.

“Brother Xiaofeng” Huang Shuqi pursed her mouth, shook her cute little head and looked around, suddenly grinned, and chuckled with her right finger on Lin Feng’s lips, “Hu scum!”

Lin Feng was taken aback, touched it subconsciously, and there was a thin layer of scum on his lips as expected. Before Lin Feng could react, a Qianqian jade finger suddenly stretched out and lightly tapped the scum on the side of Lin Feng’s lips.

“It’s so prickly!” Huang Shuqi quickly retracted her fingers, frowned and blew a few times on her ruddy lips.

Lin Feng frowned with a weird expression. Doesn’t this little girl know that she was **** just now! However, looking at Huang Shuqi’s simple and lovely frowning movement, it was obvious that she didn’t know how improper it was just now. At that moment, with the tap of Huang Shuqi’s finger, Lin Feng only felt a strange restlessness jump in his body a few times.

Huang Shuqi didn’t know that so many thoughts flashed in Lin Feng’s mind at this moment. After blowing his fingers gently, he pouted and stretched out the fat-like fingers again, as if he wanted to click a few more times.

“Don’t” Lin Feng was taken aback, took two steps back quickly, his face was embarrassed. ——This little girl, don’t you know what the difference between men and women is. Although the two of them have played since childhood, Lin Feng has always treated Huang Shuqi as his sister, and this action just now was a bit too intimate.

Moreover, the current Huang Shuqi is no longer the chubby Huang Shuqi before. With an innocent smile, affectionate behavior, the scent of a virgin body, and the already developed body, Tingtingyuli Huang Shuqi made Lin Feng feel more in his heart when he saw the peculiar restlessness of beautiful women, and the devil in his heart faintly moved.

Humph! ——Huang Shuqi pouted her ruddy mouth, still keeping her right hand in the posture of reaching out, as if she was upset that she hadn’t been able to touch Lin Feng’s new young scum.

sweat! —Lin Feng didn’t know why this little girl was so interested in her new young beard.

“By the way, Shuqi, why are you here? Aunt Huang wouldn’t say it? You are in the third year of high school, so you must hurry up to study and prepare for college entrance examination next year.” Lin Feng quickly turned Huang Shuqi’s attention away from her new tenderness. Transferred on the scum.

“Oh, yes.” Huang Shuqi patted her forehead, stuck out her tongue, and lightly hammered Lin Feng, “It’s all Xiaofeng, so I almost forgot my purpose.”

Lin Feng secretly said an evil spirit in his heart. This little Nizi showed her femininity in her gestures, and the lingering innocence of the girl made Huang Shuqi add a bit of heart-pounding temptation.

Chapter 3 Future plan

“Brother Xiaofeng, my mother was a little bit like her just now.” Huang Shuqi thought for a long time, but didn’t know how to describe it. She pursed her lips and said, “Don’t blame my mother.”

“Uh, it’s okay, isn’t it all for Aunt Huang to study for you!” How dare Lin Feng blame Aunt Huang for her temper and character, Lin Feng fears that he can’t avoid it, so how can he dare to provoke him.

“Hehe, I knew Xiaofeng was the best.” Huang Shuqi’s pretty face showed two brilliant dimples, “By the way, Xiaofeng, now the school has a basic computer class, but I don’t have a computer at home, I Can I come up to learn computers in the future? It will only take a while.”

Huang Shuqi used two jade fingers to compare, "It's just a short while, and it won't affect Brother Xiaofeng."

Lin Feng believed that no man would accept Huang Shuqi's request. A young and lovely girl who is in the years of cardamom wants to learn computer at your home, who would refuse?

Just as Lin Feng was about to agree, a terrifying voice blasted downstairs.

"Huang Shuqi, where did your dead girl go?" Aunt Huang's voice hummed across the building, "I won't come back to study again, wait until my old lady catches you, don't kill you dead girl."

Huang Shuqi trembled in shock, and ran down quickly, "Come on, Mom, I'm here."

"Where" Aunt Huang swallowed the mountains and rivers with anger, and Lin Feng instinctively returned to the house, trying to close the door. This Aunt Huang is too terrible to provoke her.

"Wait, wait." A jade hand pressed against the door.

"Huh, huh, Brother Xiaofeng, here, this is your birthday present. It's a day late, don't be offended" Huang Shuqi panted and handed Lin Feng something.

"Huang Shu Qi!!!" The lion roar downstairs became more vigorous, and Lin Feng felt the whole door trembling.

"Come on" Huang Shuqi stuck out her tongue at Lin Feng, and responded loudly to her mother's call.

"Bad girl, telling you not to go upstairs anymore, why are you going upstairs!" Aunt Huang saw Huang Shuqi coming down from the stairs, becoming more angry and closing the iron door with a "bang".

"Mom I want to find Xiaofeng to learn computer" Huang Shuqi was interrupted roughly by Aunt Huang before she finished her words.

"What do you learn about a computer? Look at him. You can't get into college even after you buy a computer. Tell you, you will study honestly at home in the future. You are not allowed to go up again. Go up and be careful that I break your leg." Aunt Huang shook her hand and closed the door, but the thunderous voice still passed through the thick door to Lin Feng's ears.

"Mom"

"Don't go to school yet!!"

“Oh ”

Lin Feng was embarrassed by Aunt Huang's remarks, but Aunt Huang was indeed right. In my memory, my previous grades have always been very good, but since my father gritted his teeth and bought a computer for himself in the name of study, his grades have gone from bad to worse, and he finally lost his name in the college entrance examination. And the culprit, 90% of the reason is because of the computer.

Playthings are lost! —This is Lin Feng's only evaluation of his previous life now. Fortunately, God gave me a chance to do it again. This time, I will never lose my mind again.

By the way, I don't know what birthday present Shuqi gave herself. —Lin Feng slowly opened his palm, and a cute clay figurine appeared in front of Lin Feng.

Lin Feng took a closer look and was immediately happy. This clay figurine is exactly his own shape, but it's a bit more cartoonish, and a bit more funny, much cuter than Lin Feng himself.

This little girl! —Lin Feng smiled secretly, a warm feeling echoed in his chest.

After Huang Shuqi's mother and daughter's trouble, Lin Feng has completely accepted the fact that he was reborn. But an unavoidable question emerged, how should one live this life after rebirth?

How should I live this life? Is it the same as before to go to work, go to get off work, play, and sleep until my father falls ill again? -No, never!

Lin Feng clenched his fist tightly. Before he was reborn, he had no abilities and could only watch his father suffer in bed, but he was helpless. Now the sky is pitiful, and he has given himself a chance to be born again, and he will never let his father make the same mistakes again.

And since his father was paralyzed, Lin Feng resented the ugly faces of the people around him. Lin Feng felt like a plague god. No matter where he went, even if he was only paying a polite visit during the holidays, he would be greeted and guarded by the other party. It seemed that he had come to borrow money. This feeling of being guarded and despised made Lin feel angry, but even more helpless.

No, Lin Feng will never let anyone look down on me in my life! I want to start all over again. In this life, I must live with dignity.

In this world, if you want to be respected and not despised, you must first have money. The man has no money and his waist is not straight. —But how can I make money now? —Lin Feng was lost in thought.

Lin Feng kept calculating his strengths and found that although he was reborn, he was no different from what he was 10 years ago. Except that I have passed CET-4 and got a diploma of college English major, there is no difference.

Lin Feng now works in a printing factory as a bookbinding worker with a monthly salary of only 400 yuan, which can be said to be an honorable worker.

After I quit my job to find an English-related job? -Lin Feng's instinctive rejection. He was born again unexpectedly. After being reborn without any reason, he was just to be an English text translator with a slightly higher salary.

Or go to an auto parts company to be a technician, designing auto parts for steering systems? -Lin Feng shook his head again. Although this job is more promising and the income is also very good, now entering this line with the experience accumulated before rebirth, you can definitely get promoted very quickly, and a project manager will definitely not run away.

But this is still not the only thing that can be done after rebirth. The legendary opportunity for rebirth must not be ruined in this way.

So what should I do? ——Lin Feng scratched his head in annoyance, he always felt that he had grasped the key, but he just couldn't remember it.

Damn, I'm so stupid! -Lin Feng slapped himself fiercely. I am a person who has been reborn from the future. Although I am not aware of everything that will happen in the next 10 years, I know all the major events. With the memory of the next 10 years, can't I still make money! ——Lin Feng finally realized that the biggest difference between himself and the people in this world is also his biggest capital.

So what is the most profitable now? ——Lin Feng pondered for a while, and an answer blurted out, "Internet cafe!"

In 1999, in Chu City, Internet cafes were still a new industry, and it was a time of rapid development. If you open your own Internet cafes now, I believe you will be able to get rid of poverty and become rich soon. Moreover, the initial start-up funds of Internet cafes are small. Although the family is still very poor now, it should still be used for 12,000 yuan. As long as you can collect the money for 4 computers, you can slowly and steadily develop and then grow.

It's just that Lin Feng is penniless now, and he must borrow money from his father if he wants to open an Internet cafe. But would a father who only wants to live a stable life take out all his family savings to open an Internet cafe for himself? ——Lin Feng has a big question mark in his heart.

In any case, I must convince my father.

Chapter 4 convince

“Dad, I want to resign!” Lin Feng frightened his father with a single sentence when his father came back.

“What are you talking about?” Father was stunned.

“Resign? What are you going to do?” Lin Qixiong calmed down and frowned.

Looking at his father’s familiar and unfamiliar face, Lin Feng sighed. Since childhood, his father has been the backbone of the family. Not only did he support the whole family alone, but he also tolerated his behavior time and time again. No matter what he did, his father seldom scolded himself.

Dad, in this life I will never make you sick again. -Lin Feng secretly swears.

“I want to start a business. That’s only 400 yuan for a month of work, which is too little.” Lin Feng planned to start with work to convince his father. He knew that his father also felt that his job was too bad, and that a young man who became a bookbinding worker was too bad for himself.

“Then what do you want to do?” Lin Qixiong nodded and said.

“I want to open an internet cafe!” Lin Feng said firmly. Nowadays, in Chu City, Internet cafes are still in a new industry, and most of the owners still open arcade halls or video game shops, and there are very few Internet cafes. Before his rebirth, Lin Feng had witnessed an Internet cafe with only 2 computers in its first opening, and slowly expanded into an Internet city with more than 200 computers.

“Internet cafe?” Lin Qixiong had obviously never heard of this new term.

“Well, yes, it’s just a few computers connected to the local area network to play games.” The so-called Internet cafes in Chu City are limited by the bandwidth problem in Chu City (now only dial-up Internet access), and there is no Internet access at all. It’s not an Internet cafe in the true sense, but a computer game room. Lin Feng also plans to open a computer game room that can only play single-player games, and then switch to an Internet cafe when the legend becomes popular.

Lam Fung naturally hopes that the more start-up funds, the better. There are so many Internet cafes that are full of them. Internet cafes are definitely the most popular and cheapest entertainment venue in the future. However, Lin Feng also knew that the home environment was not good, and he did not have much savings.

“30,000 is enough.” Lin Feng silently calculated that it would cost about 20,000 to buy 4 computers, and the money would be almost the same after including the expenses such as applying for a permit and renting a storefront.

“Are you sure to make money?” Lin Qixiong asked in a few circles silently.

“Well, don’t worry, Dad, you will definitely make money.” Lin Feng is absolutely sure of this. No one knows more about the prosperous future of Internet cafes in China than oneself.

Lin Qixiong frowned for a while, then nodded secretly. —Lin Feng secretly breathed a sigh of relief, he knew that his father had agreed to his plan.

“But there is only 15,000 yuan at home, and 5,000 yuan in the stock market. I only have so much.” Lin Qixiong said with difficulty. The son wanted to start a business for the first time, but as a father he could not fully support his son, which made Lin Qixiong very ashamed.

“Enough, Dad, I will figure out the rest.” Lin Feng knows the situation at home, and now he can spend 20,000 yuan, he is very content.

Hey, the stock market! Lin Feng’s heart jumped, and a message flashed in his mind—Yi’an Technology. Although Lin Feng did not trade in stocks before his rebirth, he still has a deep memory of this China’s first stock that broke 100 yuan. After 70 consecutive trading days, it rose sharply, and then fell sharply. There was no news that year that received more attention than the stock price of Yi’an Technology.

It should be about this time. —Lin Feng can’t remember exactly when Yi’an Technology began to rise wildly, but it should be at the end of 1999 and early 2000.

auzw.com “Uh, dad, the stock market money will not be withdrawn. You can give me 15,000 yuan. You buy all the stock market money for Yi’an Technology.” Although Lin Feng is not sure about Yi’an Technology When will it soar, but it’s always good to buy early, just as long-term investment.

“Yi’an Technology?” Lin Qixiong frowned and checked on the computer. The current price was 25.8 yuan.

“It’s expensive!” Lin Qixiong hesitated for a while. He always only bought stocks of about 6 or 7 yuan, so that it would neither fall too sharply nor rise too sharply, and it would be considered a steady profit.

“Don’t worry, it will go up. The inside information I found online is said to be up to 50 yuan.” Lin Feng had to disclose a little bit, but naturally buckled everything to the Internet.

Under Lin Feng’s insistence, Lin Qixiong reluctantly bought all the money from the stock market at Yi’an Technology, which happened to be able to buy two lots (200 shares).

“Well, I’ll withdraw the money later.” After Lin Qixiong finished buying the stocks, he was ready to withdraw the money. Lin Qixiong would usually do it for Lin Feng as soon as possible.

Father, I will succeed! -Lin Feng swears silently.

The start-up fund of 30,000 yuan was half solved, and there was still 15,000 yuan. Lin Feng could only find his mother who divorced his father. Lin Feng knew that his mother had saved him a sum of money for marriage, which should now be more than 10,000, but he wanted his mother to use it to invest in the business, it really took some words.

Fortunately, Lin Feng is no longer the one before his rebirth. His 29 years of experience before his rebirth gave Lin Feng the absolute confidence that he could persuade his mother to invest the money. Of course, this is definitely not an easy task. My mother is a typical Chinese woman, so stability is good.

Lin Feng also went downstairs, planning to borrow money from his mother’s house.

“Hey, this is.” Just when I left the community, I saw a warehouse that had been abandoned for many years and was being rebuilt next to the community.

“Be careful, be careful, that’s the company’s brand, don’t break it.” A middle-aged man commanded from the side.

Daya Chemical! — Lin Feng glanced, his face suddenly gloomy.

Before the rebirth, since Daya Chemicals built a factory next to the community and put it into production, no one had ever opened a window in the whole community. No way, the whole air was filled with disgusting rotten eggs, who would dare to open the window.

For this reason, the residents of the community have collectively complained, but it seems to have no effect. In the end, he had to endure the nasty smell of rotten eggs and barely live. Of course, the rich have moved away long ago, and those who have no money, such as Lin Feng, can only continue to bear it.

When I make money, the first thing I do is to buy a large and bright house for my father. —Lin Feng gave a bitter look at the boss of Daya Chemical, who was commanding in the distance, and then quickly left.

My mother lives in the city, but although she is in the city, she rents a house and cannot afford to buy a house.

After the mother and father divorced, life was not good. Since the factory went bankrupt, he made a living by setting up street stalls. Of course, at this time, the amount of money to set up a street stall is far more than that of the factory to work. A little hard work can earn more than 2000 yuan a month. But this is the case, my mother also rents a house with her stepfather. Lin Feng knew why this was because his mother was saving money for herself and her wife.

In Lin Feng's memory, just because of his own marriage, his mother often quarreled with his stepfather, and the two finally divorced.

Alas, pity the parents of the world. ——Lin Feng suddenly didn't want to knock on his mother's door, which would make him feel a deep sense of guilt. But if you don't borrow, you don't have startup capital, how can you use the advantages of rebirth to make money and change your life and your family's life without the startup capital.

Thinking of this, Lin Feng gritted his teeth and bit his scalp and entered the door.

Chapter 5 Mother's Perseverance

Lin Feng bit his scalp and entered the door.

"Hey, Xiaofeng, why are you here, sit down, sit down, what to drink? I remember you like to drink Coke, I'll buy it for you." Seeing Lin Feng coming in, my mother was surprised, but her eyes showed more surprises.

Lin Feng knew why his mother was so surprised. Before his rebirth, including the Mid-Autumn Festival and Spring Festival, Lin Feng had only visited his mother's house three times, and the only three times were when his mother called in advance to make an appointment. Lin Feng couldn't avoid it. Lin Feng knew that this made his mother very uncomfortable, but Lin Feng just didn't want to go. One is because Lin Feng has always had some opinions about his mother's leaving his father; the other is that he is very resistant to the stepfather his mother finds, although he is also very kind to himself.

But today he came uninvited for money, which made Lin Feng's guilt even stronger.

"Okay, Mom, I won't drink, I'll come to you for something." Lin Feng stopped his mother. Before he was born again, he was ignorant, and after he was born again, he couldn't be so muddled and awkward.

"Then I will pour you water." The mother quickly poured a glass of water from the teapot on the side.

“Mom, I” looked at his mother’s aging face, Lin Feng suddenly couldn’t speak, and couldn’t say anything about borrowing money. In the next ten years, in order to save enough for herself as a wife, her mother became dark and thin, but before she was born again, she never sympathized with her mother’s bitterness, and instead ignored her mother’s contribution to herself.

Perhaps this time I was born again to pay off my debts. ——This thought suddenly popped up in Lin Feng’s mind.

“What’s the matter, just say what I can do for you, and try my best to do it for you.” Seeing Lin Feng’s desire to say something, his mother put the teacup into Lin Feng’s hands.

“Uh, mom, I want to borrow money from you.” Lin Feng said, his face was ashamed not to go to see his mother. In the past constant years, I didn’t go to the door once, and borrowed money when I came to the door, which made Lin Feng very ashamed.

“So much?” Mother was startled, and subconsciously held Lin Feng’s hand, “Did you cause any trouble outside?”

“No, I didn’t cause any trouble.” Lin Feng shook his head, “I want to borrow money to open an Internet cafe.” When it comes to Internet cafes, Lin Feng’s confidence is back. This is definitely a business that makes money without losing money. There is nothing to worry about. And worrisome.

“Open an Internet cafe?” My mother had never heard of this new word, and asked Lin Feng carefully for a long time before figuring out what an Internet cafe was.

“No, what should you do if you lose? You won’t have any money after you get married.” After figuring out what the Internet cafe is, his mother’s attitude was as Lin Feng predicted. She refused without thinking about it.

“Mom, you won’t lose. The next ten years will be the world of Internet cafes. After entering the 21st century, it will be the age of computers and the Internet.” Lin Feng’s words were interrupted again by his mother.

“I don’t understand all of this. I only ask you what to do if you lose money? I saved so much money for you to get married, not for you to toss about.” Mother clung to marriage, not at all. Relax, “In a few years you will be in your twenties, and you have no money to get married. What do you use to marry someone?”

Lin Feng didn't expect his mother to take his marriage so seriously. After thinking about it, he said, "Mom, don't worry, you won't lose money. Or, even if I ask you to borrow it, I can pay you back in half a year."

auzw.com" Borrow? Do I still need you to pay back the money? I saved the money for you. It was originally yours. But this is for you to get married in the future. , Where am I going to save money for you to get married." His mother's words made Lin Feng embarrassed and sentimental. But no matter what, Lin Feng must borrow the money.

After a long time in Lin Feng Mushroom, coupled with various market prospect analysis, and almost didn't tell the secret of her own rebirth, her mother finally got a little loose.

"Okay, you believe me once, you can definitely make money this time. And this job is too bad, 400 yuan a month, you can't make money even if you are old." Lin Feng's efforts finally relieved his mother.

"Sure to make money?" Lin Feng knew that his mother hoped that she could give her a little confidence. After all, the money was saved every day by my mother by setting up a street stall.

"Well, you can rest assured, you can definitely make money. When you make money, I will buy you a house." Lin Feng also felt guilty and used his mother's money to invest in the street stall. Fortunately, this is a business that makes money without losing money. And after earning money, you must buy a house that belongs to her completely.

"I don't want your money. It's your skill that you can make money. I can make money to support myself. As long as you don't lose money, I will thank God." The mother shook her head, but in the end her tone still softened.

"Well, then you should be careful and refer to it." There is only a mother in the world. How can a mother not help her son? Of course, I still feel a little worried. After thinking about it, my mother said, "So, I and you Let's go to see the shops and facades together."

"Well, okay." Lin Feng also knew that he was not proficient in this area. With the help of his mother, it would indeed save a lot of things.

Lin Feng finally breathed a sigh of relief with his father and mother's 15,000 yuan each, totaling 30,000 yuan.

Lin Feng decided to choose the location of the computer room in the Liaoyuan district not far from home. This district has a large population and is relatively close to the Ninth Middle School. It is an excellent choice to open an Internet cafe here.

After choosing to buy a 10-square-meter shop with his mother, Lin Feng entrusted the business license to his mother. No way, Lin Feng wasn't sure if he would ridicule those officials again, whether he would hit some officials in the face with a punch. Isn't it just a business license? Do you need to run dozens of places to cover so many chapters?

Fortunately, buying a computer is a breeze for Lin Feng. He is very clear about the trend of computers in the next ten years and knows how to choose the most cost-effective computer.

Celeron 433, 64m memory, 6.4g hard drive, voodoo graphics card, this is the most cost-effective configuration now.

However, this configuration looks really bad after the rebirth of Lin Feng, after all, before the rebirth, it used amd dual-core 3600+, 2g memory, x800 graphics card, 200g hard disk, and it is completely incomparable with the current configuration. Lin Feng couldn't help thinking when he matched the computer, if he could bring that computer back to the present, I don't know what would happen!

Perhaps this computer can sell for more than one million dollars!

Fortunately, although the three computers that are now equipped are bad, they are the mainstream configuration in 1999. They can run Diablo, Fairy Sword, Swordsman Love, StarCraft, Age of Empires and other games smoothly. The only regret for Lin Feng is that now Chu City still dials up the Internet via telephone, and there are not too many game resources to download on the Internet. If you want to install the game, you must buy a CD. Fortunately, there is a flood of pirated CDs, 10 yuan a piece.

But it was a cheap pirated disc of 10 yuan, which made Lin Feng feel distressed. After getting used to the free lunch, I bought a game for 10 yuan to play, which really made Lin Feng a little bit painful. Especially after 10 years, these black-hearted vendors who sold pirated CDs, under the impact of the free lunch on the Internet, only sold a CD for 3 yuan, and it was a DVD. Now a VCD disc is sold for 10 yuan, I have to say that these pirated disc dealers are black-hearted and profiteering.

Maybe I can also sell pirated computer CDs. ——Lin Feng thought about it carefully and found it feasible. There are at least seven years left in the prosperous days of pirated CD dealers in Chu City. In the past seven years, the profit of a pirated optical disc has been more than 7 yuan. According to Lin Feng's observation, a pirated optical disc dealer with a good geographic location has sold at least 200 copies a day. This is definitely a huge profit and almost made Lin Feng jealous. Returned the computer to sell pirated CDs.

But after thinking about it, Lin Feng decided to open the computer room first as planned, and then switch to an Internet cafe. Once Internet cafes become large, the money will flow into their pockets like flowing water. Although pirated CD dealers are making money now, their profits are only so large, no matter how good the store is, they can only sell so many copies a day. And from time to time, there will be actions to combat piracy. If caught, you will lose money.

In comparison, Internet cafes are more promising and more stable.

Chapter 6 First taste of sweetness

Chapter 6 First taste of the sweetness (this chapter is free)

Putting aside these messy thoughts, Lin Feng took three computers back to the computer game room that had just been renovated. After some installation and commissioning, Lin Feng's first computer room officially opened.

Four computers (including the computers in Lin Feng's house, there are four in total), with a facade of more than ten square meters and no internet connection. Everything looks so shabby, but the business is as hot as Lin Feng expected!

3 yuan an hour, 20 yuan a night package. This is the current market of Internet cafes in Chu City. It looks very expensive, but every day there is almost no time to use the computer. As long as some people go down, there will be people going on, and there are still several people waiting in line to play on the computer.

No way. In 1999, in Chu City, home computers were not popular, but computer games were already popular. However, computer games at this time were mainly single-player rpg (role playing) or slg (strategy) games. Times and StarCraft have not yet been popularized in Chu City for the time being. For most people, this is still a relatively unfamiliar game.

After a week, Lin Feng's average daily gross income was around 240 yuan, which is really surprising when considering various expenses for a week's net income.

The electricity bill is 14 kWh per day for four computers 24 hours a day, 1 yuan per kWh;

The rent is 450 yuan per month, 15 yuan per day;

Sanitation fee is 2 yuan per day;

Industrial and commercial tax is 300 yuan per month, 10 yuan per day;

Land tax is 300 yuan per month, 10 yuan per day;

Business tax is 600 yuan per month and 20 yuan per day.

The electricity bill is 84 yuan a week, the rent is 105 yuan a week, the sanitation fee is 14 yuan a week, the industrial and commercial tax + land tax + business tax is 280 yuan a week, and the total expenditure is 483 yuan.

Lin Feng's net income this week is 1,197 yuan, which not only makes Lin Feng feel gratified, but also reassures his parents who are worried about Lin Feng's loss. You must know that the average salary in Chu City in 1999 was only 400 yuan, and Lin Feng had a net income of 1,197 yuan a week, which is definitely a high income.

In addition to the temptation of computer games itself, the reason why there is such a good business is that the high incomes of certain industries can already afford 3 yuan per hour of game expenses. Even though the average salary in Chu City is only 400 yuan, the salary in many industries has already far exceeded the average salary by several times.

For more than ten days, because Lin Feng has been busy decorating the facade and debugging the computer, plus staying in the computer room all day, it has been a long time since she has seen Huang Shuqi, and I don't know if she has gone to learn computer by herself. Of course, this idea was only occasionally transferred to Lin Feng's mind. Most of the time, Lin Feng spent time in Internet cafes, either maintaining the computer or helping people buy various drinks and fruits, making Lin Feng tired.

However, the clay figurine sent by Huang Shuqi was taken by Lin Feng every day. Lin Feng felt that since the clay figurine, everything seemed to go so smoothly.

But when Lin Feng was thinking about how to expand the facade and add computers, something unexpected happened to Lin Feng.

On October 25, Yi'an Technology suddenly reached its daily limit. When his father Lin Qixiong laughed and told Lin Feng the good news, Lin Feng couldn't laugh at all. Because in memory, Yi'an Technology will continue to rise from around 26 yuan during the next 70 trading days, until it breaks the 100 yuan mark, and then plunges all the way.

"Dad, do you have any money?" Lin Feng asked anxiously.

"Why? Want to expand the storefront?" Lin Qixiong saw that the business was so good, and he wondered how to expand the storefront. After all, no one would feel too much money. Even if he doubted whether he would make money before, the hot scenes of Internet cafes this week have completely dispelled all his worries by Lin Qixiong.

"No, you just said, do you have any money?" Lin Feng asked.

"No, there is no money at home. But if you want to expand the storefront, I can ask your second uncle and aunt to borrow money." Lin Qixiong patted his chest and said.

"It's not to expand the storefront, but to borrow money to buy stocks." Originally, Lin Feng didn't want to say that it was borrowing money to buy stocks, but you borrowed money but didn't see the addition of a computer. It would be troublesome then, so let's tell the truth now.

“Huh?” Lin Qixiong’s tone was surprised, “The business is so good, if you don’t expand your storefront, why are you investing in stocks? The stock market is risky and you need to be cautious when entering the market.”

Lin Feng was dizzy for what had already been said badly in the financial news.

“Dad, you can borrow it. I’m sure you won’t lose money. It depends on whether you can expand the storefront this time.” Lin Feng urged.

“Didn’t borrowing money to buy a computer can expand the market? Investing in stocks to make money is too risky.” Lin Qixiong disagreed with Lin Feng’s view.

“Dad!!” Lin Feng is really anxious. Now Yi’an Technology is going up close to the daily limit every day, and entering the market one day late is a huge loss.

But Lin Feng also knew that he had no money, so if he wanted to invest in stocks, he could only rely on his father to borrow money. As for my mother, it’s okay to ask her to continue to borrow money to invest in the computer room. Investing in stocks doesn’t have to think about it.

Lin Feng was really anxious, and after thinking about it, he pulled Lin Qixiong aside while no one was paying attention in the computer room.

“Dad, this Yi’an technology is really good” Speaking of this, Lin Feng paused and looked around and whispered, “This stock will rise all the way to more than 120 yuan. If you don’t buy it now, you will never be able to buy it again. .”

How could Lin Feng not be in a hurry. Now there are only 4 computers in the computer room. Although the monthly profit is considerable, if you continue to invest, it will take you to slowly develop this small Internet cafe into an online city with hundreds of computers. Perhaps when your own Internet cafe becomes an Internet city, the entire Chu City will be covered with Internet cafes, and the prime time to make money is over.

If you want to quickly surpass the initial accumulation of initial funds, Yi’an Technology, which has already started, is the best opportunity and must not be let go. Think about Yi’an Technology’s going to rise from 26 yuan to 126 yuan, with a profit rate of 500%, where to look for such a high rate of return.

“You heard the gossip, don’t believe people, be careful.” Lin Qixiong obviously doesn’t believe Lin Feng’s words. He doesn’t think that a 26 yuan stock will rise to more than 120 yuan. Now there is no 100 yuan stock in China.

“Dad!!” Lin Feng almost knelt down and swore to the sky in a hurry, “Can you believe me again?”

“Trust me again!!”

Lin Feng’s almost crazy tone seemed to scare his father, Lin Qixiong sighed after a daze.

“Child, it’s not that I don’t want to help you, but it’s too hard to believe. I have never heard of any stock that will go up all the way like this.” Lin Qixiong persuaded.

Lin Feng knew that his tone was too presumptuous just now, but he was really impatient. Especially when I knew that a stock could make a lot of money, but I couldn’t persuade my father to invest. This feeling was really uncomfortable.

Of course, Lin Feng also knows that this is not to blame his father, after all, before Yi’an Technology, such a thing had never happened in the Chinese stock market. However, after that, there were a lot of things like this in the Chinese stock market. Isn’t it the same for St Jintai? All financial vampires used loopholes in the financial system to obtain hard-earned money from the people.

“Dad, you have to believe me.” Lin Feng decided to speak with facts. “Look, I said that opening a computer room can make money. Didn’t you believe it at the beginning? Look at how good business is now.”

Lin Qixiong glanced at the overcrowded computer game room. There were a dozen people waiting to play on the four computers. His son’s vision was indeed accurate. But now instead of investing in computers to expand the storefront, he is buying stocks, which makes Lin Qixiong unable to figure out. Each additional computer will increase your gross income by more than 60 yuan a day. This month is close to 2,000 yuan in income. If you don’t make such a good profit, you have to invest in some stocks.

“Child, you just listen to my advice this time, don’t invest in stocks” Lin Qixiong still wanted to persuade Lin Feng, but Lin Feng could not listen to it.

“Dad, if you don’t help me, I’ll sell the computer room to buy stocks!” Lin Feng has been stubborn this time. If his father really doesn’t help him, he can only sell the computer room. After all, the computer room can be reopened once it is sold. Yi’an Technology missed it, but it is gone.

Of course, there will be st Jintai in the later period, but Lin Feng was not a professional financial expert before his rebirth. How did he know when st Jintai, which would soar later, would start to rise wildly, his only impression was that st Jintai was even more abnormal. A crazy journey starting from 1.2 yuan.

In desperation, Lin Qixiong had to compromise. He couldn’t really watch Lin Feng sell the profitable computer game room to buy stocks. After all, borrowing money to buy stocks and losing money, you can still use the money to open the computer game room to pay off the debt. If you sell the computer room and then lose money, you no longer have the money to open the computer room.

In the end, Lin Qixiong raised a little more than 50,000 yuan, barely counting the second-hand (200 shares) he bought before, and bought a total of 25 lots (2500 shares). In Lin Feng's view, these 25 hands are too few. If possible, he really wants to buy tens of thousands of hands, but he also knows that it is impossible. Being able to buy 25 hands is already the father's greatest ability.

Chapter 7 Stock aftermath

In three months, as long as three months later, Lin Feng can have at least about 200,000 cash on hand, and then he can expand his storefront, open a large-scale Internet cafe, and start to implement the plan that has already been brewed in his mind.

"Bell the bell "

"Hello!" Lin Feng has made a lot of calls these past few days.

"Hey, Lin Feng, is it true that your dad said that Yi'an Technology is going to rise to more than 100 yuan?" Aunt's hasty tone was filled with doubt and expectation.

"Uh, aunt, this is a post I read on the Internet. I'm not sure about what it says." Cold sweat broke out on Lin Feng's forehead.

Since his father borrowed money, it seems that all relatives have known that Yi'an Technology is about to skyrocket, and they have inquired about and confirmed. At first, Lin Feng wanted to pull his relatives by the way, but he did not expect that his father told his relatives, and the relatives told his relatives. In this way, the Chu City was full of wind and rain in a few days, and he could go anywhere. I heard investors talking about Yi'an Technology.

If the situation is allowed to go on like this, Lin Feng can't be sure whether Yi'an Technology will continue to soar. After all, the black hand behind the scenes would not allow so many people to take a ride and win a ticket. As big dealers, they can strike out these riders at any time.

These relatives who have lost money will definitely ask themselves to settle the accounts. They don't care who caused all of this, they only care who said the news.

Reluctantly, in order to ensure that Yi'an Technology will not deviate from its historical development trajectory, Lin Feng had to say that everything was posted online, and he could not have any guarantee. However, these relatives seem to have recognized Lin Feng, and they always call to ask once a day.

"Bell the bell "

“Hey!” Lin Feng reluctantly picked up the microphone again.

“Hey, Lin Feng, isn’t it true that your dad said that Yi’an Technology will rise to more than 100 yuan?” This time it was the second uncle’s turn.

“Uh, second uncle, this is a post I read on the Internet. I am not sure about what it says.” Lin Feng had a headache and repeated what he had said over and over again.

Lin Feng lay exhausted on the sofa with a sad expression on his face.

“Xiaofeng, are you still worrying about your aunt and their phone calls?” Lin Qixiong also looked distressed when he saw his son so tired.

“Oh, blame me, I almost told your aunt about them all at once.” Lin Qixiong came over and patted Lin Feng on the shoulder, “Don’t care too much. The stock market is inherently risky, and you just provided a piece of news. They, if they lose money, they can’t blame you. Besides, if they have risen so well now, they have made money early.”

“En” Lin Feng nodded. In fact, I am not worried about whether relatives will lose money. They all bought it at around 32 yuan. No matter how Yi’an Technology falls in the future, they will all make money. What Lin Feng really worries about is whether after this turmoil, Yi’an Technology will be able to rise to around 126 yuan as it did before the rebirth. If it does not rise to the historical price point, all of your plans will be disrupted.

Damn, maybe I shouldn’t do anything that might change the future. The only difference between yourself and everyone in this world is that you have the right to know the future. If the future is changed, what is the difference between yourself? It’s no more than a crowd of sentient beings!

auzw.com

Temporarily throwing aside his anxiety, Lin Feng got up to eat. However, I secretly vowed in my heart that I would never reveal anything that might change the future easily in the future.

In the torment of anxiety, Yi’an Technology finally rose all the way as before its rebirth. After a month of crazy increases, Yi’an Technology rose from 26 yuan to 55 yuan, creating another myth in the Chinese stock market.

Lin Feng’s Internet cafe has also changed from four computers to six in a month. The business is still so good that there is still an endless stream of people who come to play games every day.

Lin Feng’s success also made others in the surrounding envious. The community that originally had Lin Feng’s Internet cafe had three new ones in just one month, but they all had just a few computers just like Lin Feng, the largest one. There are only four computers in Internet cafes. Of course, although there are now four Internet cafes in the community, the business of all Internet cafes is extremely hot, and there are almost no empty machines.

Of course, what Lin Feng has gained this month is not just the hot business in the computer room. Thanks to the success of this investment, his parents' attitude towards themselves has also greatly changed. They seldom intervene in the room, and rest assured that they will leave it to Lin Feng to manage it himself.

In addition to this, the crazy rise of Yi'an Technology in the stock market also made Lin Feng experience a happy trouble. The relatives got their voice from Lin Qixiong before and bought a few lots of Yi'an Technology. Later, although Lin Feng was vague, they sold it for deductible money and made a small profit. But after seeing that the situation was going well, they blamed Lin Feng for his selfishness, and then went into the stock market again with all his strength, chasing Yi'an Technology.

Lin Feng neither opposed nor agreed with the chasing behavior of relatives. Anyway, before breaking through the 120 yuan, they can toss as they like, as long as they remind them to sell before the highest price comes.

"Boss, check out."

A figure just stood up, and someone on the side immediately replaced it, and behind him there were several complaints from people who could not get their seats.

"Here." Lin Feng smiled slightly. The Internet cafe business is so hot now that anyone who dares to invest can make money.

After the checkout, Lin Feng leisurely lay down on the recliner outside the computer. At the end of November, the city of Chu is sunny and cool. It is absolutely pleasant to lie on a recliner and drink a refreshing drink, waiting to collect the money.

Hey, why didn't I think of opening an Internet cafe before I was born again? ——Lin Feng sighed quite a bit.

"Little wind " A thunderous voice awakened Lin Feng.

"Aunt Huang Huang!!" Lin Feng looked at it, and was frightened. He immediately jumped up, not knowing where to put his hands, trying to figure out why Aunt Huang came to him.

"Haha, I'm sorry, you also know that your Aunt Huang's voice is a bit loud, it scares you." Aunt Huang said in a gentle and pleasant voice, but the voice is still not comparable to ordinary people.

"It's okay." Lin Feng said cautiously.

“Come on, Xiaofeng, this is the fruit your Aunt Huang bought you. You passed the birth last month and Aunt Huang forgot about it. Now I will make it up for you. Don't mind!” Aunt Huang puts a large plastic bag in her hand. The fruit mentioned in front of Lin Feng.

“It's okay.” Lin Feng wanted to shirk, but seeing the unquestionable look between Aunt Huang's eyebrows, he instinctively took it. But this “birthday gift”, which was one month late, really made Lin Feng dumbfounded.

Chapter 8 Aunt Huang with a face-changing face

Chapter 8 Aunt Huang with a Changing Face (This chapter is free)

“Xiao Feng, sit down, Aunt Huang just happened to come here today. I heard that you have opened an Internet cafe. Come and have a look.” Aunt Huang pressed Lin Feng on the couch.

Aunt Huang glanced at Lin Feng's Internet cafe inadvertently.

“Aunt Huang, you sit, you sit.” Lin Feng quickly got up and gave the couch to Aunt Huang, and moved the chair out by himself.

“Haha, Xiaofeng, your internet cafe is doing well, so many people.” Aunt Huang smiled faintly.

“Well, it's okay, make do.” Lin Feng didn't know what Aunt Huang was doing here, and said carefully.

“By the way, Shuqi wants to learn computer, can you teach her someday when you have time?” Aunt Huang brought the topic to Huang Shuqi.

“Haha, no problem, as long as Shuqi is free, come to me, I will teach her.” Thinking of Huang Shuqi's cute face, Lin Feng felt happy in his heart.

Half an hour later, Aunt Huang showed her amazing eloquence again, and all the miscellaneous things came out. Lin Feng felt that it was only half an hour. It seemed that she had come for a day trip to Chu City. Aunt Huang's eloquence was really good.

Lin Feng was already impatient, but Aunt Huang was an elder and Huang Shuqi's mother. Lin Feng had to bite the bullet and continue with Aunt Huang.

“Xiao Feng, you also know that Shuqi will be admitted to college next year, right!” Aunt Huang said without waiting for Lin Feng to answer, “We are orphans and widows, life is not easy, and it is hard to pull Shuqi away. She is big, but how should I collect her tuition after she was admitted to the university.” After speaking, Aunt Huang sighed and blamed herself for not being able to take good care of Huang Shuqi.

“Aunt Huang, please don’t say that. Shuqi is a very sensible child. Besides, isn’t there a year left? There will be a way.” Lin Feng tried to comfort Aunt Huang to give her peace of mind.

Before his rebirth, Lin Feng remembered that Huang Auntie only collected the tuition fees for Huang Shuqi after selling the house. Now, in a year’s time, Lin Feng believes that the money to support Huang Shuqi for college will be more than enough. In my heart, Huang Shuqi has always been like a sister.

“Xiaofeng, what if you also open an Internet cafe for Aunt Huang?” Aunt Huang accidentally said the real purpose of this trip.

Lin Feng was taken aback for a moment, and instantly understood. He is very in favor of Aunt Huang opening an Internet cafe. This is an absolutely profitable business. This will not only improve the lives of Aunt Huang’s mother and daughter, but also solve Huang Shuqi’s future college expenses. Just remembering the bad behavior Huang Auntie had done to herself before, she inevitably felt unhappy in her heart, and she instinctively wanted to refuse. But thinking about the plot of Aunt Huang selling a house for Huang Shuqi to study in college in the future, Lin Feng sighed again.

At least from the perspective of a mother, Aunt Huang is the best mother in the world. Just for this maternal love, I don’t need to be so petty. God is willing to give himself a chance to be born again, and he should also give Aunt Huang a chance.

It’s just that there is no need to buy fruit again, and it is also about your own birthday. Let yourself be a “day trip to Chu City”! —Lin Feng shook his head helplessly.

“Okay, Aunt Huang, Internet cafes absolutely make money now, I absolutely agree with you to open it.” Lin Feng said.

“But you Aunt Huang doesn’t understand anything, this” Aunt Huang said with embarrassment.

Lin Feng knew what Aunt Huang didn’t finish saying, so he smiled confidently and said, “Aunt Huang, it’s okay, I understand. You can open the Internet cafe next to my Internet cafe, so that we can have an attention on both sides, and we will focus on it. , To form a scale is also good for our business.”

“Ah, thank you so much, Xiao Feng.” Aunt Huang was overjoyed and took a slap of Lin Feng. “Aunt Huang has thought you are promising since you were a child. That’s right, Aunt Huang didn’t misunderstand the person.”

Lin Feng was staggered by Aunt Huang’s big fan-like palm, and muttered in his heart secretly—you said that I had no prospects before, but now I am more prosperous.

Of course, Lin Feng muttered in his heart, but because of Huang Shuqi's face, how could Lin Feng help. What's more, the number of Internet cafes is just too small, not too many. It doesn't matter if you open one more.

The next day, Aunt Huang took the shop next to Lin Feng and immediately began to decorate.

Three days later, under the supervision and spur of Aunt Huang day and night, the decorators complained and reluctantly finished the work, frankly saying that this was the most urgent and least expensive job they had ever undertaken in their life. In this regard, Lin Feng can only admire Aunt Huang's "ability". If he was renovating himself, he would also ask Aunt Huang for help. Perhaps the Internet cafe could be opened two days earlier.

After the renovation, it coincided that Huang Shuqi was off on Sunday. It's not yet the second semester of high school, homework is not so tight, and I can still take a break occasionally.

"Shuqi, you go to buy a computer with Xiaofeng. Mom won't go if you are exhausted in the past two days. By the way, help Xiaofeng look at the computer room and learn a little experience in managing Internet cafes." Aunt Huang will make the final 25,000 Yuan savings were handed to Lin Feng.

"Well, I got it, Mom." Huang Shuqi was also very excited. She hadn't been out to play in school for a long time, and she was jumping all the way, really unhappy.

Lin Feng naturally didn't have any opinion on this. Originally, he was going to ask his father to take care of the Internet cafe and accompany Aunt Huang to buy a computer. Now Aunt Huang takes the initiative to study the river and ask Huang Shuqi to accompany her to buy a computer. This is not just a hard job, but a beautiful one.

A young and lively girl in the season, bouncing around you, who would refuse.

Lin Feng would not refuse, but enjoyed it very much. From the envy and jealous eyes of passers-by, Lin Feng knew how happy he was now. It's just that for some reason, Lin Feng felt that he seemed to have a strange feeling for Huang Shuqi. This was by no means the simple brother-sister relationship in the past.

Love between men and women? —Lin Feng was taken aback, he is 29 years old this year, and Huang Shuqi is only 16, which is nothing short of sex! Wait, I should be only 19 years old now, only Da Huang Shuqi is three years old.

It seems

Lin Feng didn't dare to think anymore, and quickly took Huang Shuqi's hand into the Computer City.

So slippery! -Lin Feng subconsciously squeezed Huang Shuqi's jade hand gently, smooth and delicate, almost holding it and didn't want to loosen it. Strange, why didn't I feel this before? Before the rebirth, the two did not rarely have this kind of intimacy, but Lin Feng had never felt this way at that time.

Of course, when Lin Feng was 18 years old and failed the college entrance examination, Huang Shuqi was only 15 years old, with a round face and a flat body, far less beautiful and pretty than now, and Lin Feng was immersed in the world of computer games all day. How can I think of these. Now after being reborn, the 29-year-old self has already matured, and naturally will no longer be as insensitive as before.

dirty! —Lin Feng scolded his own dirty thoughts secretly, but he didn't let go of his hand. It's just holding hands, it's nothing, it's normal. -Lin Feng comforted himself.

"Brother Li, I have four more computers according to my configuration last week." Lin Feng has been familiar with the computer dealer Li Zongbao, so he can buy some discounts from his acquaintances.

"Haha, little brother, it seems that business is good. By the way, this beautiful lady is your girlfriend, okay, have a vision!" Li Zongbao stretched out his thumb and praised Lin Feng for his good vision.

Huang Shuqi, who had originally entered the Computer City and looked curious, immediately flushed with shame after hearing Li Zongbao's words. She didn't know what to do. She buried people behind Lin Feng and did not dare to see them.

Men have three good things—beauties, sports cars, and positions.

Regarding Li Zongbao's kind misunderstanding, Lin Feng would naturally not correct him. Huang Shuqi did not excuse him anyway, and Lin Feng was also happy to do so.

"Brother Li, then I'll come over to pick up the goods directly, I'll beg you for everything." Lin Feng finished speaking, and pulled the flushed Huang Shuqi out of the Computer City.

Chapter 9 Expensive Western Fast Food

"Haha, Shuqi, they all like to make jokes, don't mind." Lin Feng explained that she felt very weak, but Huang Shuqi was not angry, but was blushing and lowered her head in silence, which made her even more charming. people.

"Uh, let's go to McDonald's!" Huang Shuqi was silent, and Lin Feng felt embarrassed. When he saw McDonald's opposite the Computer City, Lin Feng took Huang Shuqi and walked away.

Didn't it all say that little girls like McDonald's and KFC? Lin Feng hopes that this can resolve the embarrassment between the two. If just because of Li Zongbao's joke, the two were divided, then Lin Feng would probably regret it.

"Ah, don't, Brother Xiaofeng, this is very expensive, let's not eat anymore, let's just shop around!" At the door of McDonald's, Huang Shuqi, who finally recovered, grabbed Lin Feng, looked around, and whispered .

Lin Feng sighed and shook his head. Since Huang Shuqi is a single-parent family, Huang Auntie has no special skills, so she can only work in a textile factory by selling her labor. Although Huang Shuqi is raised up, the life of the mother and daughter is very poor. The dress Huang Shuqi wears is also from two years ago. Fortunately, when I bought it, I picked the one size bigger. Now I wear it just right.

"Let's go, your Xiaofeng brother treats. Xiaofeng brother has made money now, please eat!" Lin Feng couldn't help but pulled Huang Shuqi into McDonald's.

"Enough, enough, a lot." When Lin Feng ordered food, Huang Shuqi kept pulling Lin Feng's skirt behind Lin Feng, implying that Lin Feng would not order any more, but Lin Feng ordered hundreds of yuan in one breath. The food, the plate is full of piles.

"Waste!" Huang Shuqi pouted and sat across from Lin Feng, without even looking at the food on the table, staring straight at Lin Feng, silently accusing Lin Feng of waste.

Huang Shuqi's accusation made Lin Feng bitterly smile, she was a sixteen-year-old girl, and she looked like a little girl.

"Okay, Shuqi, it's a waste not to eat it. I bought it all, but it can't be returned." Lin Feng grabbed a French fries and put it in his mouth.

"100 yuan is enough for me and my mother to eat for a week." Huang Shuqi also knows that not eating is a real waste, but when he thinks that such a small pile of things cost 100 yuan, he feels distressed. This is too wasteful. ——You can buy a bunch of radishes and cabbage for 100 yuan.

Lin Feng shook his head helplessly. At McDonald's there are more than 100 yuan, but it's really not that much. A set menu costs 28 yuan, and two people are only 56 yuan; another two cups of Xindi cost 13 yuan, which is 69 yuan; and some fried chicken or something. , 100 yuan is not enough at all.

Alas, this foreign fast food is said to be cheap, but compared to China's national conditions, it is still a bit expensive, not the same as the United States, it is just a temporary stuffing stuff. In China, especially in small cities, eating McDonald's and KFC has become a high-end consumption.

and many more! ——Lin Feng's brain suddenly flashed, as if thinking of something, but after thinking about it carefully, he couldn't catch the moment of that flash of light.

"Brother Xiaofeng, why don't you eat it?" Huang Shuqi, who finally compromised, has started to eat foreign fast food that he has never eaten before.

I have to say that fast food like McDonald's is still very tempting to most students. Especially the dessert of Xindi is loved by all girls. No, Huang Shuqi finished eating the new land in front of her, and secretly glanced at the new land in front of Lin Feng's table. When they were young, the two did not stop fighting for one thing, but when they grew up, Huang Shuqi was a little embarrassed.

"Shuqi, take it, I don't like desserts." Lin Feng smiled slightly and handed Xindi over.

"Thank you Xiaofeng brother." Huang Shuqi's joyful gaze once again verified the rumor that girls love desserts.

Lin Feng thought about it again, but still couldn't catch the inspiration, so he stopped thinking about it, and began to concentrate on destroying the burger and fried chicken in front of him.

After the two had eaten McDonald's, Lin Feng decided to buy a piece of clothing for Huang Shuqi. The dress Huang Shuqi is wearing now is too shabby, and Lin Feng is a bit blind to see.

"Let's go, since it's out, I'll buy you some clothes by the way. This is too old." Lin Feng pointed to Huang Shuqi's clothes that he had worn for more than 2 years and said.

"Thank you, Brother Xiaofeng, but I don't have to. The clothes are too expensive. And I usually wear school uniforms at school, and I don't have time to wear them." Huang Shuqi said that he refused to buy clothes, and Lin Feng had no choice but to compromise.

auzw.com After returning to the Computer City, Li Zongbao has installed Aunt Huang's four computers, and after Lin Feng's inspection is completed, he pays and leaves.

"Be careful, be careful." Looking at the four computers that were dragged back, Aunt Huang narrowed her eyes. This morning, I helped Lin Feng watch the Internet cafe and realized that the money in the Internet cafe is so good. 5 computers made 45 yuan in three hours. She worked hard in the textile factory for only 18 yuan a day.

This money is so easy to make! ——Aunt Huang exclaimed, while looking at Lin Feng's smiling face, she was more kind and kind.

“Come on, Xiaofeng will eat first, and then ask you to help install it.” Aunt Huang had already gone to buy roast chicken and preserved egg and lean meat porridge that were only eaten during the Chinese New Year.

“No, Aunt Huang, I just ate outside with Shuqi, you eat first, and I will install the machine for you now, so that you can open the door early to do business.” Lin Feng smiled and shook his head and started debugging the computer.

“You child ” Aunt Huang’s smile became more kind, “Shuqi, are you still hungry? If you are not hungry, go and help your Xiaofeng brother.”

“Yes.” Huang Shuqi obediently responded.

However, although Huang Shuqi wanted to help, looking at the strange computers in the house, she didn’t know where to start. Instead, she interfered with Lin Feng’s normal installation and debugging several times.

“I’m really useless” Huang Shuqi pouted and walked to the corner alone, sulking.

“Shuqi, don’t blame yourself, you can help Brother Xiaofeng when you go to school in the future.” Lin Feng smiled helplessly, walked over and squeezed Huang Shuqi’s nose gently, “Okay, sit here. I can handle this alone.”

“Well, thank you Xiaofeng brother.” Huang Shuqi knew that she couldn’t help much, so she obediently stayed aside, quietly watching Lin Feng continuously install and debug five computers.

Xiaofeng is so handsome when he is serious! And so amazing, so proficient in computers! ——Huang Shuqi suddenly realized that Xiaofeng, who has been playing since childhood, seems to be a little different from usual, and she especially likes to see his expression when he is serious.

Huang Shuqi realized that there seemed to be something in her heart, but she couldn’t describe it.

After a busy afternoon, at the beginning of Hua Deng, Aunt Huang’s Internet cafe finally officially opened. The game fans who had been waiting for a long time on the side immediately rushed in. Although there are four more computers, it is still not enough for the majority of game fans.

“Come on, Xiaofeng, you should be hungry now, let’s eat.” Aunt Huang smiled and brought the three dishes and one soup that she specially bought at the restaurant. The Internet cafe was full when it opened, and Aunt Huang felt as sweet as she was eating honey.

“Oh , there is my favorite cucumber fried ham sausage.” Huang Shuqi quietly watched Lin Feng install the machine all afternoon, and her stomach was already hungry.

“You girl, these dishes are specially used to treat your brother Feng, but you are all alone.” Aunt Huang tapped Huang Shuqi lightly.

“Hee hee, thank you Xiaofeng brother.” Huang Shuqi stuck out her tongue and made a grimace. You’re welcome, and just started eating.

Lin Feng laughed. With Huang Shuqi’s grimacing face, this afternoon’s tossing is not in vain.

“Come on, Xiaofeng, there is nothing to eat, so I’ll just take it.” Aunt Huang handed over a bowl of rice.

“Thank you Aunt Huang.”

“Come on, Brother Xiaofeng, eat pork liver, this is my reward to you.” Huang Shuqi put a chopstick dish to Lin Feng.

“Ha ha”

Chapter 10 Beginning of Clues

After a pleasant dinner, Huang Shuqi automatically asked Ying to take on the heavy responsibility of collecting money from the two Internet cafes.

Regarding this, Lin Feng naturally had no opinion. After a busy afternoon, my tired waist and back aches, so I took the opportunity to take a break. Aunt Huang has to go back to prepare the bed, bedding, boiling water bottle and other things. After all, as soon as the Internet cafe opens, people can no longer walk away, especially at night when someone packs up overnight, and people have to stay here.

Leaning lazily on the recliner, looking at the stars in the night sky, with crisp laughter like a yellow oriole in his ears, and two small hands gently kneading on his shoulders, there is nothing more pleasant in life.

“Boss, settle the account!”

“Come on, wait a minute!” Huang Shuqi hopped over.

“Uh, a total of 7 yuan, no, 6 yuan, hehe, sorry, a total of 6 yuan.” Huang Shuqi embarrassed Lin Feng and stuck out his tongue.

Lin Feng smiled slightly. Huang Shuqi has been wrong several times in this short period of time, but no one will lose his temper with such a cute girl. The only thing that puzzled

Lin Feng was that he often sat on it for a long time as game masters. I don't know how to do it today, and I stopped playing within half an hour after I went up. There were not only one but all of them.

Damn, the drunkard doesn't mean to drink! ——Lin Feng came to this conclusion after observing for a long time. These satyrs all wanted to take the opportunity to get off the plane and get on the plane to checkout.

No, grandma, you can't let you perverts eat tofu. —Lin Feng stood up and waited to replace Huang Shuqi in the past.

“What are you doing, who dares to bully my daughter!” A thunder-like explosion sounded.

When Lin Feng saw it, he was immediately happy.

Aunt Huang saw a group of people surrounding her girl from a distance. She didn't know what had happened. She was anxious, and she didn't care about carrying big and small bags, like a moving wall of meat stepping on the shocking Drums rushed here.

“No one is allowed to bully my daughter.” Huang Auntie shouted in a loud voice, and the men surrounding Huang Shuqi suddenly disappeared. There was no fear of this “human-shaped tyrannosaurus”.

After staring fiercely, Aunt Huang put down the big and small bags on her body.

“Xiao Feng, your dad asked me to bring this to you. It's getting cold now, so I need to add a layer of quilt.” Aunt Huang handed Lin Feng a quilt.

“Shuqi, it's getting late, you go back to bed early, and you have to go to class tomorrow.” Aunt Huang turned her head and smiled at Lin Feng, “Xiao Feng, can you send Shuqi home, please, it's late now, no How safe.”

“En.” Lin Feng naturally had no opinion on this errand.

“Brother Xiaofeng, thank you.” On the way home, Huang Shuqi thanked Lin Feng very seriously.

“Haha, it's okay, haven't we always been neighbors.” Lin Feng smiled and gently touched Huang Shuqi's head.

“No, I thank Xiaofeng for instructing my mother to open an Internet cafe, otherwise I will be admitted to university next year, and my mother will definitely be more worried.” Although Huang Shuqi spends all day studying hard in the pile of books, she is also very clear about the environment at home. The high cost of the university is not what their family can afford.

She is really a filial and well-behaved girl. ——Lin Feng's heart is hot, and his love for Huang Shuqi is even more intense.

"Then you study hard and get admitted to a good university is the best return to Aunt Huang." Lin Feng smiled and patted Huang Shuqi on the shoulder.

auzw.com "Well, I will definitely, I want to rely on the best school." Huang Shuqi clenched her powder fist and said.

Time flies, a month passes quickly, Chu City has also entered December, and the taste of winter is slowly approaching.

This month, although the traffic in the morning has been reduced due to the opening of a large number of Internet cafes, business is still very hot in the three prime times of the afternoon, evening and overnight.

The monthly gross income of six computers in Lin Feng's Internet cafe is 10,080 yuan, the expenditure is 2,130 yuan, and the net profit reaches 7,950 yuan. This is definitely a shocking amount.

Aunt Huang's four computers have gross income of 6720 yuan, expenditure of 2070 yuan, and net profit of 4650 yuan, which is close to the salary income of Aunt Huang in the textile factory for one year.

After borrowing 1,000 yuan from Lin Feng, two Internet cafes, Lin Feng and Aunt Huang, added a computer again. Lin Feng's internet cafe has seven computers, and Aunt Huang's internet cafe has five computers.

"Xiao Feng, come and eat!" Aunt Huang's smile has never been so brilliant. Since Lin Feng failed the college entrance examination, Aunt Huang's attitude towards Lin Feng has never been so amiable.

"Well, thank Aunt Huang." Lin Feng was also polite, and ate after taking the bowl.

This month, Internet cafes have been booming, stocks have continued to rise, and everything in life has been developing for the better. Especially the relationship with Aunt Huang's family is extremely harmonious. Every day Aunt Huang cooks Lin Feng's share, and in the evening Lin Feng will send Huang Shuqi home, who has returned from self-study at night.

In the sky full of stars, walking through that quiet and dim alley, two young boys and girls, wanton romping, cheerful footsteps, every night dotted is so unique.

December 31, 1999, the last day of the 20th century.

“Brother Xiaofeng, what century’s wish are you going to make?” Huang Shuqi asked excitedly on the way home.

Lin Feng smiled indifferently. How could he, a man who was reborn from the 21st century, still make a wish. With his ability to predict the future, Lin Feng no longer needed to make a wish, and pinned his hopes on the ethereal gods and Buddhas.

In this life, Lin Feng only believed in himself, not in ghosts and gods.

“Let’s talk, let’s talk.” Huang Shuqi was reluctant and insisted on Lin Feng to say it.

“Well, I hope that our Shuqi can be admitted to a good university, so that she won’t let Aunt Huang raise her up with so many years of hard work.” Lin Feng said helplessly and said a wish.

“Hehe, Brother Xiaofeng, don’t worry, I will definitely be admitted to college.” Huang Shuqi smiled, then folded her hands, closed her eyes, and said piously, “I hope that Brother Feng can find a beautiful and considerate female. friend.”

Lin Feng listened for a moment, and suddenly felt a sour feeling in his heart.

Maybe I am really just the big brother in her heart! –Lin Feng thought sourly. The fascinating thoughts that had originally appeared in my mind suddenly vanished.

“Let’s go, Brother Xiaofeng!” Huang Shuqi dragged Lin Feng to run after making a wish.

The night of the Thousand Years of the Year passed so plainly, and Lin Feng’s only gain was Huang Shuqi’s wish and a trace of melancholy.

After entering the 21st century, the situation that Yi’an Technology predicted by stock review experts to be stable for the New Year did not appear. Instead, it continued to advance all the way. On the eve of the stock market holiday before the New Year, it broke through the 100 yuan mark in one fell swoop and became the first in China. Stocks that have broken through one hundred yuan.

This month has become a veritable Yi’an Technology Month. The day when Yi’an Technology breaks through 100 yuan is also dubbed Yi’an Day.
