Chapter 21 Personnel changes

Lin Feng did what he thought of, especially when the eleventh European Cup in 2000 had already kicked off, and only the few unpopular ones could make money. Lin Feng remembered that there were two big upsets. One was Turkey's violent defeat of Belgium, and the other was Romania squeezed England into the quarterfinals. For the rest, there seems to be no upset in Lin Feng's memory.

Of course, it's not that you can't bet except for the unpopular, as long as you know the result of each game, you can also bet, and you can definitely make money. However, in Lin Feng's memory, except for France's final overtime loss to Italy, the other impressions were not very deep. And if you are in the game, I'm afraid it will cause unnecessary trouble.

Applying for a visa to go abroad in Chu City in 2000 was not an easy task. It was often delayed for half a month. If you followed the normal procedures, I was afraid to wait for Lin Feng to arrive in the Netherlands-Belgium. The European Cup was over.

Fortunately, the "security management fee" that was handed over to the Lanzhou Police Station last time was finally a bit useful. Under the guidance and communication of Officer Zhang, Lin Feng took only five days to apply for the relevant visa. I have to say that someone is in the officialdom. work.

Of course, it is impossible for Lin Feng to leave like this. "Chufeng Internet City" is now his only career. He is estimated to have left for half a month. If he does not coordinate the work of "Chufeng Internet City", he will come back. It may be a mess.

Lin Feng thought about it and decided not to ask Chu Zhixuan for his help in the Internet City affairs for half a month. Once the agreement was agreed, Chu Zhixuan would not interfere in the Internet City affairs; second, Lin Feng was also afraid that there would be a precedent for this time. , What happens in the future, Chu Zhixuan Hall will be replaced by the emperor, it is not good.

It can be said that Lin Feng did not trust Chu Zhixuan, but Lin Feng did not trust Chu Zhixuan yet. Lin Feng has finally gotten off to a start in his career, so he must not make a mistake. The only people he can trust now are his parents.

After thinking about it again and again, Lin Feng handed over the financial power for the past half a month to his mother. Although her mother hadn't read many books, she could at least care about her money after many years of stalling. Lin Feng invited Liu Yishan again and asked him to help take care of the daily affairs of the “Chufeng Net City”.

Regarding Lin Feng’s request, Liu Yishan nodded in agreement after only a little consideration. He now sits at home and receives a monthly dividend of 6,400 yuan, which makes him very satisfied, but in middle age, sitting at home all day is not a problem, it is too boring. Originally, he was going to find something to do. It happened that Lin Feng asked him to manage the daily affairs of Net City. He was also happy to have something to do, and he said that he would not want a penny.

For Liu Yishan, Lin Feng is more at ease. A typical middle-aged Chinese man seeks stability and peace. Although he is not enterprising, he is more than conservative.

“Brother, I’m going out for half a month this time. If something happens, please bear with me.” Lin Feng still wants to say a polite remark.

“Don’t worry, brother, if your mother is looking for the money and boss Liu manages the Internet City, how can there be trouble.” Chu Zhixuan’s tone was rather sour. Also, he was originally the biggest partner of “Chufeng Internet City” outside of Lin Feng. This time Lin Feng went out for some reason but left the relevant affairs to others, which made Chu Zhixuan very hard to think about.

Lin Feng asked his mother to manage the financial power, Chu Zhixuan can understand, but he invited Liu Yishan to manage the daily affairs of Net City, which made Chu Zhixuan quite uncomfortable. However, the agreement stipulates that he shall not interfere in the daily affairs of Net City, and he can only keep everything in his heart.

Lin Feng also knows that Chu Zhixuan may have troubles, but he is now the largest shareholder of “Chufeng Internet City”. He can hire whoever he is willing to hire. When he is away, he can only hire people he can trust. Regarding Chu Zhixuan, Lin Feng did not distrust him, but he possessed the title deed of Net City and was the actual owner of the Net City store. Lin Feng wanted to entrust everything to him, and he was really afraid that he would take “Chu Feng Net City”. “Swallow it.

After handling everything, Lin Feng temporarily borrowed more than 100,000 yuan from “Chufeng Net City” and embarked on a flight to Belgium.

Whether it was before or after rebirth, this was Lin Feng’s first time abroad. Fortunately, before Lin Feng’s rebirth, he was barely a junior college student who majored in English. Basically, Lin Feng barely had language barriers.

On the plane, Lin Feng had learned that England had beaten Germany 1-0 in the Group A group stage. He can only rush to Brussels to wait for the Belgium vs Turkey match on June 19, which is also the biggest upset of this European Cup. Belgium had the absolute advantage of being able to qualify as long as it was tied, and it was defeated by Turkey 2:0.

Turkey's Hakan-Suk broke out unexpectedly and scored two goals to help Turkey defeat Belgium.

This is also the only time in the history of the European Cup where the host failed to qualify for the European Cup, which caused the biggest upset of this European Cup.

When Lin Feng set foot on Brussels, known as the most beautiful city in Europe, it was already the afternoon of June 19th. At 8:45 in the evening, the host Belgium-Turkey match will start at the Imperial Stadium in Brussels. But Lin Feng obviously can't buy tickets now. Fortunately, for him, this visit is to make money, not to watch the game.

Lin Feng squeezed to the gambling site of the gambling company and swept it at will. Almost everyone bet on Belgium to win or draw, and almost none bet on Turkey to win. But also, no one should dare to underestimate the advantages of local combat when the host is playing at home.

Lin Feng had only 10,000 euros in cash, and he wanted to bet on Turkey to win. The current odds are: Belgium wins 1.85 to 1; draws 2.56 to 1 and loses 1 to 3.52. If Lin Feng bet all his money on Turkey to win, he would have 35,200 euros tomorrow, which would be 3.52 times that overnight. There is no such thing as a profit in the world.

However, Lin Feng accidentally discovered that the game company also offered the odds for the best scorer and the winning team. Lin Feng took a closer look and found that France lost 9 to 2 and Italy lost 6 to 1. Best scorer odds: Mijatović and Kluivert are both at 25 to 1.

Lin Feng wanted to make a fortune today and then bet tomorrow, but the deadline is at 5 o'clock tonight. In desperation, after thinking about it again and again, Lam Fung bet 2,000 euros to bet on France to win, each 2,500 euros for Mijatović and Kluivert to be the best scorer. Invest at least a little insurance. With the remaining 3,000 euros, Lin Feng all-in for Turkey to win.

"3,000 euros all-in for Turkey to win?" The staff at Bocai's outlets repeatedly confirmed. Although this is not the biggest bet today, it is really surprising to bet on Turkey, which is not favored by others.

"Yes, take Turkey." Lin Feng nodded.

"Take it, this is your lottery ticket. If you win it, you can redeem it tomorrow." The staff of the blogger outlet shook his head.

Naturally, Lin Feng wouldn't say much. Before he was reborn, he was sure that Belgium could advance. Who would have expected Turkey to be violent!

bad! Not far after Lin Feng left the gambling outlet, he found out that he had done a very stupid thing. He bought the lottery ticket with all his money. Fortunately, the prize can be redeemed tomorrow, and Lin Feng only needs to survive tonight.

Chapter 22 Target million

On June 20, 2000, local time in Belgium, at 8:45 pm, the battle between Belgium vs Turkey started.

Because all the euros in Lin Feng used to buy lottery tickets, he couldn't go to the bar to buy a bottle of beer. He sat down and watched the game leisurely, waiting for the banknotes to slowly roll into his pocket. Fortunately, in order to welcome this European Cup event, the Brussels city government added several large-screen TVs on the square to watch the Belgian fans who could not go to the scene and let them cheer for Belgium.

Lin Feng is naturally among this group of people, but the object of cheering in his heart is not Belgium, but Turkey, which is destined to win 2:0.

Not surprisingly, Hakan Suk broke out at a critical moment, scoring two consecutive goals to help Turkey defeat Belgium, eliminated the host, and advanced to the quarterfinals.

Amidst the regretful sighs of Belgian fans, Lin Feng's cheers were particularly loud and harsh. Fortunately, the Belgian fans are more sensible and civilized. If they are as popular as the English fans, I am afraid that Lin Feng's cheers after the victory will be very difficult for Lin Feng to leave Belgium.

After the prize was redeemed the next day, Lin Feng's 3,000 euros became 10,560 euros. Lin Feng did not hesitate to put all the money on Romania, the only unpopularity of the next day. Of course, this time Lin Feng did not forget to leave him 200 yuan for living expenses, otherwise Lin Feng would starve to death in Europe before the end of the European Cup.

In this group, Portugal's opponents in the same group have won two games in a row and have steadily advanced, England ranked second in the group with one win and one loss, Romania ranked third in the group with one win and one loss, and Germany ranked fourth in the group with one draw and one loss. They have lost the group. Eligibility appears.

It can be said that the winner of England vs Romania will advance to the quarterfinals. Because of England's scoring advantage, England will advance to the quarterfinals by virtue of the scoring advantage as long as the draw is tied. The odds of this game also fully proved that the outside world has almost no objections to England's qualifying.

England lost 1.45 for a win, 1.12 for a tie, and 2.2 for a loss. From the odds, the outside world is mostly optimistic about England tying Romania.

As the whistle of the match blew, the life and death battle between England and Romania officially started. This time, Lin Feng leisurely bought a bottle of beer and sat in the bar, slowly admiring the battle of life and death, waiting for the banknotes to roll out of his pocket again.

With 23 points in the first half, the Romanian team's No. 13 Chivu crossed into the goal! The ball goes into the net from the far post! [England vs Romania (score 0:1).

As the goal was scored, there was a curse and a violent bang on the table in the bar. In response, the bar owner just frowned, and did not step forward to stop it. It seems that the prestige of English football hooligans is very famous in Europe, and those who wait for it dare not provoke them.

Naturally, Lin Feng would not provoke these infamous football hooligans. He didn't even cheer, just sullenly drink and secretly cheer.

In 40 minutes of the first half, Shearer passed the ball to Ince in the penalty area and was overwhelmed by Chivor.

The goal is scored! Shearer confidently took the penalty kick! [England vs Romania (1:1 41 points in the first half)]

"Boss, let's have a dozen beer." After Shearer equalized the score, the English fans who were still depressed just now boldly let the bar owner serve drinks and celebrated with his surrounding companions.

With 49 points in the first half, Skars passed the ball, Owen swung past the goalkeeper and shot, the goal was scored! [England vs Romania (score 2:1) auzw.com "go! go! go! go! " The English fans in the bar were completely crazy for England, patted the table frantically.

"Boss, two dozen more beers!" The English fans became more excited as they drank.

The bar owner was also very happy and delivered two dozen beers. It seems that as long as England wins, English fans are not only the most enthusiastic fans in the world, but also the most bold and generous fans. No wonder English football hooligans are so notorious, but bar owners from all over the world still welcome these English fans to watch the game.

I have read the news and said that in the 2002 World Cup European group match between England and Greece, Beckenham's final free kick not only saved England, but also saved the European economy. It seems that it is not unreasonable. Just rush to the boldness of the English fans, as long as England wins all the way, the world's beer manufacturers will be happy.

Of course, the only thing I don't like is the local police system. After all, England rarely wins all the way. When England is eliminated, it is time to test the country's police system.

Fortunately, although England is not a world-class player, it is still a football power. If the level is as bad as the Chinese team, I am afraid UEFA should consider whether to ban England from participating. ——Lin Feng thought to himself.

With 4 points in the second half, Romania's No. 8 Montenu scored a long shot! [England vs Romania (score 2:2)]

The "no" crazy England fans couldn't believe it took less than 10 minutes to lead, and they were evened by Romania as soon as they entered the second half.

Lin Feng shook his head, finished the last sip of wine in the bottle, glanced at the frustrated England fans, and turned away. I can't go, now I'm so frustrated in a draw. When England loses and is eliminated from this European Cup, these red-faced English fans don't know what fierce action they will make. It will hurt the innocent, Lin It is better for the wind to leave early.

With 44 points in the second half, Romania won a penalty and made an easy penalty. The Romanian team leads 3:2! [England vs Romania (score 3:2)]

When the final whistle blew, a large area of chaos broke out across Brussels. The source of the chaos is naturally angry England fans. Fortunately, the Belgian police have been fully prepared. Although these out-of-control English fans have caused a lot of riots, they finally did not cause bloodshed, which is a blessing in misfortune.

The next day, after Lin Feng redeemed the prize, he already had 227.92 million euros in hand. However, Lin Feng didn't know much about the next game. Fortunately, France and Italy joined the finals, Lin Feng could not remember wrong.

However, because he couldn't remember the final score, Lin Feng didn't dare to bet all of his funds on winning or tying. In the end, France won the European Championship, and Lin Feng only won a little bit. In total, he had almost 4 in his hands. Million euros.

However, before Lam Fung bet on France to win 2,000 euros, 2 to 9 odds, 2,000 euros become 9,000 euros.

Betting on the top scorer, Lam Fung bet Kluivert and Mijatović, each betting 2500 euros. But it was Kluivert and Milosevic who won the top scorer in the end.

Lin Feng looked at the list of top scorers, his eyes widened, and he almost swallowed Mijatović. Damn, what's the name is not good, what's the name of Vikki, the result is just that word difference, 62,500 euros less. Damn, it's a thousand dollars.

In the end, Lin Fengyi made a total of Euros this time in the European Cup. After deducting the cost of 10,000 Euros, he also earned Euros. Converted into renminbi, there are also millions of dollars.

With this million yuan, Lin Feng believes that he can expand the “Chufeng Net City” again and take his career to a higher level.

Chapter 23 Little gadgets

After returning to Chu City, it was already July 5th, and Lin Feng checked the accounts. Last month’s profit has reached RMB, including the 1500 RMB profit from the bar and the 1700 RMB profit from the coffee machine, and the gross profit of the “Chufeng Internet City” in June reached RMB altogether.

Excluding 8,000 yuan for staff expenses, 1,200 yuan for various taxes, 2,925 yuan for the “security management fee” of the Lanzhou Special Zone Police Station in July, 2,000 yuan for corporate tax (not invoiced), plus 58240 yuan for dividends to the owners of eight Internet cafes, a total of Expenditure 72365 yuan.

But starting this month, the electricity and water bills will also be borne by the “Chufeng Net City”. Lin Feng didn’t know it, but he was taken aback. 195 computers, including air conditioners, actually used 35,208 kilowatt-hours of electricity, 1 yuan per kilowatt-hour, which is 35,208 yuan. The water fee is only less than 40 yuan, which is much cheaper.

In addition, the June “security management fee” is 2925 yuan, the Lanzhou District Neighborhood Committee is sponsored by 1,000 yuan, the fire training fee is 3,000 yuan, and the cigarette money given to police officer Zhang and others, the total expenditure is RMB yuan. .

At the end of the settlement, the net profit in June was Yuan. According to the agreement, this month Lin Feng and Chu Zhixuan began to pay dividends. Chu Zhixuan’s 25% dividend can be allocated to .shuhe.cc yuan. This income not only exceeds the money Chu Zhixuan has made since opening the bookstore for two years, but he also made a small half of the electricity and water bills he paid in these three months. come back.

“Brother, let’s continue to expand the computer.” Chu Zhixuan saw such a huge profit, so naturally he would not deposit the money in the bank. Reinvesting is the wisest choice.

“Well, but this time we won’t use all the money to buy computers, leaving a small sum of money, we will add a small game room on the third floor.” Lin Feng smiled mysteriously.

“Game room?” Chu Zhixuan was taken aback, he didn’t understand why Lin Feng wanted the third floor. The third floor was used by him to stack books before. The space was not large, less than 20 square meters, and it was always used as a warehouse.

“Hehe, brother, you’ll know it then.” Lin Feng didn’t plan to reveal the answer first, he wanted to create a suspense.

After negotiating with Chu Zhixuan, Lin Feng left a fraction of it for later use. The remaining yuan was all used for additional computers, and 30 computers were added again. Now there are a total of 225 computers in “Chufeng Internet City”. In order to ensure air circulation and refreshing, Lin Feng only placed 200 computers on the first floor and 25 computers on the second floor. According to Lin Feng’s estimation, on the premise of ensuring enough space, the two floors can hold up to 450 computers, but this number can basically digest the surrounding source of customers.

After purchasing the computer, Lin Feng also introduced a membership system. As long as you deposit 50 yuan in advance, you can become a member of “Chufeng Internet City”, enjoy a 15% discount, and can regularly enjoy various activities launched by “Chufeng Internet City”.

Lin Feng launched this membership system with two goals: one is to build loyal customers. Although there are no other Internet cafes around now, they will appear again sooner or later, so Lin Feng must preempt the market to occupy the market; the second is to launch it for his future. Prepare for a series of plans.

Lin Feng’s membership system has been welcomed by all students once it was launched. After all, the fee of 3 yuan per hour is still relatively expensive for most students. Although it is only 0.5 yuan per hour, the savings will be more over time. Up. In just three days, “Chufeng Internet City” has 1,500 members, and this number is still growing rapidly every day.

Another unexpected discovery of Lin Feng’s trip to Europe is that during his absence, Liu Yishan managed the Internet cafe very well. Although he has no ambitions to forge ahead in his middle age, he is uniquely stable and peaceful. Composure can easily resolve the contradictions and frictions that occasionally arise in Net City, which happens to be something that Lin Feng does not possess.

Moreover, Lin Feng cannot always devote all his time to “Chufeng Net City”. His career has just started and will definitely continue to grow and develop. Therefore, he must also ask some helpers to help him. It is impossible to win a battle alone.

After negotiating with Liu Yishan, Lin Feng decided to hire Liu Yishan as the administrator of the “Chufeng Internet City” to be responsible for daily affairs. As for money, Lin Feng is responsible for himself. Lin Feng didn’t want his mother to work too hard. Of course, although his mother’s account management would not cause problems, if Lin Feng wanted to invest, there would be more trouble. Therefore, at this stage, Lin Feng does not intend to transfer economic power to others.

After all this was resolved, Lin Feng finally freed up a lot of time. Now that you have 1 million cash in your hand, you can't let it depreciate in your hands. You have to use money to make money and develop your own business.

Perhaps when he was reborn, Lin Feng just wanted to make a sum of money so that he and his family could live without disease and disaster. However, the development of his career during this period not only made Lin Feng's purse bulge, but also gradually changed Lin Feng's thoughts of being small and wealthy. Especially this trip to Europe not only earned 1 million yuan, but also broadened Lin Feng's horizons.

Since I have the ability to make more money, why don't I make it? I want to manipulate the real world like a game like Roman Abramovich (owner of the Premier League Chelsea club, Abramovich for media). ——Lin Feng set up the greatest wish in his life.

Lin Feng believed that he would be able to realize this wish.

“Have you killed your friend with your own hands?”

When everyone came to play the next day, a huge poster was posted outside the “Chufeng Net City”-a dark room with several people standing inside. ——“Have you killed your friend with your own hands?” This sentence appeared in the most eye-catching place.

A sign was posted at the entrance of the stairs leading to the third floor: Kill!
——Welcome to join the killing game.

“Boss, what's this?” The students who came to the game after skipping class early in the morning were immediately attracted by the posters outside and stopped playing games. They ran to Lin Feng and asked non-stop.

“Hehe, this is a reasoning puzzle game invented in Europe and America. It is called 'killing game'. It not only tests people's eloquence, but also tests people's analytical judgment ability. I believe that as long as the winners in this game can win repeatedly, in The society will definitely become a winner.” Lin Feng confuses the game and society, and immediately arouses everyone's interest.

“Boss, boss, when does this game start? How to play?” Everyone rushed to surround Lin Feng.

“Haha, don't worry, it will be open in three days, but for the first time it is only open to members. If you want to play this game, please go to the cashier to register.” Lin Feng pointed to the cashier.

“Miss, I want to register, I want to register.” Everyone hurried to the cashier counter, rushing to register, making the cashier lady messy. No way, the outside posters said it was too tempting, and Lin Feng's explanation was half hidden and half exposed, which made everyone itch, and it was strange if it was not in a hurry.

Looking at the people rushing to sign up, Lin Feng knew that the "killing game" launched this time would be a hit. Lin Feng did not know whether there were "killing games" in other parts of the country at this time, but Chu City launched the killing game in 2005, and Lin Feng launched it in 2000, which will surely set off a round of "killing fever" in Chu City.

As for the "killing game" only opened three days later, Lin Feng first is to sap everyone's appetite; second, he has been stepping up the training of referees in these two days. Lin Feng cannot be a referee by himself. It is really overkill to tie Lin Feng here. Third, Lin Feng wants to launch a "killing club" here. Only members of the "Chufeng Internet City" can enjoy this game, in order to boost the business of the "Chufeng Internet City".

Internet cafes are definitely the easiest industry to make money now. Although there are no other Internet cafes in the Lanzhou Special Zone to compete with the "Chufeng Internet City", Lin Feng must plan ahead. And compared to the urban area, due to the successive openings of several large Internet cities, the price of Internet cafes has dropped to 2 yuan per hour. "Chufeng Internet City" still maintains the price of 3 yuan per hour, which has caused most students to complain. The launch of such a free game that only members can enjoy can greatly reduce their resistance to the price.

Just when Lin Feng was about to do a big job, a phone call came.

Chapter 24 Mental transformation

Chapter 24—Mind Transformation

"Hey, Brother Xiaofeng?" Huang Shuqi's sweet voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Shuqi?" Lin Feng was taken aback. He didn't expect that the college entrance examination was about to go in three days, and Huang Shuqi would call himself.

"What's wrong, Shuqi? Did something happen?" Lin Feng asked concerned.

"Hehe, can't you call Brother Xiaofeng if you are fine!" Huang Shuqi chuckled, and then said weakly, "Brother Xiaofeng, can you come out now? I have something to ask you."

"Well, then we still meet at the McDonald's we visited last time." Lin Feng thought about it and decided to make an appointment at McDonald's. The last time I was there, my mind had a glimpse, but I couldn't remember what the idea was. I might find it again this time.

Lin Feng pinched the time to McDonald's. As soon as he entered the door, he found Huang Shuqi sitting there alone, bowing her head not knowing what she was thinking.

"Shuqi, come, this is the new place you love to eat." Lin Feng went to the counter to buy a cup of Xindi, smiled and walked to Huang Shuqi's side.

"Thank you, Brother Xiaofeng." Huang Shuqi smiled slightly, took the new ground, but didn't eat it, just kept stirring in the cup with a spoon.

Lin Feng frowned, knowing that Huang Shuqi must have something on his mind.

"What's wrong? Shuqi, is there anything I can't tell your Xiaofeng brother?" Lin Feng asked in a slow tone.

"Uh" Huang Shuqi looked at Lin Feng, then lowered her head.

"What's wrong? No matter what, you can tell Brother Xiaofeng." Lin Feng smiled slightly and said encouragingly.

"Uh, Brother Xiaofeng, I actually helped my mother ask Brother Xiaofeng something" Huang Shuqi hesitated for a long time, and said with a look of shame.

"Internet cafes are not doing very well recently, right?" Lin Feng frowned, vaguely guessing Aunt Huang's plan.

"Uh, it's not bad. There are still many people playing every day, but they pay a little more tax and the price has dropped to 2 yuan. My mother said that my mother said that she could invest in Brother Xiaofeng's Internet City again?" Huang Shuqi both hands playing with the corners of his clothes constantly, a pretty face flushed red.

Huang Shuqi also knew that her mother's request was a bit excessive. When Lin Feng asked his mother to buy a share, his mother refused Lin Feng twice for 2000 yuan. Now that the business is not working, she wants to buy a share. This is a bit too much. Huang Shuqi herself felt that this request was too rude, but was asked by her mother, Huang Shuqi had to bite the bullet and plead with Lin Feng.

When Lin Feng heard this, his heart was furious. Before, I wanted to let Aunt Huang buy shares, but was pushed back and forth. For the immediate benefit of that mere 2,000 yuan, I gave up the long-term benefits of joining my own network city. Now the Internet cafe business is not good, and I want to join again. What do you think of me, the vegetable garden? Come and leave if you want!

Lin Feng smiled furiously. —Am I being so bullied! Thinking of the faces of the relatives on both sides of his parents over the past two months, Lin Feng felt even more indignant. People are good at being deceived. In terms of personality, he inherited his father's inheritance, and he was too easy-going, which led to this situation. This is absolutely impossible, this character is definitely not suitable for working hard in the market. If you still want to start a career, you must change your character.

Lin Feng drank the large glass of Coke in his hand and placed it heavily on the dining table. Huang Shuqi was surprised by the dull voice.

From now on, if a person respects me a foot, I will respect others; if a person loses me a point, I will lose him ten. ——Lin Feng clenched his fist and said grimly.

“Brother Xiao Xiaofeng, are you okay? Don’t be angry. I, I know my mother’s request is too much. I won’t mention it...” Huang Shuqi was frightened by Lin Feng’s hideous face, and said with a pale face.

auzw.com Alas . Seeing Huang Shuqi’s panic look, Lin Feng sighed secretly. This matter was caused by Aunt Huang, what is the relationship with Huang Shuqi? The so-called resentment has its head and the debt has its head. If you want to lose your temper, you shouldn’t be angry with Huang Shuqi. What’s more, what the shopping malls pay attention to is emotions and anger, and it seems that they are still too shallow. If you want to work hard in the business sea, you still have a lot to learn.

“Haha, Shuqi, it’s okay, just now Xiaofeng Brother thought of some unpleasant things. But Aunt Huang’s joining.” Lin Feng paused, witnessing Huang Shuqi looking forward to three points, three points of anxiety and four points of shame, Lin Feng Tuer felt soft again, but thinking about the hatefulness of Aunt Huang, his heart suddenly became hardened. “Now Xiaofeng’s Internet City has passed the bottleneck of the initial stage of development and has entered a mature and stable period. Aunt Huang, please join us. Brother Xiaofeng can’t agree. So, Shuqi, I’m really sorry.”

“It’s okay, Brother Xiaofeng, it was because my mother was too much. When Brother Xiaofeng asked her to join in, her mother didn’t agree, so naturally it won’t work anymore.” Huang Shuqi smiled in relief.

But Lin Feng could see that there was more disappointment in his smile. Aunt Huang’s Internet cafe’s business is directly related to Huang Shuqi’s future college tuition, as well as her mother and daughter’s living expenses. If the profit of the Internet cafe continues to decline, this will not bode well for Huang Shuqi’s future academic career.

Lin Feng shook his head helplessly. In fact, it’s not a big deal if you agree to it. It’s just so immortal. Yesterday Lin Feng just rejected Chu Zhixuan’s request to join his relatives. Today, he went back and told Chu Zhixuan that he had a relative who wanted to join. This made Chu. What Zhixuan thinks, this is bound to cause friction between him and Chu Zhixuan.

Although Lin Feng is a major shareholder, and the contract also states that Chu Zhixuan shall not interfere in the daily affairs of “Chufeng Internet City”, the storefront of “Chufeng Internet City” belongs to Chu Zhixuan after all. The so-called “Chu” side is not considered. It depends on the “store”, Lin Feng didn’t want to fall out with Chu Zhixuan now. Especially before going to Europe, Lin Feng hired Liu Yishan to manage the Internet cafe, which has made Chu Zhixuan a little unhappy, and now it is not easy to arouse Chu Zhixuan’s dissatisfaction.

However, this incident also reminded Lin Feng. Now his life is in the hands of Chu Zhixuan, although it was stated in the original contract-“As long as Lin Feng opens an Internet cafe here, Chu Zhixuan can’t take back the store for any reason. “This one, but things are unpredictable in the world, you may not know what will happen, the best way is to take everything in your own hands. It seems that the focus of this period of time, in addition to opening the “killing game club”, is to solve the problem of the “Chufeng Net City” storefront.

Chu Zhixuan’s unhappiness and Huang Shuqi’s sadness, which is the lighter and the heavier, didn’t have to think about it, Lin Feng knew how to choose. Even if Aunt Huang’s Internet cafe goes bankrupt in the future, Huang Shuqi’s tuition fee and Lin Feng can easily take out. What’s more, although the profits of Internet cafes are now much lower than before, they are far stronger than those of working people. With 8 computers, no matter how few they are a month, there will be at least 3,000 yuan in profit.

“Hehe, Brother Xiaofeng, I will have the college entrance examination in 3 days. When I finish eating at Xindi, will you accompany me out for a walk?” Huang Shuqi stopped mentioning joining, chuckled, “Brother Xiaofeng, Xindi is really delicious, but it’s a bit too expensive. If it could be cheaper, it would be great!”

Lin Feng’s heart warmed, such a considerate girl is simply an angel in the world. No, it’s his angel.

what! and many more! —— Huang Shuqi’s words made Lin Feng’s heart suddenly flashed with aura, and the aura flashed in his mind when he came to McDonald’s last time.

“Shuqi, what did you just say?” Lin Feng asked eagerly.

“Just now?” Huang Shuqi was taken aback for a moment, then her pretty face blushed, and she twitched and said, “The family said they wanted Brother Xiaofeng to accompany them for a walk.”

“The next sentence?” Huang Shuqi was intimidated by Lin Feng’s slightly rude attitude, but seeing that Lin Feng seemed to be really in a hurry, she couldn’t ignore Lin Feng, and said with a small mouth, “People say that Xindi is delicious, but too expensive. , If it could be cheaper.”

“Haha, that’s it, I think of what the inspiration is always flashing in my mind!” Lin Feng laughed, stepped over, holding Huang Shuqi around for a few times, until Huang Shuqi couldn’t bear the teasing gaze of the people around. Huang Shuqi put down Huang Shuqi only when his face flushed with shame and struggled ceaselessly.

“Brother Xiaofeng, what are you doing?” Huang Shuqi was ashamed to not look around. Lin Feng’s actions just now made them the focus of McDonald’s, which is too shameful for Huang Shuqi, who has just entered the early age of love.

“Haha, Shuqi, I agreed to join Huang Shuqi. But it is not joining my network city, but joining the new business that I am about to create.” Lin Feng was overjoyed, and he didn’t pay attention to Huang Shuqi’s shame, and agreed with excitement. Aunt Huang’s joining matters.

“Ah, Brother Xiaofeng, you promised your mother to join.” Huang Shuqi was also taken aback. Unexpectedly, Lin Feng agreed to this extremely unreasonable request. It would be good for her to go back in this way, otherwise her mother’s complaints would be indispensable.

“By the way, Brother Xiaofeng, you said you didn’t join your Internet cafe. What is that for joining?” Huang Shuqi recalled what Lin Feng had just said at the moment.

“Hehe, this is a secret, you will know it in the future. Let’s go, I will accompany you out for a stroll.” Lin Feng smiled mysteriously and did not answer.

“Huh, mean!” Huang Shuqi’s muttered Lao Gao, dissatisfied with Lin Feng’s pretending to be mysterious.

“Haha, let’s go!” Lin Feng gently scratched Huang Shuqi’s nose, stretched out his hand to hold Huang Shuqi’s catkin and walked out.

Chapter 25 Recruitment

Chapter 25 Recruitment

After parting with Huang Shuqi, Lin Feng returned to the “Chufeng Net City” to prepare for the “killing game”. As for the plan that flashed up at McDonald’s, Lin Feng decided to put it aside for now.

This is a big plan that involves a lot of things, and Lin Feng is still not capable of doing it well. The current focus is to stabilize the customer source of “Chufeng Net City” first, solve the problem of “Chufeng Net City” storefront, and then implement this big plan.

The “killing game” is now a completely unfamiliar game to the Lanzhou Special Zone and even Chu City. The residents of Chu City have not even heard of it, let alone playing it, so Lin Feng has to do all the work himself. From training referees to room layout, to the introduction and printing of game flow rules, all Lin Feng must personally experience, which makes Lin Feng feel overwhelmed. Especially thinking of setting up a “killing game club” in the future, it will definitely be more busy then, Lin Feng decided to hire an assistant and ask a few people to help him.

If you want to recruit talents, you must set up at least one company so that you can become famous. Otherwise, just write a sign to recruit, which makes Lin Feng feel that he is no different from those swindlers who cheat money and scam * through recruitment.

After thinking about it, Lin Feng entrusted an intermediary company to help register a company, Lin’s Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd., with a registered capital of 1 million yuan.

There is an advantage to entrusting an intermediary company to apply for a business license, which can save a lot of time and energy. As long as a little money, the intermediary company can help you get your business license in the fastest time. This cycle is generally about 15 days.

Due to limited funds and Lin Feng has never established a company as a boss, he intends to temporarily recruit two employees. An accountant and a personal assistant. The job advertisement was hung up that night, and many people came to apply for the job the next morning.

Since he did not prepare a recruitment office, Lin Feng used the reception room of the “Chufeng Internet City” as a temporary recruitment office. Sitting on the seat of the recruitment company, looking at the applicants one by one, most of them are recent graduates of the nearby Chu City University, Lin Feng feels a little proud.

What about high education, what about college students, it is not about my boss who only graduated from high school for an interview.

Accounting is now necessary for Lin Feng. With the development of his own business, whether it is “Chufeng Internet City” or “Lin’s Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd.” in the future, the amount of money handled by Lin Feng will become larger and larger. Feng went to check the accounts, settle accounts, and settle accounts personally. Then Lin Feng had to count forever.

Fortunately, it was very simple to hire an accountant. After paying 2,000 yuan a month’s salary, Lin Feng easily hired a regular accountant from a large state-owned enterprise in Chu City. He was experienced and had no wrong records. If you hire such an accountant in a developed city, your monthly salary will not be less than 8,000 yuan. Unfortunately, in Chu City, Lin Feng’s 2,000 yuan salary has doubled her original salary of 1,000 yuan. To be able to get far more wages than state-owned enterprises in his hometown, this is already a very good treatment for the accountant surnamed Zhang.

Personal assistant, Lin Feng is really a bit difficult. He hopes to hire an all-rounder who understands everything. As long as he comes up with an idea or plan, the other party can meticulously implement it, and can make up for the loopholes and deficiencies he put forward. But this kind of talent is hard to find, and if you really want to have this kind of talent, it's not the one currently invited by Lin Fengneng.

After interviewing several recent graduates of the secretarial department of Chu City University, Lin Feng shook his head straight. Although their academic qualifications and conversation skills are good, Lin Feng now hopes to find a personal assistant who can help him with practical tasks, rather than a secretary sitting there answering the phone. This kind of secretarial is not that Lin Feng doesn't need it, but that Lin Feng has not yet reached that stage. Now I invite it, and I can only put it there as a bottle, which is of no practical use.

Lin Feng doesn't have the capital yet to invite a bottle to put it there, maybe in the future. When the time comes, I will invite seven secretaries to sit in front of the general manager's office. Every day, I will be a new face. How cool! Educational qualifications, starting with an undergraduate degree, the appearance should be school-level, the figure should be s-level, and the voice should be sweet and deadly. —Lin Feng thinks a little badly.

Shaking his head, leaving these evil thoughts behind, Lin Feng shouted, "Next."

Maybe I shouldn't limit the academic qualifications, as long as I have practical work experience. —Lin Feng wondered whether he should modify the recruitment conditions.

"Hey, are you a master's degree student from Peking University?" Lin Feng was planning to recruit someone with practical work experience. Unexpectedly, when he opened his resume, he turned out to be a master's degree student from Peking University.

Peking University-Master of Business Administration! This title shocked Lin Feng.

auzw.com Tsinghua University, Peking University. These two top universities in China hold an irreplaceable position in the hearts of all Chinese people. All students are proud of being admitted to Tsinghua University and Peking University. During the college entrance examination, Lin Feng also imagined the two dream halls of Tsinghua University and Peking University. It is a pity...

Lin Feng looked at people subconsciously, and his eyes suddenly lit up.

"Well, I won't graduate next year, so this time I'm just taking a part-time job in my hometown during the summer vacation." The candidate from Peking University is a girl, delicate and pretty, with light makeup, and sitting there quietly without saying much. But the self-confidence in that femur clearly sends a signal to Lin Feng that I am your best choice.

Lin Feng frowned. He hoped that he would hire a personal assistant who could work for a long time, not just a short-term job for two months. Instinctively want to refuse, but when I think that the other party is a master of business administration from Peking University, those who can go to Peking University must have real talents. Although I have laid the foundation now, I rely more on the ability of “unexplored prophet”. I really don't know how to run a company. There are so many things to learn.

Whether a company can develop and grow, the most important thing is management. — Lin Feng decided to hire this talented student from Peking University first, at least he could learn a lot from her.

But Lin Feng really couldn't figure out why the other party was willing to be in such a small company as himself. Although he didn't know what the other party was trying, and he had nothing to make the other party covet, Lin Feng decided to ask first.

Caution is the boat!

“Uh, Liu Yingying is right. I only have one question. With your academic qualifications, you can go to many places even if you are just a summer job. Why come to my small company.” This is something that Lin Feng couldn't understand. This kind of talent will never be his turn, a micro company with a named general manager just established, or a company that hasn't got a business license yet.

“I came to apply for three purposes. First, I am from Chu City, so I want to find a job in Chu City during the holidays. Second, I heard that General Manager Lin has set the current foundation at a weak age. It is worth learning from me. Moreover, I have annexed eight Internet cafes. The business methods of small business owners are definitely a classic case.” Although Liu Yingying's tone was admired, Lin Feng felt awkward no matter how she heard it.

“Three, there is another purely personal reason, I don't want to say it now, I will naturally tell you later.” Liu Yingying glanced at Lin Feng and said.

Personal reasons? -Lin Feng was taken aback, does she like me? Lin Feng shook his head. He didn't think this talented student from Peking University would fall in love with him when he first met. After thinking about it, Lin Feng couldn't think of a reason, so he didn't even think about it. It doesn't matter to her, as long as she has the real ability to learn.

But how much should this salary be paid? Lin Feng really didn't have a standard in his mind. When he opened it high, he didn't have enough funds. When it opened low, he was afraid that Liu Yingying would say that she insulted her.

“Then the salary you asked for?” Lin Feng asked hesitantly.

“I don’t want much. A monthly salary of 2,000 yuan is enough for living.” Liu Yingying said lightly.

“Well, when can you start to work?” Lin Feng no longer hesitated, and immediately decided to hire Liu Yingying as his personal assistant for two months. Although 2,000 yuan a month’s salary is definitely a high salary in Chu City now, Lin Feng feels that it is worth it compared to the other party’s high education.

“It’s okay now.” Liu Yingying got up, Shi Shiran said, “Then where is our company’s office? Is there any future development plan? This killing game is also proposed by Lin President? Is there a plan? I can watch See?”

Although Liu Yingying’s words from President Lin made Lin Feng feel particularly comfortable, the next question after another made Lin Feng sweat. I have always thought of what to do, and how can there be any written documents. Especially now that I have established a company and become the general manager, but I have never been conscious of being a general manager, and I haven’t really thought about the company’s office issues until now.

At the moment when Liu Yingying reminded him, Lin Feng realized that regardless of whether the “Lin’s Entertainment Co., Ltd.” would continue to operate, he had to allocate an office for himself, at least an office for the accountant.

“Well, the first thing is to assist me to rent an office.” Lin Feng issued the first order after becoming the general manager.

Liu Yingying frowned slightly, but said nothing, and followed Lin Feng out to find a suitable office location.

Chapter 26 Don’t bully

In the afternoon, Lin Feng rented a storefront to temporarily serve as the office of Lin’s Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd. However, the office where Gang Zu came down, obviously can’t work immediately. In addition to a slight renovation, various office appliances must be purchased. Of course, a telephone must be installed. Otherwise, it would be too shameful for a company to say that it doesn’t even have a phone.

“Liu Yingying, I’ll leave the rest of the work to you. This is 20,000 yuan, you can see what office supplies you need, and you can buy it back.” Lin Feng is also going to work on the “killing” related matters. There is really no time to waste time on what office supplies to buy.

Liu Yingying frowned, and instinctively wanted to refuse. ——I think I have a master’s degree in Business Administration of Peking University. I didn’t come to work for you as a small job. If it weren’t for..., huh, would I come to your small company that doesn’t even have a business license?

“Uh, I know that this is a bit wronged for you, a graduate student of the Department of Business Administration of Peking University, but since you are a talented woman of Peking University, there is no reason why this simple thing can’t be done right!” Lin Feng knew what Liu Yingying wanted to say, but didn’t wait for her to speak. , First blocked Liu Yingying’s mouth with words.

“No-question-question!” Liu Yingying also did not expect to be run by Lin Feng, opened her mouth, but didn’t know what to say, and finally had to gritted her teeth and took the money to buy office supplies.

Haha! ——Lin Feng’s heart was secretly refreshed as Liu Yingying was leaving with anger. Just now when negotiating to rent a shop, Liu Yingying looked contemptuous and disdainful, which made Lin Feng extremely unhappy. In particular, Liu Yingying prided herself on being superior, and did not put Lin Feng in the eyes of the boss, which made Lin Feng even more uncomfortable. Therefore, just a deliberate run on Liu Yingying.

Are you not a talented girl at Peking University? You can’t even do things that passerby A can do well, right?

As for giving Liu Yingying 20,000 yuan, Lin Feng was not afraid that she took the money and ran away. When Liu Yingying filled in the employee information, Lin Feng had secretly checked her ID card, and she was indeed a native of Chu City. As long as a native of Chu City wants to run away with money, Lin Feng can directly notify Officer Zhang to arrest people. The monthly offerings are not for nothing. Moreover, Liu Yingying’s unique arrogant temperament cannot be faked. Lin Feng believes that she will not do such things for a mere 20,000 yuan.

After Liu Yingying left, Lin Feng also began to busy with the trivial things related to “Killing”. Two days later, while Liu Yingying was still struggling to renovate and purchase office appliances, Chu City may be the country’s first “Killing Bar” officially opened.

The “killing game” limits the number of players to be in the range of 11-16. Among them, the number of players is 11-14, with 3 police and 3 killers; 15-16, with 4 police and 4 killers, and the rest are civilians.

The rules of the game are also very simple. The duty of the police is to find the killer and lead the civilians to a referendum on the killer; the task of the killer is to find the police and kill them when it is dark; the purpose of the civilians is to help the police to decide the killer by referendum, and civilians are not allowed at any time. Help the killer deliberately.

For the specific process of the game, Lin Feng early issued a printed leaflet to everyone in the past three days. Therefore, in the first round of the game, except for everyone who was a little unfamiliar and jerky in the first game, the game was quite satisfactory, which made all the people involved in the game so addicted. After the end of the round, no one wanted to leave at all, as if the child could not get it. To be like a beloved toy, I want to continue playing the next round.

auzw.com However, Lin Feng did not do what they wanted, but changed the next group of people. This is also a helpless choice. After all, there are too many people signing up, but this game can only be attended by so many people at a time.

The 16 players in the first round regrettably left “Kill”, but they told others about the fun of the game, which further evoked the fun of other people and went to the cash register to sign up. As Lin Feng only develops for members for the time being, the number of members of the “Chufeng Internet City” has surged again.

The popularity of “Kill Let’s” strengthened Lin Feng’s confidence in the “Killing Club”. I have rented four stores in a row. This time, I will launch four “killers” at once to form a killing club, so that the number of people in the game can reach 64 people at a time. Although it is still far from meeting everyone’s demand for games, this is not a persistently popular industry like Internet cafes. After passing the initial freshness and mystery, this craze will slowly cool down. At that time, a long-term stable industry will be formed, but the profits will not be so high.

However, adding four “killers” at one time, the workload and trivial things in it, once again caused Lin Feng to be very busy, wondering whether he should recruit more assistants.

At this moment, Liu Yingying seemed to be busy with office supplies purchasing and simple decoration of the office, and she went straight to Lin Feng.

“This is the invoice for the decoration, totaling 13,280 yuan; 1100 yuan for the application to open the phone; office supplies, 56,000 yuan in total.” Liu Yingying coldly handed Lin Feng a stack of invoices, still feeling angry that Lin Feng took her as her. The little worker called, “I have paid for the decoration and phone calls, but the office supplies are still 50,380 yuan short, and the workers are waiting for you to check out.”

Lin Feng frowned when he heard that office supplies actually cost 56,000 yuan, which is too much! According to Lin Feng’s idea, buying three sets of tables and chairs, a file cabinet, a little ballpoint pen, a file bag, etc. is enough, and at most it will cost more than 10,000 yuan. As a result, a huge amount of 110,000 yuan was actually incurred right now, which made Lin Feng unacceptable.

“You...you...” Lin Feng pointed to Liu Yingying and was speechless.

“If you buy something that you don’t need, you are responsible for returning it.” Lin Feng was really annoyed, and he didn’t care about the boss’s face, so he hurriedly walked to the office of “Lin’s Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd.” .

Humph, who told you to use me, a talented student at Peking University, as a job. —After Lin Feng left, Liu Yingying's mouth showed a smug mockery. —But all I buy are necessary things, I see what you scold me.

Liu Yingying also followed Lin Feng to the office. She had to take a good look at Lin Feng's distressed look, and make her feel like being a small worker for the past five days.

"When you look at you, you are Mr. Lin. Look, how about these tables and chairs. They are all top-quality solid wood covers. They are absolutely textured and vigorous. They are very suitable for young talents like you. There are also paper shredders and photocopiers. They are all famous brands, absolutely durable, and..."

As soon as Lin Feng entered the office, a boss-like person surrounded him. Before Lin Feng could speak, the boss-like middle-aged man began to introduce his products endlessly.

Chapter 27 Proud Peking University Talented Girl

Lin Feng was dizzy. The middle-aged man was really eloquent. After a crackling introduction, while his face was drooling, Lin Feng finally figured out the situation.

The three sets of tables and chairs are made of solid wood. The tables and chairs of Liu Yingying and Accounting cost 3,500 yuan each, but the one set by Lin Feng is a full 8,888 yuan. This made Lin Feng feel distressed, and he almost dragged the middle-aged man back on the spot.

However, under the persuasion of the middle-aged man, Lin Feng was really not good at tearing down his face and uttering the return of the goods. In particular, the style of the table and chair is extremely popular with Lin Feng, and its momentum and texture are obviously better than the other two sets of tables and chairs. It is obvious at a glance that it is the table and chair for managers.

Forget it, if you make millions in Europe anyway, just treat yourself as a reward. —Lin Feng secretly comforted himself.

Liu Yingying smiled triumphantly behind her back. She picked out this set of tables and chairs for Lin Feng for a long time. It is definitely suitable for young men like Lin Feng who have made a living. The most important thing is that the price is expensive, but it is not. It is too expensive for Lin Feng to bear. This price is just enough to make Lin Feng bleed once, and he can't tear his face to say the return of the goods. In short, Lin Feng can do nothing.

After reading the tables and chairs, Lin Feng went to see the photocopier. Canon's, black and white digital copier. This brand Lin Feng still likes it better. Look at the price on the invoice, 7500 yuan, which is not expensive. —This need is worth 7500 yuan.

After the establishment of the company, any plans or actions must be recorded in writing, and it is definitely not possible to speak the vernacular to the previous empty words.

Paper shredder, 700 yuan. This made Lin Feng quite reluctant, wouldn't it be better to just tear it with his hands! Now such a small company needs a paper shredder, and there are no confidential documents worth stealing. The real secrets are in my mind, but this cannot be stolen.

The middle-aged man was observant, and when he saw that Lin Feng didn't want a paper shredder, he hurriedly said, "Mr. Lin, if this paper shredder is purchased with a photocopier, I will give you a 30% discount."

"30% off?" Lin Fengyi added it up to only 490 yuan. Looking at his luxurious set of tables and chairs, Lin Feng felt that 490 yuan for a paper shredder would be good. Those that are not very useful now will definitely be needed in the future.

hp1000 laser printer, 1400 yuan, there is nothing to say about this, it is necessary.

3 computers, 18,000 yuan, are also necessary.

File cabinet, 800 yuan, there is nothing to say about it, it is definitely needed.

The rest, such as drinking fountains, fax machines, sofas, coffee tables, etc., are all necessary things no matter how you look at them. The total amount is more than 10,000 yuan. Although it makes Lin Feng a bit painful, it is necessary to use. I want to retire. Can't return.

Finally, after silently scanning the office, Lin Feng had no choice but to pay the balance. Among these office supplies, apart from my own set of 8888 yuan luxury desk, none of them are redundant, and the price is also the market price. What's more, the middle-aged man also said that he gave away some potted plants for office makeup for free.

After thinking about it, Lin Feng could only comfort himself in the end, it was all worthwhile. The small money paid today is for the inflow of big money tomorrow.

However, one million went to nearly 100,000 in a blink of an eye, and the money was too careless. –Lin Feng secretly shook his head.

"Well, what I bought are all necessities!" Liu Yingying walked over with a smile, but her tone was full of teasing.

Lin Feng frowned, and he didn't talk to him so as to make himself uncomfortable. This set of 8888 yuan luxurious desks clearly shows that Liu Yingying used excuses to fix herself, but she still couldn't happen. Who told me to catch it at a glance!

auzw.com”Well, I’m done here. Go and help me. I can’t do enough for the four ‘killers’.” Lin Feng staged a scene of sunrise in the east and rain in the west. The identity of the general manager ordered.

Liu Yingying’s pretty face stretched, and Liu Yingying was particularly uncomfortable with Lin Feng’s desire to use her as a laborer.

“Wait, I want to talk to you about a question first.” Liu Yingying sat down in a hurry, “I’m here to be an assistant, not a job applicant.”

Lin Feng frowned. At the beginning, I was willing to hire this highly talented student from Peking University, mainly because of her academic qualifications, and I hope to learn some management experience from her. Unexpectedly, at the beginning, I caused so much trouble for myself.

“But I only need you to do this for my current job.” Lin Feng was not happy, and his tone was not very polite.

“Really, if that’s the case, then why should you ask me for 2,000 yuan? There are a lot of people doing this job in Chu City for 600 yuan.” Liu Yingying said in a disdainful tone, “I am a master of business administration at Peking University. Coolies on the top.”

As soon as Liu Yingying finished speaking, Lin Feng’s expression changed. These words deeply stimulated Lin Feng who failed the college entrance examination. Although Liu Yingying just said casually, it made Lin Feng really insightfully.

“Since you are a dignified student of Peking University, why should you come to my small company to apply. Now I only need assistants who can do practical work, and I don’t need people who can play with their identities all day. If you don’t want to, please feel free. Pay me for these five days. I’ll let Accountant Zhang settle with you.” Lin Feng said lukewarm.

“You...” Liu Yingying’s face flushed red. In Peking University, one of the best ivory towers in China, she has always been the girl of the sky. She has never been so angry. If it weren’t for her father, she would Do you suffer from this idleness?

“I’m going to be busy now. If you don’t come, I will assume that you quit automatically, and I will hire another employee.” Lin Feng didn’t have time to talk to Liu Yingying, got up and left.

Lin, you wait for me. If this lady does not let you beg me later, my last name will not be Liu! ——Liu Yingying gritted her teeth and went out behind Lin Feng.

Lin Feng secretly revealed a triumphant smile, which could make this talented woman of Peking University temporarily succumb, which is definitely a great honor. However, Lin

Feng also secretly guarded herself. A talented student at Peking University, she would definitely have a plan to accept such a bird's air, but why did she come here?

In the next few days, Lin Feng didn't care about the plot behind Liu Yingying. He was so busy all day that he was dizzy. But what surprised Lin Fengwei was that although Liu Yingying was indignant that Lin Feng had used her as a small worker, she did everything in a meticulous manner. If she put aside her arrogant attitude, Liu Yingying is indeed a very good assistant.

After a busy week, the four "Killing Bars" finally officially opened. The business is also booming as expected. Under the spread of word of mouth, the "killing game" quickly spread from the Blue Zone. Many young people in Chu City came to experience this new game by car. After playing, one after another was fascinated by the fun contained in it.

"Thank you this week." Although Lin Feng was still dissatisfied with Liu Yingying's ubiquitous sense of superiority, he expressed sincere thanks to her for her efforts this week.

"Nothing, this is my duty. But I found some problems in it." Liu Yingying took out a stack of documents from her backpack.

"This is how I sorted out some of the problems that have occurred in the current operation of your Chufeng Net City and the Murder Club, and put forward some suggestions for rectification." Liu Yingying handed the document to Lin Feng. The eyebrows picked up, suggesting that Lin Feng himself, a talented student at Peking University, is not eating idle food, or only doing these rough jobs.

Lin Feng ignored Liu Yingying's provocation, reached out to take the file, and sat down on his 8888-yuan luxurious table and chair seat with a solemn expression.

problem? What are the problems with your own Internet cafe?

Chapter 28 Questions and suggestions

(There are indeed many problems in this book. Thank you for your advice. I will try to write better later.)

While Lin Feng was reading the document, Liu Yingying also explained the questions she raised.

"First of all, I have seen the contract you signed with Chu Zhixuan, and I found that there is a very serious loophole." Liu Yingying took out the contract that Lin Feng signed with Chu Zhixuan before from another file and pointed to one of them. Said, "Although you agreed with Chu Zhixuan that he should not take back the store in Chufeng Net City for excuses, you did not set the amount of liquidated damages."

Lin Feng's face froze, he did not think so well at the time.

"According to the relevant compensation system of our country's contract law, Chu Zhixuan can terminate the contract as long as he compensates you for three months of double rent." Liu Yingying's mouth is not ridiculed, "Fortunately, your partner does not seem to understand the relevant laws. ."

Lin Feng frowned and thought for a while, and was silent. He wanted to solve this problem before, but he hadn't freed his hands, and he didn't know what method to use to solve it.

"I know this, I will find a solution." Lin Feng looked at Liu Yingying's next item.

"Second, you have now established Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd., so where is the ownership of Chufeng Net City? And whether the four "killing bars" you open now belong to Chufeng Net City or your company name Next?" Liu Yingying pointed at Lin Feng's vague business sense.

"Is there any difference?" Lin Feng was taken aback.

Liu Yingying shook her head, and the mocking smile that disgusted Lin Feng appeared again at the corner of her mouth.

"Uh, President Lin, I'll talk a lot and insert a word." Accountant Zhang on the side suddenly said.

"Mr. Lin, according to my country's tax law, if Chufeng Net City is under the name of Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd., then the monthly tax will be paid 20% entertainment business tax." Accountant Zhang stopped and waited for Lin Feng to digest. "Now that Internet cafes belong to an emerging industry, the state is temporarily formulating relevant taxes..."

Lin Feng understood what Accounting Zhang meant by what he hadn't finished. She is secretly reminding herself that it is best for Chufeng.com to delink from Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd. Otherwise, 20% of the business tax will be paid every month.

20% business tax, this is definitely a huge expense for Lin Feng, who is now based on income from Internet cafes.

"Also, the point I'm talking about is that if "Killing" belongs to Chufeng Net City, you must share 25% of all profits related to it with Chu Zhixuan." Liu Yingying added.

"Well, I understand." Lin Feng nodded.

“The third point, since you are determined to take charge of Chufeng Internet City, then your current murder bar charging standards must be reformed.” Liu Yingying took out a data sheet.

“This ‘killing game’ you launched I have heard from foreign friends, and it is rarely seen in China now. It is indeed a game that can be popular all over the country. In this case, the Chufeng Net City members you have developed can play free games. It hinders your career development.” Liu Yingying paused.

“I suggest you cancel this rule. Like Chufeng.com, you can set up a membership system in ‘Killing Bar’ separately, and charge a reasonable game for those who come to the game. Cost. And it’s so hot now, you can make the killing bar bigger.”

“I have two suggestions. First, the investment in the killing bar is not large. You can open a killing club near the densely populated community of Chu City with the funds you have on hand, and form a killing club; second, adopt the nature of joining. To other interested parties Merchants that set up murder bars charge a certain initial fee, which can also form a chain industry.”

“The former is your own profit, but it will take up all of your funds. And once this homicide craze passes, the killing bar will enter the era of meager profit, which is completely disproportionate to the huge profits of Internet cafes. The latter, although you make less, it will not Take up too much of your funds.”

Lin Feng pondered for a while and made a decision. If you choose to open a chain store yourself, all the funds on hand will be used up, which is not conducive to your plan that you really plan to implement.

“I choose to join, and I will leave this to you.” Before Lin Feng finished speaking, she saw Liu Yingying frown, knowing that she thought she was using her as a laborer, and said hurriedly: “I’ll give you the right to recruit. , You can hire assistants based on actual needs.”

“Well, how do you plan to charge for the four murderers now?” Liu Yingying agreed with Lin Feng’s choice. The reason why she made this two-choice-one proposal was to see Lin Feng’s vision. The result is obvious, Lin Feng is qualified. And delegating power to herself, which made Liu Yingying feel eager to try.

When Liu Yingying came to apply for the job, in addition to wanting to speak badly for her father, she also wanted to temper herself and lay the foundation for the job after graduation next year. The case of joining the murder bar now is a great exercise for myself.

“The current fee system remains unchanged. Only members of Chufeng.com can still play.” Seeing Liu Yingying wanted to refute, Lin Feng continued, “As you said, my main profit now lies in Chufeng.com. You can’t offend Chu Zhixuan for the petty gain of killing people. Otherwise, he broke up with Chu Zhixuan, and he tore up the contract in a fit of anger, and compensated me for the double rent for three months, and I would lose a lot. On the contrary, borrow this matter. , I want him to feel ashamed of me.”

Lin Feng Tuer smiled mysteriously. But in Liu Yingying’s eyes, this smile was really treacherous.

“So, this requires your cooperation.” Lin Feng seemed to stretch out his claws towards Little Red Riding Hood.

After listening to Lin Feng’s proposal, Liu Yingying became angry. She didn’t expect that Lin Feng, who looked so simple and honest, would actually come up with this bad idea, and use herself as a gun, but she was still a little moved. There is no other reason. This is definitely a successful business method. For Liu Yingying, who is now eager to learn a lot of practical experience, it can’t be better.

“Okay, but you owe me a favor.” Although Liu Yingying had agreed to Lin Feng’s slightly despicable plan in her heart, she wanted to take advantage of Lin Feng’s mouth.

“No problem.” Lin Feng nodded and agreed. Isn’t it just a favor, or it is. Of course, if it is too much, Lin Feng will not agree. Lin Feng would not be as stupid as Zhang Wuji, he would promise everything.

The next day, when Lin Feng and Chu Zhixuan were chatting, Liu Yingying angrily walked over with a stack of documents.

“Mr. Lin, you either just delegate the power to do what I said, or you just fire me.” Liu Yingying stared at Lin Feng wryly.

“What’s the matter, brother, what are you...?” Chu Zhixuan didn’t know what happened between the two. When Chu Zhixuan learned that Liu Yingying was a master’s degree student in the Department of Business Administration at Peking University, he was secretly speechless. After all, Peking University is a golden sign. The ability to recruit such talents, even if it is just a short-term job, is something to show off in the entire Chu City business community.

After all, as far as Chu City is concerned, the talents with the highest academic qualifications that the largest enterprises can recruit are only fresh graduates from Wuhan University. Students from even better schools will simply look down on Chu City, a prefecture-level city.

“Uh, brother, Miss Liu, if you have something to say, if you have something to say,” Chu Zhixuan hurriedly intervened.

But Chu Zhixuan didn’t notice the sly smile between Lin Feng and Liu Yingying’s eyebrows.

Chapter 29 Despicable Duo

(There are only two chapters today, and three chapters tomorrow.)

Lin Feng and Liu Yingying smiled slyly at each other.

“Mr. Lin, you have to make it clear that although both Lins Entertainment Co., Ltd. and Chufeng Internet City are under your name, they are two completely different companies. You should not confuse them. You can’t be because of the same company. At the expense of the interests of another company. This is meaningless for your future development.” Liu Yingying unceremoniously scolded Lin Feng.

“My brother, what’s going on?” Chu Zhixuan suddenly became nervous when he heard that Chufeng Net City was involved, and he didn’t know what was going on.

“Oh, brother, it’s okay, you don’t have to worry too much.” Lin Feng made a full set of dramas, and sighed to comfort Chu Zhixuan and relieve him.

But humanity is like this, the more you want him to rest assured, the less he can rest assured.

“Brother, we have been working together for more than four months, so please tell me what’s the matter. Brother, I’m not an unreasonable person.” How could Chu Zhixuan not be in a hurry. The flow of the Yangtze River usually flows into his pocket, and he will regret it if something goes wrong or disputes arise.

Seeing Chu Zhixuan’s nervous look, Lin Feng and Liu Yingying gave a narrow smile.

“Brother, this is the case. Liu Yingying thinks that the four murder bars I opened, because they only provide free services to Chufeng Net City members, and all the expenses of the murder bar are counted on my Lin’s Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd., This will cause my business to be unable to continue to expand.” Lin Feng said helplessly.

“This...” Chu Zhixuan also knew that since Lin Feng launched this “killing game”, the membership of Chufeng.com has exploded. In just a few days, it has added thousands of members. It has also become the most popular place in the entire Lanzhou District.

If “Killing” is now changed to a fee-based nature, it will definitely be a blow to Chufeng Net City’s business. Although it won’t affect the fundamentals, but Chu Zhixuan, who is already used to being full of popularity, is really a bit small.

“Mr. Lin, this is the data of newly added members in the past 10 days. If this continues, not only will your ‘Lin’s Entertainment Co., Ltd.’ go bankrupt, but even the interests of ‘Chufeng Net City’ will be affected.” Liu Yingying Take out a stack of paper from the folder.

Lin Feng flipped through it and handed it to Chu Zhixuan.

After reading it, Chu Zhixuan's face became stiff.

What's recorded in this stack of paper is nothing else, but the newly added member list and account balance since Lin Feng launched the "Killing Game". The above clearly records that a total of 1523 new members have been added in these 10 days, but the balance of 1320 of them is still 50 yuan, and there is only one condition for joining the "Chufeng Internet City" member, pre-deposit 50 yuan balance .

This shows that the recent increase in membership has been directed at the "killing game", and the previously anticipated drive "Chufeng Net City" consumption has not occurred.

"Also, four referees are required for the four 'killers', each with a monthly salary of 800 yuan, which is 3,200 yuan; and a waiter, with a salary of 600 yuan per person, which is 2,400 yuan; including the rent, water and electricity, The accumulated expenditure this month is 7,400 yuan." Liu Yingying took out an accountant's pre-calculated bill from the folder.

Chu Zhixuan heard cold sweat on his forehead. He hadn't counted the four "killers" that would cost so much before.

"This is only 10 days of new members. If you continue, I'm afraid that there will be more members. At that time, it will not only not increase the income of the 'Chufeng Net City', but it will drag down the development of the 'Chufeng Net City', so A fee must be charged." Liu Yingying kept Chu Zhixuan speechless, putting the data in front of her, and there was no excuse for arguing.

"This...brother, it's better to change to the charge." Chu Zhixuan suggested.

auzw.com

"Haha, brother, no need. If you change the charge now, it will definitely have a severe impact on Chufeng Net City's business. If you are used to free lunch and want to charge again, these people will protest." Lin Feng shook his head and vetoed it. proposal.

"This...I'm so embarrassed." Chu Zhixuan felt uncomfortable for a while. After all, the two cooperated. Although Lin Feng's shares accounted for the majority, Lin Feng had to bear all the losses, which made Chu Zhixuan a moment of shame.

Although Chu Zhixuan repeatedly suggested that the two people share the cost equally, Lin Feng refused one by one. In the end, Chu Zhixuan had to give up, but the bit of resentment in his heart against Lin Feng was completely gone.

Seeing Chu Zhixuan's expressions of sadness, Lin Feng and Liu Yingying smiled at each other, knowing that Chu Zhixuan would only feel guilty for Lin Feng in the short term. This gave Lin Feng enough time to solve the problem of Chufeng Net City's storefront.

"I entrusted someone to estimate that before the Chufeng Internet City opened, Chu Zhixuan's land and store had a market value of 1.2 million yuan, and now it is conservatively estimated to be 1.5 million yuan, and I can guarantee that you want to buy this land, Chu Zhixuan I will definitely not sell it." After returning to the office, Liu Yingying said cautiously.

Lin Feng listened for a moment, secretly stunned by the value of this piece of land. Although I made a million yuan in Europe before, I thought I could make a big splash. Unexpectedly, I didn't even have enough money to buy a piece of land in the Blue Zone.

"Since you can't force it to buy, it's better to tie Chu Zhixuan to your chariot, so that he can't escape even if he wants to escape. As for how to do it, it's up to your boss, but this little bit of profit is obviously. I can't move Chu Zhixuan." Liu Yingying gave me a helpless expression.

"Well, I see, I will figure out a solution on this point." Lin Feng nodded.

Do you impress Chu Zhixuan with profit? ——Lin Feng smiled, it couldn't be easier.

"Also, these four 'killers' can't satisfy the tourists in the Blue Zone. I suggest that two more can be opened. But this way, the expenditure will be more, and the monthly expenditure will be nearly 10,000 years. There is no return of any profit." Liu Yingying frowned.

Lin Feng looked at Liu Yingying's lightly frowning expression and was taken aback. This melancholy expression gave Liu Yingying a bit of intellectual beauty, especially beautiful.

"Hey, what are you looking at?" Liu Yingying knew that she was both talented and handsome, and it was not a day or two to be watched like this, but for some reason, it was very uncomfortable to be watched like this by Lin Feng.

"Uh... it's nothing, then open two more. As for expenses, I will find a way. I will never let the 'killer' lose money. But the joining is all up to you, and I will never interfere with what you do. , Leave it to you." Lin Feng returned to his senses, embarrassed, and changed the subject.

"Well, okay. That's OK. Maybe I can make up for your cave just for the cost of joining." Liu Yingying smiled provocatively.

“If you can fill my six ‘killer’ caves with the initial fee, then I will owe you another favor.” Lin Feng said tit-for-tat.

“Six families?” Liu Yingying was taken aback, and she glared at Lin Feng. “There are six families. As long as I can fill the caves of the six ‘killers’, I want you to do something.”

“What’s the matter?” Lin Feng suddenly thought of Zhang Wuji in Yitian Slaughter Dragon Ji, this Liu Yingying is Zhao Min.

“It’s not killing and arson, or bullying men and women.” Liu Yingying did not say.

“Okay, girl, as long as you can show your strengths and fill the cave of ‘kill people’, but to teach you life, Zhang Wuji never dare to give up. Go through fire and water, only the emperor can do it.” Lin Feng copied Zhang Wuji back then Zhao Min swears, but he missed it for a while, and even Zhang Wuji said it.

“Zhang Wuji?” Liu Yingying was taken aback, and then she understood, she smiled suddenly, “Fuck you, don’t be mean!”

Chapter 30 The profit of scented tea

When Liu Yingying was busy joining the “Kill”, Lin Feng also recruited 2 assistants, who are also fresh graduates of Chu City University. With their assistance, Lin Feng opened two new “Kills” again and closed them temporarily. The “Killing” on the third floor of “Chufeng Net City” is reserved for later use.

It was already late July when Lin Feng opened six “Killing Bars”. At this time, most of the college students have already returned home. For Chufeng Internet City, which mainly targets college students, the business has a big impact. Fortunately, although most college students have returned home, middle school and elementary students have filled in. It’s just a little trouble getting on and off the computer, after all, it’s impossible for middle school students to play for one day.

Fortunately, there are currently no regulations restricting minors from entering Internet cafes, otherwise the business will definitely be a lot of light. But speaking of it, even if this rule was enacted later, most Internet cafes did not comply with it. They just asked all minors out of the Internet cafe temporarily before routine inspections.

“How’s it going, how are the joining matters?” Lin Feng finally came to relax, naturally not forgetting to tease Liu Yingying, who was dizzy all day long.

Liu Yingying glared at Lin Feng bitterly.

“It’s a bit troublesome. The ‘killing game’ is indeed very attractive. It will definitely be the hottest hotspot in the next few months, but there is a fatal problem in wanting many businesses to join.” Liu Yingying frowned, “The ‘killing game’ although The process is a bit complicated, but as long as you play it a few times, you can clearly master the rules. As long as the merchants master the rules, they can open their own “killers” in popular places. Why join our “killers” club’.”

Lin Feng nodded, agreeing with Liu Yingying’s point of view.

“Now many places in Chu City have opened several new ‘killers’. Although they have not been very clear about the rules, there have been several mistakes, but on the whole, they are spreading. If we don’t step up. Come up with a reason for them to join, then my plan will fail this time.”

Liu Yingying bit her lip rather helplessly, and then she looked up and said confidently, “But I will definitely try my best. I will never give up easily. I will definitely succeed in persuading this merchant to join.”

Is this the unique self-confidence of top students from prestigious universities? ——Lin Feng secretly admired.

“Then give them a reason to join.” Lin Feng would say intently.

“Brother Xiaofeng, this is the tea you want.” At this moment, Huang Shuqi came over with a large cup of tea.

Liu Yingying stared at Huang Shuqi suspiciously, not knowing that Lin Feng had never abducted such a young and lively girl.

“Don’t think about it, she is the neighbor I grew up with, Huang Shuqi. The college entrance examination is over, and it’s okay to come to me to play.” Lin Feng introduced, “Shuqi, this is Liu Yingying, a master’s student in the Department of Business Administration, Peking University.”

“Sister Yingying, you are amazing!” Huang Shuqi exclaimed in surprise. For a student who has just finished the college entrance examination, it is absolutely exciting to be able to meet the seniors from the highest institution in China.

“Shuqi, which school did you report to?” Liu Yingying also liked the simple Huang Shuqi.

“My first choice was Peking University where Yingying was studying, Shanghai Fudan was my second choice, and Xiamen University was my third choice.” Huang Shuqi said cutely, sticking out her tongue.

auzw.com

“Then we will meet at Peking University in the future.” When Liu Yingying heard the names of these three universities, she knew that Liu Yingying’s results should be very good. They are all prestigious schools, and people who do not have confidence in themselves would never fill in the school like this.

“Okay, I’ll talk about this later, you taste these teas first.” Lin Feng interrupted two girls who are likely to become alumni in the future.

“Huh!” Liu Yingying kissed her lips and tasted it slightly, her brows suddenly stretched out.

“Good tea! Tea induces fragrance and enhances the tea flavor. The two complement each other, maintaining a strong and refreshing tea flavor, but also a fresh and fragrant fragrance. It can be said that the fragrance is inviting, and the mouth is full of sweetness, which is refreshing.” Liu Yingying exclaimed.

“How about it? That’s not bad! This is how I happened to meet a tea master in the coastal area recently. As I was old and wanted to go home to enjoy his twilight years, I specially bought and gave me a few tea recipes. “Lin Feng said with a triumphant smile, “Before I launched a free game for Chufeng Internet City members, I thought about selling this kind of tea to cover the cost. But at that time I only planned to figure it out by myself. Of course, there is no such thing as the current tea. The aroma of the cup is refreshing.”

After Lin Feng finished speaking, he glanced at Liu Yingying proudly.

Humph! Liu Yingying snorted coldly. But with this tea, she is indeed more confident about joining.

“Also, you don’t have to compromise on joining. The establishment and implementation of the rules is very important for the long-term stable operation of the ‘killer’. The ‘killer game’ will not be played by no one, but if the veteran is always bullying Rookie, look down on the rookie, this will cause irreparable losses to the business.” Lin Feng said relieved.

Before his rebirth, Lin Feng himself was bullied by those old birds when he was a rookie in “Kill Let’s”, but after Lin Feng became an old bird, he did not less bully those rookies. Perhaps this is the root of human inferiority, but Lin Feng has become the boss himself, so he naturally wants to put an end to this. In the past few days, I have also formulated relevant regulations in the six “killers” that I have opened to prevent such things from happening.

“Well, I know. I will specify this when joining. Also, don’t leak the tea formula, so that I can reduce the initial fee appropriately, but charge the other party a certain fee on the tea.” Liu Yingying The smile is particularly treacherous.

“Well, I know that.” Lin Feng naturally also knew the value of these formulas, how could it leak out.

The two smiled at each other. Only Huang Shuqi stared at the big eyes and smiled for some reason, especially the laughter is so frightening.

Afterwards, Liu Yingying's joining negotiations went smoothly. After the full nose of tea was placed in front of the business owners, everyone agreed to join. Finally, before the end of July, a total of 17 merchants joined the "Killing Club" of "Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd."

The joining conditions are as follows: each merchant pays an initial fee of 2,000 yuan, and then a monthly membership fee of 300 yuan in Ghana. "Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd." recommends a qualified "judge" for training, and assists him in decorating the store, keeping the style consistent with the surroundings, and setting a uniform charging standard. Tea is provided by "Lin's Catering and Entertainment Co., Ltd." at a price of 10 yuan per cup, and all "killing clubs" are priced at 15 yuan.

Lin Feng has counted the past few days. Because the tea is fragrant and delicious, and the price is not expensive, each "killer bar" sells between 20-25 cups a day, and the gross income is 300-375. In between, and the cost of a cup of tea is only 4 yuan. This item alone has a net profit of at least 220 yuan a day, and the six companies have an income of 1,320 yuan.

Counting the 17 franchised merchants, 10 yuan a cup of supply, 4 yuan cost, the profit is 2040 yuan per day. The profit for tea alone would have a monthly income of 10,080 yuan.

amazing! Absolutely amazing!
