Chapter 42 Paranoid

Founded in 1898, Peking University was first named Jingshi University. It was the first national university in China and the first university officially established in modern history in China. Its establishment marked the beginning of modern Chinese higher education and gave birth to Chinese education. The earliest modern school system in history-the Renyin school system and the Kuimao school system.

Peking University has cultivated countless talents for a century. The father of China's atomic energy, Qian Sanqiang, "two bombs" Deng Jiaxian, two foreign ministers Tang Jiaxuan and Li Zhaoxing, etc., graduated from Peking University with students from all walks of life in China's politics, law and finance. Under this aura, the university with the strongest comprehensive strength in China deserves it.

"Yingying, where have you been in the past two months? Why didn't you tell me that I kept worrying about you, and why did you keep not answering my calls?" A handsome young man in a black Armani suit The man held 99 extremely rare black roses, and stood at the gate of Peking University to stop a woman with a temperament like an orchid and smiled.

The woman stopped in amazement, staring at the rare black rose, and took a sip. The tangy fragrance was especially intoxicating.

"Yingying, this is a black rose from California, USA, which I specially transported by air. Only such a unique black rose can match our talented Peking University girl." said the young man Yin Yin.

"Zhang Han, thank you. But I still said that, we are not suitable. Please don't waste time and money on me." The woman took 99 black roses and bypassed the youth to enter the Peking University campus.

In fact, this fresh woman didn't want to accept it, but she was very clear about the man's paranoid personality, knowing that if she refused his fresh, she might become 188 tomorrow. In order not to put too much burden on her soul, the woman had to accept it.

"Yingying, I will see you again tomorrow." The man named Zhang Han was not discouraged, just smiled slightly, and turned into the car. In the surprised eyes of the Peking University student, thick smoke billowed from the rear of the car and quickly left.

If there are people who love cars and often attend auto shows, they will find that this young man is driving a bmwz8 with a market price of 2.1 million. 2.1 million cars may be considered top-of-the-line in other small and medium-sized cities, but they are nothing at all in Beijing. What is really surprising about this car is that this car has just appeared at the 2000 Geneva International Motor Show, but this young man has already turned it into a car.

The meaning behind it is more than the meaning of the sports car itself.

“Hey, Liu Yingying!” A girl with a ponytail, a melon face and two cute dimples when she laughed jumped out from the side, grabbed the black rose, and took a deep sniff.

“Hey, Liu Yingying, Young Master Zhang gave you fresh again, Tsk, Tsk, Tsk, black rose, this is a rare variety!” The dimple girl said enviously.

“You can take it if you like it.” Liu Yingying didn’t care.

“No, if the person Zhang Dashao gave you appears in my bottle and he knows it, I can’t stand it.” The dimple girl quickly returned it to Liu Yingying.

After receiving it, Liu Yingying was a little melancholy, and she didn’t know how to treat Zhang Han better.

Where Zhang Han came from, Liu Yingying didn’t know. However, it is said that his father is a high-ranking government official, and his mother opened a trading company. Liu Yingying is not clear about the amount of assets, but she definitely belongs to the type with endless money. And Zhang Han himself is the best choice in terms of looks, knowledge, or conversation, but Liu Yingying just doesn’t like him, and doesn’t feel that way for him.

When Zhang Han first confessed to Liu Yingying, Liu Yingying clearly refused. But Zhang Han did not give up. He has been pursuing her for two years. In the past two years, the expenses for only one item have been at least hundreds of thousands, one bunch per day, and the varieties are different every day. This made Liu Yingying feel slightly proud, but also a heavy burden.

Perhaps Zhang Han’s paranoid character is the reason why Liu Yingying has always rejected him. Liu Yingying herself is also a paranoid person, and she will not look back if she decides that things are happening. Two equally paranoid people together, this kind of life, Liu Yingying feels terrible when she thinks about it.

When Liu Yingying was distressed about how to refuse Zhang Han, a man and a woman at a Beijing bus station were immersed in a map of Beijing, gesturing how to get on the bus.

These two are not others, they are Lin Feng and Huang Shuqi. After Lin Fengzai and Huang Shuqi, who claim to be half Beijingers, came to Beijing, they wanted to go directly to Peking University by taxi. Unexpectedly, Huang Shuqi, who came to Beijing for the first time, said that she wanted to take a bus and take a good look at Beijing.

auzw.com

Lin Feng, who was full of promises, was dumbfounded as soon as he left the train station. The Beijing in his memory no longer exists. Entering the 21st century, Beijing is changing with each passing day, making Lin Feng sigh that it's not that I don't understand, but that the world is changing fast.

But in front of Huang Shuqi, Lin Feng, who didn't want to lose face, ignored Huang Shuqi's suggestion to buy a map first, and got on the bus directly. As a result, after turning around in the morning, Lin Feng and Huang Shuqi were completely lost. In desperation, amidst Huang Shuqi's snickers, Lin Feng had to buy a map, and the two of them thought about it carefully. Fortunately, this time Lin Feng and Huang Shuqi came, except for Huang Shuqi to bring a few clothes, they didn't let her bring anything else. You can just buy it in Beijing directly, or else you will be tired to death by opening a water bottle, bedclothes and the like like Aunt Huang.

But if so, Lin Feng must have chosen to take a taxi long ago. There won't be the same scene this morning.

"No. 355, Shuqi, the car is coming, go, get on the bus!" Lin Feng pulled Huang Shuqi and was about to squeeze the bus.

At this moment, the man in front of Lin Feng was about 185cm tall and had an extremely strong physique. The man in the camouflage uniform suddenly became soft and fell.

"Brother Xiaofeng, what's wrong with him?" Huang Shuqi asked in shock.

"I don't know, go, don't worry about it. Someone will take care of it." Lin Feng took Huang Shuqi and walked around.

"Brother Xiaofeng, the teacher said to help others, to help others is to help yourself." Huang Shuqi let go of Lin Feng's hand, and stepped forward to help the man who fell softly on the ground.

"What do you want?" Unexpectedly, the man suddenly grabbed Huang Shuqi. Although his voice was weak, his tone was extremely sharp.

"It hurts, Brother Xiaofeng, it hurts me to pinch it." Huang Shuqiong turned pale, crying in her voice.

“Hey, let him go.” Lin Feng stretched out his hand and wanted to break the man’s wrist, but unexpectedly, no matter how hard Lin Feng tried, the man’s wrist was as hard as a rock and did not move.

“Go away!” The man yelled sharply, and let go of the hand holding Huang Shuqi.

“Shuqi, are you okay!” Lin Feng hurriedly took Huang Shuqi aside and asked with concern.

“Brother Xiaofeng, I’m fine, but he seems to be sick.” Huang Shuqi said, pointing to the drops of sweat on the man’s forehead.

“Go, leave him alone, the dog bites Lu Dongbin and doesn’t know good people.” Lin Feng glared contemptuously at the man in the camouflage suit.

“Brother Xiaofeng, but he is a soldier. Didn’t the books say that soldiers are the cutest people in the world. We... shall we ask him?” Huang Shuqi said with fear and curiosity.

Lin Feng fainted when he heard it. Lin Feng who said this really didn’t know how to refute it, but one thing was right. The vast majority of soldiers were not that kind of liar, and most of the soldiers were enthusiastic.

“Brother Xiaofeng, can you help him? See if he needs help or not.” Huang Shuqi hid behind Lin Feng, probed.

“Uh, brother soldier, do you have anything to do? Do you need our help?” Lin Feng thought of the man’s horrible power, and said three steps away from the man.

“Yes... I’m sorry, I was wrong just now. These little brothers, can you send me to the hospital? I have an acute appendicitis!” The man finished, and fell to the ground, clutching his abdomen.

Chapter 43 Disaster shifts eastward

Acute appendicitis?

Although acute appendicitis is one of the most common diseases in abdominal surgery, if it cannot be treated in time, this most common disease can also lead to death.

Lin Feng also ignored the little friction with the man in the camouflage uniform just now, and quickly stopped the taxi and went straight to the nearest hospital.

After rushing to the hospital and helping to advance the 1,000 yuan hospitalization fee, the man in camouflage uniform was sent to the operating room.

“Okay, Shuqi, he should be fine, let’s go!” Lin Feng didn’t expect to stay and wait for the man’s hospitalization fees to be paid when he was sober. Anyway, Lin Feng still paid the money.

Don’t want to get rewards for helping others, otherwise it is better not to help others.

The registration time for new students of Peking University this year is September 3 (the Sunday near September). Today is only September 1, and the day after tomorrow is the official registration time.

When Lin Feng and Huang Shuqi arrived at Peking University by car, it was already five o’clock in the afternoon. Although I found the dormitory on the Internet in advance, it was getting late now, and it was not good to trouble the host. Lin Feng and Huang Shuqi opened two rooms in a hotel near Peking University, and they will go to the dormitory after buying daily necessities tomorrow.

The next day, early in the morning, Lin Feng helped Huang Shuqi buy all the daily necessities. After helping her move to the dormitory, when she was not going out to eat, she happened to ran into Liu Yingying at the school gate.

“Sister Yingying!” Huang Shuqi ran forward happily.

“Shuqi! You really got admitted to Peking University!” Liu Yingying was also overjoyed, and talked with Huang Shuqi intimately.

“Yingying, is this little sister...?” Zhang Han stood there embarrassedly holding a bunch of violets.

“This is my school girl from my hometown, Huang Shuqi. Shuqi, this is Zhang Han.” Liu Yingying briefly introduced.

“Shuqi, hello.” Zhang Han smiled slightly and shook hands with Huang Shuqi gently.

“Hi, Liu Yingying.” Lin Feng also walked up to the three of them at this time.

“Lin Feng!” Liu Yingying was taken aback. She didn’t expect Lin Feng to send Huang Shuqi to sign up, and smiled weirdly at the two.

Zhang Han looked at Lin Feng. Although he saw that Lin Feng and Liu Yingying had a close relationship, he didn’t care. Zhang Han admits that he is far better than Lin Feng in appearance, dress or temperament, and this kind of person poses no threat to him.

“Yingying, I asked some friends to pick you up at the Beijing Hotel, let’s go!” Zhang Han opened the car door for Liu Yingying.

Liu Yingying frowned, she really didn't want to entangle Zhang Han anymore. Looking at Lin Feng from the corner of her eyes, Liu Yingying noticed when her eyes rolled.

"Wind!" Liu Yingying's affectionate call made Lin Feng chill all over, with a bad instinct.

"Zhang Han, let me introduce to you. This is my boyfriend-Lin Feng." Liu Yingying took Lin Feng's arm affectionately and introduced, "Feng, this is Zhang Han."

"Zhang Han, I can't go to the banquet anymore. I don't think my boyfriend will agree to me." Liu Yingying pushed Lin Feng down in front of her insidiously, "Are you right, dear."

Lin Feng felt cold all over, and instinctively wanted to refuse.

"Don't open me, or you will look good." Liu Yingying whispered in Lin Feng's ear.

auzw.com Seeing this scene, Zhang Han's expression turned pale.

"Zhang... Han, yes, Yingying, she..." Lin Feng helplessly knew that he was being used as a gun. But thinking that there will be some company issues to consult Liu Yingying, I still have to cooperate with her now.

"Okay, Lin Feng, right? I'm not in the mood to talk to you." Zhang Han walked to Liu Yingying with a cold face, "Yingying, I don't care who this person is and what it has to do with you, but you should know me My heart for you. If you don't want to go today, then forget it, but I won't give up."

After speaking, Zhang Han stuffed the violet into Liu Yingying's hands, and the BMW z8 emitted a light smoke and disappeared in everyone's eyes.

Ugh! ——Liu Yingying did not expect Zhang Han to be so persistent, no, it should be paranoid. It seems that his plan to "move the disaster to the east" was unsuccessful.

"Hey, Liu Yingying, if you do it like this, I will be very troublesome." Lin Feng saw Zhang Han's momentum and that BMW z8, and he knew Zhang Han's background was not small. In Beijing, it is not a good thing to be remembered by such people. After rebirth, Lin Feng was definitely not the kind of hairy boy who was not afraid of the sky and the earth. In Beijing, it is too easy for people who can drive a BMW to give away at the gate of Peking University.

"What are you afraid of? Anyway, you are not planning to develop in Beijing for the time being. When you pat your * and leave, what can he do to you!" Liu Yingying said unconscionably.

Speechless, Lin Feng was speechless.

“Sister Yingying, who is that person? Will you deal with Brother Xiaofeng?” Huang Shuqi said worriedly from the side. In her heart, she was extremely worried about this matter for her brother Xiaofeng.

“Relax, Shuqi. Although Zhang Han is a little proud and paranoid, he is very upright.” Liu Yingying said with relief. This is not Liu Yingying’s big talk, but a fact. Only from Zhang Han chasing Liu Yingying for two years and never acting excessively despite repeated rejections, we can see that Zhang Han’s upbringing is excellent.

“Haha, okay, don’t worry, I said it’s okay, I’m sure it’s okay. Let’s go, my elder sister invites you to dinner.” Liu Yingying saw Huang Shuqi not at ease, giggled, and pulled Huang Shuqi to the restaurant outside the school.

During the dinner, Lin Feng handed Liu Yingying his plan.

Liu Yingying glanced at the crumpled plan, her eyes rolled again.

“I said, can’t you ask your secretary to sort it out for you!” Although Liu Yingying was scolding, she accepted Lin Feng’s plan.

Lin Feng just smiled. This plan was temporarily driven out on the train, just to let Liu Yingying refer to it in detail.

“Do you want to open a foreign fast food restaurant and compete with McDonald’s and KFC?” Liu Yingying cried out in surprise. It’s not that Liu Yingying is so strange that it is rare, but that it is really incredible.

McDonald’s and KFC are the world’s largest fast food chains, with chains all over the world. Lin Feng wants to compete domestically with the top two fast food restaurants in the world, which already have an extremely complete system.

Lin Feng knew what she was thinking when she saw Liu Yingying’s face.

“Don’t worry, I’m not that stupid. I’m now in direct conflict with McDonald’s and KFC. My fast food restaurant mainly chooses to be near colleges and universities, and wins with a parity strategy.” Lin Feng smiled slightly, and said in a very angry tone, “One The cost of burgers is about 3 yuan, but McDonald’s and KFC’s burgers are sold for 16.8 yuan, which is too profitable. In addition, invoices have never been issued in China.”

After careful consideration, Liu Yingying felt that this plan was quite feasible. It’s just that in terms of funding, Lin Feng’s shortfall is too large.

“Well, yes, your plan is indeed feasible. But at the beginning, you have to shop in a large area and start an advertisement. This is too much demand for your funds. With your existing financial resources, it is difficult to start in a short period of time. Popularity.” Liu Yingying pointed out the key point, “In most cities in China, eating McDonald's and KFC is still a more luxurious behavior. Although your parity route is correct, don't forget that the Chinese still have A habit and likes famous brands. Although poor, he likes to chase famous brands."

"So, popularity is the key to the survival of your fast food restaurant." Liu Yingying has already begun to conceive the prospect and future of this plan in her mind. If she hadn't graduated yet, she would really like to return to Linfeng Company and start this big business now.

Just thinking about creating a fast-food brand yourself to compete with or even defeat the giants in fast-food restaurants is enough to make Liu Yingying excited. Although there are many difficulties, only the victory in this way is particularly exciting.

"The popularity will be there. There will be soon." Lin Feng thought of the CS Counter-Strike, which will be available for download worldwide, and an idea suddenly popped up in his mind.

While Lin Feng and Liu Yingying were discussing plans, something was being planned in a box of the Beijing Hotel.

Chapter 44 Prince

Chapter 44 The Prince

Inside a box of Beijing Hotel.

"Young Master Zhang, you are here!" A handsome, but slightly exaggerated young man stood up enthusiastically, "How about, we have a good arrangement, it will definitely make Young Master Zhang impress the beautiful woman."

However, Zhang Han ignored the man's enthusiasm, sat down on his seat with a green face, pried open a bottle of Patus 1985 red wine, poured a glass, and drank it in one go.

As soon as the man saw the situation, he knew that Young Master Zhang must not have an appointment with a beautiful woman today. The man's eyes indicated that the men and women in the box who were to be celebrated filed out. After dozens of seconds, only the man and Zhang Han were left in the box.

The man sat next to Zhang Han and poured a glass of red wine, but instead of drinking like Zhang Han, he savored it carefully and observed Zhang Han silently.

A few minutes later, when a bottle of 11,500 yuan Patus red wine in 1985 bottomed out, Zhang Han's expression finally eased a lot.

"Xia Qianhe, what do you think of me?" Zhang Han doubted himself for the first time in his life.

Xia Qianhe didn't answer, but looked at Zhang Han with deep meaning and said, "Master Zhang, is there a boyfriend with Liu Yingying?"

Zhang Han glanced at Xia Qianhe in surprise, but thought that Xia Qianhe had always been known in this circle for observing words and looks, so he no longer cared.

Xia Qianhe saw Zhang Han's expression and knew that he had guessed right.

"Do you want me to warn him?" Xia Qianhe said suddenly.

"Xia Qianhe, don't be nosy, I don't need you to intervene in my affairs." Zhang Han didn't appreciate it, and instead warned Xia Qianhe.

Xia Qianhe just smiled. He wasn't interested in being nosy at first, and he just talked casually just now to draw up the relationship between him and Zhang Han.

"Hehe, I don't have much trouble, then I will accompany you to drink." Xia Qianhe once again pried a bottle of Patus 1985 red wine and filled it with Zhang Han and himself. Drinking red wine like this is indeed like a cow chewing a peony. If you are seen, Xia Qianhe and Zhang Han will inevitably be eliminated, but people, just want to have fun.

"Come on, do it!" Xia Qianhe drank it.

"Xia Qianhe, what did I do to her? For the past two years, I have sent it to her every day, asked her to eat, and expressed my thoughts to her again and again, but she refused again and again. Am I not sincere enough? Or, does she look down on me?" Zhang Han asked Xia Qianhe as if talking to himself.

"Ha, Young Master Zhang, look at what you said, Young Master Zhang wants to speak, and the woman who chased you can go from Wangfujing to Xidan." Xia Qianhe was happy. This is not a joke. Zhang Han is the best in their circle in terms of character and family background. If he hadn't been obsessed with Liu Yingying and treated other women without fake colors, I don't know how many celebrities would send them to the door.

"But why doesn't she look down on me!" Zhang Han squeezed the wine glass in her hand tightly, and said bitterly, "I also invited a fake boyfriend to act! When I am a fool, Zhang Han still thinks I am so good fool!"

From the very beginning, Zhang Han saw that Lin Feng and Liu Yingying were acting, which made him even more angry.

"Fake boyfriend?!" Xia Qianhe was secretly happy when he heard it. However, in order to take into account Zhang Han's anger and anger, his face remained calm.

“When you do a show, just do a show, but you have to invite such a bad person to be a fake boyfriend!” Zhang Han said bitterly.

Well, Zhang Han was angry for this after doing it for a long time. —Xia Qianhe shook his head helplessly. Zhang Han has a clear temper, and he is paranoid and arrogant. He doesn't mind competing with others for things he likes. But if the person competing with him is too bad, he will be extremely angry. He thought it was an insult to him.

“I Zhang Han grew up, and I have never got anything I can't get. You must get what you want. Liu Yingying, the same is true for you!” Zhang Han said to himself and drank the red wine in his hand.

Xia Qianhe didn't care about Zhang Han's mentality. In their circle, most of them are like this. Since childhood, there is nothing that cannot be obtained, whether it is a person or a thing, it is the same for them. The only difference is whether you have the ability to get what you want.

As for love, does it exist? At least Xia Qianhe didn't think there was love in this world. For their princelings, love and marriage are just an exchange of benefits.

“Young Master Zhang, my appearance and temperament, I think Xia Qianhe is inferior to you.” Xia Qianhe poured another glass of red wine on Zhang Han and said proudly, “But when it comes to chasing women, this circle, I think I'm second. No one recognizes the first.”

“What can you do? What are your conditions?” Although Zhang Han was a little dizzy by Liu Yingying, he was not confused on key issues. Their circle seems to be infinite, and they are all princelings, which can almost be said to be overbearing, but sadly there has never been loyalty and friendship between them. Some are just the exchange of benefits for Hongguoguo.

However, both Zhang Han and Xia Qianhe did not reject this kind of friendship of pure interest. This kind of friendship looks like a castle in the air and a mirage, but facts have proved that this kind of friendship of interest is often stronger and longer than the so-called brotherhood.

“Haha, Zhang Dashao, I have a private car detained in Shanghai at the customs. You also know that if my father knows about this, I will definitely be reprimanded again, so I asked Zhang Dashao to talk to the director of Shanghai Customs Zhao. Please raise your hands high and let the little brother go. Of course, other joints, I will naturally get through.” Xia Qianhe is also welcome, and said directly.

The affairs of Xia Qianhe are not tricky. Chief Zhao of Shanghai Customs used to work under Zhang Han's father. As long as Zhang Han came forward and said that Xia Qianhe would get through other joints, this matter would be easily settled. For them, this is just a small matter. From the background of Xia Qianhe's family, it was easy to resolve this matter.

Just as Xia Qianhe said, if you trouble your elders with this kind of thing, you will be criticized as useless. On the contrary, if you ask for the friends you make, not only will you not be looked down upon by others, but you will think that this person is well-connected and well-connected. Therefore, most of their princelings have troubles, and they all ask each other and help each other.

In the eyes of their parents, this is not only to draw up the connections between these second generation ancestors, but also to exercise their communicative skills. Killing two birds with one stone, so the parents and elders behind them mostly ignore this, but will often take care of them.

However, Zhang Han didn't want to agree so easily, just for a woman, although he liked it and wanted to get it, but agreeing so easily was too cheap for Xia Qianhe. For transactions, there must be equal bargaining chips. Otherwise it is not a deal, but a fool.

Xia Qianhe saw Zhang Han's expression and knew what Zhang Han was thinking.

"Zhang Dashao, there is a newly produced global limited edition Mercedes in my batch of private cars. Although it is not uncommon for Zhang Dashao who drives a BMW, rides in a Mercedes, and likes to go for a ride, it is certainly not uncommon, but it's just like this car was dedicated to my aunt with a Buddha Auntie manages everything, and the seat frame is more comfortable, doesn't it also seem that Zhang Dashao is more filial!" Xia Qianhe said.

Zhang Han is not unfamiliar with this car, his mother's Cadillac is also a limited edition, and it is bulletproof, ordinary rocket launchers can not blow up. However, the reason why Zhang Han didn't agree at the beginning was just to exchange equality. Now that Xia Qianhe has sent this car, the deal is basically equal.

"Yes. But if your plan is unsuccessful, I can't spare you." Zhang Han also regained his normal heart, jokingly.

"Haha, Zhang Dashao, don't worry, I have never missed Xia Qianhe." Xia Qianhe was also extremely comfortable in solving this confusing problem.

"Let's talk, what are your plans?" Zhang Han asked.

"It's very simple, the hero saves the United States." Xia Qianhe frowned and said.

"Heroes save the United States? This is too old-fashioned!" Zhang Han frowned.

"Haha, Zhang Dashao, although heroes save the United States are old-fashioned, but they are the most useful." Xia Qianhe vowed.

“Uh, will this be seen through by Liu Yingying? She is the number one talented woman in Peking University, she is very smart.” Zhang Han said worriedly.

“Haha, don’t worry, there is absolutely no problem. Have you ever done something like this to Liu Yingying in the past two years?” Xia Qianhe laughed, “Because you are Young Master Zhang, this old trick will be more successful. .”

Chapter 45 Unexpectedly

Chapter 45—Continuous Accidents

“Okay, let’s go! I’ll take you around.” Liu Yingying has sharp eyes and careful heart. When discussing the fast food restaurant plan with Lin Feng carefully, she had long observed Huang Shuqi’s confusion on the side. After waiting for the discussion between the two of them, Yingying Liu decided to take Huang Shuqi around Beijing.

As for Lin Feng, he played the role of a protector and a coolie and a purse.

Changes in Beijing are changing with each passing day. Especially in preparation for the 2008 Olympic Games, Beijing has been turned upside down.

When Lin Feng and the three returned to Peking University exhausted, they only browsed one Temple of Heaven. No way, it’s not that Lin Feng didn’t want to go to the Forbidden City or something, it was just that the women went shopping, and all the historical places such as the Forbidden City were all left behind. The commercial streets like Wangfujing were the places they considered.

“Let’s go, walk through this alley, and walk a little further to the west gate of Peking University.” Liu Yingying couldn’t hide her tired face and said.

“Well, thank Sister Yingying, I bought so many beautiful clothes for me.” Huang Shuqi looked excited, watching the bags in her hands keep comparing each other.

“Oh, don’t thank me. If you want to, thank your Xiaofeng brother. This is all his money.” Looking at Huang Shuqi, who was still vigorous after playing for a day, Liu Yingying knew if she was old for the first time. idea.

“Thank you Xiaofeng brother.” Huang Shuqi called sweetly.

“Haha, it’s okay. Your clothes are too old, you should have bought new ones long ago.” Lin Feng smiled and shook his head.

The three of them walked through the alley happily, but the moment they were about to leave the alley, the sudden change occurred.

“Stop, don’t move!” Four people came out one after the other.

“Brother Xiaofeng!” Huang Shuqi was startled, and screamed instinctively.

“Little girl, shut up, you will be stabbed to death if you call me again.” This place is not too far from the west gate of Beijing University, and Huang Shuqi’s sharp screams are enough to startle passers-by.

“Shuqi don’t call!” Lin Feng quickly covered Huang Shuqi’s mouth.

“You...what do you want to...?” Although Liu Yingying is the number one talented woman in Peking University, it is the first time she has met this kind of thing, and she feels terrified. He hid behind Lin Feng subconsciously, and grasped Lin Feng’s jacket as tightly as Huang Shuqi.

“Big brothers, you are just asking for money. I have money. You take it. Please don’t hurt people.” Lin Feng is extremely calm. Although he doesn’t often encounter this kind of thing, he has experienced it several times. As long as you give money honestly, it’s generally fine. But now there are two ladies around, and they are beautiful women, Lin Feng is afraid that these robbers will see an uprising, that would be very bad.

Fortunately, it’s getting late now, and here is another alley. Although the street lights on the avenue can see the ground clearly, they can’t see the appearance of the robbers. Therefore, it is difficult for the robbers to see the appearance of Huang Shuqi and Liu Yingying. This is also a blessing in misfortune.

At this time, in a BMW z8 car in the distance.

“Xia Qianhe, can you rely on the person you’re looking for? Don’t let Liu Yingying see through it, then I won’t have the face to meet her.” Zhang Han is also the first time to use this trick, and the nervousness in his heart is no more than that of being robbed. Liu Yingying and others are much less.

“Young Master Zhang, don’t worry. The people I invite are all hooligans, and they will never be seen through. After a while, as long as the kid is softened and shows ugliness, when Liu Yingying is most afraid, Zhang Dashao rushes in again, and he will naturally be able to hold him. The beautiful lady is back. At that time...” Xia Qianhe laughed ambiguously.

“Well, that’s good. After the incident, the private cars you detained by Shanghai Customs will be released soon.” Zhang Han nodded.

“Hehe, don’t worry, everything is under control.” Xia Qianhe was not as nervous as Zhang Han. He hasn’t done this kind of heroic saving the beauty ten times, and eight times. Even if the truth is discovered by those women occasionally, a smart woman will not tell the truth.

“Hmph, kid, count you acquainted. Hurry up, give me all the money you have, otherwise, hell, I will let you see the blood.” said a robber in the lead savagely.

“Yes, yes, brother. Let’s take it right away.” Lin Feng quickly took out his wallet and asked Liu Yingying to take out their wallets.

“Big brother, this is all of our money. There are more than 4,000 yuan in it. We also asked a few big brothers to raise their hands and let us go.” Lin Feng handed over the three wallets.

Damn, what should I do now! —Unexpectedly, the leading robber didn’t expect Lin Feng to be so calm, and he handed over his wallet with great cooperation. According to the rules of the arena, they should take the money and leave. But at the moment the boss ordered the task has not been completed, how can this go. What he agreed with the boss was the woman’s scream, and he was all disturbed by this kid right now.

auzw.com The leading robber rolled his eyes and noticed.

“Damn, boy, do you want to fool Lao Tzu, cell phone, and bring it to Lao Tzu.” The robber boss didn’t see Lin Feng has a cell phone, so he wanted to take the opportunity to find Lin Feng. As long as Lin Feng can’t take out his cell phone, he is ready to take the opportunity to beat Lin Feng. At that time, he would not believe that these two girls were not calling.

“I’m sorry, brother, take the phone!” Lin Feng surprised him again, and immediately offered the phone, “Big brother, can we go now?”

“Uh...” The robber boss was stunned. He hadn’t done anything like robbery before, but he had never met such a submissive and obedient person. Mother, when he robbed him, he had never met such an obedient person.

“Let’s go!” The robber boss said subconsciously.

“Thank you, hurry up!” Lin Feng hurriedly protected Liu Yingying and Huang Shuqi away.

“Wait!” The robber boss waited for Lin Feng and the three to walk out of the alley before suddenly remembering today’s mission.

“Run!” Lin Feng couldn’t stop at the moment, and quickly took the two girls and ran.

“Crap! Go chase!” The robber boss saw that something had gone wrong, and quickly ordered his hand to chase. —There is going to be a mistake in this matter, and Xia pay will not spare himself. Damn, why is this kid so obedient!

For the first time in his life, the robber boss hates the object of the robbery to be too submissive.

“Lin Feng, I...I can't run anymore!” Liu Yingying did not run a few steps, but her feet were soft. After shopping for a whole day, she was already exhausted, and she didn't like sports normally, and she was too frightened at the moment, so she didn't have the strength to run. However, Liu Yingying was young, and also often participated in various sports activities at school. At this moment, there was nothing else but a little fright.

“Shuqi, you take Liu Yingying and run quickly, I'll block them.” Lin Feng handed Liu Yingying to Huang Shuqi, quickly turned around, and rushed towards the robber while pulling out his pockets.

At this time, the two in the BMW z8 also discovered that something went wrong.

“No, something has happened, go and help!” Zhang Han worried about Liu Yingying's safety, and he was about to rush out when he opened the car door.

“Young Master Zhang, don't worry.” Xia Qianhe was pulled by Zhang Han, “You can only get that kid out for nothing. Maybe, his fake boyfriend will become a real boyfriend.”

After hearing Xia Qianhe's words, Zhang Han was taken aback. Think about it carefully, it is indeed possible. But Liu Yingying's safety is what Zhang Han is most worried about at the moment.

“Don't worry, the people I'm looking for are very measured. They won't hurt Liu Yingying.” Xia Qianhe said with relief, knowing what Zhang Han was worried about.

“Okay, wait a minute.” Zhang Han didn't want to fall short. Control your worries and watch things develop.

“Look at the hidden weapon!” Lin Feng took out a pile of things from his pocket, and hit the robber who was chasing him.

The four robbers flashed subconsciously, but they were stunned when they saw the hidden weapons flying all over the sky.

I saw hundreds of yuan bills fluttering all over the sky, which were particularly eye-catching under the shining of street lamps. It turned out that although Lin Feng had a wallet, he habitually kept his money in several places. This is also because of fear of being missed by thieves, so spread the risk. Unexpectedly, this move really helped a lot today.

The TV often shows the robbers throwing money in the street in order to get away. In order to get away today, Lin Feng also learned how to throw money in the street.

But what Lin Feng didn't expect was that the four robbers just stunned for a while, then they did not hesitate to catch up with them.

what happened? They don't pick up the money when they see it! ——Lin Feng was also stunned.

“Damn, the kid dare to spoil your uncle's good deeds!” Seeing Lin Feng was stunned, the robber boss was not polite and knocked Lin Feng down with a heavy blow.

“Quickly chase!” At this moment, Liu Yingying and Huang Shuqi had ran for more than ten meters after Lin Feng's delay, and then they reached the west gate of Peking University after another 100 meters.

Robbing at the west gate of Peking University, the robber boss asked himself that he hadn't done so boldly. This is an extremely serious matter. If it doesn't work, Young Master Xia can't keep them.

Therefore, in order to complete the task of Xia Gongzi, they must stop Liu Yingying and the others before they return to the gate of Peking University.

Chapter 46 Wang Meng

“Help! Help!”

Huang Shuqi dragged Liu Yingying and called while running. But she was already thin and weak, so she took Liu Yingying, who was already unable to run, how to run fast.

Seeing the four robbers behind him chased closer and closer.

“Shuqi, run away, leave me alone.” Liu Yingying also hated her not paying attention to exercise and only studying and reading, which caused her body to be so poor that she was not as good as a little girl at the critical moment.

“Sister Yingying, I won't leave you behind.” Although Huang Shuqi was afraid in her heart, she couldn't do anything to leave Liu Yingying to escape alone. The perennial college education made her remember what it means to help each other in the same boat.

“Go, you can run fast, you can go to the police. I really can't run.” Liu Yingying panted, dragging her numb legs and moving hard under Huang Shuqi's stubbornness.

In fact, Liu Yingying still had nothing to say in her heart. It's getting so late now, and the two girls' house is caught by these robbers, and they don't know what will happen. Huang Shuqi is not an adult, and if something happens, it will cause Huang Shuqi's lifelong trauma that cannot be repaired. On the contrary, he is an adult, and his psychological endurance is far beyond Huang Shuqi. If you really have to suffer the crime alone, it is better to do it yourself.

Speaking of it, I dragged down Huang Shuqi and Lin Feng, otherwise they would have run away long ago.

No matter how Liu Yingying persuaded, Huang Shuqi insisted on not complying. As a result, after such a delay, the two were chased by four robbers.

“Damn, smelly...” The robber boss was going to scold him, but he thought that it was the woman Xia Gongzi’s friend liked and couldn’t continue to scold him. Taking a closer look at the appearance of the two women, they couldn’t help swallowing in their throats.

Damn, it’s no wonder that these two girls are really good at acting in this play. If it weren’t for Xia Gongzi’s confession, I would take care of the two women today. ——The robber boss thought to himself.

“Damn, chick, hum, hand over all the money you have, otherwise, hey, brother, I haven’t touched a woman for a few days!” The robber boss smiled irritably, and the three men behind him also gave out the men very cooperatively. Unique laughter.

“Ah ” Huang Shuqi screamed instinctively.

“You...what do you want to do? I...we gave you all the money.” Liu Yingying pretended to be calm and said.

“Hmph, be honest, otherwise I will have to search.” As he said, the robber boss licked his tongue very obscenely.

“Don’t come over, don’t come over!” Huang Shuqi screamed again and again.

ok! Xia Gongzi and his friends should have heard the signal. ——The robber boss secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Although he encountered an accident today, he finally completed the task.

Unexpectedly, at this moment, the accident happened again.

“Stop!” With a stern shout, a black shadow rushed towards this side not far away.

Damn, who’s not long-eyed is good at this bad old man. ——The robber boss clicked on his right hand, and the two robbers immediately stepped forward to stop the people.

Unexpectedly, the black shadow leaped into the air with a “swish”, a sweeping leg hit the temple of a robber, and the robber fell down. At this time, the black figure in the air twisted, his waist straightened, his body forcibly rotated 180 degrees in the air, and his left leg was drawn on the left shoulder of the robber on the other side like a whip.

Hearing the sound of a broken bone, the other robber flew out with a muffled grunt, and fell to the ground without a sound.

Master! ——The robber boss's heart shuddered. He is also a Lianjiazi, with very poisonous eyes. The man in front of him is a master at the first glance. He is quick and easy to send and receive. He is far from his opponent. However, in order to complete the task of Xia Gongzi, the robber boss gritted his teeth, and another robber took out a German mountain knife from his body, and muffled to kill the shadow that had just landed.

“Good come!” The black shadow yelled, and his shoulders sank. The whole person was like a cannonball. The thunder was not as fast as the eyes and ears. He strode three steps in front of the robber boss, before the two robbers reacted. The palms were heavily printed on the chests of the two robbers like a fan.

“Bada” made two crisp sounds in a row, and the two robbers didn't snorted, and fell to the ground like a broken sandbag.

“Something happened!” Zhang Han and Xia Qianhe, who had already started the car and were about to come, were stunned when they saw the situation.

“Go, Young Master Zhang.” Xia Qianhe quickly called and ordered someone to * these robbers away, or he would be sent to the police station to cause trouble sooner or later. These people are all people with a record. Once they can't bear to bite him out, although he is not afraid, he is unwilling to have more trouble.

“En, Xia Qianhe, this is bothering you today. Your car detained by customs will be released soon.” Zhang Han also knows that things are a bit troublesome, but he is not the kind of person who does not take care of it. “What's the matter with today? We face the accident together.”

“Thank you.” Xia Qianhe was also polite. This fact is unlucky today, and no one expected such a fierce man to come out in the end. Judging from the skill, it is estimated that the military special forces, otherwise waiting idlers are not so skilled.

After Zhang Han and Xia Qianhe left, the shadow walked in front of Huang Shuqi and Liu Yingying.

“Are you okay?”

At this moment, Liu Yingying and Huang Shuqi could see the man's appearance clearly. Chinese character face, unsmiling, burly figure, a camouflage uniform.

“Ah, Brother Bing, it’s you!” Huang Shuqi settled down, and was pleasantly surprised to find that this person was the brother Bing who she and Brother Xiaofeng rescued yesterday.

“Ah, it’s you, little sister, thank you so much yesterday!” The man in the camouflage uniform also looked surprised, “I woke up today, I wanted to thank you. Unexpectedly, you didn’t leave any information. A nurse lady heard you say something about Peking University. I guess you must be a student of Peking University, so I went to Peking University and wanted to thank you. I waited for a night without seeing anyone, but when I was about to leave, I just heard someone calling for help. Came here.”

“Well, thank you, Brother Bing, otherwise sister Yingying and I will be in danger today.” Huang Shuqi smiled sweetly.

“By the way, what about that boy?” the man in camouflage uniform asked.

“Yeah, by the way, Brother Xiaofeng is still there!” Huang Shuqi hurriedly ran to Lin Feng, who had fainted on the ground.

The man in the camouflage uniform had sharp eyes and swept Lin Feng on the ground at a glance. After a few steps, after a slight check, they signaled Huang Shuqi and Liu Yingying not to be anxious, Lin Feng just passed out temporarily. After pinching people, Lin Feng came to his senses.

“Shu Qi, Liu Yingying, are you all right!” Lin Feng shook his head and asked anxiously.

“Brother Xiaofeng, it’s okay. It was this soldier who saved us.” Huang Shuqi happily helped Lin Feng up and quickly told the matter.

“Little brother, thank you yesterday. My name is Wang Meng.” Wang Meng stretched out his hand.

“I should thank you. My name is Lin Feng.” Lin Feng said, holding Wang Meng tightly.

What a rough hand, so powerful! ——Lin Feng was secretly speechless, his hand seemed to be shaking hands with an iron hoop.

After tidying up the money scattered on the ground, Lin Feng and Wang Meng sent back Huang Shuqi and Liu Yingying who were too frightened, and asked them not to think too much, they would naturally solve the rest.

“Brother Wang, can you enjoy a drink?” Lin Feng was really grateful to this lifesaver, and he was moved to make friends when he heard of his extraordinary skills.

“Haha, I mean it too. If it wasn’t for you, my little brother yesterday, I’m afraid I wouldn’t be able to stand here today.” Wang Meng laughed boldly.

The two left together. As for the four people who were seriously injured and unconscious on the ground, Lin Feng and Wang Meng both selectively ignored them, and left them alone.

In Lin Feng's view, it would be more troublesome to call the police. Not only have to ask about the whole story, but I must also trouble Huang Shuqi and Liu Yingying to do the transcript. It is so late, and Shuqi will sign up again tomorrow, Lin Feng really doesn't want her to be so tired. Moreover, these four people were seriously injured, so they had to pay for the medical expenses themselves. It's not that this has never happened, so Lin Feng left directly.

As for Wang Meng, he basically thinks that this kind of scum that is harmful to society deserves to die, and that it is a disaster to keep it.

Chapter 47 Glorious past

"Dream Demon Ji" is a very famous bar. Lin Feng had heard Liu Yingying mention it during the day. Therefore, Lin Feng brought Wang Meng to this bar with an insight mentality.

The style of the bar is good, there are quiet places where you can chat and drink, and there are small halls with high songs and dances, which can meet the needs of all kinds of people. Of course, there will naturally be such things as methamphetamine and ecstasy, which are inevitable in all bars.

"Brother, what's the matter, a frowning look?" Wang Meng said after pouring a glass of beer.

"Big Brother Wang, I have been thinking about what happened just now. I always feel that the robbery just now was strange." Lin Feng said about his doubts and the strange reaction of the robbers when he gave out money.

"Yes, brother, after what you said, I also feel that something is a bit wrong." Wang Meng also noticed that things were unusual.

In the past, when robbers robbed, they would choose to run away if they encountered passers-by or unexpected situations, but today they did the opposite, which made Wang Meng even wondering.

Hearing what Wang Meng said, Lin Feng felt even more puzzled. All the scenes from the sudden robbery to Wang Meng's appearance began to appear in my mind, and I played it back in my mind over and over again, trying to find out the strangeness and connection.

By the way, this is not a robbery at all, it is just a farce. -Lin Feng's mind flashed.

Unexpectedly, the seemingly invincible noble son actually played this kind of tricks. —Lin Feng had more contempt for Zhang Han in his heart, and less awe when he met him during the day.

“Brother, did you find something?” Wang Meng asked.

Lin Feng smiled and told Wang Meng of his guess and what happened during the day. Wang Meng was full of joy when he heard it. He didn't think that it was a heroic rescue of the United States performed by others, and he was messed up by himself.

Lin Feng and Wang Meng looked at each other and smiled.

Clink glasses and drink!

“Brother Wang, I don't know where you are now?” Lin Feng asked after half a drink.

“Oh, I haven't found a job yet.” Wang Meng took a glass of wine and sighed, “Brother, I don't have money to pay you back for the medical expenses you paid for now. I will pay you back when I earn money.”

Lin Feng knew that people like Wang Meng were particularly concerned about these things, so he didn't shirk.

“My brother is so good, was he in the army before?” After today's incident, Lin Feng also had the idea of recruiting a group of security guards. As my business expands, sooner or later, many people will be jealous. Even if no one is jealous, in case of bad luck, encountering such a thing today, he has no crisis handling ability at all.

Of course, Lin Feng hadn't thought about worshipping Wang Meng as his teacher and learning some self-defense skills. But these are all real skills, and they need to be tempered over the years. I couldn't endure this hardship first, and the golden age of learning martial arts was too early for the second time. It's better to ask people like Wang Meng for money.

auzw.com”Haha, brother, brother, I'm not a fan. I was the number one person in a certain unit of the Lanzhou Military Region. When it comes to solo combat and individual competition, I'm the one.” Wang Meng said From the past, a year of excitement.

“Back then, in the Military Region Individual Fighting Competition, although I only took third place. But it was a contest, and I couldn't be cruel. Otherwise, my opponent would not be able to resist even if my opponent had a hard qigong body.” Wang Meng is extremely proud of his iron palms that have been tempered for more than 20 years.

Iron palm! Lin Feng was taken aback when he heard it. Looking through the bar lights, Wang Meng’s hands were indeed different from ordinary people. The appearance of his hands looked smooth without a trace of palm lines, but they were extremely rough and strong to the touch.

“This is as powerful as the iron palm of the iron palm gang in the novel?” Lin Feng asked in surprise.

“Haha, my brother, how can it be so powerful. But the ordinary cement wall, I can leave a few palm prints on this palm.” Wang Meng’s life is the most proud of this pair of iron palms.

Next, under the influence of Lin Feng’s deliberate ingratiation and alcohol, Wang Meng may be unacceptable. Except for some secrets related to military affairs, he told Lin Feng all his brains.

It turned out that Wang Meng was a strong general of a certain special force in the Lanzhou Military Region. He has always been loved by his superiors. He thought he would be handed over to the army for his whole life. Unexpectedly, an accident happened while visiting relatives.

While returning home to visit relatives, he stumbled upon a girl who had escaped from an alley calling for help. After the nosy Wang Meng rescued the girl, he learned from the girl that she had been molested by an outside school gangster in the middle of the night. During the escape, he encountered a 110 patrol car and called the police. Unexpectedly, after getting into the car, he was raped by the three defense team members on duty. After a night of tossing, in the morning the girl took advantage of the three defense team members to fall asleep, and ran out.

After hearing this utterly conscience, Wang Meng, who was filled with righteous indignation, directly single-handedly killed the room opened by the comatose defense team, and directly “clicked” three times, and the iron palms were printed on the three people’s chest, severely wounding the three of them. Although they didn’t kill the three of them, Wang Meng promised that these three would never want to be “men” again.

The boss who witnessed the death of his hotel hurried to the police. Wang Meng, who wanted to explain the ins and outs of the matter, did not escape, and followed several police officers to the police station. Unexpectedly, at the police station, several police officers did not give him a chance to explain, and directly used torture. Unwilling to be humiliated, Wang Meng fought back brazenly. Single-handedly, after overturning more than 10 police officers, one person was killed from the police station.

But Jing Wang Meng's trouble is even more serious. The public security bureau in the county directly reported to the city bureau, and more than 100 riot police officers were deployed to encircle Wang Meng. Feeling that he was wronged by doing good deeds, Wang Meng suffocated his chest and started a chase battle with more than one hundred anti-riot police in the mountains.

On the flat ground, perhaps these anti-riot armed police can rely on their number advantage to eat Wang Meng to death. But in the mountains, Wang Meng, who has performed many jungle missions, is more adapted to survival in the jungle than anyone else. With one's own strength, relying on the cover of the jungle, he just turned the more than one hundred anti-riot armed policemen around. If it weren't for Wang Meng's mercy, I'm afraid these armed policemen would have been buried in the jungle long ago.

In the end, the police found Wang Meng's information and notified the Lanzhou Military Region, who sent personnel to take Wang Meng back. And after such a major incident, although Wang Meng was exempt from any criminal law because of the protection of the military area, he could no longer stay in the military area. Therefore, I chose to retire and leave the army, wanting to work hard in the city by my own ability.

Unexpectedly, his pair of iron sand palms, his knowledge of various firearms, and his almost abnormal knowledge of the jungle are useless in this steel forest.

After wandering for a few months, appendicitis suddenly occurred yesterday, and I got acquainted with Lin Feng.

After listening to Wang Meng's story, Lin Feng felt more confident about recruiting Wang Meng. As long as he is given sufficient salary and respect, I believe that there is no problem in hiring him as the head of the company's security department.

Although I am running a legitimate business, it doesn't mean that it won't cause some hooligans to worry about it. For example, in the barbecue shop opened before, there are always a few stalls that cannot receive money every night. Some gangsters always exempt orders for various reasons.

For these people, it is not good to offend, nor is it good to not be offended. If you call the police, you can naturally drive them away. But when the police leave, they will come back again. It would be even more troublesome if it provokes them to retaliate secretly. Moreover, it is even more expensive to hire the police once.

It's better to ask people like Wang Meng to shake those cats and dogs.

Chapter 48 Bar turmoil

"Xia Gongzi, the fifth child has been rescued. But they don't want to get out of bed in half a year." A man with a face full of flesh and a powerful upper arm said bitterly.

“Well, this money is for them to see a doctor.” Xia Qianhe also looked bad. Although the few people who were going to execute his orders were not directly under his own subordinates, they were seriously injured and hospitalized, which really made Xia Qianhe’s face unbearable. Especially this incident was for Zhang Han, and the result not only failed, but also almost caused trouble, which made Xia Qianhe faceless.

Although Zhang Han helped him solve the private car seized by Shanghai Customs, he seemed a little too incompetent in handling this matter. In their circle, if you are incapable, you won’t have any friends.

“Xia Gongzi, the fifth child is mine, and he was beaten like this. If I don’t ask for justice for him, I won’t be able to gang up on the rivers and lakes.” The fierce man’s big fist clenched tightly. Tight.

Xia Qianhe was also upset in her heart, but seeing that Tianer was so angry, but fearing that Tianer would make things worse, she frowned and said, “How do you want to solve it?”

Xia Qianhe’s origin is destined to be able to use these “friends” on the rivers and lakes, but must not be mixed into the rivers and lakes’ grievances.

“Young Master Xia, the situation is in trouble, I won’t bother Young Master Xia.” Da Tian Er also knew his identity, and didn’t want to use Xia Qianhe’s power to solve this matter.

“Well, but I warn you, you are not allowed to touch those two women.” Xia Qianhe warned.

“Don’t worry, we still know the rules of the world. I will only look for the man in the camouflage uniform.” Da Tianer’s eyes shot a fierce light.

At this moment, a man with the appearance of a little brother ran in and pointed to the two men in the hall outside, “Big brother, look, the man in the camouflage suit seems to be the one who hurt him as the fifth brother said.”

“What!” Da Tianer shook his joints all over, walked to the window, and carefully looked at the two people drinking in the distance.

Xia Qianhe looked through the window, and saw a man in camouflage clothes who did bad things about him at night, and the other was Liu Yingying’s fake boyfriend described by Zhang Han.

“Big day two, it’s them.” Xia Qianhe said surely.

“Brothers, copy guys, go with me to avenge the fifth brother!” Da Tian Er led a group of younger brothers to go out carrying steel pipes.

“Wait, my dream enchantress is a high-end bar. Don’t make trouble in the bar. After they leave, you can go outside to solve it.” Xia Qianhe stopped the furious Da Tian Er et al.

“Yes.” Although Da Tian Er was angry, he knew that he couldn’t make trouble in the bar at this moment, otherwise he would smash Xia Qianhe’s place and provoke Xia Qianhe’s hatred, which was definitely not what they wanted.

Drink, drink, this will be the last time you drink in this life. ——Da Tianer’s eyes shot fierce rays of light, and the steel pipe in his hand was pinched tightly, quietly waiting for the two to leave.

“What’s wrong, Brother Wang?” Lin Feng asked when Wang Meng frowned suddenly.

Just now, Wang Meng suddenly felt a murderous aura, which was a wonderful feeling of crisis formed during his years of military career. I don’t know how many missions, Wang Meng got his life back with this special response to the crisis. But in this dark and complicated bar, he couldn’t find the source of this murderous aura at all, he could only roughly sense that the murderous aura was coming at him.

Lin Feng walked out of the bar with Wang Meng after putting down his drink money.

As soon as he got out of the bar, even Lin Feng realized that something was wrong. Although it was past 0 o’clock, there was no one on the road near the bar, as if the venue was cleared.

Things are strange!

“Let’s go!” Wang Meng just glanced slightly, and walked forward with Lin Feng indifferently. Many years of military career let Wang Meng know that he and Lin Feng are being watched. He is not afraid, but he does not want to drag Lin Feng.

Not long after they walked, a group of people appeared behind Lin Feng and Wang Meng, and a few people stood faintly in the alley in front of them. Through the reflection of the street lamps, it was clear that everyone was carrying a steel pipe in their hands.

auzw.com

“What to do, Brother Wang!” Lin Feng’s heart was tight. He had never experienced this before, and he really didn’t know what to do.

“Let me call the police!” Lin Feng took out the phone to call the police.

“No!” Wang Meng called out anxiously, but it was too late at the moment.

Seeing that Lin Feng seemed to call the police, the people behind hula hula chased him with steel pipes.

Wang Meng frowned, pulling Lin Feng and ran forward, "After I open the gap, you will run quickly. Also, remember not to call the police!"

"Wh...what?" Lin Feng was startled, for some reason Wang Meng refused to call the police.

"Don't worry, this person can't hurt me. If you call the police, I will be very troublesome." Wang Meng took Lin Feng and rushed to the front of the intercepted people, with a tiger roar, his palms were like the palms of a giant spirit, and he shook directly. Fly two people and make a gap.

"Hurry up!" Wang Meng pushed Lin Feng out.

However, taking advantage of the gap where Wang Meng pushed Lin Feng out, he received two heavy blows on his back. Lin Feng's heart jumped when he heard the heavy and muffled sound of sticks entering the flesh.

But what was even more shocking to Lin Feng was that Wang Meng was completely okay, turning around with two palms, and the two gangsters howled miserably, and flew out three or four meters.

"Go!" Wang Meng shouted violently, and stopped the dozen or so people who were catching up.

Seeing Wang Meng alone in the crowd, he was like a tiger descending the mountain, unstoppable, a pair of iron sand palms flew up and down, and a group of gangsters screamed bitterly.

At this moment, Lin Feng knew why Wang Meng didn't want him to call the police just now. He didn't dare to be worried that he was being beaten up, but because he was afraid that his shot would be too heavy and would injure these gangsters. It would not be easy for the police to explain.

The so-called quack matter, quack. Since these gangsters found themselves and Wang Meng, they would naturally not call the police if they were injured, they would only be resolved according to the rules of the world.

Seeing that Wang Meng was okay, Lin Feng also left with confidence, ready to go to the intersection ahead and wait for the return of Wang Meng who was fighting against the demons. After all, although he was not a weak scholar, he still had no resistance to this group of gangsters who had been fighting and killing all day long. Strong staying here was nothing but distracting Wang Meng.

“Squeaky ” A Mercedes-Benz S600 stopped in front of Lin Feng, and got out of the car with a young man who was very particular but slightly flashy. Behind him were two extremely strong bodyguards who gave people a heavy and oppressive feeling.

Lin Feng frowned and looked at this person, faintly feeling that this person was related to the attack tonight.

After taking a graceful cigarette, the young man gently flicked the cigarette * in front of Lin Feng, “I don’t know who you are, and I don’t want to know who you are, let alone know who you are.”

These three sentences of “Who are you” made Lin Feng extremely upset when he heard it, but as soon as he looked at this person’s clothes, he knew that his identity was absolutely unusual, and Lin Feng could only hold back his unhappiness.

Lin Feng is unwilling to cause trouble, at least for the moment.

“I am here today, just to warn you, stay away from Liu Yingying. I don’t care if you are her boyfriend or not, in short, stay away from her. Otherwise, your troubled companion tonight will be your role model. “The flashy man said contemptuously.

The flashy man was Xia Qianhe, and he was here to warn Lin Feng. Although Zhang Han didn’t put Lin Feng in his eyes, Xia Qianhe knew that although Zhang Han was scornful in his mouth, there was a real swelling in his heart. Xia Qianhe, who had a fault in “Hero Save the Beauty”, naturally wanted to help Zhang Han to get rid of this pesky fly.

“You did this tonight?” Lin Feng was sullen, thinking that Wang Meng was still fighting with people in the alley behind him, and he was even more indignant at this young man.

“If I don’t agree!” Although Lin Feng didn’t have the slightest affection between men and women for Liu Yingying, Xia Qianhe’s words and tonight’s affairs made Lin Feng reluctant to do what he wanted.

Chapter 49 endure!

Chapter 49 Shinobi!

“If I don’t agree!” Lin Feng said.

“Sneez!” Xia Qianhe looked at Lin Feng in astonishment as if he heard a big joke. After a long time, he sniffed coldly and walked to Lin Feng.

"I'm not as good as Zhang Dashao, nor as decent as him, I warn you again, and immediately get away from me, don't let me see you next to Liu Yingying again." Xia Qianhe said coldly .

"If I don't agree!" Lin Feng's tone was not good.

"Fuck, what are you!" Xia Qianhe slapped it sharply, "Dare to speak to this young master!"

With a crisp "pop", a bright red palm print appeared on Lin Feng's left cheek.

Lin Feng was taken aback for the first time in his life. For the first time in his life, he was slapped in the face. No matter how cold he was, he couldn't stand the insult. In an instant, a huge sense of humiliation surged into my heart, and he directly hit Xia Qianhe's right cheek with a right uppercut.

"My young master came to see you today. It is already to give you face..." Xia Qianhe was still there, pointing at Lin Feng and cursing. He never thought that Lin Feng would fight back. His face.

"Ouch!" Xia Qianhe cried out in pain, covering his face and taking three steps backwards.

"Master!" The two bodyguards behind him were taken aback and hurriedly protected Xia Qianhe.

"It hurts, damn, little bastard, you dare to hit my young master and you won't catch that kid for me!" Xia Qianhe buzzed his nose, holding his * nose.

"Yes!" One of the bodyguards protected Xia Qianhe, and the other bodyguard directly stretched out a big hand to grab Lin Feng.

Lin Feng knew that this matter was already difficult to deal with, and he no longer hesitated. Although the big man in front of him looked extremely uncomfortable, the matter was already here, and it was no different.

But Lin Feng overestimated his own ability and underestimated the strength of his opponent. In just one round, Lin Feng was captured by his opponent directly and cleanly. This bodyguard made Lin Feng unable to move with just one hand.

A lot of strength! —Lin Feng struggled desperately, but the huge force from the opponent's wrist made Lin Feng's struggle as ridiculous as a mayfly shaking a tree.

Seeing Xia Qianhe walking towards him with a grinning grin, Lin Feng knew what he was going to do. But no matter how Lin Feng struggled, the hand that twisted Lin Feng's hands was like a binding curse on Monkey King's head, holding Lin Feng firmly and unable to move.

"What do you want to do?" Lin Feng can only postpone time now, pinning all hopes on Wang Meng, waiting for him to solve the gangsters in the alley behind him before he comes to rescue himself.

Xia Qianhe had stopped his nosebleed, but his handsome face had become particularly hideous. He has never been beaten by anyone since he was young, except for being beaten once by his father. Today was actually beaten by this soil bun from outside, which made Xia Qianhe extremely angry.

No, it can't be said to be angry, it can be said to be crazy.

"Damn, dare to hit this young master!" Xia Qianhe directly kicked and kicked Lin Feng's belly.

Lin Feng felt that his abdomen seemed to be run over by a car, his stomach was overwhelmed, his face was blue and white, and a strong feeling of vomiting came from his body. But when he reached his mouth, Lin Feng forcibly swallowed it back.

endure! You must not be looked down upon by this arrogant and domineering brother. And you must take revenge, and you will definitely make him look good when Wang Meng comes back!

Xia Qianhe looked weak, but the two bodyguards who followed him were all retired special forces from the army. They usually learned a few hands with them. Although he didn't make any real effort, his kick was not small.

"Bang" and "Bang", Xia Qianhe, who was violent, fell heavily on Lin Feng with a combination of fists, and Lin Feng almost vomited out the meal overnight.

pain! The whole body seemed to be torn like pain. It's not that Lin Feng has never been beaten, but it was the first time that he was arbitrarily beaten by others. The anger in my heart surged like a volcano about to erupt. But Lin Feng gritted his teeth and held back, whether it was the pain from the body or the anger from deep in his heart, Lin Feng was holding back.

Lin Feng wanted revenge, and let this arrogant young man taste his fist viciously. But now is not the time, and he has no chance to take revenge. Wait, wait for Wang Meng to come back. Must wait until Wang Meng comes back! ——Lin Feng said desperately to himself.

The thought of auzw.com made Lin Fengqiang hold back the severe pain from his body, and he didn't say a word.

“Huh” and “huh”, Xia Qianhe did not often do such intense exercises, and was tired after a few strokes. Moreover, Lin Feng’s non-resistance also made Xia Qianhe feel dull. If a person neither utters a word nor struggles to let you hit, the feeling of hitting is not the slightest pleasure.

“Trash! Being beaten by someone not only didn’t dare to fight back, he didn’t even dare to scold him! I spit!” Xia Qianhe spit in disdain.

Although Xia Qianhe despised Lin Feng extremely, the bodyguard who held Lin Feng was not careless. Although Lin Feng was beaten up violently, he didn’t say anything, and his endurance was beyond ordinary. The so-called harder the pressure, the stronger the rebound, and he can clearly feel the slight trembling from the body of the man in his arms. He is extremely experienced knowing that the man in his arms is forbearing, or that he is accumulating strength, waiting for the moment of explosion.

Fearing that Xia Qianhe would have an accident, he changed to grasping Lin Feng’s arm with both hands with caution, and used a lock character to prevent the sudden outbreak of the man in his arms from breaking away from his shackles and hurting Xia Qianhe.

“Little bastard, I will warn you one last time. Stay away from Liu Yingying, or I will ask someone to interrupt your dog legs next time.” Xia Qianhe said bitterly.

Damn, I got a nosebleed again. —Xia Qianhe covered his nose with a handkerchief.

“Go!” Xia Qianhe threw aside the handkerchief with nosebleeds disgustingly. Another bodyguard hurriedly opened the door.

The bodyguard holding Lin Feng didn’t dare to be careless. Instead, he moved Lin Feng back a little, and waited for Xia Qianhe to get in the car before letting him go.

“Okay, let go of that little bastard.” Xia Qianhe said after getting in the car.

“Yes, Master.” Just as the bodyguard was about to let go, a thick voice sounded behind him with alarming anger.

“Let him go.” Hearing this voice, Lin Feng knew that Wang Meng had arrived.

Wang Meng is finally here! Xia Qianhe, I want you to double for the 1 kick and 11 punches just now! —Lin Feng roared wildly in his heart, but he dared not show it on his face. These two bodyguards were also extremely powerful people, and he was not sure that Wang Meng would be able to bring them down. Therefore, Lin Feng wants to paralyze them, waiting for the moment when they relax.

Perhaps after beating Xia Qianhe, he would be beaten by these two bodyguards. But not afraid, barefooted are not afraid of wearing shoes. He has a wealth of at most one million, but Xia Qianhe is far more than himself in this brand and sports car alone. Change one by one, and you won't suffer. —Lin Feng's eyes locked Xia Qianhe tightly through her hair.

"Who!" The bodyguard was taken aback. When someone touched him, he didn't even know that he had to perform the task and he was not far from death.

The bodyguard quickly let go of Lin Feng, and turned sideways, watching Wang Meng behind him as if facing an enemy.

Chinese character face, unsmiling, burly figure, a camouflage uniform, with traces of blood on the temples. The bodyguard could see Wang Meng's appearance in just an instant.

soldier! Soldiers of special forces! —The bodyguard felt tight. The temperament of the soldiers can be seen at a glance, especially the retired soldiers of the special forces, the sturdy defense and absolute calmness of that suit are clear at a glance.

The bodyguard caught a cold sweat on his forehead, knowing that things would be hard to get right today. The person in front of him gave him a greater sense of oppression than the instructors in the previous military special training. What made the bodyguard even more shocking was the man's palm, which was not only big but also frightening. In the mind of the bodyguard, he vaguely remembered where he had heard rumors similar to these palms.

"Damn, how did Big Tianer make him run!" Xia Qianhe, who was sitting in the Mercedes-Benz S600, said irritably. He didn't expect that the two dozen of them on Day Two had not settled the soldiers.

"Li Wuji, you go and help Li Wuji." Since Wang Meng can escape from the encirclement and suppression of more than 20 people under Datian, he is obviously very skilled. To avoid accidents, Xia Qianhe asked Li Wuji to help his brother.

Li Wuji and Li Wuji are twin brothers, enlisted together and retired together. Both of them are skilled, and what is even more powerful is that they have learned a combination of strikes. When the two came to Beijing for the first time, they also offended Da Tian Er. After being chased and killed by more than 100 people from Da Tian Second Hand, they relied on this combined attack technique to get out of the siege. Because of this, Xia Qianhe took a fancy to him and became his bodyguard.

"Yes, Master!" Li Wuji concluded that Wang Meng was absolutely extraordinary with just one glance, and the power hidden in his body was simply shocking. Li Wuji alone is definitely not this man's opponent.

When Li Feng passed by Lin Feng, he glanced slightly. Just now Xia Qianhe beat Lin Feng, if the two of them were to deal with this strange man, if the man on the ground suddenly attacked Xia Qianhe, and they were both incapable of doing so, they would commit a bodyguard taboo.

The first duty of a bodyguard is to protect the safety of the employer.

Okay, the man on the ground seemed to be beaten enough, but he was lying on the ground panting without saying a word.

Li Wuji safely bypassed Lin Feng and stood with Li Wuji.

Never leave your brother in battle. No matter how powerful the man in front of him is, the two brothers will definitely be able to win as long as they work together.

Chapter 50 Two Heroes Club

(I have been sick this week and have been doing two shifts a day, and will resume three shifts next week! Thank you for your support!)

(By the way, I recommend a friend's new book: Copycat Magician, Sword Killing Evil)

Wang Meng is not in good shape at the moment.

In the second-hand fight with Datian, Wang Meng, who was caught in the siege, brought down 24 people with a pair of iron sand palms and the strength of hard qigong, but he got one stick on his forehead and four sticks behind his back. The four sticks on his back did not cause substantial damage to Wang Meng. The real damage came from the stick on his forehead. Until now, Wang Meng's brain is still a little buzzing.

But worrying about Lin Feng's safety, Wang Meng chased him without taking a break.

Soldiers, two! Wang Meng's heart shuddered. He did not expect to meet a veteran here, and it was also from the special forces.

Wang Meng took a deep breath, mixing the slightly dull breath in his chest evenly. There must be a * battle later, and he can't be careless. However, Wang Meng believed that the two soldiers in front of him would be enough to win with his pair of iron palms. Of course, a certain price must be paid.

The only thing Wang Meng worried about was Lin Feng, a savior who was quite close to him. At this stage of the development of this matter, Wang Meng has already figured out the whole story. All of this originated from the "righteousness" in the evening. The four people he wounded must be the gangsters who came out from the bar to hunt him down. As for the two soldiers in front of him, they must be the bodyguards of the young man. As for this elder brother, he must be the one who planned this "hero to save the beauty" plan and was destroyed by himself.

Wang Meng glanced at Lin Feng, who was lying on the ground, his heart tightened. At first glance, he knew that he must have been beaten severely before. Thinking of this, Wang Meng's heart surged with anger. Friends have always been Wang Meng's most concern. Although Lin Feng and him have only known each other for a long time, this does not prevent Wang Meng from approving Lin Feng.

In the dilemma of robbery, let the woman go first and stop the robber by herself. This alone can make Wang Meng accept this person as a friend.

"Brother, please!" Li Wuji stood beside Li Wuji and made a gesture to Wang Meng that only the special forces in the army could understand.

"Please!" Wang Meng replied.

When the gesture came out, both sides knew exactly who each other was. This also makes both parties more cautious about each other.

"This brother, my name is Li Wuji, and this is my brother Li Wuji." Li Wuji didn't want to make a big mess today. Xia Qianhe had already let Lin Feng go. Today's things had better stop here.

Wang Meng's heart jumped, thinking of the two brothers who were rumored to be extremely good at cooperating in the army before, "You are the two brothers of Promise!"

"Certain! Dare to ask brother Gao's name!" Li Wuji asked with a fist.

"Wang Meng!" Wang Meng brightened his palm.

"Ironpaw Tyrannosaurus King Meng!" The two brothers Li Wuji exclaimed, their expressions changed.

auzw.com Ironpaw Tyrannosaurus King Meng is definitely the most controversial but most admirable person in the army. Back then, he went to the China-India border to perform a special mission. One person went deep into the jungle and ran out of ammunition and food. With a pair of iron palms, he forced himself out of the siege from a large group of Indian special forces. This incident was widely circulated throughout the Sino-Indian border guards, and it was almost the modern version of the * of war, Lu Bu.

What makes Wang Meng even more frightening is his stubborn character. When he went to South Africa for peacekeeping, a local insurgent organization robbed their troops and robbed a cart of material. In anger, Wang Meng chased and killed alone in the African savannah for two thousand miles. Finally, he wiped out all the rebel organizations and returned with the exhausted material vehicles. Although Wang Meng was severely punished after the incident, he gained the reputation of the Chinese peacekeeping force. This is also the reason why Wang Meng has always been favored by his superiors despite his hot personality.

Some time ago, Li Wuji had heard from his friends in the army that Wang Meng had caused another incident. It was reported that Wang Meng and more than 100 riot armed police were working in the mountains because of the injustice. Had it not been for the military region to send people over, the 100-odd anti-riot armed police would not even think about going down the mountain.

Today, I learned that the man in front of me was Wang Meng, and the brothers Li Wuji knew that things would be difficult to do well today.

“Brother Wang, your prestige in the army, our brothers have always been like thunderbolts, and have always wanted to see each other. Unexpectedly, we met today in this situation. It is better to give our brothers a face and let this matter today. As for your friend Our brothers were responsible for paying for the medical expenses for the injury, and we set a table to drink tea to apologize to your friend afterwards. What do you think?” Li Wuji did not want to be an enemy of Wang Meng, hoping that this would turn fighting into jade.

When Wang Meng heard it, his mentality was also active. He also admired the two brothers Li Wuji for a long time. The two brothers’ “double swords combined” was reported to have been invincible in the army. He wanted to see it early, but he had never had a chance. Although Lin Feng encountered this unwarranted disaster, since the other party was willing to pour the tea and apologize, it should be able to calm Lin Feng’s anger.

The so-called not knowing each other without fighting, and apologizing for the character of the two brothers Li Wou-ki, who can offer wine and pour tea, has already given Zu Linfeng face. If Lin Feng is still entangled, Wang Meng will look down on Lin Feng. This kind of person is not worthy of being Wang Meng’s friend.

Just when Wang Meng was about to agree, the impatient Xia Qianhe who was waiting in the Mercedes-Benz s600 wailed out loud.

“Li Wuji, what are you talking about, don’t you give me a deal with the * who bad my good deeds, remember, break his legs for me, and see how he will be nosy in the future!” Xia Qianhe said with a face. Angry.

That’s it! Hearing Xia Qianhe’s words, Brother Li Wuji knew that there was no room for recovery.

Is Xia Qianhe’s IQ low or too arrogant? Xia Qianhe’s IQ is definitely not low, and EQ is not low. Compared to other dudes, he is definitely low-key. However, the two incidents that happened tonight caused Xia Qianhe to lose his normalcy.

The first thing was that Wang Meng broke his plan to please Zhang Han's "hero save the beauty", which made him extremely embarrassed in front of Zhang Han; the second thing was that he was punched by Lin Feng, which made Xia Qianhe lose the usual calmness. Although he beat Lin Feng, Lin Feng's strategy of non-resistance made him extremely upset, and he kept holding a sigh of breath in his heart. Now seeing Wang Meng come out so happily, the anger in my heart is even more difficult to calm.

Xia Qianhe was very eager to vent the anger in his heart. In addition, he had great trust in the skills of the two bodyguards around him, so at this critical moment when he was about to turn fighting into a jade silk, he interjected such a sentence. It also directly exploded the anger that had calmed down in Wang Meng's heart.

Wang Meng has three hatreds in his life: one is traitorous; the second is to betray his brothers, and the third is to bully others. Xia Qianhe's words just violated his third greatest taboo. Before the two brothers Li Wuji bowed their heads, they were willing to apologize to Lin Feng Pour Cha, and let him put aside the dispute temporarily. But at the moment, if Wang Meng is willing to make big things small and small things small, then it is not Ironpaw Tyrannosaurus Wang Meng!

"Do it!" Wang Meng's iron palm lit up, his low voice filled with infinite anger.

"Brother Wang, why is this necessary? Young Master Xia is still a child, so just say something childish!" Li Wuji made the last effort.

"My name is Tyrannosaurus Ironpaw!" Wang Meng brightened his palm and announced his nickname.

The two brothers Li Wuji looked at each other deeply, knowing that things can no longer be good tonight, and there will be a battle.

But why bother of all this!

Chapter 51 Fight against each other

Xia Qianhe is not stupid. Not only is he not stupid, he should be said to be shrewd. At this moment, he also saw the strangeness of the matter. The two brothers Li Wuji, who are usually very brave, showed a rare dignified color today, which made Xia Qianhe had to be surprised.

He knows the strength of the two brothers Li Wuji very well. Even a dozen or so big men who play alone are not one of their opponents. If "Double Swords Together" is the most mysterious Zhongnanhai bodyguard in the legend, it is not the opponent of the two brothers.

When Xia Qianhe first hired the Li Wuji brothers, in order to test their abilities, he relied on his father's relationship to let the Li Wuji brothers compete with the newly retired Zhongnanhai bodyguards who had served as the bodyguard of a certain chief. Fighting alone, none of the brothers is Zhongnanhai's bodyguard opponent, but the "two swords combined" can withstand the attack of the three Zhongnanhai bodyguards.

Now the two of them are helpless against Wang Meng and dare not launch an attack. This surprised Xia Qianhe a little bit more to cherish his talents, hoping to recruit this kind of person, with these fierce generals, plus the Li brothers, the next "Huashan Wheel Sword" champion must belong to He Xia Qianhe. However, no matter whether they are recruited or not, they must first be convinced. Otherwise, such an inferior person, please come to hurt the enemy, but even more.

The three people who were facing each other in the field didn't know that Xia Qianhe had turned all these thoughts in his mind. The three of them were evenly matched at the moment, and if they were not careful, they would lose their lives.

Although Wang Meng had heard about the names of the Li brothers, he realized that their "two swords" were perfect when they really held each other. No matter who he attacks, he will be ruthlessly counterattacked by the other. Although he used the slight movements of his feet, shoulders, and elbows several times to influence the two brothers, hoping to find a flaw in them, but the spiritual communication between the two brothers made Wang Meng futile.

Although Wang Meng was surprised, the Li Wuji brothers were even more surprised. His two brothers "double swords on the wall", 1+1 is definitely greater than 2, but the brothers are not sure about Wang Meng. Those huge iron palms put too much pressure on the brothers. This pair of iron palms is so fierce in the army that no one can withstand the full blow of Wang Meng's iron palms. This made the brothers hesitate to attack.

The three of the two sides stood in a stalemate like this, and no one could do anything about it. Now the comparison is stamina and perseverance, to see who can't hold on to this pressure first, who collapses first, loses this unprovoked duel.

However, both sides are one of the best soldiers in the country, and their endurance and perseverance do not lose to the special forces of any country in the world. To decide the victory or defeat, it is by no means a short time.

The duel gradually developed into a long-lasting stalemate, but there was a sudden change in the field. The x-factor of this sudden change was Lin Feng, which everyone thought collapsed to the ground.

After Lin Feng came from Wang suddenly, he kept holding his breath. He wants revenge and seeks justice for himself. But he has not dared to move. The Li brothers are unpredictable. As long as they are by Xia Qianhe, Lin Feng will not even talk about revenge, even self-protection is difficult.

Waiting, Lin Feng lay on the ground quietly waiting for the best time to come, and quietly accumulating strength.

The three opponents in the field, Xia Qianhe sitting in the Mercedes-Benz S600, all temporarily forgot Lin Feng lying on the ground. And their forgetting made Lin Feng finally wait for an opportunity.

In the silent night sky, an abrupt string of cell phone bells rang.

The four of them couldn't help but looked at them, but they glanced at the three who were holding them and found that the ringtone came from Lin Feng, who was lying on the ground, and immediately turned their attention to each other. After only one glance, Xia Qianhe no longer cared, lit a cigarette and waited for the result of the duel.

“Beep ”

The harsh ringing pierced the night sky, which was particularly shocking. The three people in the holding are even more energetic, fearing that the opponent will launch a sudden attack when the next bell rings.

“Beep ”

Every time the bell rang, it struck the hearts of the three as a reminder, not only torturing the nerves of the three, but also pulling off the last safety gate of the duel. All three of them knew that the moment the bell disappeared, it was the moment of a showdown.

At this moment, Xia Qianhe also saw that the duel had reached a critical moment. As the bell rang, his heart became tighter and tighter, and a cigarette was almost extinguished without knowing it.

auzw.com

Silence was silent, the ringtone finally broke, and the night returned to tranquility again. But the real fight has just begun.

“Drink!” Wang Meng is worthy of being the king of individual soldiers. It took only 0.1 seconds to react from the moment the bell disappeared to the attack, and he launched a fierce offensive against the Li Wuji brothers. A pair of iron palms are like a thousand fall, and the fall is colorful, and the shadows of Wang Meng's palms are everywhere, covering the vital points of the Li Wuji brothers, making them inevitable.

Someone once joked that Wang Meng's iron palms were as powerful as Taodao Huang Laoxie's falling sword palms.

Of course, this is just a joke after all. There is no such thing as breaking gold and stone in the novel. However, the Li Wuji brothers, who fell into the wind when they met in the first grade, would naturally not use their bodies to try to see if Wang Meng's iron palms have any Taodao's Luoying Excalibur is very powerful. The brothers also roared, not retreating but advancing, attacking the place where Wang Meng would be saved.

If Wang Meng's palm is true, the Li Wuji brothers must have seriously injured one person, but the brothers' counterattack could also cause Wang Meng to be seriously injured. But there were two brothers Li Wuji, but Wang Meng was only one, and Wang Meng had to withdraw his hand. However, the Li Wuji brothers took advantage of the situation to counterattack. After a few rounds, they had regained their previous disadvantage and gradually gained the upper hand.

You can say that the Li Wuji brothers have won more with less than shame, or you can say that they are despicable, but only the winner can have the last laugh. The so-called meanness and shamelessness ceased to exist when the loser fell.

Xia Qianhe smiled. Although he is not proficient in martial arts, he can see that the Li brothers already have the upper hand in the appearance. Not surprisingly, the Li brothers will definitely capture this fierce general who can fight the Li brothers on his own.

"Huashan on the sword!", this time I will definitely win! ——Xia Qianhe's thoughts have drifted to the top of Mount Hua a few months later.

The so-called "Huashan Lunjian" is just a joke that a group of idle and boring brothers mentioned in a joke at a party. Each son has his own background, and he hired all kinds of bodyguards for his safety. Inside there are strong retired soldiers in the army, as well as first-class and first-class players hidden in the arena.

When a group of princes met, they discussed with each other and boasted that their bodyguards were good. Often blushing for this struggle, in order to distinguish whose bodyguard is strong, and in order to pass the boring life, so a group of idle and boring brothers developed such a farce of "Huashan on the sword".

Full moon night,

The top of Huashan.

Who controls the ups and downs,

Hero with a sword!

In order to make this "game" more exciting, it naturally adds a lot of color. Money, connections, women, everything can be gambled. A group of boring to crazy boy buddies, as long as they are happy, they dare to gamble on anything and dare to suppress everything.

Xia Qianhe was also one of the initiators, but for three consecutive terms, as the initiator, he did not even enter the top five, which made him very embarrassed. After unexpectedly recruiting the Li brothers this year, the goal was directed at the “five uniques.” However, after witnessing Wang Meng’s Biaohan performance, Xia Qianhe has secretly directed his goal to the “superior powers” in the “five unique”.

As for the deaths and injuries of these bodyguards in the duel, it is not important to this group of elder brothers. Don’t you be a bodyguard just to make money? I lose money.

Returning to the quiet night in Beijing, the situation in the field is changing at this moment. Wang Meng’s situation is precarious, and he may fall under the “double swords” of the Li brothers at any time. But the Li brothers did not dare to push too much. Wang Meng’s prestige was too great, and the fierce name of this pair of iron palms was even more thunderous. Once Wang Meng was pressed, his dying counterattack could definitely seriously injure the brothers. In the end, the three of them could only All lose out.

Therefore, Li Wou-ki hopes that Wang Meng can be dragged over, and it is best to end peacefully. However, the war situation, where everything is developing towards a peaceful end, has returned.

Lin Feng, who had been lying on the ground, moved, like a cheetah lurking for three days and three nights waiting for its prey. Fierce attack.
