

Ex's Brother 1091

Chapter 1091: slept with that fang zikai

[don't talk nonsense. i don't like him. i just want to ask if he's fang zikai.]

wan yuting: [hahaha, don't be embarrassed. we all like him. our school even specially created a fan group for him. everyone's goal is the same: he slept with that fang zikai!]

lu yinxi couldn't help but frown at wan yuting's bold and unrestrained actions.

he even created a fangirl group ...

as far as she knew, there were five or six girls in her class who were infatuated with fang zikai. there were at least dozens of them in the entire school. if everyone slept together, wouldn't fang zikai have to pamper one person every night?

he can handle it?

"you can't sleep together. it's bad for your health," lu yinxi said seriously.

wan yuting: [...]

[wan yuting: you're really boring.]

lu yinxi didn't feel bored at all.

she asked, [i just want to ask, is he fang zikai?]

[other than my little prince, fang zikai, who else is so handsome?]

[i know.]

wan yuting asked, [what's wrong?] you've decided to confess to him? [if we confess to him, the possibility of him accepting us is only 40 – 50%. if you go, the possibility is about 70 – 80%.]

even though lu yinxi didn't have any such thoughts, she still couldn't help but ask, " [why?]

wan yuting replied, [do you even need to ask?] [of course it's because you're better looking than us!]

she was really honest.

wan yuting was still sending messages non-stop, talking about all the good things about fang zikai.

lu yinxi stared at her messages and rarely replied. if she didn't know that fang zikai was her brother who had helped her, lu yinxi wouldn't be sitting here, staring at her phone and looking at these boring gossip.

however, because fang zikai was the little brother, all the news about fang zikai had become kind and lovely to lu yinxi.

wan yuting said a lot of things. in the end, she said that her mother asked her to take a shower and that she had to leave. lu yinxi opened fang zikai's photo and looked at it.

her brother was really good-looking. he was good-looking in photos, but he looked even better in person.

how could someone be so good-looking?

"the guy you like? or a guy who likes you?" lu ziai's voice suddenly rang out above lu yinxi's head.

lu yinxi frantically minimized the picture and exited wechat. lu yinxi noticed that lu ziai was still looking at her with a faint smile. she hadn't done anything, but she couldn't help but feel her face heat up.

"auntie, you ... you must be joking. he's just a senior."

"oh, the kind of senior who's secretly in love and is preparing to openly fall in love in the future and develop her into a boyfriend?" the smile on lu ziai's face seemed to deepen.

lu yinxi had nothing to say and simply lowered her head.

lu ziai picked up her phone and logged into her wechat account. after logging in, she wiped her phone and said to lu yinxi, "you're still young. you can like someone, but you have to hold back."

lu yinxi slowly raised her head and looked at him in surprise.

lu ziai said, "a girl should cherish her body. if you don't, others won't." "you're still young, so there are some things you have to hold back."

her gaze became deep and she said, "if you like someone to the point where you don't hold back, you're done for."

lu yinxi was stunned, not because she felt embarrassed, but because she was stunned by lu ziai's deep expression when he said the last sentence.

"i, i know."

seeing that she had taken his words seriously, lu ziai finally agreed.

"time to sleep."

she went to her room to sleep without even drying her hair. she was not afraid of getting a headache.

during the winter break, lu yinxi went to work.

she understood this, but if she didn't work, she would lose the chance to read.

it was only then that lu yinxi found out about her aunt's job. she was the boss of a taekwondo dojo and ran a tea restaurant. lu yinxi worked in lu ziai's restaurant during the winter break.

she served coffee and tea, mopped the floor and wiped the table. she did everything she could. during the new year, other than the afternoon and evening of the new year's eve and the first day of the new year, lu yinxi was at work all day.

she went to work during the day and did her homework and read books at night. she spent the winter vacation in such a busy manner. with her salary and bonus, she only earned 2600 yuan in total.

money was really not easy to earn.

lu yinxi saved up the money she had earned. she didn't attend classes on the first day of school. she went home after signing up and came back to school the next day. after lu yinxi reported for work, she took the subway back to northern city.

speaking of which, the place where she lived now was not far from xiangjiang international college. it was only two stops by train and 40 minutes by bus. lu yinxi walked out of the subway station and walked around a large square. after walking through a busy street, she saw xiangjiang international college.

xiangjiang international college's elementary, junior, and senior departments were one. the school area was huge.

the school gate was built in an imposing manner.

on the top of the school gate, a few red words were rolling. a few retired soldiers stood at the school gate, looking as majestic as a god.

lu yinxi was a little scared.

this school was really awesome.

she stood at the door for a long time. she did not have the courage to go in, and she could not go in. she did not expect to see fang zikai, she just wanted to see him. she could not tell what she wanted to see, but it was not just to see the school.

lu yinxi stood at the entrance for a long time. she was quite disappointed when she realized that fewer and fewer people were coming out of the school.

it seemed that she would not be able to see him today.

lu yinxi was about to leave when she saw a tall young man walking out of the school gate with a shoulder bag. out of all the students, he was the tallest and most outstanding. he was young, but his temperament was extraordinary.

lu yinxi saw him immediately.

he was wearing cosmetic contact lenses again today!

lu yinxi gathered her courage and ran over.

“brother ... student fang!”

she almost called him brother.

fang zicheng stopped in his tracks and turned back to look at her. there was no confusion in his cold eyes. he had obviously recognized her. lu yinxi didn't know if she should be happy or nervous. he actually remembered her!

"have you recovered?" fang zicheng asked. he did not know that lu yinxi had mistaken him for fang zikai.

"alright, i'm done!" lu yinxi said.

fang zicheng nodded.

lu yinxi didn't say anything. fang zicheng didn't leave either. both of them seemed very patient. out of the corner of her eye, lu yinxi noticed that some students were looking at her and fang zicheng. it was only then that she remembered that the person in front of her was the handsome man that all girls dreamed of sleeping with. she had occupied their handsome man for so long, so she was afraid that she would become public enemy.

Chapter 1092: the three children are all monsters lu yinxi quickly got down to business.

"student fang, thank you for your help. i'm here to exchange for your money." lu yinxi took out a small storage bag from her backpack. there was 5000 yuan in cash. the money she had earned during the winter break wasn't even enough to pay off her debts. lu yinxi had even withdrawn more than 2000 yuan from the savings left behind by her parents.

fang zicheng stared at the storage bag. it was a very ordinary gray storage bag, and it was full.

"no need," he really didn't want lu yinxi to return the money.

lu yinxi misunderstood him.

she said, " student fang, i know that you may not be short of money, but it's only right to pay back the money you owe. you've helped me, and i'm very grateful. i borrowed money from you, so i should return it. i hope you'll accept it, or else i'll be panicking."

every word lu yinxi said was true.

during this period of time, lu yinxi couldn't even sleep well with a debt of 5000 yuan. she would only feel at ease after returning the money.

fang zicheng looked at her for a long time before he reached out with his long fingers and took the money.

fang zicheng was not good with words. he held the money in his hand and did not know what to say. lu yinxi was also a taciturn person. the two taciturn people looked at each other, both a little silly.

lu yinxi crossed her hands. she secretly clasped her fingers together before asking, " student fang, you're already in grade three, right? "

fang zicheng nodded.

lu yinxi thought of what fang yuting had said. fang zikai's grades were excellent too. although he was not a top student, he was a good student. lu yinxi said, " there's only half a semester left before the middle school exams. student fang, you must work hard! " fang zicheng's expression was a little strange.

this was the first time someone had told him to work hard for the exam.

he had always ranked first in the school's examinations. when he heard this, he also felt that it was fresh.

lu yinxi really couldn't find anything else to say to fang zicheng. she thanked him again and said goodbye to him. then, she walked in the direction of the subway. fang zicheng stood at the school gate, looking at the girl's back, his eyes still cold.

"brother! why didn't you wait for me today!"

fang zikai went to the toilet after school. his legs had not recovered yet, so he was still walking with a cane. it was not convenient for him to move around, so fang zicheng had promised qiao jiusheng and the others that he would escort fang zikai home.

fang zikai had gone to the toilet earlier. when he came out, he realized that his brother, who was standing at the door of the toilet, was gone.

when she asked, she heard from her classmates that her brother had suddenly left without saying a word.

fang zicheng did not reply. " why didn't you wait for me? " he asked.

" someone's looking for me, " fang zicheng replied. " i came out first. " while they were waiting for fang zikai, fang zicheng heard lu yinxi's inner voice. had he already left? could it be that her brother did not come to school today ...

realizing that the 'brother' lu yinxi was referring to might be him, fang zicheng walked straight to the school gate.

hearing that someone was looking for his brother, fang zikai asked, " who is it? "

“you don’t know him.”

fang zikai rolled his eyes and asked his brother, “ do you think that i’m embarrassing you because i’m walking on crutches? ” fang zicheng was speechless.

after so many years, his brother was still a retard.

how many times had he kicked this little retard in his mother’s stomach that year?

in the end, the two brothers still left together.

this time, it was fang yusheng who came to pick them up.

his injured son still insisted on coming to school, fang yusheng felt that fang zikai’s ambition was worthy of praise, so he came to pick them up personally. the three of them sat in the car and waited for a while until fang taoran arrived.

fang taoran was also in the sixth grade in the elementary section of this school. she was also slightly taller than her peers. the little girl had two ponytails and was wearing a short cotton-padded jacket, a pair of jeans, and a pair of snow boots. she looked very much like qiao jiusheng when she was a young girl.

fang yusheng’s expression softened when he saw his daughter.

today, fang taoran was sitting in the front passenger seat of fang yusheng’s car. she put down her bag and turned to fang zikai, “ little brother, are you going to play football? ” she was holding a soccer ball in her other hand.

fang taoran didn't like to learn tea, zither, or painting, which girls loved to learn. instead, he loved taekwondo and football. surprisingly, qiao jiusheng was also very supportive of her. last december, when fang taoran celebrated his birthday, qiao jiusheng had given her a football.

fang zikai grinned at fang taoran. " are you looking for a beating? " fang taoran sneakily put her face in front of fang zikai, tilted her head, and pointed at her cheek with her finger. she said arrogantly, " come, come, come, you hit here. if i dodge, i lose. " fang zikai gave him a slap.

fang taoran was speechless.

what happened to the sister-con?

her eyes turned red and she cried.

fang yusheng glared at fang zikai. " are you looking for a beating? " fang zikai said, " she asked me to hit her. you heard it. " fang yusheng couldn't refute it.

fang zicheng quietly watched the two little retards bickering. his heart was not moved at all, and he even wanted to laugh.

in the end, fang taoran held back her tears and said, " other families 'older brothers have a sister complex, but our little brother has a brother complex. hmph! since you like big brother so much, why don't you marry him if you have the ability?"

" i'm not gay, " said fang zicheng. there was a moment of silence in the car. then, fang zicheng added in a serious tone, " and there's no incest. " the car became even quieter.

fang yusheng almost choked to death.

"all of you, shut up!"

what kind of evildoers were these? each one of them was more vicious than the other.

after fang yusheng shouted, the three of them finally quieted down. fang yusheng said, " we're going to pick up mommy. when we get mommy, ranran, you can sit in the back. " fang taoran said, " squeeze in from behind. " these words didn't arouse fang yusheng's love for his daughter. he said lightly, " that's why i asked you to sit in the back. the front isn't crowded, let your mother sit. " fang taoran's tears, which had finally stopped, were about to flow out again.

behind them, fang zikai was also embarrassed. their parents had really doted on each other for more than ten years. the car drove to the entrance of tan huan jade shop, where qiao jiusheng was standing.

the car had just stopped when fang yusheng said to fang taoran, " go to the back. " fang taoran tutted before getting out of the car and unwillingly got into the back seat.

qiao jiusheng sat in the front passenger seat and heard fang taoran say, " mother, you're so blessed. " qiao jiusheng asked her, " how is mother happy? " fang taoran pouted and remained silent.

then, he looked at his two sons and fang yusheng. they were all silent. qiao jiusheng was puzzled. she asked fang yusheng, " are we going back for dinner? "

"let's eat outside today. mom and dad are flying to United Kingdom today."

chi boguang was finally allowed to leave the country. the first thing he did was to bring lisa to United Kingdom. lisa was United Kingdom, and she had feelings for her hometown.

qiao jiusheng had no objections to this.

fang yusheng wanted to save as much as he could. " your grandpa has a van, " he said.

Chapter 1093: being despised daily fang taoran rolled his eyes. "that car is out of date. we should get a new one." fang taoran had a deep grudge against her grandfather's van.

fang zikai also said, "yes. it's time to change." the family sat in the van, and it was really crowded.

it was rare for the siblings to have the same opinion on the same matter.

fang zicheng thought of fang zikai's injured leg, and it was indeed crowded for the three of them to sit in the back. "buy another one," he said. there had never been any rich family that had lived a more down-to-earth life than their family.

since his eldest son had spoken, fang yusheng didn't refuse. "then let's buy another one."

fang zikai and fang taoran were happily choosing cars online, planning to go to the physical store to get one if they liked it. fang yusheng seemed to have remembered something and said, "don't buy something too expensive. pick something that's more cost-effective and safe."

"what's the price?" fang zikai asked.

fang yusheng said, "between two hundred thousand and six hundred thousand."

fang zikai lowered his head and glanced at the prices of the cars he had browsed. the cheapest one was more than 1.3 million yuan. fang zikai almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

"you might as well buy a wuling hong guang mpv!" fang zikai was furious.

fang yusheng's eyes lit up. he was moved. seeing this, fang taoran couldn't help but laugh at his father. "dad, why are you still buying a wuling hong guang mpv? buy a tricycle, build a shed, and put a few stools on it. ten people can fill a tricycle."

fang yusheng naturally heard the sarcasm in his daughter's tone.

fang zicheng remained silent as he watched the old and young retards bicker.

fang yusheng sneered, " i don't need you to pay. you're just standing there and talking. " the quality and performance of the wuling hongguang car were not good. fang yusheng did not really intend to buy this. he was just joking.

with qiao jiusheng's firm decision, there was no husband or children who would disagree.

fang yusheng quickly changed his tone. " that car is not bad. ah sheng has good taste. " fang zikai rolled his eyes and said to qiao jiusheng, " mother, you're the only one who can convince my father. "

"that's true." qiao jiusheng handed the crab-peeling scissors in front of her to fang zikai and fang zicheng. fang taoran did not like to eat crabs, so he ate something else. "eat. if there's anything, we can talk after eating."

fang yusheng ate some coconut rice and drank some seafood soup, then stopped eating.

fang taoran loved the conch from this shop. it had a coconut fragrance and was especially delicious. after the dishes were served, she buried her head in her food. outside, qiao jiusheng still paid attention to her image and looked quite elegant when she ate, while fang taoran and fang zikai had rolled up their sleeves and were eating and drinking.

compared to the siblings, fang zicheng, who was eating slowly at the side, became a different scene. they were clearly born from the same mother. the eldest was as elegant and noble as a prince, while the second and third were the coolies who carried the prince's sedan chair.

fang yusheng went to pay the bill halfway. fang zicheng noticed and said, " this meal is on me. " fang yusheng raised his eyebrows and said, " there's no reason to let an underaged child pay. " fang zicheng insisted on paying the bill. " i have money. " he didn't know what to do with the money that lu yinxi had given him, so he decided to treat his family to a meal.

although fang yusheng was stingy, he was very persistent in certain things.

in his opinion, his sons 'pocket money was already very little, so how could he pay for it? this was embarrassing. fang yusheng wanted to say something, but qiao jiusheng said, " if tiedan wants to buy it, let him buy it. "

" i'll buy it, " said fang zicheng.

"that's fine,"

fang zicheng went to pay the bill, and when he returned, fang zikai was still eating. his legs were inconvenient, but he had a good appetite. fang zicheng stared at fang zikai for a moment, and suddenly the chubby fang zikai when he was young appeared in his mind.

the teenager in front of him was tall and handsome. his figure was between that of an adult and a teenager. he was less burly and powerful, but he looked slender and thin.

fang zikai was eating happily when he suddenly heard fang zicheng ask him, " your legs haven't recovered yet, so you can't exercise. aren't you afraid of getting fat if you eat like this? "

fang zikai was speechless.

he stared at the spicy shrimp on his chopsticks, but it felt like a fish was stuck in his throat.

at this age, it was time to pay attention to his appearance. thinking that if he gained weight, he would lose the love of those girls, fang zikai quickly put down the shrimp in his hand.

“i’m full,” in fact, he could still finish another plate of prawns.

fang taoran laughed at her little brother, “ so what if you’re fat? it’s not like we haven’t seen you chubby before. ” his house still had the chubby picture of fang zikai when he was young.

fang zikai’s face darkened, “ shut up. ” fang taoran stuck out his tongue and didn’t say another word. fang zikai touched his stomach in fear. he did not know if it was an illusion, but he felt that his stomach seemed to be bigger than before.

oh no, is he going to enter the fat phase of his youth?

lu yinxi went back to her aunt’s house after she left xiangjiang international college.

her aunt wasn’t home, so she only stayed at home for a short time. at night, her aunt would only come back after lu yinxi had fallen asleep. when lu yinxi went to school in the morning, her aunt was still asleep.

sometimes, it was common for lu yinxi to not see her aunt for a few days.

what lu yinxi found strange was that her 35-year-old aunt was pretty and had a rather well-to-do life, but she didn’t see her with a boyfriend. she lived every day with a pure heart and few desires, as if she had no desires.

lu yinxi was very curious about her aunt, but she couldn’t explore more. it was impolite to explore a person’s private life.

in the second semester of the second year of middle school, lu yinxi was shocked to find that she had gained weight!

she wasn't the only one who had gained weight. a few girls in her class had also gained weight. lu yinxi had always heard that some girls would gain weight during their adolescence. lu yinxi had never thought that she would gain weight.

getting fat during puberty was really an annoying thing. she had already controlled her food intake, but she was still gaining weight. after the end-of-term exams for the second year of junior high, lu yinxi went to weigh herself. to her horror, she found that she had gained more than ten pounds of weight than before school started.

she could no longer wear her old clothes. lu yinxi had to take out a few hundred yuan from her savings and run out of the clothing store to buy a few new clothes. the clothes in the clothing store could be bargained. lu yinxi's eloquence wasn't that good, so she wasn't used to talking to strangers loudly, let alone bargaining.

in order not to be scammed by those clothing bosses, lu yinxi shamelessly went to look for lu jingjing, hoping that she could accompany her to buy clothes. in the end, lu jingjing went back to her grandmother's house after her vacation.

Chapter 1094: who hasn't gained weight before?

lu jingjing's grandmother was quite old. lu jingjing went to her grandmother's old house to keep her company and to stay there. yan juan had found a job in another city and planned to work for a few months. during the summer break, lu jingjing would stay at her grandmother's house.

lu jingjing couldn't keep lu yinxi company.

in the end, lu yinxi had no choice but to use her aunt's phone to log in to wechat and open the chat box with wan yuting. this was the first time in her life that she had taken the initiative to go shopping with her classmates.

when she received lu yinxi's invitation, wan yuting was so shocked that she couldn't even continue watching the hua mei nan drama.

she had a good impression of lu yinxi. other than being quiet, this girl had no other shortcomings. she was also beautiful, and wan yuting was willing to be friends with her. wan yuting accompanied lu yinxi to buy clothes. on the way, lu yinxi didn't say much.

wan yuting was already used to her silence.

lu yinxi was a block of wood and didn't know how to speak, so wan yuting just kept on talking. they took the subway to the clothing city. the weather was too hot, so lu yinxi bought two bottles of ice mineral water, one for wan yuting and one for lu yinxi.

"thank you,"

wan yuting twisted the cap, but it didn't budge.

on the side, lu yinxi used a little force and easily unscrewed the bottle cap. wan yuting saw her and handed her a bottle of water. " lu yinxi, help me open it. " lu yinxi took the bottle and opened it.

"you're so strong." wan yuting took the ice water and took a sip. she shook her thin right hand and said, " my mother said that i'm too thin and i definitely can't even open a bottle cap. she was right. " wan yuting was a little envious. " yinxi, you're the best. you're strong. "

lu yinxi was speechless.

he was indirectly saying that she was fat.

when she went to try on the clothes, wan yuting noticed that lu yinxi had gained a lot of weight. "your legs and arms are a little thick, so you look fat in a dress. it's more comfortable to wear a bat shirt and loose pants like this."

lu yinxi was also a girl. as a girl, she couldn't choose what looked good. she could only choose what she could wear. this was really something that made people unhappy. lu yinxi hugged her clothes, her heart cold.

i really want to slim down!

that time, lu yinxi had asked wan yuting out to buy clothes. after that, wan yuting had taken the initiative to ask lu yinxi out to play whenever she was free. lu yinxi would accompany her when she wasn't working. she actually didn't know how to reject others.

actually, there was a good thing about people who didn't like to talk. it was always easy to calm down when interacting with people who didn't like to talk. every time wan yuting didn't want to do her homework, she would ask lu yinxi out.

under normal circumstances, lu yinxi would go to wan yuting's house to do her homework. occasionally, wan yuting would also come to lu yinxi's house. once, wan yuting saw lu yinxi's aunt. she quietly pulled her sleeve and said, "your aunt is so beautiful! what does she do? is she a model?"

her aunt was about 1.7 meters tall. when she wore high heels, she really looked like a model.

"she's the lady boss of the tea restaurant."

"oh, then her business must be very good."

lu yinxi had worked at a teahouse for a while. she recalled what she had seen there and said, " it was really good. " there was an endless stream of customers, especially male customers.

"of course. your aunt is so beautiful. if i want to go for tea, i'd like to go to a shop with beautiful women." wan yuting especially liked lu yinxi's aunt.

lu ziai usually didn't care about lu yinxi bringing her classmates over. however, lu yinxi was very self-aware. every time she brought wan yuting to the house, she would inform her in advance and not let her touch lu ziai's things.

after wan yuting left, lu yinxi would also clean up the house.

in this regard, lu ziai's heart was as clear as a mirror, and she had never said anything wrong about her.

after school started in september, lu yinxi became a third-year middle school student. as soon as they entered the third year of junior high school, the teacher became nervous and kept talking about the middle school examination, which made the students in the class nervous.

there were more than 20 junior high schools and 14 high schools in binjiang city. among the public schools, no. 1 high school and no. 8 high school were the best with the highest enrollment rate. xiangjiang international college, a private school, was the best school in binjiang city. it was also a well-known school nationwide.

the teachers always told them to study hard and strive to get close to no. 1 middle school or no. 8 middle school.

in fact, xiangjiang international college also accepted students from the outside world. however, this school only accepted those who had the best grades. even these top students might not be able to enter xiangjiang international college successfully. this was because they had to take an exam before they entered the college. this exam was jokingly called 'dragon gate leap'.

after passing this exam, he would be like a carp leaping over the dragon gate. from then on, his future would be bright and open.

the reason why he said this was because this group of special enrollment students had excellent grades, and were upright and kind people. in the past, the special enrollment students of xiangjiang international college had all become big figures in society.

luoyang high school was one of the top schools in binjiang city. the teachers didn't expect anyone to get into xiangjiang international college. they would be satisfied if dozens of students got into no. 1 high school and no. 8 high school.

when lu yinxi heard the teachers talking about xiangjiang international college, a handsome young man's face popped up in her mind. she shook her head and did not dare to think further.

xiangjiang international college was located in the north city of binjiang city. there were no. 8 high school, no. 6 high school, no. 12 high school, and no. 14 high school in the north city. with lu yinxi's grades, if she worked hard, she might be able to get into eighth high.

lu yinxi thought that she wanted to get into no. 8 high school because it was the closest to her aunt's house, not because it was the closest to xiangjiang international college.

lu yinxi still hadn't lost weight in the third year of junior high. instead, she had gained two pounds.

lu yinxi had already given up hope on her body size.

fat, fat, fat, can you be fat to two hundred pounds?

she no longer cared about her weight, but was immersed in her studies. when the third year of middle school was about to end, lu yinxi became short-sighted because of this. she took the subway back to her aunt's house every day and had to study under the table lamp for more than an hour. studying at night was very harmful to her eyes.

when the third day of chinese new year was about to end, lu yinxi went to get a pair of glasses.

at night, lu yinxi took a shower, put on her nightdress, and put on her glasses. she stood in front of her aunt's mirror. she stared at the slightly chubby, slightly long-haired girl in the mirror who was wearing glasses and couldn't help but pout.

"so ugly!"

she quickly took off her glasses and went back to her room.

on the day of the middle school exams, lu ziai did not go to work, which was a rare sight. on the morning of the first day of the high school entrance examination, lu yinxi got out of bed, changed her clothes, and planned to go to the bathroom to brush her teeth. when she saw lu ziai washing his face in front of the sink with facial cleanser, lu yinxi thought she was hallucinating.

"what are you daydreaming about? brush your teeth quickly. i'll send you to school today." lu ziai said.

Chapter 1095: poor and dejected lu yinxi came back to her senses. she quickly brushed her teeth and washed her face. carrying her bag, she took the subway to school with lu ziai. this was the first time lu ziai had accompanied lu yinxi to school. it was also the first time someone had accompanied her since her grandmother had passed away.

lu yinxi leaned against lu ziai's junior and couldn't help but rub her eyes.

when lu ziai appeared at the entrance of Luo Yang Junior High School with lu yinxi, the boys were stunned. when lu yinxi entered the exam hall, she heard people talking about a beautiful girl at the school gate.

lu yinxi couldn't help but smile when she heard this.

her aunt was so beautiful!

lu ziai accompanied lu yinxi for two days during her exams. after the exam, lu yinxi was still quite nervous. she was worried that she wouldn't do well. lu ziai replied, " poor grades are nothing. when i took the college entrance examination, my total score was only 350. i'm doing very well now. " lu ziai's tone was particularly carefree. she lived as if she didn't care about anyone or anything.

lu yinxi was stunned.

"auntie, your college entrance examination score was only 350?"

"yes."

lu yinxi found it unbelievable. her aunt looked very smart, but her grades had been so bad when she was studying.

the night before the high school entrance examination results came out, lu yinxi couldn't sleep at all. in the middle of the night, she got out of bed sneakily and found a dictionary. lu yinxi opened the dictionary and took out a photo that had been glued.

she stared at the young man's delicate face in the photo for a moment before saying, " brother, i hope i can get into eighth high school! " lu yinxi mistook fang zicheng for fang zikai. she put fang zikai's photo on her chest and fell asleep. the next morning, lu yinxi opened lu ziai's laptop after getting his permission.

lu yinxi checked the results online.

she was very calm when she checked her results. in any case, he would be stabbed if he stretched his head out, and he would be stabbed if he retracted his head. he might as well face the results calmly like a real man.

the total score for the high school entrance examination in binjiang city was 580. lu yinxi had scored 518. the results were not bad. no. 1 high school's cut-off point was 509, while no. 8 high school's was 495.

lu yinxi had filled in her first choice online, and it was no. 8 high school.

when wan yuting found out about it, she asked her why she didn't fill in first middle school. lu yinxi suppressed the answer that was almost on the tip of her tongue and told a lie. " i live near eighth high. " wan yuting really believed her words.

"we're going to be schoolmates again." wan yuting hugged lu yinxi and said, " it seems like we are destined to be good friends! " lu yinxi's body stiffened, but she did not push wan yuting away.

actually, it felt good to have someone as a friend.

the country currently had a nine-year compulsory education system. the tuition fees for high schools were much more expensive than that of junior and primary schools. no. 8 high school's tuition fee was 2400 yuan per semester, and this did not include living expenses and other miscellaneous expenses.

lu yinxi felt helpless.

the first-year students had to register a month in advance. lu yinxi went to register. she only had about 20000 yuan in her savings, and she had spent more than 2000 yuan on the registration. after school started, she had to charge her own money for her meals.

even if she ate the cheapest food for every meal, which was only two meals a day, it would still cost eight yuan a day. the cost of the bus was four yuan, and she had to pay twelve yuan just to stay alive.

lu yinxi felt terrified.

she didn't have that much money!

what should she do?

borrow from aunt?

putting aside whether her aunt would lend her money, she had already caused her aunt a lot of trouble by staying at her aunt's house. she was also embarrassed to ask her aunt for money. to work to earn money?

high school studies were heavy. where would she find the time and energy to work?

the new students who came to report were all very excited. everything in the school was new and interesting. even the ants on the ground were cute. no matter what lu yinxi looked at, it was as if she was looking at chinese yuan.

she needed money!

the weather was very hot. there was a bus at no. 8 high school that went directly to lu yinxi's aunt's house. it only cost two yuan and only took twenty minutes to get home. they could even enjoy the air conditioning.

lu yinxi clutched the change in her pocket. when she thought about how she only had 16000 yuan in her bank account, and how she would have to rely on this 10000 yuan to live, lu yinxi suddenly felt that the change in her hand had become a huge sum of money.

it was really extravagant to take the public bus.

those who had never experienced poverty would never understand how desperate and terrifying the word 'destitute' was. to others, the world might be beautiful and wonderful, but to lu yinxi, the world was particularly cruel.

the sun was especially bright, and lu yinxi's eyes were sore from the heat. she had heard from her grandmother that her parents had been killed by bad people, and she had been lucky enough to survive. at this moment, she couldn't help but think, "why didn't the murderer kill me as well?"

it was really tiring to live.

when she was in a public toilet, lu yinxi saw an advertisement on it. she stared at it for a while before tearing it off. lu yinxi dragged the advertisement sheet and walked to the entrance of her aunt's neighborhood.

there was a newsstand at the entrance of the neighborhood. the newsstand had a public phone that cost fifty cents a minute.

lu yinxi gave the money she should have paid to take the bus to the middle-aged woman at the newspaper stand and made a public phone call. lu yinxi dialed the number printed on the flyer. the call was picked up rather quickly.

the person on the other end of the line said in a rough voice, "hello?"

lu yinxi was silent at first.

the man on the other end thought it was a harassment call and hung up.

standing under the scorching sun, lu yinxi took a deep breath and called again.

this time, the phone rang for a while before it was answered. " this is the second time you're calling, so you definitely didn't call the wrong number. who are you and what's the matter? " the man's voice sounded impatient.

lu yinxi's voice was muffled, as if she was afraid that others would hear her.

she asked the man, " i saw the advertisement for the toilet. are you mr. zhang? "

mr. zhang nodded and his tone became a little better. " i am. " lu yinxi continued, " i saw your advertisement. you're buying eggs at 20000 yuan each. is that true? " even though lu yinxi's voice was soft, the newspaper stand's auntie still heard her.

the middle-aged woman looked at lu yinxi in surprise.

she couldn't figure out why this girl wanted to buy eggs at such a young age. was she going to buy X's new smartphone? or should i buy a chanel bag?

lu yinxi realized that the woman was looking at her. she felt her cheeks burning, so she lowered her head. on the other end of the phone, the man's voice was still recounting. he said, " it's true. miss, how may i address you? " we have a request. miss, is it convenient for us to meet up and have a chat?"

Chapter 1096: more important than money lu yinxi was scared when she heard the man's voice.

regardless of whether this person was good or bad, the fact that he had bought an egg was enough to scare lu yinxi. but what could she do? she couldn't earn much money by working, so she had to borrow money from her aunt ...

lu yinxi knew that her aunt was a good person, but her aunt was willing to take her in since she had no home to return to. she was already kind enough. she had caused so much trouble for her aunt, so how could she continue to make things difficult for her?

lu yinxi took a deep breath and suppressed the fear in her heart. she said to the man on the other end of the phone, " my surname is lu. it's not convenient to meet and talk. do you have any specific requirements? " lu yinxi was also afraid that the other party was a human trafficker, so she did not dare to meet him rashly.

" miss lu, are you healthy and free of any genetic diseases? are you beautiful ... " lu yinxi was confused. she would agree to whatever the man asked.

a few minutes later, the other party gave him an address.

lu yinxi knew where it was. it was a very well-known place. there were many commercial shops nearby. lu yinxi couldn't believe that such a place for underground activities would be set up in such a conspicuous location.

after hanging up the phone, lu yinxi turned around and walked in the opposite direction of the neighborhood under the auntie's watchful gaze.

lu yinxi stood at the entrance of a building and looked up at it.

the building was next to fang's group and was more than ten stories high. lu yinxi hesitated at the door for a long time, unable to make a decision. if the other party was a bad person, a human trafficker, or some other criminal, wouldn't she be a sheep entering a tiger's mouth once she entered?

lu yinxi felt that she was quite silly.

but in the end, the urgent need for money still won over lu yinxi's timidity. she walked into a shop, borrowed a phone from the boss, and then called wan yuting.

wan yuting picked up the phone and said, [who's this? i'm wan yuting?]

[it's me, lu yinxi.] i'm going to do something very important. if you don't pick up my call within 40 minutes, it means that something has happened to me. i'm at the commercial street in the north city, the annoway beauty club next to the international building. [if i don't call you, please call the police and tell them my address.]

if she really met someone evil, lu yinxi would at least have a way out.

after hearing lu yinxi's words, wan yuting shrieked on the other end of the phone. she hurriedly asked lu yinxi, [lu yinxi! what's wrong with you? [why did you call the police? did something happen to you?]

hearing wan yuting's screams, lu yinxi's heart warmed.

the feeling of being cared for by a friend was not bad.

not wanting wan yuting to worry, lu yinxi explained, " [i'm going to the annoway beauty salon to meet someone. i'm not sure if she's a good or bad person. wan yuting, we're friends. i trust you.] she had placed her life in wan yuting's hands.

[you pay more attention. i'll always be by the phone.]

[okay, thank you.]

after the call ended, wan yuting kept staring at her phone, afraid of missing lu yinxi's call.

lu yinxi put down the phone and paid the phone bill. then, she gathered her courage and walked to the elevator of the building and took the elevator upstairs.

lu yinxi walked out of the elevator and saw the words "annoway high-class beauty club" on one side of the corridor. however, this beauty salon was an illegal egg donation organization.

it was really like putting on a sheep's head to sell dog meat.

lu yinxi walked around the corridor and saw a beauty club with bright and magnificent decorations. at this time, there were many beautiful women doing beauty care here.

"hello, who are you looking for?" the receptionist asked lu yinxi. lu yinxi looked too young. the receptionist could tell at a glance that she was underage. such a young girl shouldn't be here for beauty care.

the lady at the front desk thought that lu yinxi was here to find someone.

lu yinxi hesitated for a moment before saying, "i ... i have an appointment with mr. fei."

the front desk lady looked a little surprised.

she stared at her for a moment with a look that lu yinxi couldn't understand. "please follow me," she said. it was rare to see such a young child.

lu yinxi followed the lady through the beauty parlor and into a separate office. the woman pushed open one of the office doors, and inside, it was a completely different world. "mr. fei."

the lady at the front desk led lu yinxi to a man in an iron-gray suit.

mr. fei turned around. he looked very proper, and his suit made him look impressive.

lu yinxi stared at mr. fei, feeling inexplicably nervous.

“this ... girl said that she had a date with you before. her surname is lu.”

mr. fei was a little surprised. he said to lu yinxi, “ from your voice on the phone, i thought you were young. i didn’t expect you to be so young. ” mr. fei asked the receptionist to do her own things while he brought lu yinxi to a table and sat down.

after lu yinxi sat down, her fingers gripped the hem of her t-shirt tightly.

noticing her nervousness, mr. fei smiled. “ do you want something to drink? ” lu yinxi was afraid that the things here were not clean. she was afraid that she would faint after drinking it and lose her internal organs or her head when she woke up. she shook her head and said softly, “ no need. ”

mr. fei probably saw through her vigilance and secretly found it funny.

she was an interesting little girl.

such a young child, and she looked like a good girl. he couldn’t bear to do business with her. “you really want to sell your ovum?”

lu yinxi hesitated for a moment before nodding.

mr. fei's gaze swept over lu yinxi for a long time. he suddenly said, "forgive me for being rude, but i want to ask you, how old are you this year?"

"i'm fifteen."

lu yinxi was stunned.

he's an illegal businessman, why would he care if i have a partner?

"no, i didn't," lu yinxi answered honestly.

mr. fei revealed an expression of "i knew it."

as soon as he finished speaking, mr. fei saw lu yinxi's eyes widen.

before coming, lu yinxi had only felt resistance and fear about selling eggs. after listening to mr. fei's explanation, lu yinxi completely regretted it. the value of some things was more important than 20000 yuan.

she suddenly stood up.

mr. fei looked up at her with a gentle expression.

"thank you for telling me this," lu yinxi said. "i ... i'm not selling it."

mr. fei nodded in understanding.

lu yinxi then said, " sorry to disturb you. i'll be leaving first. mr. fei, you can go ahead with your work. "

Chapter 1097: uncle fang and the elk lu yinxi turned around to leave.

mr. fei suddenly called out to her. "little girl."

lu yinxi turned around and looked at mr. fei. her eyes were suspicious and guarded. mr. fei smiled at her and said, " although i don't know what kind of difficulties you've encountered, i hope you can get through it. sometimes, if you grit your teeth and get through it, you'll be able to hold on until the clouds are open and the moon is bright. " lu yinxi was slightly stunned.

"thank you," he said.

she quickly ran out of the beauty salon.

lu yinxi ran into the elevator in one breath. her heart was still beating like a drum. it was especially intense. after getting out of the elevator, lu yinxi ran out of the building in one breath and ran in the other direction.

it happened to be the day of the fang's group's quarterly board meeting. after the meeting, fang yusheng walked out of the fang's building and ran into lu yinxi. the little girl was running with her head down. when fang yusheng noticed her, he wanted to turn around and avoid her, but it was too late. they bumped into each other.

fang yusheng was very tall and his chest was very hard. after bumping into him, the other party was fine, but lu yinxi fell back and took a few steps back.

a strong hand grabbed her arm.

"stand properly." it was the voice of an adult man, and the person's voice sounded very gentle. what did it sound like? lu yinxi felt like the first spring rain had fallen on the earth. the rain wet the ground, and soon, the grass and leaves sprouted.

"are you alright?" the man's voice sounded again.

lu yinxi looked up.

her eyes were red. she raised her head and saw the man's face clearly.

he really looked ...

forgive lu yinxi for not having enough words. she had been studying for nine years, read so many extracurricular books, and written so many essays, but at this moment, she couldn't find a suitable word to describe the person in front of her.

no words of praise could describe his appearance.

in the end, lu yinxi could only think of three words.

it's really good looking!

he was a good-looking uncle with a pair of beautiful green eyes.

lu yinxi was shocked. she came back to her senses and blushed. " i'm ... i'm fine. " after seeing the girl's appearance, fang yusheng was a little surprised. binjiang city was so big, but he hadn't seen lu yinxi for ten years since boss lu's death. who would have thought that they would bump into each other on the street?

"what's the matter, why are you crying?"

fang yusheng reached into his pocket and found a handkerchief.

this handkerchief was a gift from lisa. there was a jasmine flower on it, and it was especially exquisite. if it was a normal person, fang yusheng would definitely not be willing to waste such an exquisite handkerchief.

however, the girl in front of him was the son of an old friend.

fang yusheng handed the handkerchief to lu yinxi and said, " you're so cute. don't cry. you don't look good. " lu yinxi's face turned redder.

being praised by such a good-looking uncle, lu yinxi suddenly felt that she was as beautiful as a fairy. however, in reality, she was only a slightly chubby four-eyed bespectacled dog. how could she be any better?

lu yinxi took fang yusheng's handkerchief, took off her glasses, and gently wiped them.

the handsome uncle's handkerchief had a fragrant scent.

"i'm sorry, i dirtied your handkerchief." lu yinxi returned the handkerchief to fang yusheng. fang yusheng accepted it and said, " it's okay. " lu yinxi thanked fang yusheng again and left.

fang yusheng turned around and looked at her back, squinting his green eyes.

why was she crying?

fang yusheng saw that qi bufan had already driven the car to the gate, so he walked over. he pulled open the car door and sat down. just as he sat down, he heard qi bufan say, " that child just now is that girl called elk, right? " all these years, fang yusheng had been paying attention to the child's growth, so qi bufan naturally knew. therefore, when he saw the child loitering outside the building next door, qi bufan took a few more glances.

"i saw her run out of that building." qi bufan pointed at the ten-story building in front of them and casually mentioned it.

fang yusheng was surprised. " from this building? "

"yes."

fang yusheng stared at the building, his expression thoughtful.

fang yusheng knew very well what companies were in the buildings around fang's group and what each company did. he rubbed his eyebrows and searched for information about the small companies in this building in his mind.

there was really a company in this building, an illegal company that was selling sheep's head and dog's meat.

"go and check which store she went into."

"alright," he said.

qi bufan had left for more than 20 minutes. when he returned, he brought bad news to fang yusheng.
"she went to the annoway beauty salon."

fang yusheng's expression changed slightly.

"the annoway beauty club is actually an organization that illegally sells ovum, right?" not only that, but the real boss fei also had some other shady businesses.

this boss fei was a very dangerous person.

qi bufan nodded and said, " i asked fei wen. he said that the elk family rejected the deal. " hearing this, fang yusheng's heart finally settled down.

"she's in need of money,"

she was only fifteen years old. if she was not in need of money, she would not have been so desperate that she had to sell her eggs. this was really a bad plan. fang yusheng was a little sad. he wanted to help lu yinxi, but what could he do to make lu yinxi accept it?

fang yusheng returned home and told fang zicheng about it.

after finding out what fang yusheng was worried about, fang zicheng said, " it's simple. you can set up an education foundation to help those students who really need it and have good grades. if she's really short on money, she'll apply for it. "

fang yusheng's eyes lit up and he ruffled fang zicheng's head. " tiedan, you're so smart. " only when fang yusheng was happy would he learn from qiao jiusheng and call fang zicheng 'iron egg'.

the corners of fang zicheng's lips curled up, but the smile only lasted for a moment.

fang yusheng found it novel to see his eldest son laughing.

"cheng cheng, what are you laughing at?"

the corners of fang zicheng's mouth returned to a straight curve. "you're wrong." he stood up and returned to his room. fang yusheng pursed his lips and thought, "my son has grown up and entered the rebellious stage. he clearly laughed, but he refuses to admit it."

when lu yinxi returned home, she was covered in sweat. she took a shower, changed into a clean nightdress, and washed her dirty clothes. she sat on the bed and asked wan yuting if there were any ways to make money.

wan yuting said, " being a wechat business is quite profitable. " lu yinxi wanted to die.

she could only log in to wechat at any time with a mobile phone. before she started a wechat business, she had to have a mobile phone. lu yinxi immediately rejected the suggestion. there was no such thing as earning money easily in this world.

Chapter 1098: oh no, it's the feeling of being moved lu yinxi continued to work during the summer break and decided to take it one step at a time.

school officially started on september 1st, and all the new students received their school report on august 24th. the one-week military training would officially begin on the 25th. as the military training included housekeeping, the school required all students to live on campus for a week.

during those few days, lu yinxi lived in the school.

the military training instructor was very strict despite his young age. as they stood in the military camp under the scorching sun, a girl couldn't help but wipe the sweat from her eyes. when the instructor found out, she was almost scolded like a dog.

lu yinxi couldn't help but cry when she saw the girl being scolded. her face was covered in sweat. she had wanted to wipe her sweat, but when she saw this scene, she could only hold it in.

after a few days, even lu yinxi's fair skin had darkened. when he returned to the dormitory, his classmates were all putting on facial masks. before she came to school, lu ziai threw her a bottle of sunscreen. it was not a big bottle, but it was very effective.

that afternoon, after she woke up from her afternoon nap, she stood in her bedroom and applied sunblock on her body. when her classmates saw her sunblock, they said, "wow, lu yinxi. your parents are so good to you. they bought you such an expensive sunblock."

lu yinxi had never revealed her family background, so her new classmates didn't know that she was an orphan.

lu yinxi was confused. "is this very expensive?" lu yinxi held the bottle of sunblock and looked at it. it was written in english. lu yinxi could understand it, but she didn't know that this sunblock was very expensive.

" of course, this is from the ya family. the bottle in your hand is 800 yuan a bottle. " lu yinxi suddenly felt that the thing in her hand was a little hot.

she was so poor that she almost had to sell her balls. a bottle of sunblock that her aunt had casually thrown at her cost a few hundred yuan.

this difference ...

thanks to the sunblock, lu yinxi's skin had turned darker after seven days of military training, but it wasn't too obvious. during the few days of military training, lu yinxi had taken off her glasses to avoid panda eyes.

fortunately, she had the foresight and thus escaped. there were two students in the class who were highly short-sighted and could not see after taking off their glasses. when the military training ended, they had two particularly large dark circles under their eyes after taking off their glasses.

during the day, there would be military training, and at night, the students would perform their own performances. the students in lu yinxi's class were all talented. they were all good at talking and dancing. some students who liked to show off had already performed on the first two nights. those who did not like to perform had to take turns to perform on the podium.

lu yinxi really didn't know what she was good at.

on the afternoon of the sixth day of military training, it was lu yinxi's turn to perform on stage.

that afternoon, she racked her brain for a long time before she thought of her own unique skill. at night, after a student finished singing, it was lu yinxi's turn to go on stage. she walked up to the podium empty-handed, and the students below all stared at this girl with beautiful cheeks and a slightly chubby figure, curious about what she would perform.

“I’ll perform some writing.”

everyone was speechless.

so this can be performed as well?

everyone thought that lu yinxi only knew calligraphy.

in the end, lu yinxi picked up the chalk on the desk. first, she used her right hand to hold the chalk and wrote on the blackboard, “xuanji doesn’t know the world when she’s drunk, and her dream is like the stars in the river.”

the handwriting was quite beautiful.

the students below all thought so.

this was her performance?

lu yinxi then wrote the same sentence below, but it was in a different handwriting. it seemed to be written by another person. some people below noticed that lu yinxi’s handwriting was the same as the instructor’s.

then, lu yinxi switched to her left hand. she could still write beautifully with her left hand.

the same poem had been written three times by her, and the font of each line was different.

the people below were shocked for a long time before clapping for her. lu yinxi only relaxed when she heard the applause. there was still applause. it seemed that the performance was not too bad. after school started, lu yinxi realized that she had become the apple of the class's eyes.

it wasn't because she was beautiful or liked by them, but because she could imitate other people's handwriting. although it wasn't exactly the same, the similarity was at least 80 to 90 percent.

the students who didn't like to do homework would ask lu yinxi to help them with their homework.

it was a shame that lu yinxi didn't become a wechat business. instead, she had become a 'ghostwriting homework professional' in the school. it cost five yuan to do one set of homework, and some people would hire her to do homework for several courses.

lu yinxi could earn dozens of yuan every day.

in order to earn money, she did not refuse anyone. as long as they paid, she would help write for them.

of course, this was a story for later.

after the military training ended, school officially started. lu yinxi still went back to her aunt's house. every morning, she would take the bus to school. it was not a long journey, only about twenty minutes.

just like that, lu yinxi spent two months in high school.

it was november, and the weather was getting colder. some people were wearing long-sleeved jackets, while others were wearing cool short skirts and high heels. that day, lu yinxi took the bus home. the bus passed by her school, and she got on.

there were many people on the bus, and almost all of them were students.

the bus passed by an elementary school and two high schools. when lu yinxi got on the bus, there were many grandparents picking up their grandchildren who were studying in elementary school. there were no more empty seats on the bus, so lu yinxi found an empty spot and stood there, holding the armrest.

the bus started and shook for more than ten minutes. she heard the bus stop announcement and said, "we're at the fourth archway stop. please get ready to get off ..."

the car door opened and a few people got out.

sipai archway station was the closest bus stop to xiangjiang international college. lu yinxi passed by this station several times a day and had seen a few students wearing the uniform of xiangjiang international college getting on the bus.

on this day, a few more young men and women got into the car.

lu yinxi leaned on the car owner's armrest and didn't even look at the person who had gotten in. the passengers all moved back. lu yinxi didn't block the road, so she didn't move. the people in the car were talking to each other. lu yinxi noticed that someone seemed to be standing behind her, but she didn't look.

normally, no one could attract lu yinxi's attention.

the car turned a corner. a boy next to lu yinxi was playing a game. he didn't pay attention and almost fell. lu yinxi quickly reached out and pulled him back. "thank you." the boy turned around and said to lu yinxi.

lu yinxi shook her head, indicating that there was no need to thank her.

she saw that there were many passengers waiting for their turn at the bus stop. lu yinxi decided to move to the back door. they were almost at her house. lu yinxi turned around and was about to leave when she saw that someone was blocking her way.

lu yinxi looked up at the person. her eyes met a pair of cold green eyes.

it was fang zicheng.

lu yinxi was speechless.

she could hear her heart beating faster.

plop plop. it didn't seem to be hers. it was completely out of control.

Chapter 1099: your heart is beating very fast lu yinxi looked at 'fang zikai' in front of her in a daze. she was happy and excited.

fang zicheng lowered his eyes and stared at lu yinxi.

she was a little fatter and a little darker than last year. it was probably because she had not fully recovered after the military training. oh, she was also wearing a pair of glasses. suddenly, fang zicheng heard lu yinxi's inner voice.

lu yinxi was talking about yingluo.

[does he remember me? am i very dark? [am i fat? i don't have a little belly, right? no, i have to hold my breath, put my little belly back, and straighten my back.]

[if i had known that i would meet brother, i would have taken off my glasses. i look so ugly wearing glasses.]

fang zicheng was a little stunned.

she had only seen him once and she already cared so much about him?

fang zicheng hid his shock and asked lu yinxi in a low voice, " are you getting out of the car? "

" my home is still far away, " lu yinxi said. in fact, her aunt's neighborhood was just a hundred meters ahead.

public bus stop announcement

"nanshan road station, here we are."

lu yinxi watched as the others got out of the car and the car started. she watched as the gate of the community became smaller in her eyes and eventually disappeared.

fang zicheng also turned to look at the neighborhood where lu yinxi lived.

fang zicheng had lu yinxi's information. he knew that lu yinxi lived here. she should have gotten out of the car just now.

why did she lie?

lu yinxi felt uncomfortable under his gaze.

fang zicheng could hear lu yinxi's inner voice talking about yingluo again.

[why does he keep staring at me? is my face dirty? [or ... he ... he likes me?] lu yinxi was elated.

fang zicheng heard her inner voice and was a little lost in thought.

like?

fang zicheng was quite fond of lu yinxi. before no. 199 left, he had taught him what it meant to like someone. he said that if you want to be good to a girl, you like her.

fang zicheng wasn't a good person. he didn't want to be nice to anyone other than his family.

lu yinxi was the only one he was willing to treat well. he had seen so many girls in his life, but other than ranran, he only liked lu yinxi.

fang zicheng looked down at lu yinxi's chest. he saw that her heart was beating very fast, like a patient with arrhythmia. lu yinxi suddenly felt a chill on her forehead.

she was surprised to find that it was fang zicheng who was touching her forehead.

lu yinxi was speechless. the legendary 'touching the head'?

fang zicheng saw that lu yinxi's heart was beating even faster than before.

he was a little confused.

what kind of illness was this?

he had never seen a patient with arrhythmia who was in such a good mental state. could it be that lu yinxi didn't have arrhythmia, but a new kind of disease? fang zicheng, who knew nothing about relationships, didn't know that lu yinxi's illness was called 'falling in love'.

"w-what are you doing?" lu yinxi quickly slapped fang zicheng's hand away.

" your heart is beating very fast, " fang zicheng said.

lu yinxi's face turned red.

it was like seeing a ghost!

how did he know that her heart was beating too fast? could he have heard it?

lu yinxi was a little embarrassed. she explained, " i'm just a little hot. " heat can also cause the heartbeat to accelerate?

fang zicheng decided to go back and investigate.

"i'm here." fang zicheng said.

lu yinxi felt disappointed.

she said, " see you next time, student fang. " fang zicheng heard lu yinxi's inner voice again and said, "

[he's getting off the car. when can we meet him again?]

inexplicably, fang zicheng changed his words. " my mom asked me to bring a bottle of soy sauce back. i'll get off at the next stop. " he noticed that lu yinxi was looking at him. she was probably waiting for an explanation. fang zicheng added, " there's a supermarket there. " in fact, there was a big supermarket at the entrance of the dragon harbor district.

fang zicheng had lied to lu yinxi, but he didn't know why he had lied.

the car arrived at the next stop. fang zicheng was about to get out of the car and say goodbye to lu yinxi when she said, " my aunt asked me to buy something for her. i'm going to the supermarket too. "

fang zicheng was speechless.

however, he clearly heard lu yinxi's heart say yingluo.

[i only have 10 yuan on me. what should i buy in the supermarket?]

[let's buy two alpen lollipops. you can buy two with one dollar. if he asks, i'll say that auntie wants to eat them.]

with that thought, lu yinxi followed fang zicheng out of the car.

when fang zicheng heard lu yinxi's thoughts, his expression was very strange.

lu yinxi actually liked lollipops?

he remembered that lu yinxi loved to eat lollipops when she was young. once, boss lu bought her a huge lollipop. when fang zicheng went to have breakfast, he accidentally touched her hand and the lollipop fell to the ground. lu yinxi even scolded him.

this habit hadn't changed after so many years.

the two of them entered the supermarket. fang zicheng bought a bottle of soy sauce and lu yinxi bought two lollipops. when the two of them went to check out, the salesperson couldn't help but look at them a few times.

the two of them walked together for a while and only separated when they reached the entrance of the dragon harbor villa district.

when lu yinxi left, she passed by the entrance of yuanyuan's breakfast shop. she suddenly stopped and turned to look at the location of the shop.

her heart suddenly throbbed in pain.

lu yinxi rubbed her heart, feeling extremely uncomfortable.

she wanted to cry, but she couldn't. lu yinxi bent over and stood still for a moment. the discomfort came and went quickly. she touched her chest and looked curiously at the store that had been converted into a 24-hour mini-supermarket. her eyes were a little confused.

why did it feel so uncomfortable?

fang zicheng stood in the guard's cabin in the neighborhood. he stared at lu yinxi, who was standing in front of yuan yuan's breakfast shop. his eyes were deep.

when fang zicheng returned home, lisa was surprised to see him with a bottle of soy sauce. "why did cheng cheng buy a bottle of soy sauce?"

fang zicheng's eyes darted around before he said, " i wanted to eat braised pork shoulder with soy sauce. i thought there was no more soy sauce at home, so i brought a bottle. " that night, there was an extra bowl of braised pork shoulder on the table. fang zicheng, who hated pork trotters the most, was given a large piece by chi boguang. chi boguang even said, " your grandma heard that you wanted to eat pork trotters in sauce, so she specially made it. eat more, no one will fight with you. "

fang zicheng was speechless.

he took a bite of the pig knuckle. it was greasy, and he suddenly felt that he would rather die than live.

after dinner, fang yusheng entered the studio and had a video conference with his new partners to discuss some weapon design. after he hung up the video call and opened the door, he saw his eldest son standing at the door.

fang yusheng was surprised.

"you've been waiting for a long time?"

" twenty-six minutes, " fang zicheng replied honestly.

fang yusheng asked him again, " why are you looking for me? "

" i suspect lu yinxi has heart disease, " said fang zicheng.

Chapter 1100: my silly iron egg

"ah?" fang yusheng was shocked. lu yinxi had heart disease?

fang yusheng quickly asked, " what happened? " he naively thought that lu yinxi really had a heart disease.

seeing that fang yusheng was so concerned about lu yinxi's health, fang zicheng told him what he had found on the bus that afternoon. "i met lu yinxi on the bus today."

"yes." fang yusheng waited for the rest.

fang zicheng continued, " after i got into the car, i stood behind her. she didn't notice me at first, but when she turned around and was about to give up her seat, she realized that it was me. she stared at me as if she was in a daze. i heard what she was thinking, so i looked down at her and realized that her heart was beating very fast."

fang zicheng recalled the scene on the bus and felt worried. " it's not normal for her to be so fast. i think she's probably suffering from something like cardiac rhythm disorder. " fang yusheng felt something was wrong.

" wait, you're saying that her heart rate increased after she found you? " if he didn't understand, that should be what it meant.

fang zicheng nodded.

"how long have you been together?"

" we even went to the supermarket after that and spent nearly 40 minutes together. "

" is she in a good mental state? does she look uncomfortable? "

“no, i didn’t,” in fang zicheng’s opinion, lu yinxi’s mental state was quite good, and her inner activities were particularly energetic.

fang yusheng finally noticed what was wrong.

“sure.” fang zicheng thought back for a moment before he said without missing a word, “ does he still remember me? am i very dark? am i fat? i don’t have a belly, right? why does he keep staring at me? is my face dirty? or is he ... he likes me?”

fang yusheng suddenly clenched his fist and put it to his lips.

“what’s wrong?” fang zicheng was even more confused.

fang yusheng suddenly turned around. fang zicheng saw his father’s shoulders shaking.

“what are you laughing at?” fang zicheng’s expression was a little ugly. he was discussing a serious matter with his father, but his father found it funny. this made fang zicheng a little angry.

“ahem.” fang yusheng held back his laughter with difficulty.

he cleared his throat to make himself look more serious, then turned around and said to fang zicheng, “ our tie dan ‘er has grown up. ” it seemed that fang yusheng was very happy. he even called him tie dan.

fang zicheng’s face darkened. “i’m discussing lu yinxi’s condition with you.”

illness ...

what should i do? i really want to laugh.

the corner of fang yusheng's mouth twitched. he tried his best to hold back his laughter and said to fang zicheng, " i'll take you to a few places this saturday. you'll know what disease the elk has. "

fang zicheng was still puzzled. " could it be that she doesn't have a heart problem? "

"i think there's something wrong with your brain." fang yusheng left fang zicheng with a sentence that he couldn't figure out and turned back to his room.

when fang yusheng returned to the master bedroom, he saw qiao jiusheng listening to music with a face mask on. he strode over and sat down on the bed. qiao jiusheng opened one eye to look at him and saw that fang yusheng was smiling. she asked him, " what good thing happened? " i can't even close my mouth."

fang yusheng then told qiao jiusheng about the incident between fang zicheng and lu yinxi.

after hearing this, qiao jiusheng's lips curved upwards.

"this little fool."

qiao jiusheng got up and rested her head on fang yusheng's lap. she asked him, " where do you plan to take him this saturday? " fang yusheng said, " we're going to a place with more couples. "

" yes, you can. as a father, you have the responsibility to teach your child what love is. " fang yusheng felt that he had a long way to go.

fang zicheng had been thinking about lu yinxi's condition. after school, he took the bus home every day, but he had never seen lu yinxi. it was a friday afternoon. she didn't have to go to the evening self-study session on friday night, so lu yinxi carried her bag and walked towards the school gate.

as soon as she walked out of the school gate, she heard people talking.

"f * ck!"

"he's so handsome!"

"isn't that the school hunk next door?"

lu yinxi looked up and saw fang zicheng standing at the school gate.

fang zicheng was wearing xiangjiang international college's coffee-colored school uniform. lu yinxi's school didn't have a school uniform. even if there were, it was similar to sportswear.

besides, the school didn't force them to wear it.

however, xiangjiang international college was different. they had strict school rules and had to wear the school uniform. if they did not wear it, they would be reprimanded by the head of teaching. it was said that xiangjiang international college's school uniform was designed by a famous designer and produced in cooperation with an international luxury brand.

not only was the school uniform fashionable, but it also looked good on her.

it was not unreasonable for the tuition fee of xiangjiang international college to be so expensive.

at this moment, fang zicheng was standing at the school gate in his school uniform. his long black hair drooped down gently, and his fringe covered a part of his forehead, revealing two white ears.

the wind was strong and cold that day. fang zicheng had put on a school-style coat over his school uniform.

lu yinxi stared at him for a while.

she wasn't sure if fang zicheng was looking for her, and she was too embarrassed to face him. however, girls of this age all had the attitude of a little girl. lu yinxi had a good impression of fang zicheng.

she subconsciously lowered her head and sized herself up.

she was wearing a blue and white sports uniform, glasses, and her long hair was tied up over her shoulder. lu yinxi took off her glasses and rubbed them. she pretended to pass by fang zicheng by accident.

for the first time, she realized that she had the potential to be a scheming b * tch.

lu yinxi had used up all her courage in her life to attract fang zicheng and to have a crush on him.

she thought that her performance was flawless, but little did she know that fang zicheng had already heard her inner thoughts. in just a minute, fang zicheng could hear lu yinxi's inner thoughts.

[brother! he's so handsome! [their school uniform is really nice.]

[brother, are you here to find me?] [i don't think so. we're not really close. he should be here to find a friend.]

[alright, pretend to walk past him slowly. lower your head and pretend that you didn't notice him ...]
