

Ex's Brother 1111

Chapter 1111: it is my girlfriend luo yanrong's entire body was pressed against the ground and her head was stepped on by gu yiqiu's foot, so she could not move.

gu yiqiu looked down on luo yanrong, who was still scolding her. she stepped on luo yanrong's head with the tip of her foot.

luo yanrong stopped cursing.

"are you wrong?" gu yiqiu asked her.

luo yanrong cursed in her heart, but she said, "i admit my mistake."

"it would have been better if you had admitted your mistake earlier." gu yiqiu mumbled. " i, gu yiqiu, will take care of the first-years! " she retracted her foot, glanced at luo yanrong's followers behind her, and scolded in a low voice, " get out! " luo yanrong's sisters helped her up. the four of them cursed something and ran away quickly.

after watching luo yanrong and the others escape, gu yiqiu turned around and looked at hu ya, who was already dumbfounded. she asked impatiently, " why aren't you getting out? " hu ya came back to his senses and thanked her profusely. after saying thank you, hu ya ran away dejectedly.

after everyone had left, gu yiqiu glanced at lu yinxi.

his eyes were still full of arrogance.

she seemed to have just noticed lu yinxi. she stared at the mop in lu yinxi's hand and laughed scornfully.
" do you think you can beat them with this mop? " lu yinxi subconsciously hid the mop behind her.

gu yiqiu added, " don't just focus on gaining weight. you should at least grow some brains. "

lu yinxi was speechless.

was it her fault that she only gained weight and not a brain?

lu yinxi realized that the girl was still staring at her. she thought that she was going to beat her up and quickly explained, " i ... i'm in first grade. " in other words, i'm the person you're protecting.

" oh, " gu yiqiu replied.

gu yiqiu washed her hands, tidied her slightly messy hair, and walked out of the toilet. from the beginning to the end, he didn't even look at lu yinxi, the weakling.

putting down the mop, lu yinxi turned around and looked at gu yiqiu's back with admiration.

who was the girl showing her weakness to?

lu yinxi remembered gu yiqiu's words.

back from abroad. as soon as she came back, people said that she was the new campus belle. i didn't expect the school belle to be a school bully."

lu yinxi admired gu yiqiu to the core.

it didn't take long for the news of a female school bully in the first grade of no. 8 high school to spread to all the high schools in northern city.

when fang zikai was playing basketball with the others, he heard his brother say, " the school bully from no. 8 high school is very good-looking. you've only been here for a short time, and you've already taken care of eighth high. impressive."

in fang zikai's impression, school bullies were all boys, so he sneered when he heard this. he said, " what's the use of a man who's so good-looking? he's good to look at but useless. " fang zikai, who had always been despised by his father, was disdainful of all good-looking boys.

his little brother said, " no. 8 high school's new school bully is a girl. " after saying that, he took out his phone and showed it to fang zikai. " let me show you this. i found this photo on the forum of eighth high school. look, this school bully is pretty, right? " fang zikai glanced at her.

the photo was probably taken secretly. gu yiqiu was wearing a black coat with a horn on top. her hair was draped over her shoulders and she was chewing on a lollipop as she walked past the school. it was just a photo that was secretly taken, but it was so beautiful that it moved people's hearts.

with just one look, fang zikai felt that he was in love.

"i'm not playing basketball this afternoon." fang zikai said.

"what's the matter?" his friends all thought that he had something to do at the last minute.

" yes, " fang zikai replied. " i have something to do. "

"what's the matter?"

"a major event in life!"

after throwing the basketball away, the good-looking fang zikai ran to no. 8 high school. he arrived at the entrance of no. 8 high school and coincidentally bumped into his brother.

the two brothers looked at each other with different expressions.

fang zikai was a little embarrassed, while fang zicheng squinted his eyes, his expression a little dangerous.

"what are you doing here?" fang zicheng's face darkened. he warned fang zikai, " don't get close to lu yinxi. " fang zicheng still remembered how lu yinxi had treated him as fang zikai.

fang zikai rolled his eyes. " just treasure her. i'm here to look for my girlfriend. " fang zicheng was surprised.

"you have a girlfriend?"

fang zikai was disgusted by fang zicheng's tone. he retorted, " you're such a boring person and you already have a girlfriend. i'm so cheerful and lovable, why can't i have a girlfriend? " fang zicheng chuckled.

seeing that lu yinxi had arrived, fang zicheng left fang zikai and walked over to lu yinxi. when lu yinxi saw the two brothers, she was stunned at first. then, she smiled and greeted fang zicheng.

" fang zicheng, is this your brother? " fang zicheng didn't want to talk to lu yinxi about his brother.

"yes."

the content of these words was a little profound.

lu yinxi first asked fang zikai, " how do you know about me? " fang zikai then remembered that his brother had not confessed to lu yinxi.

then wouldn't he have said it out loud?

" does your brother know me? " lu yinxi asked fang zicheng.

fang zicheng nodded.

"how did he know?"

fang zicheng hesitated for a moment before he said, " my brother saw us going home together, so he told my family. " even his family knew about it?

lu yinxi thought to herself, "then, to his family, who am i to fang zicheng?" a friend? classmate? or ...

"it's my girlfriend."

fang zicheng's voice exploded above lu yinxi's head.

lu yinxi raised her head in surprise and met fang zicheng's eyes. fang zicheng pursed his lips and looked at her with a serious expression. lu yinxi's heart started to beat wildly again.

"what do you think i am to you?" after lu yinxi asked this, she swallowed her saliva.

fang zicheng did not explain further. instead, he lowered his head and kissed lu yinxi on the forehead.

lu yinxi's face flushed red.

the students and adults passing by all cast all kinds of interesting looks at them.

after a while, fang zicheng's lips left lu yinxi's forehead. lu yinxi heard fang zicheng repeat himself. "you're my girlfriend."

lu yinxi was speechless.

seeing her fall into silence after being provoked, fang zicheng was reminded of how fierce she had been when she was young. this girl's experiences over the years had really changed her temperament.

fang zicheng was lost in his thoughts when lu yinxi suddenly grabbed his hand.

fang zicheng's eyes flickered. he looked down at the hand that lu yinxi was holding.

" you're my boyfriend now, " lu yinxi said.

bang bang bang bang

fang zicheng could hear his own heart beating even faster.

Chapter 1112: his heart ached for her this was bad.

fang zicheng turned around. his left hand was held by lu yinxi, so he could only use his right hand to press on his chest. feeling his heart beating intensely under his palm, fang zicheng's expression seemed to be a little shocked.

what was going on?

his heart was beating so fast.

fang zicheng took a few deep breaths. when he turned around, he had already returned to normal.

fang zicheng's sudden turn had startled lu yinxi. " what's wrong? " lu yinxi asked with concern when he turned around.

fang zicheng shook his head. " i'm fine. "

"so, should we leave now or wait for your brother?"

"let's go now."

fang zicheng didn't want lu yinxi, who was full of lies, to have too much contact with fang zikai.

"alright," he said.

the two of them walked to the bus stop to wait for the bus. today was friday and there were many people standing at the bus stop. when fang zicheng and lu yinxi appeared, the young girls couldn't help but steal glances at fang zicheng.

when fang zicheng heard many random thoughts in his mind, he subconsciously blocked them. lu yinxi was proud that her boyfriend had been noticed, but she also felt inferior.

she lowered her head and looked at her legs.

ah, so fat.

when lu yinxi bought pants, even the waistbands had to be 29, but wan yuting wore 26. wan yuting's waist was really thin, and she looked very slim. lu yinxi was already at the age where she loved to look pretty, so she naturally wanted to be thin.

her boyfriend was so outstanding and dazzling. her grades were not as good as his, her family was not as good as his, and even her figure was chubby ...

lu yinxi decided to lose weight.

because fang zicheng had blocked his hearing, he didn't know what lu yinxi was thinking. the bus arrived and there were too many people. however, there were many people on each bus today.

fang zicheng asked lu yinxi, " do you still want to sit? " lu yinxi didn't want fang zicheng to take the bus.

lu yinxi felt a little uncomfortable at the thought that there would be many people on the bus, and that some girls might take the opportunity to get close to fang zicheng. " why don't we walk back? " she suggested.

it would take about two hours to walk from eighth high to lu yinxi's aunt's house.

seeing that fang zicheng didn't say anything, lu yinxi said, " if you have something to do, you can take a taxi back first. it'll be the same if i take a taxi back later. "

"i'm fine. i'm just worried that you'll be tired."

lu yinxi smiled. her red lips and white teeth made her smile bright. "i'm not afraid of being tired." she said.

"then let's go."

the two of them walked home with their backpacks. lu yinxi's bag was much heavier than fang zicheng's. the journey was long, and lu yinxi couldn't bear to let fang zicheng carry her bag. she was worried that he would be tired.

she reached out to grab the bag on fang zicheng's back, but he dodged her hand. " i can carry it. " every summer, fang zicheng would train with qi bufan's base members. qi bufan had strict requirements for him, so under qi bufan's supervision, fang zicheng's physical fitness was naturally not bad.

the weight on his back was nothing to fang zicheng.

however, lu yinxi couldn't bear to let fang zicheng suffer. she whispered, " let me carry him. you see, i'm stronger than the average girl. you know i can take it. " it was unknown which of her words had provoked fang zicheng, but his good-looking lips suddenly pursed together. without making a sound, he left the year before last in silence. lu yinxi reflected on herself, but she still didn't know where she had gone wrong.

" are you angry? " she asked as she ran after him.

he wasn't angry.

fang zicheng was not someone who got angry easily. he just felt a little sorry for lu yinxi. yes, this teenager, who had been emotionless since he was young, felt sorry for this girl named lu yinxi.

he remembered that boss lu had raised lu yinxi like a princess when she was young. when she was young, her face was white and tender, and her fingers were toot. she had never done any work.

but what kind of life had she been living after boss lu's death?

it was very durable.

these three words made fang zicheng's heart ache.

"i'm not angry." he said calmly.

"then why are you walking so fast?"

fang zicheng replied, " if i walk faster, you won't be able to get the bag. "

lu yinxi was stunned.

she felt that fang zicheng was a little strange. what was with this person's brain circuit? lu yinxi said, "but if you walk too fast, i can't keep up with you."

fang zicheng took one of lu yinxi's hands.

"alright, i'll hold your hand, so you won't fall behind." the two 'young' high school students held hands and walked together in public.

lu yinxi was actually very thick-skinned, and she didn't mind the looks from strangers.

she was just holding the hand of the person she liked. there was nothing to be embarrassed about.

fang zicheng was even calmer. in his world view, other than his family, he could only be good to his wife. he could only carry her bag and hold her hand. holding hands with his wife on the street was a very common thing.

the two of them walked openly, making the passers-by feel embarrassed to stare at them.

when they passed by a jewelry store, lu yinxi casually glanced at the gold necklace on the window sill of the cupboard. the big necklace glowed with a golden light under the sun. the light attracted lu yinxi's attention, and she took a few more glances.

fang zicheng noticed lu yinxi's gaze and thought that she liked the gold necklace.

he began to examine the necklace carefully.

the design of the necklace was exquisite to the point of exaggerated luxury. this was probably the necklace that the bride would wear when she got married. it was shaped like a golden phoenix with its wings spread out, and there were some round, pure gold beads hanging down from it.

lu yinxi liked this necklace?

lu yinxi left without saying anything.

fang zicheng thought that she wanted to buy it but had no money, so she had to leave. he looked at the necklace a few more times, then looked up and remembered the name of the shop. he planned to buy the necklace later and give it to lu yinxi as a present on christmas this year.

lu yinxi had no idea what fang zicheng was planning.

she was just puzzled. this necklace was said to be the treasure of this jewelry store. when she first moved into her aunt's house, she had seen this necklace in the display window. she didn't expect that it would still be there after so many years.

you can't sell them?

that's right, probably only those spendthrifts who have too much money to go on a diplomatic mission would spend money to buy that kind of jewelry.

whoever was wearing such an exaggerated necklace would be a fool.

"i'm here." the gate of the neighborhood was just up ahead.

fang zicheng stopped in his tracks and took down his bag. " i'm free tomorrow, " he said without thinking.

lu yinxi was stunned for a second before she realized that fang zicheng was indirectly asking her out. lu yinxi thought for a while and said, " i'm busy during the day and free at night. "

“what are you going to do?”

lu yinxi didn't hide her family background from fang zicheng. she said, “ i found a temporary job at M's fast food restaurant. i promised to work on saturdays and sundays, so i can't break my promise. ”

Chapter 1113: tiedan also knows how to show off his love

“ oh, ” fang zicheng said. “ then, let's go out and play tomorrow night? ”

“alright,” he said.

“go home, i'll watch you go in.”

“yes.”

before lu yinxi turned around and entered the neighborhood, fang zicheng called out to her. “elk.”

!!

“what?” lu yinxi picked up her bag and turned to look at him. “ what's wrong now? ” she asked.

“ aren't you going to give me a goodbye kiss? ” fang zicheng asked.

“ huh? ” lu yinxi gasped in surprise. a parting kiss?

fang zicheng told her seriously, " every time my parents separate, they give each other a goodbye kiss. " he looked at lu yinxi with his green eyes and hesitated for a moment before asking, " don't you like me? " if you like me, why don't you kiss me like how my mother kisses my father?

lu yinxi understood what fang zicheng meant.

she was surprised.

was fang zicheng so open when he was in love?

lu yinxi didn't know that she was fang zicheng's future wife. fang zicheng had learned from his parents how he should get along with lu yinxi.

in the end, lu yinxi didn't kiss him because she was too embarrassed.

fang zicheng was a little disappointed that he didn't get a parting kiss from lu yinxi. when he got home, he knocked on the door to his father's studio. when fang yusheng opened the door, fang zicheng asked directly, " does the elk really like me? " fang yusheng was a little sad.

ever since their son fell in love, he had become unlike their son.

fang yusheng facepalmed and asked him, " what's wrong now? " the word again revealed fang yusheng's deep helplessness.

" she doesn't even want to give me a goodbye kiss, " said fang zicheng.

fang yusheng's eyelids twitched and his face darkened. he scolded fang zicheng, " what parting kiss? how old are you?! " it's not proper to kiss so easily!"

" but don't you and mommy kiss a lot?" fang zicheng asked.

"we are adults."

"oh, then we still have to wait until we're eighteen to kiss."

fang yusheng didn't know how to explain this to fang zicheng. when it came to dating, fang zicheng was acting like a fool.

after hearing fang yusheng's words, fang zicheng realized his mistake. when he returned to his room, he logged into the browser and searched for "

how should a high school student fall in love?

the answer was,"high school students should be students. it's more reliable to date after they get into the same university."

focus on learning?

fang zicheng had originally planned to take lu yinxi to the movies the next night, but he changed his mind at the last minute.

knock knock knock hearing the sound of the door, fang zicheng raised his head and said, " come in. "

fang zikai pushed the door open and sat down by fang zicheng's bed. fang zikai said, " your elk is quite cute. " although she was a little fat now, she would definitely be a beautiful woman if she slimmed down.

what should he do? his girlfriend was too cute, but he also felt a sense of crisis.

fang zikai had no idea how much his brother loved lu yinxi.

hearing the sarcasm in his brother's words, fang zicheng didn't care.

he thought of something and asked fang zikai, " who's your girlfriend? " fang zikai touched his nose. " i haven't caught him. "

"oh, you didn't catch up, or did the other party not like you?"

fang zikai's face was full of disdain, " there's no one who doesn't like me. "

"my elk family doesn't like you."

fang zikai was dumbfounded.

his brother was ... showing off his love?

"fang zicheng, you've changed! you've really changed. you weren't like this before! tell me, which demon has possessed you!" he didn't believe that the boy who would spread public affection was his brother.

fang zicheng found him an eyesore. "go back to your room."

fang zikai refused.

he lay down on his brother's bed and said, " i think i'm in love. "

"oh."

"i thought i was in love when i saw her photo. i even want to marry her and have children with her. " fang zikai's heart was itching. he had gone to eighth high school today, but he did not find the school bully. he was quite disappointed.

" oh, " fang zicheng replied. " is it a boy or a girl? " fang zicheng did not say a word but kicked fang zikai.

"female," fang zikai felt that something was wrong after he answered, so he kicked his brother, " hey, what do you mean? do i look like the kind of person who likes men?"

fang zicheng was stronger than fang zikai and kicked him off the bed. fang zikai's butt rolled onto the floor, and he quickly stood up, pouncing over and pressing fang zicheng down on the bed.

fang zikai grabbed his brother's collar and said, " if you mess with me again, i'll do you! " fang zicheng sneered.

fang zikai lowered his head and was about to take off his brother's clothes to scratch his brother's skin.

at this time, fang yusheng, who had just come out of the studio and found that his eldest son's room was open, heard the movement and looked inside.

when fang yusheng saw fang zikai and fang zicheng hugging each other on the bed, and fang zikai was still taking off fang zicheng's clothes, he thought of the ambiguous conversation he had just heard at the door. fang yusheng felt like he had been struck by lightning.

"w-what are you guys doing?" fang yusheng's voice was trembling.

fang yusheng had started to doubt the world.

fang zikai didn't know what fang yusheng was thinking. he complained to fang yusheng, " i'm going to f * ck him up today. he's too much. "

fang zicheng heard fang yusheng's inner voice and realized that he had misunderstood. he explained, " dad, get him away from me. he's tickling me again. " fang zicheng was especially ticklish, especially his chest and creak.

fang yusheng heaved a sigh of relief.

"you're so old, why are you still touching me?" he warned fang zikai with his eyes, " get off your brother. you can't bully him just because he's honest. "

"he's honest?" fang zikai quickly punched fang zicheng again, then climbed down from his brother's bed.

fang yusheng confirmed that the two brothers wouldn't fight again and returned to his room.

ji qing had a miscarriage some time ago and was in a bad mood, so qiao jiusheng simply ran back to her mother's house to stay for a while and chat with ji qing. today was the fifth day since she had left.

qiao jiusheng had not returned for a few days, so the room was a little cold.

fang yusheng lay on the bed, feeling uncomfortable. he got up again and walked to qiao jiusheng's dressing table. he found a bottle of perfume in the bottles.

fang yusheng sprayed the perfume in the room, and when he smelled qiao jiusheng's fragrance, he felt at ease.

when qiao jiusheng video-called him, fang yusheng had just finished applying his perfume. he lay lazily on the bed and complained to qiao jiusheng, " you scared me to death just now. "

Chapter 1114: doing homework

"what's wrong?" qiao jiusheng was lying on the chaise lounge with a facial mask on her face.

fang yusheng told qiao jiusheng about the scene he had just seen.

after qiao jiusheng heard this, she was speechless for a long time. in the end, she said, " fang yusheng, what's wrong with your brain? did he become retarded after inhaling too much fog? even if i use my toes to think, it's impossible for your two sons to act recklessly."

fang yusheng was also a little embarrassed, " that's because that brat fang zikai's words are too easy for people to misunderstand. " qiao jiusheng didn't continue the conversation. instead, she said, " our children are always worrying. look at qiao qi 'an, he's so well-behaved, he doesn't let my brother and sister-in-law worry at all. " fang yusheng was envious.

"now that you mention it, our ran ran is twelve years old."

“yes, what’s wrong?” when fang yusheng heard qiao jiusheng mention ran ran, he became nervous. “ what do you want to say? ”

“keep a close eye on your little princess. if she dares to fall in love at such a young age, we’re really failures as parents.”

fang yusheng said, “ don’t worry, i know my daughter. she’ll definitely be obedient in the future. ” qiao jiusheng looked at fang yusheng with pity. “don’t speak too early.” ranran was the same as qiao jiusheng. she was stubborn and had her own opinions.

to be honest, the news of fang zicheng’s relationship had shocked qiao jiusheng. qiao jiusheng thought that the child she had the least worries about had actually been the first to fall in love. even now, qiao jiusheng found it unbelievable.

“oh, that’s right.” qiao jiusheng suddenly remembered that it was inconvenient to put on a face mask, so she took it off. fang yusheng’s heart ached when he saw this. he asked qiao jiusheng, “ you tore off a face mask that costs seven or eight hundred yuan. why don’t you put it on for a while longer? ” if it was fang yusheng, he would have to apply it for at least an hour.

qiao jiusheng could not help but laugh. “ what’s wrong? does your heart hurt? ” qiao jiusheng touched her beautiful face and said, “ men want women to be beautiful, but they dislike women who spend money fiercely. ” you want me to be as beautiful as a flower, and also want me to be a natural beauty, you wish!”

“do you know how beautiful women come about?” qiao jiusheng pointed at the facial mask in the trash can and said, “ i bought it with money! ” fang yusheng couldn’t help but laugh. “ i’m that natural beauty. ” qiao jiusheng was speechless.

“please shut up, thank you.”

fang yusheng also stopped. “right, what did you want to say just now?”

qiao jiusheng had almost forgotten about the important matter at hand. with fang yusheng’s reminder, she suddenly remembered and quickly explained, “wei xin and susanna adopted a boy.”

fang yusheng hadn’t logged in to the ‘OK’ app yet, and they had already discussed it in the group. qiao jiusheng did not see fang yusheng participating in the discussion, so she guessed that he might not know about this.

qiao jiusheng said to fang yusheng, “i gave wei xin a call and she told me the reason for adopting the child. i couldn’t help but sigh when i heard it.”

“ what happened?” fang yusheng asked.

“it’s like this. didn’t wei xin often go out? susanna too. of these two people, one is busy with work, and the other is busy traveling when he has free time.” their married life was similar to their pre-marriage life.

wei xin was busy with her career, and susanna was busy living her own life. they were both the people that they missed the most. they would contact each other at a fixed time every day. whenever susanna missed wei xin, she would go and see her. when wei xin missed susanna, she would arrange time to go on a trip with her. sometimes, they would travel for three to five days, and sometimes, they would stop for a day.

they were both independent and worried about each other. such days were actually very comfortable.

the change in the situation started last month. susanna had injured her leg during a dangerous expedition and had fallen unconscious when she landed. when she woke up, she realized that the sky was already dark, but she had not been discovered.

susanna found her phone and realized it was almost out of battery. before she turned it off, she sent an address to wei xin. when wei xin received the address, she understood that susanna was asking for help.

wei xin contacted the rescue team and personally rushed to the place to pick up susanna. at that time, susanna was in a sorry state. wei xin hugged her, and susanna suddenly said, " let's adopt a child. " wei xin asked why and she said, " in the few hours i was waiting for help, i was thinking about a question. if i fell to my death, what would you do? i know you'll live well, but it's inevitable to feel lonely if you live alone. if you have a child, he can still accompany you."

susanna wasn't afraid of death, but she was afraid that wei xin would be all alone if she died one day.

after a month of thinking, wei xin finally agreed to susanna's decision.

adopting a child meant a change in their status. their children needed to study and grow up with someone to accompany them. the two of them used to be alone and could go wherever they wanted, but now they had to change their lives.

raising a child was an adventure for them, but they were looking forward to the arrival of this adventure.

after qiao jiusheng told fang yusheng everything that had happened, she sighed and said, " i agree with susanna's view. after the death of the person you love, there are still other people to accompany the person you love. at least, you won't be so lonely. " fang yusheng didn't respond to her.

he thought to himself, "if you die, no matter how many people are by my side, i will still be lonely."

the child that susanna and wei xin had adopted was quite old. he was already nine years old, but he was a quiet child. according to the director of the orphanage, this was the first time that someone had taken a fancy to the child.

the previous adopters felt that this child was too quiet and were afraid that they would not be able to raise him well.

if he couldn't be tamed, he would be an ungrateful wolf.

wei xin liked that child not because of anything else but because of what that child said. when wei xin went to pick the children, she asked them a question, " why do you think i want to adopt a child? "

there were all sorts of answers. some said that she liked children, some said that she felt lonely, and some said that she hoped to have someone to accompany her when she grew old. only the child stared at susanna behind wei xin and asked uncertainly, " do you want someone to love her with you? " at that time, wei xin felt that this child was very considerate.

yes, she wasn't afraid of loneliness, but she was also afraid of susanna being lonely. if one day, one of them suddenly passed away, she hoped to have a child to accompany the one who survived to remember the other person.

fang yusheng didn't have time to visit the child in Switzerland. he thought for a while, then said to qiao jiusheng, " when you're back, we'll go buy some gifts and send them to the child. "

"alright," he said. qiao jiusheng continued, " it's getting late. i should go to bed. " if you don't get enough sleep, it's useless no matter how expensive the facial mask is."

"okay, good night."

it was a good night's sleep.

the next day, fang zicheng went to the city library for half a day and went to qi bufan's place to play for half a day in the afternoon. finally, he stayed up until night. he went home, took a shower, put on a down jacket, and went to find lu yinxi.

fang zicheng went straight to lu yinxi's workplace.

lu yinxi took their first date very seriously. before she went to work in the morning, she had specially washed her face with her aunt's face wash and applied toner. when she saw fang zicheng enter, lu yinxi said to the head waitress, " it's time to change shifts. i'm leaving. " lu yinxi walked over to fang zicheng.

today, fang zicheng was still as good-looking as ever. he was wearing a white down jacket and black casual pants. he held a cup of milk tea in his hand. after he entered the shop, he didn't sit down. he just waited for lu yinxi to walk over.

when they saw lu yinxi walk over to fang zicheng, they were all a little surprised. could this be lu yinxi's boyfriend? he was so handsome.

when lu yinxi got closer, fang zicheng asked, " can we go now? "

"yes, it's done."

lu yinxi and fang zicheng walked out of the shop together.

a gust of cold wind blew in his face.

when fang zicheng heard lu yinxi say that she was cold, he was about to take off his scarf for her to use when he saw lu yinxi pull up the collar of her turtleneck sweater to cover her neck.

his fingers paused on the towel for a moment before he put it down unnaturally.

" what are we doing tonight? " lu yinxi asked him expectantly. was it a movie? or go shopping? or go to the park to play?

" doing homework, " fang zicheng replied.

lu yinxi was speechless.

fang zicheng looked at lu yinxi with a serious expression. " we're still high school students. we should focus on our studies, " he said.

lu yinxi was stunned. " ... you're right. "

Chapter 1115: confession lu yinxi was a little disappointed.

she thought that fang zicheng was going to take her out to play.

it was their first date. lu yinxi was full of anticipation. she had already thought about it. later, she would go out and buy him a pair of knitted gloves as a souvenir for their first date.

she had already prepared the money, but fang zicheng said that he had to do homework that night.

ever since she found out that fang zicheng could hear her inner thoughts, lu yinxi would try her best not to whisper to him. therefore, fang zicheng had no idea what she was really thinking.

the night was very cold. the cold wind blew in her face, and lu yinxi's nose was cold. her nose was already running. fang zicheng passed the milk tea to her and said, " it's still hot. i didn't know what you liked to drink, so i bought you some ginger tea. " lu yinxi held the milk tea in her hands and thought,"even if i don't like drinking ginger tea, i will love it from today onwards."

fang zicheng heard what lu yinxi said in her heart and was in an exceptionally good mood.

he was in a good mood and suddenly felt that doing homework was boring.

fang zicheng stopped in his tracks.

lu yinxi also stopped.

"what's wrong?" lu yinxi raised her head and looked at the back of fang zicheng's head. fang zicheng turned to look at her and said, " we still have a long way to go. let's do our homework next time. tonight, we'll go to the movies. " as for doing homework or whatever, it's better to do it next time.

lu yinxi's eyes lit up. "alright."

there was a movie theater nearby. it wasn't large, only one floor, and had six broadcasting rooms. when they arrived at the venue, fang zicheng asked lu yinxi to choose what she liked. lu yinxi wasn't someone who liked to watch movies.

she told fang zicheng, " you pick. i'm fine with anything. "

"that's good."

fang zicheng did not back down.

this documentary had actually been released for many years. before this, it had always been shown on the website as a tv series.

lu yinxi had never seen this film before, but fang zicheng had heard of it.

"let's look at this, what do you think?" although lu yinxi had allowed fang zicheng to choose his own film, fang zicheng still had to ask for lu yinxi's opinion. lu yinxi was quite curious about the film, so she nodded and agreed.

it was almost christmas, and there were many popular movies being screened recently. the number of people who chose to watch this documentary was pitifully small. there were too many popular movies, and in order to make money, the cinema only arranged for this documentary to be screened once.

lu yinxi and fang zicheng were lucky enough to be in the screening of the movie.

fang zicheng had a habit of buying a bucket of popcorn when he watched movies. although there was a screening room at home and his parents would occasionally take them out to watch movies, fang yusheng would buy a family bucket every time they went to the cinema to watch movies.

fang zicheng thought that he would have to buy popcorn if he brought his future wife to watch a movie.

the two of them held a bucket of popcorn, while fang zicheng held a cup of coke in his other hand. lu yinxi secretly brought the unfinished milk tea into the screening room. lu yinxi thought that the movie was about the things between a newborn baby and its mother. she didn't expect the content to be so shocking and even infuriating.

it described the dangerous scene of a mother's life and death when she gave birth, as well as the joy of the whole family when the newborn was about to come. there was a child who was heartlessly abandoned by his father and given up on treatment because of physical problems. as for his mother, her eyes were filled with tears, but she did not fight for her child.

what could he do?

the child was not healthy. they had spent money and effort to save the child, but the child would only be a burden in the future. a family that could have been considered to have an acceptable financial condition was now going down the path of destruction because of a child ...

they had no choice but to abandon it.

to the first poor family, it was no different from a blow to the head.

lu yinxi watched as her honest father went around borrowing money to keep her two daughters alive. she was greatly shocked.

fang zicheng was also entranced.

when he saw what the parents in the documentary did for their children, he was reminded of his own parents. in the early years, his family had put in a lot of effort for him because of his emotional deficiency.

he still remembered the time when fang zikai had fallen into the lake, and he had decided to leave him to die. although he had jumped into the lake to save his brother, fang zicheng still felt ashamed for his cold and emotionless self.

they were a family. just like in the documentary, they had been living together ever since they were in her mother's womb. they had grown together from two fertilized eggs to two little babies. they had descended into this strange world at the same time. there was no relationship that could be more intimate than this.

and he, at the moment when his brother almost died, watched him sink to the bottom of the lake.

fang zicheng realized how cold-blooded he was.

after the movie, the two of them left the screening room in silence.

lu yinxi was thinking about her parents. when she was born, had her parents been as happy and excited as the documentary had recorded? her parents had passed away when she was very young. lu yinxi really couldn't remember what her parents looked like.

at this moment, fang zicheng suddenly said, " i want to tell you something. " lu yinxi stopped thinking and looked up at fang zicheng. " tell me. "

" i'm sick, " fang zicheng said.

lu yinxi almost thought that fang zicheng was scolding himself.

just as she was about to ask fang zicheng what was wrong with him, he continued, " i've been different from others since i was young. i can't understand feelings, like sadness, excitement, sadness, sympathy ..."

"i don't understand your emotions, and i can't feel your emotions, so i can't resonate with you. in the medical field, this is called emotional deficiency."

lu yinxi was stunned. "emotionless?" lu yinxi had heard of this disease before. as far as she knew, emotional loss was just like depression. it didn't sound scary, but people with this disease had the highest suicide rate.

fang zicheng replied, "other than my family, i'm only willing to be good to you. you may have forgotten, but we've known each other since we were young."

lu yinxi was stunned.

Chapter 1116: knowing the truth

"you've known each other since you were young?" lu yinxi thought about it and really couldn't remember fang zicheng. she asked fang zicheng, "when you said i was young, how old was i?"

"when you were four years old."

over the years, lu yinxi's autism had not fully recovered.

apart from her closest family members and wan yuting, lu yinxi would only appear more cheerful and lively when she was with fang zicheng.

fang zicheng naturally knew that lu yinxi was hiding something from him.

just like how fang zicheng didn't want lu yinxi to know that she had emotional deficiency, lu yinxi didn't want fang zicheng to know that she had autism. speaking of which, they were not really healthy people.

however, fang zicheng had decided to confess everything to lu yinxi.

"let's find a place and have a chat."

lu yinxi wanted to refuse.

she had a feeling that what fang zicheng was going to tell her next was something she didn't want to face.

fang zicheng brought lu yinxi to a coffee shop. the heater was turned on in the coffee shop. the two of them entered the house and found a quiet place to sit down. fang zicheng ordered two cups of coffee.

after the coffee was served, lu yinxi sipped on it without asking what fang zicheng wanted to talk about.

"you saved me."

hearing this, lu yinxi suddenly raised her head and looked at fang zicheng. her eyes were a little surprised. "i saved you?" she could not remember. "i don't remember saving you."

"yes. you've forgotten about us after your parents 'accident. " lu yinxi completely believed fang zicheng's words.

there were very few people who knew that she had lost some of her memories after her parents 'accident. since fang zicheng knew about this, it meant that they had really known each other before.

lu yinxi's hand unconsciously tightened around the coffee cup.

" uncle lu, is that my dad? " lu yinxi asked in a low voice.

"yes."

" how did my parents die? " lu yinxi suddenly asked. lu yinxi didn't know much about her parents 'death. after her parents had passed away, lu yinxi had been living in a daze every day. she had heard from her grandmother that there was a period of time when she had refused to contact everyone. once someone got close, she would scream as if she had seen a ghost.

she had also forgotten the memories of her parents 'death.

lu yinxi would ask her grandmother how her parents had passed away. her grandmother would always fall into silence for a long time before sighing. " my life was bad. i died a horrible death. " however, grandma didn't tell him exactly how terrible it was.

knowing that fang zicheng might know how her parents had passed away, lu yinxi's entire body tensed up. she couldn't wait to know the truth.

fang zicheng started to hesitate.

fang zicheng didn't know if he should tell lu yinxi the truth about boss lu's death. lu yinxi must have seen her parents 'deaths with her own eyes back then. that was why she had almost gone crazy.

fang zicheng was worried that lu yinxi would go crazy again if he brought up the past.

lu yinxi understood fang zicheng's concerns. "i've grown up a long time ago," she said. "i'm no longer the weak little boy i was when i was young. fang zicheng, i have the right to know the truth about my parents' death."

"you're right." fang zicheng took a sip of the hot coffee, and the worry in his heart faded a little. he then said, "i'm not sure about the details. i only remember that it was winter. my memory is much better than the average person's, and i still remember many things from my childhood."

"that morning, after i woke up, i saw my parents sitting at the dining table. they were especially silent. the atmosphere at home was a little heavy, so i asked them what happened. my dad said that our uncle lu passed away."

"i heard that when your parents passed away, they were in a terrible state. they had been killed by someone, and the wound was on their necks. it was a fatal blow. the police determined that the murderer was a strong-willed person with great strength. uncle lu was 1.8 meters tall and had a medium build. the person who could kill him with one strike was naturally not weak. the murderer had come prepared and did not leave a single clue in the house. your parents' tragic deaths have become a murder case that has yet to be solved."

lu yinxi was stunned.

grandma had only said that mom and dad had died a terrible death. lu yinxi had thought that they might have died in a car accident or for some other reason. she just never thought that they had been killed by someone.

lu yinxi's body went cold.

fang zicheng's deep eyes landed on lu yinxi's face. "you were there," he said.

lu yinxi was stunned again.

“you know about it?” lu yinxi had kept her autism a secret. she didn’t expect fang zicheng to know about it.

“yes.”

fang zicheng held lu yinxi’s hand and said, “ elk, my parents are the people who gave me life. you and boss lu are the ones who gave me a chance to be reborn. you, to me, are a different existence. i don’t know if i love you or not, but i like the feeling of being with you. because of my illness, i may not be able to experience your sorrow and sadness in the future, but i will definitely be by your side.”

lu yinxi’s lips moved for a long time before she nodded.

on the way home, fang zicheng and lu yinxi didn’t talk again.

after learning the truth about her parents ‘death, lu yinxi’s heart was in a mess.

he sent lu yinxi to the entrance of the neighborhood. lu yinxi didn’t even say goodbye to fang zicheng before she walked into the neighborhood in a daze. fang zicheng stared at her back as she left, feeling a little regretful.

should he not have told lu yinxi the truth?

lu yinxi opened the door to her aunt's house. like a robot, she stiffly changed her shoes.

she walked to the sofa in the living room and lay down, not moving.

in the middle of the night, lu ziai returned home, covered in cold air.

lu ziai was surprised to see the girl lying on the sofa. she thought that lu yinxi was sick, so she walked over and touched her forehead. someone was touching her, and lu yinxi immediately opened her eyes.

Chapter 1117: aunt's past she stared at lu ziai and was in a daze for a while before she called out hoarsely, " aunt. " lu yinxi's voice sounded like she was crying, and it broke people's hearts.

lu ziai was stunned. " why are you crying? " lu yinxi sat up and hugged lu ziai's waist. she leaned on lu ziai's shoulder and cried.

lu ziai thought she had been bullied in school, so he asked her, " who bullied you? what are you crying for? if someone bullies you, you bully them back!"

"no one is bullying me." lu yinxi quickly let go of lu ziai and wiped her tears.

seeing that she had stopped crying, lu ziai was baffled.

"i didn't eat anything tonight and i'm hungry. i'll go cook a bowl of noodles. do you want some?" lu ziai said as he got up and walked to the kitchen.

lu yinxi didn't eat anything that night. she only had a cup of milk tea.

fang zicheng was a fool. he had gone to look for lu yinxi after dinner, so he thought that lu yinxi had also eaten. however, lu yinxi hadn't eaten at all. that night, lu yinxi only had a cup of milk tea, a cup of coffee, and a few handfuls of popcorn.

lu ziai's cooking was simple and crude. her so-called noodles were boiled in water, two eggs were thrown in, and a little oil was added. after the noodles were cooked, a little soy sauce was poured, and a few scallions were sprinkled on top.

lu yinxi and lu ziai each held a bowl of noodles. they sat at the table and slurped down the noodles.

when lu ziai was about to finish eating, lu yinxi suddenly asked her, " aunt, did you know that my parents were killed? " lu ziai put down his chopsticks, pulled out a tissue, and wiped his mouth.

" do you remember what happened when you were young? " lu ziai asked lu yinxi.

lu yinxi shook her head and said, " i don't remember what happened when i was young. i heard about it from an old friend by accident. " lu yinxi hummed in agreement.

"oh." lu ziai poured herself a glass of cold water. after she finished the water, she said, " i know. " lu ziai stared at lu yinxi and said, " it's been so many years. you're lucky that you don't remember. " since it's a bad memory, i'm telling you, but it's just to break your heart again."

lu ziai pushed the bowl in front of lu yinxi and said, " i made the noodles. you wash the dishes. " lu yinxi went to wash the dishes. lu ziai sat in the dining room and played with his phone, not planning to go to sleep. there was one thing that lu yinxi had been curious about for a long time. she felt that the atmosphere was quite good, so she boldly asked lu ziai, “ auntie, why did you and grandma fall out? ” lu ziai was playing games on his phone.

“oh.”

lu yinxi saw lu ziai’s fingers stop in the air.

knowing that she had asked the wrong question, lu yinxi quickly lowered her head and pretended to be serious about washing the dishes. after a long time, lu ziai finally spoke. she laughed and said, “ i don’t have any self-respect. i’m embarrassing her. ” among the three siblings, other than lu zide, the other two had given themselves two good names for nothing. lu zizun lived without self-respect, and lu ziai was scolded for not having self-respect.

it was laughable.

lu yinxi didn’t say anything else.

she thought that lu ziai was referring to how she had an affair with a man when she was young and embarrassed her grandmother. her grandmother had scolded her, and the mother and daughter had broken off their relationship.

after eating a bowl of noodles in the middle of the night, lu yinxi gritted her teeth and did more than a dozen sit-ups before going to bed. she lay on the bed like a dead fish, unable to move. the next morning, she jogged to no. 8 high school.

she wanted to lose weight.

she had already decided that she would only eat a bun every morning, eat until she was 70% full at noon, and not eat or drink anything after five o'clock at night. therefore, it was a sin for her to eat the bowl of noodles last night.

lu yinxi was a very determined person. if she said she wanted to lose weight, she really did.

it was christmas eve, so the students were a little absent-minded in class. they all wanted to go out and have fun after school this afternoon. in binjiang city, only the second and third-year students had to attend night self-study. for year one students, day students could skip night self-study, but those who lived on campus had to attend two periods of night self-study.

after school in the afternoon, day students could go to the streets to play or attend parties at night.

in the last class of the afternoon, everyone was in a daze.

lu yinxi and wan yuting were in the same class, and wan yuting sat in front of her. lu yinxi was doing english practice questions. this was a self-study class for english. she felt a slight pain in her stomach, so she pressed her stomach with her left hand and wrote with her right hand.

wan yuting turned around and whispered to her. "a party?"

"do you need to wear a gown?" lu yinxi asked.

"yes, i do."

"then forget it, i don't have it."

wan yuting said, " i have one. i'll lend it to you. " lu yinxi asked faintly, " look at my body size. will your dress fit? " wan yuting was speechless.

my little friend is really honest.

speaking of body shape ... wan yuting suddenly said, " lu yinxi, did you lose weight? " when she heard the word " skinny, " lu yinxi felt that her stomach didn't hurt as much. she said, " i've been trying to lose weight recently. i've been eating less in order to lose weight. look, which part of me has lost weight?"

"legs and face," lu yinxi was deeply gratified. "it seems that losing weight is effective."

wan yuting suddenly laughed. lu yinxi didn't understand why she suddenly laughed. when wan yuting saw lu yinxi's confused gaze, she said, " it's really different when you're in love. in the past, our lu yinxi was only focused on studying. now, she knows how to lose weight. " after a while, she'll start to put on makeup and buy pretty clothes."

lu yinxi blushed and said, " i only know how to buy beautiful clothes now. i don't have money. " if she had money, she could empty the mall.

if you're rich, you should live a rich and carefree life. if she didn't have money, she would have to live in poverty. lu yinxi didn't mind. in fang zicheng's eyes, it probably didn't matter if she wore a school uniform or a bikini.

lu yinxi was embarrassed by this thought.

wearing bikinis ...

fang zicheng said that he was emotionless. so, even if she were to strip naked in front of him, would he still not react? lu yinxi thought of another question. would people with emotional deficiency have sexual desires?

lu yinxi quickly shook her head when she realized what she was thinking.

indeed, people who were in love became more and more yellow.

when wan yuting saw the teacher looking over, she quickly turned around and pretended to be reading. lu yinxi did another reading question and felt her stomach hurt even more. it hurt so much that her forehead was sweating.

lu yinxi felt that something was wrong.

she held on for a few more minutes, and the pain became more and more painful. she quickly raised her hand.

the teacher looked at her. " what's the matter? " lu yinxi held the table and stood up slowly. " teacher, my stomach hurts ... " before lu yinxi could finish her sentence, she fell on the table and then fell to the ground along the table.

Chapter 1118: rejected

“lu yinxi!” wan yuting quickly stood up to support lu yinxi.

seeing lu yinxi’s pale face, wan yuting quickly said to the english teacher, “ she seems to be sick. teacher, i’ll take her to the hospital! ” the english teacher found two more boys to carry lu yinxi out of school.

when fang zicheng came to pick lu yinxi up in the afternoon, he found her empty. he didn’t know lu yinxi’s classmates, so he couldn’t ask if lu yinxi had returned home. fang zicheng stood at the entrance of no. 8 high school and tried to hear lu yinxi’s inner voice.

in the end, he didn’t find lu yinxi.

he could only go home by himself.

the next morning, fang zicheng came to school early and stopped the girl named wan yuting. wan yuting saw fang zicheng standing at the school gate and guessed that he was here to see lu yinxi.

as expected, fang zicheng walked towards wan yuting.

“hello,” he said.

this was the first time fang zicheng had taken the initiative to speak to wan yuting. wan yuting was a little nervous. this brother gao leng looked exactly like her male god. she was very nervous.

“you’re here to see lu yinxi, right?” wan yuting was very good at reading people.

fang zicheng nodded and asked her, " did lu yinxi go home early yesterday afternoon? " lu yinxi knew that he would come to pick her up. logically speaking, she shouldn't have left on her own, unless she had something on and left early.

wan yuting said, " she's sick. it's menitis. she had an operation yesterday. " fang zicheng furrowed his brows and quickly asked, " why did she suddenly get appendicitis? " wan yuting said a little awkwardly, " she's been trying to lose weight recently. her diet isn't regular, and for some reason, she has appendicitis. the appendectomy was done yesterday, and she's still in the hospital now."

fang zicheng asked for the hospital's address and thanked wan yuting. he then called his father.

when he called fang yusheng, fang zicheng was already on the bus to the hospital.

"what are you doing!" when qiao jiusheng said she wanted to eat dumplings, fang yusheng was rolling out the dumpling skins, while qiao jiusheng and lisa were making dumplings. he was too busy to answer the call. after picking up the phone, he put it between his ear and shoulder and spoke directly.

fang zicheng could hear someone talking on the other end of the line. when he heard qiao jiusheng say that the skin of the dumplings was too thick, he asked fang yusheng, " are you making dumplings? "

"yes."

"pack more,"

fang yusheng asked, " you're coming back to eat? "

" the elk family is in the hospital, " said fang zicheng. " give it to her. " fang zicheng thought for a moment and said, " i'll make wonton. it's smaller so it's easier to digest. " fang yusheng was speechless.

“what happened to her body?”

“i had an operation last night for acute mentalism. can you help me call my teacher? i’m not going to school today.” he was going to accompany his wife.

fang yusheng chuckled and hung up the phone.

“this little brat!” he scolded fang zicheng and quickly got up to wash his hands. then he called fang zicheng’s form teacher to ask for leave.

when fang zicheng arrived at the hospital, lu yinxi was standing in the corridor, holding the railing and walking slowly. after an appendectomy, the patient had to walk more to prevent adhesion at the wound to facilitate recovery.

as lu yinxi walked, she felt that her wound was very painful. her hand that was hanging down was wrapped by a bigger hand. she raised her head in surprise and saw fang zicheng’s displeased face.

“you’re here?” lu yinxi was quite happy.

fang zicheng was not happy.

“you’re on a diet?” fang zicheng’s tone was a little angry. after meeting her, he became more and more easily angry. “why are you losing weight at such a young age! you’re not fat.” in fang zicheng’s eyes, it didn’t matter whether lu yinxi was fat or thin.

it was fine as long as it was her.

lu yinxi was also a little ashamed. " i won't be so insensible in the future. "

"have you eaten?"

"not yet," the doctor said that she couldn't eat anything before passing gas, so lu yinxi had to endure the pain and walk back and forth in the corridor. fang zicheng knew this too, so he did not ask further. he was afraid that she would be too shy to talk about this topic.

after the surgery was successful, lu yinxi stayed in the hospital for a few more days. she took the list and did some calculations. she had actually spent more than 6000 yuan on this hospitalization. appendectomy was a small surgery, and the cost was considered small.

lu yinxi bought medical insurance and got a reimbursement of more than 2000 yuan.

she didn't have much savings to begin with. there was more than 10000 yuan in her card. it had been more than three months since school started. lu yinxi ate two meals at school every month and had to top up a few hundred yuan into her card for living expenses. although she didn't need to buy too many clothes, there were times when she was short of clothes. adding on her other daily expenses, she had used up 2700 yuan.

she worked part-time during the weekends and earned more than 1600 yuan in total. in total, she only had 16000 yuan left in her savings of 18000. she had spent another 4000 yuan in the hospital this time, so she was only left with 12000 yuan.

this 12,000 yuan would probably only be enough for the next semester's tuition fees and daily expenses.

lu yinxi felt distressed.

divided into two batches every year. you can get 2500 yuan as a subsidy. i heard that this semester's subsidy will only be available near the end of the term. ” the end of the semester ...

then she wouldn't have to worry about her tuition fees and living expenses for the next semester.

however, she couldn't just rely on those poor students 'subsidies for the tuition fees and living expenses of the second and third years of high school! lu yinxi didn't tell fang zicheng about her troubles. when she returned to her aunt's house, she saw that her aunt was opening her international parcel again.

it was said that it was a luxury brand of skin care products, and each set cost a few thousand yuan.

lu yinxi stood on the side and looked hesitant.

lu ziai noticed and asked her, ” what's wrong? do you have something to say?”

“aunt.” lu yinxi walked over to lu ziai and squatted down beside him. she said something to him in a very soft voice. lu ziai didn't hear her clearly and said, ” speak louder. don't be like a mosquito. ”

“i want to borrow some money from you.” lu yinxi went all out.

lu ziai's expression did not change, but she did not speak either.

lu yinxi was a little nervous.

she repeated, ” auntie, can you lend me some money? it's about 20000 yuan. i ... i don't have enough for my tuition fees for my second and third years. ” lu yinxi had thrown out all her face.

lu ziai didn't refuse her, but asked, ” do you think i will lend you money? ”

lu yinxi was stunned.

lu ziai added, " you live in my house, eat my food, and use my money for free. i didn't charge you a single cent. lu yinxi, what makes you think i can lend you money?" lu ziai's tone was indifferent when he said this.

lu yinxi was stunned and lowered her head.

"i, i know." she suddenly stood up and ran back to her room.

lu yinxi had never thought that her aunt would reject her when she asked to borrow money from her.

lu yinxi didn't blame her aunt, but she was still a little unhappy.

Chapter 1119: we're eating skewers on the street children of this age were sensitive. after being rejected by lu ziai, lu yinxi ran back to her room and couldn't help but cry. lu yinxi's house was not far from dragon harbor. after taking a shower, fang zicheng was doing his homework in his study.

he suddenly heard a sigh. it was a familiar voice. it was lu yinxi.

fang zicheng put down his pen, calmed down, and listened carefully to what lu yinxi was saying.

after understanding lu yinxi's troubles, fang zicheng was also a little troubled.

was she so short of money that she had to go to this extent?

the next morning, after the second period, lu yinxi was called to the office by the class teacher during the exercise break last night. "it's like this. our school received news today that an education charity foundation wants to cooperate with our school. "it specializes in helping poor students who have good grades. in your case, you can get my recommendation to apply for a subsidy from this foundation. the highest subsidy is 100000 yuan, and the lowest is 40000 yuan. our school only has five spots in total."

lu yinxi was overjoyed.

however, she heard the form teacher say, " but there is a very strict restriction. " the form teacher's expression was very serious when she spoke of this restriction.

"what restraints?" lu yinxi asked.

the form teacher said, " the foundation has clearly stipulated that all the people who receive their help can be poor in the next ten years, but they must not make any moral mistakes. if they find out that this person has moral issues, not only will they have to return the full subsidy, but they will also have to pay the interest according to the bank loan interest rate."

the form teacher pondered for a moment and said, " in short, the foundation will only help those who really need help and are worth helping. it will never help those students who have good grades but have bad morals. " lu yinxi asked the teacher, " then ... should i agree to this condition? " the form teacher burst out laughing. " of course i agree. " the homeroom teacher asked lu yinxi to prepare some materials after school and bring them to school the next day. she would sign them and then send in the application.

lu yinxi was very interested in this matter. she had been running around for the next few days because of this. it was only when school was about to end that she received her form teacher's approval.

"you've received an allowance of 100000 dollars. the foundation will transfer the money to your bank card in three separate times. lu yinxi, i've given you a chance. you should cherish it." the homeroom teacher loved lu yinxi very much. when she had helped lu yinxi submit the application, she had only thought of giving it a try. she hadn't expected that it would actually work!

lu yinxi hugged her form teacher excitedly. "thank you, teacher lin!"

teacher lin was stunned. he patted lu yinxi's back and encouraged her.

lu yinxi didn't explain.

she took out twenty yuan from her small change bag and threw it into fang zicheng's arms like a rich man throwing money. she said, "take it. i'll treat you to some skewers!"

fang zicheng was speechless.

in the end, they took the 20 yuan and went to a skewer shop to buy 20 yuan skewers. 20 yuan was only a bowl of skewers. the two of them used disposable chopsticks, squatted by the roadside, and ate the bowl of skewers clean.

it was fang zicheng's first time eating this kind of skewers and he thought it tasted good. even though he knew that the skewers were not clean, he still wanted to try the taste of the soup. he took a light sip and found the taste to be pretty good.

"give me some." lu yinxi snatched the disposable bowl over and drank the soup.

fang zicheng noticed that lu yinxi was drinking her soup from the spot where he had taken a sip. he didn't say anything, but he uncomfortably touched his ears, which were a little hot.

after eating the skewers, lu yinxi happily went home and saw that her aunt was home.

she restrained the expression on her face a little, called her aunt, and planned to go back to her room. lu ziai was sitting by the window, smoking. for some reason, she had been smoking more often than before.

"the money is on your bedside table." lu ziai said.

lu yinxi was stunned.

she stood in the middle of the living room and looked at lu ziai. she was still young and not sophisticated enough. she asked lu ziai, " why is aunt willing to lend me money again? " lu ziai exhaled a mouthful of smoke, looking slightly dispirited.

"just think of it as me being in a good mood, so i'm just patronizing a beggar."

she couldn't say it.

she knew that once she said those words, her harmonious relationship with lu ziai would definitely be frozen. her aunt had been at loggerheads with her grandmother for so many years. she didn't even visit her grandmother even when she was dead. it could be seen that she was also a ruthless person.

if lu ziai knew that lu yinxi had money now, she might kick lu yinxi out of the house.

lu yinxi owed her a favor, and her aunt would continue to take her in on account of her pitiful state.

it wasn't that lu yinxi was cheap, but that she was lonely and had no one to rely on. her aunt was her only family. she still cherished this aunt of hers.

"t-thank you, auntie."

lu ziai ignored her.

lu yinxi had saved the money that lu ziai had given her for a fixed period. she planned to use it when she really needed it in the future.

as the end of the year approached, the school began its final exams.

in the first semester of high school, the seats for the final exam were randomly arranged. lu yinxi walked into the exam hall and found her seat. she noticed that the seat diagonally in front of her was empty. it seemed that the student was not in a hurry.

usually, people who were late for exams were mostly people with average academic results. it wasn't until the bell rang that a tall girl walked in.

lu yinxi was stunned when she saw the girl.

it was gu yiqiu, the new school bully.

she had not seen gu yiqiu for a long time. she heard that someone in gu yiqiu's family had passed away and she had gone back to United States. after gu yiqiu sat down, she searched in her pocket and realized that she had forgotten to bring a pen.

she looked around the classroom and finally stopped at lu yinxi. "hey, girl, lend me a pen."

lu yinxi's face was a little red.

'girl ...

she lent her pen to gu yiqiu.

the school bully had a request, and lu yinxi didn't dare to disobey.

gu yiqiu answered the questions very quickly. the first test was english and she was an american student, so it was normal for her to answer so quickly.

there were two exams in the morning, and gu yiqiu had been using lu yinxi's pen the entire time. after the second exam, gu yiqiu returned the pen to lu yinxi. she looked at her and suddenly said, " you've lost weight. " lu yinxi was flattered. "you still remember me?"

"i remember." she smiled, but her next sentence was, " it's hard for me to forget such a silly child like you. "

Chapter 1120: hello, grandpa lu yinxi was not convinced. " how am i silly? " she replied.

" he looks silly, " gu yiqiu said.

lu yinxi didn't want to talk to her anymore. she was afraid that she wouldn't be able to control herself and would hit the school bully.

gu yiqiu stopped teasing her. when she reached the classroom door, she suddenly turned back to look at lu yinxi. " what are you doing now? " lu yinxi asked when she saw her looking over.

"actually," gu yiqiu smiled. it was so f * cking nice. gu yiqiu said, " the way you walk with your head up is better than the way you walk with your head bent. " beautiful girls always walked with their heads down. you're fine like this."

ever since she had met fang zicheng, lu yinxi had tried to walk with her head up. she didn't want to lock herself in that sealed shell anymore. a person who always walked with his head down would never know how beautiful the scenery in front of him was. once you've seen the beautiful scenery of this world, you're no longer willing to look down at the floor and your toes.

when she left the teaching building, she passed by the mirror on the first floor corridor. lu yinxi stared at the girl in the mirror for a long time.

she had really changed.

because she had met a very good boy, she wanted to become better.

gu yiqiu was wearing an oversized white knitted v-neck sweater with a white turtleneck shirt underneath. she was wearing a pair of camel-colored flat boots. although her pants were loose, they still made her legs look long.

her long hair was draped over her shoulders, and the winter wind was blowing on her body, making her hair a little messy. her bangs were raised, and her fair face looked even more beautiful.

she crossed a sakura street and was about to go to the restaurant opposite for lunch. the cherry blossom trees were all bare, but when spring came and everything was revived, the street was especially beautiful.

when the cherry blossoms bloomed, the entire street was filled with a poetic atmosphere.

on the opposite side of the road, there was a tall boy. the boy had black hair and brown eyes, and his appearance was so exquisite that it was breathtaking. he touched the corner of his mouth with a slender finger. "i've finally caught you," she heard that the school bully of no. 8 high school had finally returned from the United States and had even gone to the examination hall today. after his exams, fang zikai did not even have his meal and went straight to gu yiqiu's school. he had met gu yiqiu before he even arrived at no. 8 high school.

he had known about gu yiqiu for more than two months. fang zikai had gone to look for her several times, but he had failed every time. this time, he had finally met her. fang zikai strode across the road and walked to the opposite side.

"hey, gu yiqiu!"

fang zikai pounced on gu yiqiu and hugged her. his red lips were close to gu yiqiu's ear as he asked her in a flirtatious tone, "my dear qiuqiu, guess who i am?"

fang zikai had already thought of how the plot would develop.

gu yiqiu would definitely ask him who he was. he just happened to add, "i'm your future husband."

look at how exciting and romantic it was.

gu yiqiu quickly threw a punch at fang zikai's chest. fang zikai took a step back in pain. he was about to get into a defensive position when gu yiqiu lifted her left leg again.

with a cool sweep, she kicked fang zikai's head. don't be fooled by her pair of slender hands, the wind from her feet was sharp and fierce.

although fang zikai did not fall to the ground from her kick, his body staggered a few times. fang zikai had always heard that the school bully of no. 8 high school was very powerful. in his mind, gu yiqiu was only slightly stronger than the average student.

but this time, he made a mistake!

gu yiqiu was strong, at least stronger than him!

after all, he had been learning from qi bufan for a few years. although he was at a disadvantage just now because he was caught off guard, fang zikai could not be compared to gu yiqiu in terms of ferocity.

fang zikai rubbed his head.

right in front of him, gu yiqiu used her right hand to hit fang zikai's chest and ruffled her black hair. she stared at fang zikai contemptuously, finishing her unfinished sentence.

"my grandson."

fang zikai was stunned.

he was a little dazed after being beaten up. he rubbed his head and connected gu yiqiu's words together. he then understood what she meant.

” i’m guessing you’re my grandson. ” fang zikai wanted to cry.

“i’m here to confess my love to you. why did you hit me?” fang zikai’s tone was aggrieved.

gu yiqiu was stunned when the child, who had just been acting like a hooligan, suddenly changed his clothes and spoke to her in an aggrieved tone. she looked a little helpless.

gu yiqiu stood there in a daze.

fang zikai suddenly gained courage.

he quickly walked over and pressed gu yiqiu, who was still in a daze, against the cherry blossom tree behind her. he leaned over and kissed her.

gu yiqiu came back to her senses.

she widened her eyes and was about to hit him again, but her eyes met fang zikai’s. fang zikai’s eyes were brown and bright, with a hint of grievance in them.

such eyes were familiar.

in gu yiqiu’s memory, there was also a boy who would look at her with this kind of expression when he was wronged and call her boss.

that was her little fatty.

gu yiqiu was distracted and did not push him away.

fang zikai let go of gu yiqiu after he was done kissing her. he pressed his lips against hers and told her, "remember, i'm your boyfriend. i'm your kaikai, not your grandson."

gu yiqiu seemed to have caught onto something.

"kaikai?"

fang zikai's lips curved into a smile, which really gave off the feeling of an evil and charming smile described in novels. "yes, kaikai, fang zikai."

a string in gu yiqiu's mind suddenly snapped.

the little fatty from back then had actually grown so tall and so good-looking.

"you little brat, what did you do to our gu yiqiu just now?!" an angry shout sounded out from behind.

fang zikai turned around in shock and saw a man in a long black windbreaker standing behind him. the man should be quite old, his hair was white. fang zikai did not mishear what he had just said.

our gu yiqiu ...

fang zikai quickly let go of gu yiqiu and greeted the man like a good boy, "hello, grandpa." there was nothing wrong with pretending to be obedient in front of an elder.

major general gu was speechless.

for some reason, gu yiqiu's grandfather's serious face turned even gloomier when he heard what he said.

gu yiqiu held back her laughter and asked the white-haired man, " dad, why are you here? " fang zikai was speechless.

you can add an emoji here, a black man with his head tilted, looking at the camera, and the following words "" can be attached to his head.

what—the—fuck ?

fang zikai was stunned.

this old man was not his grandfather, but his future father-in-law?

fang zikai wanted to die.

"this kid, which school are you from? i'd like to see which school can produce someone like you." fang zikai did not dare to speak, but the school uniform he was wearing betrayed his identity.
