

Ex's Brother 1151

Chapter 1151: not biological lu yinxi was dumbfounded.

she couldn't believe that this was all true.

the girl's fair cheeks were losing all their color at a visible speed. lu ziai stared at lu yinxi's pale face. at this moment, lu yinxi was like a porcelain doll that was about to break. she only needed to knock it lightly, and the porcelain doll would fall apart.

she saw lu yinxi's expression after she learned the truth.

she was indeed very surprised and shocked.

however, lu ziai did not feel the thrill of revenge.

"why?" lu yinxi's mind was filled with questions. she wanted to grab her aunt's clothes, but when she thought about how the person in front of her was the real murderer who had killed her parents back then, lu yinxi wanted to stay as far away from her as possible.

lu yinxi's heart was in pain.

how could the truth be like this?

how could such a good aunt be the murderer of her parents?

"auntie, you're lying to me!" lu yinxi shouted at lu ziai. after she shouted, her own voice cracked, and lu yinxi's tears fell.

she walked toward lu ziai.

she said, "auntie, you're lying to me. you like me and you're my auntie. you can't be a murderer." lu yinxi walked up to lu ziai.

lu yinxi stretched out her hands and carefully tried to hold lu ziai.

lu ziai didn't move, and lu yinxi wrapped her arms around his thin waist.

lu ziai's body stiffened.

she heard lu yinxi cry and beg her. she said, "auntie, i'm begging you to tell me that this is all fake. aunt, you lied to me. yinxi must have done something wrong. you said this on purpose to punish me. auntie, you're not the murderer of my parents, right?"

"they are your brothers and sisters-in-law, how could you kill your own brother?"

lu yinxi would rather die than admit that all of this was true.

she ordered lu ziai to deny this fact.

it was as if she could really pretend that nothing had happened if lu ziai said no.

she was lying to herself.

lu ziai suddenly pulled lu yinxi away from him and pushed her away. lu yinxi took a few steps back, tripped, and fell on her butt.

lu ziai pointed at lu yinxi and shouted in a hoarse voice, " lu yinxi! i'm not lying to you, everything i said is true, i'm the murderer of your parents! you don't believe me?"

lu ziai cruelly recounted the process of killing lu zide and his wife. " let me tell you how i killed your parents! you listen well! it was very cold that night, so i knocked on your door and your mother held your hand to open the door."

"there's an electric grill in your living room, so the house is very warm. you're wearing a pink cloak and your mother told you to call me aunt. you obediently called me aunt and even let me hug you."

"have you forgotten all of this?"

when lu ziai was recounting his crimes, he was calm and composed, and his tone was not flustered. she sounded like she was reading a letter, and there was even a sense of depression and frustration.

in fact, when she had mentioned the pink cloak, lu yinxi knew that lu ziai was telling the truth. she had worn that jacket before. when her grandmother passed away, she had seen it when she was cleaning up the house.

seeing that lu yinxi didn't say anything and just stared at him, lu ziai thought that she still didn't believe him, so he said, " you still don't believe me? i also want to hear how your father died."

lu yinxi suddenly hugged her head and roared, " stop talking! i believe you! i'll believe it!"

she didn't have the courage to seriously listen to how her father was slaughtered again.

lu ziai's lips quivered for a moment, but he did not continue.

there were only the two of them on the wide rooftop. lu ziai stood and lu yinxi sat. neither of them spoke.

lu yinxi sniffled and wiped her tears. she looked up at lu ziai and asked him in a trembling voice, " why did you kill my parents? is it because my father disapproved of you being with that person?"

"bullshit!" lu ziai, who had been calm just now, suddenly became furious.

she was blaming lu yinxi for saying the wrong thing.

lu yinxi trembled at her roar.

lu ziai's words revealed a different message to lu yinxi.

as far as lu yinxi knew, there was no story of grandma hurting wheatley. lu yinxi felt indignant for her grandmother. she said, " when did grandma hurt that person? she wouldn't do that kind of thing."

"you won't?" lu ziai looked like he had heard a joke. " do you think your grandma is a good person? " lu yinxi wanted to say that her grandmother was a good person, but she wasn't sure.

humans were multifaceted.

grandma was good to her, but that didn't mean that she hadn't done bad things in her life.

lu yinxi's silence made lu ziai feel better.

lu ziai stared at lu yinxi with a calm gaze that made lu yinxi's hair stand on end. lu yinxi felt uneasy. she really thought that lu ziai would kill her.

lu ziai suddenly asked lu yinxi, " aren't you curious why a talented woman like your mother would marry your father? "

mrs. lu was born into a family of scholars. her parents were both professors and she was a ballet dancer. on the other hand, the lu family was an ordinary family. when lu zide was young, he wasn't considered a young hero.

they were not of the same social status, so it was indeed a little strange that mrs. lu would marry boss lu.

lu yinxi was confused.

why did her aunt drag her parents 'marriage into this?

lu yinxi shook her head in confusion.

" it's because of your mother. she was born infertile! " lu ziai said.

"you're talking nonsense!" lu yinxi was furious. " if she's infertile, how did i come to be? "

"yup!" lu ziai didn't mind lu yinxi's scolding. she deliberately put on a puzzled expression and asked lu yinxi, " so, how did an infertile woman give birth to a daughter? i'm really curious."

lu yinxi looked at her aunt, and a sorrowful guess flashed through her mind. "i ... am i adopted by them?"

“no, you’re not adopted.”

“then ...?” lu yinxi was completely lost.

since her mother was infertile and she was not adopted, how did she come to be?

Chapter 1152: lu yinxi is that child

” you’re lu zide’s daughter, but you’re not sister-in-law’s daughter. ” lu ziai saw lu yinxi’s expression change. she asked, ” smart little yinxi, have you thought it through? ”

lu yinxi understood what lu ziai had meant. “i’m my father’s daughter?” lu yinxi’s tone was absurd.

was that even possible?

her parents were so loving, would her father have an affair?

that shouldn’t be the case.

lu yinxi’s world view seemed to have been shattered.

if this was true, then she had been living in a scam since she was born.

she didn’t know which word lu yinxi said had triggered lu ziai’s anger, but her expression suddenly turned cold. ” someone else ... ” lu ziai was a little angry at lu yinxi for saying the wrong thing. ” you’ve suffered so much in that life, and you call her ‘someone else’. ” hehe ...”

with a sad smile, lu ziai raised his head to look at the blue sky and asked softly, " will you feel disappointed when you hear this in the underground? " lu yinxi's hair stood on end.

who was his aunt talking to?

who was worthy enough for her aunt to speak to her in such a gentle tone?

lu yinxi had a guess.

could it be that the woman who gave birth to her was her aunt's dead partner?

lu yinxi's heart started to beat faster.

if this was the case ...

at this moment, lu ziai said, " back then, i kept telling the public that wheatley's child was a test-tube baby that we had. however, anyone with a brain knew that it was impossible. they're all guessing that wheatley's child was conceived by a man she had sex with."

"they're all calling me an idiot behind my back, saying that i'm raising someone else's child."

lu ziai said, " actually, i've thought about it before. when wheatley found out that she was pregnant, she wanted to abort the child, but i stopped her. because i want her to give birth to the child, because i want her to raise the child that she got pregnant with after cheating on someone else. i want her to feel guilty towards me for the rest of her life."

"i know i should let go of wheatley. she's already had an affair, she definitely doesn't love me anymore. but i can't do it. i love her so much that i don't care if she cheated on me or fell in love with someone else. i only want her. as long as she's by my side, it's enough."

lu ziai looked like a crazy person when he said this. he was not in a good state.

" i always thought so, until ... " lu ziai's beautiful face showed a touch of pain. " until she jumped off the building and died in front of me, i finally understood that as long as she was alive, i was willing to let her go. but i realized it too late. she's already dead."

"and you ..." lu ziai looked at lu yinxi, and his expression became complicated. she said, " you are that child. " lu ziai had personally confirmed lu yinxi's guess.

lu yinxi had probably suffered too many blows. when she heard the truth, she didn't react too strongly.

lu ziai said, " at that time, i really wanted to throw you to death, but i thought that you were wheatley's only child. i really hated you and loved you at the same time. i want you to grow up healthily, but i can't raise you calmly."

"it just so happened that my brother wanted a child, so he asked me to have you. i thought that since he's my brother and we know each other well, you won't have to face the situation of being abandoned again if you follow him. without knowing the truth, i decided to give you to him."

lu ziai thought of some sorrowful past events and could not bear to continue talking about them.

lu ziai squatted down in front of lu yinxi. she gently touched lu yinxi's eyes. looking at her beautiful eyes, lu ziai's eyes were full of nostalgia and pain.

in a nostalgic and hateful tone, lu ziai said softly, " you know, you look very similar to her, especially your eyes. " lu yinxi didn't dare to move.

she was afraid that lu ziai would burst her eyes if he was unhappy.

"back then, it was because of your eyes that resembled hers that i let you go."

lu yinxi didn't know if she should cry or laugh. it turned out that this was the reason why he was lucky enough to survive.

she remembered that lu ziai had said before that she loved her eyes. lu yinxi then realized what a shocking secret lu ziai was hiding behind his words.

"then, why did you kill my parents?"

"you're still stupid." lu ziai despised her for being stupid, but lu yinxi did not dare to refute. "did you forget what i said just now?" lu ziai said in a strange tone, " you are lu zide's daughter. " when lu yinxi heard her say this again, she was confused for a moment before she figured something out. she was lu zide's daughter, but she was also wheatley's daughter.

what did this mean?

the person wheatley was cheating on was lu zide!

"m-the man she cheated on with is my father?" lu yinxi was really going crazy. her father was such a good man, but he had actually betrayed her mother!

lu yinxi couldn't believe it.

she would rather believe that lu ziai was lying to her.

when lu ziai heard this, her expression suddenly changed and became fierce. "what do you mean by cheating!" lu ziai's eyes were wide open as if she had gone crazy. she pressed her fingers into lu yinxi's eyes.

lu yinxi's eyes hurt. she tilted her head back and dodged lu ziai's attack. lu yinxi pushed lu ziai away and crawled back on all fours.

when she climbed to a safe position, lu yinxi covered her eyes with her hands. her shoulders were trembling because of fear and terror.

lu ziai stood up. she lowered her head and glared at lu yinxi, her eyes full of hatred.

at that moment, in lu ziai's eyes, lu yinxi was not lu yinxi, but lu zide. lu ziai's beautiful face became ferocious, and she cursed, " it's not an affair at all! my wheatley, she's such a good person, how could she have an affair! it's all that bastard lu zide's fault! if he didn't gang up on wheatley with mom, you wouldn't be here!"

the girl, who was curled up on the ground and still trembling, suddenly froze.

lu yinxi thought she had heard wrong.

"what did you just say ..."

lu yinxi was shocked and suspicious. the world had been ruthlessly shattered.

lu ziai was immersed in his sad memories and did not answer her question. lu ziai's expression was sorrowful, and he was also crying.

lu yinxi slowly got up from the ground and staggered to lu ziai. lu yinxi grabbed lu ziai's fingers as if she was holding onto a life-saving straw. she asked again, " you said that my father and my grandmother worked together to rape her? " lu ziai's tears fell silently, and he still did not respond.

lu yinxi's expression also looked like she was crying. she shook her head and asked lu ziai, " aunt, aunt, is what you said true? could there be a mistake somewhere? my grandmother is not that kind of person. she ..."

Chapter 1153: yinxi, come with me to see her

"how is she not!"

lu ziai snapped out of his daze and struggled to shake off lu yinxi's hand.

lu ziai stared at lu yinxi's red eyes and spoke slowly, breaking the strong wall that lu yinxi had built for her grandmother and father in her heart. lu ziai said, " the kind grandma you're talking about deliberately asked wheatley to meet her to punish me for my mistake. she let your kind and honest father ruin her!"

" how is this possible ... " lu yinxi mumbled.

"why is it impossible?"

"a mother who disdains her daughter for losing her face and wants to get her daughter back on the right path. with a man who wished to have his own children, but had a wife who was infertile. with the two of them together, there's nothing they can't do!"

after so many years, lu ziai was still furious at the mention of the past.

she felt guilty towards wheatley!

“wheatley didn’t want to tell me the truth because she didn’t want to see me break up with my family. she’s always thinking about me, but i’ve always blamed her and even forced her to give birth to you, an evil creature!”

“lu yinxi!” lu ziai cried and asked her, “ you’re a disaster! you don’t even know how disgusted i feel when i see you!” at the sight of this child, lu ziai was reminded of the pain that lu zide had inflicted on wheatley.

that was why, even though he knew that lu yinxi wasn’t living well in lu zizun’s house, lu zizun never took the initiative to mention adopting her. she hated her! he hated her to the core!

“don’t touch me, you disgust me!” lu ziai slapped lu yinxi’s hand away, his eyes full of disgust.

lu yinxi’s hand was slapped away. it was as if she had lost her soul. she stood on the rooftop in a daze, and her head was buzzing.

was lu ziai telling the truth?

her one who was always smiling would stuff a warm baby in her bed during winter and coax her to sleep. the kind grandma who would wake up on a cold morning to cook her noodles and fried eggs for her would actually do such a vicious thing?

didn’t they all say that her parents were deeply in love and her father was the most honest and magnanimous?

would honest people commit crimes?

he had thought that he was his parents ‘baby, but he was just an evil child. just ten minutes ago, she had hated lu ziai for killing her parents and deliberately giving her a gift to make her suffer.

however, after she found out the truth, her attitude toward lu ziai became complicated.

she couldn't help but think, if she were lu ziai, would she still be able to watch a 'bastard' like her live in this world?

lu yinxi finally understood why lu ziai's attitude towards her had been so distant all these years.

she hated him, but she also developed feelings for him. she wanted to be good to herself, but when she thought about how her existence was built on the harm wheatley had done to her, she wanted to kill herself.

this explained why his aunt had ruthlessly rejected him when he had asked to borrow money from her last time. she had even said such unpleasant things to him.

lu yinxi wiped the tears and snot off her face.

so what if he knew the truth?

could she kill her aunt?

obviously not.

her father's death was hateful, but if she killed her aunt, her life would be ruined. moreover, she couldn't kill her aunt, and she didn't hate her that much. not to mention, she wasn't even her aunt's match.

however, lu yinxi wouldn't be able to face her aunt anymore.

in this life, she was destined to be alone and without any family.

lu yinxi turned around to leave.

lu zi 'ai noticed that she was about to turn and leave, and her face darkened.

lu ziai's voice came from behind lu yinxi. "where are you going?" lu ziai's voice was cold, and his tone was strange.

lu yinxi felt a chill down her spine.

she turned to look at lu ziai and asked, " what else do you want to say? "

"i said, there's something i want you to do with me." lu ziai was smiling.

just a few seconds ago, the beautiful face in front of her was covered in tears. but in the blink of an eye, a bright smile appeared on her face. lu yinxi stared at her aunt's smile, but her heart slowly turned cold.

she felt cold, so cold that even her bones were shivering.

"do what?"

lu yinxi had a bad feeling.

she reached behind her, but before she could reach for her phone, she heard lu zi 'ai say, " i miss you. come with me to see her. " lu ziai's tone was frighteningly calm. "yinxi, let's go see her."

lu ziai's smile became gentler.

that cold and aloof face, coupled with that smile, looked very strange. she reached out to lu yinxi with a slender but powerful hand. she turned her palm up and said, " yinxi, let's go and see her together. " lu yinxi stared at the hand in front of her.

it was the hand of the grim reaper.

she was still so young. she had not apologized to fang zicheng and had not received all of his gifts. how could she die?

lu yinxi shook her head.

“i don’t want to die!”

she turned around and ran.

lu yinxi had just fallen in the afternoon. when she turned around and ran, she wasn’t fast. she heard lu ziai’s footsteps behind her. a gust of wind passed by lu yinxi’s ears, and a camel-colored shadow flashed by.

lu yinxi watched as lu ziai blocked her way out.

a wave of fear and despair surrounded lu yinxi.

lu yinxi stopped halfway.

lu yinxi thought of fang zicheng and couldn’t help but cry.

she cried as she said, “ auntie, i haven’t apologized to fang zicheng. auntie, let me go down. i want to see fang zicheng! ” her life was a lie. her father was a bad person and her mother was a fake. however, fang zicheng's existence was real.

"aunt."

"let me go see him, alright?"

lu ziai shook his head heartlessly under lu yinxi's gaze. she reached out to lu yinxi again and said, " yinxi, you're her daughter. if i leave and leave you alone in this world, she won't be at ease. "

"yinxi, come with me to see her. i promise you that you won't be lonely on the way with me by your side."

"i don't want to!"

lu yinxi broke down.

she ran toward lu ziai, trying to push him away. she wanted to go downstairs and see fang zicheng.

"if you miss her, you can go find her. i don't want to go!" she only wanted to see fang zicheng and apologize to him. she had been in a relationship with fang zicheng for so long, but she had never told him that she liked him.

the days in the past were so hard, but she had endured it all.

it wasn't easy for her to keep the clouds open and the moon bright, how could she die!

Chapter 1154: tell her that it's beautiful there lu yinxi's struggling and charging had completely angered lu ziai.

lu ziai grabbed lu yinxi's arm and dragged her to the balcony. "she jumped from here," she said as she walked. "she didn't rest in peace."

"we'll leave from here. when you see her, you'll know how similar you two are. "she's a very gentle person. you'll like her ..." in lu yinxi's impression, her aunt had always been a calm and elegant woman.

lu yinxi had rarely seen lu ziai lose his temper.

lu yinxi was really frightened by lu ziai's crazed look.

realizing that lu ziai was really going to take her down with her, lu yinxi was unwilling to accept her fate. she suddenly became bold, and her body was full of strength. lu yinxi bit lu ziai's arm.

lu ziai frowned in pain and stopped talking. she glanced at lu yinxi indifferently. her eyes were quite calm. she was neither angry nor annoyed. she did not let go and let lu yinxi bite her.

lu ziai carried lu yinxi to the edge of the rooftop.

lu yinxi stood on the 12th floor and looked down.

above the main entrance of the hospital for women and children, there was a platform outside the window on the third floor. the words "binjiang city women and children general hospital" were hung on the wall outside the platform. the platform was built in the middle of the building, and both sides were empty.

if he jumped from lu yinxi's position, he would land on the platform.

even so, lu yinxi's legs were still weak from fear.

falling from the 12th floor and falling from the 9th floor did not seem to be much different. he was going to die anyway.

in a panic, lu yinxi took out the old phone from her pocket. she held the old phone and threw it at lu ziai. she used all the strength she had in her life and shouted, " go to hell! if you want to die, then go to hell yourself! " lu ziai's forehead was smashed by the phone seven or eight times, and it was bleeding.

the blood flowed down from her eyes.

lu ziai's vision suddenly turned red.

she suddenly stopped pulling. she was stunned for a moment, then she actually let go of lu yinxi. lu yinxi saw that she had finally let go, but she still didn't dare to let her guard down. she clenched her phone and took half a step back, staring at lu ziai with a guarded expression.

lu ziai wiped the blood off his face.

there was a lot of blood, and it fell down again after he wiped it. lu ziai stopped wiping and let the blood flow. she stared at lu yinxi, and her eyes became gentle. she seemed to be looking at lu yinxi, but lu yinxi knew that she was looking for a familiar shadow on her face.

" she used to say that she wanted to go to Iceland to see the auroras. i didn't have the chance to go with her. " lu ziai's eyes were slightly red. she said to lu yinxi, " go and take a look for us. after you're done, remember to burn some paper in front of her grave and tell her that it's beautiful there ... "

"that's up to you," after lu ziai finished speaking, she jumped off the rooftop.

lu yinxi's pupils contracted. her voice became a little shrill as she shouted, " aunt! " lu yinxi pulled at lu ziai on reflex. she grabbed lu ziai's arm, but lu ziai had already jumped off the roof. the force of the fall pulled lu yinxi along, and the two of them flipped over the fence at the same time and fell.

"ah!"

lu yinxi heard someone scream.

the fall happened in the blink of an eye, and lu yinxi didn't have time to think about anything.

before she landed, someone seemed to have pushed her.

"pa! pa!"

it was the sound of lu ziai falling to the ground. she fell on the empty platform on the third floor, while lu yinxi fell on lu ziai's body.

lu yinxi's head and abdomen were on lu ziai's body. her left leg was on lu ziai's legs, but her right leg was on the ground. as it was falling from a high altitude, the leg bounced again after hitting the ground.

lu yinxi groaned and fainted from the pain.

the third floor was the floor for pregnant women to do their check-up. when they heard the bang, some people looked out and saw that someone had jumped off the building. they were all frightened and screamed. after a few seconds, someone came back to his senses and quickly called the police.

a doctor and a nurse came to a doctor's office on the third floor. they opened the office window and jumped out. they came to the platform, and the doctor first checked their breathing.

a moment later, he said, " the one above is still alive, the one below ... " the woman's head was broken, and her brain and blood were flowing together. the scene was bloody and nauseating.

not even the gods of the great all-embracing heaven could save him.

” quick, send the survivors to the emergency room and prepare for emergency surgery. prepare blood and contact the third people’s hospital. ask them to send a doctor over ... ” the doctors for women and children were mainly responsible for receiving pregnant women and children. the hospital only had gynecology, traditional chinese medicine, infertility, and childrenology. they were also helpless in lu yinxi’s situation.

after a moment of chaos, the doctor from the third people’s hospital arrived.

not long after they arrived, the door of the operating room was opened again.

a group of people in deep sea hospital’s scrubs walked in one after another. the leader was a very handsome middle-aged man. he looked like he was in his forties, but they didn’t know his actual age.

“doctor wei!”

a doctor from the third people’s hospital had once visited wei shuyi’s heart surgery at deep sea hospital. he was surprised to see wei shuyi with a team.

wei shuyi put on his gloves and explained, ” this kid is my good friend’s relative. i’m here to take a look. ” no one asked any more questions.

the doctors from the two hospitals followed wei shuyi’s lead and worked together to carry out the resuscitation operation that lasted for several hours.

contacted wei shuyi and asked him to take the best team of doctors from deep sea hospital to the women and children's hospital to participate in the emergency surgery.

he hung up the phone and told fang zicheng, " the elk is still alive. they're still in the emergency room. " fang zicheng raised his head and stared at fang yusheng. his throat rolled up and down a few times before he growled, " you're not dead? " he was like a person who was struggling at death's door and suddenly revived.

"when she fell, lu yinxi fell on her aunt's body," fang yusheng also felt lucky. "there's still a traffic jam, so you can only run there." fang yusheng patted fang zicheng's shoulder and said, " go on. "

fang zicheng started running toward the highway exit.

fang zicheng really ran on foot to the door of the women's and children's home.

he ran all the way to the women and children's hospital before he dared to stop, panting heavily. at this moment, his face was flushed, his chest was heaving, and his legs were weak.

fang zicheng saw a crowd of onlookers standing outside the hospital. they were all talking about how tragic the situation was and how it was such a pity.

fang zicheng didn't dare to think about how tragic they were talking about.

Chapter 1155: my girlfriend fang zicheng didn't know how bad lu yinxi's physical condition was. at that moment, there was only one thought in his mind.

as long as she was alive, that was all that mattered.

fang zicheng wanted to walk into the hospital, but after taking a step, he realized that his legs were weak. fang zicheng stood where he was and took a deep breath. then, he controlled his weak legs and walked up the stairs alone.

the door to the emergency room was shut tight, so fang zicheng had to wait outside. the emergency room and the delivery room were next to each other. as a young boy, he stood among the family members waiting for the delivery, like a crane in a flock of chickens.

later, fang zicheng squatted by the wall and heard the family members waiting inside. there were adults discussing the fall.

" aiya, that's terrible. the woman fell to the ground and her brain splattered all over the floor. i accidentally saw it and i still feel nauseated until now. my back is still cold. "

" it's a good thing that xiao jie entered the delivery room early. otherwise, if she, a pregnant woman who was about to give birth, saw it, wouldn't she be so scared that her legs would go soft? " she shrugged her shoulders and said, " i keep feeling a chill on my back. " the one who spoke was a middle-aged woman in a red woolen coat. she should be the mother of one of the pregnant women in the delivery room.

fang zicheng's ears twitched as he heard the pregnant woman's husband say to his mother-in-law, " i saw it too. i couldn't see it at first, but i went downstairs to the supermarket to buy a mattress for xiao jie and happened to be in the lobby on the first floor. i saw them carrying the woman out. "

"the stretcher is covered in blood." the man felt a lingering fear when he thought of that scene.

they were probably talking about lu ziai.

fang zicheng raised his head and looked at the two men. " where's the other girl? " he asked.

the two of them looked at him strangely.

ever since fang zicheng entered the family waiting room, he had not said a word. he had been squatting by the wall, silent and strange. when the others were talking, they even deliberately lowered their voices.

he was clearly a young child, but they didn't dare to speak too loudly for fear of disturbing him.

seeing that the unfamiliar young man was asking about the little girl, the shrewd aunt's eyes turned and she guessed that there was something fishy. the middle-aged woman asked him, " that young lady is your friend, right? " fang zicheng nodded his head and admitted to it. " she's my girlfriend. " the middle-aged woman looked at him with pity and pity.

"hey, i saw her when she entered the operating room. when she was being pushed into the operating room, i heard the nurse say that one of her legs was deformed ..."

seeing that fang zicheng's already serious face had turned completely pale after hearing her words, the middle-aged woman could not bear to see it. she quickly added, " but there's no major problem in other parts of his body. his head and heart are not damaged, but i think his legs are a little serious. " fang zicheng ruffled his slightly long black hair.

he thanked the woman and stood up with the help of the wall. he went to the bathroom alone. fang zicheng splashed some cold water on his face. he stared at the disheveled youth in the mirror and felt like crying.

"i'm sorry," she said.

he put his hands on the sink and couldn't help but shed a few tears.

lu yinxi, you'd better survive.

fang zicheng wiped his eyes and patted his face before walking out of the bathroom. when he came out of the bathroom, he saw that fang yusheng and the others were already there.

fang yusheng and the others noticed that fang zicheng had already cried and felt particularly upset. fang zikai walked over and hugged fang zicheng's shoulder. "brother, i'm sorry."

fang zicheng ignored him.

he was in a heavy mood and had no energy to talk to fang zikai.

fang zikai whispered in his ear, "actually, lu yinxi came to see you a few days ago."

fang zicheng, who had turned a deaf ear to his words earlier, suddenly turned his head to look at him when he heard this. "you came looking for me?" fang zicheng did not know about this. "i don't know. she didn't come to see me."

because lu yinxi hadn't come to find him, he had been worried about her. that was why he had gone to find her after school that afternoon, and she had found out. every two hours, lu yinxi would go to dragon harbor to look for him. however, he was afraid of breaking up with her, so he deliberately ignored her and even turned to run away.

hearing this, fang zikai showed an annoyed expression.

seeing this, fang zicheng narrowed his eyes.

"what are you hiding from me?"

fang zicheng's frosty voice exploded in fang zikai's ears and he froze. under fang zicheng's gaze, which was as terrifying as if he could eat someone up, he braced himself and told fang zicheng about how lu yinxi had come to look for him a few days ago, only to be ridiculed by him.

“didn’t you cry that day? who are you? you’re my brother! i’ve never seen you cry before! lu yinxi made you cry, so of course i can’t be angry. so, when the security guard said that lu yinxi was looking for you, i went to see her and told her ...”

everyone in the fang family stared at fang zikai with no expression.

before fang zicheng could say anything, fang yusheng asked, “ what did you say? ” fang zikai’s scalp went numb.

he lifted his head and said in a low voice, “ i said, my brother is not worthy of her. i asked her not to appear in front of my brother in the future ... ” fang zikai was puzzled when he did not hear any response from his family.

he quietly raised his head and saw a few angry faces.

whether it was fang yusheng, qiao jiusheng, or even fang taoran, they all looked at him with disgust. fang zicheng, on the other hand, seemed to be in a daze as he stared at the door of the emergency room without saying a word.

fang yusheng could understand fang zikai’s actions.

it was not wrong for him to defend his brother.

however, the problem was that lu yinxi’s fate was still unknown. if fang zicheng knew about this, he would probably be even sadder. qiao jiusheng chided fang zikai, “ why are you bringing this up at this time? do you have a brain? ” fang zikai touched his head and thought, " my brain was probably eaten by a dog.

just as qiao jiusheng was lecturing fang zikai, a nurse opened the emergency room door and came out. seeing the nurse come out, fang zicheng was the first to go up to her. " how's the patient inside? are you still alive?"

the nurse ignored fang zicheng and hurried out. fang zicheng watched her leave, feeling a little anxious. within two minutes, the nurse returned. she stood at the door of the emergency room and shouted, " are lu yinxi's family members here? " fang yusheng, fang zicheng, and qiao jiusheng stood up at the same time.

the nurse looked at fang yusheng and said, " our hospital's blood bank is out of type B blood. the patient's thigh artery is bleeding too much and needs a blood transfusion. are there any family members with healthy blood type B among you? if there is, come with me to the blood test. if you pass, we'll go in and transfuse blood to the patient."

qiao jiusheng and fang taoran stood up at the same time.

Chapter 1156: what kiss? i want to kiss you home both mother and daughter had blood type B.

both fang zicheng and fang zikai had inherited their father's blood type, A.

qiao jiusheng and fang taoran followed the nurse to do a check-up, and after they passed, they entered the operating room.

for the next few hours, fang zicheng didn't know how he managed to survive. when he recalled the day lu yinxi had an accident, his memory was still blurry.

however, he would never forget the heartache he had felt when he had learned that lu yinxi had fallen off the building on the highway.

the surgery continued until midnight.

from the moment lu yinxi entered the operating room to the end of the surgery, it had been five hours. the first to come out was the doctor from the third people's hospital, and wei shuyi followed behind.

this group of people was quite tired. after all, it was very tiring to operate on lu yinxi for five hours without blinking.

fang yusheng asked wei shuyi, " how's the child? "

"he's still alive," wei shuyi said.

he's still alive and won't die, but his situation might not be good. wei shuyi looked at fang zicheng and asked, " is this lady your girlfriend? " he still remembered how fang zicheng had boasted in front of them that he would marry lu yinxi.

fang zicheng nodded his head.

seeing wei shuyi, fang zicheng seemed to have found his backbone. he grabbed wei shuyi's hand tightly. his face was tense and his voice was cold. he asked wei shuyi, " uncle, how is she? "

"you should be glad that she's still alive after falling from the rooftop."

fang zikai saw that his uncle was sweating and felt very warm. he helped wei shuyi wipe the sweat off his forehead.

wei shuyi took the handkerchief from fang zikai's hand and wiped the sweat on the back of his neck. it was quite uncomfortable.

he returned the handkerchief to fang zikai, shook his tired arms, and continued, " when she landed, the little girl's head, chest, abdomen, and left leg were all on the dead body. fortunately, she was not injured. but for her right leg, due to the great impact of the fall, the kneecap was crushed and fractured. it's broken into nine pieces, and the main artery was also broken. that's why the surgery took longer."

hearing the number from wei shuyi's mouth, fang zicheng felt his heart jump.

the knee cap was shattered into nine pieces. what kind of concept was that?!

"we performed the most advanced fixation technique on her, and there's no bone defect, which is a good thing. for the next few months, the patient had to stay in bed. her legs were in a cast, and she was not allowed to move for the next two months. two months later, if her physical condition allows it, she can get off the bed and slowly try to walk, and then undergo rehabilitation treatment ..."

wei shuyi's words were mainly for fang yusheng. he could tell that fang zicheng was panicking. it was better to tell fang yusheng than to tell him.

fang yusheng remembered wei shuyi's words.

"alright, we'll keep that in mind. you've worked hard."

"since cheng cheng and the others call me uncle, we're a family. we're a family, so there's no need to be so polite." wei shuyi rubbed his stomach and sighed. " i'm starving. did you guys prepare anything for me to eat? " hearing this, fang yusheng and fang zikai were both embarrassed.

seeing the two of them looking at each other awkwardly, wei shuyi scolded them, " your family is so heartless. i'm working so hard for you inside. even if i'm working for you, i can still eat some grass. but you guys ... " wei shuyi pretended to be sad.

fang yusheng then said to fang zikai, " you and ran ran, accompany uncle to eat. i'll stay here with your brother and wait for the elk to come out. your mother needs to recuperate after the blood transfusion. remember to bring a bowl of millet, red sugar, and date porridge back later."

"alright," he said.

fang zikai brought his sister and wei shuyi to eat. when they went downstairs, wei shuyi told fang zikai, " your aunt doesn't have to work tomorrow either ... " fang zikai rolled his eyes and scolded his uncle. " uncle, how can you remember your wife after having a late-night snack? are you trying to show off your love to us two kids? " he was already so old, yet he still liked to show off.

shameless!

fang taoran stuck out her tongue and directly said what fang zikai was thinking, " uncle is shameless, bullying us because we're young and have no partner! " wei shuyi was amused by fang taoran's words.

"call your big sister bao zhu over too."

fang taoran hurriedly said, " okay, okay, okay. little brother, quickly make the call! " wu baozhu was in no. 1 high school. her academic performance was particularly good, and she was also very loyal. she often helped fang taoran solve trivial problems.

fang taoran liked sister baozhu from the bottom of her heart.

fang zikai had to take out his phone and call his aunt, inviting her and sister bao zhu to have supper together. after getting his aunt's approval, fang zikai hung up the phone.

"they're all here."

"that's fine,"

lu yinxi hadn't come out of the operating room yet, so the anesthesia probably hadn't worn off.

fang yusheng patted fang zicheng's shoulder and said, " i'm going to see your mother. you wait here. let me know when the elk comes out. " qiao jiusheng was resting on a temporary hospital bed.

when fang yusheng went to see her, she had already fallen asleep. having just donated her blood, qiao jiusheng's complexion was not ruddy, and her face was slightly pale. fang yusheng saw that the window was open and felt a little cold. he took a few big steps to the front and closed the window before coming to the bed.

a few years ago, qiao jiusheng had fallen in love with a middle-split hairstyle. a while ago, she suddenly had an interest in it and went to do a popular air cushion perming style, as well as an air fringe. after she fell asleep, her bangs covered her eyelashes.

fang yusheng wanted to reach out to remove the strand of hair.

he stretched out his hand and then retracted it. fang yusheng bent down to kiss her on the eyes. before he could do so, qiao jiusheng, who seemed to be asleep, suddenly said, " what are you doing? are you flirting with a girl from a good family? " fang yusheng's lips stopped just a few centimeters above qiao jiusheng's forehead.

he lowered his head and looked at the pair of beautiful eyes that suddenly opened. fang yusheng suddenly laughed and said, " no, it's a good woman. " qiao jiusheng laughed and scolded him, " get lost. i'll always be eighteen. "

"that 18-year-old girl, how are you feeling? are you dizzy?" fang yusheng was worried that she had transfused too much blood and was feeling unwell. qiao jiusheng sat up and wrapped her arms around fang yusheng's waist. " aiyo, aiyo, my head is so dizzy, give me a kiss, " she said coquettishly.

fang yusheng was about to lower his head to kiss her.

the door of the ward was suddenly pushed open.

fang zicheng barged in and saw his father and mother looking like they wanted to make out but had to stop because he had interrupted them. they turned their heads and looked at him.

after a moment of silence, fang zicheng said, " you two kiss first. don't kiss for too long. the elk will come out in a few minutes. daddy, you have to help me send her to the ward. " after that, fang zicheng left the room.

fang yusheng and qiao jiusheng looked at each other.

kiss, or not kiss?

this was a problem.

“kiss?” fang yusheng asked qiao jiusheng.

qiao jiusheng pushed him away.

“what kiss? save it for when we get home!”

“alright,” he said.

Chapter 1157: old ginger is spicier indeed fang yusheng and qiao jiusheng rushed to the emergency room. just then, a nurse came out and said to them, “ get ready, the patient is coming out. get a few more people to carry the patient to the bed. be careful with your movements. ” as she spoke, fang zicheng heard the sound of wheels turning.

he looked behind the nurse and saw another nurse pushing a bed toward the door. the bed sheets were still clean, and they should have been changed in the operating room.

lu yinxi was lying on the bed, covered with a thin quilt. fang zicheng couldn't see her.

the nurse was still talking, but fang zicheng did not seem to hear her. he walked past the nurse and strode to the door to stop lu yinxi.

the nurse who had pushed lu yinxi looked up at fang zicheng. seeing his sad face, she said, “ you can come and see her. ”

fang zicheng hesitated for a moment before he walked around the end of the bed and went to the head of the bed. lu yinxi's head and neck were exposed outside the blanket. her skin was really pale. there was still blood on lu yinxi's head, but it wasn't hers. it must have been from lu ziai's injury when he fell to the ground.

fang zicheng knelt down by the bed.

he reached into the blanket and touched lu yinxi's left hand. it was as cold as a dead person's hand. fang zicheng's heart quivered, and he could not help but tighten his grip on her hand.

"elk." fang zicheng called out to her softly.

lu yinxi shook her head and didn't reply.

"she can hear me?" fang zicheng asked the nurse.

"yes, she's already awake. she even opened her eyes once in the operating room. we'll send her to the ward now. try to talk to her as much as you can in the next two hours. don't let her fall asleep."

fang zicheng stood up immediately.

the nurse was about to push the bed when fang zicheng reached out and grabbed the side of the bed. "let me do it."

"alright."

fang zicheng personally pushed lu yinxi along the way. fang yusheng and his wife stayed by fang zicheng's side the entire time. after entering the ward, fang yusheng went to the next ward and hired two men. the four of them worked together to carefully put lu yinxi on the bed.

qiao jiusheng gave the two men two packs of cigarettes as a token of gratitude for their help.

after sending off the two men, qiao jiusheng returned to the ward.

she saw that fang zicheng kept calling her name by her ear, and her feelings were quite complicated. her son used to be such a cold person, but now he was like a normal person.

fang zicheng said, "elk, it's fang zicheng. can you hear me? the doctor said to keep you awake and not fall asleep."

"if you can hear me, can you just snort?"

the room fell silent for a moment after he finished his question.

"oh ..."

lu yinxi made a muffled sound.

fang zicheng could not help but hold her hand again. "elk, don't be afraid. i'm here with you."

after a while, lu yinxi snorted again.

fang zicheng finally got a little comfort.

however, after he said that he would be here with her, fang zicheng was at a loss for words. he wasn't a talkative person to begin with, so he didn't know what to say. qiao jiusheng noticed fang zicheng's embarrassment and suggested, "should i do it?"

"no," she said.

even if it was an awkward conversation, fang zicheng wanted to keep lu yinxi company.

qiao jiusheng and fang yusheng looked at each other, their faces full of black lines.

aren't storybooks supposed to coax people to sleep?

qiao jiusheng was about to tell fang zicheng to change his way of telling the story, afraid that he would make lu yinxi fall asleep. unexpectedly, lu yinxi's finger, which was held by fang zicheng, pointed slightly.

qiao jiusheng was speechless.

she was wrong.

fang zicheng's voice was in its changing phase and it sounded weird. it was a little hoarse and a little rough. when he started reading storybooks, he was really good at making people fall asleep. qiao jiusheng and fang yusheng were sitting on the sofa when they heard fang zicheng read, " "a long, long time ago, there was a king. the king had many beautiful daughters, and the youngest daughter was the most beautiful and adorable."

"elk, did you hear that?"

lu yinxi tapped her fingers.

" mm. " fang zicheng continued, " there's a huge forest near the palace. there's a huge tree in the forest and a deep pool next to the tree. "

"elk, nod your fingers."

lu yinxi nodded again.

seeing this, qiao jiusheng could not help but click her tongue.

after fang zicheng slowly finished reading the story and the blood transfusion was over, qiao jiusheng, who was not feeling well, fell asleep in fang yusheng's arms. there was also an accompanying bed in the room. fang yusheng carried qiao jiusheng to the bed and put her down.

when qiao jiusheng laid down, she opened her eyes and stared at fang yusheng for a while before she mumbled, " i'm accompanying chengcheng and helping her out. " after she finished speaking, she turned over slightly and fell asleep.

fang yusheng patted her on the shoulder and waited for her to fall asleep before walking to fang zicheng's side.

fang zicheng had finished telling his story, but it was still not the time the doctor had told him to. after general anesthesia, the patient was not allowed to fall asleep for two hours to prevent the patient from having respiratory amnesia due to sleeping for too long under general anesthesia.

once the patient developed respiratory amnesia, he would die.

lu yinxi had barely made it through the surgery and escaped death's door for a while. fang zicheng was especially nervous about these two hours. fang yusheng could feel his son's anxiety. he pressed on his shoulder and said, " let me do the next step. " fang zicheng raised his head and looked at him, a little confused.

fang yusheng said, " let me, her future father-in-law, talk to her. anything i say will make her nervous. " fang zicheng thought about it and found it reasonable.

fang yusheng stood by the bed and said to lu yinxi, " daughter-in-law. " lu yinxi's hands trembled.

fang yusheng continued, " when you're better, i'll let you get engaged to our chengcheng. " lu yinxi's eyelids started to tremble.

fang yusheng said, " if you fall asleep, cheng cheng will fly away and be in love with someone else. " lu yinxi suddenly grabbed fang zicheng. although she didn't use much strength, it was enough to surprise him.

fang zicheng was amazed.

it can even be like this?

fang yusheng talked nonsense with lu yinxi. no matter what he said, lu yinxi would respond to him.

fang yusheng was pleased with himself. he lowered his head and gave fang zicheng a smug look. " this is much more useful than your story. " fang zicheng was silent for a moment, which was rare. he was convinced and said to his father, " daddy is amazing. "

"ah, that's why i say that the older the ginger, the spicier it is."

not long after, fang zikai returned alone. he was carrying a few boxes of food in his hand. they were supper for fang yusheng and the other two.

Chapter 1158: let's do something interesting fang yusheng saw him come in with a box of food, but fang taoran was not behind him, so he asked fang zikai, " have you sent your sister back? "

"no, i asked grandpa to pick her up." fang zikai couldn't bear to let fang taoran stay up all night in the hospital, so he let her go home.

nodding his head, fang yusheng felt that fang zikai did the right thing. he said, " it's not early anymore. ranran still has to study tomorrow, so she should go back and rest early. " it's not good for girls to sleep late.

hearing this, fang zikai made a disdainful "tsk" sound while setting up the tableware. he looked up at fang yusheng and said unhappily, " ranran still has to study tomorrow ... don't forget, your little baby, i also have to study tomorrow. " ran ran should go back and rest. he deserved to stay up all night, right?

although fang zikai himself thought that fang taoran should go back and rest, hearing his father's words, he turned into a little vinegar jar that loved to get jealous.

it's just a daughter, isn't a boy a child too?

who was not a baby?

fang yusheng glared at fang zikai, and the kaikai brand vinegar jar was knocked over again. fang yusheng didn't know whether to laugh or cry, but his face was indifferent. " it's getting late. prince kaikai, you should go back to bed, " he suggested to fang zikai.

fang zikai stared at lu yinxi on the bed and didn't say anything.

he was actually feeling very guilty.

this was because lu yinxi was still alive. if lu yinxi were to die, fang zikai would probably feel guilty towards his brother for the rest of his life. if he had known, he wouldn't have said those words to lu yinxi. he would have told his brother that lu yinxi had come to find him.

therefore, he could not leave.

"why are you leaving? there's no car!" fang zikai was lying through his teeth.

the nights in binjiang city were full of red and green lights, so there was no lack of cars. but fang yusheng didn't expose fang zikai's stubbornness. fang zikai placed a bowl of warm lean meat porridge in front of fang zicheng. "brother, have something to eat."

"yes."

after learning that lu yinxi was fine, fang zicheng gradually returned to normal.

when it was time to eat, he would eat. when it was time to sleep, he would sleep. he had to take good care of himself before he had the right and opportunity to take care of lu yinxi. seeing that his brother could still eat properly, fang zikai heaved a sigh of relief.

this was also good. her brother's relationship was colder than the average person's, and it was quite convenient sometimes.

if it were anyone else, they would definitely not want to eat, die, or sleep at this moment, and make people worry about them.

after staying up for more than two hours, lu yinxi really couldn't take it anymore and fell asleep. the doctor came to check on her condition. seeing that everything was normal, fang zicheng and the others were relieved.

lu yinxi hadn't woken up yet, so the family members should rest more.

fang zicheng listened to the doctor, ate his meal, and went to sleep.

fang yusheng raised his eyebrows. this child had been so worried about lu yinxi that her legs had gone weak, but now she could eat and drink. should he feel lucky or helpless?

fang zicheng hadn't even closed his eyes for half an hour before he was woken up by lu yinxi's uncontrollable screams.

he raised his head and stared at lu yinxi on the bed.

the anesthesia wore off, and lu yinxi's body regained its senses. her seriously injured leg was in so much pain that she wished she was dead. she pulled the bed sheet and moaned.

seeing that she was in pain, fang zicheng could not fall asleep.

"elk! i'm here."

fang zicheng saw lu yinxi pulling at his hair and felt very uncomfortable. he held lu yinxi's hands tightly to stop her from torturing herself. "elk, it's alright. you've saved your life. you have to endure it. after a few days, you'll be fine. " lu yinxi heard him.

however, she was really upset. she used a heartbreaking tone to call fang zicheng's name. "fang zicheng, i'm in so much pain. " my leg hurts so much, it hurts so much that i want to die."

fang zicheng was also anxious.

he asked fang yusheng, "dad, can you give her some painkiller? "

“i’ll go ask the doctor.”

fang yusheng left the ward in a hurry.

a moment later, he returned with a nurse in a pink coat behind him.

” you can’t take too much of this painkiller, ” wang yao said. ” you can only take it twice a day. it’s not very effective for people who have just finished surgery. ” after the nurse made things clear, she fed lu yinxi the painkillers.

although the painkiller wasn’t very effective, lu yinxi didn’t cry for her parents anymore.

she only snorted softly.

qiao jiusheng was also awoken by lu yinxi.

fang yusheng used the microwave to heat up qiao jiusheng’s supper. after watching her eat, he let her continue to rest. lu yinxi did not sleep for the rest of the night. fang zicheng and fang yusheng did not sleep either.

after daybreak, lu yinxi’s injuries were so painful that she was numb. she fell asleep.

fang zicheng asked fang yusheng to sleep on the accompanying bed while he went to buy breakfast.

the first few days of lu yinxi’s surgery skills were spent in pain. he only felt slightly better after a week. fang zicheng went to no. 8 high school to apply for a temporary leave of absence for lu yinxi. he also applied for a long leave of absence.

he wanted to take care of lu yinxi himself.

under the fang family's recommendation, lu yinxi was transferred to deep-sea hospital. the conditions of deep-sea hospital were better than that of women and children. lu yinxi received better care and treatment there.

on a certain day in the second week after lu yinxi's surgery, fang zicheng went home after feeding lu yinxi breakfast. he only came over when it was almost noon. he had changed into clean clothes and cut his long hair shorter. he must have gone home to take a shower and went to the barbershop.

fang zicheng was carrying things in both hands. in his left hand was a food box, and in his right was a school bag.

lu yinxi didn't feel bored anymore when she saw him.

"what are we having today, fang zicheng?"

what lu yinxi looked forward to the most was her lunch every day.

lunch was made by grandmother lisha. her cooking skills were very good, and lu yinxi loved the food she made. fang zicheng laid out the dishes. as expected, they were all nutritious, looked, and smelled good.

lu yinxi was full. she lay on the bed and rubbed her stomach.

she couldn't get out of bed yet, so she could only digest the food like this.

"it's so boring!"

lu yinxi said.

fang zicheng glanced at her and asked, "are you bored?"

"yes."

after some thought, fang zicheng said, " then let's do something interesting. " lu yinxi thought that fang zicheng wanted to play games with her or do something else.

"what?"

she saw fang zicheng open the small dining table by the wall and place it on lu yinxi's bed. then, he opened his bag and took out an olympiad math book. he placed it on the table in front of lu yinxi.

fang zicheng sat down on the lower left of the high stool beside lu yinxi. he handed her a pen and a notebook and said, " come, let's do the math questions. " even if he was injured, he could not neglect his studies.

lu yinxi said in her heart, "this is the man i chose. no matter how strange and unromantic he is, i have to pamper him!"

she took the pen and began to do the math questions that fang zicheng had carefully selected.

Chapter 1159: you can kiss me however you want lu yinxi wasn't a very smart child. fang zicheng had chosen the math questions for her that he thought were relatively easy. but even so, lu yinxi still wouldn't do it.

fang zicheng taught her from the side, but lu yinxi couldn't understand even after a long time.

in the end, fang zicheng had no choice but to say, " if i teach you a question three times and you still can't solve it, i'll kiss you. " after some thought, he said, " if you can do the question i've explained to you before and i give you a similar question, but you can't do it, i'll kiss you. " fang zicheng thought that lu yinxi would be frightened by his shameless request.

he didn't know that lu yinxi was even more shameless than him.

lu yinxi said, " then i don't know any of them. i'll let you kiss me however you want. " she moved her face closer to fang zicheng and tapped her cheek with her finger. " you can kiss me here. "

fang zicheng was speechless.

his mouth was dry from listening.

"shameless." he dropped his pen, got up, and left the ward. he went to the vending machine to buy a bottle of mineral water. he only calmed down a little after drinking half of the water.

in fang zicheng's mind, lu yinxi had always been a shy person. how could she have completely let herself go after an accident?

lu yinxi smiled as she watched fang zicheng run away. she closed the math olympiad question in front of her and picked out a classic storybook from fang zicheng's bag by the bedside table.

she had just finished reading two pages when someone knocked on the door three times.

lu yinxi looked up at the closed door in surprise.

fang zicheng didn't need to knock when he came in. if it was the nurse or the other members of the fang family, they would open the door and come in even after knocking. the person outside was obviously waiting for his permission.

who was it?

lu yinxi raised her voice and asked, " who is it? "

"i'm fang shan." it was also a young voice, but it sounded more mature than fang zicheng's.

fang shan?

fang shan seemed to have guessed that lu yinxi didn't know who he was. outside the door, he explained, " i'm xiao cheng's cousin. " lu yinxi let him in.

the door was pushed open from the outside, and the young man who walked in was about the same height as fang zicheng. his build was similar, and even his peach-shaped eyes looked similar. however, fang zicheng's eyebrows were gentler, while this young man's eyebrows were sharper, giving off a dignified and arrogant feeling.

lu yinxi noticed that the young man was holding a fruit basket.

fang shan smiled at lu yinxi. when he smiled, his serious expression seemed a little gentler. "you're yin xi, right? i've heard big uncle mention you before."

after understanding that the uncle he was referring to was fang yusheng, lu yinxi felt a little embarrassed.

"i am."

seeing fang shan put down the fruit basket, lu yinxi said, " have a seat. do you want some water? there are disposable cups here. the hot water is in the teapot. " i can't get out of bed, so i'll have to trouble you to pour it yourself."

"i'm really a little thirsty." after he finished speaking, he got up to pour a glass of hot water. he held it and took a sip slowly.

lu yinxi didn't know if fang shan was thirsty or not, but she didn't feel so embarrassed when fang shan was drinking from a cup. the room was silent for a moment. lu yinxi then said, " fang zicheng went out just now. he should be back soon. "

"what did you do?" fang shan was just asking.

however, lu yinxi remembered how she had teased fang zicheng a few minutes ago.

she tried her best not to blush and said, " maybe he went out for some fresh air. " they weren't familiar with each other at all, so naturally, they had nothing to say to each other. even their conversations were awkward. fang shan had come to visit her because of fang zicheng, but fang zicheng was not here in person, so lu yinxi and fang shan were both very embarrassed.

"i see."

every time fang zicheng left lu yinxi alone in the ward, he would activate his power so that lu yinxi could call for him if she needed anything.

fang zicheng was standing in front of the vending machine in a daze when he suddenly heard lu yinxi calling him back.

fang zicheng thought that lu yinxi was going to the toilet, so he quickly went back to get someone to help her. he walked to the door of the ward and looked inside. when he saw fang shan sitting in the room, he finally understood what lu yinxi meant.

“brother shan,” since young, fang zikai had been calling fang shan “brother shan,” but fang zicheng called him “brother shan.”

fang zicheng walked in and saw the fruit basket on the cabinet. he knew that he was here to visit lu yinxi. he walked to fang shan’s side and brought over a stool. he asked, “ your school doesn’t have classes today? ” fang shan said, “ let’s go. i took a taxi here after class. ” fang shan was in the same school as fang zicheng. he was in his third year of high school and was about to take the college entrance examination. it was a rare thought that fang zicheng might not have eaten yet. “ i’ll call for delivery. we’ll leave after dinner. ”

fang zicheng went to the window to make a call.

fang shan suddenly said, “ he has really changed a lot. ” lu yinxi realized that fang shan was talking about fang zicheng. she also felt that fang zicheng was more approachable than when they had first met. lu yinxi asked fang shan, “ what was he like in the past? ” fang shan said, “ you’ll never imagine that he could stay silent for an entire day in school. our school has a primary school, junior high school, and senior high school section. out of nearly ten thousand students, he only has one friend.”

after a pause, fang shan continued, “ that friend of his is a weirdo with a very high iq. he’s a weirdo who doesn’t want to speak all year round. ” lu yinxi was shocked.

“i only have one friend!” she thought of herself a few years ago. before she met wan yuting, she had almost no friends. after getting to know wan yuting, she gradually became familiar with her friends. now, she was a lot more cheerful, and she would make more friends in the future.

“and in the past, he never ate outside except when he went out for dinner with his family. i was really surprised when he said he would order takeaway for me.” however, he was good at controlling his expression. even if he was surprised, he would not show it on his face.

lu yinxi almost blurted out that she had treated fang zicheng to spicy hot pot.

but when the words reached her mouth, she stopped.

now that she thought about it, when she treated fang zicheng to spicy hot pot, he must have been disgusted. the takeaway arrived very quickly. it arrived in less than half an hour after fang zicheng ordered it.

fang shan wasn't a picky eater. after he was full, he packed the takeaway boxes into a bag and even brought the trash can along with him when he left.

fang zicheng personally sent shan out of the hospital.

a few minutes later, fang zicheng returned from sending her off. he saw lu yinxi playing with his phone. he walked over and snatched the phone away. “ it's time for an afternoon nap. ” fang zicheng was a person with a strong sense of work and rest. when it was time to sleep, he would not allow lu yinxi to play with her phone.

lu yinxi was chatting with wan yuting, gossiping about fang zicheng's handsome cousin when his phone was suddenly snatched away. lu yinxi stuck her tongue out at fang zicheng and thought to herself, you're so overbearing.

Chapter 1160: the huckster said,“you will die” fang zicheng covered her with the blanket. " i don't care. i have to sleep. " when he got up, he found lu yinxi staring at him with her big eyes. he could tell that lu yinxi had something to say. " it's almost 1:40. what do you want to say? i'll give you two minutes. " lu yinxi quickly took fang zicheng's hand and asked, " i heard that you've never eaten takeaway outside. why didn't you refuse me when i treated you to spicy hot pot last year? " fang zicheng was silent for a while before he said, " don't you know why? " lu yinxi chuckled and said slyly, " you like me. " the corners of fang zicheng's lips curled up. " yes, you've become smarter this time. "

lu yinxi's heart was filled with sweetness.

on the other hand, after fang shan left the hospital, he wanted to take a taxi back to school. however, deep sea hospital's business was really hot, and there was a lot of traffic. if they wanted to hire a car, they had to wait in line for a long time.

fang shan wanted to take a taxi online, but the system was under maintenance and would only be restored tomorrow.

he cursed at his bad luck and planned to walk a little further and take a taxi when he reached a less crowded place. he crossed the road and walked to the left. he had to take the bus in this direction to get back to school.

the street around deep sea hospital was bustling with people.

fang shan walked for a few minutes and saw many fortune-telling stalls under the big trees on the sidewalk. those fortune-tellers all had their own skills. there were those who read fortunes using their palms, those who read fortunes using their facial features, and those who read fortunes using their eight characters and finger size.

fang shan saw that there were really people sitting on the stools in front of the fortune-tellers and listening to them explain fate. he found it funny.

as for those fortune-tellers, they were all old people. some of them had white beards on their mouths, and they looked quite sage-like. fang shan cursed them in his heart.

it was said that this street was called the street of fortune-tellers because there were too many fortune-tellers.

the street of fortune-tellers was quite long. as fang shan walked, he saw no less than 40 fortune-tellers. some fortune-tellers had booming business, while others had no customers.

finally, he was about to walk out of this street of quacks.

fang shan noticed that there was a young man wearing a mask and a cap at the end of the street. he was wearing a white t-shirt and jeans, and a pair of fake converse shoes. the shoes had been there for a long time, but they were very clean.

there was also an introduction board in front of the young man with the words "" written on it.

exclusive fortune-telling, refund if not allowed.

the words were small and there were two qr codes. one was for alipay and the other was for wechat. fang shan sneered and was about to walk past him. just then, the masked young man suddenly called out to him, " come here. " fang shan stopped in his tracks.

he tilted his head to look at the young man and asked, " you're calling me? "

"i'm calling you."

fang shan stood where he was. he did not go over, but he did not leave either. he asked the young man, " what do you want? "

"i'll read your fortune." the young man said.

fang shan's eyes flashed with a hint of mockery. fang shan said, " i don't believe in this. "

the young man said again, " i don't take money. "

"that doesn't count."

the young man said, " alright, i'll take the money. if i'm right, you can come back to pay. how about it?"
the young man looked up at fang shan, his gaze sharp.

fang shan was stung by his gaze.

in the end, he still lifted his legs and walked forward.

the young man stared at his back, his eyes full of shock and doubt. after fang shan took seven or eight steps forward, the young man's voice suddenly came from behind him.

"don't take the taxi with the number ending with 83."

when fang shan heard this, he stopped in his tracks.

" you will die, " the man said.

fang shan's expression changed.

he turned back to look at the fortune-telling young man and suddenly became interested. he turned around and walked back. he looked down at the young man. fang shan said, " how dare you say that? " the young man knocked on his signboard with the wooden stick in front of him. " i'm a fortune-teller, i was born with it. " fang shan looked at the sign and realized that beside the big words, there were a few smaller words:

he had the innate fortune-telling ability and was taught by a famous teacher.

fang shan chuckled and said, " let's wait and see. "

he turned around and left. this time, he left without any mercy. after fang shan left, the young man raised his head again and stared at fang shan's back as he walked further and further away. his adam's apple bobbed, and he lowered his head to play with his phone.

when he saw that he only had 29 yuan left in his savings, he wanted to look up and roar.

on the other end, fang shan was posting on his moments as he walked.

fang shan, [i met a big hoodwinker today. he told me not to take a taxi with the number ending with 83, or i'll die.]

his friends and classmates all jumped out and left comments.

classmate A: " awesome! where did this god come from? i'll go and ask him too. " classmate B: " amazing, brother shan. i'll wait for the news of your death. " classmate C said, [you make it sound like it's real. i almost believed you ...]

fang shan read their comments while replying to them. seeing that there were fewer people queuing for a taxi at this stop, he stood behind a young couple and waited in line for a taxi. fang shan replied to classmate A, "fraud street, the oldest one."

however, student B was a man.

just as fang shan was about to reply to classmate C, he heard the couple say, " the car is here. driver, the two of us are going to no. 8 high school. " no. 8 high school was on the way to xiangjiang international college. fang shan put away his phone and said to them, " i'm going to xiangjiang international college. let's go together. " when the couple heard that he was going to xiangjiang international college, there was no reason for them to disagree. this place was quite far from no. 8 high school. if he took a taxi there and charged by the meter, it would probably cost more than 100 yuan.

with one more person, they would pay less than ten yuan.

"then let's go together."

"alright," he said.

the three of them got into the car. the couple sat in the back while fang shan sat in the front passenger seat. he fastened his seat belt and turned around to see the driver changing the broadcast channel. fang shan subconsciously looked at the driver's introduction plate on the driver's seat. his surname was hu.

he was about to look away when his eyes suddenly froze on the car plate number.

bin A. 3T083。

qingqing-don't take the taxi with the last number 83.

the words of the young quack suddenly appeared in fang shan's mind. indeed, he did not believe in such things, but he just so happened to get into a taxi with the number ending with 83.

the car started and fang shan started to sit on the carpet.

if a car had an accident, it was either because the car itself had a problem, or the driver had caused the car to lose control. in addition, there were external factors. fang shan observed the driver. the driver did not reek of alcohol and he seemed to be in good spirits. he was not drunk driving, nor was he driving out of fatigue.

then it could only be the other two situations.
